

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 1 1Q 2010

By Their Fruit

As you read the lesson this week are there any issues that you want to be sure we cover?

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “One of the most...” thoughts? How do we abide in Christ? What does it mean to abide in Christ? What have you found effective in your ability to abide in Christ? What interferes with our ability to abide in Christ?

Let’s keep these questions in mind as we study the lesson this week.

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph? Thoughts? How can we tell if we have received the Holy Spirit? What evidences would you cite as confirmation that the Holy Spirit has come into your life or another life?

- A change in life focus? How? Less self-centered and more other-centered.
- Loving others, compassion, tenderness, kindness, gentleness, humbleness, altruism, patience.
- Improved wisdom
- Improved reasoning ability
- Open mindedness, willing to evaluate opinions and ideas that differ from your own without bias and prejudice
- More tolerance for those different than us and those who have not yet come to Christ i.e. loving our enemies
- Love and hunger for the truth and willingness to change one’s beliefs based on evidence and truth
- Application of God’s methods to one’s life – healthier relationships and physical lifestyle

- Become a caretaker of God's planet (including animals) rather than an exploiter -
- Purposely choose actions to maintain the health of the Spirit temple - ??? moving toward a plant based diet if a healthy plant based diet is available?
- Using your time and resources to promote the love of your heart – Jesus Christ!

Is it necessary to speak in tongues to have had the life filled with the Holy Spirit? Does the Holy Spirit sometimes manifest through speaking, as Acts describes the gift of tongues, in one language and a mixed audience hears in a variety of languages? Certainly!

Does Satan ever try and counterfeit the movements of the Spirit of God? How? What might that look like?

- But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Galatians 5:22.23

What is the last fruit of the Spirit? Self-governance or self-control, counterfeit movements of the spirit will frequently cause some loss of self-governance. This can be by emotional experiences in which the person flops on the floor, yells hysterically, barks like a dog, or other aspects in which the higher cortical functions have been turned off and the lower emotional centers are in control.

Satan wants to destroy the image of God in man. James tells us he tempts us through our desires or feelings. Jesus tells us that truth sets free (John 8:32), but truth cannot enter the mind if we are too emotional to think.

Another way the false spirit works is to get people to surrender self-control to another, hypnotism, mesmerism, surrendering thinking or judgment to authority figures, following blindly a person in charge.

Also movements of a false spirit tend to diminish the investigation of truth and evidence, which is the opposite of God's Spirit.

- For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light ⁹ (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth) ¹⁰ and find out what pleases the Lord. ¹¹ Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. ¹² For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. ¹³ But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, ¹⁴ for it is light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said: “Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.” Eph 5:8-14

We are not to be in the dark – we are children of light, children of enlightenment, children of truth, thinkers not mere reflectors of other men’s thoughts.

God is infinite and each person is to have their own unique and personal relationship with Him. Each of us, as we know God for ourselves and He reveals Himself through us, through the fruits of the Spirit, become like facets on a diamond, windows into the heart of God. We become His Temple, radiant, pure and holy! This is why we fellowship together so that we may, through each other’s vantage point, experience a relationship with God ever drawing closer in our own experience.

But this requires each of us to think for ourselves, reason for ourselves and weigh the issues for ourselves coming to our own conclusions!

When we think about fruits of the Spirit, what manifestations are the easiest to counterfeit?

Read last paragraph – “Being a true Christian...” thoughts?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? Any definitions for good?

The dictionary had 58 different definitions for the word good, 41 adjectives, six nouns, one interjection, one adverb, nine idioms. The definition that best fits our usage is:

- morally excellent; virtuous; righteous; pious: a good man

But other definitions may be important as we answer the remaining questions such as:

- satisfactory in quality, quantity, or degree: good health.
- of high quality; excellent.
- well-behaved: a good child.

Can evil people do satisfactory quality and quantity of work? Can they get “good” report cards and job performance reviews? Does that mean they are “good”?

Can evil people produce high-quality and excellent products or performances – even sermons? Does that mean they are good?

Can evil people be well behaved socially? Does that mean they are good?

Can evil people be righteous, moral, and virtuous? No, what about pious? Yes!

So a person can do good and not be good,

Can a person who is good in heart, Christlike in character avoid doing good? Can a genuinely good person get poor grades or sub-par job performance evaluation? Would it be because of a lack of diligence, effort, heart desire to do good or because they are attempting some class or task they are either not prepared for or capable of?

What does all of this tell us about becoming a fruit inspector? Is it appropriate? When and why?

- When deciding someone’s fitness for church office?
- When deciding on your life partner?
- When deciding on a nanny for your child?

THURSDAY

Read top paragraph, "Between 1730 and 1745..." thoughts?

Here is an excerpt from Jonathan Edwards Sermon preached July 8, 1741:

Consider this, you that are here present, that yet remain in an unregenerate state. That God will execute the fierceness of his anger, implies, that he will inflict wrath without any pity. When God beholds the ineffable extremity of your case, and sees your torment to be so vastly disproportioned to your strength, and sees how your poor soul is crushed, and sinks down, as it were, into an infinite gloom; he will have no compassion upon you, he will not forbear the executions of his wrath, or in the least lighten his hand; there shall be no moderation or mercy, nor will God then at all stay his rough wind; he will have no regard to your welfare, nor be at all careful lest you should suffer too much in any other sense, than only that you shall not suffer beyond what strict justice requires.

The misery you are exposed to is that which God will inflict to that end, that he might show what that wrath of Jehovah is.

It is everlasting wrath. It would be dreadful to suffer this fierceness and wrath of Almighty God one moment; but you must suffer it to all eternity. There will be no end to this exquisite horrible misery. When you look forward, you shall see a long for ever, a boundless duration before you, which will swallow up your thoughts, and amaze your soul; and you will absolutely despair of ever having any deliverance, any end, any mitigation, any rest at all. You will know certainly that you must wear out long ages, millions of millions of ages, in wrestling and conflicting with this almighty merciless vengeance; and then when you have so done, when so many ages have actually been spent by you in this manner, you will know that all is but a point to what remains. So that your punishment will indeed be infinite.

Do you find this sermon presents the “truth about the awful weight of sin, the attitude of an infinitely holy God toward sin, and the surety of a day of judgment”?

Let’s consider another Christian writer and speaker who came about 100 years after Jonathan Edwards. Ellen White and her perspective on sin and God and judgment:

- We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

Does this sound like the same God?

- Could those whose lives have been spent in rebellion against God be suddenly transported to heaven and witness the high, the holy state of perfection that ever exists there,-- every soul filled with love, every countenance beaming with joy, enrapturing music in melodious strains rising in honor of God and the Lamb, and ceaseless streams of light flowing upon the redeemed from the face of Him who sitteth upon the throne,-- could those whose hearts are filled with hatred of God, of truth and holiness, mingle with the heavenly throng and join their songs of praise? Could they endure the glory of God and the Lamb? No, no; years of probation were granted them, that they might form characters for heaven; but they have never trained the mind to love purity; they have never learned the language of heaven, and now it is too late. A life of rebellion against God has unfitted them for heaven. Its purity, holiness, and peace would be torture to them; the glory of God would be a consuming fire. They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is voluntary with themselves, and just and merciful on the part of God. Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable. GC 542

Thoughts?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? Analogy of having pneumonia, we are not cured by working not to cough and taking cold baths to keep the fever down. We are cured by taking the remedy which we did not create and the remedy does something in us we cannot do for ourselves. But when we take the remedy the fever does subside and the coughing remits. Likewise we did not procure the remedy to sin, Jesus did. When we trust God the Holy Spirit takes what Christ achieved and reproduces it in us a work we cannot do by ourselves. But, just like the antibiotics prescribed by the doctor, we must take them, follow the doctors instructions, meet the doctor for appointments etc. And when we do the symptoms of sin will also remit and lives will be changed.

MONDAY

Read John 15:1-5

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ² He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes^a so that it will be even more fruitful. ³ You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. ⁵ “I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

Thoughts? How do we connect to Christ? How do we stay connected? How do we grow and produce fruit?

^a The Greek for prunes also means cleans.

What disconnected us (humanity) from God? Lies told by Satan that we have believed.

God designed us for adaptation – we actually change physically, neurologically and genetically based on life experience including based on the beliefs we hold.

We have power over what we believe, but our beliefs have power over us!

- When given a placebo we believe will benefit us the brain releases endorphins and dopamine which makes us feel good.
- When we believe something bad has happened, taken a toxin, heard bad news, told we are cursed and will not get well, the brain stops the release of dopamine and endorphins and increases cholecystokinin which causes pain and dysphoria.
- The continued belief in something negative fires the amygdala, generates fear, elevates stress hormones, activates immune system, increases inflammatory cytokines which damage neurons, glia, synaptic signaling increasing mental illness and autoimmune diseases
- One study found that women who believed they are particularly prone to heart attack are nearly four times as likely to die from coronary conditions than other women with the same risk factors.
- In November 1998, a teacher at a Tennessee high school noticed a "gasoline-like" smell, and began complaining of headache, nausea, shortness of breath and dizziness. The school was evacuated and over the next week more than 100 staff and students were admitted to the local emergency room complaining of similar symptoms.

After extensive tests, no medical explanation for the reported illnesses could be found. It was the nocebo effect on a grand scale, says psychologist Irving Kirsch at the University of Hull in the UK. "There was, as far as we can tell, no environmental toxin, but people began to feel ill."

In Jordan in 1998, 800 children apparently suffered side effects after a vaccination and 122 were admitted to hospital, but no problem was found with the vaccine.¹

What we believe has power over us – what belief changed in the Garden of Eden? Satan lied about God. Last quarter we just explored the metaphor of the OT sanctuary. What in the system symbolized Satan's lies?

The veil in the temple, consider the following:

- The High Priest walked in and out of the Most Holy Place despite the veil – The veil did not prevent Him from seeing God's glory unobstructed – Christ of course is the High Priest who is in heaven and unobstructed in His knowledge of the Father.
- The daily priests represent the priesthood of believers, who ministry the remedy to the world, represented by the blood. The daily priests would go in and out of the Holy Place but in the Holy Place as they looked toward the place God's presence appeared and longed to see Him something was in the way, what? The veil – and what was on the veil? Angels – a veil separating believer from God emblazoned with angels. Now, which angels are working to separate us from God? Satan and his host. And how do they separate us from God? By lying and getting us to believe lies:
 - For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴ The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵ We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2Cor 10:3-5

¹ New Scientist May 2009

When Jesus died on the cross what happened to the veil? It was rent? What does this symbolize? The way to God, which Satan had obstructed, was now open. We can again see the truth about God! The lies of Satan have been completely and utterly refuted through the life and death of Jesus Christ!

- And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God...⁶ For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. 2Cor 4:3,4,6

The good news about God is veiled or obstructed in the minds of unbelievers by the god of this age, who is Satan – how? By telling lies about God! But Jesus is the glory or light of God and has made His true nature and character to shine in our hearts and given us “the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ!”

So we read in 2Cor 3:18, when the truth has removed the lies, and remember the lies are represented by the veil, so when the veil is removed we are no longer blinded by the lies of Satan:

- And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect^a the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit. 2Cor 3:18

Thoughts? Our faces are unveiled which mean what? We see the truth about God as revealed in Jesus. And then what happens? Very interesting Greek used for the word translated “reflect”. It actually means to behold in a mirror, thus other versions read:

- And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. NRSV

^a Or contemplate

- So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image. NLT

What meaning to you take from this passage? As we contemplate, meditate, appreciate, behold, accept and love the truth about God as revealed in Jesus it changes us. We have a new set of beliefs. As our beliefs about God change and we realize He is trustworthy we let down the self-protective gate in our heart, and invited Jesus, who has been knocking, in. The Holy Spirit further enlightens, we experience a greater appreciation for the things of God. The fear centers calm, the love centers of the brain grow stronger. Physical health is improved and our neural wiring is changed. By beholding we are changed here and now and for eternity! And we are reflectors of Him – lights of love and truth in a dark and selfish world.

TUESDAY

John 15:8 “This is to my Father’s glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.”

Thoughts? Revelation 14:7, “He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come.”
How do we give God glory? By beholding Jesus and being won to trust and experiencing in our lives the transforming power of His presence which removes fear and instills love! As we become more like Him He is glorified in our lives. He gets the credit of healing us and we get the benefit of witnessing to His amazing recreative power of love.

WEDNESDAY

Read top memory verse John 15:2 – thoughts? What is the purpose of pruning? To increase the productivity of the tree. What is pruning like for a human being?

What types of things would God be pruning out of the life? Anything that would destroy you and me, anything that is out of harmony with the very principles that life is designed to operate upon.

Like:

- Entertainment?
 - Theatrical entertainment?
 - Certain video games
- Food and substances?
 - Alcohol, tobacco, drugs and destructive foods
- Groups?
- Jobs?
- Possessions?
- Friends?
- Spouses?

FRIDAY

Read last paragraph and question 2 and discuss

Read question 3 and discuss

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 2 1Q 2009

The Fruit of the Spirit is Love

SABBATH

Read second paragraph – “John says it so...” thoughts? Maybe I am just playing word games with the quarterly, but what do you think about the phrase that “love is so central to His character”?

Is there more to God’s character than love? Recently I have been having an email exchange with an intelligent young man who struggles with this issue. He wrote:

To use the true statement, God is love, in an attempt to prove God’s character of love and His being of love are one in the same is unbiblical and illogical. The texts that use the statement God is love are clearly describing God, not identifying Him. It is understood Who is being talked about, what is being explained in these verses is what God is “about,” if you will. God is the Who (identity), love is the what (descriptor). .. You have provided no Biblical or logical evidence that supports the notion that God and His character are one in the same. There are no defining characteristics of God’s identity. ..The only “defining characteristics” of God’s identity are ones such as... Jehovah, Lord of Lords, etc. This is Who God is. His character is what He is like.

Thoughts? What do you hear from such a position regarding how this young man sees God? It seems He sees God as the one in authority, or God merely as the one in charge, sovereign. Now let us be clear, nothing we have ever said or suggested in this class, my writings or presentations would ever suggest God is not sovereign. He absolutely is – but power and sovereignty alone are not what God wants to be recognized for nor is it what generates in us what God desires – love for Him!

George MacDonald an 19th Century theologian said it beautifully:

What is the deepest in God? His Power? No, for power could not make him what we mean when we say God. A being whose essence was only power would be such a negation of the divine that no righteous worship could be offered him; his service would be only fear. Discovering the Character of God, Minneapolis: Bethany House, 1989, p. 29.

Why is this important?

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴ The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵ We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2Cor 10:3-5

Romans 1 – Paul tells us that when we reject the truth about God the mind becomes futile, darkened and depraved – we cannot become what God wants us to be if we fail to realize the true nature of God – that He is love!

Thoughts?

¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?” ¹⁴ They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” ¹⁵ “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?” ¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” ¹⁷ Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” ²⁰ Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ. Matt 16:13-20

Thoughts?

What kind of weapon is a gate? A defensive weapon – Satan took humanity captive by deception – about what? God, Satan holds humanity captive by continued lies about God. But Jesus is the exact representation of the Father (Heb 1:3). In Jesus all the lies of Satan are refuted.

Peter spoke the truth that Jesus is God and Jesus will build His church on this truth, and the gates of hell will not stand against it for the lies about God will be demolished by the divine weapons of truth revealed in Jesus!

And what are the keys of the kingdom? The truth about God which frees from lies and opens the heart to receive the Holy Spirit who fills the mind/heart with love! When we are bound to God on earth by the truth about Him as revealed in Jesus we are bound to eternal life. When we reject the truth about God we are set free to cling to the lies told by Satan and are lost from our heavenly home.

Is the truth about God's character important? Let's examine a passage from the book The Great Controversy and think through what she is saying. I will read it and then let's go back and analyze it:

The law of God, from its very nature, is unchangeable.
 [why is it unchangeable?] It is a revelation of the will and the character of its Author. God is love, and His law is love.
 [Where did God's law originate? Is it something external to God and compulsory upon Him or is it a manifestation of His nature? If a manifestation of His nature is it something He created or imposed?] Its two great principles are love to God and love to man. "Love is the fulfilling of the law." Romans 13:10. [Can love be imposed?] The character of God is righteousness and truth; such is the nature of His law.
 [What does love look like? It always does what is right and is always true, truthful] Says the psalmist: "Thy law is the truth:" "all Thy commandments are righteousness." Psalm 119:142, 172. And the apostle Paul declares: "The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good." Romans 7:12. Such a law, being an expression of the mind and will of God, must be as enduring as its Author. [Why is such a law enduring as its author? Because it emanates where? From the mind and will of God, who Himself is enduring forever] {GC 467.1}

It is the work of conversion and sanctification to reconcile men to God by bringing them into accord with the principles of His law. [What is God seeking to do? Reconcile God to man or man to God? Who needed to be changed after Adam's sin? And what is the change that mankind needs? To have minds/hearts that operate in harmony with what? The law of love] In the beginning, man was created in the image of God. He was in perfect harmony with the nature and the law of God; the principles of righteousness were written upon his heart. [In God's original design were there a bunch of rules imposed upon Adam and Eve to which they had to adhere or was the law the law of love which was written into their minds/hearts by God?] But sin alienated him from his Maker. He no longer reflected the divine image. His heart was at war with the principles of God's law. "The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." Romans 8:7. [How did sin alienate man from God? What happened? See EGW quote below RH 1/5/86] But "God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son," that man might be reconciled to God. [Again, why was Christ given, so that God might be forgiving? So that God would be reconciled to man and His anger might be assuaged, or to change and heal man? See EGW quote below 1SM346] Through the merits of Christ he can be restored to harmony with his Maker. His heart must be renewed by divine grace; he must have a new life from above. This change is the new birth, without which, says Jesus, "he cannot see the kingdom of God..." [What is the emphasis here and through all scripture? On changing, renewing and recreating humanity to be in harmony with God's character of love] {GC 467.2}

The law reveals to man his sins, but it provides no remedy. [Do you think her words were poorly chosen? Should she have said the law provides no legal payment? Is that our problem or do we actually need a remedy a cure?] While it promises life to the obedient, it declares that death is the portion of the transgressor. [Why does the law declare death is the portion of the transgressor? Because the law says God must execute or kill? Or because the law is the basis of life and anything that deviates from it is not compatible with life?] The gospel of Christ alone can free him from the condemnation or the defilement of sin. He must exercise repentance toward God, whose law has been transgressed; and faith in Christ, his atoning sacrifice. [What does the good news of Christ accomplish? It destroys Satan's lies and wins us back to trust. Then in trust we open the heart and experience the Holy Spirit who takes the accomplishments (merits) of Christ and reproduces them in us. Thus through Jesus Christ we are restored to unity or oneness at-one-ment with God again. Christ sacrificed all in order to provide us reconciliation with God.] Thus he [the sinner] obtains "remission of sins that are past" and becomes a partaker of the divine nature. He is a child of God, having received the spirit of adoption, whereby he cries: "Abba, Father!" [We are changed to be Christlike in character, back into the image God created us to be in the first place]. {GC 467.4}

- “Eve believed the words of Satan, and the belief of that falsehood in regard to God's character, changed the condition and character of both herself and husband. They were changed from good and obedient children into transgressors...” RH, January 5, 1886 par. 8
- Through belief in Satan's misrepresentation of God, man's character and destiny were changed, but if men will believe in the Word of God, they will be transformed in mind and character, and fitted for eternal life. To believe that "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16), will change the heart, and reproduce in man the image of God. {1SM 346.1}

We have power over what we believe, but our beliefs have power over us – we are changed, neurologically, biologically, physically, even genetically by a change in what we believe!

What does the law require? What do you think about this quote?:

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Do you agree or disagree? Why? Why does God's holy law require a perfect character? Because perfect love is the basis of life, life cannot operate outside this principle!

Why do we experience remission of sins that are past, because of legal payment or God's forbearance?

When we experience this kind of regeneration in the heart, when the law of love is written again in the heart, what does it look like here and now on planet earth?

I received an email this week from a patient of mine, a young lady 20 years of age. She gave me permission to share it with you. This young lady was abandoned by her mother shortly after birth, never knew either parent. She was in an orphanage for several years and mistreated, neglected and abused and then adopted at age 5. She has struggled with marked fear and insecurity and inability to love and trust. I have been working with her for about 18 months. This is her email to me:

As you are aware I am a very selfish person and being selfless is not natural for me.

As I am in this holiday season I am trying not to forget that Christmas is not about GETTING but about giving. So I brighten my holiday season by brightening someone else's.

I had opportunities to give this year, and I strived to participate in all of them ;}

Our school is taking donations for a single mother with a son who has severe autism... and no income

The donation failed because people wouldn't give

These people have clothes, food, a warm bed, a house, and money. And all they could donate to this family were pennies....PENNIES!!! This poor woman has a child and doesn't know if she'll have a roof over her head... what is she going to do with a bunch of pennies? All she got was a bunch of pennies and a few dimes and two small boxes of food. I gave a box FULL of food for her.

And I feel bad for that family...In fact my heart breaks for that mother because she's going to have to suffer the consequences of people's selflessness... see? look! EMPATHY! ;}

Two years ago, I wouldn't have even thought twice about people in need. I didn't care about people in need, or homeless children who have no family. That's their problem not mine. All I cared about was what I got for Christmas, and I'd throw a fit if I didn't get what I wanted.

I am also participating in a Secret Santa program...I drew the name of a fellow student and I crocheted a scarf for her. I also participated in the Red Cross Holiday food drive.

I gave my day's tips from haircutting to a homeless man on the side of the road.

And after doing all this I am feeling things I've never felt...contentment...and pure joy...being proud of myself.

I am no longer feeling I need Christmas gifts. Right now they seem insignificant.

And I'm learning that by being selfish you are NEVER content, you will always want more, you can only feed it with one thing at a time.

But by being selfless you have done TWO things:

1. Help others
 2. You have helped yourself
- And that quells all selfishness

And I know that's the lesson God has wanted me to learn for a very long time ;}

And I could never have made these steps if not for your tough love and guidance. I think I know that's one of the reasons you never gave up on me, because you saw past the selfishness and saw the selfless, people loving, healthy woman I could be.

Thank-you ;}

And by meditating on God's love and giving of myself, I am moving towards health.

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Read last paragraph, "Think for a moment..." – thoughts?

Can we experience families where love abounds and genuine grace is experienced by utilizing force, coercion, commands, orders, requirements, impositions?

How does love expand and grow? By giving, sharing, sacrificing, living love in action, by love is love awakened. Why do we love God? Because He first loved us – in action, in real sacrifice, in giving Himself to save us!

Listen to the following story from Philip Yancy's book, What's So Amazing About Grace? (page 49).

Thoughts? Can such love ever be commanded? This is God and the angels and the brothers and sisters of all the unfallen worlds waiting with banners held high tell you and me – “Welcome Home!”

What an incredible God! But does everyone love such a God? How do some still argue against such a God of love?

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. When men broke the law of God, and defied His will, Satan exulted. It was proved, he declared, that the law could not be obeyed; man could not be forgiven. Because he, after his rebellion, had been banished from heaven, Satan claimed that the human race must be forever shut out from God's favor. God could not be just, he urged, and yet show mercy to the sinner. {DA 761.4}

Some today make the same argument, that a forgiving God is a marshmallow God and that God must inflict punishment for sin or He is not a God of truth and justice.

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “If we are to...” thoughts? I received the following email from one of our online class members, this is just a portion:

What I wanted to discuss is Jesus request that we love our enemies and pray for those that persecute us.

My question is even though Satan has at present made a decision that is against God should we not in accordance with Jesus teaching to love our enemies/pray for those that persecute us still pray for him anyway?

Here is what is driving my question. Tim, my heart just breaks for our Father. I used to think about things like what will our mansions look like, will my dog be there. Then I moved to wanting to relish in being taught by God how our universe was created. Then I moved to thinking about how he will be there to comfort me as I see my unsaved loved ones final moments of existence. Then I moved to considering his heart as he watches beings he loves experience their final moments of existence. I want to be there to comfort him. I look at my children and what I would go through to have to bury one of them and I can't even imagine what it will be like for him. I don't want him to have to experience that.

While I understand the concept of freedom and that Satan has the freedom to make the choice. Don't I still have the ability to make a choice how I respond to his attacks on me? Something that puzzles me and maybe I'm outside of scripture here I don't know (that's why I'm talking to you) is it seems like we (Christians) read the bible and see that Satan, demons, the unsaved will be destroyed and we kind of relish in it. Some feel sad for the humans in this process, but the people who believe in a fiery hell where people are actively punished can't wait to see Satan get his. And those of us who believe it's God turning and our souls just being snuffed out we sort of do the same thing, we can't wait to see the blame get put "where it belongs". Why are we doing this? Our Father will be hurting. He will give Satan his wish, but I can't imagine him doing it without tears in his eyes. If our father takes no pleasure in the destruction of the wicked why do we either take pleasure or just not care.

You are free to tell me I'm wrong but if I respond to Satan's attacks on me with anything other than prayer for him, I think I'm outside of being in alignment with God. I don't think when God asked me to pray for my enemies he was only talking about the people who cut me off in traffic or those humans who actively seek to discredit me. I think he intended a larger mission for me than my little world of personal annoyances.

Thoughts?

Part of my response:

What I think Christ was trying to do with instructing us to pray for our enemies is primarily to help prevent us from becoming hostile, hard hearted, bitter, resentful etc. When we pray for our enemies it moves us from being their enemy to being one concerned for their welfare and this changes us and opens our hearts to the Holy Spirit so the Spirit can heal us from our enemies attacks. Further, we become witnesses of God's grace as we maintain loving and grace filled attitudes toward our enemies. Such love toward our enemies is one of God's weapons for melting their hearts and winning them to trust.

However, there are some beings who have persisted so long in sin that prayer for them is not fruitful or helpful because there is nothing God can do for them. Satan is one of these beings. So, prayer for an enemy is useful for the person praying to prevent them from hardening their hearts and keeps their heart open to God's Spirit. It is also useful for those enemies who haven't persisted so long in rebellion against God that they have destroyed the very faculties which respond to the movements of God's Spirit. As we pray for these individuals our lives and God's agencies can be useful in reaching them. But praying for enemies who have gone beyond the point of healing will have no benefit on them as they can no longer recognize or respond to truth and love.

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Let's do the exercise the lesson suggests – let's turn the negative statements about what love is not into positive statements about what love actually is:

- Love does not envy – love rejoices in the success of others
- Love does not parade itself – love uplifts others
- Love is not puffed up – love is humble
- Love is not rude – love is polite and courteous
- Love is not self seeking – love is other centered, seeks to benefit others
- Love is not easily provoked – love is patient and tolerant of others
- Love thinks no evil – love thinks righteously
- Love does not rejoice in iniquity – love is grieved by iniquity

Read bottom green section – “As we contemplate...” Well said!

SUNDAY

The title, “Love Is Multidimensional” how did you read it? Is it referring to the word “love” and how it can be applied to many different situations like, “I love my car,” & “I love hot bread,” & “Let's go the bar and find some loving,” & “God is love”? Or do you think it is referring to the genuine love of God being multidimensional?

Clearly the word is multidimensional – what about God's love? How is it multidimensional?

THURSDAY

Read first two paragraphs – what's wrong with the lesson of this story?

It is a contrived situation to try an expose some problem in the heart of the theology students – but do you think the students would have responded the same way if they saw the man crossing the street and hit by a car that sped off and left him there bleeding and dying? Don't most of us think that the students would have gone and gotten help for the man, even if they were late or missed a preaching appointment?

What is the problem with the story? The man was placed in the school surrounded by a society filled with agencies to help him and in no danger of dying or starving to death. It isn't even clear if the man needed help. Further, in our society there are many people who actually prefer a life on the streets and when agencies work to get them some type of shelter they refuse it or leave it to go back to the street – not everyone of course, but some.

Other thoughts?

The lesson asks who is my neighbor – thoughts? Who is our closest neighbor? A spouse? How is a Christian supposed to show Godlike love to an abusive spouse? What is the most loving course to take? Concern for the eternal salvation of the abuser? And what happens to the heart of a man who abuses his wife? If the wife loves the man and wants to prevent his heart from hardening and work toward his eternal salvation what is the loving course?

Read bottom paragraph, "Consider..." thoughts

How do we balance Christ's words with Paul's counsel:

For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work, he shall not eat." 2Thes 3:10

And what about the old Indian proverb, "Give a man a fish feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish and feed him for a lifetime"? How does this wisdom play into charity?

FRIDAY

Question 3 read and discuss

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 3 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit is Joy

SABBATH

What is Joy?

Dictionary definition: the emotion of great delight or happiness caused by something exceptionally good or satisfying; keen pleasure; elation

Read memory verse- John 15:11 – thoughts?

What things did He speak to them that would be the cause of their joy?

This conversation is happening in the upper room, the last supper – which starts in Chapter 13 verse one. What did Jesus communicate to the disciples in the upper room that was to be for them the source of their joy?

- All power was given to Jesus, why would this bring joy?
 - What did He do with all power?
 - He washed their dirty feet
 - What truth is being revealed by Jesus?
 - Does it tell us something about God, His character, how He operates?
 - Does it tell us something about the impact service has on a life?
 - How does this inspire joy?
- Jesus predicts His betrayal
 - What is being communicated in this that is to be a source of joy?
 - How did Jesus treat His betrayer?
 - He washed his feet and protected his reputation, does this bring you joy?
 - Can a God like this be trusted?

- What does it say that God foreknows yet such foreknowledge does not change how God treats us?
- Jesus tells them that He is going to glorify His Father and thereby be glorified, what does this tell us to bring us joy?
 - How does Jesus glorify the Father?
 - How is Jesus glorified?
- A new command to love one another – how is this connected to joy?
 - When have you experienced the most joy – when someone gave or did something for your or when you gave or did something for another?
- Jesus predicts Peter's betrayal, how does this bring joy?
 - How did Jesus treat Peter knowing Peter was going to let Him down?
 - How does God treat us knowing we make mistakes?
 - What does this tell us about God's attitude toward sinners?
- Jesus promises to go to the Father, prepare us a place and return to get us – does this bring you joy?
- Jesus tells us He is the way to the Father because He and the Father are one and anyone who has seen Jesus has seen the Father – is this a source of joy? How? Why?
 - In fact isn't this the very core to what Jesus meant would be the source of their joy?
- We may ask for anything in Christ's name and He will do it for us – what does this mean?
 - But to pray in Christ's name means much. It means that we are to accept His character, manifest His spirit, and work His works. The Saviour's promise is given on condition. "If ye love Me," He says, "keep My commandments." He saves men, not in sin, but from sin; and those who love Him will show their love by obedience. {DA 668.2}
 - Does this bring joy?
- Jesus promises to the send the Holy Spirit and not leave us as orphans and through the Spirit give us His peace– how is this a source of joy?
 - What does the Holy Spirit do for us?

- Jesus then tells the parable of the vine and the branches – how does this parable communicate our foundation of joy?
- Jesus tells them if they love Him they will obey His commands
 - How does our obedience to the commands of Christ produce joy?

Read last paragraph, “Joy is a delight...” thoughts? Does it depend on what kind of God a person believes in? If you believe god is punishing, critical, watching to take away any happiness a god who takes mummies to heaven in car crashes or looks the other way when children are abused – would such awareness bring joy?

Could one of the primary messages of Jesus to His disciples as the source of their joy be, “if you have seen me you have seen the Father”? The Father is not like you have always thought Him to be?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “Many believers allow...” – thoughts? What do you think about the solution offered to a group of people who have a mindset described here in this paragraph?

You have a child who hates spinach, “I command you – ENJOY it!” would such a command work? Is this what God is saying to people? Is a command a way to instill joy?

What about instead of a command we gave a prescription to rejoice in the Lord? Would a prescription be different? If we offer this as a remedy, an intervention, a treatment and as with all remedies and treatments we explain the basis for it, the reasons why to do it and the underpinning rationale behind it – in this case why God is worthy of our praise and what it means to rejoice in Him. Does such a prescription provide more than a command to rejoice?

The lesson indicates this in the second paragraph when it states that our spiritual stability is related to knowing God. This is the key, to actual know Him for who He is. And further down in the lesson it asks us to list what “reasons” there are for rejoicing. If there are reasons for it then it is more than a mere command!

What reasons do we have for rejoicing in the Lord? The lesson asks us to consider Psalms 139:

¹ O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.

² You know when I sit and when I rise;
you perceive my thoughts from afar.

³ You discern my going out and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.

⁴ Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD.

[What reason for joy in verses 1-4?

- Are you glad to know God knows everything about you? If you are cheating, He knows. If you are harboring resentment, He knows. If you are unkind, rude, gossiping, hard hearted, addicted to something – He knows. If you are in an adulterous relationship, He knows. He knows before you do any of it.
- Does this bring you joy? Why or why not?
- Does it depend on how you understand God?
- What is God's attitude toward you knowing all of this?
- What is the attitude of a doctor toward a patient severely ill, with many symptoms? Even a non-compliant patient?]

⁵ You hem me in—behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me.

⁶ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

⁷ Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?

⁸ If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

⁹ If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
if I settle on the far side of the sea,

¹⁰ even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.

¹¹ If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,”

¹² even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

[What message in these verses give you joy? God is not constrained by time or space. God is actively working in your life for good, guiding your life to eternal salvation. There is nothing hidden from Him and nothing can separate us from Him!]

¹³ For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother’s womb.

¹⁴ I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.

¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place.
When I was woven together in the depths of the earth,

¹⁶ your eyes saw my unformed body.

All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

[Thoughts about this passage? What message brings joy?

- God is the Creator, we didn’t evolve over millions of years from slime,
- God has a purpose for our lives and oversees our destiny.
- God created us with individuality, unique identity, the ability to think and love and make free choices “my inmost being.”
- We don’t need to fear the unknown or the future because God has perfect foreknowledge!

How can this passage be misapplied to destroy joy and bring discouragement?

- That each of us was created directly by a divine act of God from heaven as we are.
- That a child born with congenital defects is that way because God wanted the child to be defective, sick, broken – or
- That God was having a bad knitting day, which means God isn’t someone we can trust, or

- When men rape women and they get pregnant God is creating – again, says terrible things about God and makes Him a being who can't be trusted.
- Any other ways this text is misapplied to distort God's character?]

¹⁷ How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!

How vast is the sum of them!

¹⁸ Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand.

When I awake,
I am still with you.

¹⁹ If only you would slay the wicked, O God!
Away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

²⁰ They speak of you with evil intent;
your adversaries misuse your name.

²¹ Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD, and abhor those who rise up against you?

²² I have nothing but hatred for them;
I count them my enemies.

²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

²⁴ See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

[What joyful message do you hear in this text? Honest communication with God and acknowledgment that God can be trusted. No hiding of the heart from God but a willingness to be fully known and transformed by Him. Do we pray such prayers?]

Read bottom green section – thoughts? Does rejoice in the Lord mean we will not to experience sadness, grief, heartache or pain? Or does it mean in the face of such we have hope that pierces through the pain to an eternal restitution and re-creation. We rejoice not in the hardship but in God who will overcome all hardships and ultimately bring healing and peace.

- But does the person with a cavity rejoice over dental drills and fillings?

- Does a person with a broken leg rejoice in surgeons, pins, rods and physical therapists?
- Does a person with defects of character rejoice in trials and opportunities to exercise their will in harmony with God to overcome?

MONDAY

Read top dark section, “To understand fully...” – thoughts? Where do you think Christ’s joy came from?

- Knowing His Father
- Being fully known by His Father
- Doing His Father’s will
- Helping others
- Not focusing on self
- Not concerned with other’s opinion of Him for His need sake
- The knowledge of what His mission would accomplish
 - The exoneration of the Father and the Son
 - The exposure of Satan as liar and fraud
 - The redemption of humanity and earth
 - The permanent eradication of sin from the universe

The lesson asks us to consider the three parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the prodigal son as illustrations of joy – what thoughts do you have? From where did joy arise in these parables?

- From finding that which was lost, from being restored to that which the heart cherishes.
- What does God’s heart cherish? His creatures!
- And what brings God joy? Bringing us back to Him!

TUESDAY

Read second paragraph, “There is no greater...” thoughts?

Why does obedience bring joy? Does all obedience to God’s laws and commands bring joy? Can you obey God’s commands and not experience joy? How and why?

- The man who attempts to keep the commandments of God from a sense of obligation merely--because he is required to do so--will never enter into the joy of obedience. He does not obey. When the requirements of God are accounted a burden because they cut across human inclination, we may know that the life is not a Christian life. True obedience is the outworking of a principle within. It springs from the love of righteousness, the love of the law of God. The essence of all righteousness is loyalty to our Redeemer. This will lead us to do right because it is right--because right doing is pleasing to God. {COL 97.3}
- A sullen submission to the will of the Father will develop the character of a rebel. By such a one service is looked upon as drudgery. It is not rendered cheerfully, and in the love of God. It is a mere mechanical performance. If he dared, such a one would disobey. His rebellion is smothered, ready to break out at any time in bitter murmurings and complaints. Such service brings no peace or quietude to the soul. {ST, July 22, 1897}

Thoughts? How do you understand these passages? What is required to enter into the joy of obedience? Understanding! Understanding of God, understanding of God's law, understanding of sin, understanding of what Christ accomplished, and when we understand, it is a joy to obey! But obedience without understanding, blind obedience, is the type of obedience the Pharisees rendered, rule keeping because the rules must be kept. Such obedience destroys!

Why did disobedience bring war in heaven and sin and death to this planet? What was the cause of the disobedience? And when we "disobey" God what happens?

How does obedience help restore joy?

Read last paragraph "However clear the Bible..." thoughts?

Can any human, since the fall of Adam and excluding Jesus Christ, by human effort alone save Himself? Can any human by his or her own hard works reverse the damage of sin? No! So let's be clear, no human being could be saved without Jesus Christ!

Do works reveal to others the outworking of God's healing of our lives? Of course – but is that all works do? Do our works play any role in our individual salvation or is our individual salvation completely independent from our works?

- Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. {DA 35.2}

Are we all comfortable with this passage? Do we all believe that the idea that man can save himself is a lie? Is this the same thing as saying that man has no work to do in his salvation? Can it be true that salvation is completely of the Lord and yet we have a work to do as well? Let's consider some Bible texts:

- Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling,¹³ for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose. Phil 2:12,13
- For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—⁹ not by works, so that no one can boast.¹⁰ For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. Eph 2:8-10

- Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Gal 6:7,8
 - Who is doing the sowing?

- Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. ³ For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. ⁵ Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. ⁶ Because of these, the wrath of God is coming. You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. ⁸ But now you must rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. ⁹ Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator...¹² Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Col 3:1-13

Thoughts? Who is doing the work? Is this work of life transformation only of God? Does it matter? Is our salvation dependent upon this ongoing work?

These Bible passages have been a source of great tension within Christianity resulting in two primary camps – the work your way to heaven camp in which our works commend us to God or somehow save us from sin – legalism, opposed by the camp which says our salvation is of God's grace without our work and our works only reveal what He has done within us.

Here are some thoughts from one of the founders of our church, what do you think?

- While God was working in Daniel and his companions "to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13), they were working out their own salvation. Herein is revealed the outworking of the divine principle of cooperation, without which no true success can be attained. Human effort avails nothing without divine power; and without human endeavor, divine effort is with many of no avail. To make God's grace our own, we must act our part. His grace is given to work in us to will and to do, but never as a substitute for our effort. {LHU 193.4}
- We are laborers together with God. This is the Lord's own wise arrangement. The cooperation of the human will and endeavor with divine energy is the link that binds men up with one another and with God. The apostle says, "We are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building" (1 Corinthians 3:9). Man is to work with the facilities God has given him. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," He says. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12, 13).--MS 113, 1898. {2MCP 694.3}
- There are two grand forces at work in the salvation of the human soul. It requires the cooperation of man with the divine agencies-- divine influences, and a strong, living, working faith. It is in this way only that the human agent can become a laborer together with God. The Lord does not sanction in any one of us a blind, stupid credulity. He does not dishonor the human understanding, but, far from this, He calls for the human will to be brought into connection with the divine will. He calls for the ingenuity of the human mind, the tact, the skill, to be strenuously exercised in searching out the truth as it is in Jesus. . . . Ye are labourers together with God. {OHC 310.5}
- In the work of redemption there is no compulsion. No external force is employed. Under the influence of the Spirit of God, man is left free to choose whom he will serve. In the change that takes place when the soul surrenders to Christ, there is the highest sense of freedom. The expulsion of sin is the act of the soul itself. True, we have no power to free ourselves from Satan's control; but when we desire to be set free from sin, and in our great need cry out for a power out of and above ourselves, the powers of the soul are imbued with the divine energy of the Holy Spirit, and they obey the dictates of the will in fulfilling the will of God. {DA 466.4}

- Remember, your character is being daguerreotyped [photographed] by the great Master Artist in the record books of heaven, as minutely as the face is reproduced upon the polished plate of the artist. What do the books of heaven say in your case? Are you conforming your character to the Pattern, Jesus Christ? Are you washing your robes of character and making them white in the blood of the Lamb? "Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be" [Revelation 22:12]. . . . {TSB 62.1}

Thoughts? How do we put all the texts together? After Adam's sin humanity was changed from beings who operated in perfect accord with the law of love, the template of life. Mankind believed lies about God and didn't trust Him. Christ came to reverse all of this. First He came to reveal the truth to destroy lies and win us to trust, but more than this Christ, as our substitute, took our infirmities, our sick condition upon Himself in order to cure, reverse, recreate, rewrite God's perfect character into the human species. He did this in His own person! He procured the remedy to sin and now offers this to us through the application of His Spirit!

- The atonement of Christ is not a mere skillful way to have our sins pardoned; it is a divine remedy for the cure of transgression and the restoration of spiritual health. It is the Heaven-ordained means by which the righteousness of Christ may be not only upon us but in our hearts and characters (Letter 406, 1906). {6BC 1074.2}

Thus, when we are won to trust we open the heart, surrender our will to Him and the Spirit infuses us. We partake of the divine nature. We are inspired, enlightened, empowered, encouraged and we then choose daily to eliminate from our lives everything we know is harmful and embrace all that is good. As the apostle says, via the indwelling Holy Spirit – a cooperative arrangement, we choose to rid ourselves of the old life and live a life of love!

Is this more than a mere reflection or evidence of our salvation? Is it a cooperation in which we participate to experience the salvation which Christ alone achieved? In other words, Christ achieved the cure for sin alone, without any human effort and with no work from any human being. However, the application of that remedy to each human life occurs only when the human being actively cooperates with divine agencies. Is this correct?

If we hold a primarily legal view of salvation what problems arise? How do such legal views impair God's healing of our lives?

WEDNESDAY

Read Bible text at top of page, "These things..." thoughts? What does this tell us about those who are suffering, who are in tribulation? Does it mean they are abandoned by God? No, can we have peace in the midst of tribulation? How?

THURSDAY

Read Bible text at the top, "By faith Moses..." then read the paragraph below, "Moses' decision..." thoughts?

What does this text mean? Why did Moses leave Egypt? Did he leave Egypt because God told him to? Did he leave Egypt and turn his back on the throne because he didn't want the throne? Did Moses leave Egypt because he murdered someone and Pharaoh sought to kill him? But why did he murder someone? Because he was trusting God?

Below the lesson asks, "Think upon the last time you made a wrong decision based on 'good' reasons. What hard lessons did you learn?"

Did Moses make a wrong decision based on good reasons when he murdered the overseer?

What lessons do we learn from all of this? Did God cast Moses off because Moses made a wrong decision? Or was it the right decision to murder the overseer?

In Scripture what is God concerned with when it comes to choosing people as His agents?

Noah – drunk

Abraham – liar, polygamist

Jacob – liar, polygamist

Moses – murderer

Balaam – traitor and extortionist

David – adulterer and murderer

Solomon- mega polygamist, idolater and murderer

Samson – womanizer

Rahab – harlot

Mary Magdala – harlot

Saul of Tarsus – Racist, bigot, abuser,

When it comes to being a worker for God what is the criteria? History of a sin free life? Or experiencing a change of heart where we know God, trust Him and tell the truth about Him? What about today?

How would we respond today if we heard our pastor murdered someone at age 40 like Moses did? What if we heard our elder was a former prostitute? What if we heard our deacon, years ago, had sex outside of marriage?

What is the issue? The history of past sin or the condition of the heart today?

Bottom green section read – what has Jesus done and what is He doing today?

FRIDAY

Questions 1,3,4,5 read and discuss

The Fruits of the Spirit Lesson 4 1Q 2009

The Fruit of the Spirit is Peace

SABBATH

Read memory text John 14:27 – and then first paragraph, “As a champion...” thoughts?

Was Jesus referring to what the first paragraph intimates? Or was He referring to another peace, internal peace, peace with God?

“Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I have come to turn “a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law— ³⁶ a man’s enemies will be the members of his own household.’

³⁷ “Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; ³⁸ and anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. ³⁹ Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. MT 10:34-40

What does this text mean? How do we reconcile this text with the memory verse? Are we to seek peace with others at all costs?

What is the sword that Jesus brought? The sword of truth! And what is the sword of truth to do? Where is it wielded? When the sword of truth is brought to bear what impact does it have on those who are in error?

Does everyone who has yet to hear the truth respond positively?

Some sad events happened this week and are still ongoing. While I was studying the lesson for this week, reviewing these very scriptures I found out that a member of our church has taken it upon himself to attack our class and what we teach. He wrote a letter to the Review, also to another ministry which has been supportive of us and said he would send a letter to our church board complaining about my theology and book, and requesting the book be removed and our class be shut down. He also posted a rant on Amazon.com against my book.

Do such rants have impact? What if the letter is false, twisted, misrepresents our position – would it have impact? The Review informed me it did not deem the letter to have merit, but the other ministry emailed me and determined it would be best to remove my book from their shelves, before actually taking the time to explore the allegations. I sent an email clarifying my position, and have had a couple email exchanges but no resolution yet.

As a class, how should we respond? How can we obtain peace with someone who practices such methods? What methods did Satan use in heaven? Was God able to secure peace with Satan?

When someone makes allegations against us what should be our first step? Hear what they say, as best we can understand their concerns and examine the evidence to see if there is any merit to their concerns.

There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation. {CW 35.2}

Those who cannot impartially examine the evidences of a position that differs from theirs, are not fit to teach in any department of God's cause. 1SM 411

Maybe we should consider the criticism and investigate in light of scripture and inspiration. Bring the sword of truth to bear and evaluate what has been alleged. Here is a part of what he wrote:

I am a member of the Collegedale SDA church here in TN. I have a deep concern that I want to share with you regarding one of the books your store is selling. The book is titled "Could It Be This Simple?" and is written by Tim Jennings.

My concern is regarding what Jennings teaches in this book (although somewhat quietly, if you will), which are critically significant doctrinal positions that he teaches quite openly in the Sabbath School class that he currently runs at my church. Jennings' personal theology is essentially a Moral Influence theology. In accordance with this theological foundation, he believes that sinners do not need forgiveness from sins, and that the Ten Commandments are a "dim reflection," or "shadow," or "metaphor." Both of these positions are clearly taught in this book and they are diametrically opposed to the positions held by the vast majority of Christendom. More importantly, they are contrary to what the Bible teaches and eviscerate the Gospel of Jesus Christ...

He confuses God's offer of forgiveness to the unrepentant sinner with the repentant sinner's acceptance of God's offered forgiveness. This fundamental misunderstanding of the process of forgiveness is evident throughout this chapter. Later in the chapter he contradicts himself by stating that salvation requires forgiveness from God and repentance on the part of the sinner. This statement contains a partial truth (that salvation is possible because of God's offer of forgiveness) and an outright error (that salvation requires repentance on the part of the sinner). To say that repentance is required for salvation is a dangerous error that creates a salvation by works theology...

Jennings clearly teaches that the Ten Commandments written in stone by the very hand of God are far less than perfect aids to those seeking God's Truth. He refers to them numerous times as a "dim reflection." He states that "just studying the Ten Commandments will never reveal the fullness of God's law." "Reading it in stone," he says, "will never reveal its true nature." This is a deliberate and full force denigration of the Usefulness, Completeness, Purity, Holiness, and Sufficiency of God's law. What do the Psalmist and other Bible writers say about God's law? They describe it in ways that are as different from how Jennings describes it as night is from day. Jennings belittles God's law because this is necessary in order to be consistent with his Moral Influence theology, specifically, the belief that there is no penalty for breaking God's law. Here Jennings is belittling the very act of God, of writing, with His own finger, the Commandments on stone. In these paragraphs, he claims that the Ten Commandments are "only a transcript." By this he suggests they are not the real thing, but some secondary and ultimately ineffectual copy of the real thing. Jennings does not stop here however. He goes on to claim that the only way to fully understand God's law is to see it at work in living "flesh," in an "intelligent living being..."

All his Sabbath School classes are recorded and posted on the website. .. In the interest of conserving time, if you listen to the podcast for lesson 11, "The Benefits of Christ's Atoning Sacrifice," you will get a very clear picture of their core teaching on this fundamental issue. Within the first five minutes or so of this podcast you will hear a class member (who often teaches the class when Jennings is not able to) laughing at the idea that Christ mediating on our behalf before the Father should be comforting to Christians. Jennings does nothing to counteract this laughter for the simple reason that what the man who is laughing says is exactly what Jennings is teaching, they are in perfect agreement. Within those first few minutes you will also hear other significant distortions regarding forgiveness of sin, salvation, and justification/sanctification. And this podcast as a whole clearly delineates Jennings' Moral Influence theology.

So the allegations are that we teach:

- God's law is not imposed
- The Ten Commandments are a "shadow" or "metaphor" or "dim reflection" of God's real Law
- Deny that the sinner needs to be forgiven by God
- A salvation by works theology
- That Christ did not pay a penalty for our sins at Calvary

- There is no penalty for acts of sin
- Moral Influence Theory
- Christ is not our Mediator
- God does not judge us, we judge ourselves in the final judgment

Thoughts? Let's use the sword of the Spirit and examine these allegations. If we are in error we want to be corrected by God's truth. We have nothing to fear in examining such criticisms in light of God's word. So let's do that:

God's Law

What would you say in regard to the allegation that we teach that God's law is not imposed? What inspired evidence do you have for this?

- Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. Romans 13:10
- The entire law is summed up in a single command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Galatians 5:14
- If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing right. James 2:8
- In living for self he has rejected that divine love which would have flowed out in mercy to his fellow men. Thus he has rejected life. For God is love, and love is life. COL 258
- Our only definition of sin is that given in the word of God; it is "the transgression of the law;" it is the outworking of a principle at war with the great law of love which is the foundation of the divine government. GC 493
- The law of love being the foundation of the government of God, the happiness of all created beings depended upon their perfect accord with its great principles of righteousness. {GC 493.2}
- Jesus, the express image of the Father's person, the effulgence of His glory; the self-denying Redeemer, throughout His pilgrimage of love on earth, was a living representation of the character of the law of God. In His life it is made manifest that heaven-born love, Christlike principles, underlie the laws of eternal rectitude. . . . Those principles that were made known to man in Paradise as the great law of life will exist unchanged in Paradise restored.--Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing, pp. 48-51.

- He came to the world with the accumulated love of eternity. Sweeping away the exactions which had encumbered the law of God, he showed that the law is a law of love, an expression of the Divine Goodness. He showed that in obedience to its principles is involved the happiness of mankind, and with it the stability, the very foundation and framework, of human society. {SW, April 23, 1907 par. 5}
- But turning from all lesser representations, we behold God in Jesus. Looking unto Jesus we see that it is the glory of our God to give. "I do nothing of Myself," said Christ; "the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father." "I seek not Mine own glory," but the glory of Him that sent Me. John 8:28; 6:57; 8:50; 7:18. In these words is set forth the great principle which is the law of life for the universe. All things Christ received from God, but He took to give. So in the heavenly courts, in His ministry for all created beings: through the beloved Son, the Father's life flows out to all; through the Son it returns, in praise and joyous service, a tide of love, to the great Source of all. And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life. {DA 21.2}

What is the law of God? The law of love! If we go back in time before earth, angels or any time, space or matter was created by God, what would exist? God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and at that time in universal history, before anything was created, did God's law of love exist? And is this law imposed, enacted, legislated, or created, or does it emanate from the character of God?

- So allegation number one – we teach the law of God is not imposed or created– Yes, why? Because God is not created, His character is not created and the law originates in God's character an expression of Himself!

What about the allegation that we teach the 10 commandments are a shadow, metaphor or dim reflection of the law of love?

- We do not teach the 10 commandments are a shadow or metaphor – they are an expression of the law of love. But they are a distilled version of the law of love. They do not represent the fullness of the law of love and they were added because of sin, because of our need.
 - The 10 Commandments are a diagnostic tool to reveal where we fall short. The commandments were given for lawbreakers not the righteous according to Scripture.
 - The 10 commandments were not always written or in existence in this form.
 - If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God's law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. {PP 364.2}
 - But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. {MB 109.2}
 - I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments... "The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). In this scripture, the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. {1SM 233, 234}

- Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’³⁸ This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ⁴⁰ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” MT 22:37-40

Forgiveness

Could sinners experience salvation without God’s forgiveness? No! If God was unforgiving no one would be saved. Do we teach that sinners do not need forgiveness? No, we absolutely need forgiveness. But, is forgiveness alone enough? Did Christ forgive those who put Him on the Cross? Were they, because of Christ’s forgiveness, saved? No!

Salvation

What is it? What does it mean? Salvation means healing and does the Bible teach that God’s plan of salvation includes more than forgiveness?

- In reply Jesus declared, “I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again. John 3:3
- Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³² For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live! Eze 18:31,32
- I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. Eze 36:26
- No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Romans 2:29 (DT 10:16, 30:6).
- Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Ps 51:10
- This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. Heb 8:10

- Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. Romans 12:2
- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 2Co 5:17

Do we need forgiveness? Absolutely, do we need more? Absolutely!
Is this a salvation by sinful human works theology? Absolutely not!
Do we have a cooperative role with God in our salvation?

- While God was working in Daniel and his companions "to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13), they were working out their own salvation. Herein is revealed the outworking of the divine principle of cooperation, without which no true success can be attained. Human effort avails nothing without divine power; and without human endeavor, divine effort is with many of no avail. To make God's grace our own, we must act our part. His grace is given to work in us to will and to do, but never as a substitute for our effort. {LHU 193.4}
- We are laborers together with God. This is the Lord's own wise arrangement. The cooperation of the human will and endeavor with divine energy is the link that binds men up with one another and with God. The apostle says, "We are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building" (1 Corinthians 3:9). Man is to work with the facilities God has given him. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," He says. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12, 13).--MS 113, 1898. {2MCP 694.3}
- There are two grand forces at work in the salvation of the human soul. It requires the cooperation of man with the divine agencies-- divine influences, and a strong, living, working faith. It is in this way only that the human agent can become a laborer together with God. The Lord does not sanction in any one of us a blind, stupid credulity. He does not dishonor the human understanding, but, far from this, He calls for the human will to be brought into connection with the divine will. He calls for the ingenuity of the human mind, the tact, the skill, to be strenuously exercised in searching out the truth as it is in Jesus. . . . Ye are labourers together with God. {OHC 310.5}

So the balance is as follows:

- The Remedy to sin was fully achieved by Christ and no one else.
- We can do nothing to add to what Christ has done to save mankind, but, each person now must choose to open their heart in trust to receive from the Holy Spirit the benefit of Christ's victory in their life.
- When we do this a supernatural transformation of character, desire, motive, and attitude takes place.
- In this process there is a daily, ongoing, and constant cooperative work of the individual with the Divine in which the person chooses to continue to follow the direction of the Heavenly Physician until they are one day fully healed and set free to be self-controlled beings operating on the law of love, which has been fully restored into the heart. (Heb 8:10).

Penalty for Sin

Is there a penalty for sin? Yes, what does the Bible teach is that penalty?

- but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die. Gen 2:17
- For the wages of sin is death, Romans 6:23
- sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. James 1:15

What is the penalty? Is it sleep in the grave? Is it suffering in hell for all eternity? Is it torture at God's hands? What is the penalty? Death- eternal death.

Why is death the penalty for sin? What is the basis of life already discussed? Love, the law of love, and if we are out of harmony with the law of love, what happens without restoration? Death! Does the Bible teach that the wages of sin is inflicted by God? No! Do we teach that there is a penalty for sin? Absolutely! Do we teach God is the source of that penalty? No! We teach that sin destroys and God heals!

Did it cost God and Christ an infinite price to redeem mankind? Yes! Why? Because God demanded a blood payment so God would forgive? Or because the only way to overcome sin and reverse sin's impact on humanity was through Christ's life, death and resurrection?

Did Christ have to die in order for mankind to be saved? Yes! Why? Because God demanded blood? No, because it was the only way to restore mankind back into harmony with the law of love. It was the only way to reconcile man to God!

Moral Influence Theory

What is Moral Influence Theory (MIT)? A theory that basically states the only problem with sin is that we don't know God and therefore Christ came to reveal the truth about God, which would morally influence us to return to God. There was no other purpose in Christ's life, death and resurrection than to reveal truth to win us back to trust.

Is this our position? What answer would you give to demonstrate we do not promote the MIT?

Imagine you have bacterial endocarditis (infection inside the heart)

- Man claims to have a cure – Osama Bin Laden would you trust Osama to give you a cure?
- Father is physician you trust but has no remedy?
- Will trust heal you? Will you get well without trust?
 - We aren't saved by faith/trust, we are saved by Grace, by God's working, God's healing power, but we don't experience God's healing grace if we don't trust Him.

- If you have no trust but have a remedy – will you get well?
- If you have trust but no remedy will you get well?
 - This would be the MIT – revealing truth to win us to trust, but providing no remedy – a theory rightly rejected

We need both, the trust to accept the remedy and a real remedy. Christ came and revealed truth to restore trust and also procured a real remedy!

From my blog of April 24, 2009:

Heb 2:14, 2Tim 1:10 and 1John 3:8 [sum] up the reasons Christ came to earth and died.

Heb 2:14 – By His death Christ destroys him who holds the power of death that is the devil –

What is the devil's power of death? John 17:3 – “this is life eternal that they might know you the only true God and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.” If life eternal is knowing God, then eternal death is not knowing God. What then is Satan's power of death? The lies he tells about God that keep us from knowing Him. What then is the “Gospel” in the passage? What destroys lies about God? The truth about God as revealed by Jesus, thus it is the Good News about God, as revealed by Christ, that destroys the devil's power of death.

2 Tim 1:10: Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

How did Jesus death destroy death? The law of love is the law of life, the law upon which all life in the universe was designed to operate. Death comes as the natural result of breaking the law of love, just like death comes as the natural result of breaking the law of respiration by tying a plastic bag over your head. Christ destroyed death by perfectly restoring the law of love, the basis for life, into mankind and overcoming the inherent infection of fear and selfishness (survival of the fittest). He did this when, in His humanity, He chose to surrender His life in love rather than use His power to save Himself. Thus, in Christ love overcame the infection of selfishness. The Good News – “The law of the Lord is Perfect Reviving the Soul” i.e. The kingdom of Love, emanating from the God of Love is Life and destroys death.

1John 3:8 The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil’s work.

What was the devil’s work? To misrepresent God, initially by lies, but then by co-opting mankind, who was created in God’s image to reveal God’s character, and replace God’s law of love with Satan’s law of selfishness (survival of the fittest) in the heart of man. Christ took our infirmity, condition, sinfulness upon Himself in order to heal, fix, resolve and resolve the sin problem. He did this by perfectly restoring God’s character of love back into the species human. In His human brain Christ lived God’s law of love perfectly revealing the true character of God that Adam was created to reveal. Thus He destroyed the devil’s work.

The life of Christ is to be revealed in humanity. Man was the crowning act of the creation of God, made in the image of God, and designed to be a counterpart of God; but Satan has labored [worked] to obliterate the image of God in man, and to imprint upon him his own image. Lift Him Up 48.

Mediation

Is Christ our mediator? Yes, to do what? Which way is He facing? Does the Father need Christ to plead to Him in order to persuade the Father to act in ways that will be for us?

If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? ³³ Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Romans 8:31-34

“Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. ²⁶ In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷ No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. John 16:25-27

Is mediation for human beings only, or for angels as well?

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Col 1:19,20

What does this mean? First God was in the Son carrying out the Father’s purpose for salvation and reconciliation. No need for the Son to plead to the Father if the Father is in the Son carry out the work. Secondly, the unfallen universe is reconciled to Christ as the cross!

“While we rejoice that there are worlds which have never fallen, these worlds render praise, and honor, and glory to Jesus Christ for the plan of redemption to save the fallen sons of Adam, as well as to confirm themselves in their position and character of purity. The arm that raised the human family from the ruin which Satan had brought upon the race through his temptations, is the arm which has preserved the inhabitants of other worlds from sin. Every world throughout immensity engages the care and support of the Father and the Son; and this care is constantly exercised for fallen humanity. Christ is mediating in behalf of man, and the order of unseen worlds also is preserved by his mediatorial work. Are not these themes of sufficient magnitude and importance to engage our thoughts, and call forth our gratitude and adoration to God?" {RH, January 11, 1881 par. 4}

Do we believe in mediation? Absolutely! Christ is God's envoy, ambassador, mediator, representative, conduit to the entire universe and mankind carrying out God's love and plans for His Creation!

Judgment

Who is being judged? Who was the one accused?

From my blog June 12, 2009 responding to a question about Revelation 14:7:

In order to understand Revelation 14:7 we must first understand the Biblical meaning of several of the words.

Fear in this context is referring to those who will bring God glory, so it is the experience of the saved not the lost. In this case fear is to be understood as awe, admiration, reverence, amazement, wonderment with God's awesomeness. Fear in this context is not to be understood as terror, dread or anxiety, because the Bible teaches that God is love and perfect love casts out all fear. These people who bring glory to God will know Him and His love and thus not be afraid.

Glory refers to God's character. In Exodus 33 and 34 God put Moses in the cleft of the rock and had His glory pass before Moses and what was described was not light, fire, or power, but God's character of love. Therefore, in this context those who bring glory to God are those who reveal God's character in their lives. Why is this important? What was the war in heaven, initiated by Lucifer, all about? It is and always has been about Lucifer's allegation that God could not be trusted. How did Satan spread his rebellion to earth? By deceiving our first parents in regard to God's trustworthiness.

We are fighting a war over the knowledge of God! Jesus said in John 17:3 that life eternal is “knowing God.” When we know God, are in unity with God, we have life. This is why Satan attacks God’s character because if he can get us to believe lies about God, our connection with God is severed and unless this situation is remedied we will die an eternal death. Paul in Romans chapter one tells us that when we reject the truth about God our minds become darkened, depraved, and foolish. Hebrews tells us that the new covenant experience is when God writes His law on our hearts and minds. When that happens no one will need to say to his brother “know the Lord for all will know me.” (8:10-12). And in Romans 3:4 Paul tells us that God is the One on trial, the One accused, and the One who will be proved innocent:

- God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. Romans 3:4 KJV
- May it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man be found a liar, as it is written, “That You may be justified in Your words, And prevail when You are judged.” NASB
- Certainly not! God must be true, even though every human being is a liar. As the scripture says, “You must be shown to be right when you speak; you must win your case when you are being tried.” GNT
- No! God will continue to be true even when every person is false. As the Scriptures say: “So you will be shown to be right when you speak, and you will win your case.” NCV

Satan lied about God and humanity believed those lies severing our connection with God. Christ came to restore that connection and reverse the damage sin caused humanity. At the end of time, God is calling for a people who know Him, who have rejected the lies Satan has told about Him, who have judged God to be trustworthy, and have thus open their hearts to Him and experience His healing power. Such people will be transformed to live lives of love, revealing God’s character in their lives, thus bringing glory to God! As such they are powerful witnesses to the world and universe of God's character of love, His methods and principles.

The Investigative Judgment

There are several texts that refer to the same event – Daniel 8:14, Daniel 7:9-14,21,22, Malachi 3:1-4, and the parable of the 10 virgins in Matthew 25. Each of these passages gives insight into the investigative judgment. My description here will not be comprehensive as entire books can be written on this subject. I instead will highlight issues pertinent to your question.

Daniel 8:14 is merely predicting the time this event will begin, no other significant details are given in the 8:14 text.

In Daniel 7 we are given more insight, but what is being described? Because of a preconceived idea that sin and its solution is a legal problem, some commentators have suggested this text is describing a judicial proceeding in heaven in which God is the great Judge who sits down to pronounce judgment upon all mankind, but this passage of Scripture does not actually say that, instead we have to read into the Scripture to come to that conclusion. If we take a more straightforward approach and ask what is being described in the context of the passage another idea emerges

“As I looked, “thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of his head was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze. A river of fire was flowing, coming out from before him. Thousands upon thousands attended him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court was seated, and the books were opened....“In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed. Daniel 7:9,10,13,14

Traditionally, because of the assumption that we are in legal trouble with God, most commentators read a legal meaning into the above passage. They see the word “court” as a place of judicial rulings, a courtroom. But what is being described is not a judicial proceeding. Instead what is described is a Royal Court! It is the Royal Court of the universe which is holding the Coronation of Christ! Some are uncomfortable with this conclusion and rest their entire position on the Hebrew word “diyn,” which is translated “court,” claiming this Hebrew word refers to a judicial proceeding. I refer them to The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament published in 1980 by Moody Press, which says:

This word, with its derived noun diyn is nearly identical in meaning with šaphat {shaw-fat} (q.v.) and its derived noun mišhpāt {mish-pawt} (q.v.). It appears only twenty-three times, a fraction of the times šaphat and mišhpāt appear. Of the twenty-three appearances, five are in parallel with šaphat (Jer 5:28; 22:16; Prov 31:8; Ps 7:8 [H 9]); 9:8 [H 9]) and twice more it is associated in the text with mišhpāt (Ps 72:2; Jer 21:12). Thus nearly a third of its occurrences show how closely the idea of diyn was identified or associated with the root šaphat. The verb also occurs in Ugaritic and in parallel with tp (the cognate of šaphat) (Fisher, RSP, vol. I, p. 166). Likewise a similar—nearly identical as far as it goes—list of terms is associated with diyn, demonstrating the near identity of meaning: with mêyšhar {may-shawr} “uprightness,” “equity” (Ps 96:10; cf. Ps 75:2); and with gaša (Ps 54:1 [H 3]; cf. Ps 72:4). As with šaphat it represents God’s government as both among his people (Israel) and among all peoples (Ps 135:14 “people”; Ps 7:8 [H 9] “peoples” cf Ps 72:2; Ps 9:8 [H 9]). As far as the small number of occurrences allows a test, the range of meanings is exactly the same: to govern, in the whole range of activities of government: legislative, executive, judicial, or otherwise. See the discussion of šhaphat and mišhpat. The difference between the terms is simply that diyyn is poetic, probably also an archaic and more elegant term. Of the twenty-three occurrences, only one is outside the Protestant grouping of poetical and poetical-prophetic literature. The exception is the single passive form—a Niphal participle (II Sam 19:9 [H 10]). The chief theological significance of this word is that apparently like šhaphat it embodies the idea of government, in whatever realm, in all its aspects.[1]

Therefore, I believe that the above credible authority on Hebrew supports "diyyn" as I have rendered it above. Once we recognize that the court seated is the Royal Court of the universe convening for the governmental action of coronating Christ, we can more clearly understand what occurs during the investigative judgment.

Daniel 7:21,22 gives insight:

As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them, until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.

The above rendering is from the NIV which many, who assume the legal model, prefer. But does the meaning of the passage change when we read from the King James Version?

Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Daniel 7:22

Which translation is more accurate? The Hebrew word translated "pronounced" actually means "to give" or "to impart" and thus the KJV would be more accurate in this context. Why do the saints of God need judgment (another word for discernment) imparted to them? The Daniel text tells us the horn warred against the saints and was defeating them. What kind of warfare was going on?

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2 Cor 10:3-5

What kind of war? Where is it being fought? This is a war between truth and lies, centering on God's character, and being fought in our minds! Amazingly, Paul makes the connection to the cleansing of the Temple even closer and shows how the Temple is connected to this war going on in our minds:

Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come. Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God. 2Thes 2:1-4

Paul is describing the exact same events as Daniel 7 in which evil powers war against the saints and oppose God. In the aftermath of Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven, did this man of lawlessness ride into heaven overthrow God, set himself up in God's temple in heaven, and proclaim himself to be God? No, where did this happen? In the Spirit Temple! In our minds! Therefore, the cleansing of the temple, as described in the Bible, is the cleansing of our minds from the lies about God, which wins us back to trust and results in our cleansing from sin.

Daniel is told in vision that an evil power would arise that would lie, distort, misrepresent God, and defile the Spirit Temple by getting humans to accept, worship, and teach a false picture of God. According to our understanding of interpreting prophetic time, it would take 2,300 years before enough truth would be recovered for Christ to empower His people on earth with judgment (discernment) to break free from the lies and be cleansed in their minds and characters.

All of this is confirmed for us by the other text describing the same event as Daniel 8:14, Malachi 3:1-3:

Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,” says the Lord Almighty. But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire or a launderer’s soap. He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver.

What is getting cleansed during the investigative judgment? The Levites. And who are the Levites? The Priesthood of believers (1Pet 2:5,9).

God is cleansing His people from what? 1) the lies about Him which keep us from trusting Him and 2) when we are won back to trust, He cleanses us from sin. God writes His law of love into our hearts. He restores His character of righteousness in us. This is what is happening during the investigative judgment.

How does this happen? By our investigating the truth about God as revealed in Christ, rejecting the lies, and clinging to the truth and trusting God!

Many have a very difficult time with this truth, because certain Bible passages are misunderstood, such as:

- As I judged your fathers in the desert of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Sovereign Lord.
Ezekiel 20:36
- You, then, why do you judge your brother? Or why do you look down on your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. Romans 14:10
- For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad. 2 Cor 5:10
- Since you call on a Father who judges each man's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear. 1Peter 1:17
- And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. Revelation 20:12

Traditionally, these texts are interpreted to mean that God's judgment determines our destiny, either saved or lost, in the form of an arbitrary decision on His part. But this is not the case. God's judgment is merely the accurate diagnosis of our condition, either healed and restored to Christlikeness or incurable. An example of God's judgment is found in Hosea 4:17:

Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone!

What is God's judgment in this case? Ephraim cannot be separated from his idols, so leave him the way he is. What determines our eternal destiny is not God's judgment upon us, but our judgment of God, which in turn makes us either fit or unfit for living in God's system of other-centered love. If we judge God trustworthy, then we open our heart and His Spirit heals us from sin. If, instead, we accept Satan's lies and judge God as untrustworthy, then we keep our heart closed and eventually move ourselves beyond His healing reach. One day all will stand in God's presence and their true condition will be revealed – this is God's judgment. Jesus describes this reality:

“Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” Matthew 12:33-37

It is our very condition that determines our eternal destiny. We cannot make ourselves good. We can only be made good by the power of God working in us. And what determines whether God's power is experienced within our hearts and minds? Whether we trust God and open our heart to Him or not.

This reality is stated beautifully in the book The Great Controversy:

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declares the verdict that the wicked are incurable. They have no disposition to submit to divine authority. Their will has been exercised in revolt; and when life is ended, it is too late to turn the current of their thoughts in the opposite direction, too late to turn from transgression to obedience, from hatred to love. GC 543.1

Does God's verdict make the wicked incurable or does God's verdict merely pronounce the reality that already exists in the hearts and minds of the lost – that they are incurable?

We do not need to fear God who is trying to save and heal us; we need to fear sin, which if unremedied, destroys us!

Thoughts?

Any suggestions on how, in our own church, to experience peace with someone who misrepresents in this way?

SUNDAY

Read memory verse at the top and then first two paragraphs, "To have..." thoughts?

Who is the "we" that was reconciled to God once and for all at the Cross? Each individual person or the human species of which we are a part? Does it make a difference?

What does it mean to be justified? When you justify the margins on a document what have you done? When mankind sinned what was out of harmony that needed to be put right with God? Was God changed by Adam's sin or mankind? Then what needed to be set right or put right, God or man? Justify means to put man back right with God – in what way?

How did Christ accomplish this?

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Is this justifying mankind? How?

MONDAY

Read dark section at top, “Come to me all you..” what does it mean to yoke up with Christ? Is it not the same so the EGW passages we read earlier about cooperation between the human and divine?

TUESDAY

Read second to last paragraph “Why do you think...” – thoughts?

What is peace of the world? Does the world actually give peace? What does Christ give us that provides peace?

Security for the future – we don’t need to worry about outcomes. When we trust Him He has our future in His hands, not just eternal future, but temporal futures as well.

How much of your stress and worry comes from worrying about the future?

Have you ever watched a football game? Have you ever experienced stress, anxiety, worry, uncertainty? Have you ever watched a game that was recorded and you already knew the final score before watching? Did you have the same stress and anxiety and worry or was their peace? What made the difference? Can we, in a trust relationship with God, know our future is secure?

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section – thoughts? Is it possible to leave at peace with all men? Physically? Spiritually? Relationally? Emotionally?

Do we as Christians ever go to court? Use physical force? What if a grandparent has Alzheimer’s and is confused, hallucinating, combative and dangerous, believing people are invading and has a gun? Should we go to court to get custody? Should we use force to provide protective care? Other examples?

Read first paragraph, "Strange as it..." thoughts? Why is it so difficult to have peace at home? What causes the conflict? How can we avoid it?

If we love in our homes does that mean we always give in and go along with the other? Does love ever say no? Does love ever raise its voice and shout? Does love discipline? What is the focus of love? Doing what is actually in the eternal best interest of the other, whether they understand or not!

THURSDAY

Read top dark section – thoughts? What if you reach out to someone you have wronged but they won't even meet with you, speak with you or communicate with you? How should we approach such a situation?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 and 2

The Fruits of the Spirit Lesson 5 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit is Patience

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts? The first paragraph tells us that there are two Greek words that mean patients, one connotes endurance in trial and the other long suffering or greatly tempered.

Do you see differences in these two aspects of patience?

Read last two paragraphs, “A patient person...” thoughts?

How do we develop patience? What does it take to experience this fruit of the Spirit? The lesson suggests it takes, practice, God’s grace and a willingness to put aside self and let the Holy Spirit lead.

Thoughts about that? What would be necessary in order to practice patience? Circumstances which try our patience? What would those circumstances look like? Would we call them trials?

Are there practical things we can do to cooperate with God to experience greater patience?

All of the fruits of the Spirit are what is experienced as a natural result of our humanity operating as God designed. More specifically the fruits of the Spirit are what is experienced when the brain/mind operate as God designed.

Impulsivity, irritability, lack of self-restraint, impatience, selfishness all occur when prefrontal cortex (PFC) is impaired and limbic system is dominant.

What activities help move us toward God’s design of a healthy PFC and a calm limbic system moving us toward greater fruits of the Spirit, and what activities damage PFC and inflame limbic system moving us away from the fruits of the Spirit?

- Activities which promote good physical health are good for the PFC and calm limbic system – so regular exercise, healthy diet, water, sunshine
- 7.5-8.5 hours of sleep per night
 - Sleep deprivation impairs PFC undermining reason, judgment, patience and self-control, increases irritability
- Alcohol and illegal drugs impair PFC
- Theatrical television watching activates limbic system and decreases PFC activity
- Lies about God, distortions about God increase fear (limbic system firing) and decrease activity in or damage PFC
 - God is a God of love but must kill you if you don't love Him
 - God is a God of love but we are all predestined by God for salvation or damnation
 - The problem with sin is that it makes God mad and if Christ isn't there to protect us from God we are in trouble
 - The more sin you commit the more God is going to use His power to inflict pain and suffering on you in the end
 - God doesn't send His angels with you into a movie theater
 - God sent an earthquake to punish Haiti
 - God sent AIDS to punish homosexuals
 - God doesn't want us to think, just believe, asking questions reveals a lack of faith
 - Others?
- Meditation on a God of love causes growth in the PFC (specifically the ACC) and calms the limbic system, any other god-concept results in inflaming of the limbic system and greater fear.
- Altruistic endeavors causes growth in PFC and calms limbic system. Selfish endeavors inflames the fear centers.
- Harmony with God's law of love
 - Lying, cheating, murdering etc. increases fear and damages PFC
- Over studying
 - Intemperance in study is a species of intoxication; and those who indulge in it, like the drunkard, wander from safe paths and stumble and fall in the darkness. The Lord would have every student bear in mind that the eye must be kept single to the glory of God. He is not to exhaust and waste his physical and mental powers in seeking to acquire all possible knowledge of the sciences, but is to preserve the freshness and vigor of all his powers to engage in the work which the Lord has appointed him in helping souls to find the path of righteousness. {CG 396.4}

What can we do to cooperate with God to experience greater Spiritual fruit?

- Exercise
- Eat healthy food
- Drink water
- Sunshine
- Regular sleep regimen
- Avoid toxins/poisons/alcohol/drugs
- Avoid theatrical entertainment
- Avoid over taxing the mind with too much study
- Come back to the true knowledge of God and meditate upon His character daily
- Trust God with your future
- Engage in service to others (give of self)
- Live in harmony with God's law

SUNDAY

Patience is an attribute of God – read memory verse at the top

The first two paragraphs describe God's dealing with Nineveh and how patient he was. What do you think about a God who is patient?

Was God patient with Lucifer?

God in His great mercy bore long with Lucifer. He was not immediately degraded from his exalted station when he first indulged the spirit of discontent, nor even when he began to present his false claims before the loyal angels. Long was he retained in heaven. Again and again he was offered pardon on condition of repentance and submission. Such efforts as only infinite love and wisdom could devise were made to convince him of his error. The spirit of discontent had never before been known in heaven. Lucifer himself did not at first see whither he was drifting; he did not understand the real nature of his feelings. But as his dissatisfaction was proved to be without cause, Lucifer was convinced that he was in the wrong, that the divine claims were just, and that he ought to acknowledge them as such before all heaven. Had he done this, he might have saved himself and many angels. He had not at this time fully cast off his allegiance to God. Though he had forsaken his position as covering cherub, yet if he had been willing to return to God, acknowledging the Creator's wisdom, and satisfied to fill the place appointed him in God's great plan, he would have been reinstated in his office. But pride forbade him to submit. He persistently defended his own course, maintained that he had no need of repentance, and fully committed himself, in the great controversy, against his Maker. {GC 495.3}

Thoughts? Was God patient with Lucifer? What about the idea Lucifer could be reinstated after lying, bearing false witness against God without Christ dying to pay his legal penalty for breaking God's law?

How does Satan twist the beauty of God's patience against God?

Almost the exact same paragraph as above is found in PP followed by this:

A compassionate Creator, in yearning pity for Lucifer and his followers, was seeking to draw them back from the abyss of ruin into which they were about to plunge. But His mercy was misinterpreted. Lucifer pointed to the long-suffering of God as an evidence of his own superiority, an indication that the King of the universe would yet accede to his terms. If the angels would stand firmly with him, he declared, they could yet gain all that they desired. He persistently defended his own course, and fully committed himself to the great controversy against his Maker. Thus it was that Lucifer, "the light bearer," the sharer of God's glory, the attendant of His throne, by transgression became Satan, "the adversary" of God and holy beings and the destroyer of those whom Heaven had committed to his guidance and guardianship. {PP 39.2}

How does Satan turn God's patience against Him? First by alleging God is weak and will ultimately give in and allow Satan his way. But there is another way God's patience is misrepresented –

Turn to FRIDAY's lesson and read first paragraph –

In His dealings with the human race, God bears long with the impenitent. He uses His appointed agencies to call men to allegiance, and offers them His full pardon if they will repent. But because God is long-suffering, men presume on His mercy. "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil." The patience and long-suffering of God, which should soften and subdue the soul, has an altogether different influence upon the careless and sinful. It leads them to cast off restraint, and strengthens them in resistance. They think that the God who has borne so much from them will not heed their perversity. If we lived in a dispensation of immediate retribution, offenses against God would not occur so often. But though delayed, the punishment is none the less certain. There are limits even to the forbearance of God. The boundary of His long-suffering may be reached, and then He will surely punish. And when He does take up the case of the presumptuous sinner, He will not cease till He has made a full end. {3BC 1166.1}

Thoughts? How is God's patience turned against God and God's goal to heal and save sinners? By deceiving people that it doesn't matter, we can repent at any time, wait until our deathbed etc.

But how can the above passage, which rightly points out the folly in misunderstanding God's patience also be misunderstood to introduce another error?

Turn to WEDNESDAY's Lesson

Read first two paragraphs – thoughts?

Read fourth paragraph, “It might be argued that...” thoughts? Was waiting generations before losing patience an option for the antediluvians? Is it an option for angels? Will it be an option in the new heaven and earth?

Does God run out of patience? Is that the problem? If God could be patient just a little longer then we would have a greater opportunity for repentance? Is the problem God's limited patience?

This is a classic misunderstanding projected into writings based on a preconceived idea about God – namely that He must eventually punish. The statement from Friday's lesson doesn't state that God loses His patience. It states “There are limits even to the forbearance of God.” The question - What are those limits and how does God punish?

You see many people who hold to a god-concept in which God is the all powerful Sovereign of the universe who walks softly but carries a big stick. They like to take these quotations and not balance them with statements from the same author who explains what such words mean. So, what are the limits and how does God punish?

- We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

I recently discovered some people criticizing my use of this passage. They claim it only applies to the consequences of sin in this life and not to what happens to the wicked in the end. Amazing twists people go to in order to believe God is the source of death and inflicts pain and suffering on His creatures. So let's read some more:

- After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: ³ "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."
- "I was shown that the judgments of God would not come directly out from the Lord upon them, but in this way; They place themselves beyond His protection. He warns, corrects, reproves, and points out the only path of safety; then if those who have been the objects of His special care will follow their own course, independent of the Spirit of God, after repeated warnings, if they choose their own way, then He does not commission His angels to prevent Satan's decided attacks upon them. It is Satan's power that is at work at sea and on land, bringing calamity and distress, and sweeping off multitudes to make sure of his prey, and storm and tempest both by sea and land will be, for Satan has come down in great wrath. He is at work. He knows his time is short and, he is not restrained; we shall see more terrible manifestations of his great power than we have ever dreamed of."
Manuscript Release vol. 14, p. 3

What are the limits of God's forbearance? Is there some inherent limit in God, He can only take so much and then His patience runs out or is the limit in the ability of His creatures to be healed?

Thoughts?

When Satan was cast out of heaven, what was the limit of God's patience? Did God have some divine limitation on His internal patience or was there something about the condition of Lucifer that meant no further patience on God's part would afford any benefit?

From ST January 9, 1879, paragraph 7: "It would not have been safe to suffer any who united with Satan in his rebellion to continue to occupy heaven. They had learned the lesson of genuine rebellion against the unchangeable law of God; and this is incurable."

Is it the same with the wicked in the end? So when we talk about the forbearance of God having limits, what is the limit? The ability of His creatures to be healed!

God has given in His word decisive evidence that He will punish the transgressors of His law. Those who flatter themselves that He is too merciful to execute justice upon the sinner, have only to look to the cross of Calvary. The death of the spotless Son of God testifies that "the wages of sin is death," that every violation of God's law must receive its just retribution. Christ the sinless became sin for man. He bore the guilt of transgression, and the hiding of His Father's face, until His heart was broken and His life crushed out. All this sacrifice was made that sinners might be redeemed. In no other way could man be freed from the penalty of sin. And every soul that refuses to become a partaker of the atonement provided at such a cost must bear in his own person the guilt and punishment of transgression... {GC 539.3}

God has given to men a declaration of His character and of His method of dealing with sin. "The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty." Exodus 34:6, 7. "All the wicked will He destroy." "The transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off." Psalms 145:20; 37:38. The power and authority of the divine government will be employed to put down rebellion; yet all the manifestations of retributive justice will be perfectly consistent with the character of God as a merciful, long-suffering, benevolent being. {GC 541.2}

God does not force the will or judgment of any. He takes no pleasure in a slavish obedience. He desires that the creatures of His hands shall love Him because He is worthy of love. He would have them obey Him because they have an intelligent appreciation of His wisdom, justice, and benevolence. And all who have a just conception of these qualities will love Him because they are drawn toward Him in admiration of His attributes. {GC 541.3}

The principles of kindness, mercy, and love, taught and exemplified by our Saviour, are a transcript of the will and character of God. Christ declared that He taught nothing except that which He had received from His Father. The principles of the divine government are in perfect harmony with the Saviour's precept, "Love your enemies." God executes justice upon the wicked, for the good of the universe, and even for the good of those upon whom His judgments are visited. He would make them happy if He could do so in accordance with the laws of His government and the justice of His character. He surrounds them with the tokens of His love, He grants them a knowledge of His law, and follows them with the offers of His mercy; but they despise His love, make void His law, and reject His mercy. While constantly receiving His gifts, they dishonor the Giver; they hate God because they know that He abhors their sins. The Lord bears long with their perversity; but the decisive hour will come at last, when their destiny is to be decided. Will He then chain these rebels to His side? Will He force them to do His will? {GC 541.4}

Those who have chosen Satan as their leader and have been controlled by his power are not prepared to enter the presence of God. Pride, deception, licentiousness, cruelty, have become fixed in their characters. Can they enter heaven to dwell forever with those whom they despised and hated on earth? Truth will never be agreeable to a liar; meekness will not satisfy self-esteem and pride; purity is not acceptable to the corrupt; disinterested love does not appear attractive to the selfish. What source of enjoyment could heaven offer to those who are wholly absorbed in earthly and selfish interests? {GC 542.1}

Could those whose lives have been spent in rebellion against God be suddenly transported to heaven and witness the high, the holy state of perfection that ever exists there,-- every soul filled with love, every countenance beaming with joy, enrapturing music in melodious strains rising in honor of God and the Lamb, and ceaseless streams of light flowing upon the redeemed from the face of Him who sitteth upon the throne,--could those whose hearts are filled with hatred of God, of truth and holiness, mingle with the heavenly throng and join their songs of praise? Could they endure the glory of God and the Lamb? No, no; years of probation were granted them, that they might form characters for heaven; but they have never trained the mind to love purity; they have never learned the language of heaven, and now it is too late. A life of rebellion against God has unfitted them for heaven. Its purity, holiness, and peace would be torture to them; the glory of God would be a consuming fire. They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is voluntary with themselves, and just and merciful on the part of God. {GC 542.2}

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable. They have no disposition to submit to divine authority. Their will has been exercised in revolt; and when life is ended, it is too late to turn the current of their thoughts in the opposite direction, too late to turn from transgression to obedience, from hatred to love. {GC 543.1}

And what does God do to the wicked in the end? How are they punished?

- God is the fountain of life, and we can have life only as we are in communion with Him. Separated from God, existence may be ours for a little time, but we do not possess life. "She that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth." 1 Timothy 5:6. Only through the surrender of our will to God is it possible for Him to impart life to us. Only by receiving His life through self-surrender is it possible, said Jesus, for these hidden sins, which I have pointed out, to be overcome. It is possible that you may bury them in your hearts and conceal them from human eyes, but how will you stand in God's presence? {MB 61.2}

If you cling to self, refusing to yield your will to God, you are choosing death. To sin, wherever found, God is a consuming fire. If you choose sin, and refuse to separate from it, the presence of God, which consumes sin, must consume you. {MB 62.1}

- The sinner's own thoughts are his accusers; and there can be no torture keener than the stings of a guilty conscience, which give him no rest day nor night. {DA 223.3}
- The light of the glory of God, which imparts life to the righteous, will slay the wicked. {DA 107.4}

Thoughts? What is God's justice? What is the punishment and penalty for sin? What causes the wicked to suffer? It is time we in our church stop promoting lies about God, stop making God out to be the source of pain and suffering and death.

Back to SUNDAY's lesson

Read third paragraph, "If someone were to ask..." well said! What do you think about this paragraph?

Where would we ever get an idea that God is angry or quick to punish or loses His patience?

Is it important to read widely and include the entire inspired record?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “The church is made...” thoughts?

What do you think the lesson means by the spiritually mature? I was confused because I thought the mature were those who possessed the fruits of the Spirit, which would include patience, therefore to be impatient would be evidence of not being mature? Do you see how confused I am?

Or is it perhaps, the lesson is confusing spiritually mature individuals with those who are Christianized, experienced cultural Christians, those who now all the rituals, rules, norms, what foods to eat, clothes to wear, days to keep holy, adornments to avoid, and how to give eloquent public sermons and prayers?

- It is possible to have just enough religion to deaden the conscience, deceive the senses, and ruin the soul; just enough outward appearance of sanctity to have a name to live, while we are dead. {YI, September 20, 1894 par. 5}

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, “Patience in the church...” – thoughts? Questions? What does it mean “had to pray”?

TUESDAY

Read third paragraph, “We are prone to think...” thoughts?

Some really good points in this paragraph, like never condemning those who don’t accept certain doctrines, and not being judgmental. How are we doing?

What is our attitude toward those who don’t accept the Sabbath? What is our attitude toward those who wear jewelry, eat pork, or drink alcohol? Do we judge? Do we condemn?

Why are doctrines important and what mistakes do we often make with doctrines?

Doctrines are only important as they inform us about God and connect us to Him. If they fail to do this they are irrelevant to our salvation.

A danger with doctrines is that we can set them up as standalone elements with proof texts and go out and promote the doctrines and never actually reveal the truth about God. Such a systemized religion is a distortion and obstruction to knowing God. This is what the Pharisees did in Christ's day and what much of the religious world does.

Our doctrines must always be avenues into the heart of God, lead us to a greater intimacy with God or be discarded!

Can we do this with all of our doctrines?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, "The Greek word..." thoughts? How are trials related to our character development?

Will you ever develop any strength or skill without exercise? In the gym will you develop muscle strength without lifting weights? And in order to get stronger must the pressure, or difficulty, or weight increase? Does this have bearing on our character?

As a musician will you become more accomplished without practice? Will the difficulty or trial or complexity of the music have to increase?

Does this give us insight into why the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil was placed in the Garden of Eden as a "test"? Was it for them to be tripped up and fail? Or was it necessary for Adam and Eve, as free sentient beings, to examine the issues of God's trustworthiness and actually exercise their own wills, minds and choose loyalty to God? One of the purposes of the Tree was for their maturity and growth!

Does this apply to our lives today?

But read last paragraph, "This does not mean..." very important to remember that not every trial or difficulty in this world is there because we need it to grow.

FRIDAY

Questions 1 and 3 read a discuss

The Fruits of the Spirit Lesson 6 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit is Kindness

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “When Paul illustrated...” thoughts?

What is kindness? What does it look like, sound like? What does it mean to be kind?

1. of a good or benevolent nature or disposition, as a person: a kind and loving person.
2. having, showing, or proceeding from benevolence: kind words.
3. indulgent, considerate, or helpful; humane (often fol. by to): to be kind to animals.
4. mild; gentle; clement: kind weather.

How does kindness look in action?

Read second paragraph “Patience,..” thoughts? If we speak with a loud, intense, angry tone, even a commanding tone would that be kind? Do circumstances matter? Does the heart attitude matter? Does the goal one is trying to achieve matter? Or is it only our behavior? Can our behavior appear hostile, yet our action be kind?

When God thundered at Sinai was He being kind? Is God ever unkind? Why did God thunder at Sinai? What was He trying to accomplish? Was it God’s preferred method of interacting with His intelligent creatures? Then why do it?

Parents, have you ever had a child who was rebellious? Into self destructive behaviors? Have you ever “thundered” at them, to put the “fear of God” into them? Did you really want and desire your child to be afraid and live in fear of you? Then why did you do it? Were you willing to allow your child to live in fear of you for awhile? Why? What was your goal? What were you trying to accomplish? Was this kind? Was it kind for God to intervene the way He did?

Is God ever unkind? What about in the treatment of the wicked in the end?

SUNDAY

Have you ever heard, “Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect”? When you have heard this what ideas come to your mind?

- Perfect behavior?
- Perfect performance?
- Perfect Sabbath keeping?
- Perfect speech, dress, housekeeping?

Read Matthew 5:43-48:

You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’⁴⁴ But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,⁴⁵ that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.⁴⁶ If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that?⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that?⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

What does it mean to be perfect as our Father is perfect? Does it mean something different when we shift the focus of perfection from our behavior primarily, to our heart attitude? We are to love others more than ourselves, does this shift the focus?

When we think of perfection as performance where is our focus? On ourselves, how we are doing, how we are performing, how we can be better, whether we measure up. And what does such a focus lead to? More fear, anxiety, insecurity, uncertainty or more elitism, arrogance, pride, judgmentalism. Is this God’s goal for us?

- So when we see a neighbor struggling to carry a fallen tree branch out of their yard on Sabbath – wanting to be perfect like our Father in heaven in this understanding what do we do?

What if we focus on perfection in love, where is our focus? On others, how we can uplift, bless, encourage, minister, serve. And what does such a focus lead to? Peace, joy, quiet confidence, wellbeing, health!

- Now, with such a focus what do we do when we see a neighbor struggling?
- What did Christ do when He saw the sick on Sabbath?
- What did the Pharisees do?

What does it take to live a life of love?

None who have a sense of their accountability to God will allow the animal propensities to control reason. Those who do this are not Christians, whoever they may be and however exalted their profession. The injunction of Christ is, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." Matthew 5:48. He here shows us that we may be as perfect in our sphere as God is in His sphere.-- Testimonies for the Church, vol. 4, pp. 454, 455 (1880).

Thoughts? Can we love well without being reasonable? Can we love well when we let our animal propensities control reason? What are the animal propensities? Survival of the fittest, which is fear, watching out for self. Our reason must rise above our instincts, our fears, our insecurities and choose to love, to give, to do what is best for the other person even when we don't feel like it.

From the time I realized that fear is part of the infection of sin, whenever I experience fear, insecurity, anxiety I pray, "Lord, fear is part of the infection of sin. I was born with this infection, but I don't want to be controlled by it. Please fill my heart with your love. Enlighten me with truth and empower me to choose to do what is right in spite of feelings of fear."

One other thought on being perfect as our Father in heaven in perfect:

God's ideal for His children is higher than the highest human thought can reach. "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." This command is a promise. The plan of redemption contemplates our complete recovery from the power of Satan. Christ always separates the contrite soul from sin. He came to destroy the works of the devil, and He has made provision that the Holy Spirit shall be imparted to every repentant soul, to keep him from sinning. {DA 311.2}

Thoughts? What is the devil's work? To destroy the image of God in man and put Satan's image in its place. God wants to remove all fear, insecurity, selfishness and restore perfect Godlike love into our hearts – here and now!

Genuine love, perfection in love means to love our enemies. Let's look at Monday's lesson.

MONDAY

2Samuel 9 recounts the story of King David's kindness to the son of Jonathan, Mephibosheth.

The lesson asks, "How did he, by this act, reveal the character of God?"

Read first paragraph, "Through reports..."

What lessons do we see regarding the great controversy? Why did Mephibosheth become prejudiced against David? Because of rumors, gossip, reports of enemies. Has God had lies, rumors, distortions spread about Him? How has God responded? With patience, love and truth.

How did King David treat Mephibosheth? With patience and love which demonstrated the truth of David's character and eventually resulted in Mephibosheth being won to trust David.

But what if Mephibosheth never had any personal encounters with David? What if he managed to avoid ever talking with David and just continued to harbor the stories he heard?

What about those who only hear the lies, falsehoods, and distorted theologies taught about God, but never hear the truth or encounter God for themselves?

When I moved to Dalton I met Christie and very shortly thereafter began asking her out. She began telling me no. She actually turned me down 6 times over 8 months before she went out with me. Later I found out why. She had been dating someone else who had been telling her lies about me. It took 8 months of going by, talking to her, interacting with her before she had enough personal experience to say, "I am not seeing what I was told." And then decided to go out to get more evidence.

When someone misrepresents us, lies about us, our reputations can be hurt and the only remedy is evidence over time.

When we present the truth about God Satan hates it and stirs up all his forces to attack and obstruct. Read about Jeremiah and how he was bitterly opposed and mistreated. Look at Christ who was the light to lighten all men, how did they treat Him?

It has been my experience that when anyone is presenting the truth about God, Satan will marshal his forces to attack them, to tell lies about them, to start rumors and controversy to divert the attention away from God onto other issues.

Watch for this Satanic strategy of diversion, the message we teach is about God. Satan cannot defeat this message so if the message itself cannot be defeated divert the attention away from the truth about God onto some rumor.

But we have the opportunity to be like David, who even though Mephibosheth thought wrongly about him, David still reached out in love and kindness.

We want to pray, “Father fill our hearts with love for those who would attack us.” Let’s as a class resolve, as we go forward presenting the truth about God, that the more vicious the attacks upon us, the more kind, patient and loving we will be. When we find out who is behind an attack let’s pray for them.

- Father, fill our hearts with love, love for you and love for our enemies. Let your love flow through us to them. We pray for our enemies now. We know they are our enemies only because they don’t know you. They don’t have an experience with your love, your kindness, they haven’t seen the beauty of your face or been held in your tender arms. Or there is some lie at work, some falsehood, some misunderstanding and we pray for truth, the truth that heals, the truth that sets free so you’re your family on earth may be united in love. Father, reach those who would do us harm with your kindness, grace and love. Empower our hearts to love them, that all our actions will be in harmony with your character and we may all become one with you. Amen

If we know them personally should we, like David, seek to bless them?

How can we today, love our enemies? We need to recognize it is at such times we have the opportunity to enter into union with God, to participate with Him in living His love! What practical things can we do here and now to love those who lie about us?

- As far as possible protect them and their reputations?
 - Jesus protected the reputations of those seeking to trap Him when they brought the woman caught in adultery before Him
- Avoid retaliation against them
 - Why do we not have to retaliate? What does sin do to the sinner?

- Seek to reconcile, reach out to present the truth in love, to forgive
 - God seeks after us, presents the truth in love and forgives

What if we do all of this and they remain our enemy and continue to spread lies about us and stir up opposition to us?

TUESDAY

The lesson suggests three different needs that call for three types of kindness. The first is kindness to spiritual babies. How can you tell the spiritual babes from the spiritually mature? What do spiritually mature look like? What do spiritual babes look like?

- Were the Pharisees and Sadducees spiritually mature or spiritual babes or not even babes because they weren't converted?
- How did they present themselves?
- Were there many people who thought the Pharisees were spiritually mature?
- In our church today do we have Pharisees, those who aren't even truly converted going around the church purporting to be the spiritually mature? How can you tell?

The last paragraph talks about kindness in our homes and the importance of kind speech in our homes. Excellent point – thoughts about this?

Who gets damaged by unkind speech? Everyone – the children are especially vulnerable because the younger they are the less capable of understanding the truth. Children personalize harsh speech and internalize criticism and harsh words as part of their forming sense of self.

But what happens to the person who speaks harsh words? I have never met someone yet, who after losing their temper and saying ugly words, once they cooled down, was proud of themselves, had better self worth or esteem. No, such behavior always damages the one who engages in it!

What about kind hearing? Is it also important to hear things in the kindest way possible? Any examples?

- When someone is angry, says unkind or critical or mean words how can you hear it in a kind way?
 - From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks –
 - This is my spouse, who loves me, something must be terrible amiss for them to speak such harsh words to me. What is going on with my spouse? “sweetheart, I don’t know what is going on with you right now, but if you need to shout, it’s okay. I love you anyway. Go ahead, get it off your chest and then let’s talk.”
- What are you wearing? That is the ugliest dress ever.
 - How would you hear this? What would be an example of “kind hearing”?
 - Thank you for letting me know this isn’t one of your favorites. What is it you don’t like about it?
- Why are you buying an SUV, they are gas guzzlers.
 - How would you hear this?
 - “Thank you for thinking about me, for wanting to protect me from financial hardship with escalating gas prices. It means a lot knowing you are willing to share your insights with me. You’ve raised a good point and I will think carefully about it before I make my final decision.”

Other examples?

THURSDAY

Read last paragraph – “When we teach...” well said, thoughts?

Do you think we waste a lot of time in our church arguing over doctrines? What is the final message of mercy to go to the world?

“It is the darkness of misapprehension of God that is enshrouding the world. Men are losing their knowledge of His character. It has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At this time a message from God is to be proclaimed, a message illuminating in its influence and saving in its power. His character is to be made known. Into the darkness of the world is to be shed the light of His glory, the light of His goodness, mercy and truth...The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is the revelation of His character of love.” Christ's Object Lessons, p.415

How much energy is utilized in trying to argue this doctrine versus that doctrine rather than presenting the truth about God’s character of love?

What are some of the roots to theological error and mistakes? How can we take a truth and create obstruction to truth, with the truth?

Imagine a 1000 piece puzzle, each piece is part of a larger whole, which when assembled reveals a beautiful picture.

The Bible and inspired record is like this, more than a 1000 pieces, all of which need to be assembled into a beautiful picture. And what is the picture the Bible is to reveal? The true picture of God.

But historically we take a single piece of the puzzle and study it in detail, its shape, the colors on it, its thickness and we pull it out of the whole and make it a point of study on its own. We do this with doctrines. Pull out the Sabbath, study it, prove it with proof texts, review the history of Sabbath throughout human civilization, but we fail to take that piece of the puzzle and put it back into the whole. And what happens, we take a truth – the Sabbath, and create error, like God is arbitrary and the Sabbath is an arbitrary test of obedience. We miss the big picture and actually make it harder to see God. Just imagine trying to understand the picture of a 1000 piece puzzle with 1 piece.

This is what the Jews did in Christ’s day – they had the Sabbath doctrine, but they couldn’t see God!

Or we take multiple pieces and assemble them together, 4 or 5, 50 or 60, creating distorted pictures of the true reality of God.

How can we avoid doing this today? When you start putting a puzzle together where do you start? Isn't always with the straight edges putting together the border? Why do you start with this? Because the straight edges are a standard, easily recognized and measured. Likewise, when we study God's word we start with measurable, reliable, and testable truths like God's law of love and liberty – the design template for life. And the place we see God's law most clearly revealed is.....? Jesus, the life of Jesus He was God's law in living flesh – the Word became flesh and dwelt among us! He was the fulfillment of the law!

One other major error in theology is taking the testimony statements, declarations, proclamations and building a picture on these divorced from the facts or evidence of what actually happened.

Imagine going to an Aborigine who has never heard anything about the Bible or God and taking one scripture verse away from the rest of scripture and tell him, "God is love." While true, this text, wrested, away from the rest of scripture is meaningless. We need the evidence of God dealing with humanity, culminating in the life of Christ. This is what gives the statement "God is love" power!

Likewise, some of the worst theology is built of the "proof texts" of scripture disconnected from the comprehensive history of the actions of God, what He actually did.

When we think about this process should we conclude that all the beliefs in the 28 fundamentals are 100% accurate or correct to their fullest degree? If truth is unfolding, if God is infinite and we are finite, wouldn't it stand to reason that we don't know it all, that there is more to learn and unlearn? Couldn't we figure this out just on the evidence itself? But many need permission from an authority other than the truth itself to accept such an idea:

There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation. {CW 35.2}

We are living in perilous times, and it does not become us to accept everything claimed to be truth without examining it thoroughly; neither can we afford to reject anything that bears the fruits of the Spirit of God; but we should be teachable, meek and lowly of heart. There are those who oppose everything that is not in accordance with their own ideas, and by so doing they endanger their eternal interest as verily as did the Jewish nation in their rejection of Christ. {CW 35.3}

The Lord designs that our opinions shall be put to the test, that we may see the necessity of closely examining the living oracles to see whether or not we are in the faith. Many who claim to believe the truth have settled down at their ease, saying, "I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing." --Review and Herald, December 20, 1892. {CW 36.1}

We have many lessons to learn, and many, many to unlearn. God and heaven alone are infallible. Those who think that they will never have to give up a cherished view, never have occasion to change an opinion, will be disappointed. As long as we hold to our own ideas and opinions with determined persistency, we cannot have the unity for which Christ prayed. {RH, July 26, 1892 par. 7}

Thoughts? Are we in error for questioning, studying, challenging long held beliefs pressing ever forward to a closer unity and knowledge of God?

One of the beauties of the SDA church is that it has never had a creed, a required set of beliefs that one must adhere to.

When God's Word is studied, comprehended, and obeyed, a bright light will be reflected to the world; new truths, received and acted upon, will bind us in strong bonds to Jesus. The Bible, and the Bible alone, is to be our creed, the sole bond of union; all who bow to this Holy Word will be in harmony. Our own views and ideas must not control our efforts. Man is fallible, but God's Word is infallible. Instead of wrangling with one another, let men exalt the Lord. Let us meet all opposition as did our Master, saying, "It is written." Let us lift up the banner on which is inscribed, The Bible our rule of faith and discipline.-- The Review and Herald, Dec. 15, 1885. {1SM 416.2}

Why is the Bible to be the sole bond of union? What is the central message of the Bible? What is the purpose of the Bible? What is the point of studying the Bible? It is all about the true knowledge of God! We are to be united in our understanding of and love for God!

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section, "Give..." thoughts? Is this not describing the law of love?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? If we have awareness of the law of love and realize how it works and that blessings will accompany loving others, does that mean all our love for others is selfish?

I had a student once put the proposition to me that selfishness is the way to true happiness, that understanding God's laws we should keep them so that we will benefit from them and that healthy self-centeredness is God's goal for us. Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, "There are many..." thoughts?

Read and discuss questions 1,2 and 4

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 7 1Q 2009

The Fruit of the Spirit is Goodness

SABBATH

What is goodness? What does goodness look like?

Read Memory verse:

For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. Eph 2:10

– thoughts?

God's workmanship – thoughts about this? Ty Gibson points out that the Greek for workmanship is poiema and can also mean poem, or artwork, or masterpiece. Thoughts about that idea?

What was God's original purpose for the creation of mankind? What was transpiring in the universe when God created earth?

The loyal angels mourned the fate of those who had been their companions in happiness and bliss. Their loss was felt in heaven. The Father consulted Jesus in regard to at once carrying out their purpose to make man to inhabit the earth.-- ST Jan. 9, 1879. {TA 47.3}

Was man created before or after Lucifer's rebellion?

Is the creation of mankind part of God's response to Satan's rebellion?

After the earth with its teeming animal and vegetable life had been called into existence, man, the crowning work of the Creator, and the one for whom the beautiful earth had been fitted up, was brought upon the stage of action. To him was given dominion over all that his eye could behold; for "God said, Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over . . . all the earth. . . . So God created man in His own image; . . . male and female created He them." Here is clearly set forth the origin of the human race....

He was placed, as God's representative, over the lower orders of being. They cannot understand or acknowledge the sovereignty of God, yet they were made capable of loving and serving man. The psalmist says, "Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet: . . . the beasts of the field; the fowl of the air, . . . and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas." Psalm 8:6-8. {PP 45.1}

Man was to bear God's image, both in outward resemblance and in character. Christ alone is "the express image" (Hebrews 1:3) of the Father; but man was formed in the likeness of God. His nature was in harmony with the will of God. His mind was capable of comprehending divine things.

Did God create mankind, in Eden, to do good works? What good works? Could it be the good works of revealing the truth about God?

The life of Christ is to be revealed in humanity. Man was the crowning act of the creation of God, made in the image of God, and designed to be a counterpart of God; but Satan has labored to obliterate the image of God in man, and to imprint upon him his own image. Man is very dear to God, because he was formed in His own image. LHU 48

What is the nature of God? Love! And mankind was created in God's image, what do you think God designed to be the basis of life in Eden? Love, and what would Adam and Eve reveal about God had they stayed loyal? Mankind was created as the repository of God's law of love, the showcase!

Is it a good work to reveal God in our lives? How do we treat others when we love as God loves?

What does it mean “in Christ Jesus”? That because of Adam’s fall we cannot, naturally, in our own ability love or do anything good. Therefore, Christ came to restore in humanity God’s law of love, God’s goodness, God’s character, to make man again the dwelling place of God.

In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit. The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,--from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. "The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver." Mal. 3:1-3.
{DA 161.1}

It is only through Christ, His personal life on earth, His victory, His death and resurrection and our connection with Him that we can experience again the indwelling of God, the writing of the law of love on the heart and doing good works.

SUNDAY

Read fourth paragraph, "Think of human relationships..."
Thoughts?

Absolutely true that we were created by God to experience love, caring, compassion etc. Is that why we are able to experience these things today, because God created us that way? Or is something else going on besides the fact God created us this way?

The Lord says, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman." The enmity does not exist as a natural fact. As soon as Adam sinned, he was in harmony with the first great apostate, and at war with God; and if God had not interfered in man's behalf, Satan and man would have formed a confederacy against heaven, and carried on united opposition against the God of hosts. There is no natural enmity between evil angels and evil men; both are evil through transgression of the law of God, and evil will always league against good. Fallen men and fallen angels enter into a desperate companionship. {ST, July 11, 1895 par. 5}

Thoughts? It is true God created us to love and care for others. But God's creative designed was marred by sin/selfishness. Today, natural man has no capacity for love and care and concern. Any good, love, compassion is evidence of God's work in the human heart to restore and recreate. Thus, it is no longer I that live but Christ lives in me.

MONDAY

The title of the day's lesson is "All Have Sinned." Why? Why have "all sinned?" How many of you made a choice to be a sinner? How many of you sinned before you were capable of experiencing a changed heart and having, through God's grace, victory over sin? Does God blame us for being sinners? What is sin?

All sin is selfishness. Satan's first sin was a manifestation of selfishness. He sought to grasp power, to exalt self. A species of insanity led him to seek to supersede God. And the temptation that led Adam to sin was Satan's declaration that it was possible for man to attain to something more than he already enjoyed, possible for him to be as God Himself. The sowing of seeds of selfishness in the human heart was the first result of the entrance of sin into the world. God desires every one to understand the evil of selfishness, and to co operate with Him in guarding the human family against its terrible, deceptive powers. The design of the gospel is to confront this evil by means of remedial missionary work, and to destroy its destructive power by establishing enterprises of benevolence. {The Worker's Bulletin, September 9, 1902 par. 3}

How many of you were selfish from birth? Psalms 51:5 "born in sin conceived in iniquity." Why do all sin? Because we all have sinful hearts, and left on our own, without God's grace, God's power, God's Spirit we cannot help but sin. But, God has intervened to provide us an option. We do not have to remain under the domination of our inherent selfish nature.

What are we held accountable for? Are we held accountable for being born sinners or for not choosing the remedy, the truth which sets free? For not loving the truth, for not loving God.

They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. 2Thes 2:10

We are held accountable for rejecting the truth, for rejecting the salvation offered us freely. We are not held accountable for the fact we were born in a condition we had no choice to avoid.

Read dark section "How often we hear..." thoughts? All good, done by anyone is only because the Holy Spirit is working in their lives.

Read last paragraph, “Years ago...” thoughts?

Where does man look? Where does God look?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “While it cannot...” – thoughts?

What does it mean “blood bought”?

- Was Christ’s death necessary for our salvation? Absolutely yes!
- Are we saved by the blood – i.e. the red corpuscles? Or is the blood symbolic of something else?
- When Christ said unless we eat His flesh and drink His blood was He speaking of literal flesh and blood? Was He speaking of the same “blood” that was shed to save us or a different blood?
- When scripture speaks of the shedding of blood for the remission of sins are they speaking merely of spilling blood, as if Christ cut Himself and shed blood that would be enough, or is it a way of saying Christ’s life sacrificed?
- Did Satan, through Herod, try to kill baby Jesus? Was baby Jesus sinless? If Herod would have succeeded would the blood of Jesus have been shed? Then why didn’t God do that? Because the mere shedding of blood was not enough to ensure our salvation. It is not about red corpuscles. It is about what the blood represents and it represents His human life (divinity cannot die so the blood cannot represent the death of divinity). And as a baby, what had Christ accomplished in His human life/brain?
- Did the red corpuscles of Christ “purchase” anything? If somehow we recovered a piece of the burial cloth of Jesus, and it still had dried blood of Jesus on it. Could we present this to God and say, “Here is the blood of Jesus and with this I purchase my salvation”?

What is the blood of Christ symbolic of?

Christ did not soften down His symbolical representation. He reiterated the truth in yet stronger language: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For My flesh is meat indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. He that eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, dwelleth in Me, and I in him." {DA 389.2}

To eat the flesh and drink the blood of Christ is to receive Him as a personal Saviour, believing that He forgives our sins, and that we are complete in Him. It is by beholding His love, by dwelling upon it, by drinking it in, that we are to become partakers of His nature. What food is to the body, Christ must be to the soul. Food cannot benefit us unless we eat it, unless it becomes a part of our being. So Christ is of no value to us if we do not know Him as a personal Saviour. A theoretical knowledge will do us no good. We must feed upon Him, receive Him into the heart, so that His life becomes our life. His love, His grace, must be assimilated. {DA 389.3}

"In the study of the Bible the converted soul eats the flesh and drinks the blood of the Son of God, which He himself interprets as the receiving and doing of His words, that are spirit and life." Fundamentals of Christian Education 378

"The leaven of truth works a change in the whole man, making the coarse refined, the rough gentle, the selfish generous. By it [the truth] the impure are cleansed, washed in the blood of the Lamb." COL 102

What is the blood represent? The life of Christ which reveals the truth to set us free from lies and win us to trust and His perfect character which He wrought out in His human brain and which we receive by trust in Him!

None of the apostles or prophets ever claimed to be without sin. Men who have lived nearest to God, men who would sacrifice life itself rather than knowingly commit a wrong act, men whom God had honored with divine light and power, have confessed the sinfulness of their own nature. They have put no confidence in the flesh, have claimed no righteousness of their own, but have trusted wholly in the righteousness of Christ. So will it be with all who behold Christ. {FLB 111.4}

The righteousness of Christ, as a pure white pearl, has no defect, no stain, no guilt. This righteousness may be ours. Salvation, with its blood-bought, inestimable treasures, is the pearl of great price. {FLB 111.5}

What is "blood-bought"? Salvation, and what is it that Christ achieved which provides us salvation?

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

What did Christ purchase? A restored and healed and perfectly regenerated humanity! He, in His person, destroyed the infection of sin (carnal nature, selfishness, the law of sin and death) and restored perfectly God's law of love into the human species.

Now, why are we to do good works? Because God wants us to be the happiest, healthiest, holiest beings possible and in His universe such happiness is only experienced in giving, in blessing others in love! It is for our good that He calls us to such a life!

And how are we to do good works? By receiving the infusion of Christ's character rebuilt within us, via the work of the Holy Spirit when we trust Him.

Why will those who don't do good works not be "allowed" into the kingdom of heaven?

What is the kingdom of heaven? Is it not the kingdom of love?

In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again." John 3:3

What does this mean? Why can't they see it? What about those who pierced Him, won't they see Him coming in the clouds?

They will see His physical presence, but they have believed the lies of Satan and rather than seeing a God of love, they see what Satan alleges, a God of anger and wrath, thus, they will not, cannot, see the kingdom of God!

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "The problem..." thoughts? Well said, exactly. Can the diagnostic instrument cure the problem? No! The written law cannot cure the sin problem, but it diagnosis perfectly.

How is the sin problem cured? Jesus – how? How does what Jesus do benefit us?

Read next paragraph, "In the plan..." thoughts?

Read dark section "In Psalms 40:8..." thoughts? Why do some people believe keeping the law is a burden? Because the law is presented as arbitrary, an arbitrary set of rules from an arbitrary God, who will inflict punishment if you don't obey. Rather, than the truth that the law is the principle of love, the design template for life and our happiness and health is dependent upon it. That only in harmony with the law is there real freedom.

WEDNESDAY

Read memory text at top and first paragraph – thoughts?

Okay, married folk, how easy is it to change a spouse? Can you actually change another person?

Excellent point about motives and right heart – this is what it is all about, being renewed in the inner man to have a change in heart motive!

Read last paragraph, “In chapter 7 of Romans...” thoughts?

Has chapter seven of Romans ever confused you? Here is my paraphrase starting with 7:7:

^{7:7} What shall we say then? Is the law evil and selfish because it increases the amount of evil and selfishness we see? Absolutely not! For I would not have known what evil and selfishness looks like if it wasn't for the diagnostic efficacy of the law. I would not have realized that coveting was evil and selfish if the law didn't say, “Don't covet.” ⁸ But selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the law is only a diagnostic instrument and not a remedy, magnified every covetous desire within me. For apart from the diagnostic ability of the law, sin is unrecognizable. ⁹ Once I thought I was healthy and free from the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness, but then the commandment examined me, exposed how utterly infected I was and diagnosed me as terminal. ¹⁰ I discovered that the very commandment given only to diagnose my condition, I had unwittingly attempted to use as a cure and thus my condition only worsened. ¹¹ For selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the commandment could only diagnose and not cure, deceived me into thinking I could be cured by working to keep the commandments, but instead my terminal state only worsened. ¹² So understand this, the law diagnoses perfectly, and the commandment is the standard of what is right and good, set apart by God, to reveal what is evil and destructive.

^{7:13} Did the law, which did good by diagnosing what was wrong with me, become the source of my terminal condition? Of course not! It only exposed what was already in me so that I could recognize how totally decayed, putrid and near death I was, so that through the lens of the commandment I might become utterly disgusted with evil and selfishness and long for a cure.

Romans 7:14 We know that the law is consistent, reliable and reasonable; but I am inconsistent, unreliable and unreasonable, because the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness has warped my mind and damaged my thinking.¹⁵ I am frustrated with what I do. For having been restored to trust, I want to do what is in harmony with God and his methods and principles; but I find that even though I trust God, old habits, conditioned responses, preconceived ideas and other remnants of the devastation caused by distrust and selfishness are not yet fully removed.¹⁶ And if I find an old habit causing me to behave in ways that I now find detestable, I affirm that the law is a very helpful tool revealing residual damage in need of healing.¹⁷ What is happening is this: I have come to trust God and desire to do his will, but old habits and conditioned responses, which present almost reflexively in certain situations, have not yet been totally eliminated and thus cause me to do things I do not want to do.¹⁸ I know that my mind was completely infected with distrust, fear and selfishness which totally perverted all my desires and faculties, so that even when distrust has been eradicated and trust has been restored, the damage caused by years of distrustful and selfish behavior has not yet been fully healed. So I find, at times, I have the desire to do what is right, but do not yet have the ability to carry out the desire.¹⁹ For the old habits and conditioned responses are not the good I want to do; no, they are remnants of my selfish unconverted mind.²⁰ So, if I find myself doing what I no longer desire to do, it is not I, but vestiges of old habits and conditioned responses that have yet to be removed, and through God's grace will soon be removed.

7:21 So, I find this reality at work: When I want to do good, old selfish habits and residual feelings of fear are right there with me.²² For in my mind I rejoice in God's methods and principles;²³ but I recognize I remain damaged from years of being infected with distrust and practicing Satan's methods, so that even though the infection of distrust has been removed, the old habits of fear and self-promotion tempt me from within.²⁴ What a damaged and corrupt man I am! Who will deliver and heal me from a brain and body so diseased and deformed?²⁵ Praise be to God – for he has provided the healing solution through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, I find that in my mind I am now renewed with trust for God and love of his methods, but my brain and body remain damaged by years of self-indulgent behavior.

Romans Chapter Eight

Romans 8:1 Therefore, those who trust in Christ Jesus are no longer destined to die, ² because through Christ Jesus the law of love has cleansed and healed me from the law of selfishness and death. ³ Because the written law was powerless to restore trust – as it could merely diagnose the infection of distrust and selfishness pervading us all, God accomplished this restoration of his character of love in man by sending his own Son in human flesh to eradicate selfishness from humanity, to reveal the truth about God, expose the lies of Satan, and reveal what happens when the infection of sin is not cured. And so he condemned the infection of selfishness as the destroying element in sinful man, ⁴ in order that the law of love – the principle upon which life is based, might be fully restored in us, who no longer live according to the selfish desires but in harmony with the Spirit of love and truth.

Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2,3,4 and 6

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 9 1Q 2009

The Fruit of the Spirit is Meekness

SABBATH

Read Memory Verse – thoughts? What is meekness?

- Humbly patient, docile, calm, especially in the face of provocation
- No desire to promote self?????

Why will the meek inherit the earth? What makes the New Earth a safe place to live?

What is the difference between meekness and weakness?

Read third paragraph “Although weakness...” thoughts?

How do weakness and meekness look different and function different?

A woman who is married to a man who physically abuses her repeatedly, violently, broken bones, bloody lip, verbal assaults. If she stays and takes blame, “Oh, it wasn’t his fault...” is this meekness? How would a meek person handle it?

Does a person who is meek still live a life of Godlike love? Where is the focus of love? If the wife is meek, but genuinely loves her husband, what is her primary concern when her husband beats her?

What did Christ pray when they crucified Him? “Father forgive them they don’t know what they are doing.” Who was Christ concerned for?

What happens to the character, mind, reason, conscience of a man who beats his wife? If he persists living like this will he be saved, even if he is elder in the church and “claims” Christ as his Savior? Why or why not?

What happens to the sinner who persists in sin? Does God get tired of him? Does the sinner ever wear out God’s patience? Does God ever become so disgusted with the sinner that God becomes something other than a God of love? If God always loves and never stops loving, what happens to those who persist in sin? What do you think about this description?

The prevalence of a sinful desire shows the delusion of the soul. Every indulgence of that desire strengthens the soul's aversion to God. In following the path of Satan's choosing, we are encompassed by the shadows of evil, and every step leads into deeper darkness and increases the blindness of the heart. {MB 92.2}

The same law obtains in the spiritual as in the natural world. He who abides in darkness will at last lose the power of vision. He is shut in by a deeper than midnight blackness; and to him the brightest noontide can bring no light. He "walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes." 1 John 2:11. Through persistently cherishing evil, willfully disregarding the pleadings of divine love, the sinner loses the love for good, the desire for God, the very capacity to receive the light of heaven. The invitation of mercy is still full of love, the light is shining as brightly as when it first dawned upon his soul; but the voice falls on deaf ears, the light on blinded eyes.{MB 92.3}

No soul is ever finally deserted of God, given up to his own ways, so long as there is any hope of his salvation. "Man turns from God, not God from him." Our heavenly Father follows us with appeals and warnings and assurances of compassion, until further opportunities and privileges would be wholly in vain. The responsibility rests with the sinner. By resisting the Spirit of God today, he prepares the way for a second resistance of light when it comes with mightier power. Thus he passes on from one stage of resistance to another, until at last the light will fail to impress, and he will cease to respond in any measure to the Spirit of God. Then even "the light that is in thee" has become darkness. The very truth we do know has become so perverted as to increase the blindness of the soul. {MB 93.1}

What did you hear described? Did love ever stop? Did the light ever become dim or does it shine just as brightly? Then what happens? The sinner who persists in sin destroys the capacity to recognize and respond to love and truth. He becomes incurable!

What do you think it means the very truth we do know has become so perverted as to increase the blindness of the soul? What about the Sabbath in Christ's day? Did they know the truth of which day was the Sabbath? But because they rejected the truth about God what had the Sabbath become? And what did they accuse Christ of? And how did they treat the Lord of the Sabbath? Any risks for us today?

The truth about God's character of love is the center to which all other doctrines must align. Teachings which in any way undermine the truth about God's character will eventually harden the heart and obstruct our union with God.

SUNDAY

Read top dark section? Thoughts?

What does it mean to take Christ's yoke? If we surrender our lives to God, surrender our plans – surrender the "outcomes" to Him and simply follow His directions in carrying out our duty – doesn't that remove worry, stress and anxiety?

Read first paragraph, "Meekness is..." thoughts? Does the meek person seek to exert their rights? Fight for their fair share? Does that mean the meek person is a doormat and allows themselves to be run over?

Was Paul being meek when He opposed Peter publically? Why or why not? What was the difference? Was Paul standing up for himself or for Christ and the truth?

Are we to be more assertive in promoting the gospel, helping others?

How does a person learn to die to self? What brings a person to the point they die to self? What about this possibility, do you agree?

Paul could say: "I die daily." It is the daily dying to self in the little transactions of life that makes us overcomers. We should forget self in the desire to do good to others. With many there is a decided lack of love for others. Instead of faithfully performing their duty, they seek rather their own pleasure. {Mar 109.2}

God positively enjoins upon all His followers a duty to bless others with their influence and means, and to seek that wisdom of Him which will enable them to do all in their power to elevate the thoughts and affections of those who come within their influence. In doing for others, a sweet satisfaction will be experienced, an inward peace which will be a sufficient reward. When actuated by a high and noble desire to do others good, they will find true happiness in a faithful discharge of life's manifold duties. This will bring more than an earthly reward; for every faithful, unselfish performance of duty is noticed by the angels and shines in the life record. {Mar 109.3}

In heaven none will think of self, nor seek their own pleasure; but all, from pure, genuine love, will seek the happiness of the heavenly beings around them. If we wish to enjoy heavenly society in the earth made new, we must be governed by heavenly principles here. {Mar 109.4}

The greatest work that can be done in our world is to glorify God by living the character of Christ. {Mar 109.5}

Thoughts?

Why will heaven be safe? Because all will seek the good of others rather than self! How do we become like this? By choosing to cooperate with God in denying self and giving of ourselves to help others! This puts us in harmony with the law of love and healing takes place in our characters.

Why will acts of unselfishness shine in the life record? What is the life record? It is a photograph of your character! In your character every act of sin is faithfully recorded or in your character Christ has been reproduced by the work of the Holy Spirit.

- Angels of God are taking a daguerreotype [photograph] of the character just as accurately as the artist takes the likeness of the human features; and . . . it is from this that we are to be judged! {Mar 340.2}

Read last paragraph, “Ephesians 4:2...” thoughts? Is it not true that everything we have is a gift from God? All our boasting should be about God and Christ!

While this is absolutely true, what about when people give God credit for their own choices? It is true God gives us talents, health, wealth, intelligence and all the resources through which we achieve anything – but is there some aspect in which we exercise our own individuality in the use of all these resources, either for evil or for good?

If someone does something actually good, or loving, on this earth it is absolutely true that the only way that could happen was because of Christ’s death and the work of the Holy Spirit in their life. But does that mean the individual is not choosing to do the good themselves? When the Holy Spirit finishes His work in our lives we experience all the fruits of the Spirit and the last is, self-control? What does that mean? It means God’s plan is to actually heal us fully so that we are one day capable of living self-governed lives in harmony with His kingdom of love!

MONDAY

Models of meekness – when you think of those who modeled meekness who comes to mind?

What attributes, actions, behaviors demonstrate meekness?

Read fourth paragraph, “In Numbers...” thoughts? Meekness is a lack of “self-promotion” it is NOT a lack of interest in the welfare of others! Moses had great passion and energy when it came to protecting others and also protecting God’s reputation.

The last paragraph asks us to consider Jesus – how do you see meekness in the life of Jesus?

The lesson asks us to consider some specific experiences of Jesus:

John 18:20-23

²⁰ “I have spoken openly to the world,” Jesus replied. “I always taught in synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret. ²¹ Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said.”

²² When Jesus said this, one of the officials nearby struck him in the face. “Is this the way you answer the high priest?” he demanded.

²³ “If I said something wrong,” Jesus replied, “testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?” ²⁴ Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

Thoughts? Was this meek? Why did Jesus speak this way? What was His goal? Was Jesus being insubordinate, sarcastic, or disrespectful? No, was this meek? Yes why?

Jesus still longed for these people, for those who could be won to Him. He was asking them to think about what He had done, review the evidences of His life, healing, helping, ministering, love in action and His teachings about His Father. Thus His answer was designed to reach others not protect Himself. He was trying to get them to think, to reason, to examine evidence, which would dispel their prejudice and lies.

What about when He drove the money changers from the Temple? Was this meek? Why or why not? Was He promoting self or was He promoting His Father and working to reach people with the truth, working to overthrow the errors being taught by the religious leaders?

And, who ran and who stayed by? What does it mean that when Jesus overturned the tables, had a whip, and was “angry” that the children didn’t get frightened and run away but stayed behind and praised the Lord? Could you in church overturn the pulpit and pews and wield a whip such that the elders and pastors run out in terror but the children are not afraid?

Notice, only the guilty ran away, why?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph – thoughts? What does it mean the day of the Lord’s anger? What is the Lord’s anger? Do we get a clue from Jesus in cleansing the Temple?

- “My anger will flame up like fire and burn everything on earth. It will reach to the world below and consume the roots of the mountains. I will bring on them endless disasters and use all my arrows against them.” (Deuteronomy 32:22,23 – GN)... “They fail to see why they were defeated; they cannot understand what happened. Why were a thousand defeated by one, and ten thousand by only two? The Lord, their God, had abandoned them; their mighty God had given them up.” (Deuteronomy 32:29,30 – GN)
- “When that happens, I will become angry with them; I will abandon them, and they will be destroyed. Many terrible disasters will come upon them, and then they will realize that these things are happening to them because I, their God, am no longer with them.” (Deuteronomy 31:17 – GN)
- “I will fight against you with all my might, my anger, my wrath, and my fury. I will kill everyone living in this city; people and animals alike will die of a terrible disease.... Anyone who stays in the city will be killed in war or by starvation or disease...It will be given over to the king of Babylonia, and he will burn it to the ground. I, the LORD, have spoken...I will set your palace on fire, and the fire will burn down everything around it. I, the LORD, have spoken.”.”

(Jeremiah 21:5,6,9-10,14 – GN)

- “The LORD has abandoned his people like a lion that leaves its cave. The horrors of war and the LORD’s fierce anger have turned the country into a desert.” (Jeremiah 25:38 – GN)
- “The LORD, the God of Israel, told me to go and say to King Zedekiah of Judah, ‘I, the LORD, will hand this city over to the king of Babylonia, and he will burn it down. (Jeremiah 34:2 – GN)
- “Very well, then, I will give you freedom: the freedom to die by war, disease, and starvation.” (Jeremiah 34:17 – GN)
- “You will feel my anger when I turn it loose on you like a blazing fire. And I will hand you over to brutal men, experts at destruction.” (Ezekiel 21:31 – GN)
- “I will hand you over to other nations who will rob you and plunder you.” (Ezekiel 25:7 – GN)
- “I will attack the people of Israel and Judah like a lion. I myself will tear them to pieces and then leave them. When I drag them off, no one will be able to save them. I will abandon my people until they have suffered enough for their sins and come looking for me. Perhaps in their suffering they will try to find me.” (Hosea 5:14,15 – GN)
- God’s anger is revealed from heaven against all the sin and evil of the people whose evil ways prevent the truth from being known. God punishes them, because what can be known about God is plain to them, for God himself made it plain...They say they are wise, but they are fools; instead of worshipping the immortal God, they worship images made to look like mortals or birds or animals or reptiles. And so God has given those people over to do the filthy things their hearts desire, and they do shameful things with each other. They exchange the truth about God for a lie; they worship and serve what God has created instead of the Creator himself, who is to be praised forever! Amen. Because they do this, God has given them over to shameful passions....Because those people refuse to keep in mind the true knowledge about God, he has given them over to corrupted minds, so that they do the things that they should not do.” (Romans 1:18,19,22-26,28 – GN)

- Then "Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" As the outer gloom settled about the Saviour, many voices exclaimed: The vengeance of heaven is upon Him. The bolts of God's wrath are hurled at Him, because He claimed to be the Son of God. Many who believed on Him heard His despairing cry. Hope left them. If God had forsaken Jesus, in what could His followers trust? {DA 754.3}

Thoughts? Does it make a difference how we understand God's anger and wrath? Why? What happens if we believe God's anger is active infliction of pain and suffering that would not otherwise be reaped by sin and rebellion? What happens to liberty? And if liberty is violated what happens to love?

Read second paragraph "Meekness is necessary..." thoughts?

Does this mean that only meek people are in roles of Bible teachers, pastors, church leaders? Or can people who don't have meekness end up in such roles? Caiaphas?

Would these words of EGW been helpful for the people in Christ's day to know Caiaphas was not correctly receiving God's word?

- Satan's representations against the government of God, and his defense of those who sided with him, were a constant accusation against God. His murmurings and complaints were groundless; and yet God allowed him to work out his theory. God could have destroyed Satan and all his sympathizers as easily as one can pick up a pebble and cast it to the earth. But by so doing he would have given a precedent for the exercise of force. All the compelling power is found only under Satan's government. The Lord's principles are not of this order. He would not work on this line. He would not give the slightest encouragement for any human being to set himself up as God over another human being, feeling at liberty to cause him physical or mental suffering. This principle is wholly of Satan's creation. {RH, September 7, 1897 par. 7}

The principles of the character of God were the foundation of the education constantly kept before the heavenly angels. These principles were goodness, mercy, and love. Self-evidencing light was to be recognized and freely accepted by all who occupied positions of trust and power. They must accept God's principles, and, through the presentation of truth and righteousness, convince all who were in his service. This was the only power to be used. Force must never come in. All who thought that their position gave them power to command their fellow beings, and control conscience, must be deprived of their position; for this is not God's plan. {RH, September 7, 1897 par. 8}

These principles are to be the foundation of education in God's church today. The rules given by him are to be observed and respected. God has enjoined this. His government is moral. Nothing is to be done by compulsion. Truth is to be the prevailing power. . All service is to be done willingly, and for the love of God. All who are honored with positions of influence are to represent God; for when officiating, they are in the place of God. In everything their actions must correspond to the importance of their position. The higher the position the more distinctly will self-sacrifice be revealed if they are fit for the office. Every heart that is controlled by these principles will be loyal. But when those who profess to be in God's service resort to accusation, they are adopting Satan's principles to cast out Satan; and this never will work. {RH, September 7, 1897 par. 9}...

Today Satan is working upon human minds by his crooked principles. These will be adopted and acted upon by some who claim to be loyal and true to God's government. How shall we know that they are disloyal and untrue?-- "By their fruits ye shall know them." God does not force any one. He leaves all free to choose. But he says, "By their fruits ye shall know them." The Lord will not write as wise those who cannot distinguish between a tree that bears thorn-berries and a tree that bears olives. {RH, September 7, 1897 par. 15}

Thoughts?

What about the fact Caiaphas claimed to be protecting the church, the nation of Israel? Will those who use Satan's methods claim to be protecting orthodoxy, yet instead of presenting truth in love ultimately resort to coercion to obtain their way?

The Beast of Revelation will use such power to coerce – this is one of the very clear demarcations differentiating God's kingdom from Satan's.

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Meekness will be..." thoughts? Does meekness mean that all who are genuinely meek will have the same "personality"? Will there be meek people who have great variations in personality, talents, styles of communication, ability etc?

The lesson asks us to consider how some Bible texts reveal meekness:

Matthew 5:39: But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.

Thought? What is being taught here? A rule or a principle? Are there times when turning the other cheek would be sinful? What times? What is the principle of meekness? Not seeking to promote self, but seeking to promote the best for others.

What if your 5 y/o child has a temper tantrum and kicks and hits mommy or daddy because they can't have candy in the store. Should you turn the other cheek and buy them the candy? Why or why not?

What about a wife who is beaten by her husband?

Matthew 18:21,22: Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?” Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.

Thoughts? What does is the message from Jesus? Why is forgiving an offender meek? Whose heart is being revealed by forgiving? What would it mean not to forgive?

When we forgive does that mean we trust? Why or why not?

Galatians 6:1: Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.

Thoughts? Isn't this an evidence of meekness, not considering someone who fell into sin worse off than ourselves, but recognizing them in need of healing just as we are?

2Tim 2:24,25: And the Lord's servant must not quarrel; instead, he must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful. Those who oppose him he must gently instruct, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth

Thoughts? Have you ever had opportunity to do this?

THURSDAY

What is the reward of the meek?

FRIDAY

Question one – read and discuss

When we are meek we are not self-centered, meaning we are not fear motivated, further selfish activities cause more fear, thus other-centered, love and meek living results in less fear and more peace.

Science as demonstrated that altruism results in better mental and physical health.

Question 3&4 read and discuss

The Fruits of the Spirit Lesson 10 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit is Self-Control

SABBATH

What is the difference between “self-control” and “God control”? Those who pray, “God I don’t want to be in control, you take control” will He do it?

When we surrender the will to God what happens? Do we become puppets? Do we have our freedom removed? How is it that surrender results in greater freedom?

Read last paragraph, “Self-control may sound....” Thoughts?

How is it that surrendering self to God increases freedom? If we don’t surrender to God what happens?

- Is a person who is addicted to alcohol or drugs free?
- Is a person who is addicted to porn free?
- Is a person who is addicted to bingeing on food free?
- Is a person who is addicted to getting adoration, praise, attention or opinion of others free?
- If we indulge appetite and violate the laws of health what happens? And when we are sick do we have as much freedom? Do we get more freedom with self-discipline?
- Is a person who is consumed with fear and insecurity free?

How do we find freedom from such problems?

SUNDAY

Self – control – what impairs our ability to experience self-control? What is the greatest obstacle to self-governance?

When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. James 1:13-15

The Bible is describing the greatest source of our temptation, that we have a terminal condition, a brain wiring problem that causes us to be tempted from within. At its root all temptations are based on fear and selfishness. The lesson asks us to examine three primary avenues that these temptations are express through.

For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. 1John 2:16

What is being described? Sensualism, materialism, egotism.

What is sensualism?

- Alcohol, drugs
- Food
- Sex
- Unhealthy relationships

What is materialism?

- Gambling
- Greed
- Pursuit of wealth
- Cheating
- Ponzi schemes
- Always needing more

What is egotism?

- Needing to be first
- Needing to be acknowledged
- Power over
- Despotism

- Dictatorship
- Unwillingness to repent
- Unwillingness to admit wrong
- Unwillingness to change an opinion or respond to evidence
- The need to stand out, dressing overly humble and plain to demonstrate one's chastity and virtue

What happens in the mind when we allow our feelings to overrule our judgment?

- Temptation of premarital sex – feelings are powerful, judgment is saying no – what happens in the person?
- What about when you want to do something are prevented, by parents, circumstances – might feelings of frustrations arise? How might such feelings tempt you to act? And if you do what happens?

What happens in the brain when we allow feelings to overrule our judgment? We condemn ourselves in our own minds and results in:

- Lower self-esteem
- Lower self-worth
- Guilt, feelings of inadequacy
- Fear of rejection
- Activation of the fear centers with increased release of stress hormones, inflammatory factors and over time increased risk of physical and mental illness

If we find ourselves in such circumstances what can we do? What options do we have?

- First – we must admit our helplessness, that we are sick and can't fix ourselves
- Second we must recognize help exists only in God
- Third we must come to know God well enough that we can actually trust Him
- Fourth we must open our hearts and invite Him in What is the greatest obstacle to our wellness, here and now and for eternity? Self!

God's promise is, "Ye shall seek Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with all your heart." Jeremiah 29:13. {SC 43.1}

The whole heart must be yielded to God, or the change can never be wrought in us by which we are to be restored to His likeness. By nature we are alienated from God. The Holy Spirit describes our condition in such words as these: "Dead in trespasses and sins;" "the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint;" "no soundness in it." We are held fast in the snare of Satan, "taken captive by him at his will." Ephesians 2:1; Isaiah 1:5, 6; 2 Timothy 2:26. God desires to heal us, to set us free. But since this requires an entire transformation, a renewing of our whole nature, we must yield ourselves wholly to Him. {SC 43.2}

The warfare against self is the greatest battle that was ever fought. The yielding of self, surrendering all to the will of God, requires a struggle; but the soul must submit to God before it can be renewed in holiness. {SC 43.3}

The government of God is not, as Satan would make it appear, founded upon a blind submission, an unreasoning control. It appeals to the intellect and the conscience. "Come now, and let us reason together" is the Creator's invitation to the beings He has made. Isaiah 1:18. God does not force the will of His creatures. He cannot accept an homage that is not willingly and intelligently given. A mere forced submission would prevent all real development of mind or character; it would make man a mere automaton. Such is not the purpose of the Creator. He desires that man, the crowning work of His creative power, shall reach the highest possible development. He sets before us the height of blessing to which He desires to bring us through His grace. He invites us to give ourselves to Him, that He may work His will in us. It remains for us to choose whether we will be set free from the bondage of sin, to share the glorious liberty of the sons of God. {SC 43.4}

Thoughts?

- What does this mean?
- How do you understand God's kingdom?
- Why is it better to surrender to Christ?
- What about surrendering to Christ your future?
- Can God be saying, "Love me, trust me, surrender to me – or else I will inflict torment and suffering upon you and kill you"? Why not?
- Why is it so important to see God as Jesus revealed Him to be? Because only the truth about God destroys the lies and wins us to genuine trust. And it is only in genuine trust that we are willing to surrender self to God and thereby experience transformation!

The lesson asks us to read Philippians 4:8:

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Why is this important? Because by beholding we are changed, but how are we changed?

- Neurologically – the brain changes by what we behold. TV watching in childhood alters the developing brain.
- Genetically, what we watch or behold impacts the beliefs we form and our beliefs result in change in brain function, stress response and ultimately gene expression
- Characterlogicoally we are changed by what we behold.

What we watch, think about, behold activates neural circuits which can either calm or inflame our passions and desires. Our choices, both in what we think and in what we do, change the wiring of our brains. We literally change.

Read last paragraph "He's talking about..." thoughts?

How do we overcome?

When the soul surrenders itself to Christ, a new power takes possession of the new heart. A change is wrought which man can never accomplish for himself. It is a supernatural work, bringing a supernatural element into human nature. The soul that is yielded to Christ becomes His own fortress, which He holds in a revolted world, and He intends that no authority shall be known in it but His own. A soul thus kept in possession by the heavenly agencies is impregnable to the assaults of Satan. But unless we do yield ourselves to the control of Christ, we shall be dominated by the wicked one. We must inevitably be under the control of the one or the other of the two great powers that are contending for the supremacy of the world. It is not necessary for us deliberately to choose the service of the kingdom of darkness in order to come under its dominion. We have only to neglect to ally ourselves with the kingdom of light. If we do not co-operate with the heavenly agencies, Satan will take possession of the heart, and will make it his abiding place. The only defense against evil is the indwelling of Christ in the heart through faith in His righteousness. Unless we become vitally connected with God, we can never resist the unhallowed effects of self-love, self-indulgence, and temptation to sin. We may leave off many bad habits, for the time we may part company with Satan; but without a vital connection with God, through the surrender of ourselves to Him moment by moment, we shall be overcome. Without a personal acquaintance with Christ, and a continual communion, we are at the mercy of the enemy, and shall do his bidding in the end. {DA 324.1}

Thoughts? What is being described? Why do we not have to choose Satan to be under his power? What is the natural state of our hearts? What do our own desires lead us to?

Do we have a role to play? Do we have the power in our own strength to overcome our own desires? But do we have to make the choice? What is the relationship between our choice and God's power?

In the work of redemption there is no compulsion. No external force is employed. Under the influence of the Spirit of God, man is left free to choose whom he will serve. In the change that takes place when the soul surrenders to Christ, there is the highest sense of freedom. The expulsion of sin is the act of the soul itself. True, we have no power to free ourselves from Satan's control; but when we desire to be set free from sin, and in our great need cry out for a power out of and above ourselves, the powers of the soul are imbued with the divine energy of the Holy Spirit, and they obey the dictates of the will in fulfilling the will of God. {DA 466.4}

The Holy Spirit convicts, enlightens, draws, but leaves each person free to choose for themselves. When we do make the choice, then the Holy Spirit infuses with divine power to strengthen, cleanse, ennoble and sustain – but we don't get the power until we make the choice!

What about the idea of no longer being condemned? What does it mean to be condemned? In what way are we condemned?

How do we understand condemnation? What or who condemns?

“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. ³⁰ And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ ³¹ So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. ³² Fill up, then, the measure of the sin of your forefathers!

³³ “You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell? ³⁴ Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town. ³⁵ And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. ³⁶ I tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation.

³⁷ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. ³⁸ Look, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹ For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’ Matt 23:29-39

Where does the condemnation arise for these hard hearted people? Do you hear in Jesus voice condemnation or pity, longing to heal and save? Some would have us believe that condemnation arises from the heart of God, but what did Jesus say?

¹⁶ “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. ¹⁸ Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son. John 3:16-18

What does this mean? Is Jesus suggesting that the Pharisees will not be condemned by Him, yet they will still be condemned or not escape condemnation? What is the source of their condemnation?

²⁴ “I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life. ²⁵ I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live. ²⁶ For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life in himself. ²⁷ And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man.

²⁸ “Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice ²⁹ and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.

Condemned by whom? What or who condemns?

³³ “Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” Matthew 12:33-37

What did Jesus say condemns us? What does this mean? But won't Jesus judge and condemn us?

⁴⁷ “As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. ⁴⁸ There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day. ⁴⁹ For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it. ⁵⁰ I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say.” John 12:47-50

What will judge? The truth! What condemns us is our very condition! We are either restored to trust and experience renewal by the Holy Spirit and are recreated in love or we are settled into selfishness and lies.

Have you heard the phrase “condemnation of the law”? What does it mean? What law? What does the law condemn? How does the law condemn?

The law of love is the law of life, if you deviate from it what does the law say will happen? If you deviate from the law of respiration and tie a bag over your head what does the law of respiration say will happen? Does the law of respiration condemn those who tie plastic bags over their heads? Yes, can the law be changed to meet the person with a bag over his head in that state so they can remain healthy? Can God's law be changed to meet the sinner?

What if a person was suffocating with a plastic bag over their head and they had a loving brother who tied a bag over his head in order to pay the legal penalty of the broken law of respiration which cannot be changed? Would that action result in saving the other? What is the only option for salvation? That the sinner must be changed to be in harmony with the law, the plastic bag must be removed.

Likewise, God sent Christ to remedy sin, to actually destroy all that Satan and sin had done to humanity (Heb 2:14, 1John 3:8, 2Tim 1:10). And having done this Christ becomes the source of salvation for all who obey Him (Heb 5:8).

The atonement of Christ is not a mere skillful way to have our sins pardoned; it is a divine remedy for the cure of transgression and the restoration of spiritual health. It is the Heaven-ordained means by which the righteousness of Christ may be not only upon us but in our hearts and characters (Letter 406, 1906). {6BC 1074.2}

"In assuming human nature, that he might reach to the very depths of human woe and misery and lift man up, Christ has shown what estimate he places upon the human race. In this work everything was at stake. Satan claimed to be the lawful owner of the fallen race; and with what persistent effort did he seek to overthrow Christ through his subtilty! It was only by the most desperate conflict with the powers of Satan that Christ could accomplish his purpose of restoring the almost obliterated image of God in man, and place his own signature upon his forehead. It was a desperate battle; for Satan had so long worked in league with human intelligencies as to almost completely intercept every ray of light shining from the throne of God upon the human mind. The cross of Calvary alone could destroy the works of the devil. In that wondrous sacrifice all eyes were called to 'behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.' The love of Christ kindles in the heart of all who continue to behold him. {General Conference Daily Bulletin, March 2, 1897 par. 17}

In the beginning, man was created in the likeness of God, not only in character, but in form and feature. Sin defaced and almost obliterated the divine image; but Christ came to restore that which had been lost. GC 645

Weakened through sin, we can not of ourselves keep the law of God. But Christ came to our world to restore the moral image of God in men, and to bring them back from the path of disobedience to a path of obedience. His mission to the world was to reveal the character of God by living the law, which is the foundation of his government; and those who will accept him as their personal Saviour will grow in grace, and in his strength will be enabled to obey the law of God. {ST, February 11, 1897 par. 15}

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Read bottom green section – thoughts? From where do we reap destruction? From the carnal nature, is God the source of destruction or the source of life?

If you believe God is the source of pain suffering and death what attitude toward God will you develop?

There are several lies Lucifer told in heaven that has caused this continued distortion. Here are two, which one of the founders of our church wrote about:

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned.

Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. DA 761

Many [angels] were disposed to heed this counsel, to repent of their disaffection, and seek to be again received into favor with the Father and His Son. But Lucifer had another deception ready. The mighty revolter now declared that the angels who had united with him had gone too far to return; that he was acquainted with the divine law, and knew that God would not forgive. He declared that all who should submit to the authority of Heaven would be stripped of their honor, degraded from their position. For himself, he was determined never again to acknowledge the authority of Christ. The only course remaining for him and his followers, he said, was to assert their liberty, and gain by force the rights which had not been willingly accorded them. {PP 40.3}

From the beginning it has been Satan's plan to lead men to forget God, that he might secure them to himself. To do this he has misrepresented the character of God, and has led men to cherish false ideas of him. The Creator has been presented to their minds as possessing the attributes of the prince of evil himself,--as arbitrary, severe, and unforgiving,--that he might be feared, shunned, and even hated by men...{SW, April 28, 1908 par. 1}

Christ came to reveal God to the world in his true character, as a God of love, full of mercy, tenderness, and compassion. The thick darkness with which Satan had endeavored to surround the throne of Deity was swept away, and the Father was again manifested to men as the Light of Life. {SW, April 28, 1908 par. 2}

God has bound our hearts to Him by unnumbered tokens in heaven and in earth. Through the things of nature, and the deepest and tenderest earthly ties that human hearts can know, He has sought to reveal Himself to us. Yet these but imperfectly represent His love. Though all these evidences have been given, the enemy of good blinded the minds of men, so that they looked upon God with fear; they thought of Him as severe and unforgiving. Satan led men to conceive of God as a being whose chief attribute is stern justice,-- one who is a severe judge, a harsh, exacting creditor. He pictured the Creator as a being who is watching with jealous eye to discern the errors and mistakes of men, that He may visit judgments upon them. It was to remove this dark shadow, by revealing to the world the infinite love of God, that Jesus came to live among men. {SC 10.3}

What are Satan's lies? That every sin must be punished and that God is unforgiving and severe.

Do you ever hear these very lies of Satan taught today? That God must punish sin and that God cannot forgive without a legal payment of the blood of His Son?

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Repeat to them the precious assurance which God Himself has given to them: I am "The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin" (Ex. 34:6, 7). What a precious declaration is this! What can be too hard for Him, what sin too great for Him to pardon? He is gracious, not working according to our merit, but in His boundless goodness healing our backslidings, forgiving our iniquities, and loving us freely while we were yet sinners. {19MR 303.3}

God is a forgiving God – Satan lied when He said God would not forgive – but check out this amazing statement:

God, in his great mercy, bore long with Lucifer. He was not immediately degraded from his exalted station when he first indulged the spirit of discontent, nor even when he began to present his false claims before the loyal angels. [this would be sin, bearing false witness] Long was he retained in Heaven. Again and again he was offered pardon, on condition of repentance and submission. Such efforts as only infinite love and wisdom could devise, were made to convince him of his error... Though he had forsaken his position as covering cherub, yet if he had been willing to return to God, acknowledging the Creator's wisdom, and satisfied to fill the place appointed him in God's great plan, he would have been reinstated in his office. GC 495

Does “pardon” need to be granted if no wrong is done, if no sin occurred? What is the condition upon which pardon and reinstatement would be granted? What about every sin being punished? Don’t some ideas about salvation today say that every sin must be punished?

Let’s imagine that concept in the scenario just read:

Lucifer repents and the penal model was enforced in heaven. Christ, comes in the form of an angel, is taken to center stage by God and the universe is told that Lucifer had sinned, had broken God’s law and has repented, but that every sin must be punished. They are told that Christ loves Lucifer and therefore would accept the punishment for Lucifer’s sin and then they watch as the Father executes His Son to satisfy His wrath against sin and enforce “divine justice.” What do you think would happen? Instantly fear and horror of God spreads throughout the universe. No longer do heavenly beings love and trust God but instead are terrified of Him. Sin is not eliminated but spreads rapidly throughout the universe and after that God cannot restore harmony to His universe as beings serve Him out of fear rather than love.

Have I over stated it? Have I misunderstood the evidence? Are there ideas, evidences that we are not including which would shed further light on this topic?

TUESDAY

The lesson asks us to consider Samson – what led to Samson’s downfall? Did Samson struggle with intense human emotions, desires, lusts? Did he struggle with self-governance? Yet, where do we find Samson in the New Testament? Did this undermine Samson’s usefulness? Did it change the course of Samson’s life? Did Samson suffer terribly here on earth because of his indulgence and lack of self-control? Yet, where do we find Samson in the New Testament? Heb 12, the hall of faith, and what does this tell us?

WEDNESDAY

The long race – what do we learn about Paul’s use of the idea of running the long race?

From the cross to the crown there is earnest work to be done. There is wrestling against inbred sin; there is warfare against outward wrong. But we shall triumph at last, if we do not become weary in well-doing. Heaven's portals will be opened for every one who does his best for God and his fellow-men.
ST, December 17, 1885 par. 14}

THURSDAY

What can we do to strengthen our self-control? Exercise, diet, fasting, homework, chores, all of these activities require the development of self-mastery, the ability to push self beyond what merely feels good in the moment. Also, meditation, prayer.

FRIDAY

Questions 1 and 2 read and discuss

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 11 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit is Righteousness

SABBATH

Read bottom paragraph, “We understand...”

What do you understand this to mean?

The Study Guide uses the traditional Protestant terminology of imputed and imparted. Is there a difference between these two or are they synonyms, different words, which, in practicality, mean the same things?

We are studying that the “fruit of the Spirit is righteousness,” if it is a fruit what does that mean? Is it more than something “credited” or “accounted”? Is it actually produced in the believer by the Holy Spirit? Maybe the lesson guide is indicating this by the term imparted and means something else by imputed?

Where might some confusion arise? Romans when Abraham was “imputed” as righteous, let’s look at chapter 4:22-24.

And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; Romans 4:22-24 KJV being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. This is why “it was credited to him as righteousness. The words “it was credited to him” were written not for him alone, but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.” Romans 4:22-24 NIV

What do you think these texts mean? Would it be helpful to understand the Greek? The Greek word translated imputed or credited is: logizomai and how is it translated?

3049 λογίζομαι [logizomai /log·id·zom·ahee/] v. Middle voice from 3056; TDNT 4:284; TDNTA 536; GK 3357; 41 occurrences; AV translates as “think” nine times, “impute” eight times, “reckon” six times, “count” five times, “account” four times, “suppose” twice, “reason” once, “number” once, and translated miscellaneous five times. 1 to reckon, count, compute, calculate, count over. 1A to take into account, to make an account of. 1A1 metaph. to pass to one’s account, to impute. 1A2 a thing is reckoned as or to be something, i.e. as availing for or equivalent to something, as having the like force and weight. 1B to number among, reckon with. 1C to reckon or account. 2 to reckon inward, count up or weigh the reasons, to deliberate. 3 by reckoning up all the reasons, to gather or infer. 3A to consider, take into account, weigh, meditate on. 3B to suppose, deem, judge. 3C to determine, purpose, decide. Additional Information: This word deals with reality. If I “logizomai” or reckon that my bank book has $25 in it, it has $25 in it. Otherwise I am deceiving myself. This word refers to facts not suppositions. ¹

Thoughts? Is imputed righteousness separated from an actual change in the person or are they inextricably connected? Listen to some quotations from one of the founders of our church and see how you hear the meaning of imputed righteousness:

Abundant grace has been provided that the believing soul may be kept free from sin; for all heaven, with its limitless

v v: verb

TDNT Theological Dictionary of the New Testament

TDNTA Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Abridged in One Volume

GK Goodrick-Kohlenberger

AV Authorized Version

¹Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G3049

resources, has been placed at our command. We are to draw from the well of salvation. . . . In ourselves we are sinners; but in Christ we are righteous. Having made us righteous through the imputed righteousness of Christ, God pronounces us just, and treats us as just. He looks upon us as His dear children. Christ works against the power of sin, and where sin abounded, grace much more abounds. {God's Amazing Grace 181.4}

How do you hear this description of imputed righteousness? It is through imputed righteousness we are "made" righteous. Does being made righteous mean something different than being "declared" righteous, or being "accounted" righteous, or being "credited" with righteousness?

Metaphor in the Bible is leprosy – when did the High Priest declare someone clean, before or after they were made clean? Leprosy was a metaphor for sin – Christ cleansed the lepers and then told them to go to the priest to be "declared" clean.

"But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18). Beholding Christ means studying His life as given in His Word. We are to dig for truth as for hidden treasure. We are to fix our eyes upon Christ. When we take Him as our personal Saviour, this gives us boldness to approach the throne of grace. By beholding we become changed, morally assimilated to the One who is perfect in character. By receiving His imputed righteousness, through the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, we become like Him. The image of Christ is cherished, and it captivates the whole being. {God's Amazing Grace 96.4}

How is "imputed" being used in this statement? Does it sound like a mere legal accounting? Is it more than that?

We aim too low. The mark is much higher. Our minds need expansion, that we may comprehend the significance of the provision of God. We are to reflect the highest attributes of the character of God. . . . The law of God is the exalted standard to which we are to attain through the imputed righteousness of Christ. {OHC 364.2}

Is the imputed righteousness of Christ somehow connected to what we attain? Is attainment different than credits? What would it mean to aim to low? Would it mean we are aiming for legal pardon rather than character transformation?

He would have us comprehend something of His love in giving His Son to die that He might counteract evil, remove the defiling stains of sin from the workmanship of God, and reinstate the lost, elevating and ennobling the soul to its original purity through Christ's imputed righteousness.
TMK 206

Where does it sound like Christ's righteousness is being "imputed"? Into record books or into believers?

Is there a difference between legally accounting one righteous and actually transforming the believer into righteousness? Do you find EGW to be in harmony with the Biblical meaning of logizomai? Absolutely!

And for balance here is one use of "imparting" rather than "imputing":

The Lord Jesus loves His people, and when they put their trust in Him, depending wholly upon Him, He strengthens them. He will live through them, giving them the inspiration of His sanctifying Spirit, imparting to the soul a vital transfusion of Himself. He acts through their faculties and causes them to choose His will and to act out His character. With the apostle Paul they then may say, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me" (Gal. 2:20). . . . {TMK 78.4}

So, how might we, with this understand read Romans 4:20-24?
Here is my paraphrase:

Yet, even though, from human understanding, the promise seemed hopeless, Abraham did not waver in his confidence in God, but praised God as he ²¹ realized God was able to miraculously fulfill the promise. ²² This unwavering trust in God, in the face of scientific evidence to the contrary, was recognized as righteousness because this trust replaced distrust and opened Abraham's mind to receive the endowment of a new heart, right motives, and Christlike principles established by God's recreative power. ²³ This record of his trust being "recognized as righteousness" is not written merely for Abraham, ²⁴ but for everyone who trusts in God. For everyone who trusts in God, who raised Jesus from the dead, is recognized as righteous because distrust in God is gone and through trust he receives the endowment of a perfect heart and new motives created within. Romans 4:20-24 My paraphrase

Imputed righteousness and justification by faith are two ways of saying the same thing. Where does the confusion about imputed righteousness being primarily a legal activity arise?

The danger has been presented to me again and again of entertaining, as a people, false ideas of justification by faith. I have been shown for years that Satan would work in a special manner to confuse the mind on this point. The law of God has been largely dwelt upon and has been presented to congregations, almost as destitute of the knowledge of Jesus Christ and His relation to the law as was the offering of Cain. I have been shown that many have been kept from the faith because of the mixed, confused ideas of salvation, because the ministers have worked in a wrong manner to reach hearts. The point that has been urged upon my mind for years is the imputed righteousness of Christ. I have wondered that this matter was not made the subject of discourses in our churches throughout the land, when the matter has been kept so constantly urged upon me, and I have made it the subject of nearly every discourse and talk that I have given to the people. {Faith and Works 18.1}

What is she saying? That many ministers misrepresent this teaching by misrepresenting the law of God as destitute of Jesus Christ. Could she mean this teaching has become a legal process of making a payment which is what Cain was doing? Rather than being won to trust in Jesus who infuses the soul with His Spirit and actually transforms us?

SUNDAY

Question in middle, “If we cannot be justified by the law then how are we justified?”

Justification by faith is another way of saying imputed righteousness, so what does it mean to be justified? To be made just, or right, or to be put right or set right. Right in what way? Right with God. When mankind sinned what became “wrong” that needed to be “set right”?

Did mankind become changed, such that our character, hearts, minds were out of harmony with God?

the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God’s law, nor can it do so. ⁸ Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. Romans 8:7,8

If this is the state of our mind, then what needs to be put right, or made right, or justified? Mankind!

Jesus did this in His own human brain. Jesus took our humanity upon Himself, developed perfect character and destroyed the infection of sin!

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

What is being described in this paragraph? First Jesus had to come to earth, take humanity upon Himself, develop a perfect character, (cure the sin condition in His own person). This is justification of the species known as human (In Jesus Christ humanity was set right with God). Then, after doing this he offers His perfect character as a free gift to all who trust Him. When we genuinely trust Him we as individuals are “justified” or “set right” with God, just as Abraham was.

Third question in the lesson, “What does that the righteousness...” thoughts?

- What law?
- Can and will the righteous, through God’s grace, experience death to self and love for God and others, such that they will be willing to give their lives for others?
 - Moses
 - Paul
 - Revelation 12:11

Second question, “Although we know God hates sin but loves sinners, what wrong conclusions must we avoid?”

- All will be saved (universalism)
- God will allow sinners to “get away” with unremedied sin
 - Why won’t, even though God loves the sinner, the wicked in the end “get away” with sin?
- “every sin must be punished”

- Where did this idea arise? What is the problem with this idea?
- God will inflict suffering and death to punish sinners

TUESDAY

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

Let's contrast that with the top of Wednesday's lesson, first paragraph, "Though we are covered..." thoughts?

How do you hear these two ideas? Are they in harmony? Do you hear tension? What idea do you hear being taught?

According to what we have already studied about the meaning of the word logizomai can you ever have someone "legally" declared righteous by God who is not being made righteous?

Some argue that when God speaks then it is, as when He speaks things into existence. Therefore, when God "declares" us righteous then we are righteous. If this is how it works then why doesn't God just simply declare Satan righteous? And while He is at it, why not declare all intelligent beings in the universe righteous?

Can righteousness be obtained by God "declaring" it?

What about the idea of being covered by the robe of Christ's righteousness? Here is a statement from one of our founders:

It is the righteousness of Christ that makes the penitent sinner acceptable to God and works his justification. However sinful has been his life, if he believes in Jesus as his personal Saviour, he stands before God in the spotless robes of Christ's imputed righteousness. {FW 106.1}

How do you understand this? From all that we have studied how would you explain this? What does it mean to stand before God in the spotless robes of Christ's imputed righteousness?

I have heard it taught that it means we are covered with Christ's perfect character, that the Father when He looks at us doesn't see the deformity of our sinful character but only that of His perfect Son and therefore the Father treats us with forgiveness and acceptance. Thoughts? How is it true? How is it untrue?

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa. 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps. 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Thoughts? Does this sound like a legal accounting or a transforming experience?

Wednesday's lesson asks "What might we be deceived about in regard to what it means to be righteous?"

Read last paragraph, "Righteousness is right doing, and it is by their deeds that all will be judged. Our characters are revealed by what we do. The works show whether the faith is genuine." COL 312.

Thoughts?

Recently I had someone present this quotation to me and asked whether I believed it:

After the saints are changed to immortality and caught up together with Jesus, after they receive their harps, their robes, and their crowns, and enter the city, Jesus and the saints sit in judgment. The books are opened--the book of life and the book of death. The book of life contains the good deeds of the saints; and the book of death contains the evil deeds of the wicked. These books are compared with the statute book, the Bible, and according to that men are judged. EW 52

What do you think about that quote? Does the quotation from COL shed any light on what it means to be judged by the record of evil deeds recorded in the books of heaven? How would you explain it?

Are there books that are merely recording good and bad behaviors, deeds? Or are the deeds a reflection of the character and the character is being accurately recorded in heaven? And it is from our very character, either healed through God's grace that we are rewarded, or hardened through persistent sin that we are judged and condemned?

Angels of God are taking a daguerreotype [photograph] of the character just as accurately as the artist takes the likeness of the human features; and . . . it is from this that we are to be judged! {Mar 340.2}

When the Judgment shall sit, and the books shall be opened, there will be many astonishing disclosures. Men will not then appear as they appear to the human eyes and finite judgments. Secret sins will then be laid open to the view of all. Motives and intentions which have been hidden in the dark chambers of the heart will be revealed. {Mar 340.3}

All will appear as a real life-picture. {Mar 340.4}

In that solemn and awful hour the unfaithfulness of the husband will be opened to the wife, and the unfaithfulness of the wife, to the husband. Parents will then learn, for the first time, what was the real character of their children, and children will see the errors and mistakes that marked the lives of their parents. The man who robbed his neighbor through false representations, is not to escape with his ill-gotten gains. God has an exact record in His books, of every unjust account and every unfair dealing. {Mar 340.5}

Memory will be true and vivid in condemnation of the guilty one, who in that day is found wanting. The mind will recall all the thoughts and acts of the past; the whole life will come in review like the scenes in a panorama. {Mar 340.6}

Every passing hour of the present is shaping our future life. These moments spent in carelessness, in self-pleasing, as if of no value, are deciding our everlasting destinies. The words we utter today will go on echoing when time shall be no more. The deeds done today are transferred to the books of heaven, just as the features are transferred by the artist onto the polished plate. They will determine our destiny for eternity, for bliss or eternal loss and agonizing remorse. Character cannot be changed when Christ comes, nor just as a man is about to die. Character building must be done in this life. We fear that repentance will come to the self-indulgent, tainted soul all too late. A few resolves, a few tears, will never reverse a guilty past life nor blot out of the books of heaven the transgressions, the willful, knowing sins of those who have had the precious light of truth, and can explain the Scriptures to others, while sin and iniquity are drunk up like stolen waters. As though written with an iron pen, they may be found lead in the rock forever. {TM 429.3}

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read the middle section, “The man who attempts...” thoughts? Well said, what lessons can we draw from this?

- God will not force or coerce people to obedience
- Love requires freedom
- Real obedience comes from intelligent understanding and cooperation
- Blind obedience isn't obedience

How are we won to loyalty? And loyalty to God is righteousness, in other words, when we are won to trust, when we genuinely trust God so that we are loyal to Him we are recognized as being righteous!

Read next paragraph, "And what better way..." thoughts?

The Cross is absolutely the best inspiration we can have. Would we agree that the most important event in the history of the universe is Cross (His life, death and resurrection)? Do you think Satan knows this? Do you think Satan has ignored this or has he attacked what Christ did at the Cross in order to get people to draw wrongs conclusions? Can you think of any?

For God so loved the world that He GAVE his only Son...

Again, what is the robe of His righteousness? How do we stand in this robe?

How was Christ our substitute?

Read last paragraph – well stated, love for God is to be our motivator. What do lies about God result in? Fear of Him, if we remain "afraid" of God will we "love" Him? "Perfect love casts out all fear." When we act out of fear who are we working for? When we act out of love who are we working for?

TUESDAY

Top asks us to summarize Romans 5:17-19 in our own word.

For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Consequently, just as the result of one trespass was condemnation for all men, so also the result of one act of righteousness was justification that brings life for all men. ¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous. NIV

Here are those verses in my words:

If by the choice of one man's distrust, selfishness and death permeated all humanity, how much more will those who accept the remedy that Christ has achieved, experience restored trust and complete healing to live forever with God. ^{5:18} Therefore, just as Adam's distrust infected humanity with the fatal condition of fear and selfishness, so too Christ's choice to sacrifice self achieved the life-giving remedy for all mankind. ¹⁹ Just as Adam's choice infected the human race with a terminal condition, so too Christ's perfect life has brought the remedy to heal all who accept it. (Tim's Paraphrase)

FRIDAY

Read questions 1, 4, 5 and discuss.

Question 1 – explore not just human legalism such as a works salvation, but explore “heavenly legalism”, those concepts in which God is “legally” required to execute justice upon His Son in order to achieve legal pardon for sinners. What do you think about such concepts?

Lesson 12: The fruit of the Spirit is TRUTH

*Truth, holding a mirror and a serpent (1896).
Olin Levi Warner, Library of Congress
Thomas Jefferson Building, Washington, D.C.*

What is truth?? Does truth ever change [grow], or does our understanding of truth change, or both?? What should our acceptance of truth be based on?? Is something “true” because the majority believes it to be true??

The major theories of truth:

Correspondence theory -- For the truth to correspond it must first be proved by evidence or an individual's valid opinion, which have similar meaning or context.

Coherence theory -- For coherence theories in general, truth requires a proper fit of elements within a whole system.

Constructivist theory -- Constructivism views all of our knowledge as "constructed," because it does not reflect any external "transcendent" realities (as a pure correspondence theory might hold). Rather, perceptions of truth are viewed as contingent on convention, human perception, and social experience.

Consensus theory -- Consensus theory holds that truth is whatever is agreed upon, or in some versions, might come to be agreed upon, by some specified group.

Pragmatic theory -- The three most influential forms of the pragmatic theory of truth were introduced around the turn of the 20th century by Charles Sanders Peirce, William James, and John Dewey. Although there are wide differences in viewpoint among these and other proponents of pragmatic theory, they hold in common that truth is verified and confirmed by the results of putting one's concepts into practice.

1. the true or actual state of a matter: He tried to find out the truth.
2. conformity with fact or reality; verity: the truth of a statement.
3. a verified or indisputable fact, proposition, principle, or the like: mathematical truths.
4. the state or character of being true.
5. actuality or actual existence.
6. an obvious or accepted fact; truism; platitude.
7. honesty; integrity; truthfulness.

8. (often initial capital letter) ideal or fundamental reality apart from and transcending perceived experience: the basic truths of life.
9. agreement with a standard or original.
10. accuracy, as of position or adjustment.
11. Archaic. fidelity or constancy.

—Idiom

12. in truth, in reality; in fact; actually: In truth, moral decay hastened the decline of the Roman Empire. ref: dictionary.com

Those who are under the influence of the Spirit of God will not be fanatical, but calm and steadfast, free from extravagance in thought, word, or deed. Amid the confusion of delusive doctrines, the Spirit of God will be a guide and a shield to those who have not resisted the evidences of truth. FLB 56.5 (The Faith I Live By).

“I have yet many things to say unto you,” He continued, “but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will show you things to come. He shall glorify Me: for He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it unto you.” Jesus had opened before His disciples a vast tract of truth. But it was most difficult for them to keep His lessons distinct from the traditions and maxims of the scribes and Pharisees. They had been educated to accept the teaching of the rabbis as the voice of God, and it still held a power over their minds, and molded their sentiments. Earthly ideas, temporal things, still had a large place in their thoughts. They did not understand the spiritual nature of Christ’s kingdom, though He had so often explained it to them. Their minds had become confused. They did not comprehend the value of the scriptures Christ presented. Many of His lessons seemed almost lost upon them. Jesus saw that they did not lay hold of the real meaning of His words. He compassionately promised that the Holy Spirit should recall these sayings to their minds. And He had left unsaid many things that could not be comprehended by the disciples. These also would be opened to them by the Spirit. The Spirit was to quicken their understanding, that they might have an appreciation of heavenly things. “When He, the Spirit of truth, is come,” said Jesus, “He will guide you into all truth.” DA 670.3 (The Desire of Ages)

The Comforter is called “the Spirit of truth.” His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. DA 671.1

True sanctification is a Bible doctrine. The apostle Paul, in his letter to the Thessalonian church, declares: “This is the will of God, even your sanctification.” And he prays: “The very God of peace sanctify you wholly” (1 Thessalonians 4:3; 5:23). The Bible clearly teaches what sanctification is and how it is to be attained. The Saviour prayed for His disciples: “Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth” (John 17:17, 19). And Paul teaches that believers are to be “sanctified by the Holy Ghost” (Romans 15:16). What is the work of the Holy Spirit? Jesus told His disciples: “When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth” (John 16:13). And the psalmist says: “Thy law is the truth.” By the Word and the Spirit of God are opened to men the great principles of righteousness embodied in His law. And since the law of God is “holy, and just, and good,” a transcript of the divine perfection, it follows that a character formed by obedience to that law will be holy. Christ is a perfect example of such a character. He says: "I have kept my Father's commandments." "I do always those things that please him" (John 15:10; 8:29). The followers of Christ are to become like Him—by the grace of God to form characters in harmony with the principles of His holy law. This is Bible sanctification. Mar 231.3 (Maranatha)

God intends that, even in this life, truth shall be ever unfolding to His people. There is only one way in which this knowledge can be obtained. We can attain to an understanding of God's word only through the illumination of that Spirit by which the word was given. "The things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God;" "for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." And the Saviour's promise to His followers was: "When He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth.... For He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it unto you." 5T 703.2 (Testimonies for the Church Volume Five)

Multitude[s] have a wrong conception of God and his attributes, and are as truly serving a false God as were the worshipers of Baal. Many even of those who claim to be Christians have allied themselves with influences that are unalterably opposed to God and his truth. Thus they are led to turn away from the divine and to exalt the human.

The prevailing spirit of our time is one of infidelity and apostasy—a spirit of avowed illumination because of a knowledge of truth, but in reality of the blindest presumption. Human theories are exalted and placed where God and his law should be. Satan tempts men and women to disobey, with the promise that in disobedience they will find liberty and freedom that will make them as gods. There is seen a spirit of opposition to the plain word of God, of idolatrous exaltation of human wisdom above divine revelation. Men have allowed their minds to become so darkened and confused by conformity to worldly customs and influences that they seem to have lost all power to discriminate between light and darkness, truth and error. So far have they departed from the right way that they hold the opinions of a few philosophers, so-called, to be more trustworthy than the truths of the Bible. The entreaties and promises of God's word, its threatenings against disobedience and idolatry—these seem powerless to melt their hearts. A faith such as actuated Paul, Peter, and John they regard as old-fashioned, mystical, and unworthy of the intelligence of modern thinkers. In the beginning, God gave his law to mankind as a means of attaining happiness and eternal life. Satan's only hope of thwarting the purpose of God is to lead men and women to disobey this law, and his constant effort has been to misrepresent its teachings and belittle its importance. His master stroke has been an attempt to change the law itself, so as to lead men to violate its precepts while professing to obey it. PK 177-8.

The Fruit of the Spirit Lesson 13 1Q 2010

The Fruit of the Spirit: The Essence of Christian Character

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “When Moses...” thoughts?

What do you understand God’s glory to be? (Other Evidence – first and second temple).

Read memory verse Col 1:27: thoughts?

What is the mystery?

Let’s read some more texts and see what we can learn:

Now to him who is able to establish you by my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past,²⁶ but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might believe and obey him—²⁷ to the only wise God be glory forever through Jesus Christ! Amen. Romans 16:25-27

What new insights or questions come to mind? Why was the mystery hidden? From whom was the mystery hidden? How? “Long ages” refers to what? And what is now revealed?

² Surely you have heard about the administration of God’s grace that was given to me for you,³ that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly.⁴ In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,⁵ which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God’s holy apostles and prophets.⁶ This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.

⁷ I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power. ⁸ Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹ and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰ His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, ¹¹ according to his eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. Col 3:2-11.

What is the mystery? Why was it to be revealed to the rulers in heavenly realms? Could this mystery be hidden so far in the past that even heavenly beings didn't know? Is the mystery somehow connected to the wisdom of God? Was the wisdom of God hidden? How?

How has the wisdom of God been revealed? Is the mystery of the Gentiles being heirs with the Jews a new mystery or part of the same mystery? How is this mysterious wisdom related to the Gentiles being brought in to the promise?

What is the mystery?

And he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, ¹⁰ to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. Eph 1:9,10

The mystery of his will to unify all things – is there a thread running through all aspects of this mystery?

the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. ²⁷ To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col 1:26,27

My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ,³ in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col 2:2-3

What is the mystery? What do you hear?

- Christ
- Gentiles heirs along with Jews
- Unity of all things
- Christ living in the believer or believer renewed to be like Christ
- A truth that was mysterious but which Christ revealed and through the church is revealed to the universe

What is the mystery?

Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her²⁶ to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word,²⁷ and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.²⁸ In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.²⁹ After all, no one ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church—³⁰ for we are members of his body.³¹ “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”³² This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church.³³ However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband. Eph 5:25-33

Does this give further insight into the mystery – what is the mystery? What is being described? Is it selfless love to heal, protect and build up?

Is the mystery the mystery about the character of God – His love, His law of love?

How has it been hidden? Was God's character of love, the mystery of selflessness hidden by God or by Satan's lies about God? How is it revealed? It is through Christ that God's love is manifest – not just in revelation of God, but it's power – it's life giving, healing, restorative power?

What is the impact of this mystery being revealed? The law of Lord is perfect reviving the soul!

Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— ⁵² in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. ⁵³ For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. ⁵⁴ When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." ⁵⁵ "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"

What is the mystery? Why is it a mystery that we will not all sleep? Is this a different mystery that Christ in you? Is this a different mystery that unification under one head? Is this a different mystery than two becoming one flesh, unity of Christ and His bride? No, it is the same – for what is the basis of life?

John 17:3 life eternal is knowing God – God is love, the law of love is the law of life, the new covenant is God writing His law in our hearts and minds, partaking of the divine nature, in other words Christ in you. Thus, death comes from not knowing God, from not living love, from being selfish, from separation from God. The mystery is the mystery of God's character of love, broken in mankind when Adam sinned, hidden away from our eyes by Satan's lies and revealed by and restored into humanity by Christ and for which we can all again partake. When will all of this happen?

But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets." Revelation 10:7

What is the mystery of God? The restoration of His law of love into His people, not on an individual basis only, but so that the Bride, the Church is ready to meet Jesus. (AKA cleansing of the sanctuary).

When we seek for appropriate language in which to describe the love of God, we find words too tame, too weak, too far beneath the theme, and we lay down our pen and say, "No, it cannot be described." We can only do as did the beloved disciple, and say, "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God." [1 JOHN 3:1.] In attempting any description of this love, we feel that we are as infants lisping their first words. Silently we may adore; for silence in this matter is the only eloquence. This love is past all language to describe. It is the mystery of God in the flesh, God in Christ, and divinity in humanity. Christ bowed down in unparalleled humility, that in his exaltation to the throne of God, he might also exalt those who believe in him, to a seat with him upon his throne. All who look upon Jesus in faith that the wounds and bruises that sin has made will be healed in him, shall be made whole. {CE 77.1}

What is the mystery of God? His character of love, which God originally designed mankind to possess, yet this love was hidden by Satanic lies, replaced in the heart of man by Satan's law of selfishness, but Christ came to reveal God's love and replace it back into mankind again!

Christ came to our world to become our sacrifice. He came to discover to our eyes the gems of truth, to place them in a new setting,--the frame-work of truth. He brought out of the treasure-house of God things new and old, that we might be able to trace down the links in the great plan of salvation. Through the sacrificial offerings of the Jewish dispensation, we are pointed forward to Christ, the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. When Christ came, it was to engage in the conflict with the enemy of God and man, on this earth, in the sight of the universe of heaven. But why was it necessary to wage the warfare in the sight of other worlds?--It was because Satan had been an exalted angel, and when he fell, he induced many angels to join him in his revolt against God's government. He worked in the minds of the angels as he works in the minds of men today. He made a pretension of loyalty to God, and yet he argued that angels should not be under law. He inculcated his ideas, his rebellion and enmity, and hatred of God's law originated in the minds of the angels in heaven through his influence. He caused the fall of man through the same temptations with which he had caused the fall of angels; and in the world where he proposed to work out his principles of rebellion, the battle had to be fought, that all might behold the real nature and results of disobedience to God's great moral standard. He represented God in a false light, clothing him with his own attributes. Christ came to represent the Father in his true character. He showed that he was not an arbitrary judge, ready to bring judgments upon men, and delighting in condemning and punishing them for their evil deeds. The Lord proclaimed his character to Moses in the mount. "And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty." {ST, November 18, 1889 par. 6}

What is this mystery of which Paul writes to the Ephesians and to the Colossians, saying that it was given to him to fulfil the word of God, the mystery "which hath been hid from ages and from generations?" One translation reads, "which hath been kept in silence through eternal ages." {ST, March 25, 1897 par. 2}

Many have endeavored to define the mystery which Paul here mentions. But it embraces much, and our ideas in regard to the love, the goodness, and the compassion of God are strangely limited. Because our knowledge of spiritual things has become so dwarfed and enfeebled, we have not advanced from light to greater light. The Lord has not been able to open to our understanding many precious things. In view of the losses which we have sustained by our earthliness and commonness, we have much to make us humble. {ST, March 25, 1897 par. 3}

God had a knowledge of the events of the future, even before the creation of the world. He did not make his purposes to fit circumstances, but he allowed matters to develop and work out. He did not work to bring about a certain condition of things, but he knew that such a condition would exist. The plan that should be carried out upon the defection of any of the high intelligences of heaven,--this is the secret, the mystery which has been hid from ages. And an offering was prepared in the eternal purposes to do the very work which God has done for fallen humanity. {ST, March 25, 1897 par. 4}

Thoughts? Is not the mystery a mystery about God, a being who could love His creatures so much that He would become one of them and give His life to save them from eternal death?

SUNDAY

Middle text, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added unto you." Matt 6:33.

What is the kingdom of God that we are to seek? Does it mean seek for eternal life, to have sins pardoned, to get our record book erased, to get our payment made? As the lesson points out too often our prayers are about us, what we want or desire, rather than what we need to become.

Is the kingdom of God the kingdom of love and seeking it would mean seeking to be like God in heart?

What would God's kingdom look like in our lives today? How would we treat each other? When you hear of a member who has stumbled how would you respond, if you are a member of God's kingdom?

Read last paragraph – thoughts? What do you think about requests like this?

MONDAY

Other fruits of the Spirit include:

- Godliness
- Virtue
- Hope
- Knowledge
- Discernment

Thoughts about these gifts? How do we experience these fruits? Are they miraculous gifts bestowed without any effort on our part or are they gifts which require our effort in cooperation with divinity? Do we have to practice these gifts? Do we have to study? Do we have to choose to hope? Do we have to practice thinking and giving and godliness?

TUESDAY

Read last two paragraphs, “At the same time...” thoughts? Where does our salvation lie? What do you understand Jesus accomplished on the cross for you?

Read green section – thoughts? How is this true? How is it not true?

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section – thoughts?

What does it mean to love the world? Flowers, animals, sunsets, mountain views, artwork, music? Or is it the methods and principles of the world it is speaking of, loving self, promoting self, enjoying taking advantage, getting pleasure out of exploiting or hurting others, liking the power and control over others?

Read second paragraph, “While we...” thoughts? How is our church in danger of this? Did the Jewish nation in Christ’s day fall into this trap? Is our church vulnerable? How?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph – thoughts? How can we increase or encourage the work of the Holy Spirit in healing us?

The lesson suggests:

- Bible study
- Prayer
- Right thinking
- Christian witness

Thoughts about these? Did those who put Christ on the cross concern themselves with 3 of the 4, study of scripture, prayer and how they appeared or witnessed to others?

What about right thinking? The battle is for the mind when the mind and heart are right the behaviors are right. This is what true righteousness is about, a change in the inner man, not a mere behavior change.

What else can we do to help the Holy Spirit heal us?

- Problem solve, weigh out the issues, discuss together as we are here
- Minister to others
- Discipline self (diet, exercise, what we watch and read)
- Choose healthy friends and associates

Bottom green section states, “The fruit of the Spirit isn’t going to happen on its own. Your own choices will determine your destiny.”

Well said, this is absolutely true – then why do we teach God decides our destiny in the judgment?

FRIDAY

Questions 1-4 read and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 1 2Q 2010

Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow

This quarter we are going to study about healthful living – why is this important? Can we eat our way into heaven? Can we eat our way out of heaven?

What is the primary purpose of healthful living on earth today? Is it to live 10 or 20 years longer in sin? Is it because every organ system of the body has as its primary purpose to serve the brain, and if the organs are diseased the brain is less efficient? And if the brain is less efficient then our ability to commune with God is impaired, our ability to grow, develop, achieve, and minister is impaired. And if our body is diseased we have less freedom to carry out God's purposes for our lives?

Is there some aspect of character development that is connected to healthful living? Does it require some aspect of self-control to live healthy lives, does this self-discipline help us in other areas of living?

Read top paragraph in the introduction page 3, "Of course it makes perfect sense..." – thoughts?

Have you considered the idea that Adam and Eve were physical, fleshly, beings with bone, muscle, tendons, neurons, brains, chromosomes and genes before they sinned?

What does this mean? God created Adam and Eve as physical beings with the ability to create beings in their image – what would that entail?

Did Adam and Eve have the ability to grow, develop, adapt and change themselves based on the choices they made? If they were to make choices to change themselves and then had children would that change be passed along to their children? How? Genetically?

When Adam and Eve sinned did they change themselves? Did they change in character? In heart motive? Did they change genetically? Did their physical bodies change?

What does it mean that God would not allow them to have access to the tree of life lest there be an immortal sinner? Does this mean they couldn't die from any cause?

- Would access to the tree of life have prevented Cain from smashing Abel's head with a rock?
- Would access to the tree of life prevent decapitation?
- Would access to the tree of life change the laws of physics on planet earth and a nuclear explosion such as Hiroshima would have no effect?
- Or would access to the tree of life merely prevent natural aging?

- God said to them "in the day you eat of the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, dying you will die."
 - What does that sound like?
 - You will slowly die, you will decay away unto death, you will deteriorate until you die, you will age and die?
 - The tree of life would prevent physical aging, nothing more.
 - And in a world filled with self-centered sinners what would have happened if God had left the tree of life on earth? Would everyone have access at any time? Or would the greatest wars have been fought over it?

Recently a new theory has begun to circulate that the tree of knowledge contained a biotoxin which infected Adam and Eve with alien, viral, DNA and caused genetic changes and this is what brought death from sin, and salvation is a matter of fixing our DNA. In other words, some are arguing that the sin problem is primarily a physical problem from actual biotoxin rather than change in heart, mind, motive, and therefore Christ came to fix our DNA, not our characters. Thoughts?

What are the problems with such a theory?

- It removes the character of God from the center and diverts the mind to other themes
- Warfare between Christ and Satan is no longer a battle over truth and love versus lies and selfishness for the hearts/minds of intelligent creatures, but is a physical war with bioweapons
 - If this is true how weak does such a theory make God?
- It obstructs the truth about the law of love
- It fails to recognize God's design in creation, that our choices and thinking actually changes our biology, including gene expression
- It fails to recognize the consequence to our biology of sin since the fall (eating meat, loss of solar protection at the flood, ingestion of toxins, etc.)
- It fails to recognize the meaning of "dominion" given to Adam and surrendered to Satan at the fall.
- It makes the plan of salvation not about the character and heart and motives but about the biology
- It undermines Christ's accomplishment at the Cross

If the sin problem is primarily a physical problem, a biological infection of our DNA then why did Adam and Eve have to choose to partake the Tree? Why couldn't Satan just launch a bio weapon?

When we consider the plan of salvation what is God trying to heal or fix in us? What can we experience now? Can we experience a new heart and right spirit, a change in motive, freedom from fear and selfishness and live a life of love? Do we get new bodies now? Will we one day get new bodies?

Is it difficult for the creator God to fix biological defects? Did Christ do this constantly on earth? Did Christ when healing the lepers, the blind, the deaf, the lame make biological fixes including changes in DNA? Yes, did this fix the sin problem? No! Don't get caught up in this distraction, keep your mind fixed on Christ!

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs, “As the Hubble...” thoughts What does it mean? Does it mean we cannot know anything about God or that there will always be more to learn?

John 17:3 - life eternal is to know God, then what is the point the lesson is trying to make? That we couldn't go find God other than God has chosen to reveal Himself to us?

Given that God has chosen to reveal Himself can we find Him?
What about Jeremiah 29:13:

You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Can we find God?

Read last paragraph, “As if all...” thoughts? Is there a difference from bearing our humanity and bearing our sins? Or is our humanity infected with sinfulness and when Christ chose to bear our humanity He took our sinfulness upon Himself and this is what the scripture means by Christ bearing our sins or becoming sin for us?

Ray van den Hoven, one of our online class members, emailed me this quotation what do you think?

And in order to elevate fallen man, Christ must reach him where he was. He took human nature, and bore the infirmities and degeneracy of the race. He, who knew no sin, became sin for us. He humiliated Himself to the lowest depths of human woe, that He might be qualified to reach man, and bring him up from the degradation in which sin had plunged him (RH July 28, 1874). {5BC 1081.7}

Here is another similar quotation:

What a contrast the second Adam presented as He entered the gloomy wilderness to cope with Satan single-handed. Since the fall, the race had been decreasing in size and physical strength, and sinking lower in the scale of moral worth, up to the period of Christ's advent to the earth. In order to elevate fallen man, Christ must reach him where he was. He took human nature, and bore the infirmities and degeneracy of the race. He who knew no sin became sin for us. He humiliated Himself to the lowest depths of human woe, that He might be qualified to reach man and bring him up from the degradation in which sin had plunged him. {Con 32.3}

Thoughts? Does it sound like taking our fallen humanity is synonymous with becoming sin for us? Does it make more sense than some idea of transfer of behaviors? Can behavior be transferred?

Ray noticed how the New Testament writers interpreted Isaiah 53:

Isa 53:4: Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. (RSV)

Matt 8:16-17:

That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and cured all who were sick. This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah, "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases." (RSV)

How does Matthew apply Isaiah's prophecy about Christ carrying our sorrows and griefs? Does Matthew apply it as Jesus paying a legal penalty, or Jesus healing us and actually taking away our infirmities and diseases, ultimately taking away our sinfulness through His victorious death?

Yet, notice Isaiah's prophecy, we would misunderstand and consider it was God who struck Him and killed Him – have we done this?

Isa 53:5: But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the chastening for our well-being {fell} upon Him, and by His scourging we are healed. (NAS)

1 Pet 2:24-25: and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.
25 For you were continually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls. (NAS)

How does Peter interpret Isaiah? That He bore our sin (or sinfulness) in His body, what does that mean? Could it mean that He took our sinful condition upon Himself, He took our humanity, our fallen nature? And for what purpose? So “that we might die to sin and live to righteousness!” Notice, it wasn't for legal payment or appeasement of God, but for actual transformation of humanity from sinful to righteous through Jesus!

Thoughts?

SUNDAY

Read top paragraph – thoughts? What is the gospel?

Jim Norton, one of our online class members, emailed me this week commenting on last class, but his comments fit here. This is what he said:

When I am in dialog with others, I often mention that three key terms in Christianity are corrupted.....>>> gospel, grace, and salvation.

I was listening to SSL #13 where you were presenting a competent segmented study of the word "mystery" and moving on to "gospel"...

I heard the definition of the gospel being >> "GOD is love" come from the audience. (after you mentioned that the gospel was eternal) I will not challenge that input at face value, yet because of NEH 8:8 and 1 Cor 14:3 the definition begs elaboration.

When I look in the bible and SOP for clues as to the definition of gospel, I take note of the equivalent word>>> "is".

One in the bible is ROM 1:16

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

“The gospel is the good news of grace, or favour, by which man may be released from the condemnation of sin, and enabled to render acceptable obedience to the law.” BEcho 1894

“We should lay hold on His promise, and pray for the manifestation of His power. The very essence of the gospel is restoration, and the Saviour would have us bid the sick, the hopeless, and the afflicted take hold upon His strength.” DA 824

What led me to do more searching years ago was the erroneous emphasis on static/positional doctrine to the diminution of dynamic/ experiential/sanctifying truth.

Thoughts? I like the idea of the gospel being dynamic, experiential, sanctifying – don't you? What about it being eternal?

Revelation 14:6

Then I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people.

Is the gospel eternal? Does eternal mean only future or does it mean always was and always will be? In other words is the gospel true in eternity past as well as eternity future?

What is the good news, the gospel? Is it restoration? How is restoration eternal? Was the death of Christ needed through all eternity past?

Is the good news that we can live forever with God? Would that be good news if God is the kind of being Satan alleges?

Is the good news the good news about God Himself, and life eternal is knowing God John 17:3? If life eternal is knowing God, then would returning to a genuine unity with God be restorative? Would such a intimate knowledge of God result in healing?

Many who claim to believe and to teach the gospel are in a similar error. They set aside the Old Testament Scriptures, of which Christ declared, "They are they which testify of Me." John 5:39. In rejecting the Old, they virtually reject the New; for both are parts of an inseparable whole. No man can rightly present the law of God without the gospel, or the gospel without the law. The law is the gospel embodied, and the gospel is the law unfolded. The law is the root, the gospel is the fragrant blossom and fruit which it bears. {COL 128.2}

Thoughts? How do you see the law and the gospel connected? What law? The royal law of scripture, the law of love which originates in the heart of God – thus the gospel is the truth about God which has always been He is love and always will be He is love!

- The first words of the Conflict of the Ages Series:
 - "God is love." 1 John 4:16. His nature, His law, is love. It ever has been; it ever will be. PP 33
- The last words of the Conflict of the Ages Series:
 - From the minutest atom to the greatest world, all things, animate and inanimate, in their unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, declare that God is love. {GC 678.3}

Isn't this the eternal good news? And does this good news have power, power to heal, change, transform? Is it dynamic?

Bottom pink section says, "To love unconditionally is alien to the human heart." Was it always alien? How did it become alien? What is the consequence to love being alien? What took love's place in the human heart? And what happened? What is the only solution?

One of the definitions of the gospel was good news of grace – let's turn to Monday's lesson to explore that idea.

MONDAY

What is grace? The lesson suggests the definition as "unmerited favor." How do you like that definition? Would grace included unmerited favor? But is that definition a complete definition? If we leave it at that does it cause some narrowing of our understanding?

Would Jesus merit God's grace or would God's grace to Jesus be unmerited?

Luke 2:52: And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

The Greek work translated "favor" is charis, which is the same word translated 130 times as "grace." Did Jesus not deserve God's favor? Can grace be merited?

5485 χάρις [charis /khar·e·ce/] n f. From 5463; TDNT 9:372; TDNTA 1298; GK 5921; 156 occurrences; AV translates as “grace” 130 times, “favour” six times, “thanks” four times, “thank” four times, “thank + 2192” three times, “pleasure” twice, and translated miscellaneously seven times. 1 grace. 1A that which affords joy, pleasure, delight, sweetness, charm, loveliness: grace of speech. 2 good will, loving-kindness, favour. 2A of the merciful kindness by which God, exerting his holy influence upon souls, turns them to Christ, keeps, strengthens, increases them in Christian faith, knowledge, affection, and kindles them to the exercise of the Christian virtues. 3 what is due to grace. 3A the spiritual condition of one governed by the power of divine grace. 3B the token or proof of grace, benefit. 3B1 a gift of grace. 3B2 benefit, bounty. 4 thanks, (for benefits, services, favours), recompense, reward.

Does grace describe the party receiving it or the one rendering it? Can you have grace without a gracious being? Could we say God’s grace is God’s work for His creation, His work to sustain those in loyalty and His work to redeem those in rebellion? In other words, grace is love in action, God acting?

Then do we find that the gospel, or good news, is here again the good news about God which has always been true and which will always be true?

Read last paragraph, “Sometimes though...” and then read bottom pink section. Thoughts?

What about Adam, as God created him, what had Adam done to deserve eternal life? What about Gabriel? What about the beings in other worlds? What makes them worthy of eternal life? Upon what is eternal life based? Is eternal life for any creature based on n n: noun or neuter

f f: feminine

TDNT Theological Dictionary of the New Testament

TDNTA Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Abridged in One Volume

GK Goodrick-Kohlenberger

AV Authorized Version

something the creature earned or did? Do any of God's creatures earn eternal life?

John 17:3 "this is life eternal that they might know you..." When did any of us choose to be separate from God, to be sinners? Does God blame us for the condition into which we were born?

What makes us worthy of eternal life? Would it be that we are God's creation and He created us to live eternally in union with Him? Yet, God's purposes were interrupted by an enemy who caused Adam and Eve to break trust with God, to believe lies and no longer "know" God.

For God so loved the world He gave His one and only Son that whoever believes in Him will not perish but live eternally! What does this say? Why do we merit or deserve eternal life? Because God loves us! Because of who we are, God's children, the object of His love! Therefore, He sent Jesus to accomplish God's purpose in healing us, restoring us, bringing us back from death to life eternal!

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Think of the incredible..." thoughts? Well said!

Read next paragraph, "Indeed, if the most important...." Thoughts?

How would you describe love? Certainly, love is relational, but is that enough? Should love have a qualitative aspect?

I have many patients who are in relationship, domineering, controlling, abusive, dependent, some even call this love, but would the relationship be "love"? Is "relationship" enough to define love?

How would you define it? Is it a principle? And what is that principle? And how does that principle impact relationship?

WEDNESDAY

Middle of the lesson asks, “Whatever your struggles right now, what are things that you have to praise God for?”

Let’s take a moment and answer that question, what do you have to praise God for?

THURSDAY

Read top Bible verse, “I beseech...” thoughts? What do you think Paul means by reasonable service?

Read last paragraph, “Scientists...” Is it reasonable to avoid toxins, to make choices that bring health and avoid disease, pain, suffering? Is this part of worship?

FRIDAY

Questions 1 and 2 read and answer

Health and Healing Lesson 2 2Q 2010

The Power of Choice

SUNDAY

Read third paragraph, "One thing, though,..." thoughts?

Why is the freedom of choice critical? What would be lost if we didn't have choice?

The dark section asks us to read Genesis 2:16,17:

And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

And then read next paragraph, "In Genesis 3:1-6..." thoughts?

What is God telling them? Why is the tree there? What purpose was there in putting the tree there?

Was it to tempt them? Have you ever heard it was there as a test of their obedience?

"Your eyes shall be opened," the enemy had said; "ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." Genesis 3:5. Their eyes were indeed opened; but how sad the opening! The knowledge of evil, the curse of sin, was all that the transgressors gained. There was nothing poisonous in the fruit itself, and the sin was not merely in yielding to appetite. It was distrust of God's goodness, disbelief of His word, and rejection of His authority, that made our first parents transgressors, and that brought into the world a knowledge of evil. It was this that opened the door to every species of falsehood and error. {Ed 25.2}

There was nothing poisonous in the fruit of the tree of knowledge itself, nothing that would cause death in partaking of it. The tree had been placed in the garden to test their loyalty to God.--ST Feb. 13, 1896. {Truth about Angels 56.2}

Remember last week our discussion of the “genomic” theory, this author shoots that theory down. I agree with the quote above.

Our first parents, though created innocent and holy, were not placed beyond the possibility of wrongdoing. . . . They were to enjoy communion with God and with holy angels; but before they could be rendered eternally secure, their loyalty must be tested. At the very beginning of man's existence a check was placed upon the desire for self-indulgence, the fatal passion that lay at the foundation of Satan's fall. The tree of knowledge, which stood near the tree of life in the midst of the garden, was to be a test of the obedience, faith, and love of our first parents. While permitted to eat freely of every other tree, they were forbidden to taste of this, on pain of death. They were also to be exposed to the temptations of Satan; but if they endured the trial, they would finally be placed beyond his power, to enjoy perpetual favor with God. . . . {CC 13.2}

Is this true? How do we reconcile this with James 1:13:

When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone;

If God doesn't tempt anyone then how do we make sense of the purpose of the tree?

One purpose, pointed out by some, was to protect them from Satanic assault, as long as they stayed loyal Satan could only access them at the tree. He could not follow them all over the Garden.

But is that the most important reason? What happens when we make choices? Are we changed by the choices we make? Would it be important for Adam and Eve to exercise their own minds to think through the temptations of Satan and choose to say no?

Parents think of your children, is there a difference in preventing your children from being in a situation in which they could be tempted and therefore you keep your child from choosing to sin, and your child being faced with the temptation and your child choosing to say no?

The very next paragraph from the quote above states:

God might have created man without the power to transgress His law; He might have withheld the hand of Adam from touching the forbidden fruit; but in that case man would have been, not a free moral agent, but a mere automation. Without freedom of choice, his obedience would not have been voluntary, but forced. There could have been no development of character. . . . It would have been unworthy of man as an intelligent being, and would have sustained Satan's charge of God's arbitrary rule. {CC 13.3}

God wanted mankind to grow and advance and it is only by the exercise of their own power of choice that could develop. Therefore the tree was not placed there to trip them up, but as the most simple opportunity for them to exercise their own individuality and say no and thus solidify their own characters in righteousness! In other words, the tree was for their blessing.

Let's talk a little brain science. Your brain, both white cells and neurons, make proteins called Brain Derived Neurotrophic Factor BDNF. This protein, and others like it, are like fertilizer for your neurons. But BDNF doesn't come off the DNA as BDNF it comes off as a precursor protein called pro-BDNF. While BDNF is like fertilizer to the neurons, pro-BDNF is like weed killer. What determines whether a neural circuit gets BDNF or pro-BDNF is the presence of an enzyme which will cleave pro-BDNF into BDNF. What determines whether that enzyme is present is the activity of the neural circuit itself. If the circuit is active, the enzyme is produced and the circuit grows stronger, if it is dormant the enzyme is not produce the brain prunes back the neural connections.

Our choices, even in what we think, alter our brain development and gene expression.

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “The consequences...” Thoughts?

How do we affect our children?

- Interview with AH
- How we live our lives changes us, changes our genetics, our gene expression and we pass along our genetic expression to our children.
 - What the parents are, that to a great extent the children will be. The physical conditions of the parents, their dispositions and appetites, their mental and moral tendencies, are to a greater or less degree reproduced in their children.--MH 371 (1905). {1MCP 138.5}
 - The nobler the aims, the higher the mental and spiritual endowments, and the better developed the physical powers of the parents, the better will be the life equipment they give their children.... {1MCP 139.1}
 - Children born to mothers in the Netherlands during WWII when the average daily caloric intake was 500 calories per day, had their gene expression compared to their siblings from the same parents but who were born during times of normal food availability. Those who were born during the war had gene expression differences which increased their risk of obesity and metabolic illnesses.

You are what your grandmother ate

22:00 13 November 2006
NewScientist.com news service
Roxanne Khamsi

A mother's diet can change the behaviour of a specific gene for at least two subsequent generations, a new study demonstrates for the first time.

Feeding mice an enriched diet during pregnancy silenced a gene for light fur in their pups. And even though these pups ate a standard, un-enriched diet, the gene remained less active in their subsequent offspring.

The findings could help explain the curious results from recent studies of human populations – including one showing that the grandchildren of well-fed Swedes had a greater risk of diabetes.

The new mouse experiment lends support to the idea that we inherit not only our genes from our parents, but also a set of instructions that tell the genes when to become active. These instructions appear to be passed on through “epigenetic” changes to DNA – genes can be activated or silenced according to the chemical groups that are added onto them.

Gene silencer

David Martin at the Children's Hospital Oakland Research Institute in California, US, and colleagues used a special strain of genetically identical mice with an overactive version of a gene that influences fur colour. Mice with the AVY version of this gene generally have golden fur.

Half of the mice were given a diet enriched with nutrients such as vitamin B12 and zinc. These nutrients are known to increase the availability of the “methyl” chemical groups that are responsible for silencing genes. The rest of the mice received a standard diet.

The pups of mice on the standard diet generally had golden fur. But a high proportion of those born to mice on the enriched diet had dark brown fur.

Martin believes that the nutrient-rich maternal diet caused silencing of the pups' AVY genes while they developed in the womb.

Passed down

Intriguingly, even though all of the pups in this generation received a standard diet, those that had exposure to a high-nutrient diet while in the womb, later gave birth to dark-coated offspring. Their control counterparts, by comparison, produced offspring with golden fur.

This shows that environmental factors – such as an enriched diet – can affect the activity of the AVY gene for at least two generations, the researchers say.

“The results make it clear that a nutritional status can affect not only that individual, but that individual's children as well,” says study member Kenneth Beckman.

Skin colour

Beckman notes that the AVY gene is linked to weight and diabetes risk. He adds that there is some evidence that a related gene in humans might affect skin colour – but it is unknown if it also affects weight.

Even though humans may have a similar gene, they should not make dietary changes based on the results of the mouse experiment, researchers stress. “It would be irresponsible to make any prescriptions about human behaviour based on these findings,” says Martin.

An earlier Swedish study which used historical data of harvests in Sweden, found that a youngster had a quadrupled risk of diabetes if their grandfather had good access to food during his own boyhood (see Grandad's diet affects descendants' health).

Journal reference: Proceedings of the National Academy of Science (DOI: 10.1073/pnas.0607090103)

- Children who are abused have alteration in gene expression, particularly genes that code for stress response and cannot calm their amygdalas normally

Child Abuse Alters Brain Gene

By PSYCH CENTRAL NEWS EDITOR

Reviewed by John M. Grohol, Psy.D. on February 23, 2009

Childhood abuse can lead to lasting psychological problems in a person’s life, increasing the risk of depression and even suicide later in life. New research suggests that these problems may be traced back to a change in a brain gene as a direct result of the childhood abuse.

The study, led by researchers from McGill University, found that child abuse modifies a gene called NR3C1. This gene in the brain is one thought to affect a person’s ability to deal with stress.

The researchers studied the brains of 24 suicide victims, 12 who had suffered severe childhood abuse, which included physical abuse, neglect or sexual contact, and 12 who had not been abused.

Those who had been abused had lower levels of expression of the gene NR3C1, which is critical for the stress response pathway.

The changes observed in the gene suggests that the trauma associated with child abuse may permanently alter a person’s ability to deal with stress.

The researchers hypothesize that because of the changes in this gene’s expression, people might have trouble turning off their stress response. This could result in a person’s body being in a constant stressful state, leading to future problems with depression, anxiety and possibly even suicide. Further research is needed to confirm this finding.

This finding helps shed light on the gene/environmental interactions and could lead to a future procedure for identifying the gene change. It also suggests that a gene change brought about by environmental influences may also be potentially reversible.

The findings will be published in the journal Nature Neuroscience.

Source: Nature Neuroscience

- Children of mothers who suffer from depression have higher rates of mental illnesses, if the mother's depression is untreated or fails to be treated to remission, however, if the mother's depression is treated to remission then the children don't experience the same increased risk of mental illness. And the faster the mother is treated to remission the better the children do.
- Animal studies show that pups whose mothers are attentive and lick them frequently have altered brain development such that they have calmer fear centers, less anxiety, socialize better, than pups who didn't get this grooming and attention from their mothers. But, when pups from mothers who were not attentive were reared by mothers who were attentive their brains developed the same as the offspring of the attentive mothers. This means that early childhood experiences changes neural development and gene expression.

Thoughts?

The lesson asks us to read DT 30, let's start with verse 11 and read through verse 19:

¹¹ Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach. ¹² It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, "Who will ascend into heaven to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?" ¹³ Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask, "Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?" ¹⁴ No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so you may obey it.

¹⁵ See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction. ¹⁶ For I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

¹⁷ But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, ¹⁸ I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

¹⁹ This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live

Thoughts? What do you hear being described? Is their fate in their hands? Will health and life be determined by what they choose? Is this true for us? Is it true only for our earthly existence or for our eternal existence? Then why do so many people teach that God judges us and determines our destiny if it is up to us to choose?

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to read Genesis 3:7-13:

Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

⁸ Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ But the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

¹⁰ He answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.”

¹¹ And he said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”

¹² The man said, “The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

¹³ Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?”

The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

The lesson asks to define, in one word, what they experienced – what would you say?

What emotion became the primary emotion in their hearts? Fear and selfishness, survival of the fittest? Do we experience the same thing today?

Read last paragraph, “Sure, we sometimes...” thoughts? What is the source of our greatest temptations? Is it not from within? From self?

When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. James 1:13-15

Is it true we are all tempted from within? Is it true we should blame ourselves for this problem? No!

How many of you chose to be born a sinner? How many in this room had a choice to live a sin-free life? We were born in sin conceived in iniquity – it wasn’t our fault we were born this way and therefore we don’t need to blame ourselves for being sinners. But, if we reject free remedy, do we need to blame ourselves for that?

TUESDAY

Read top paragraph, “However much...” thoughts? What choice do we have? Why do we have choice? After Adam fell did Adam, still within himself retain the power to choose against Satan? Do we have the power to choose against our carnal nature by ourselves?

The Lord says, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman." The enmity does not exist as a natural fact. As soon as Adam sinned, he was in harmony with the first great apostate, and at war with God; and if God had not interfered in man's behalf, Satan and man would have formed a confederacy against heaven, and carried on united opposition against the God of hosts. There is no natural enmity between evil angels and evil men; both are evil through transgression of the law of God, and evil will always league against good. Fallen men and fallen angels enter into a desperate companionship. {ST, July 11, 1895 par. 5}

Why do we have a choice at all? Because of God's grace, because of God's interference – what is another word for God's interference? Intercession, God intercedes with the powers of evil, with the process of sinfulness in order to bring cure and remedy and restore us to righteousness!

Read the next paragraph, “Polygamy...” thoughts?

- Did Abraham make the choice to take Hagar before or after God called him to follow Him?
- Before or after Abraham followed God by faith and was considered righteous?
- Did the sin in taking Hagar disqualify Abraham as God's friend?
- Do we have a record of God chastising Abraham for taking Hagar as his wife?
- We have a record of God informing him that the promised child wouldn't come through Hagar, but did Abraham get chastised or punished by God?
- Did it disqualify Abraham's salvation?
- How do we make sense of being in a saving relationship with God and choosing to sin?
- Does choosing to sin cancel our salvation?

Is the key to salvation perfect performance, or having a perfect heart attitude toward God and a longing for healing, a heart that when we do fall short is grieved, like Paul, “what a wretched man that I am who will save me from this body of death”?

Read last paragraph – thoughts?

The lesson makes an excellent point that God does not turn away from us, we turn away from Him. Like Adam and Eve we get deceived by our own feelings and false think no one, including God could love us, and therefore, feel so bad about ourselves we won't allow God into our lives. We must recognize this lie and see the truth as revealed in Jesus, that God so loved us He sent His Son, that while we were sinners Christ died for us!

What about obedience? Does God want us to obey because He commands us? Is this God's desire?

One Sabbath Christie and I attended a church and as the pastor offered the opening pray he prayed:

“Dear God, we come here today not for the special music, not for the friends or fellowship, not even for the sermon, no, Lord, we come here today for one reason and one reason only, because you have commanded us to.”

Do you think this is God's ideal? Does God want us to come to church for such a reason?

- The man who attempts to keep the commandments of God from a sense of obligation merely--because he is required to do so--will never enter into the joy of obedience. He does not obey. When the requirements of God are accounted a burden because they cut across human inclination, we may know that the life is not a Christian life. True obedience is the outworking of a principle within. It springs from the love of righteousness, the love of the law of God. The essence of all righteousness is loyalty to our Redeemer. This will lead us to do right because it is right--because right doing is pleasing to God. {COL 97.3}
- A sullen submission to the will of the Father will develop the character of a rebel. By such a one service is looked upon as drudgery. It is not rendered cheerfully, and in the love of God. It is a mere mechanical performance. If he dared, such a one would disobey. His rebellion is smothered, ready to break out at any time in bitter murmurings and complaints. Such service brings no peace or quietude to the soul. {ST, July 22, 1897}

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, "Though all have...." Thoughts?

Read second paragraph, "God knows..." thoughts? Does this help?

Read last paragraph, "According..." thoughts? Will God take control of our will, even if we ask?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, "God does not compel..." Does this sound like God takes control of the will? Why the weight of evidence?

Read Questions 1,3,4 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 3 2Q 2010

Celebrating Spiritual and Physical Fitness

SUNDAY

2 Tim 4:7 “I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”

What does it mean to fight the good fight? What is the fight? What course? What does it mean to keep the faith?

The warfare against self is the greatest battle that was ever fought. The yielding of self, surrendering all to the will of God, requires a struggle; but the soul must submit to God before it can be renewed in holiness. {SC 43.3}

What does this mean? Do you agree? Is this the greatest battle fought? How have you experienced this fight?

When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. James 1:13

Isn't this saying the same thing that we just read in Steps to Christ?

Have you found this to be true in your life?

If you are in high-school and hanging out with friends and they are all smoking and pressuring you to smoke too, where is your battle? Is it with your friends, or is with your own feelings of fear and insecurity, fear of rejection, fear of being laughed at?

What if someone insults you, calls you names – who will your battle be against? Won't it be against your own feelings of anger?

What if you are out a your date tries to take the relationship too far, and you fear rejection, and want him to like you, who is your battle against?

What if your child says this, “I thought you loved me, but every time I want to do something fun you say no. you don’t love me!” Where is your battle? Is it with your child? Or is it with your own feelings that such comments arouse?

Read last two paragraphs, “From merely....” Thoughts?

Last week we talked about BDNF and how the neural circuits we exercise grow stronger and the one’s we leave dormant grow weaker.

We have neural circuits that correspond to love, compassion, empathy, sympathy, the ability to care for another. This is primarily in the Anterior Cingulate Cortex. We also have a more primitive emotional center in which we experience fear, anger, irritability, anxiety, and other selfish impulses.

Are there specific behaviors we can engage in which will help our love circuits and calm our fear circuits and conversely are there specific behaviors which will stimulate our fear circuits and damage our love circuits?

- Love awakens love – when we experience someone genuinely loving us we have our love circuits awakened. And when we genuinely love another person, giving self to help another we have our love circuits exercised and they grow stronger.
 - But if we come from experiences in which we were betrayed, in which we trusted and were taken advantages of, then when someone loves us it could incite feelings of fear, fear of getting too close and becoming vulnerable to hurt again.
- Theatrical television watching activates the emotional centers while turning off the reasoning centers – this causes vicarious emotional stress. During high stress movies or TV the brain will stimulate the release of stress hormones like it would if you were going through the event.

- Altruism results in the activation of the love pathways and the calming of the fear circuits, has a positive effect on the immune system and results in better health
- Worshipping a God of love activates the love centers, brain scans document growth in the ACC of the brain when meditating on a God of love, conversely any other god-concept, angry, wrathful etc grows the fear circuits and not the love circuits.

MONDAY

The lesson asks, “how do we maintain and build up the faith we have been given as a gift?” Thoughts?

What is faith? Greek pistis is translated as “faith” “trust” “belief”. What causes you to have more trust? Where does trust originate? What causes you to “believe” something or in something?

- Romans 10:17. "So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ." (NRSV)
- 1 Thessalonians 5:21. "Test everything. Hold on to the good." (NIV)
- Proverbs 14:15 "A simple man believes every word he hears; a clever man understands the need for proof." (NEB)

What do these texts mean? Upon what should we base our faith or beliefs? Should it be evidence?

"God never asks us to believe, without giving sufficient evidence upon which to base our faith. His existence, His character, the truthfulness of His Word, are all established by testimony that appeals to our reason; and this testimony is abundant. Yet God has never removed the possibility of doubt. Our faith must rest upon evidence, not demonstration. Those who wish to doubt will have opportunity; while those who really desire to know the truth, will find plenty of evidence on which to rest their faith." Steps to Christ 105 (1892); 9MR 202; compare Education 169

Does it matter in what we place our faith? Where does sincerity come in? What if a person sincerely believes the wrong thing?

Faith in a lie will not have a sanctifying influence upon the life or character. No error is truth, or can be made truth by repetition, or by faith in it. Sincerity will never save a soul from the consequences of believing an error. Without sincerity there is no true religion, but sincerity in a false religion will never save a man. I may be perfectly sincere in following a wrong road, but that will not make it the right road, or bring me to the place I wished to reach. The Lord does not want us to have a blind credulity, and call that the faith that sanctifies. The truth is the principle that sanctifies, and therefore it becomes us to know what is truth. We must compare spiritual things with spiritual. We must prove all things, but hold fast only that which is good, that which bears the divine credentials, which lays before us the true motives and principles which should prompt us to action." Letter 12, 1890; Selected Messages, vol. 2, p. 56

How do we get more faith?

First step in faith or trust is to be presented with enough evidence of trustworthiness that we are willing to extend trust or faith on some degree.

You meet someone and they ask you out, but they are a complete stranger so you instead of going out spend some time talking with them. The conversation allows for some exploration of them, their attitudes, behaviors, ideas. With this information you decide to trust enough to meet them at a public place. How they behave will cause greater or lesser trust over time and as trust builds you extend more trust.

How does this work with God? Does God expect us to blindly trust Him? Has He provided us evidence of His trustworthiness, goodness and love?

Once we have come to understand enough evidence that God is trustworthy then we must choose to begin exercising trust in God. Putting the outcome of our lives and situations into His hands. This is where trials come in and why God allows them, when we trust Him and we face a trial and He delivers us then our confidence or trust in Him grows stronger.

Read second to last paragraph, "So it is..." thoughts? What do you think of the idea of "taking chances"? Is faith taking chances?

Might it feel like taking a chance? Is it taking a chance? What is the difference between presumption and faith?

Is presumption believing without seeing or is that faith?

- There are many who fail to distinguish between the rashness of presumption and the intelligent confidence of faith. . . . God has given man precious promises upon conditions of faith and obedience; but they are not to sustain him in any rash act. If men needlessly place themselves in peril, and go where God does not require them to go, and self-confidently expose themselves to danger, disregarding the dictates of reason, God will not work a miracle to relieve them. He will not send His angels to preserve any from being burned if they choose to place themselves in the fire." Review and Herald, April 1, 1875 (1RH 161:2:5, 3:3); 2Red 87
- Here is a test which all may apply if they will. None need be left in uncertainty and doubt. There is always sufficient evidence upon which to base an intelligent faith. But God will never remove from any man all occasion for doubts. Those who love to dwell in the atmosphere of doubt and questioning unbelief can have the unenviable privilege. He who turns from the weight of evidence because there are a few things that he cannot make plain to his finite understanding, will be left to the cold, chilling atmosphere of unbelief and skepticism, and will make shipwreck of faith." Signs of the Times, December 30, 1886 (2ST 83:2:2); 4T 232

TUESDAY

Title is Believing Without Seeing – is this what you think of when you think of faith?

What about experience, how does experience come in?

"Experience is said to be the best teacher. Genuine experience is indeed superior to mere theoretical knowledge, but many have an erroneous idea as to what constitutes experience. Real experience is gained by a variety of careful experiments, made with the mind free from prejudice, uncontrolled by previously established opinions and habits. The results are marked with careful solicitude. . .

"That which many term experience is not experience at all. . . . There has not been a fair trial by actual experiment and thorough investigation, with a knowledge of the principles involved in the action. . . .

"Here is where we have met the greatest difficulties in religious matters. The plainest facts may be presented, the clearest truths, sustained by the word of God, may be brought before the mind; but the ear and the heart are closed, and the all-convincing argument is, 'my experience.' Some will say, 'The Lord has blessed me in believing and doing as I have; therefore I cannot be in error.' 'My experience' is clung to, and the most elevating, sanctifying truths of the Bible are rejected. . . .

"Many examples might be given to show how people have been deceived by relying upon what they supposed to be their experience." Christian Temperance and Bible Hygiene 109-110 (1890 - Originally written in 1865 in a series "How to Live"); Testimonies, vol. 3, p. 71; RH July 27, 1886; The Health Reformer, June 1, 1872; Australasian Signs of the Times, Dec. 19, 1904; The Watchman, Sept. 1, 1908

What do you hear being described? Does it sound scientific? Careful experiments? Minds free from prejudice and bias? Wow, are we really supposed to approach religion like this?

Read last paragraph “After Jesus...” thoughts?

How do we “know” of God’s love? Would knowing God’s love be evidence? If we have knowledge of God’s love would our faith in Him be without seeing?

If we have experienced God’s goodness, interventions, presence would our experience be evidence? Would our faith in God, based on our experience, be without seeing?

If God has shown us His goodness and love would that revelation be evidence? Is our faith, based on this, without seeing?

What is it we don’t see when we have faith? We don’t see the future, we don’t see the immediate outcome, we don’t see the specific plan of God – but is our faith in the intervention, is our faith in the outcome or is our faith in God? Is our faith in God without seeing?

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY

Benefits of Exercise – what are benefits of exercise?

- Better cardiovascular health
- Better brain health
- Better sleep
- Better stress management
- Increased interleukin 10, which is anti-inflammatory and reduces pain
- Better aging, reduced dementia, reduced physical infirmities
- Better sex
- Better mood, endorphins, enkephalins
- Reduced risks of cancers

What interferes with regular exercise in your life?

What suggestions do you have for others to enhance exercise?

FRIDAY

Read top paragraph discuss

Read questions 2 and 4 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 4 2Q 2010

The Water of Life

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts?

Is the water of life literal or metaphorical? From where does the water of life originate? Is it physical? What is the water of life?

From Friday's Lesson:

- The priest had that morning performed the ceremony which commemorated the smiting of the rock in the wilderness. That rock was a symbol of Him who by His death would cause living streams of salvation to flow to all who are athirst. Christ's words were the water of life. There in the presence of the assembled multitude He set Himself apart to be smitten, that the water of life might flow to the world. In smiting Christ, Satan thought to destroy the Prince of life; but from the smitten rock there flowed living water. As Jesus thus spoke to the people, their hearts thrilled with a strange awe, and many were ready to exclaim, with the woman of Samaria, "Give me this water, that I thirst not." John 4:15. {DA 454.1}

What is the water of life? How do we partake?

- He who seeks to quench his thirst at the fountains of this world will drink only to thirst again. Everywhere men are unsatisfied. They long for something to supply the need of the soul. Only One can meet that want. The need of the world, "The Desire of all nations," is Christ. The divine grace which He alone can impart, is as living water, purifying, refreshing, and invigorating the soul. {DA 187.2}

Jesus did not convey the idea that merely one draft of the water of life would suffice the receiver. He who tastes of the love of Christ will continually long for more; but he seeks for nothing else. The riches, honors, and pleasures of the world do not attract him. The constant cry of his heart is, More of Thee. And He who reveals to the soul its necessity is waiting to satisfy its hunger and thirst. Every human resource and dependence will fail. The cisterns will be emptied, the pools become dry; but our Redeemer is an inexhaustible fountain. We may drink, and drink again, and ever find a fresh supply. He in whom Christ dwells has within himself the fountain of blessing,--"a well of water springing up into everlasting life." From this source he may draw strength and grace sufficient for all his needs. {DA 187.3}

What is the water of life?

- As the plan of redemption begins and ends with a gift, so it is to be carried forward. The same spirit of sacrifice which purchased salvation for us will dwell in the hearts of all who become partakers of the heavenly gift. Says the apostle Peter: "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." Said Jesus to His disciples as He sent them forth: "Freely ye have received, freely give." In him who is fully in sympathy with Christ there can be nothing selfish or exclusive. He who drinks of the living water will find that it is "in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." The Spirit of Christ within him is like a spring welling up in the desert, flowing to refresh all, and making those who are ready to perish eager to drink of the water of life. It was the same spirit of love and self-sacrifice which dwelt in Christ that impelled the apostle Paul to his manifold labors. "I am debtor," he says, "both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise" (Rom. 1:14). "Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ" (Eph. 3:8) (Testimonies, vol. 5, pp. 730, 731).

Would the water of life be the life of Christ? Is that the same as the love of Christ, the character of God, being partakers of the divine nature, having the law written on the heart?

What does it look like when someone drinks of the water of life?

- When the love of Christ is enshrined in the heart, like sweet fragrance it cannot be hidden. Its holy influence will be felt by all with whom we come in contact. The spirit of Christ in the heart is like a spring in the desert, flowing to refresh all and making those who are ready to perish, eager to drink of the water of life. {SC 77.3}

Love to Jesus will be manifested in a desire to work as He worked for the blessing and uplifting of humanity. It will lead to love, tenderness, and sympathy toward all the creatures of our heavenly Father's care. {SC 77.4}

- This world was established and is sustained by the compassionate love of the Creator. God is the giver of all we have. He calls upon us to return to Him a portion of the abundance He has bestowed on us. {9T 50.1}

Can one experience the water of life without giving it away, without giving to others?

Is the water of life different from the Tree of Life? Was the Tree of Life literal or metaphorical?

- And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground—trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Genesis 2:9

Was the tree of knowledge a real tree? Did it possess something physical which caused harm?

- There was nothing poisonous in the fruit of the tree of knowledge itself, nothing that would cause death in partaking of it. The tree had been placed in the garden to test their loyalty to God.--ST Feb. 13, 1896.

What did they obtain from that tree? Knowledge, exactly as God said, the knowledge of sin, breaking of the law of love, with all its pain and suffering.

Was the death causing effects derived from the Tree of Knowledge itself? What about the tree of life? Is it literal? Was the life sustaining properties derived from the Tree of Life? What does it provide?

- And the LORD God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever.” Genesis 3:22

This sounds like it provides physical life –

- “Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city. Rev 22:14

What does it mean to wash their robes? Literal robes? Or are robes symbolic of character? What about the tree? Literal or metaphorical or both?

- Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding, ¹⁴ for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold. ¹⁵ She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her. ¹⁶ Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. ¹⁷ Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace. ¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who embrace her; those who lay hold of her will be blessed. Prov 3:13-18

What does this passage mean?

- What or who is wisdom?
- Is Christ wisdom? What kind of wisdom?
- If one has Christ what does one have?
- What wisdom is gained from Christ?
- Is it the wisdom of the kingdom of God?

- And what is God's kingdom? Is it not the kingdom of love?
- And what is the water of life, is it not Christ and His love?

Is the tree of life literal or metaphorical or both?

- The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise. Prov 11:30

What is righteousness? Is it not perfect harmony with the law of love?

- The tree of life is a representation of the preserving care of Christ for His children. As Adam and Eve ate of this tree, they acknowledged their dependence upon God. The tree of life possessed the power to perpetuate life, and as long as they ate of it, they could not die. The lives of the antediluvians were protracted because of the life-giving power of this tree, which was transmitted to them from Adam and Eve (RH Jan. 26, 1897). {7BC 988.9}

What does it mean a "representation"?

- Does it mean it stood or symbolized something else?
- But the tree of life possessed power to perpetuate life, what does this mean?
- Did Adam and Eve's life originate in the tree?
- Did God discover this tree, form Adam out of the dust and put some fruit of the tree in Adam's mouth and then Adam became a living being?
- Did the tree possess life sustain properties by some process of evolution?
- Or, did the Creator choose to use a tree to promote life, but the life still originated and flowed from God?

What does this mean? Are we in need of finding the literal tree of life, or are we in need of finding God, of being reunited with God?

- After the entrance of sin, the heavenly Husbandman transplanted the tree of life to the Paradise above; but its branches hang over the wall to the lower world. Through the redemption purchased by the blood of Christ, we may still eat of its life-giving fruit. {7BC 989.1}

Of Christ it is written, "In him was life; and the life was the light of men." He is the fountain of life. Obedience to Him is the life-giving power that gladdens the soul. {7BC 989.2}

Is the life giving fruit we eat of different than that of Adam and Eve? Was the life giving power really in some molecules of a plant? Or does life originate and flow from God?

- Christ is the source of our life, the source of immortality. He is the tree of life, and to all who come to Him He gives spiritual life (RH Jan. 26, 1897). {7BC 989.8}
- Christ . . . was the tree of life to all who would pluck and eat (MS 95, 1898). {7BC 989.6}

Thoughts? Is the water of life and the tree of life the same? How do we partake of them?

What do these insights tell us about the idea that the sin problem originated in the Tree of Knowledge and life is primarily obtained from the Tree of Life?

- The same power that upholds nature, is working also in man. The same great laws that guide alike the star and the atom control human life. The laws that govern the heart's action, regulating the flow of the current of life to the body, are the laws of the mighty Intelligence that has the jurisdiction of the soul. From Him all life proceeds. Only in harmony with Him can be found its true sphere of action. For all the objects of His creation the condition is the same--a life sustained by receiving the life of God, a life exercised in harmony with the Creator's will. To transgress His law, physical, mental, or moral, is to place one's self out of harmony with the universe, to introduce discord, anarchy, ruin. {Ed 99.2}

Thoughts?

SUNDAY

Again explores the metaphor of water – when we think about water what properties does water have and what does water do or what is water used for?

- Water cleanses, internal and external
 - Christ cleanses from sin, both internal (mind/character) and external all physical deformities at the second coming
 - According to the Center for Disease Control, what is the single most important means of preventing the spread of infection? Handwashing!
 - There are 52 million cases of the common cold each year in the United States,
 - More than 250 types of food borne illnesses.
 - Ten to 20 percent of Americans are infected with the flu virus each year.
 - The CDC released a report showing that proper handwashing nearly cut in half the incidence of pneumonia-related infections in children under five worldwide. Pneumonia is the leading cause of death in children under five globally.
 - Proper handwashing has also been shown in other studies to be responsible for a 47% reduction in impetigo, a highly contagious bacterial skin infection.
 - A recent FDA study reveals that proper handwashing can stop up to one half of all food borne illnesses, such as E.coli and salmonella.
 - Kids who wash their hands at least four times a day experience 24% fewer sick days from colds, flu and the like, and 51% fewer sick days due to stomach ailments

- American Society of Microbiology studies showed:
 - 97% of females and 92% of males say they wash their hands after using bathroom
 - of these only 75% females and 58% males washed
 - 50% of middle and high school students say they wash after using the bathroom
 - of these 33% of females and only 8% of males used soap while washing hands
- Minnesota Department of Health led three observational studies at public restrooms:
 - 2003 Back to 50's Car Show Event—64% females washed and 30% males
 - 2003 State Fair—65% females washed and 39% males
 - 2004 State Fair—75% females washed and 51% males

When washing hands with soap and water:

- Wet your hands with clean running water and apply soap. Use warm water if it is available.
- Rub hands together to make a lather and scrub all surfaces.
- Continue rubbing hands for 15-20 seconds. Need a timer? Imagine singing "Happy Birthday" twice through to a friend.
- Rinse hands well under running water.
- Dry your hands using a paper towel or air dryer. If possible, use your paper towel to turn off the faucet.
- Always use soap and water if your hands are visibly dirty.

If soap and clean water are not available, use an alcohol-based hand rub to clean your hands. Alcohol-based hand rubs significantly reduce the number of germs on skin and are fast-acting.

When using an alcohol-based hand sanitizer:

- Apply product to the palm of one hand.
- Rub hands together.
- Rub the product over all surfaces of hands and fingers until hands are dry.

- What spiritual lessons do we learn from hand washing and the reduction in illnesses? Do we get less spiritual sickness, problems if we partake of Christ multiple times a day and wash our hearts and minds in His love? Do we have less fear, insecurity and make better decisions?

Other lessons from water?

- Water is a requirement of life
 - Christ is a requirement of life
- We are composed of water and need water to live
 - We are composed of energy, which emanates from God, designed to be in constant flow, or giving. We need energy from God to live.
- Water is stable, not volatile, and is used to extinguish fire
 - We are branches plucked from the fire of sin and God's love extinguishes the damages and soothes our burns and heals our hearts
- Water can present in many forms, liquid, solid, gas
 - God's love presents in many ways, gentle, compassionate, discipline, firm, patient, and surrendering of ourselves to save others

Others?

First paragraph states, "His offer is still valid today, for He never changes." Is that true? If it is true that our God of love never changes, He is always love, why do some teach He becomes wrathful and vengeful and uses His power to inflict pain and suffering on His creatures?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph "Read Acts..." thoughts? Do churches to this today? If someone hears about Christ, is convicted, and wants to follow Him and says to a church pastor, "There is some water, what is stopping us from baptizing me?" what would happen? Would there likely be a baptism at that time? Why not?

Were the Apostles wrong in not requiring a six week baptismal course and pledge of loyalty to an established doctrinal statement? When we are baptized are we baptized into Christ or into a specific organization? What did Paul say about the idea of being baptized into different groups?

- I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought. ¹¹ My brothers, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. ¹² What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Cephas"; still another, "I follow Christ." ¹³ Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I am thankful that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵ so no one can say that you were baptized into my name. ¹⁶ (Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't remember if I baptized anyone else.) ¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel—not with words of human wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power. 1Corinthians 1:10-17

Thoughts? Is this different than saying, "were you baptized into the Methodist church, or Baptist church or SDA church?" Or are we baptized into Christ? Or are only those in the SDA church baptized into Christ? Does Christ have His true followers in other organizations? If someone is baptized by another church are they baptized into Christ?

How should we act as Christians toward those in other organizations? Do we consider them members of Christ's body? Should we as a church refuse to baptize someone into Christ who doesn't want to be a member of the SDA church? Should we require someone to adhere to all the 28 fundamentals before they are baptized into Christ?

Water of baptism – what is baptism? Does water baptism cleanse from sin? Is water baptism necessary to be saved? The lesson asks us to read Romans 6:1-6, this is from my paraphrase:

Romans 6:1 What, then, should we say about this amazing healing plan? Should we spread the infection of distrust and selfishness, cause more devastation and destruction so that the power of God's healing solution may be more fully displayed? ² Absolutely not! We have taken the antidote, and the infection of distrust and selfishness has been purged from our hearts; how then, can we choose to be reinfected with distrust of God and practice selfish methods again? ³ Or don't you realize that all of us who were immersed in the truth of Christ Jesus were immersed in selflessness and have died to self-centeredness? ⁴ We symbolically demonstrate we have joined him in dying to self by being buried in water, in order that just as Jesus arose from the dead displaying the life giving glory of the Father, we too live a new life displaying God's glorious character in our lives. ⁵ If we have joined him in dying to self, we will absolutely join him in his resurrection and new life! ⁶ For we know that when our old selfish heart and fear ridden mind trusts God and surrenders to be crucified with Christ, the infection of selfishness is purged, and our heart is no longer controlled by Satanic principles – ⁷ because anyone who dies to selfishness is free from Satan's methods, principles and control.

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Uses of water in the Bible – how was water used in Old Testament times?

The priests would wash their hands and feet before any ministry in the sanctuary and also before entering the Holy Place. What does this symbolize?

What is the Holy Place a symbol of? The church with the Lamp (Living and written Word of God), the Showbread (Christ the manna that came down from heaven), golden altar (heart of converted in which prayers mixed with incense offered to God).

Who are represented by the daily priests? The believers, and what does the water represent? The Holy Spirit which takes Christ's love and character and reproduces it in us enabling us to carry out any ministry for God.

WEDNESDAY

The lesson points out that staying hydrated while exercising allows one to maintain strength and not fatigue – how does this relate to our spiritual strength and living water?

THURSDAY

Any thoughts on water therapy?

FRIDAY

Read questions 2 and 3 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 5 2Q 2010

The Environment

What questions do you have regarding the environment?

To the best we are able to discern, what was the environment like when God created earth?

- The earth came forth from the hand of the Creator exceedingly beautiful. There were mountains and hills and plains; and interspersed among them were rivers and bodies of water. The earth was not one extensive plain, but the monotony of the scenery was broken by hills and mountains, not high and ragged as they now are, but regular and beautiful in shape. The bare, high rocks were never seen upon them, but lay beneath the surface, answering as bones to the earth. The waters were regularly dispersed. The hills, mountains, and very beautiful plains were adorned with plants and flowers, and tall, majestic trees of every description, which were many times larger and much more beautiful than trees now are. The air was pure and healthful, and the earth seemed like a noble palace. Angels beheld and rejoiced at the wonderful and beautiful works of God. {LHU 47.2}

Thoughts?

- As man came forth from the hand of his Creator, he was of lofty stature and perfect symmetry. His countenance bore the ruddy tint of health and glowed with the light of life and joy. Adam's height was much greater than that of men who now inhabit the earth. Eve was somewhat less in stature; yet her form was noble, and full of beauty. The sinless pair wore no artificial garments; they were clothed with a covering of light and glory, such as the angels wear. So long as they lived in obedience to God, this robe of light continued to enshroud them. {PP 45.3}

- While they remained true to God, Adam and his companion were to bear rule over the earth. Unlimited control was given them over every living thing. The lion and the lamb sported peacefully around them or lay down together at their feet. The happy birds flitted about them without fear; and as their glad songs ascended to the praise of their Creator, Adam and Eve united with them in thanksgiving to the Father and the Son. {PP 50.2}
- In the days of Noah a double curse was resting upon the earth in consequence of Adam's transgression and of the murder committed by Cain. Yet this had not greatly changed the face of nature. There were evident tokens of decay, but the earth was still rich and beautiful in the gifts of God's providence. The hills were crowned with majestic trees supporting the fruit-laden branches of the vine. The vast, gardenlike plains were clothed with verdure, and sweet with the fragrance of a thousand flowers. The fruits of the earth were in great variety, and almost without limit. The trees far surpassed in size, beauty, and perfect proportion any now to be found; their wood was of fine grain and hard substance, closely resembling stone, and hardly less enduring. Gold, silver, and precious stones existed in abundance. {PP 90.1}

Can you use your imagination to see the world before sin?

- Was it a dark place or brilliant with light?
- No jagged peaks, no death, decay, thorns, thistles,
- Unlimited control – how would they have exercised that control?
- Gold, silver and precious stones in abundance – how do you envision this?
 - Do you see rivers with ruby and diamond riverbeds, waterfalls with emerald, gold and silver linings, spring with pools of different precious stones and medals all shimmering and radiating brilliantly?
- What about their robes of light? Do you think the light emanated from them in a variety of colors, hues, intensities corresponding with their mood, like our facial expressions change?

What happened after they sinned?

- After his transgression Adam at first imagined himself entering upon a higher state of existence. But soon the thought of his sin filled him with terror. The air, which had hitherto been of a mild and uniform temperature, seemed to chill the guilty pair. The love and peace which had been theirs was gone, and in its place they felt a sense of sin, a dread of the future, a nakedness of soul. The robe of light which had enshrouded them, now disappeared, and to supply its place they endeavored to fashion for themselves a covering; for they could not, while unclothed, meet the eye of God and holy angels. {PP 57.1}
- In humility and unutterable sadness they bade farewell to their beautiful home and went forth to dwell upon the earth, where rested the curse of sin. The atmosphere, once so mild and uniform in temperature, was now subject to marked changes, and the Lord mercifully provided them with a garment of skins as a protection from the extremes of heat and cold. {PP 61.5}

Why did their garments of light disappear and the temperature change? Where did the robe of light originate? Any thoughts on what it might be? What happened to the robe of light?

- When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD. ³⁰ When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹ But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them. ³² Afterward all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴ But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, ³⁵ they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD. Exodus 34:29-35

Why was Moses face radiating? When they were stoning Steven what was his face doing? Where did such light originate? Why was Steven's face radiating? When might we wear a robe of light?

- In the time of trouble we all fled from the cities and villages, but were pursued by the wicked, who entered the houses of the saints with a sword. They raised the sword to kill us, but it broke, and fell as powerless as a straw. Then we all cried day and night for deliverance, and the cry came up before God. The sun came up, and the moon stood still. The streams ceased to flow. Dark, heavy clouds came up and clashed against each other. But there was one clear place of settled glory, whence came the voice of God like many waters, which shook the heavens and the earth. The sky opened and shut and was in commotion. The mountains shook like a reed in the wind, and cast out ragged rocks all around. The sea boiled like a pot and cast out stones upon the land. And as God spoke the day and the hour of Jesus' coming and delivered the everlasting covenant to His people, He spoke one sentence, and then paused, while the words were rolling through the earth. The Israel of God stood with their eyes fixed upward, listening to the words as they came from the mouth of Jehovah, and rolled through the earth like peals of loudest thunder. It was awfully solemn. And at the end of every sentence the saints shouted, "Glory! Alleluia!" Their countenances were lighted up with the glory of God; and they shone with the glory, as did the face of Moses when he came down from Sinai. The wicked could not look on them for the glory. And when the never-ending blessing was pronounced on those who had honored God in keeping His Sabbath holy, there was a mighty shout of victory over the beast and over his image. {EW 34.1}

Why will our faces shine with light? The everlasting covenant is delivered, which is? The law of love written fully and perfectly in the heart and all know God intimately themselves! Reconciliation with God!

What happened to Adam and Eve's dominion and rule over nature?

- Under the curse of sin all nature was to witness to man of the character and results of rebellion against God. When God made man He made him rule over the earth and all living creatures. So long as Adam remained loyal to Heaven, all nature was in subjection to him. But when he rebelled against the divine law, the inferior creatures were in rebellion against his rule. Thus the Lord, in His great mercy, would show men the sacredness of His law, and lead them, by their own experience, to see the danger of setting it aside, even in the slightest degree. {PP 59.4}

What lesson was earth created to teach? Adam and Eve represented the Godhead, the animals created beings throughout the universe. When Adam rebelled the lower life forms rebelled to reveal the chaos, damage, destruction, death which transpires when beings are out of harmony with the law of love, which is the character of God.

What happened to plant life?

- Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Matt. 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. {2SM 288.2}

Does this mean Satan has capacity to cause genetic mutations in nature? Can he directly affect nature? In the book of Job he brought a storm, so evidently he can.

What does it mean amalgamation? Consider this commentary regarding life on earth before the flood:

- Instead of doing justice to their neighbors, they carried out their own unlawful wishes. They had a plurality of wives, which was contrary to God's wise arrangement. In the beginning, God gave to Adam one wife--showing to all who should live upon the earth, his order and law in that respect. The transgression and fall of Adam and Eve brought sin and wretchedness upon the human race, and man followed his own carnal desires, and changed God's order. The more men multiplied wives to themselves, the more they increased in wickedness and unhappiness. If any one chose to take the wives, or cattle, or anything belonging to his neighbor, he did not regard justice or right, but if he could prevail over his neighbor by reason of strength, or by putting him to death, he did so, and exulted in his deeds of violence. They loved to destroy the lives of animals. They used them for food, and this increased their ferocity and violence, and caused them to look upon the blood of human beings with astonishing indifference. {1SP 68.1}

But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere. God purposed to destroy by a flood that powerful, long-lived race that had corrupted their ways before him. He would not suffer them to live out the days of their natural life, which would be hundreds of years. It was only a few generations back when Adam had access to that tree which was to prolong life. After his disobedience he was not suffered to eat of the tree of life and perpetuate a life of sin. In order for man to possess an endless life he must continue to eat of the fruit of the tree of life. Deprived of that tree, his life would gradually wear out. {1SP 69.1}

Thoughts?

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. Mt 24:37

Do we have problems like this today? Do we have problems with marrying many wives or husband, maybe not at once, but serially? I had a patient this week whose mother was married to 10 different men while his was being raised.

Do we have problems with violence in society? Cruelty to animals? Do we produce animals to slaughter and eat?

What was God's attitude toward the slaughter of animals?

- But the LORD said, "You have been concerned about this vine, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight. ¹¹ But Nineveh has more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well. Should I not be concerned about that great city?"
Jonah 4:10,11
- Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom; listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah! ¹¹ "The multitude of your sacrifices— what are they to me?" says the LORD. "I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals; I have no pleasure in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats. Isa 1:10,11

Did God ever enjoy the slaughter of animals? No! He is the giver of life, He hates the taking of life!

Do we have problems like the days of Noah today?

What does the meat industry do to the environment?

- According to a 2006 report by the Livestock, Environment And Development Initiative, the livestock industry is one of the largest contributors to environmental degradation worldwide, and modern practices of raising animals for food contributes on a "massive scale" to air and water pollution, land degradation, climate change, and loss of biodiversity. The initiative concluded that "the livestock sector emerges as one of the top two or three most significant contributors to the most serious environmental problems, at every scale from local to global."
- In 2009 two World Bank scientists estimated that meat industry contributes 51% of all emissions of greenhouse gasses.
- A 2006 study at the University of Chicago concluded that a person switching from a typical American diet to a vegan diet with the same number of calories would prevent the emission of 1485 kg of carbon dioxide per year. The difference exceeds that of an individual switching from a Toyota Camry to the hybrid Toyota Prius, and collectively amounts to over 6% of the total U.S. greenhouse gas emissions.

From Goveg.com

- Animals raised for food produce 130 times as much excrement as the entire U.S. population, roughly 89,000 pounds per second, all without the benefit of waste treatment systems.
- According to the Union of Concerned Scientists, animals on factory farms in America produce 20 tons of fecal matter each year for every U.S. household.

- A pig farm with 5,000 animals produces as much fecal waste as a city of 50,000 people.
- According to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the run-off from factory farms pollutes our waterways more than all other industrial sources combined.
- Factory farms also produce massive amounts of dust and other contamination that pollutes our air. A study in Texas found that animal feedlots in the state produce more than 14 million pounds of particulate dust every year and that the dust “contains biologically active organisms such as bacteria, mold, and fungi from the feces and the feed.”
- The massive amounts of excrement produced by these farms emit toxic gases such as hydrogen sulfide and ammonia into the air. The EPA reports that roughly 80 percent of ammonia emissions in the United States come from animal waste.
- When the cesspools holding tons of animal urine and feces get full, factory farms will frequently get around water pollution limits by spraying liquid manure into the air, creating mists that are carried away by the wind. People who live nearby are forced to inhale the toxins and pathogens from the sprayed manure.
- The EPA reports that chicken, hog, and cattle excrement have polluted 35,000 miles of rivers in 22 states and contaminated groundwater in 17 states.

What about use of fresh water? Do we waste fresh water in growing animals to slaughter and eat?

1 cubic meter of water equals 1000 liters or 264 gallons.

Estimated virtual water requirements for various crops (m ³ water/ton crop) ^[6]
	Hoekstra & Hung (2003)	Chapagain & Hoekstra (2003)	Zimmer & Renault (2003)	Ok et al. (2003)	Average
Beef		15977	13500	20700	16726
Pork		5906	4600	5900	5469
Cheese		5288			5288

Poultry		2828	4100	4500	3809
Eggs		4657	2700	3200	3519
Rice	2656		1400	3600	2552
Soybeans	2300		2750	2500	2517
Wheat	1150		1160	2000	1437
Maize	450		710	1900	1020
Milk		865	790	560	738
Potatoes	160		105		133

For beef almost 4.5 million gallons of water for 1 ton of meat, a cow weighs between 1,000 and 2,000 pounds so this is for 1 – 2 cows

Are we today acting toward animals like they did before the flood? And consider God's law of love, God's law of love is the design template for life, giving rather than taking. What is happening as we take, exploit animals for slaughter and food? We are destroying the environment as well as our health. In other words, violating the law of love results in death, the wages of sin is death!

What about amalgamations?

- Research at the University of Nevada is ongoing into growing sheep with human organs. They inject sheep embryos with human stem cells in order to grow and harvest human organs for transplantation.
- Chinese scientists at the Shanghai Second Medical University in 2003 successfully fused human cells with rabbit eggs. The embryos were reportedly the first human-animal chimeras successfully created.
- In Minnesota in 2004 researchers at the Mayo Clinic created pigs with human blood flowing through their bodies.
- At Stanford they have created mice with brains that contain 1% human neurons and want to create mice with brains made of 100% human neurons. This is done by injecting embryonic mice brains with human neurons.

Thoughts? Are we like the days of Noah? What impact would it have upon the world if people gave up eating meat? Are there reasons that go beyond health for the individual? What about character of love for others, including animals?

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, “God Himself...” thoughts? What do you think about the idea of God “keeping” the Sabbath? How do you hear that? What does it mean? Is keeping it different than instituting it, or creating it? Is the Sabbath compulsory upon God? Is it a law that is obligatory to Him and His creation?

Do they mean “keeping the Sabbath holy”? What makes the Sabbath holy? Do we keep Sabbath holy by avoiding work?

- So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews persecuted him. ¹⁷ Jesus said to them, “My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working.” ¹⁸ For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him; not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. John 5:16-18

Do we keep Sabbath holy by avoiding work? Does it matter what kind of work one is doing? How do we keep Sabbath holy?

What is it that makes Sabbath holy? It is invested with the attributes of God, truth presented in love and leaving others free. We keep Sabbath holy by having the law written on the heart. There is nothing exclusively behavioral we can do to keep Sabbath holy – the Jews did all the behaviors.

The Sabbath is evidence of God’s character, a revelation of His methods and principles! The Sabbath every week screams, “Satan lied”! Every seven days the existence of the 7th day Sabbath proclaims God is not like Satan alleged, God is love, God presents truth in love and leaves us free!

We keep the Sabbath holy by moving away from selfish existence and living lives of God and others first, living the truth in love and leaving others free. Every Sabbath, we voluntarily choose to set aside self-absorbed activities, self-serving activities, and instead focus on God, friends, family and ministry. We give our minds time to rest from the cares of the world and celebrate our relationship with God!

Read fourth paragraph, “As the centuries...” thoughts? Do we do this today? How?

What is the true meaning?

TUESDAY

Read third paragraph, “Exploitation...” thoughts?

- “We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign. ¹⁸ The nations were angry; and your wrath has come. The time has come for judging the dead, and for rewarding your servants the prophets and your saints and those who reverence your name, both small and great— and for destroying those who destroy the earth.” Rev 11:17,18

Thoughts?

Does any of what we have studied today have any impact on how we live our lives? If we love God, love others, love life, do we kill? Do we exploit the environment, eat animals etc? Are there reasons beyond living a healthy life for vegetarian diet?

In fact, is love for life a higher motive than keeping self healthy?

Read bottom pink section, “Years ago...” thoughts?

Truth is we shouldn’t worry about what happens to the environment or the earth, for we cannot control what happens to that, our responsibility is for our conduct. We are responsible for how we live. We don't eat vegetarian because we believe by so doing we will save the earth, we know that if the entire world were vegetarian that the world is still getting worse. We do these things because they are the right action to take, because they are the only actions we can take and become more like God.

WEDNESDAY

Top section asks, "What, if anything, can we do to improve our environment?"

Should we be focused as individuals or church on saving our environment? Or is it a side track? A way of diverting attention away from saving people?

What is the world trying to do with carbon credits? Are they setting up a system of rules whereby they will "save" the planet? Is this another way to avoid God's salvation, we will save ourselves? Is it another deception of Satan to control buying and selling and economies and countries?

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, "One thing...." Are "modern sun worshippers" people who tan a lot?

FRIDAY read questions 1,2,4 and discuss

Come & Reason Sabbath School.
Lesson 6 Faith and Healing 2Q 2010

Sunday.

Is Fear healthy?? Where did Fear originate in humanity?? The lesson asks ‘what should we be afraid of’??

[ref. Luke 12:4-5 (New International Version) 4"I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more. 5But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear him who, after the killing of the body, has power to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

So, whom, according to the founder of our church [Jesus], should we fear?? OURSELVES, if we have not had the image of God restored in our hearts & minds.

Tuesday

What is Faith?

Hebrews 11:1 (New King James Version)

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Gr. Hypostasis – Hypo – under, below, underneath Stasis – Stable state [standing].

Substance -- Sub – under, below, underneath Stance -- standing.

Wednesday

STRESS. Eustress vs Distress.

Rahe carried out a study in 1970 testing the reliability of the stress scale as a predictor of illness. The scale was given to 2,500 US sailors and they were asked to rate scores of 'life events' over the previous six months. Over the next six months, detailed records were kept of the sailors' health. There was a +0.118 correlation between stress scale scores and illness, which was sufficient to support the hypothesis of a link between life events and illness. In conjunction with the Cornell medical index assessing , the stress scale correlated with visits to medical dispensaries, and the H&R stress scale's scores also correlated independently with individuals dropping out of stressful underwater demolitions training due to medical problems. The scale was also assessed against different populations within the United States (with African, Hispanic and White American groups). The scale was also tested cross-culturally, comparing Japanese and Malaysian groups with American populations.

Stress according to the Holmes and Rahe Stress Scale, the number of "Life Change Units" that apply to events in the past year of an individual's life are added and the final score will give a rough estimate of how stress affects health.

Death of a spouse	100
Divorce	73
Marital separation	65
Imprisonment	63
Death of a close family member	63
Personal injury or illness	53
Marriage	50
Dismissal from work	47
Marital reconciliation	45
Retirement	45
Change in health of family member	44
Pregnancy	40
Sexual difficulties	39
Gain a new family member	39
Business readjustment	39
Change in financial state	38

Change in frequency of arguments	35
Major mortgage	32
Foreclosure of mortgage or loan	30
Change in responsibilities at work	29
Child leaving home	29
Trouble with in-laws	29
Outstanding personal achievement	28
Spouse starts or stops work	26
Begin or end school	26
Change in living conditions	25
Revision of personal habits	24
Trouble with boss	23
Change in working hours or conditions	20
Change in residence	20
Change in schools	20
Change in recreation	19
Change in church activities	19
Change in social activities	18
Minor mortgage or loan	17
Change in sleeping habits	16
Change in number of family reunions	15
Change in eating habits	15
Vacation	13
Christmas	12
Minor violation of law	11

Score of 300+: At risk of illness.

Score of 150-299+: Risk of illness is moderate (reduced by 30% from the above risk).

Score 150-: Only have a slight risk of illness.

 According to an 1991 article in the New England Journal of Medicine, the rates of both respiratory infection & clinical colds increased in a dose-response manner with increases in the degree of psychological stress. Infection rates ranged from approx. 74% to approx. 90%, according to levels of psychological stress, and the incidence of clinical colds ranged from approx. 27% to 47%.

Thursday

What is Healing? What sort of healing does God want for humanity??

Proverbs 12:17-19 (New International Version)

17 A truthful witness gives honest testimony, but a false witness tells lies.

18 Reckless words pierce like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

19 Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue lasts only a moment.

Proverbs 15:4 (New International Version)

4 The tongue that brings healing is a tree of life, but a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.

Isaiah 58:7-9 (New International Version)

- 7 Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?
8 Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness [a] will go before you, and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.
9 Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
you will cry for help, and he will say: Here am I.
"If you do away with the yoke of oppression, with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

Malachi 4:1-3 (New International Version)

- 1 "Surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and that day that is coming will set them on fire," says the LORD Almighty. "Not a root or a branch will be left to them.
2 But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go out and leap like calves released from the stall.
3 Then you will trample down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I do these things," says the LORD Almighty.

1 Corinthians 12:8-10 (New International Version)

- 8 To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit,
9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit,
10 to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues.

Revelation 22:1-3 (New International Version)

- 1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb
2 down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
3 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.

Faith and works are the two oars with which we are to make our way in the Christian life. The Lord calls upon all who think they know what faith is, to be sure that they are not pulling with only one oar, and their little bark going round and round, making no progress at all. Faith without intelligent works is dead. Faith in the healing power of God will not save unless it is combined with good works. AUCR, October 15, 1905 par. 787 (Australasian Union Conference Record)

Taking proper measures is not a denial of faith in prayer for healing.—Many who seek the Lord's healing mercy think that they must have a direct and immediate answer to their prayers or their faith is defective. For this reason, those who are weakened by disease need to be counseled wisely, that they may act with discretion. They should not disregard their duty to the friends who may survive them, or neglect to employ nature's agencies for the restoration of health. (The Ministry of Healing, 231.)

Employ Every Facility.—It is not a denial of faith to use such remedies as God has provided to alleviate pain and to aid nature in her work of restoration. It is no denial of faith [for the sick who request prayer for healing] to cooperate with God, and place themselves in the condition most favorable to recovery. God has put it in our power to obtain a knowledge of the laws of life. This knowledge has been placed within our reach for use. We should employ every facility for the restoration of health, taking every advantage possible, working in harmony with natural laws.—The Ministry of Healing, 231, 232 (1905).

When we have prayed for the recovery of the sick, whatever the outcome of the case, let us not lose faith in God. If we are called upon to meet bereavement, let us accept the bitter cup, remembering that a Father's hand holds it to our lips. But should health be restored, it should not be forgotten that the recipient of healing mercy is placed under renewed obligation to the Creator. When the ten lepers were cleansed, only one returned to find Jesus and give Him glory. Let none of us be like the unthinking nine, whose hearts were untouched by the mercy of God. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." James 1:17. CCh 306. (Counsels for the Church).

This is the life we are to present to the sick, telling them that if they have faith in Christ as the restorer, if they cooperate with Him, obeying the laws of health, and striving to perfect holiness in His fear, He will impart to them His life. When we present Christ to them in this way, we are imparting a power, a strength, that is of value; for it comes from above. This is the true science of healing for body and soul.—The Ministry of Healing, 243, 244 (1905).

So with all the promises of God's word. In them He is speaking to us individually, speaking as directly as if we could listen to His voice. It is in these promises that Christ communicates to us His grace and power. They are leaves from that tree which is "for the healing of the nations." Revelation 22:2. Received, assimilated, they are to be the strength of the character, the inspiration and sustenance of the life. Nothing else can have such healing power. Nothing besides can impart the courage and faith which give vital energy to the whole being. MH 122.3 (The Ministry of Healing).

The power of love was in all Christ's healing, and only by partaking of that love, through faith, can we be instruments for His work. If we neglect to link ourselves in divine connection with Christ, the current of life-giving energy cannot flow in rich streams from us to the people. There were places where the Saviour Himself could not do many mighty works because of their unbelief. So now unbelief separates the church from her divine Helper. Her hold upon eternal realities is weak. By her lack of faith, God is disappointed and robbed of His glory. DA 825. (The Desire of Ages)

Here was ground with which Nicodemus was familiar. The symbol of the uplifted serpent made plain to him the Saviour's mission. When the people of Israel were dying from the sting of the fiery serpents, God directed Moses to make a serpent of brass, and place it on high in the midst of the congregation. Then the word was sounded throughout the encampment that all who would look upon the serpent should live. The people well knew that in itself the serpent had no power to help them. It was a symbol of Christ. As the image made in the likeness of the destroying serpents was lifted up for their healing, so One made "in the likeness of sinful flesh" was to be their Redeemer. Romans 8:3. Many of the Israelites regarded the sacrificial service as having in itself virtue to set them free from sin. God desired to teach them that it had no more value than that serpent of brass. It was to lead their minds to the Saviour. Whether for the healing of their wounds or the pardon of their sins, they could do nothing for themselves but show their faith in the Gift of God. They were to look and live. DA 174. (The Desire of Ages)

He was active to relieve every species of human misery that was brought to Him in faith for relief; but He did not bestow healing power indiscriminately where there was manifested an independence and selfish exclusiveness that would give no expression to their sorrows nor ask for the help so much needed. All who came unto Him in faith He was ready and willing to relieve. Sorrow fled at His presence; injustice and oppression withered beneath His rebukes; and death, the cruel spoiler of our sinful race, obeyed His commands. TDG 249.3 (This Day With God)

God is just as willing to restore the sick to health now as when the Holy Spirit spoke these words through the psalmist. And Christ is the same compassionate physician now that He was during His earthly ministry. In Him there is healing balm for every disease, restoring power for every infirmity. His disciples in this time are to pray for the sick as verily as the disciples of old prayed. And recoveries will follow; for "the prayer of faith shall save the sick." We have the Holy Spirit's power, the calm assurance of faith, that can claim God's promises. The Lord's promise, "They shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" (Mark 16:18), is just as trustworthy now as in the days of the apostles. It presents the privilege of God's children, and our faith should lay hold of all that it embraces. Christ's servants are the channel of His working, and through them He desires to exercise His healing power. It is our work to present the sick and suffering to God in the arms of our faith. We should teach them to believe in the Great Healer. MH 226.1 (The Ministry of Healing).

227.2 In the word of God we have instruction relative to special prayer for the recovery of the sick. But the offering of such prayer is a most solemn act, and should not be entered upon without careful consideration. In many cases of prayer for the healing of the sick, that which is called faith is nothing less than presumption. 227.3 Many persons bring disease upon themselves by their self-indulgence. They have not lived in accordance with natural law or the principles of strict purity. Others have disregarded the laws of health in their habits of eating and drinking, dressing, or working. Often some form of vice is the cause of feebleness of mind or body. Should these persons gain the blessing of health, many of them would continue to pursue the same course of heedless transgression of God's natural and spiritual laws, reasoning that if God heals them in answer to prayer, they are at liberty to continue their unhealthful practices and to indulge perverted appetite without restraint. If God were to work a miracle in restoring these persons to health, He would be encouraging sin. MH 227.2,3 (The Ministry of Healing).

There is something better for us to engage in than the control of humanity by humanity. The physician should educate the people to look from the human to the divine. Instead of teaching the sick to depend upon human beings for the cure of soul and body, he should direct them to the One who can save to the uttermost all who come unto Him. He who made man's mind knows what the mind needs. God alone is the One who can heal. Those whose minds and bodies are diseased are to behold in Christ the restorer. "Because I live, He says, "ye shall live also." John 14:19. This is the life we are to present to the sick, telling them that if they have faith in Christ as the restorer, if they co-operate with Him, obeying the laws of health, and striving to perfect holiness in His fear, He will impart to them His life. When we present Christ to them in this way, we are imparting a power, a strength, that is of value; for it comes from above. This is the true science of healing for body and soul. MH 243.3 (The Ministry of Healing).

Health and Healing Lesson 7 2Q 2010

Rest and Restoration

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts?

The lesson tells of a medical student who was burning out, staying up late, getting up early and falling behind. A professor told him to get 7 hours sleep each night and 30 minutes exercise each day. He did it, even though he didn't believe he had time and his grades improved. Why?

Are we like that medical student? Do we need to take time away to rest? What kind of rest?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Read Genesis 1...." Thoughts?

The lesson suggests that when God created Earth with evening and morning He was setting up a biorhythm which would include sleep. Was sleep required in the Garden of Eden? Will sleep be necessary in the new heaven and earth?

The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it. On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there... There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever. Rev 21:23-25, 22:5

Will we sleep in the new earth? Here's the perspective of one of the founders of our church:

Eld. White and Dr. Kellogg have not given themselves proper rest. God instituted the Sabbath as a day of rest to repair nature's exhausted energies. No mind can continue day after day without cessation, either in business which taxes the mental powers, or in the acquirement of knowledge, without injury. There is no night in Heaven. There is no wear and weariness of the human machinery. There we shall never be sensible of fatigue; never need or want repose. There is no tire in performing God's will; we shall never be wearied in sounding his praise. We shall always have the freshness of the morning. But as we are now in this world, with bodies which weary, we must pay heed to God's plans, and take repose when we need it. {PH043 39.1}

Thoughts?

Is sleep necessary in our current world? Has anyone ever had difficulty sleeping? Is that a problem?

- 37% of US adults c/o of excessive sleepiness that interferes with functioning at least a few days per month
- 16% c/o of excessive sleepiness that interferes with functioning at least a few days per week or more
- Major incidents related to sleepiness
 - Chernobyl nuclear meltdown
 - Exxon Valdez oil spill
- Motor vehicle accidents
 - Falling asleep while driving is responsible for at least 100,000 crashes, 40,000 injuries, and 1550 deaths per year
 - Excessive sleepiness impairs driving as much as alcohol intoxication

Women have more sleep problems than men and this changes with life

- A recent survey found women in the United States are not sleeping well and that this affects all aspects of their lives.
 - 67% report sleep problems a few nights each week

- 46% report sleep problems every night

Contributing factors to women's sleep problems:

- Overwork with house, family and career
- Hormonal changes
 - 24% of women of childbearing years report problems sleeping all but a few nights per month
 - 40% of women during pregnancy reported trouble sleeping all but a few nights per month
 - 55% post partum women reported problems sleeping all but a few nights per month
 - 25% of perimenopausal women and 30% of postmenopausal women reported problems sleeping all but a few nights per month
- 72% of working mothers had sleep impairments
- Causes of frequent awakenings included
 - Noise (39%), children (20%), pets (17%)
- If women allow children (9%) or pets (14%) to share the bed they suffer more sleep disturbance.
- Consequences to women of poor sleep
 - 80% increased stress
 - 55% unhappy, sad and depressed
 - 39% spend less time with family/friends
 - 33% too tired for sex
 - 27% drive drowsy
 - 20% late for work
- Even though many women were found to be consistently and dangerously sleepy, they are not trying to get more sleep.

- 60% do chores late
- 20% do work related to their job
- 87% watch TV
- 51% read
- 37% engage activities with their children
- Sleep deprived women don't do much with their spouses

Thoughts?

Normal sleep has stages – I, II, slow wave (III, IV) and REM. REM is when we dream.

- Decreased REM results in decreased ability to read emotions in other people's faces
- REM also is the phase in which we consolidate memory and resolve emotional stress. During REM the emotional connections to the memory are stripped away so that we can remember the event without reliving the emotion.
 - Certain meds, like benzodiazapines interfere with normal sleep architecture and can impair memory
- PTSD patients have frequent nightmares and have impairments in the ability for the emotional content to be stripped from the memory so the brain brings it up again and again trying to strip the emotion away. This results in increased stress hormones and increased risk of depression.
- During REM serotonin and norepinephrine shut down, but PTSD patients have higher levels and therefore this interferes with the brains ability to separate the emotional content from the memories
 - A recent study by Walker and his colleagues examined how rest - specifically, rapid eye movement (REM) sleep - influences our ability to read emotions in other people's faces. In the small analysis of 36 adults, volunteers were asked to interpret the facial expressions of people in photographs, following either a 60- or 90-minute nap during the day or with no nap. Participants who had reached REM sleep (when dreaming most frequently occurs) during their nap were better able to identify expressions of positive emotions like happiness in other people, compared with participants who did not achieve REM sleep or did not nap at all. Those volunteers were more sensitive to negative expressions, including anger and fear.

Past research by Walker and colleagues at Harvard Medical School, which was published in the journal Current Biology, found that in people who were sleep deprived, activity in the prefrontal lobe - a region of the brain involved in controlling emotion - was significantly diminished. He suggests that a similar response may be occurring in the nap-deprived volunteers

REM sleep appears to not only improve our ability to identify positive emotions in others; it may also round out the sharp angles of our own emotional experiences. Walker suggests that one function of REM sleep - dreaming, in particular - is to allow the brain to sift through that day's events, process any negative emotion attached to them, then strip it away from the memories. He likens the process to applying a "nocturnal soothing balm." REM sleep, he says, "tries to ameliorate the sharp emotional chips and dents that life gives you along the way."

"It's not that you've forgotten. You haven't," he says. "It's a memory of an emotional episode, but it's no longer emotional itself." That palliative safety-valve quality of sleep may be hampered when we fail to reach REM sleep or when REM sleep is disrupted, Walker says. "If you don't let go of the emotion, what results is a constant state of anxiety," he says.

The theory is consistent with new research conducted by Rebecca Bernert, a doctoral candidate in clinical psychology at Florida State University who specializes in the relationship between sleep and suicidal thoughts and behaviors, and who also presented her work at the sleep conference this week.

In her study of 82 men and women between the ages of 18 and 66 who were admitted into a mental-health hospital for emergency psychiatric evaluation, Bernert discovered that the presence of severe and frequent nightmares or insomnia was a strong predictor of suicidal thoughts and behaviors. More than half of the study participants had attempted suicide at least once in the past, and the 17% of the study group who had made an attempt within the previous month had dramatically higher scores in nightmare frequency and intensity than the rest. Bernert found that the relationship between nightmares or insomnia and suicide persisted, even when researchers controlled for other factors like depression

If that's the case, it may help explain the recurring nightmares that characterize psychiatric conditions like posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), Walker says. "The brain has not stripped away the emotional rind from that experience memory," he says, so "the next night, the brain offers this up, and it fails again, and it starts to sound like a broken record ... What you hear [PTSD] patients describing is, 'I can't get over the event.' "

At the biological level, Walker explains, the "emotional rind" translates to sympathetic nervous-system activity during sleep: faster heart rate and the release of stress chemicals. Understanding why nightmares recur and how REM sleep facilitates emotional processing - or hinders it, when nightmares take place and perpetuate the physical stress symptoms - may eventually provide clues to effective treatments of painful mental disorders. Perhaps, even, by simply addressing sleeping habits, doctors could potentially interrupt the emotional cycle that can lead to suicide. "There is an opportunity for prevention," Bernert says.

Sleep is also important to our physical health. Poor sleep is linked to:

- Diabetes
- Obesity
- Coronary artery disease
- Immune problems

Several large-scale genomic studies published last month Nature Genetics (vol 40, p 1399) have revealed a link between blood sugar levels and the biological clock that cues our sleeping and waking cycles. The link is very significant given that type 2 diabetes is increasing dramatically in the developed world, while average amounts of sleep are decreasing. The research suggests that the link is a protein that recognises the sleep hormone melatonin. It's clear that the less one sleeps, the less insulin one produces, though exactly how melatonin affects the insulin-producing cells in the pancreas remains to be worked out. The intriguing possibility is that this is somehow related to the fact that sleep-poor individuals also tend to be at increased risk of obesity and immune problems.

Sleep deprivation can mimic other disorders, such as depression or ADHD:

- In an analysis of 83 children with ADHD, David Gozal from the University of Louisville, Kentucky, and colleagues found that a quarter of those diagnosed with mild ADHD suffered from sleep apnoea, compared with just 5 per cent of those with strong ADHD and 5 per cent of healthy controls. "SDB can lead to mild ADHD-like behaviours that can be readily misperceived and potentially delay the diagnosis and appropriate treatment," the team concluded (Pediatrics, 2007, vol 111, p 554).
- A study of children undergoing surgery to remove their tonsils and adenoids (a common treatment for snoring and sleep apnoea) found that before the operation, 25% had a diagnosis of ADHD compared to 7.4 per cent of healthy controls. But a year after the operations, half of these children no longer met the criteria for ADHD (Archives of Otolaryngology – Head & Neck Surgery, vol 133, p 974).

- Sleep deprivation impairs prefrontal cortex function and result in diminished capacity to modulate limbic system. This results in more moodiness, impulsivity, less ability to focus, organize, plan, self restrain and problem solve.
- Sleep deprivation in childhood can interfere with healthy brain development.

Age and condition	Average amount of sleep per day
Newborn	up to 18 hours
1–12 months	14–18 hours
1–3 years	12–15 hours
3–5 years	11–13 hours
5–12 years	9–11 hours
Adolescents	9–10 hours
Adults, including elderly	7–8(+) hours
Pregnant women	8(+) hours

- Things to improve sleep:
 - Make healthy sleep a priority; (Sleep over TV, games, studies, work)
 - Allow enough time to get 7-9(adults) hours of sleep each night;
 - Create a relaxing and quiet environment for sleep;
 - Exercise regularly (but not less than 3 hours before bedtime) and eat a healthy diet;
 - Avoid caffeine and alcohol;

- If you have a new infant, arrange for help;
- Do not let children or pets in bed with you;
- Cool environment;
- Melatonin 3mg 6 p.m.;
- Early a.m. bright light; and
- Healthy spirituality (clear conscience).

Questions?

MONDAY

The lesson states, “Much of the time, if we would listen to what our bodies tell us, we would get enough rest.”

What things interfere with our ability to get enough sleep?

- Work
- Housework
- Schoolwork
- Worries
- Eating late
- Caffeine
- TV
- Video games
- Telephone
- Texting
- Guilty conscience
- Alcohol, tobacco, drugs
- Pets
- Children
- Relationship problems
- Situational stressors
- Pain states

The lesson asks us to “Consider the word restoration, which means ‘the act of returning to an original state or condition.’”

Thoughts about this? Is this meaning connected with Sabbath? How?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “God rested...” thoughts? Why is it hard to grasp? Is it hard because we have failed to understand the Great Controversy, the nature of God’s character and government and the nature of sin? What kind of rest did God take? Was it a physical rest? If we think it was a physical rest then we miss the point:

So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews persecuted him. ¹⁷ Jesus said to them, “My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working.” ¹⁸ For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him; not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. John 5:17, 18

Does God stop physically working (expending energy) on Sabbath? Here is a commentary from the book Education:

As regards this world, God's work of creation is completed. For "the works were finished from the foundation of the world." [HEB. 4:3.] But his energy is still exerted in upholding the objects of his creation. It is not because the mechanism that has once been set in motion continues to act by its own inherent energy, that the pulse beats, and breath follows breath; but every breath, every pulsation of the heart is an evidence of the all-pervading care of Him in whom "we live, and move, and have our being." [ACTS 17:28.] It is not because of inherent power that year by year the earth produces her bounties, and continues her motion around the sun. The hand of God guides the planets, and keeps them in position in their orderly march through the heavens. He "bringeth out their host by number; he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth." [ISA. 40:26.] It is through his power that vegetation flourishes, that the leaves appear, and the flowers bloom. He "maketh grass to grow upon the mountains," and by him the valleys are made fruitful. Education 195.

Does God rest every seventh day? What kind of rest did God take on the Sabbath? He rested from presenting the truth about Himself. He rested from presenting evidence to refute Satan's lies. He rested His case. He left His intelligent creatures free to consider the allegation of Satan and the evidence He had provided and come to their own conclusion.

But when mankind fell, God had another work to do, a new work that He didn't need to do before man sinned. What work was that? Christ came to finish the work Adam was created to achieve as well the work of reversing the damage sin caused this creation. And after Christ finished His work, He again rested. He rested His case on the Sabbath and the intelligences of the universe were now convinced of God's goodness and Satan was exposed as the liar, murderer and fraud.

Some question the Sabbath being for the universe when the Bible says the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. How do you answer this?

- 1Cor 4:9 this world is a lesson book to the universe
- Isa 66 that in the new heaven and earth all will celebrate the Sabbath

Commentary from EGW:

- In the beginning the Father and the Son had rested upon the Sabbath after Their work of creation. When "the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them" (Gen. 2:1), the Creator and all heavenly beings rejoiced in contemplation of the glorious scene. "The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." Job

38:7. . . . When there shall be a "restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began" (Acts 3:21), the creation Sabbath, the day on which Jesus lay at rest in Joseph's tomb, will still be a day of rest and rejoicing. Heaven and earth will unite in praise, as "from one sabbath to another" (Isa. 66:23) the nations of the saved shall bow in joyful worship to God and the Lamb. {Mar 371.1}

What were the heavenly beings doing on Sabbath? Contemplating, thinking, weighing the issues, coming to their own conclusion, but what about after the fall of Adam and Christ's work of redemption? Why rest in the tomb on Sabbath? For contemplation?

- It was in order that the heavenly universe might see the conditions of the covenant of redemption that Christ bore the penalty in behalf of the human race. The throne of Justice must be eternally and forever made secure, even tho the race be wiped out, and another creation populate the earth. By the sacrifice Christ was about to make, all doubts would be forever settled, and the human race would be saved if they would return to their allegiance. Christ alone could restore honor to God's government. The cross of Calvary would be looked upon by the unfallen worlds, by the heavenly universe, by Satanic agencies, by the fallen race, and every mouth would be stopped. In making His infinite sacrifice Christ would exalt and honor the law. He would make known the exalted character of God's government, which could not in any way be changed to meet man in his sinful condition.

Who is able to describe the last scenes of Christ's life on earth, His trial in the judgment hall, His crucifixion? Who witnessed these scenes?--The heavenly universe, God the Father, Satan and his angels. {ST, July 12, 1899 par. 2}

- Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. {DA 761.2}

Thoughts?

The lesson says the Sabbath is a perpetual sign of our recognition of His love. Why? How? Did the Jews worship on the true Sabbath? Did they experience God's love? Why not? What was the problem? They believed in a legal system of salvation, a system with a legalistic God who is angry, wrathful and must inflict punishment. Can that be a problem today?

Read last paragraph, "Besides all the spiritual..." thoughts? Did they need a Sabbath to rest without guilt or rest their bodies in Eden? Will this be the reason for Sabbath in the earth made new? What is the reason for the Sabbath in the new earth?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "The rest that Jesus..." thoughts? The Greek word for soul is "psuche" which means our minds. How does Jesus bring rest to our minds?

Read third paragraph, "It includes..." Does this bring rest to your mind?

How do you hear the idea that God accepts us because of Jesus perfect work?

- Is it that God is unaccepting or somehow against us until Jesus presents His blood to the Father and the Father becomes convinced by Jesus to accept us?

Christ was not only an expression of the Father's love, but a channel to convey the love of God to men. Christ loved us, and gave Himself for us. He gave His life that He might bring salvation to perishing sinners. Man could not satisfy the claims of justice; no human hand could apply the atoning blood and cleanse the heart from sin. Christ alone, by clothing His divinity with humanity, could reach mankind and bring it near to God. {ST, January 13, 1909 par. 1}

And "God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." In the compassionate life of Christ we behold the character of the Father. "He that hath seen Me," Christ declares, "hath seen the Father." {ST, January 13, 1909 par. 2}

God does not love us because Christ died for us, but it was because He loved us that He gave Christ as a ransom for our sins. Satan has represented God as selfish and oppressive, as claiming all, and giving nothing, as requiring the service of His creatures for His own glory, and making no sacrifice for their good. But the gift of Christ reveals the Father's heart. It testifies that the thoughts of God toward us are "thoughts of peace, and not of evil." It declares that while God's hatred of sin is strong as death, His love for the sinner is stronger than death. Having undertaken our redemption, He will spare nothing, however dear, which is necessary to the completion of His work. {ST, January 13, 1909 par. 3}

- Is Jesus covering us from the view of the Father? Then what is Jesus covering us for or from?
- If Jesus is covering us from the view of the Father what does that say about God and does that bring rest to your mind?
- As soon as Adam and Eve sinned they ran and HID, are we saying that Jesus is actively hiding us from the Father?

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa. 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps. 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

- To whom did Jesus pay a penalty?
- What is the high standard God requires of us? How do we experience this? Did Jesus achieve for us that which we could not achieve for ourselves? And can we experience this transformation through the work of the HS in our lives?

How would you explain the good news brought by Jesus which brings us rest?

SUNDAY

Talks about being too busy to rest, what in your life interferes with your ability to get daily sleep, and weekly rest?

FRIDAY

Read question 1 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 8 2Q 2010

The Atmosphere of Praise

MONDAY

Read last paragraph, “God did just...” thoughts? Well said in the quarterly. Where did human life originate? When did God create human life? Is it true, as the quarterly says, that our individual lives originated in Eden? What was the condition of humanity when God created mankind? What is our condition today? Why? For each of us, why are we the way we are, did God create us in this condition?

What is the implication of this truth?

- This is not as good as God can do
- God did not want you to have any defect you may have
- God did not use His power to create us with sickness and sin
- Sickness, disease, and defect are a result of sin
- God is working to heal and restore us to His perfect ideal

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, “Every soul...” thoughts?

Have you ever met someone who created a positive atmosphere? Someone you just enjoyed to be in their presence? Have you ever met someone who created a negative atmosphere?

If we are creating a negative atmosphere what does that mean? Is such an atmosphere information? Does it reveal something? When Christ said “the good man brings forth good out of the good stored up in him and the evil man brings forth evil out of the evil stored up in him” would this include the atmosphere one creates?

If someone habitually creates a negative atmosphere would that inform of a problem in their heart? What kind of negative atmospheres are there?

- Violent
- Erotic
- Perverse
- Victimized
- Self-absorbed
- Angry, irritable, pouting

Can we change the atmosphere we create? How?

- Remove infecting agents (TV, music, games, books that instill negativity)
- Separate from people who are negative
- Fill mind with healthy material
- Surrendering heart to God and inviting in His Spirit
- Regular interaction with God, prayer, meditation, Bible study
- Counseling if needed
- Forgiving those who have injured
- Repentance for offenses
- Trust God with outcomes
- Set healthy boundaries (leave others free, not just from obvious control but to think, act, feel as they choose, even to not like you)

What kind of atmosphere is there in heaven? What kind of atmosphere do God's children create?

How about the world? Can we quantify elements of each atmosphere?

Heaven's atmosphere – love, concern, compassion, empathy, sympathy, patience, mercy, joy, freedom, truthfulness

The world's atmosphere? Selfishness, harshness, greed, coercion, control, deceit

How have God's representatives been treated by the world through history? What kind of atmosphere did they have to contend?

- Noah?
- Moses?
- David?
- Jeremiah?
- John the Baptist?
- Jesus?
- The Apostles?
- The Early Church?
- The Reformers?
- What about today?

What kind of atmosphere did all of these people create? What elements do you see in common amongst God's people? How does it contrast with those who value the world?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "The air has..." thoughts? Were the animals created as they are today? Have animals evolved over time? Have they changed based on environmental changes over time?

- Did God create animals to kill and eat one another?
- Consider all the breeds of dogs and cats, have all of these always been in existence? From where did they come?

What does this say about God? God designed life on earth to change based on experience, this is part of His design. And when we sin we change in unhealthy ways.

Can you identify any way in which life has "changed" because of sin?

- Humans born blind, deaf, or other deformities?
- If we live destructive lives, unhealthy, unruly, rebellious, will this change us? Will we pass along any of these changes to our children?

Life experience changes which genes are turned on and which are turned off, and we pass along not only the genes we have to our children, but also the instructions on how those genes are to be expressed.

The commandment says:

You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁵You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶ but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments. Exodus 20:4-6

What does this mean? Does it mean God uses His power to punish your unborn children, babies, for your sins? Or, does it mean, that God's design for humanity is that we pass along to our children our own tendencies, and if we rebel we, in harmony with God's design (law), pass along disadvantages to our children thus punishing them?

Some people would have you believe God uses His power to punish the children for the sins of the parents. If this were true what kind of a god would he be? Which of us had a choice in our parents? Would you love and trust a god who would punish you for the sins of your grandparents?

How do we know what to believe?

Let's read what the Bible says in Ezekiel:

18 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel:
“The fathers eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge’?”

³ “As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. ⁴ For every living soul belongs to me, the father as well as the son—both alike belong to me. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

⁵ “Suppose there is a righteous man who does what is just and right.

⁶ He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife or lie with a woman during her period.

⁷ He does not oppress anyone, but returns what he took in pledge for a loan. He does not commit robbery but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked.

⁸ He does not lend at usury or take excessive interest. He withholds his hand from doing wrong and judges fairly between man and man.

⁹ He follows my decrees and faithfully keeps my laws. That man is righteous; he will surely live, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰ “Suppose he has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these other things ¹¹ (though the father has done none of them):

“He eats at the mountain shrines. He defiles his neighbor’s wife.

¹² He oppresses the poor and needy. He commits robbery.

He does not return what he took in pledge. He looks to the idols.

He does detestable things.

¹³ He lends at usury and takes excessive interest.

Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely be put to death and his blood will be on his own head.

¹⁴ “But suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father commits, and though he sees them, he does not do such things:

¹⁵ “He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife.

¹⁶ He does not oppress anyone or require a pledge for a loan. He does not commit robbery but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked.

¹⁷ He withholds his hand from sin and takes no usury or excessive interest. He keeps my laws and follows my decrees.

He will not die for his father’s sin; he will surely live. ¹⁸ But his father will die for his own sin, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother and did what was wrong among his people.

¹⁹ “Yet you ask, ‘Why does the son not share the guilt of his father?’ Since the son has done what is just and right and has been careful to keep all my decrees, he will surely live. ²⁰ The soul who sins is the one who will die. The son will not share the guilt of the father, nor will the father share the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous man will be credited to him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against him.

²¹ “But if a wicked man turns away from all the sins he has committed and keeps all my decrees and does what is just and right, he will surely live; he will not die. ²² None of the offenses he has committed will be remembered against him. Because of the righteous things he has done, he will live. ²³ Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Sovereign LORD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?

²⁴ “But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin and does the same detestable things the wicked man does, will he live? None of the righteous things he has done will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness he is guilty of and because of the sins he has committed, he will die.

²⁵ “Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear, O house of Israel: Is my way unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust? ²⁶ If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin, he will die for it; because of the sin he has committed he will die. ²⁷ But if a wicked man turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will save his life. ²⁸ Because he considers all the offenses he has committed and turns away from them, he will surely live; he will not die. ²⁹ Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Are my ways unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

³⁰ “Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offenses; then sin will not be your downfall. ³¹ Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³² For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!

Does God punish the children for the sins of the fathers? Then how do we understand the commandment?

One of our church founders weighed in, supporting my view that God designed us to pass along ourselves, our strengths or weaknesses to our children:

- What the parents are, that to a great extent the children will be. The physical conditions of the parents, their dispositions and appetites, their mental and moral tendencies, are to a greater or less degree reproduced in their children.--MH 371 (1905). {1MCP 138.5}
- The nobler the aims, the higher the mental and spiritual endowments, and the better developed the physical powers of the parents, the better will be the life equipment they give their children. In cultivating that which is best in themselves, parents are exerting an influence to mold society and to uplift future generations.... {1MCP 139.1}

- Through the indulgence of appetite and passion their energies are wasted, and millions are ruined for this world and for the world to come. Parents should remember that their children must encounter these temptations. Even before the birth of the child, the preparation should begin that will enable it to fight successfully the battle against evil. {1MCP 139.2}

Is this speaking of just environment or also of genetics? Consider this quotation:

- As a rule every intemperate man who rears children transmits his inclinations and evil tendencies to his offspring ; he gives them disease from his own inflamed and corrupted blood. Licentiousness, disease, and imbecility are transmitted as an inheritance of woe from father to son, and from generation to generation, and this brings anguish and suffering into the world.-- T., V. IV, p. 30. {HL 57.1}

Science has proved this to be true – we change ourselves based on our choices and these changes we pass along to our children – but there is good news for all of us who were born to imperfect parents. (Those of you who were born to perfect parents don't need this encouragement):

- In describing to His disciples the office work of the Holy Spirit, Jesus sought to inspire them with the joy and hope that inspired His own heart. He rejoiced because of the abundant help He had provided for His church. The Holy Spirit was the highest of all gifts that He could solicit from His Father for the exaltation of His people. The Spirit was to be given as a regenerating agent, and without this the sacrifice of Christ would have been of no avail. The power of evil had been strengthening for centuries, and the submission of men to this satanic captivity was amazing. Sin could be resisted and overcome only through the mighty agency of the Third Person of the Godhead, who would come with no modified energy, but in the fullness of divine power. It is the Spirit that makes effectual what has been wrought out by the world's Redeemer. It is by the Spirit that the heart is made pure. Through the Spirit the believer becomes a partaker of the divine nature. Christ has given His Spirit as a divine power to overcome all hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil, and to impress His own character upon His church. {DA 671.2}

What is being described? First, no matter who our parents were, no matter what our inherited tendencies toward evil, through the indwelling Spirit of God we can experience victory.

Second, she describes the Spirit helping us by doing what? “Making effectual what has been wrought out” by Christ. What has Christ wrought out? A perfect character, the Holy Spirit infuses us with new mind, motive, character that Christ achieved in His human brain while here on earth.

If Christ had not done this the Holy Spirit would have nothing to heal us with!

We can actually experience, because of Christ’s victory in His human brain, a new heart, right spirit and victory over all hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil!

Thoughts?

But some prefer to believe God inflicts punishment for sin, how do you understand this verse:

⁴⁰ I lift my hand to heaven and declare:
As surely as I live forever,
⁴¹ when I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand grasps it in judgment,
I will take vengeance on my adversaries and repay those who hate me. DT 32:40,41

Thoughts? How do we understand these texts? Should we just have faith, “God said it, I believe it, that settles it”? Or should we allow scripture to interpret scripture?

A sword is what kind of instrument? An instrument of war – what kind of war is God involved in? Is it a war of physical might and power?

- For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2Cor 10:3-5
- God could have destroyed Satan and his sympathizers as easily as one can cast a pebble to the earth; but He did not do this. Rebellion was not to be overcome by force. Compelling power is found only under Satan's government. The Lord's principles are not of this order. His authority rests upon goodness, mercy, and love; and the presentation of these principles is the means to be used. God's government is moral, and truth and love are to be the prevailing power. {DA 759.1}

What kind of war are we in? A war of ideas, centering on the character of God. Is God using might and power to destroy?

- ‘Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,’ says the LORD Almighty. Zech 4:6

So what about this sword? Are we to believe the sword God wields is physical, or even representative of physical might and power?

- I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war. ¹²His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself. ¹³ He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. ¹⁴ The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. ¹⁵ Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. “He will rule them with an iron scepter.” He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. ¹⁶ On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. Rev 19:11-16

- Who is the rider? Christ,
 - With what does He make war? Justice, which is what? Rightness, or truth!
 - What does the robe dripped in blood refer to? Is it not His selflessness, His life sacrificed to save us?
 - What does the fine linen represent? Perfect character
 - What about the sword? Will Christ have a piece of metal coming out of His mouth? What comes out of the mouth? Words, and Christ is called the Word of God and what kind of words does God speak? Truth!
- For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. ¹³ Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Heb 4:12,13

What kind of war is this? What is the weapon to be used? What is the sword of God? The wicked are destroyed by the revelation of truth and love proceeding from God’s unveiled presence. Our very condition determines our destiny.

- “Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” Matt 12:33-37

This gives us the opportunity to explore the process of reasoning, or critical thinking. When you hear an idea, a concept, a perspective, maybe conflicting ideas, how can you discern which is the more accurate?

Here are some of the principles I use:

- I use evidence based integrative approach to Bible study and Come and Reason SS class does not presume to tell people what to think but stimulates people to think, teaches members how to think.
- My approach is to require any individual truth to also fit the whole. And the main central truth of Scripture, to which all truth must align, is the truth about God’s character of love.
- If any doctrine undermines the truth about God, as revealed in Christ, it is misplaced, misunderstood, misaligned or simply wrong.
- Further, all true Bible doctrine will always harmonize with God’s law, all of God’s law (including nature and science). My approach is to integrate, as my mind can assimilate it, 100% of the inspired record along with the scientific record. I don’t want to leave anything out and I don’t want to compartmentalize beliefs.

Thoughts? Is this a reasonable approach? What about experience, where does experience come in?

Experience is said to be the best teacher. Genuine experience is indeed superior to mere theoretical knowledge, but many have an erroneous idea as to what constitutes experience. Real experience is gained by a variety of careful experiments, made with the mind free from prejudice, uncontrolled by previously established opinions and habits. The results are marked with careful solicitude, and an anxious desire to learn, to improve, and to reform on every point that is not in harmony with physical and moral laws. {Christian Temperance and Bible Hygiene 109.1}

That which many term experience is not experience at all; it has resulted from mere habit, or from a course of indulgence, thoughtlessly and often ignorantly followed. There has not been a fair trial by actual experiment and thorough investigation, with a knowledge of the principles involved in the action. Experience which is opposed to natural law,--which is in conflict with the unchangeable principles of nature,--is not to be relied upon. Superstition arising from a diseased imagination is often arrayed in opposition to reason and to scientific principles. To many a person, the idea that others may gainsay what he has learned by experience, seems folly, and even cruelty itself. But there are more errors received and held through false ideas of experience than from any other cause. There are many invalids today who will ever remain such because they cannot be convinced that their experience is not to be relied upon. {CTBH 109.2}

What did you hear in this that we can use? Examine evidence, careful experiments, examining evidence without prejudice. Why does this work? Because such experiments bring into the open the laws upon which God has designed the universe to run, and these laws are constants, testable and rightly understood lead us back to God. When we understand these laws we can use them as a barometer upon which to base our conclusions.

There is a real conflict between certain views of God being taught in Christianity and even in our church. How can you know which view is the right one? Does the above guideline give us a basis to proceed?

Are we to rely on feelings? When Bill Clinton stood before the nation and said He did not have relations with that woman, did he appear sincere? Was he able to move people's emotions? Did he garner certain sympathy and were many inclined to believe him?

When Monica brought out her dress, was it possible some had negative feelings toward her? Were their feelings relevant to the evidence found on the dress? What was more reliable the President's declaration of the evidence?

God runs his universe on certain principles, certain fundamental laws, certain constants that life is designed to operate upon.

The Law of Love
 The Law of Liberty
 The Law of Worship
 The Laws of health
 The Laws of nature

Let's look at the law of liberty –

What happens when liberty is violated?

- Love is always damaged and eventually destroyed
- Rebellion is instilled
- If freedom isn't restored, individuality is eroded

Love cannot exist in an atmosphere without freedom

This law is not an enacted, legislated or created law – this law emanates from the very nature and character of God Himself for God is love!

It is one of the principles that life is designed to operate upon and our health and happiness is dependent upon harmony with it.

Because this is a law you can test it – test it on your spouse

- And once you are convinced that this law is real, that it works, that it is a constant, that it never changes, we have a standard against which we can test our theories, our doctrines, our beliefs about God. God will never violate His own character of love, which means God will never violate freedom, the law of liberty.

This standard, this law is one of the spiritual weapons you can wield in warfare against evil forces:

Remember the war is over the knowledge of God, who is God, what is He like, can He be trusted

Is God like Satan has alleged

OR

Is God like Jesus revealed Him to be

This is the question

We have a standard against which we can test our theories

Is God a power monger, is God a being of stern justice who must use His power to inflict penalties

Does God say, "All I want is your love but if you don't love me I will kill you, I will burn you in hell and torture you until you die."

In every false religion of the world the central fallacy is a distorted picture of God. He is either a being who is too busy to care, detached and disinterested or a cruel being of absolute power that we must be appeased.

And what is the final contest over?

What will be the culmination of events as the Bible predicts?

A conflict of worship, over two systems over two pictures of God

- The Beast System which violates liberty, neither buy and sell
- God's system of love,
 - Greater love has no man than he give his life..
 - This is how we know what love is..

- For God so loved the world..
- these are they who did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death

What is the result of worshipping a God who does not value our freedom?

What is the price we pay for accepting lies about God?

What is the consequence to believing in a God who will use His power to destroy, a God who must be appeased in order to forgive?

It is a violation of the Law of Liberty and just as in human relationships the outcome is predictable:

- love is damaged and eventually destroyed
- rebellion is instilled
- individuality is eroded

And Jesus states that at the end of time the love of most will grow cold – Paul states they will have a form of godliness but deny its power. Why will they have a form of godliness but without power? Why will love grow cold? Because they have accepted Satan's version of God and preach it from the pulpit!

When we have a form of godliness but worship a god who is like Satan alleges, love is destroyed and over time---

We either become shadow people

- people who have lost their ability to reason
- people who worship out of fear of punishment
- people who become non thinking empty shells afraid to have an independent thought, God said it, I believe it that settles it, we don't ask questions we take that on faith,
- people who rigidly clinging to rules, rituals and ceremony without understanding what they mean
- We become like that god and will use power to control others, dominate others, coerce others into our way,
- We will bombing abortion clinics, flying planes into buildings.
- Use our power to silence freedom of thought and opposing views.

- o No one can buy or sell save him who is like this god.

OR

We rebel completely and reject the idea of God altogether and become a post modernist agnostic, evolutionary teaching atheist

This is Satan's goal – to destroy love and trust for God and thus destroy humanity!

Love cannot exist in an atmosphere without freedom

God cannot be saying – love me or I'll kill you, love me or I will be forced to torture you in hell forever.

If you hear a such concepts, test them, do experiments. We are to practice God's law in our lives. We are to live a life in complete harmony with God, so if someone teaches such distortions and you are confused, challenge them to test it and see what happens.

Love cannot exist in an atmosphere without freedom

Questions?

WEDNESDAY

The lesson talks about the importance of fresh air versus stale air or polluted air, no question about it. The lesson then states, "It's so much better to sleep at night with a window open, even just a little, so that we can enjoy the benefits of fresh air while we sleep." - thoughts?

Better than what?

FRIDAY

Read third paragraph, "Although there may be..." thoughts? What kind of experiences are we confronted with which will contaminate our minds? What can we do about it?

Health and Healing Lesson 9 2Q 2010

Temperance

MONDAY

The lesson ID's Noah as the first person on record to get drunk – any thoughts about that? I heard one person speculate that in the aftermath of the flood the environment had changed and that caused a change in the fermentation process causing the wine to ferment either at a different rate or concentration than occurred before the flood and this is why Noah got drunk. No evidence to prove it, just one person's theory.

Read last paragraph, “The mind...” thoughts?

What things cloud the mind or cause intoxication or undermine reason and judgment?

- Alcohol
- Drugs
- Certain foods
 - High sugar foods, high fat/animal foods
 - But the sugar and milk combined are liable to cause fermentation in the stomach, and are thus harmful. The free use of sugar in any form tends to clog the system, and is not unfrequently a cause of disease. Some think that they must eat only just such an amount, and just such a quality, and confine themselves to two or three kinds of food. But in eating too small an amount, and that not of the best quality, they do not receive sufficient nourishment. {Counsels on Temperance and Bible Hygiene 56.4}
 - According to the American Heart Association added sugars to our diet contribute to obesity, DM II and increased coronary artery disease.
- Sleep deprivation
- Certain medicines
- Medical illnesses

- Over study
 - Intemperance in study is a species of intoxication, and those who indulge in it, like the drunkard, wander from safe paths and stumble and fall in the darkness. The Lord would have every student bear in mind that the eye must be kept single to the glory of God. He is not to exhaust and waste his physical and mental powers in seeking to acquire all possible knowledge of the sciences, but is to preserve the freshness and vigor of all his powers to engage in the work which the Lord has appointed him in helping souls to find the path of righteousness.... The command of heaven is to do, to work,--to do something that will reflect glory to God by being a benefit to our fellow men.... {Counsels to Parents, Teachers and Students 405.3}
- Physical deconditioning
- Video games
- Music?

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Alcohol – What impact does alcohol have on the brain? First let's explore some of the different brain regions and their relationship.

Phineas Gage

- Born July 9, 1823 – May 21, 1860
- September 13, 1848 an Iron rod 1¼” diameter 3'7” length, weighing 13.25 pounds blasted through his brain
- He survived and was talking within a few minutes and sat up and awake for the ¾ mile ride to town

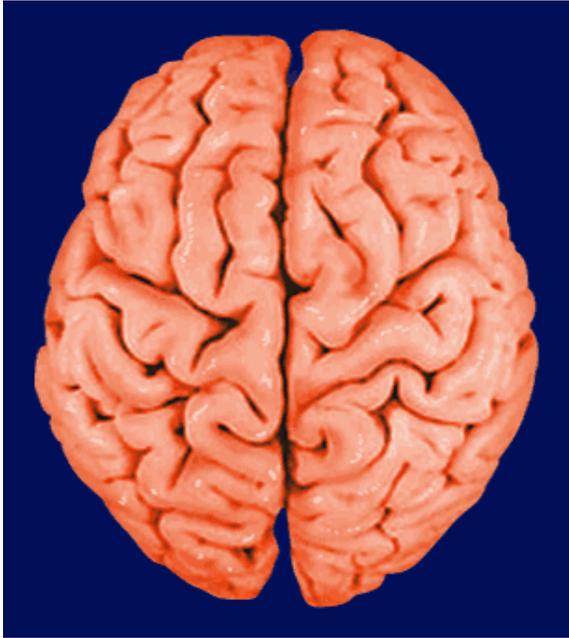

Dr. Harlow's Description

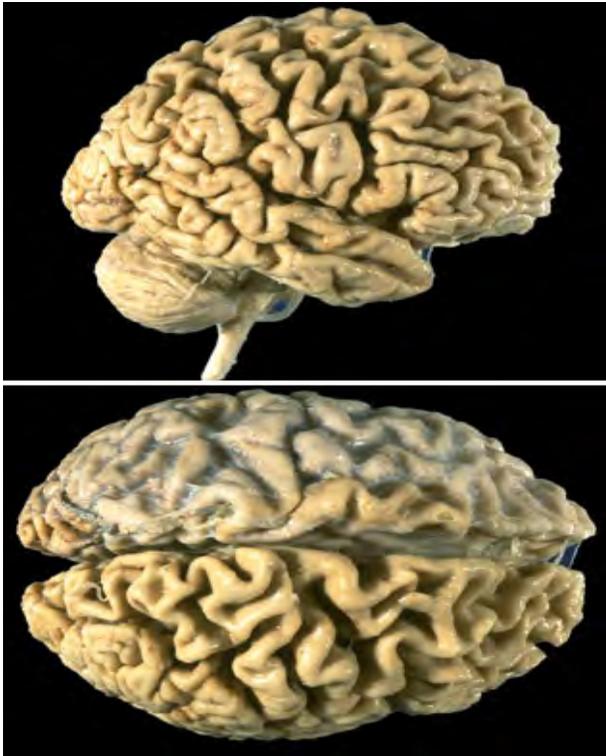

- The equilibrium or balance, so to speak, between his intellectual faculties and animal propensities, seems to have been destroyed. He is fitful, irreverent, indulging at times in the grossest profanity (which was not previously his custom), manifesting but little deference for his fellows, impatient of restraint or advice when it conflicts with his desires, at times pertinaciously obstinate, yet capricious and vacillating, devising many plans of future operations, which are no sooner arranged than they are abandoned in turn for others appearing more feasible. A child in his intellectual capacity and manifestations, he has the animal passions of a strong man. Previous to his injury, although untrained in the schools, he possessed a well-balanced mind, and was looked upon by those who knew him as a shrewd, smart businessman, very energetic and persistent in executing all his plans of operation. In this regard his mind was radically changed, so decidedly that his friends and acquaintances said he was 'no longer Gage.

The prefrontal cortex is the seat of our higher functions of judgment, self-governance, reason, wisdom, etc.

Normal Brain:

Alzheimer's Brain:

You can find spect scans of brains at:

<http://www.amenclinics.com/brain-science/spect-image-gallery/>

Alcohol and drugs damage our brains, particularly our prefrontal cortexes and it is here that we have our highest capacities.

Why is it important to avoid these activities? Because if we damage the PFC we damage our judgment, our ability to self restrain, our characters!

Thoughts?

Alcohol and drugs are damaging no question about it, now let's look at the lesson and use of scripture:

Read second paragraph, "Interestingly, long before..." thoughts?

While it is true avoidance of alcohol would protect the developing fetus, was this the primary purpose? Perhaps, but what else did a Nazirite have to avoid?

- The LORD said to Moses, ² "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If a man or woman wants to make a special vow, a vow of separation to the LORD as a Nazirite, ³ he must abstain from wine and other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar made from wine or from other fermented drink. He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins. ⁴ As long as he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins. ⁵ "During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor may be used on his head. He must be holy until the period of his separation to the LORD is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long. Numbers 6:1-5

Thoughts? Was there something more involved in the Nazirite vow than just protecting the brain from the damaging effects of alcohol?

TUESDAY

Is alcohol good for the heart?

No! Tannins are good for the heart which are the chemicals that give food their color and this can be experienced with grape juice.

The lesson did a good job of documenting why the studies which suggested that alcohol might have heart benefit were flawed.

WEDNESDAY

Read third paragraph, “Temperance is so...” thoughts?

Have you ever known someone who was doing something “good” to excess? I have patients who want to eat healthy to the point they are killing themselves – ever know of church members who get so into the health message they actually undermine their health?

Why does this happen? Because people focus on specific do’s and don’ts rather than on the principles involved. I know people who won’t take medications because they believe they should handle their problems with natural remedies, but some situations require meds and to avoid them only results in ruined health.

Read last paragraph, “Ellen G. White caught...” thoughts?

What does it mean to avoid that which is harmful? Can something be harmful in one situation but helpful in another situation?

- A sharp knife used by a murderer or surgeon?
- Alcohol used for recreation or as a medicinal?
- 100% oxygen for healthy lungs or person in respiratory failure?
- Antibiotics for viral infections or for meningitis?
- Amphetamines for recreation or ADHD or narcolepsy?
- Wheat bread for someone with celiac disease or someone without?
- Peanut butter or strawberries for someone with allergies?

Can we make cookie cutter rules about what is harmful or must we use our judgment and decide where, who and in what circumstances?

Are there some things harmful in all situations?

- Deviations from the law of love
- Cigarette smoking
- Nuclear weapons exposure

Does God prefer we avoid harmful substances because He says so? Is there a better reason? What if we don't avoid these substances? What will God do? Try to heal us if we will let Him!

What does it say about God that He wants us to understand, to think for ourselves?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph – thoughts? Why is harming self more than harming yourself? How does unhealthy choices for you hurt others?

- Those who love you are emotionally hurt
- Your children will be impacted by your example
- Your unborn children will be impacted by your DNA changes
- Your family and society will be impacted by financial burdens your unhealthy lifestyle will have upon them – increased crime to supply you with drugs, increased health care costs to pay for your sicknesses, increased taxes to pay for your childcare etc. etc.

Read second paragraph, “The Bible...” thoughts?

If we don't take care of our bodies what happens? Do we lose autonomy or freedom? How?

If we abuse our bodies with burgers and fries, soft drinks, hard drinks, drugs – does God have to send an angel down from heaven to punish us?

What do we miss out on? Can we experience the fullness of love, joy, happiness if we abuse our bodies?

If we have abused our bodies can God still save us or are we eternally lost? God can save and heal all who trust Him, we still may have health problems on earth awaiting a new body, but we can begin the healing process of recovery here and now.

Read fourth paragraph, “What a price...” thoughts?

How do you understand the language of paying a price, or ransom language in scripture?

- Did it cost God (all three) a lot to save us? Yes, what does this mean? Does it mean that they had to pay one of them off by the blood of the other, or the actual process of redemption had a price to it? Like saving someone in renal failure by donating a kidney, would that cost? Is it because you have to donate the kidney so the doctor would be willing to save?
- What about ransom? What does a ransom do? It is the price necessary to free someone held in captivity. What holds us in captivity?
 - Two things, the lies of Satan about God, which Christ destroyed by His perfect life, death and resurrection. So one price is the price of truth.
 - Secondly, we are held in bondage by sin, and Christ had to deliver humanity from the carnal nature, which He did when He destroyed it at the Cross. We couldn't do this, but Christ being a unique being took our condition upon Himself and perfectly restored the law of love into the human species and destroyed the survival of the fittest, me first, selfish instinct which infects us all. This is the ransom price.

- The blood of Christ is a symbolic way of representing both. The blood represents the perfect life of Christ as well as the truth He revealed about His Father!
- The leaven of truth works a change in the whole man, making the coarse refined, the rough gentle, the selfish generous. By it [the truth] the impure are cleansed, washed in the blood of the Lamb. COL 102
- The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

FRIDAY

Read third paragraph and discuss

Read questions 2 and 4 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 10 2Q 2010

Integrity: Wholeness and Holiness

SABBATH

Read memory text – what would this look like today? Any examples?

What is integrity? According to the dictionary

- adherence to moral and ethical principles; soundness of moral character; honesty

Wouldn't it matter then what ones morals were, what ones principles were?

Where does one derive ones principles?

- a fundamental, primary, or general law or truth from which others are derived: the principles of modern physics.
- a fundamental doctrine or tenet; a distinctive ruling opinion: the principles of the Church.

Does it make a difference which definition we use and live by?

Examples:

- The Jews in Christ day had principles set by the church on what they could do on Sabbath. Did the Pharisees and religious leaders adhere to these principles? So, if those principles were the standard then they were people of integrity-
 - Then why did Jesus have conflict with them? Was He breaking the Sabbath? What were the principles Jesus was living by?
 - What did the wrong principles in regard to the Sabbath lead the Jewish leaders to do? Crucify the Lord of the Sabbath and want Him off the cross so they could keep the Sabbath.

- What is the true principle of the Sabbath? Is it the mere avoidance of work? Is it avoidance of going out to eat? Is it attendance at church? Is it the mere avoidance of chores, homework and TV/Radio? What is the principle of the Sabbath?
- What about today – any examples like this of people in the church keeping the Sabbath based on church rules rather than God's principles? Could they also crucify Christ?

What would lead people to do this? How could people crucify God while they think they are keeping the Sabbath? Where could they come up with such distorted principles?

- We are not to think of God only as a judge, and to forget him as our loving Father. Nothing can do our souls greater harm than this; for our whole spiritual life will be molded by our conceptions of God's character. {RH, April 5, 1887 par. 10}
- Having received the faith of the gospel, the next work of the believer is to add to his character virtue, and thus cleanse the heart and prepare the mind for the reception of the knowledge of God. This knowledge is the foundation of all true education and of all true service. It is the only real safeguard against temptation; and it is this alone that can make one like God in character. Through the knowledge of God and of His Son Jesus Christ, are given to the believer "all things that pertain unto life and godliness." No good gift is withheld from him who sincerely desires to obtain the righteousness of God. {AA 530.3}
- Thousands have a false conception of God and His attributes. They are as verily serving a false god as were the servants of Baal. Are we worshipping the true God as He is revealed in His Word, in Christ, in nature, or are we adoring some philosophical idol enshrined in His place? God is a God of truth. Justice and mercy are the attributes of His throne.

He is a God of love, of pity and tender compassion. Thus He is represented in His Son, our Saviour. He is a God of patience and long-suffering. If such is the being whom we adore and to whose character we are seeking to assimilate, we are worshipping the true God. {FLB 59.8}

If you were to describe the characteristics of the god the Jewish leadership worshipped at the time of Christ what would they be?

- Powerful
- Vengeful
- Wrathful
- Severe
- Exacting
- Unforgiving

Have you heard leaders today presenting similar picture of God? Are such attributes God's true characteristics? Who is represented by such? Satan, what are God's attributes?

- Love
- Selflessness
- Mercy
- Forgiveness
- Kindness
- Patience
- Gentleness
- True to principle – His character of love (Justice – doing what is right)

Why would people go along with the ugly picture of God and what happens if they do?

- If we mistake the wisdom of man for the wisdom of God we are led astray by the foolishness of man's wisdom. Here is the great danger of many in -----. They have not an experience for themselves. They have not been in the habit of prayerfully considering for themselves, with unprejudiced, unbiased judgment, questions and subjects that are new and that are ever liable to arise. They wait to see what others will think. If these dissent, that is all that is needed to convince them that the subject under consideration is of no account whatever. Although this class is large, it does not change the fact that they are inexperienced and weak-minded through long yielding to the enemy, and will always be as sickly as babes, walking by others' light, living on others' experience, feeling as others feel, and acting as others act. They act as though they had not an individuality. Their identity is submerged in others; they are merely shadows of those whom they think about right. Unless these become sensible of their wavering character and correct it, they will all fail of everlasting life; they will be unable to cope with the perils of the last days. They will possess no stamina to resist the devil, for they do not know that it is he. Someone must be at their side to inform them whether a foe or a friend is approaching. They are not spiritual, therefore spiritual things are not discerned. They are not wise in those things which relate to the kingdom of God. Neither young nor old are excusable in trusting to another to have an experience for them. Said the angel: "Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm." A noble self-reliance is needed in the Christian experience and warfare. {2T 129.2}

Thoughts?

Does this remind you of any scripture texts? This takes us to Sunday's lesson.

SUNDAY

Read top paragraph, "Compromise is so easy..." thoughts?

- "Especially as one gets older things do not often appear so black and white as they once did."

Thoughts?

- ¹¹ We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn. ¹² In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! ¹³ Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. ¹⁴ But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God, ² instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³ And God permitting, we will do so. Heb 5:11-6:3

What is being described?

- When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. 1Cor 13:11

What is the context of Paul's statement? The chapter on love and what is the purpose of the chapter on love, to give a list of rules or to move people to a higher principle?

What does it mean to be righteous? The children don't understand righteousness, instead they are focused on rules, dos and don'ts, why is this, is this something normal for children?

What are normal developmental stages from childhood to adulthood?

Piaget –

- Sensorimotor - birth to 24 months of age, primary integration of sensory experiences with motor coordination, learning by touching, smelling, hearing, seeing, tasting, building a data base of experiences
- Pre-operational – ages 2-7, children learn to develop thoughts about the world and represent the world by thoughts, language develops, drawing and objects are used. The child cannot solve problems in their mind, thinking is self centered, they cannot empathize well,
 - An example of egocentrism, children cannot distinguish their perspective from others. Three views of a mountain are shown the child and then the child is asked what a traveling doll would see at various angles. The child always picks their own view.
 - At this age they also experience animism, believing inanimate objects have lifelike qualities like the chair was mad at them and made them trip.
 - So how might they conceive of God?
 - Unable to demonstrate conservation – have two beakers of water, one tall and thin the other large and wide, fill the tall thin one up, pour it into the large one and then repeat, which leaves the large beaker only partially full, then refill the tall thin one all the way to the top and ask, which has more water. The child who has not mastered conservation says the tall thin one.
 - Other studies revealed that only 50% of children master this level even at age 13, this impairs ability to see life from another perspective.
- Concrete operations – 7-11 years of age, begin to use basic logic, if A is larger than B and B is larger than C, then A must be larger than C. They can order things in sequence, classify things together that are similar in nature, they can reverse a sequence. But they cannot abstract reason. They begin to start seeing other's perspectives.
- Formal operations – begins around 11 and continues throughout adulthood – can abstract, think logically, hypothesize, include hypothetical possibilities, see various perspectives on a problem, empathize with others, see the gray and not see only black and white.

What if someone doesn't make the developmental transitions in thinking? What if someone remains in concrete operations? Would that affect their view of God? Would it affect why they do what they do? Did Paul deal with people like this? Would he be speaking of people like this in Hebrews? What about today? Do we have people like this in the church?

Let's look at something even more profound to our situation in the church:

KOHLBERG'S STAGES OF MORAL DEVELOPMENT

A. PREMORAL OR PRECONVENTIONAL STAGES: Behavior motivated by anticipation of pleasure or pain.

STAGE 1: PUNISHMENT AND OBEDIENCE:

Avoidance of physical punishment and deference to power. The immediate physical consequences of an action determine its goodness or badness.

The atrocities carried out by soldiers during the holocaust who were simply "carrying out orders" under threat of punishment, illustrate that adults as well as children may function at stage one level.

STAGE 2: INSTRUMENTAL EXCHANGE:

Marketplace exchange of favors or blows. "You scratch my back, I'll scratch yours." Justice is: "Do unto others as they do unto you." Eye for an eye mentality. Wrong doing must be punished.

Vengeance is considered a moral duty.

B. CONVENTIONAL MORALITY: Acceptance of the rules and standards of one's group.

STAGE 3: INTERPERSONAL CONFORMITY:

Right is conformity to the behavioral expectations of one's society or peers. Individuals act to gain approval of others.

Good behavior is that which pleases or helps others within the group. "Everybody is doing it." One earns approval by being conventionally "respectable" and "nice."

Sin is a breach of the expectations of the social order.

Retribution, however, at this stage is collective. Individual vengeance is not allowed. Forgiveness is preferable to revenge. Punishment is mainly for deterrence. Failure to punish is "unfair." "If he can get away with it, why can't I?"

STAGE 4: LAW AND ORDER:

Respect for rules, laws and properly constituted authority. Defense of the given social and institutional order for its own sake.

"Justice" normally refers to criminal or forensic justice. Justice demands that the wrongdoer be punished, that he "pay his debt to society," and that law abiders be rewarded. "A good day's pay for a good day's work."

Injustice is failing to reward work or punish demerit.

Authority figures are seldom questioned. "He must be right. He's the Pope (or the President, or the Judge, or God)."

STAGE 4 ½:

Between the conventional stages and the post-conventional Levels 5 and 6, there is a transitional stage. College-age students that have come to see conventional morality as relative and arbitrary, but have not yet discovered universal ethical principles, may drop into a hedonistic ethic of "do your own thing." This was well noted in the hippie culture of the 1960's. Disrespect for conventional morality was especially infuriating to the Stage 4 mentality, and indeed was calculated to be so.

C. POSTCONVENTIONAL OR PRINCIPLED MORALITY: Ethical principles

STAGE 5: PRIOR RIGHTS AND SOCIAL CONTRACT:

Moral action in a specific situation is not defined by reference to a checklist of rules, but from logical application of universal, abstract, moral principles. Individuals have natural or inalienable rights and liberties that are prior to society and must be protected by society.

Retributive justice repudiated.

The statement, "Justice demands punishment," which is a self-evident truism to the Stage 4 mind, is just as self-evidently nonsense at Stage 5. Retributive punishment is neither rational nor just, because it does not promote the rights and welfare of the individual. Only legal sanctions that fulfill that purpose are imposed-- protection of future victims, deterrence, and rehabilitation.

The freedom of the individual should be limited by society only when it infringes upon someone else's freedom.

STAGE 6: UNIVERSAL ETHICAL PRINCIPLES:

An individual who reaches this stage acts out of universal principles based upon the equality and worth of all human beings.

Persons are never means to an end, but are ends in themselves. Having rights means more than individual liberties.

This is the "Golden Rule" model. A list of rules inscribed in stone is no longer necessary.

At this level, God is understood to say what is right because it is right; His sayings are not right, just because it is God who said them.

Persons at this level have accepted God's invitation to "come and let us reason together".

THE FOLLOWING ARE OBSERVATIONS THAT WERE MADE BY KOHLBERG

1. STAGE DEVELOPMENT IS INVARIANT.

One must progress through the stages in order, and one cannot get to a higher stage without passing through the stage immediately preceding it.

2. IN STAGE DEVELOPMENT, SUBJECTS CANNOT COMPREHEND MORAL REASONING AT A STAGE MORE THAN ONE STAGE BEYOND THEIR OWN.

3. IN STAGE DEVELOPMENT, MOVEMENT THROUGH THE STAGES IS EFFECTED WHEN COGNITIVE DISEQUILIBRIUM IS CREATED, THAT IS, WHEN A PERSON'S COGNITIVE OUTLOOK IS NOT ADEQUATE TO COPE WITH A GIVEN MORAL DILEMMA.

4. IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE FOR A HUMAN BEING TO BE PHYSICALLY MATURE BUT NOT MORALLY MATURE.

5. KOHLBERG BELIEVED THAT ONLY ABOUT 25% OF PERSONS EVER GROW TO LEVEL SIX, THE MAJORITY REMAINING AT LEVEL FOUR.

The Bible enjoins principles of modesty, humility, and wise stewardship of the money. Application of these principles might preclude the purchase of expensive jewelry, furs, flashy cars, or other items primarily for show. A person functioning at level six would have no problem applying these principles. Persons functioning at a level four on the other hand, might make rules about "jewelry" (in a church for instance) or red dresses, or cosmetics. But they might not even notice a flashy car or the lady who wears a new dress every single week. Those things aren't on the list. If Kohlberg's observation is true, then level 6 thinkers would be in the minority. They might even be misunderstood and persecuted by a level 4 majority (Christ being the primary example).

STAGE THEORY AND THE ATONEMENT

Level 1: Man sinned and offended God. God responded with angry vengeance taking the life of Jesus.

Level 2: God somehow struck a bargain with the Devil, a market place exchange of Christ's life, paid as a ransom to the Devil, in trade for the devil's releasing his hostages. In the popular version, Satan found out too late that God had conned him, when Christ rose from the dead.

Level 3-4: The Law must be kept. Man broke the Law. Someone had to pay the penalty. "The wages of sin is death." Jesus paid that penalty. The integrity of the Law was maintained.

There is an aspect of truth on the law must be kept when the law is understood as the law life is built upon.

Level 5-6: He demonstrated that separation from God is death. ("Why have you forsaken me?") Since we separate ourselves from Him, not He from us, He is not our executioner. He allowed Satan to play out his hand, exposing his selfish character for all both man and angels to see, and thus erasing all sympathy for the accusations of the fallen foe. God's character was vindicated.

Level 7: Atonement becomes at-one-ment. God did what it took to win our love and trust, destroy the infection of sin and restore us to unity with Him again. Neither God, nor His law, defined as the eternal principles upon which He bases His government, change, but our understanding of His law changes, and God speaks to us at each level of our understanding. It is a mistake to cling to expressions appropriate to an earlier age of understanding, regardless of how valid and useful they were in their own context, when more appropriate expressions exist.

We must be patient with our brethren who perhaps are just beginning their maturing process, and allow the pastor to preach for them sometimes. For even as God was laying down detailed concrete rules for the Israelites, He was already looking forward to the day when He would "write His laws on our hearts."

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Read last paragraph, "If we are honest..." thoughts? Is withholding information the same as deceiving? What did Jesus tell His disciples before His ascension? How did Jesus respond to Herod?

TUESDAY

Read last paragraph, "So much promise.." thoughts? Isn't this good news, that we can be changed? Can we be changed without our active involvement in the process? What is the change like for the one being changed? Is it always pleasant, or in fact, is genuine change, at some point, always painful as we fall on the rock, are broken and die to self?

WEDNESDAY

Sexual integrity? Any questions?

For those who haven't watched the presentation on this please visit our website and watch the presentation: Human Sexuality, God's Design, Your Kids and Their Questions.

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, "some easily..." thoughts? How do you hear the "commanded" portion?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph:

The greatest want of the world is the want of men-- men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall. {Ed 57.3}

Thoughts?

Questions 1 – 4 read and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 11 2Q 2010

Optimism: Happiness and Healing

How do you feel about this lesson, this week?

Are you feeling optimistic?

SABBATH

Read third paragraph, "Hope enables..." what hope do we have?

Read last paragraph, "We often..." how can we adjust our internal attitude?

As the gospel message spread in Pisidia, the unbelieving Jews of Antioch in their blind prejudice "stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them" from that district. {AA 176.1}

The apostles were not discouraged by this treatment; they remembered the words of their Master: "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." Matthew 5:11, 12. {AA 176.2}

The gospel message was advancing, and the apostles had every reason for feeling encouraged. Their labors had been richly blessed among the Pisidians at Antioch, and the believers whom they left to carry forward the work alone for a time, "were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost." {AA 176.3}

Christ told His disciples that in the world they should have tribulation. They would be brought before kings and rulers for His sake; all manner of evil would be spoken against them falsely, and those who destroyed their lives would think they did God service. And all, in every age, who have lived godly lives have suffered persecution in some form. . . . They have suffered every indignity, outrage, and cruelty which Satan could move upon minds to invent. {My Life Today 69.2}

To Christ, and to Christ alone, is given the right of authority over all things. Those who put their trust in Him, and will hold fast the profession of their faith firm unto the end, will be protected. As Christ's disciples, as laborers together with Him, there must be united action among all the laborers. Some are converted to the truth in one way, others are best reached by a different method. So the laborers will act, some in one line, others in another, but all may blend unitedly. To every man is given his work. {This Day with God 297.1}

Those who criticize their fellow workers open a door through which the enemy will enter. What can be more sad than to see brother working against brother, expressing suspicion and doubts of the other's sincerity? There is room enough for all to use their God-given talents. All are laboring with the one object of inspiring belief in the words of inspiration. Then let everyone so order his speech and work that he may be in harmony with those who are laboring to the same end as he himself. . . . {TDG 297.2}

SUNDAY

Depression and Despair – wow, is this timely or what?

Read third paragraph – “There are two ...” thoughts?

How many genes would we have to include to account for 80% variance of depression? In other words, how many genes would have to be included to account for 80% risk/likelihood of depression? 93,000 genes. What does that tell us?

One gene the serotonin transporter gene has been implicated in depression. In the human genome there are two variants, one with a short arm and one with a long arm. Over 100 studies have shown that the short arm version confers risk for depression 2 studies have shown it doesn't. What is going on? If a person has two short arm versions and is raised in an environment with stress, abuse, lack of nurturance or trauma etc. then they are at greater risk of depression. But if a person with two short arm versions is raised in a healthy, nurturing environment it conveys advantage and these individuals grow up to be leaders and dominant in the society. It appears the two short arm versions confer sensitivity and the environment then contributes outcome.

What implications does this have?

How do we deal with adversity?

Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, ³ because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. ⁴ Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.
James 1:2-4

Are you joyous this week? Should we be? How have you experienced joy from the events of the last week?

We are all born infected with fear and selfishness, survival of the fittest. Our instinct is to watch out for ourselves, and retaliate and attack those who don't go along with us. This is Satan's kingdom and method.

God's kingdom is the kingdom of love, to give, to turn the other cheek, to be compassionate, forgiving, understanding and patient. We don't have to retaliate against those who do us wrong, they destroy themselves.

So, events such as the past week give us the opportunity to practice God's methods. So let's contrast God's methods and Satan's methods.

God's methods:

Love
 Truth
 Openness
 Freedom
 Humility Tolerance
 Reasoning Evidence

Satan's Methods:

Selfishness
 Deceit
 Secrecy
 Coercion/control
 Arrogance
 Intolerance
 Non-thinking obedience
 Declarations/claims

Our natural instinct is to practice Satan's methods, to retaliate, to attack, to become intolerant, etc. It is situations like this that we are presented with the opportunity to CHOOSE to exercise different neural circuits, to cooperate with God for the rewiring of our brains, the transformation of our characters, which simultaneously witnesses the power of God's kingdom as we love those who persecute us!

This is not easy, nor natural to our hearts. We can experience this only in cooperation with God.

It was when Moses was hidden in the cleft of the rock that he beheld the glory of God. It is when we hide in the riven Rock that Christ will cover us with His own pierced hand, and we shall hear what the Lord saith unto His servants. To us as to Moses, God will reveal Himself as "merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin." Ex. 34:6, 7. {COL 162.3}

The work of redemption involves consequences of which it is difficult for man to have any conception. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him." 1 Cor. 2:9. As the sinner, drawn by the power of Christ, approaches the uplifted cross, and prostrates himself before it, there is a new creation. A new heart is given him. He becomes a new creature in Christ Jesus. Holiness finds that it has nothing more to require. God Himself is "the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. And "whom He justified, then He also glorified." Rom. 8:30. Great as is the shame and degradation through sin, even greater will be the honor and exaltation through redeeming love. To human beings striving for conformity to the divine image there is imparted an outlay of heaven's treasure, an excellency of power, that will place them higher than even the angels who have never fallen. {COL 162.4}

What if you believe distorted ideas about God? Let's review some brain science and come back to what happens when we believe lies about God:

Slide Show:

Things we can do to have a healthy brain:

- Know God – the truth about Him
 - Romans 1 the mind becomes darkened, depraved and futile if we reject the truth about God
- Live in harmony with His laws
 - All laws, law of love, health, liberty, worship etc.
- Exercise
 - Produces Interleukin 10 a powerful anti-inflammatory interleukin, endorphins, enkephalins, neurotrophic factors
- Regular sleep
 - Consolidates memories, neural restructuring, stress hormones
- Healthy diet
 - Nutrients essential for brain health
- Meditate on God's character of love
 - 12 minutes per day grows an anterior cingulate cortex, where we experience love and altruism and calms fear circuits
- Rejoice, keep positive attitude
- Keep larger view
- Medications if needed

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “Optimism...” thoughts?

What kind of things keep you overburdened and overworked?

How do you stay optimistic?

TUESDAY

Read third paragraph, “Yet, even amid...” thoughts? Has anything in our lives taken God by surprise? How does that reality affect you? What impact does that have on our responsibilities?

The lesson quotes Romans 8:31, “If God is for us...”

- If God is for us can He also be against us?
- If God is for us can He be threatening to kill us if we don't love Him?
- If God is for us is He the reason we die?
- If God is for us will He use His divine power to inflict torture upon us?

What evidence do we have?

WEDNESDAY/THURSDAY

A merry heart does good like a medicine Prov 17:22 – and science had demonstrated that mirthful laughter results in a healthier immune system, lower stress hormones and increase of mood improving hormones.

FRIDAY

Read questions 1-3 and discuss

Health and Healing Lesson 12 2Q 2010

Nutrition and the Bible

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts?

What does it mean to do something to the glory of God?

Jesus loves those who represent the Father, and John could talk of the Father's love as no other of the disciples could. He revealed to his fellow men that which he felt in his own soul, representing in his character the attributes of God. The glory of the Lord was expressed in his face. The beauty of holiness which had transformed him shone with a Christlike radiance from his countenance. In adoration and love he beheld the Saviour until likeness to Christ and fellowship with Him became his one desire, and in his character was reflected the character of his Master. {AA 545.2}

Thoughts?

Are we to reveal God in our lives? What does that look like? Would that include, in addition to loving kindness, if possible physical vitality and mental acuity?

SUNDAY

What was the original diet? Does the original diet have anything to do with bringing glory to God?

In whose image were we made? Are we to live lives that reveal God?

The Bible tells us this earth is a theater to the universe – 1Cor 4:9, what are they learning from this theater?

What was the purpose in the creation of man?

How do we glorify God by our diet?

What lesson would be taught, if we had other options for food, yet slaughtered animals to eat?

What fuel did God design our bodies to run upon? What if you drive a car designed to run upon unleaded fuel and you use diesel?

What happens to our bodies when we use the wrong fuel?

Do we have problems in our society from eating wrong fuel?

1976-80 – 15% of Americans obese

1988-1994- 25% of Americans obese

1999-2000 – 32% of Americans obese

The incidence of diabetes in Americans 30-39 has increased 70% and 1 in 3 diabetics don't know there are diabetics.

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, "As Christians..." thoughts? Was the first sin a temptation of appetite? "Hey Eve, this food is so tasty, so delicious, so scrumptious that it makes all the other fruit in the garden taste nasty"? Was it hunger that caused Eve to take the fruit? Was it appetite at all?

"Eve believed the words of Satan, and the belief of that falsehood in regard to God's character, changed the condition and character of both herself and husband. They were changed from good and obedient children into transgressors..." RH, January 5, 1886 par. 8

What was the real temptation? To doubt God's goodness, to believe lies about God and then take what was not theirs to take, in order to do what? To taste a new delicacy, to satisfy hunger or appetite? Or to attain power or ability?

Was the behavior of taking the fruit the primary problem or the secondary problem? Was the primary problem the believing lies about God and rebelling in heart, which was subsequently manifested in the behavior?

This is the problem with the Penal model of thinking, it always focuses on behavior and fails to see the real problem and therefore confuses.

Did Adam and Eve, in the Garden, have a problem with appetite? No! but since the fall do we? Why?

Is there anything beyond nutritional value in maintaining a healthy diet? What about gaining self-mastery, self-governance, learning to develop prefrontal cortex control over the limbic system?

How did the diet of mankind change after the flood? Could it be a contributing factor in the shortening of lifespan?

How do you understand the idea of clean and unclean meats? What is the difference? Is there an underlying principle? Is it merely Jewish or are there still such things today?

Do the foods we eat really matter? Can they affect mood and brain chemistry?

Adapted from: http://www.scielo.br/scielo.php?pid=S0100-879X1998001200002&script=sci_arttext&tlng=en

Neurotransmitters and neuromodulators are basic units of chemical communication within the nervous system. These include a variety of phenethylamines and their derivatives (dopamine, norepinephrine, epinephrine, tyramine, octopamine, and tetrahydroisoquinolines), indoleamines (serotonin, melatonin, and tryptamine), cholinergics (acetylcholine and choline), amino acids and their derivatives (glutamate, aspartate, glycine, taurine, histamine and gamma-amino butyric acid), nucleosides (adenosine and inosine), hormones (prostaglandins, corticosteroids, estrogen, testosterone, thyroid hormone and many others), and peptides (enkephalin, endorphin, substance P, cholecystokinin, somatostatin, cyclo (His-Pro), thyrotropin releasing hormone and many others).

Most of these are synthesized de novo using precursors provided by the food that we eat and thus are under direct influence of the diet.

A carbohydrate-rich/protein-poor diet increases and a protein-rich diet decreases brain serotonin synthesis.

The synthesis of serotonin in the brain is limited by the availability of tryptophan. The large neutral amino acids (LNAA), tryptophan, valine, leucine, isoleucine, methionine, phenylalanine, and tyrosine, share the same transport carrier across the blood-brain barrier (4). At physiologic blood amino acid concentrations, there is competition for available carrier sites. Therefore, the transport of blood tryptophan into the brain is proportional to the ratio of its concentration to that of the sum total of other LNAA (4).

Consumption of a protein-rich meal raises the blood level of many amino acids. Tryptophan is one of the least common amino acids in dietary protein. Therefore, a protein-rich meal contributes proportionately more competing LNAAs than tryptophan, resulting in reduced entry of tryptophan into the brain and reduced serotonin synthesis.

Conversely, a carbohydrate-rich meal can also alter blood amino acid levels (5). This effect is mediated by the action of insulin, which promotes the uptake of most amino acids by muscle, which accounts for >45% of lean body weight. Muscle metabolizes branch-chain amino acids, thereby lowering their concentration in the blood. Plasma tryptophan levels are unaltered by carbohydrate consumption, and insulin does not promote the net uptake of tryptophan into muscle because this amino acid is largely bound to low-affinity, high-capacity sites on albumin. Normally, 75 to 85% of plasma tryptophan is bound to albumin. When insulin is secreted, the plasma levels of nonesterified fatty acids (NEFAs) fall because insulin promotes uptake of NEFAs by adipocytes. NEFAs also are adsorbed on circulating albumin, thereby increasing the number of sites available on albumin for binding tryptophan. This rise in bound tryptophan compensates for the slight fall in plasma free tryptophan caused by insulin-mediated uptake of amino acids by muscle. The total amount of tryptophan in plasma (bound plus free) determines the rate of transport of tryptophan into the brain because the affinity of the transport system for tryptophan is much greater than the affinity of albumin for tryptophan. Thus, ingestion of a high-carbohydrate/low-protein meal facilitates entry of tryptophan into the brain (6).

However, obesity as well as chronic stress, including worshipping a wrathful god construct, alters this dynamic as it increases insulin resistance. With insulin resistant the fat and muscle cells don't respond normally and this results in less tryptophan transport to the brain and another factor in mood and anxiety disorders.

Once in the brain, tryptophan undergoes a series of enzymatic reactions, resulting in the synthesis of the neurotransmitter serotonin. The first (and the rate-limiting) step in the conversion of tryptophan to serotonin is hydroxylation of tryptophan by the enzyme tryptophan hydroxylase, a low-affinity ($K_m = 0.4 \text{ mM}$) enzyme that is abundant in the brain. Accordingly, whenever the brain tryptophan level rises, more serotonin is produced (7).

Serotonin

Serotonin is a chemical the brain produces from tryptophan. Where do we get tryptophan? From the protein in our food. Brain serotonin controls many different types of bodily functions, including appetite, body temperature, libido, and mood, to name a few. Some of the foods rich in serotonin and tryptophan banana, pineapple, plum, nuts, milk, and turkey.

Cholecystokinin

Cholecystokinin (CCK) is found naturally in our brain and gut. Soon after we begin to eat, CCK begins to be released from our gut. When the blood level of CCK rises to a critical level, we feel satiated and stop eating (12). The release of CCK after satiety has been achieved is terminated by the action of trypsin on gut cells (13,14). For that reason there is now substantial interest in developing CCK as a drug for appetite control. Unfortunately, large doses of CCK act on sites in the brain that control anxiety and panic behavior (15). One solution to this problem might be the use of food rich in CCK. Unfortunately, to date we know of no such natural food. This does not mean CCK does not exist in natural foods, only that no one has taken time to screen common foods for this peptide. Meanwhile, there are data to suggest that the use of certain foods to increase blood CCK levels may be possible. For example, many animal and human studies show that a diet containing soy protein, a rich source of trypsin inhibitor, may increase circulating level of CCK. Actually, any food rich in trypsin inhibitors should result in increased CCK secretion and early satiety.

The relationship between food and mood in seemingly normal individuals is not a simple one but instead depends on the time of day, the type and macronutrient composition of food, the amount of food consumed, and the age and dietary history of the subject (39). For example, while skipping breakfast impairs cognitive performance (40), a larger-than-normal breakfast improves recall performance but impairs concentration (41). Furthermore, changes in the macronutrient composition of breakfast have differential effects on mood (42). For example, changes in mood have been produced most effectively by raising brain serotonin levels by administering tryptophan or by supplementing a carbohydrate-rich/protein-poor diet with tryptophan (43

References

4. Pardridge WM (1977). Regulation of amino acid availability to the brain. In: Wurtman RJ & Wurtman JJ (Editors), Nutrition and the Brain. Raven Press, New York, 141-204.

5. Adibi SA, Morse EL & Amin PM (1975). Role of insulin and glucose in the induction of hypoaminoacidemia in man: Studies in normal, juvenile diabetic, and insulinoma patients. Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine, 86: 395-409.
6. Fernstrom JD & Wurtman RJ (1971). Brain serotonin content: Increase following ingestion of carbohydrate diet. Science, 174: 1023-1025.
7. Fernstrom JD & Wurtman RJ (1972). Brain serotonin content: Physiological regulation by plasma neutral amino acids. Science, 178: 414-416.
8. Beas-Zarate C, del Angel Meza AR, Morales-Villagran A & Feria
12. French SJ, Murray B, Rumsey RDE, Sepple CP & Read NW (1993). Is cholecystokinin a satiety hormone? Correlations of plasma cholecystokinin with hunger, satiety and gastric emptying in normal volunteers. Appetite, 21: 95-104.
13. Calam J, Bojarski JC & Springer CJ (1987). Raw soya-bean flour increases cholecystokinin release in man. British Journal of Nutrition, 58: 175-179.
14. Watanabe SI, Takeuchi T & Chey WY (1992). Mediation of trypsin inhibitor-induced pancreatic hypersecretion by secretin and cholecystokinin in rats. Gastroenterology, 102: 621-628.
39. Rogers PJ & Lloyd HM (1994). Nutrition and mental performance. Proceedings of the Nutrition Society, 53: 443-456.
40. Pollitt E, Liebel RL & Greenfield D (1981). Brief fasting, stress and cognition in children. American Journal of Clinical Nutrition, 34: 1526-1533.
41. Michaud C, Musse N, Nicolas JP & Mejan L (1991). Effects of breakfast size on short-term memory concentration and blood glucose. Journal of Adolescent Health, 12: 53-57.
42. Lloyd HM, Rogers PJ, Hedderley DI & Walker AF (1996). Acute effects on mood and cognitive performance of breakfasts differing in fat and carbohydrate content. Appetite, 27: 151-164.

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “As we...” thoughts?

Have you ever tried to share healthful living ideas with non SDAs?
 What kind of responses have you experienced? What were barriers?
 What truth did the non-SDAs bring to the discussion?

Is it true that the ceremonial laws were done away with at the Cross?

How has this been twisted by Satan to damage believers? Has the termination of the ceremonial system changed the laws of health? If something was unhealthy for the human body before Christ died is it healthy for the human body today? Or is it still unhealthy?

And if our bodies are diseased does that impact the functioning of the brain and if our brain doesn't work as well does that impair our ability to discern truth?

Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters. ² One man's faith allows him to eat everything, but another man, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. ³ The man who eats everything must not look down on him who does not, and the man who does not eat everything must not condemn the man who does, for God has accepted him. Romans 14:1-3

Thoughts about this?

Here is my paraphrase:

Romans 14:1 The young in Christ often have weak confidence in God and limited understanding of his methods, so don't be critical with them and don't argue over trivial matters. ² Consider foods offered to idols: A mature Christian, whose trust in God and understanding of his methods is strong, recognizes an idol is just a piece of wood or stone and cannot affect the nutrition of the meat offered to it – so he will eat the meat without worry. But the immature Christian, whose trust in God and understanding of his methods is weak, continues to struggle with misconceptions about idols and thinks that maybe the idol has the power to contaminate the meat offered to it, and thus eats only the vegetables that were not set before the idol. ³ The mature man, who eats everything that is healthy, must not demean and make fun of the man still struggling with fear and insecurity over what he eats; and the man afraid to eat all healthy foods, must not condemn as wicked the man who eats everything healthy, for he is at peace with God.

When we eat food what actually happens to the food once it enters our body? It gets digested, meaning, we get energy, but do we get more than energy? We get the building blocks of our bodies.

Omega three fatty acids rather than being burned as energy are assimilated into our body, they become part of neuronal membranes and keep them healthy. Likewise the food we eat becomes the tissues of our bodies. Does this give us insight into what Christ meant when He said, “unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no part with me”?

How are we to assimilate Christ?

Are there examples in Scripture of eating truth but it turning sour?

Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me once more: “Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

⁹ So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, “Take it and eat it. It will turn your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”

¹⁰ I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour. Revelation 10:8-10

What does this mean, sweet to eat but sour in stomach? The little book is Daniel, sweet to eat was the initial understanding of the prophecies, but the sour was the Great Disappointment. Why did it turn sour? They misunderstood its true meaning.

Does what a person believes have anything to do with what kind of impact the Bible has on them? Can a person study the Bible with the wrong mindset and actually be harmed by it?

What about with actual physical food, can our beliefs alter our experience with food? Any examples?

Television watching alters our perceptions, values and beliefs.

- Before the introduction of American TV into Fiji there was zero eating disorders, after the introduction of American TV eating disorders skyrocketed to 15% in adolescent girls and the more TV exposure the higher the risk
- The number one factor contributing to the likelihood a teen will drink or smoke is seeing it done in movies or on TV

Does TV affect the food choices people make? Absolutely!

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, “Just because...” thoughts?

Have you ever experienced a cultural caste system of dietary purity? Those with the least animal products are more righteous than those with the most? Why is this defective thinking?

But what is the truth about vegetarian diet? Does it matter? Are there advantages?

What are healthy foods?

- Spinach
- Blueberries
- Pomegranate
- Nuts (almonds, pecans, walnuts)
- Omega 3 fatty acids (flax, chia, cold water fish oil)
- Whole grains (oats, flax, barley)
- Olive oil

THURSDAY

Does being an Adventist make a difference in health?

Adventist Health Study 1 (AHS-1)

An additional study (1974–1988) involved approximately 34,000 Californian Adventists over 25 years of age. Unlike the mortality study, the purpose was to find out which components of the Adventist lifestyle give protection against disease.

The data from the study have been studied for more than a decade and the findings are numerous – linking diet to cancer^[2] and coronary heart disease.^{[3][4]}

Specifically^[1]

Health and Healing Lesson 13 2Q 2010

Social Support: The Tie That Binds

SABBATH

Read memory Text: - I want to thank this class, locally and online for your support, camaraderie, friendship and love. I have experienced God's love through all of you and pray will we continue to grow in His love.

Read first two paragraphs, "It is very clear..." thoughts?

Have you ever been isolated? Is it hard? Is there a difference from being alone to being lonely? Can you be lonely in the midst of people? Can you be isolated yet not lonely? What makes the difference?

I have many patients who struggle with loneliness, they fear isolation, fear being alone. They believe the worst thing possible is to be a single person and so they constantly seek relationships.

Question – what is worse, to be a single adult, or to marry the wrong person?

While God made us for relationship, including marriage relationship, that doesn't mean marriage to anyone is better than not being married.

Thoughts?

What impact does social isolation and lack of human contact have upon developing children?

The study of the effects on human infants of extreme deprivation, in particular the emotional and tactile care-giving aspects, was carried out on infants reared in Romanian orphanages. At the age of two years, these children did not show the usual variation of cortisol levels that were found in home-reared children. Carlson, M., & Earls, F. (1997) Psychological and neuro-endocrinological sequelae of early social deprivation in institutionalized children in Romania. Annals of the New York Academy of Sciences, 807, 419-428.

Studies from Romanian orphanages reveal that childhood neglect, lack of nurture, caressing, holding, touching etc. results in alteration in neural development including the oxytocin/vasopressin system related to human bonding. <http://www.pnas.org/content/102/51/18247.full.pdf+html?sid=56a8f379-e1bc-4846-a9b6-2ad4db43d791>

These brain changes increase the rates of mental and physical illness in adults who were neglected as children.

SUNDAY

The dark section in the lesson states, “How does...”

What characters did our first parents have?

Not a shadow interposed between them and their Creator. They knew God as their beneficent Father, and in all things their will was conformed to the will of God. And God's character was reflected in the character of Adam. His glory was revealed in every object of nature. {AH 26.4}

What is the character of God? The lesson states it nicely, “The unselfish love and concern for others that marked Jesus’ life also must have been reflected to some degree in Adam and Eve before the Fall, who were from creation made ‘in the image of God.’”

What happened? They sinned, but why? What was God’s design, purpose? Why did God put the tree of knowledge in the Garden? What did He warn them would happen?

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. Gen. 2:17. {CC 13.1}

What is the warning here? What was actually said? How do we interpret the meaning of the text? Did God say, “if you eat I will be forced, in order to be just, to execute you”? Does this text tell us why they would die?

Our first parents, though created innocent and holy, were not placed beyond the possibility of wrongdoing. . . . They were to enjoy communion with God and with holy angels; but before they could be rendered eternally secure, their loyalty must be tested. At the very beginning of man's existence a check was placed upon the desire for self-indulgence, the fatal passion that lay at the foundation of Satan's fall. The tree of knowledge, which stood near the tree of life in the midst of the garden, was to be a test of the obedience, faith, and love of our first parents. While permitted to eat freely of every other tree, they were forbidden to taste of this, on pain of death. They were also to be exposed to the temptations of Satan; but if they endured the trial, they would finally be placed beyond his power, to enjoy perpetual favor with God. . . . {CC 13.2}

How do you hear this? What does it mean? Why test their loyalty? On pain of death? Does that mean God would have to inflict death if they disobey, or could it mean that if they disobey they will deviate from the basis of life and the only result is death? If God said you are forbidden to jump off the Empire State Building on “pain of death” would that mean God would kill them if they did? How do we know which way? Keep reading – next paragraph.

God might have created man without the power to transgress His law; He might have withheld the hand of Adam from touching the forbidden fruit; but in that case man would have been, not a free moral agent, but a mere automation. Without freedom of choice, his obedience would not have been voluntary, but forced. There could have been no development of character. . . . It would have been unworthy of man as an intelligent being, and would have sustained Satan's charge of God's arbitrary rule. {CC 13.3}

Why was the tree placed in the Garden? What was God's goal for mankind? What was mankind to accomplish?

God made man upright; He gave him noble traits of character, with no bias toward evil. He endowed him with high intellectual powers, and presented before him the strongest possible inducements to be true to his allegiance. Obedience, perfect and perpetual, was the condition of eternal happiness. On this condition he was to have access to the tree of life. . . . {CC 13.4}

What was the condition of eternal happiness? Why? If God said, as long as you obey and don't jump off the Empire State Building, this is a condition of eternal happiness or health – what would it mean? Is it similar? Do violations of God's law cause God to become an enforcer of pain, suffering and death, or do violations of God's law damage us and result in our suffering and death – unless remedied?

Here is another place she states it:

The Lord placed man upon probation, that he might form a character of steadfast integrity for his own happiness and for the glory of his Creator. He had endowed Adam with powers of mind superior to any other creature that He had made. His mental powers were but little lower than those of the angels. He could become familiar with the sublimity and glory of nature, and understand the character of his heavenly Father in His created works. Amid the glories of Eden, everything that his eye rested upon testified of his Father's love and infinite power. {Con 12.1}

What was Satan's allegations as to why death would come if one broke the law?

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. When men broke the law of God, and defied His will, Satan exulted. It was proved, he declared, that the law could not be obeyed; man could not be forgiven. Because he, after his rebellion, had been banished from heaven, Satan claimed that the human race must be forever shut out from God's favor. God could not be just, he urged, and yet show mercy to the sinner. {DA 761.4}

What is Satan's position? Why can mankind be saved and Satan cannot?

But even as a sinner, man was in a different position from that of Satan. Lucifer in heaven had sinned in the light of God's glory. To him as to no other created being was given a revelation of God's love. Understanding the character of God, knowing His goodness, Satan chose to follow his own selfish, independent will. This choice was final. There was no more that God could do to save him. But man was deceived; his mind was darkened by Satan's sophistry. The height and depth of the love of God he did not know. For him there was hope in a knowledge of God's love. By beholding His character he might be drawn back to God. {DA 761.5}

What does this mean? That Satan, at some point, solidified his character in selfishness to the point it could not be changed. What draws us back to God? The truth about God's character of love!

Through Jesus, God's mercy was manifested to men; but mercy does not set aside justice. The law reveals the attributes of God's character, and not a jot or tittle of it could be changed to meet man in his fallen condition. God did not change His law, but He sacrificed Himself, in Christ, for man's redemption. "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself." 2 Cor. 5:19. {DA 762.1}

What is God's character? Love, what does the law reveal? The law of love, the principle of life. It cannot be changed to meet man in his fallen condition, but sacrificed Himself in Christ for our redemption - what does this mean?

Imagine someone breaks the law of respiration and ties a plastic bag over their head to selfishly hoard their CO₂ – can the law be changed to meet this person in their condition? No! Will someone coming and tying a bag over their own head and dying to pay a legal penalty help them? What is needed, the plastic bag needs to be removed. Notice in the very next paragraph what she says Christ came to do, to achieve justice!

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

What does the law require? Why does the law require this? Why does the law of respiration require the bag be removed? Christ came to earth and did what? Developed a perfect character and offers this as a free gift – to us, He doesn't offer a legal payment to His Father or the law, this was never required. What was required was that we are back in harmony with the design template for life. It is so simple and sensible! Thus Christ restores us back to His original image!

MONDAY

Romans 14:7 For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone.

What does this passage mean? How do we impact each other?

What about the adage "I'm not hurting anyone but myself?" Or, "Its my life I can do with it what I want?"

What is the root to sin? Selfishness, have we become so selfish we have lost the ability to empathize, to appreciate how we are all interconnected?

A 2007 study of 16,475 college students who completed an evaluation called the Narcissistic Personality Inventory between 1982 and 2006 found that measures of narcissism have risen steadily in the 25 years covered by the study. By 2006 two thirds of the students had above average scores, which was 30% higher than in 1982.

The study asserts that narcissists "are more likely to have romantic relationships that are short-lived, at risk for infidelity, lack emotional warmth, and to exhibit game-playing, dishonesty, and over-controlling and violent behaviors."

Twenge, the author of "Generation Me: Why Today's Young Americans Are More Confident, Assertive, Entitled — and More Miserable Than Ever Before," said narcissists tend to lack empathy, react aggressively to criticism and favor self-promotion over helping others.

"Permissiveness seems to be a component," he said. "A potential antidote would be more authoritative.

<http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,254904,00.html>

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “All humanity...” thoughts? What does it mean? How would you explain it?

Read third paragraph, “No one hates his...” thoughts?

I have patients who hate their bodies, their looks, some have something called Body Dysmorphic Disorder, others have obesity, others have chronic pain states, others are paralyzed – I have patients who hate their bodies. Paul himself said, “what a wretched man am I who will save me from this body of death.”

Why do people not like their bodies? What is the common underlying theme? That something is wrong, something isn't working like it was designed to work and what we don't like is the dysfunction. Should we hate our bodies or simply work to fix what is wrong, if possible?

When we think about relationships, the church does the church ever get dysfunctional? Are there elements in the church that sometimes don't function properly? Should we hate our church or simply work to fix what is wrong, if possible?

Do relationships affect our emotional and physical health?

Absolutely!

WEDNESDAY

The lesson asks us to consider some Bible passages and inquire what lessons we can learn from these:

- By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” John 13:35
- Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. Romans 15:7

- Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Ephesians 4:32
- Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. Colossians 3:13
- Therefore encourage each other with these words. 1Thes 4:18
- Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective. James 5:16
- Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble. 1Peter 3:8
- Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 1Peter 4:9
- But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin. 1John 1:7

Read last paragraph, “An outstanding...” thoughts?

What does love look like in action? Consider Helen Keller, has anyone seen the movie The Miracle Worker?

Did Helen’s mother love Helen? How did the mother treat Helen? What was happening to Helen? What about Annie Sullivan? How did she treat Helen? Was it love? Who did Helen in the end love more? Why?

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, “Think for a moment...” thoughts? This is right, we were designed for service, to give, giving is living, this is the law of love in action. It results in greater health across the board.

Fear results in greater self focus and taking, protecting, hoarding, exploiting, etc. and is the medium of isolation and death. But love is the medium of other centered regard and brings healing and life.

If we refuse to live a life of love what happens? Does God have to use His power to inflict pain and suffering? Why or why not?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-3

Redemption in Romans Lesson 2 3Q 2010

Jew and Gentile

SABBATH

Read first three paragraphs, "The first converts..."

Thoughts? Are SDAs accused of being Judaizers because of adherence to the Commandments, or because of adherence to the Commandments in a manner like the Jews did?

How did the Jews keep the commandments? What, then was there problem? Do we have such problems?

And was that the purpose of the 10 Commandments? Were they given by God as a list of deeds to be done, a checklist of behaviors to perform?

No! What was the purpose of the law?

- The law was added so that the trespass might increase.
Romans 5:20

What does this mean? So that sin might become recognizable, so that we might see it more clearly and then see how ubiquitous sin really is:

- What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed I would not have known what sin was except through the law.
Romans 7:7

The law then is like an MRI for the soul. It is a diagnostic tool, to expose our sickness, our terminal state. If we are right in understanding this then who is the law given for?

- We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. We also know that law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me. 1Tim 1:8-11

So, if we are right about the law – that it is a diagnostic tool, given for the wicked, the sinful, then what is its purpose? What is it to do for us?

- So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ that we might be justified by faith. Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law. Galatians 3:24,25.

What is the law to do? Diagnose us and lead us to Christ, for what purpose?

Is the law given so that we can work to keep it in order to demonstrate to God we are worthy?

Is the law a diagnostic instrument to convict us of our helpless and hopeless state, if left to ourselves? And therefore, to lead us to Christ, so He can set us right with God when we trust Him.

What is this faith or trust?

First, recently some have suggested we teach a works model because we say that in order to experience God's saving grace in our lives we have to trust God, and therefore, this trust is a work we do. They counter that in the penal model, rather than having to trust, they have faith in what Christ has done.

The Greek word for faith is pistis and means, "belief with the predominate idea of trust (or confidence) whether in God or in Christ"¹

¹Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G4102

So, faith, belief, trust, confidence are all synonyms. So what is it?

- Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Heb 11:1

What does this mean? Substance, comes from Greek hupostasis and has two parts, “hypo” as hypoglycemic, hypodermic and means under, and stasis, means standing. In 1611, there wasn’t much archeological evidence of this word, so they translated it to Latin, and the Latin for under is “sub” as in submarine, subterranean, etc. and stasis, was stance. So substance. Our English translation would be “faith is our understanding.”

But this understanding is more than a cognitive understanding. Archeological evidence discovered after 1611 revealed this Greek word was used as the title for business contracts. Thus, faith is our contract, or agreement, or accord, or understanding with God.

Thus EGW states,

- Saving faith is a transaction by which those who receive Christ join themselves in covenant relation with God. DA 347.

So when we have “faith” in God, we have an understanding with Him and what would that understanding be?

We enter into a transaction with God – what is that transaction?

We trust Him, surrender ourselves into His hands, follow where He leads, and He will save and heal and regenerate us.

Then how do the 10 Commandments fit in?

After being diagnosed as terminal, after being led back to Christ, after reviewing the evidence Christ has provided of His trustworthiness, after the Holy Spirit has brought us to conviction, we choose to surrender our lives to Christ. We trust Him and the Holy Spirit indwells our minds and we experience new motives, desires, insights, wisdom, perspective and as we continue in our contract, transaction with God, to choose to do what He leads, we experience greater and greater healing and transformation.

In other words, the saving and healing is done all by God, in those, who trust Him! The 10 Commandments then are not only a diagnostic instrument to diagnose and lead us to Christ, but God's promise of what we will look like when He finishes with us!

What is the difference in this experience and being a Judaizer? Did the Jews view the law as an arbitrary test of obedience? Do any Christians make the same mistake today? What about SDAs?

What about the New Covenant, what is it? How is it different from the Old Covenant?

As the Bible presents two laws, one changeless and eternal, the other provisional and temporary, so there are two covenants. The covenant of grace was first made with man in Eden, when after the Fall, there was given a divine promise that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head. To all men this covenant offered pardon, and the assisting grace of God for future obedience through faith in Christ. It also promised them eternal life on condition of fidelity to God's law. Thus the patriarchs received the hope of salvation. {FLB 77.2}

This same covenant was renewed to Abraham in the promise, "In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed." Gen. 22:18. This promise pointed to Christ. So Abraham understood it, and he trusted in Christ for the forgiveness of sins. It was this faith that was accounted unto him for righteousness. The covenant with Abraham also maintained the authority of God's law. The Lord appeared unto Abraham, and said, "I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect." The testimony of God concerning His faithful servant was, "Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws." Gen. 17:1; 26:5. . . . {FLB 77.3}

The Abrahamic covenant was ratified by the blood of Christ, and it is called the "second," or "new," covenant, because the blood by which it was sealed was shed after the blood of the first covenant. {FLB 77.4}

The covenant of grace is not a new truth, for it existed in the mind of God from all eternity. This is why it is called the everlasting covenant. {FLB 77.5}

There is hope for us only as we come under the Abrahamic covenant, which is the covenant of grace by faith in Christ Jesus. The gospel preached to Abraham, through which he had hope, was the same gospel that is preached to us today. . . . Abraham looked unto Jesus, who is also the author and the finisher of our faith. {FLB 77.6}

Thoughts?

SUNDAY

First I want to commend the study guide for paragraph number three, "Meanwhile, ..." well said.

Read first paragraph, "Perhaps..." thoughts?

"Only through the atonement He provided could they have their sins forgiven." – what does this mean?

- without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. Heb 9:22

What does it mean to have one's sins forgiven?

- Does it mean that God personally pardons?
- Does it mean that we are reconciled to God and sin is removed from us?
- Does it mean both?

Could God do the first (personally pardon) without Christ's death?

Could God do the second (heal and restore) without Christ's death?

Was Christ's death needed to enable God to personally pardon?

- But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He "will abundantly pardon," He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:7-9. God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

Thoughts? Notice forgiveness is much more than God's pardon, it includes the cleansing of the sinner, the renewal of our hearts, the removal of fear and selfishness from our characters!

One of the deceptions is to get people to misunderstand forgiveness as judicial or legal, something that happens in record books, because this obscures the reality of what God wants to do in us!

The paragraph talked about standing before God without condemnation occurs from the imputation of Christ's perfect life. What does this mean?

Consider this statement:

- "In My name," Christ bade His disciples pray. In Christ's name His followers are to stand before God. Through the value of the sacrifice made for them, they are of value in the Lord's sight. Because of the imputed righteousness of Christ they are accounted precious. For Christ's sake the Lord pardons those that fear Him. He does not see in them the vileness of the sinner. He recognizes in them the likeness of His Son, in whom they believe. {DA 667.5}

How do you like this paragraph? Could it sound like Christ is influencing God? Could it sound like “accounting” tricks in heaven? Could it sound like God’s value of us is because of Jesus? Yes, if we read this in isolation, but what if we read the next couple of paragraphs – do they clarify and enlighten the meaning?

The Lord is disappointed when His people place a low estimate upon themselves. He desires His chosen heritage to value themselves according to the price He has placed upon them. God wanted them, else He would not have sent His Son on such an expensive errand to redeem them. He has a use for them, and He is well pleased when they make the very highest demands upon Him, that they may glorify His name. They may expect large things if they have faith in His promises. {DA 668.1}

But to pray in Christ's name means much. It means that we are to accept His character, manifest His spirit, and work His works. The Saviour's promise is given on condition. "If ye love Me," He says, "keep My commandments." He saves men, not in sin, but from sin; and those who love Him will show their love by obedience. {DA 668.2}

All true obedience comes from the heart. It was heart work with Christ. And if we consent, He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will, that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses. The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service. When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him, our life will be a life of continual obedience. Through an appreciation of the character of Christ, through communion with God, sin will become hateful to us. {DA 668.3}

Thoughts?

Why does the Father see us in the purity of Christ? Because Christ actually lives in the believer!

Read last paragraph, “Helping both...” thoughts? Why a transition, did the salvation process change? Were Jews before Christ saved in a different way than Christians after Christ? What needed to change? Why would it take time? Does this have any bearing on us today?

MONDAY

Third paragraph, “The moral law...” nicely said, it is a summary, it is not the entirety or fullness of the law, but a distillation of the law of love, written for this creation’s need.

What evidence do we have that the 10 Commandments were not always in existence but added for our need?

- Did angels have things pass down the generations?
- Did angels need to honor mother and father?
- Did angels need a prohibition on adultery?
- The Sabbath is measure by what? When was the sun created?
- The law of God existed before man was created. The angels were governed by it. Satan fell because he transgressed the principles of God's government. After Adam and Eve were created, God made known to them His law. It was not then written, but was rehearsed to them by Jehovah. {SR 145.1}
- The Sabbath of the fourth commandment was instituted in Eden. After God had made the world and created man upon the earth, He made the Sabbath for man. After Adam's sin and fall nothing was taken from the law of God. The principles of the Ten Commandments existed before the fall and were of a character suited to the condition of a holy order of beings. After the fall the principles of those precepts were not changed, but additional precepts were given to meet man in his fallen state. {SR 145.2}

What was the purpose of the feast days in the OT?

Festivals to remind the people of God's plan of salvation. Was there some form of cleansing from sin inherent in the festivals? In OT times was it required to keep the festivals in order to be saved?

Nebuchadnezzar, Naaman, others?

Today some suggest that it is a requirement, if it wasn't a requirement then, how much less so now.

TUESDAY

The early church was turned to confusion by a group of Pharisees who argued that the Gentiles must be circumcised. Where were they turning the focus?

To behavior, performance, acts, deeds, law. Where was the focus to be turned? To Christ, God's character of love, renewal of heart and mind to be recreated to love others and die to selfishness.

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

What should our attitude be toward church leadership? Should we be respectful? Should we surrender our thinking? Does a position of leadership in the church ensure that the leader is correct or right?

Caiaphas was High Priest, was he right? Was he even on God's side of the controversy?

What should Martin Luther have done when church leadership met, had counsels, and the leaders voted that he was wrong?

Do we determine truth by vote of church leaders? What if the issues are unrelated to truth?

What did EGW do when the church leaders wanted her to go to Australia? Did she have a word for the Lord she was to go? No, but she went. Was going to Australia compromising the truth? No.

We may find ourselves worshipping in places because leadership votes, but voting of committees cannot determine truth. Truth originates in God and is truth regardless of leadership. Our ideas and opinions must be in harmony with the evidences of God's word, not the opinions of man, even if those men hold leadership positions in the church.

Have we sought separation from our church? What do we do when leadership is not open to unity, communication, reconciliation?

We humbly pray for God's healing of our church and continue to present the truth in love exercising patience.

WEDNESDAY

The church leadership determined that the Gentiles were not to be burdened with Jewish traditions. But they did instruct them to not eat blood, animals sacrificed to idols and against adultery.

Read last paragraph – “Although Jewish...” thoughts? What do you think about the reason given for keeping these restrictions, to not be an offense to the Jews?

I don't think that was the reason. I think it was to help cleanse the minds of the Gentiles, to protect them from old habit patterns of thinking.

The Gentiles had worshipped idols, often related to fertility and believed the idols had power. The rules were to prevent the slippage into old thinking and to allow faith in God.

Why not food offered to idols, so that the blessings they were receiving would be clearly attributed to God. To prevent the temptation in their mind, did this good thing happen because of Jesus or because of the idol, since I am eating food blessed by the idol. Avoiding all such things eliminates such questions.

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, “It is an...” thoughts?

What do you think about the language “binding”? How are the 10 Commandments binding?

Which law was being talked about in the book of Galatians? Both laws,

I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments...

"The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). In this scripture, the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. {1SM 233, 234}

What did Paul say would happen to those who bring another gospel?

But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! ⁹ As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned! Gal 1:8,9 Anathama, damned to hell – why? Is Paul calling for God to do this? Or is Paul announcing the only possible outcome? What happens to someone who accepts and teaches a false gospel?

If a person is in a terminal state, rejects the only cure, and promotes a counterfeit which will not heal, what is the only possible outcome? And this is what Paul is saying.

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

FRIDAY- Read first paragraph, “But if...” thoughts? What did they lose? Questions 1 and 2 read and discuss.

Redemption in Romans Lesson 3 3Q 2010

All Have Sinned

SABBATH

Read first sentence, “Unless a person acknowledges that he or she is unrighteous, that person will sense no need for justification (God’s declaration of a sinner as righteous in His eyes).” Thoughts?

First, do we agree that a person generally doesn’t seek help if they don’t recognize there is a problem? Do you call a repairman if something isn’t broken? Do you go to the ER if something isn’t wrong? Do we need a Savior if we are not sinners, if we are not dying?

So, of course, if we deny we have a problem, if we deny we are sinners, then we will not be open to God’s salvation.

As we anticipate next week’s lesson consider the second part of the sentence? Is justification God doing something to God so He can change the way He sees us? “I God declare that I know see this sinner as righteous. Wink, wink, angels in heaven, we all know the sinner isn’t righteous, but let’s all pretend he is because I have declared it so.”?

Next week the entire lesson is on justification by faith, so consider this issue as we prepare for next week’s lesson.

Read last two paragraphs, “Ellen, G. White makes it...” thoughts?

How do you hear the phrase “liquidate the debt of his transgression”? What does it mean?

What does liquidate mean? It means, according to Miriam Webster’s dictionary:

1 a (1) : to determine by agreement or by litigation the precise amount of (indebtedness, damages, or accounts) (2) : to determine the liabilities and apportion assets toward discharging the indebtedness of b : to settle (a debt) by payment or other settlement

2 archaic : to make clear

3 : to do away with

4 : to convert (assets) into cash

Which definition do you think fits best?

What about debt, what does it mean?

1 Sin, trespass

2 Something owed

Which fits best?

Christ's righteousness alone can avail for what? With whom?

Christ ever lives to make intercession, interceding to accomplish what? Interceding with what or with whom?

Let's first answer the question of righteousness and in doing so turn to SUNDAY's lesson

SUNDAY

Read top dark section, - thoughts? First, what is the power of God? The gospel – is the gospel a laser weapon? Is it a flaming sword? Is it thunder and fire coming down from heaven? Why is it some insist that God's power is something that coerces, pressures, punishes, controls?

What is more powerful coercive power or the power of love? What never fails?

What is righteousness?

The lesson states righteousness is being right with God, what do you think about this? What does it mean to be right with God?

What is it that prevents us from being right with God?

- Is being right with God, being “declared” right?
- Is it doing something to God so He will consider us right?
- Is it Christ doing something to hide us from God and getting God to see us as right, when we are not yet right?
- Can we be legally right without being changed in some real way?

What is wrong that keeps us from being right with God? Is there something wrong with God? Is there something wrong with us?

Can we fix what is wrong with us and thereby set us right with God?

Can God fix what is wrong with us and thereby set us right with Him?

Does this give us insight as to why it is only the “righteousness” that comes from God that is acceptable? Why?

How does Christ set us right with God?

- The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

THURSDAY

Read top paragraph – thoughts?

Can God enforce His law? Is God's law enforceable?

What is God's law? The law of love? And what does it look like to be in harmony with God's law? Would repentance be part of that?

Can God get repentance by the exercise of force? What about love? What about enjoyment in the Sabbath? What about cheerful giving?

Where is it that God wants to put His law? Can God get His law into our hearts by the exercise of might and power? Can He force it in?

"The Holy Spirit will not compel men to take a certain course of action. We are free moral agents; and when sufficient evidence has been given us as to our duty, it is left with us to decide our course." Review and Herald, July 17, 1888

Read second paragraph, which is well said, "We should notice..." thoughts?

Then the lesson, after this very positive insight regarding God's inability to get forgiveness, or anything else He wants by the exercise of force, asks:

"What comes to those who resist God's love, refuse to repent, and remain in disobedience? Rom. 2:5-10."

But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed. ⁶ God "will give to each person according to what he has done." ⁷ To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor and immortality, he will give eternal life. ⁸ But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger. ⁹ There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile; ¹⁰ but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

The Bible said it – do we believe it? What does it mean?

If we let Paul, who wrote this to Romans, define what he means by wrath a few verses earlier, then what do we learn? What is wrath?

Chapter one starting in verse 18 Paul tells us that God's wrath is letting people go to reap that which they have sown. It is God's suspending His intervention/intercession. It is God no longer holding back the consequences of unremedied sin.

According to Paul, from where does the punishment come?

The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; Galatians 6:8

What about God's judgment, what is it? Does God's judgment determine the condition, situation or punishment of the wicked? Or is it merely the proper and accurate diagnosis or judgment of what their situation or condition already is? Any examples?

Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone! Hosea 4:17

Or from Great Controversy:

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable. They have no disposition to submit to divine authority. Their will has been exercised in revolt; and when life is ended, it is too late to turn the current of their thoughts in the opposite direction, too late to turn from transgression to obedience, from hatred to love. {GC 543.1}

What is God's judgment? Does God's judgment cause it or merely confirm what already is true?

Why do the wicked suffer and die?

They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. 2 Thes 2:10

So what is Paul saying? That all humans, whether Jew or Greek are infected with selfishness, which is outside God's design protocols for life, the law of love. We can't fix or heal ourselves and only by accepting the truth about God and trusting Him can we be restored to unity with Him. Those who refuse the truth and prefer lies about God will have their condition worsen, and when Christ returns He accurately diagnoses everyone and each person will suffer according to their own unhealed condition.

So, knowing all of this how do we help someone who is like the little boy in the first paragraph of today's lesson?

MONDAY

Romans 3:23 "All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God."

Thoughts about this passage? What does it mean?

Who is all? Is it all intelligent beings in the universe? Is it all humans? Except Jesus.

How do we fall short of God's glory? When in our lives did we leave the fullness of God's glory to a place where we fall short? Were we born short of God's glory? Was the condition of our birth our fault?

Does God know that you and I as individuals were born short of His glory?

So is this being short of God's glory primarily about a choice we have made to leave God's glory or about a condition into which we were born?

Has God provided opportunity for us to be restored to His glory? Is this the choice He sets before us – remain outside my ideal, my design, my glory – or let me restore you?

Does paying a legal penalty restore a sinner to God’s glory?

TUESDAY

The lesson asks us to read Romans 1:22-32 and then asks how this is similar today. But I would like to start in verse 18 and go through 32.

What do you hear as the primary problem? What did Paul say six times is the problem? The truth about God has been exchanged for a lie – and what was the result of doing this?

Their minds became futile, depraved and darkened – and when that happened what happened to their behavior? What kind of sins did Paul list?

Was it just sexual sins? Or others?

They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; ³¹ they are senseless, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Verses 29-31.

And how was it they were able to become such people? Could they become people like this if the Holy Spirit was dwelling in their lives? Could they become people like this if they were standing in the immediate presence of God?

So, when they insisted on rejecting the truth about God and clinging to false God concepts, and rejecting all efforts to turn them around, what did God do? Verses 24,26, 28, therefore “God gave them up”. And what does Paul call this action on God’s part?

God's wrath!

What are the lessons we are learning here? What happens if we hold to false God concepts? We are damaged in our minds and characters, and we practice what types of behaviors?

Gossip, slander – what would this look like today?

Would it include deception? Would it include using power to coerce and control?

And could it happen because people teach falsehoods in regard to God's character, such as teaching a wrathful God?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

Thousands have a false conception of God and His attributes. They are as verily serving a false god as were the servants of Baal. Are we worshiping the true God as He is revealed in His Word, in Christ, in nature, or are we adoring some philosophical idol enshrined in His place? God is a God of truth. Justice and mercy are the attributes of His throne. He is a God of love, of pity and tender compassion. Thus He is represented in His Son, our Saviour. He is a God of patience and long-suffering. If such is the being whom we adore and to whose character we are seeking to assimilate, we are worshiping the true God. {FLB 59.8}

Wednesday

In what way are all people, Jews, Gentiles, all in the same situation?

If we are all in the same situation then how can we criticize or judge each other?

Do we? How?

Read last paragraph, "Paul's point..." thoughts?

What is the divine standard? Why don't we meet it?

What does it mean we are condemned? How are we condemned?

What or who condemns us?

“Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” MT 21:33-37

Thoughts?

Why is there no hope without Christ?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, “A terrible picture...” thoughts?

Redemption in Romans Lesson 4 3Q 2010

Justified by Faith

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs, “In this lesson...” thoughts?

Does this description bring you comfort?

What if we add to it the description from lesson 3 on Sabbath, where it describes justification in these words, “God’s declaration of a sinner as righteous in His eyes.” Or from this week’s lesson on Tuesday, “We are justified when we are ‘declared righteous’ by God.”

Any questions about this theory? Are there any problems?

What assumptions are made?

- Justification is a legal problem
- Sin is a legal problem
- Sin and crime are synonymous – thus sin is behavioral
- Justification is the process of changing our records
- Justification happens by declaration
- Sin can be transferred
- Pardon is the goal
- Justification is God doing something to change how God sees us
- Most egregious of all - In God’s government it is “legal” to punish the innocent in place of the guilty
 - How would you like to live in a kingdom in which innocent people could be punished in place of the guilty?
 - What does such a concept do? It makes God’s law arbitrary – there is no relationship to cause and effect, the natural laws of God can be voided. It undermines the entire foundation of God’s universe.

EGW had concerns about how justification was taught:

- The danger has been presented to me again and again of entertaining, as a people, false ideas of justification by faith. I have been shown for years that Satan would work in a special manner to confuse the mind on this point. The law of God has been largely dwelt upon and has been presented to congregations, almost as destitute of the knowledge of Jesus Christ and His relation to the law as was the offering of Cain. I have been shown that many have been kept from the faith because of the mixed, confused ideas of salvation, because the ministers have worked in a wrong manner to reach hearts. The point that has been urged upon my mind for years is the imputed righteousness of Christ. I have wondered that this matter was not made the subject of discourses in our churches throughout the land, when the matter has been kept so constantly urged upon me, and I have made it the subject of nearly every discourse and talk that I have given to the people. {FW 18.1}

What was her concern? That justification would take a legal emphasis, that the law would be depleted of the true knowledge of Christ. Christ is the living law, the law of love, a living being, a person. When you hear the description of justification given by the lesson guide what do you hear? Do you hear mainly a legal description? Is it destitute of Christ?

What would Paul say if he were in class today and you asked him, “what did you mean by justification?” Most likely he would say, “I never heard of that word.”

Paul wrote in Greek, justification is a Latin based word. One of the reasons we hear so much “legality” to the plan of salvation is that our legal language is derived from Latin, and many of the terms in theology have a Latin base:

- Justification
- Sanctification

- Propitiation
- Expiation

When Paul wrote Romans he used these words:

Dikaosune – Righteousness or justice (Romans 3:21,22,25, 26; 4:3,5)

Dikaioo – To be or make righteous, to justify (Romans 3:24, 26 4:2,5)

Turn to Tuesday’s lesson and let’s read the first paragraph, “What is the idea...” thoughts?

What do you think of the conclusion? The Greek has three possible meanings, make righteous, declare righteous, consider righteous, do you agree with the lesson’s choice? Will God consider someone righteous who isn’t actually righteous? Does God deceive Himself?

Read next paragraph in Tuesday’s lesson, “Before this justification...” thoughts?

Do you have any problems with this description? Is it in keeping with Scripture?

So what does it mean to be justified by faith? Romans 3:21-31:

But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. ²² This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in his blood. He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— ²⁶ he did it to demonstrate his justice at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

Thoughts?

Here is my paraphrase:

^{3:21} But now God has revealed, a healthy state of being – a character that is right and perfect in everyway, that did not come from the written code, but is exactly what the Scriptures and the 10 Commandments were pointing your minds toward. ²² This perfect state of being comes from God and is created within us by God when we trust him. Our trust in him is established by the evidence given through Jesus Christ of his supreme trustworthiness. There is no difference amongst any ethnic groups, ²³ for all humanity is infected with the same disease of distrust, fear and selfishness, and are deformed in character and fall far short of God's glorious ideal for mankind. ²⁴ Yet all, who are willing, are healed freely by God's gracious remedy that has been provided by Jesus Christ. ²⁵ God presented Jesus as the way and means of restoration. Now, through trust established by the evidence of God's character revealed when Christ died, we may partake of the remedy procured by Christ. God did this to demonstrate he is right and good, because in his forbearance he suspended, for a time, the ultimate consequence of sin and has been falsely accused of being unfair. ²⁶ So, he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so he would be seen as right when he heals those who trust in Jesus.

Thoughts?

When you justify the margin on your document what have you done? Have you declared it to be right or in line? Have you pardoned it? Have you put a special set of glasses on so that when you look at the document it appears to be in line? Or have you actually put what is out of line back in line?

Because of sin, what is out of line, out of harmony, that needs to be put back in line? Our hearts and minds! We no longer know or trust God!

Justification is so simple, it is Christ restoring humanity back into rightness with God in His own personhood on the Cross, when He overcame sin in His human brain. In Christ Jesus the human species was set right with God again. Now, how many specimens will join Him? As individuals we are set right with God when our hearts are won back to trust in Him! This restored trust is being set right with God again!

Romans 4:1-3

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, discovered in this matter? ² If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. ³ What does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

Thoughts? What does “credited” mean? Does it mean to call something that is not righteous, righteous? Does it mean to have an angel in heaven give a notation in the record book – “Abraham is now recognized to be righteous – asterisk but we all know he really isn’t”? Or is it an actual change in Abraham?

The word translated as “credited” or “accounted” or “recognized” is the Greek logizomai and the Strong lexicon states, in regard to this word:

This word deals with reality. If I “logizomai” or reckon that my bank book has $25 in it, it has $25 in it. Otherwise I am deceiving myself. This word refers to facts not suppositions.

¹

So God doesn’t “reckon” someone as righteous that hasn’t had a change of heart to be right with God!

My paraphrase:

¹Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G3049

Romans 4:1 What about our father Abraham, what did he understand about this issue? ² If, Abraham was somehow healed by his own efforts at keeping a set of rules or performing certain rituals, then he would have his own healing formula to promote, and would not need to trust in God. ³ But what does the Scripture say? "Abraham trusted God, and his trust was recognized as righteousness, because the distrust caused through Satan's lies had been removed, and through trust he was endowed with a new heart, right motives and Christlike principles."

A person cannot be justified, set right, without being changed in the process. In fact, it is the change, brought about by God, that sets a person right with God.

Thoughts? So, what might EGW be referring to when she states that false ideas of justification by faith are presented from pulpits?

Could she be referring to the legal, penal, payment, declared without change system taught?

The wedding garment, provided at infinite cost, is freely offered to every soul. By the messengers of God are presented to us the righteousness of Christ, justification by faith, the exceeding great and precious promises of God's word, free access to the Father by Christ, the comfort of the Spirit, the well-grounded assurance of eternal life in the kingdom of God. COL 317.

Is she describing justification as something that happens in record books or within people?

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa. 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps. 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Can we be covered with the wedding garment without a change in the believer? Can we be justified without being changed?

Earlier we read a statement about justification being equivalent with the imputed righteousness of Christ – what is this?

Traditionally, Christians have claimed imputed righteousness is something God legally accounts to us, but which does not occur in us. They say imparted righteousness is what occurs within us.

Consider these EGW quotes and tell me if she is describing something that is merely accounted, declared, considered, reckoned, or is she describing something that is actually occurring within the believer?

- Abundant grace has been provided that the believing soul may be kept free from sin; for all heaven, with its limitless resources, has been placed at our command. We are to draw from the well of salvation. . . . In ourselves we are sinners; but in Christ we are righteous. Having made us righteous through the imputed righteousness of Christ, God pronounces us just, and treats us as just. He looks upon us as His dear children. Christ works against the power of sin, and where sin abounded, grace much more abounds. {God's Amazing Grace 181.4}

- Is made and declared the same?
- Where does sin abound, in books or people?
- But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18). Beholding Christ means studying His life as given in His Word. We are to dig for truth as for hidden treasure. We are to fix our eyes upon Christ. When we take Him as our personal Saviour, this gives us boldness to approach the throne of grace. By beholding we become changed, morally assimilated to the One who is perfect in character. By receiving His imputed righteousness, through the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, we become like Him. The image of Christ is cherished, and it captivates the whole being. {God's Amazing Grace 96.4}
- We aim too low. The mark is much higher. Our minds need expansion, that we may comprehend the significance of the provision of God. We are to reflect the highest attributes of the character of God. . . . The law of God is the exalted standard to which we are to attain through the imputed righteousness of Christ. {OHC 364.2}
- He would have us comprehend something of His love in giving His Son to die that He might counteract evil, remove the defiling stains of sin from the workmanship of God, and reinstate the lost, elevating and ennobling the soul to its original purity through Christ's imputed righteousness.

TMK 206

If justification is receiving the imputed righteousness of Christ can it be done without a change in the believer?

Does God declare things to be which are not? How do we understand the aspect of justification which is God declaring us righteous?

When Jesus was on earth and declared that the leaders were of their father the devil – was it so, or was Jesus declaring something that was not so? And were they of their father the devil because Jesus declared it to be, or did Jesus declare it because it was so?

Is this an example of how we understand the declarative aspects of justification by faith? Does God declare us to be righteous when we are not? Does His declaration make it so, or after God having set us right with Him (justified us) does He also declare the reality if that change?

Now is some language easier to understand than other language? Was the reference just read fairly easy to comprehend? What about this one?

As the penitent sinner, contrite before God, discerns Christ's atonement in his behalf and accepts this atonement as his only hope in this life and the future life, his sins are pardoned. This is justification by faith. Every believing soul is to conform his will entirely to God's will and keep in a state of repentance and contrition, exercising faith in the atoning merits of the Redeemer and advancing from strength to strength, from glory to glory. {FW 103.1}

Pardon and justification are one and the same thing. Through faith, the believer passes from the position of a rebel, a child of sin and Satan, to the position of a loyal subject of Christ Jesus, not because of an inherent goodness, but because Christ receives him as His child by adoption. The sinner receives the forgiveness of his sins, because these sins are borne by his Substitute and Surety. The Lord speaks to His heavenly Father, saying: "This is My child, I relieve him from the condemnation of death, giving him My life insurance policy--eternal life--because I have taken his place and have suffered for his sins. He is even My beloved son." Thus man, pardoned, and clothed with the beautiful garments of Christ's righteousness, stands faultless before God. {FW 103.2}

Justification is the opposite of condemnation. God's boundless mercy is exercised toward those who are wholly undeserving. He forgives transgressions and sins for the sake of Jesus, who has become the propitiation for our sins. Through faith in Christ, the guilty transgressor is brought into favor with God and into the strong hope of life eternal. {FW 104.1}

Thoughts?

What does it mean to have our sins pardoned or forgiven? Here is another place the penal model makes a mistake – they describe forgiveness merely as legal pardon, which required Christ's death to achieve. Not so:

But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He "will abundantly pardon," He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:7-9. God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

When we understand forgiveness is not mere pardon, but the actual process of reclaiming us from sin, of healing us, of removing sinfulness from our hearts and minds, then does it make sense why Jesus' death was necessary? Does it make sense how justification and pardon are the same thing?

If we include that justification is also the possessing the robe of righteousness and the robe of righteousness means the mind and heart are aligned again with God, does it make sense?

In Romans 3:4 Paul says, God may you be proved right or shown to be right, when you are judged. The Greek here is Dikaioo which is the same as in the earlier passages and means to justify. How do we understand it? Did God need to be pardoned? No! When we interpret justify as legal we miss the reality of what is transpiring.

Did God need to have the allegations of sin removed from Him? Did He need to have Satan's lies removed from His reputation in the minds of intelligent beings? Did God's reputation and character need to be put right in our minds again?

Why is justification the opposite of condemnation? Why are we condemned?

- “Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” Matt 12:33-37

What condemns us? Our very condition, either we have been justified and have Christ reproduced within, not by our work, but by abiding in a trust relationship with Him, or we have not.

What does it mean God forgives for Jesus sake? Jesus is the means of removing our sin and restoring us to Holiness. God could not accomplish His purpose without Jesus and what He accomplished. So it is because of Jesus success that God is able to heal us, or remove our sinfulness from us and restore us to His original ideal. And this is what it means to forgive – “reclaiming from sin.”

- God was in the Son reconciling the world to Himself 2Cor 5:19

- For God so loved the world... John 3:16
- If God is for us... Romans 8:31

What about Jesus taking our sins? What does this mean?

Isa 53:4:

Surely our griefs He himself bore, and our sorrows He carried; yet we ourselves esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.(NAS)

Matt 8:16-17:

16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill

17 in order that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, "He Himself took our infirmities, and carried away our diseases." (NAS)

Bearing our griefs and carrying our sorrows does not mean that Christ "paid a legal penalty" for our sins, but instead means that he took away from us our griefs and sorrows (ie took away our sicknesses). He removed fear and selfishness and guilt and shame from our hearts and minds!

Isa 53:5:

But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the chastening for our well-being {fell} upon Him, and by His scourging we are healed. (NAS)

1 Pet 2:24-25:

24 and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.

25 For you were continually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls. (NAS)

By His scourging we are healed does not represent a “legal” transaction in heaven where God’s attitude toward us is “healed”, but instead represents a change in our heart, where we die to sin and live to righteousness, returning to God instead of straying from Him.

Interestingly, the words translated as “sins” and “sin” in this text come from the same Greek word.

1Pet 2:24 hamartia translates as “sin” 172 times, “sinful” once, and “offense” once.²

Why don’t they translate it as “sin” both times? Does it make it clearer?

My paraphrase:

He took upon himself our sinfulness, our terminal condition, in his own person upon the cross, so that we could be freed from sin and live the right way, loving God and others more than ourselves. You have been healed by the remedy his painful ordeal procured.

SUNDAY

The lesson does a good job of pointing out the purpose of the law:

“The law, however, reveals a person’s shortcomings and guilt before God. The law cannot remove the guilt; what it can do is lead a sinner to seek a remedy for it.” – Well said and that remedy comes from Christ!

²Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G266

MONDAY

Read top dark section, “Now the righteousness...” and then second paragraph, “This is, of course...” thoughts?

Question, where is this righteousness, which Christ achieved, which is provided by God and not by observing the law, applied?

Read middle dark section, “Righteousness...” thoughts? How do you hear this? What does it sound like?

What law is referenced in the statement? Is it the law of God? And that law is what? The law of love, which is the basis of life? So why does the law of love demand righteousness? Because it is the design protocol upon which life is constructed to operate.

Why does the law of health demand we breath?

Notice the only way we can attain righteousness is through faith. What does it mean to attain something? Is it merely something that is declared? If someone declares you have a million dollars, is that the same as having attained a million dollars?

So through trust in God we actually attain the righteousness of Christ. It is no longer I that live but Christ lives in me. We become partakers of the divine nature – and this is why and how we, by faith can bring to God the righteousness of Christ.

How and why does the obedience of Christ get placed to our account? Because Christ’s character is reproduced within!

Consider a child with metastatic cancer....

WEDNESDAY

What is propitiation? It comes from the Greek hilasterion and is the name for the lid to the ark of the covenant. Christ is the place and means of restoring us to unity with God.

Read second paragraph, “The text also...” thoughts? Is it our historic behaviors or our condition of sinfulness?

Consider you are being recommended for a position in children’s division at your church, church board considers your name and someone brings up that when you 10 years old you had the measles. Would this disqualify you from being involved with the children? What if you had the measles now?

Is it our historic acts of sin that make us unacceptable or an unregenerated heart, a persistence in sinfulness?

And are “sins” remitted, or is sinfulness remitted? Do the historical facts of history ever get removed? Will Solomon be wiped out as he was conceived after David murdered Uriah and married Bathsheba? What remits, historic acts, or sinfulness in the heart?

Read third paragraph, “The word for remission...”

Remission here is not the best translation –

Romans 3:25

- Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; KJV
- God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in his blood. He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— NIV
- whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; NRSV

It really is better as passing over, or passing by, in other words, God over looked the sins, or passed over them in order to provide remedy.

THURSDAY

Read middle paragraph, “Ellen G. White gives an...” thoughts?

FRIDAY

Any questions from the lesson?

Redemption in Romans Lesson 5 3Q 2010

Justification and the Law

But before we go into this week's lesson, there were a couple of points I wanted to follow up on from last week.

I wanted to follow up on the idea that justification is God declaring something to be so.

Does God declare things to be which are not? Is God's declaration what makes it so? As someone asked, is it when God speaks and it exists?

If God's declaration is what makes one righteous then why doesn't He just declare everyone righteous? Or stated another way, if justification is God declaring someone to be righteous why doesn't God declare everyone righteous and thereby justify everyone?

Can a person be legally right with God while their heart is still unchanged toward God?

How do we understand the declarative aspects of justification?

When Jesus was on earth and declared that the leaders were of their father the devil – was it so, or was Jesus declaring something that was not so? What caused them to be of their father the devil? Jesus' declaration or something that they had chosen?

At the end of time when the wicked are declared to be filthy still and the righteous are declared to be righteous still – will it actually be that way? Will the declaration cause it to be that way?

Is this an example of how we understand the declarative aspects of justification by faith? Does God declare us to be righteous when we are not? Does His declaration make it so, or after God has set us right with Him (justified us) does He also declare the reality if that change?

In the penal model what is emphasized as necessary for our justification? Is it not having our legal penalty paid? Is it not claimed that Christ's death paid the penalty to justify us?

But our model suggests that focusing on a penalty paid misdirects our attention from God's true plan. In other words we suggest that mere blood payment for sin was insufficient to justify us because we didn't need mere legal pardon we need restoration to righteousness in order to be right with God again. With that in mind, what do you think about Romans 4:25 in this regard?

He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

What does it mean? Delivered over is the same Greek as Romans 1:24, 26, 28 when God "let go" sinners to experience their choice. Christ was let go for our sin, what does this mean? It was for the purpose of destroying the infection of selfishness, the carnal nature, our sinfulness, that he was delivered over to death. Yet He was raised to life for our justification? Is this informing us that our justification required more than Christ's death, did it also required His resurrection?

Why? If legal penalty paid is what justifies us, why the need for resurrection?

When we realize that justification is not a legal process of getting a legal penalty paid, but an actual setting right, an actual putting beings right with God again, then we understand it took both Christ's death and resurrection to set humanity right with God again!

Now is some language easier to understand than other language? Was the reference just read fairly easy to comprehend? What about this one?

As the penitent sinner, contrite before God, discerns Christ's atonement in his behalf and accepts this atonement as his only hope in this life and the future life, his sins are pardoned. This is justification by faith. Every believing soul is to conform his will entirely to God's will and keep in a state of repentance and contrition, exercising faith in the atoning merits of the Redeemer and advancing from strength to strength, from glory to glory. {FW 103.1}

Pardon and justification are one and the same thing. Through faith, the believer passes from the position of a rebel, a child of sin and Satan, to the position of a loyal subject of Christ Jesus, not because of an inherent goodness, but because Christ receives him as His child by adoption. The sinner receives the forgiveness of his sins, because these sins are borne by his Substitute and Surety. The Lord speaks to His heavenly Father, saying: "This is My child, I relieve him from the condemnation of death, giving him My life insurance policy--eternal life--because I have taken his place and have suffered for his sins. He is even My beloved son." Thus man, pardoned, and clothed with the beautiful garments of Christ's righteousness, stands faultless before God. {FW 103.2}

Justification is the opposite of condemnation. God's boundless mercy is exercised toward those who are wholly undeserving. He forgives transgressions and sins for the sake of Jesus, who has become the propitiation for our sins. Through faith in Christ, the guilty transgressor is brought into favor with God and into the strong hope of life eternal. {FW 104.1}

Thoughts?

What does it mean to have our sins pardoned or forgiven? Here is another place the penal model diverts our attention from the reality of what Christ has done and is doing – they describe forgiveness merely as legal pardon, which required Christ's death to achieve. Not so:

But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He "will abundantly pardon," He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:7-9. God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

When we understand forgiveness is not mere pardon, but the actual process of reclaiming us from sin, of healing us, of removing sinfulness from our hearts and minds, then does it make sense why Jesus' death and resurrection was necessary? Does it make sense how justification and pardon are the same thing?

Why is justification the opposite of condemnation? Why are we condemned?

- "Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned." Matt 12:33-37

What condemns us? Our very condition, either we have been justified and have Christ reproduced within, not by our work, but by abiding in a trust relationship with Him, or we have not.

What does it mean God forgives for Jesus sake? Jesus is the means of removing our sin and restoring us to Holiness. God could not accomplish His purpose without Jesus and what He accomplished. So it is because of Jesus success that God is able to heal us, or remove our sinfulness from us and restore us to His original ideal. And this is what it means to forgive – “reclaiming from sin.”

- God was in the Son reconciling the world to Himself 2Cor 5:19
- For God so loved the world... John 3:16
- If God is for us... Romans 8:31

What about Jesus taking our sins? What does this mean?

Isa 53:4:

Surely our griefs He himself bore, and our sorrows He carried; yet we ourselves esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.(NAS)

Matt 8:16-17:

16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill

17 in order that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, "He Himself took our infirmities, and carried away our diseases." (NAS)

Bearing our griefs and carrying our sorrows does not mean that Christ “paid a legal penalty” for our sins, but instead means that he took away from us our griefs and sorrows (ie took away our sicknesses). He removed fear and selfishness and guilt and shame from our hearts and minds!

Isa 53:5:

But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the chastening for our well-being {fell} upon Him, and by His scourging we are healed. (NAS)

1 Pet 2:24-25:

24 and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.

25 For you were continually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls. (NAS)

By His scourging we are healed does not represent a “legal” transaction in heaven where God’s attitude toward us is “healed”, but instead represents a change in our heart, where we die to sin and live to righteousness, returning to God instead of straying from Him.

Interestingly, the words translated as “sins” and “sin” in this text come from the same Greek word.

1Pet 2:24 hamartia translates as “sin” 172 times, “sinful” once, and “offense” once.¹

Why don’t they translate it as “sin” both times? Does it make it clearer?

My paraphrase:

He took upon himself our sinfulness, our terminal condition, in his own person upon the cross, so that we could be freed from sin and live the right way, loving God and others more than ourselves. You have been healed by the remedy his painful ordeal procured.

¹Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G266

SABBATH

Read second paragraph, “In Romans 4...” thoughts? Do you agree with stage one, God’s promise to provide all that is needed to save us? Do you agree with stage two, that we respond to God’s initiative by trusting Him? What about stage three? Is it when we trust Him that stage three is a pronouncement, or some legal credit?

Why do they stop short of what God actually does? When we trust Him a change has been wrought in the believer – the mind that was enmity with God is now in a state of trust with God! This is a radical change in the believer brought about by grace. And in the mind/heart that trusts God the Spirit dwells and reproduces Christ’s character within!

Any thoughts or questions about this?

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “According to this...” thoughts?

A better meaning than “accounted” righteous when he trusted God, is recognized to be right with God, or was seen as standing in right relationship with God.

Do we agree that faith or trust in God in no way voids God’s law?

Do you see the lesson struggling to make this point?

Let’s use the analogy given by the penal model of someone in a court. What if a person got a speeding ticket and was found guilty in court and fined the appropriate amount. But then Bill Gates steps up and not only pays the fine, but puts down 50 billion dollars for all future speeding tickets (our sins past, present and future are paid for at the Cross according to the penal model). While with each speeding ticket another $100 dollar fine is paid from the 50 billion, and the law is still in effect – does the law have any real effect in the life of the person? When all future penalties are already paid what effect does that have on one?

But what if a person was dying of lung cancer from years of cigarette smoking, from breaking the laws of health, will a legal penalty help them? But what if there was a regenerating treatment that would heal the damage and the person, in trust, submitted to the treatment. Would the regenerating treatment in any way make void the law of respiration? And what if the person, after taking the remedy, went out and began smoking again?

Understanding correctly God's law as the template for life clarifies immediately that God's grace in healing sinners and restoring us to His original design, through all that Christ has done, in no way voids His law. It instead, as the Scripture says, establishes it. It puts life back in harmony with the law.

But when we see the law as legal, as a system imposed which requires payments made – then when the payment is made, the law no longer has power over a person. All my sins, past, present and future have been paid – so what of the law, we now have immunity because Christ bore my penalty.

Read last paragraph, “Paul sets forth...” thoughts?

Yes legalism is a perversion of it – then why are we still so strongly promoting a legal gospel? David prayed for a new heart and right spirit, to be changed in the inner man. David didn't pray to be covered so the Father couldn't see him, but prayed for God to search him and find any wicked way within him!

God wants to heal us, we need to be opening ourselves in trust to our Creator who alone can fix what is wrong! But when we believe our Creator is a stern judge who must punish any sin He sees, we instead create theories to hide us from Him.

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to consider Romans 4:6-8:

- David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works: ⁷ “Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. ⁸ Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him.” NIV

Thoughts?

Here it is in the New Century Version, which I believe gets verse six right:

- David said the same thing. He said that people are truly blessed when God, without paying attention to their deeds, makes people right with himself. Romans 4:6 NCV

The word translated credits is that same word logizomai which deals with reality, not suppositions. God does not recon, or consider someone righteous who is not. So the person is blessed who God has actually made right with Himself.

TUESDAY

Read second paragraph, “It’s important to remember...” yes this is important. As we said last week one of the factors which has caused a legal slant to understanding the plan of salvation is that our legal justice system is based on Latin, and many of the words used in theology are Latin translations of the Greek. But another reason, is that Paul was speaking to legalistic people and in doing so he used language which was designed to reach them where they were. In order to do that he spoke in legal figures. Sadly, many today have taken Paul’s gracious figures of speech as the literal reality of God’s kingdom and have not grown past the legal language Paul needed to use to reach the legalistic people of his day.

Read last paragraph, “If Paul here...” thoughts? Are we saved by faith or grace through faith? Can we have faith, but in something or someone that doesn’t save?

When we speak of unbelief, we do not mean that a person believes nothing. The mind must rest upon something; and when it does not grasp truth, it lays hold of error. All men in one sense believe, and the effect produced upon the heart and character is according to the things believed. Eve believed the words of Satan, and the belief of that falsehood in regard to God's character, changed the condition and character of both herself and husband. They were changed from good and obedient children into transgressors, and it was only by repentance toward God and faith in the promised Messiah that they could hope ever to regain the lost image of God. Paul had faith before his conversion; but it was not a correct faith. His self-righteousness strengthened his faith that he was doing God's service in rejecting Christ, and he enjoyed a restful satisfaction. False faith as well as true faith will give peacefulness for a time. Paul verily thought that he was doing God service when he was persecuting the followers of Christ and putting them to death. He was sincere in his belief; but sincerity will not make error truth, nor truth error. "When the commandment came," says Paul, "sin revived, and I died." He then received the truth as it is in Jesus, and experienced its transforming power upon his soul. The truth was so firmly planted in his heart that he could say, "Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." {RH, January 5, 1886 par. 8}

Thoughts?

At the end of SS class last week a question was raised regarding whether someone has to see justification as we are expressing it to be saved or not and we answered that question last week. One might contemplate, then what difference does it make?

And then I received this email this week from one of our class members:

The revelation of Gods character, presented in sabbath school, has had a huge impact in my life.

I feel that in addition and in unison with the message of God revealed through Christ, a greater emphasis on God revealed through us, and how his character looks in us, would be a powerful part of sabbath school.

We talk about the purpose of Christ's life and death, the remedy for sin, but not enough of how we are to take the remedy, and what kind of life we should be living.

I know that by merely observing the character of God it manifests itself in us. But, more emphasis on its appearance in our lives, and the role the sabbath school as a group and as individuals play in living lives like Christ, is, I think, necessary to encourage us in that direction.

We need reminder of how to take the remedy, and what side effects to expect.

Thoughts?

How do we take the remedy? Does it matter what we say about God? Does it make a difference in which God we place our faith?

- It is a law of the mind, that it will narrow or expand to the dimensions of the things with which it becomes familiar. The mental powers will surely become contracted, and will lose their ability to grasp the deep meanings of the word of God, unless they are put vigorously and persistently to the task of searching for truth. The mind will enlarge, if it is employed in tracing out the relation of the subjects of the Bible, comparing scripture with scripture, and spiritual things with spiritual. Go below the surface; the richest treasures of thought are waiting for the skillful and diligent student. {CE 119.1}

- It is a law both of the intellectual and the spiritual nature that by beholding we become changed. The mind gradually adapts itself to the subjects upon which it is allowed to dwell. It becomes assimilated to that which it is accustomed to love and reverence. Man will never rise higher than his standard of purity or goodness or truth. If self is his loftiest ideal, he will never attain to anything more exalted. Rather, he will constantly sink lower and lower. The grace of God alone has power to exalt man. Left to himself, his course must inevitably be downward. {GC 555.1}

Does it make a difference and real impact on the believe how they view God?

WEDNESDAY

Read last two paragraphs, “If there had been...” thoughts?

- Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. Romans 13:10
- The entire law is summed up in a single command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Galatians 5:14
- If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing right. James 2:8
- Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” Matt 22:37-40
- In the way of righteousness there is life; along that path is immortality. Pr 12:28
- He who pursues righteousness and love finds life, prosperity and honor. Pr 21:21
- The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul. Ps 19:7
- In living for self he has rejected that divine love which would have flowed out in mercy to his fellow men. Thus he has rejected life. For God is love, and love is life. COL 258

Where does all life originate? In God He is the source of all life! But what is God's law? And while life comes from God what is that life built or based upon? His law of love!

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, "In the New Testament..." well said, this is absolutely true, anyone care to explain why?

Read last paragraph, "We often hear..." thoughts?

If the law is imposed, an arbitrary law enacted by God, to which His creatures must adhere on pain of death, and if sins can be transferred to an innocent replacement to be punished in our stead, then once that transfer and payment is complete the law has been satisfied.

But, this is not the problem – the problem is not a legal one but an actual one, we are in a condition which is its very nature at odds with God, incompatible with life and inconsistent with God's design. This had to be fixed.

So, what was nailed to the Cross?

FRIDAY

Questions 2-4 read and discuss

Redemption in Romans Lesson 6 3Q 2010

Expounding the Faith

Before we go into this week's lesson I want to clarify what I have been saying the last two weeks.

As you know I have drawn a distinction between the traditional penal model and our model. And I want to clarify one point to allay any possibly misunderstanding or confusion.

Our model does not suggest that God did not need to pardon or forgive us – it is just that in our model God's personal pardon/forgiveness or what some call "legal pardon" was never an obstacle to our salvation. Christ did not need to do anything to procure God's personal pardon or forgiveness as it is freely given.

Along these lines we do not suggest that God does not make a declaration regarding His justified saints. I believe He does – but His declaration is descriptive of a reality that exists and is not some form of empty claim.

Sin happens in living beings not in record books. God is cleansing sinners from sin, not "doctoring" the books.

SABBATH

Read first sentence, "Paul has established...." Can this sentence be understood in more than one way? Do we need to define the words in the sentence, like justification, acceptance, faith and right standing?

If we conclude that justification means legal adjustment of record books do we get a different understanding than if justification means actually fixing the damage sinned caused and putting sinners right with God in heart and mind again?

How do we understand the record books?

If justification is a legal action then what is being suggested that prevents us from being accepted with God? What if justification is actually fixing what is wrong with humanity, then what prevents us from being accepted?

Second paragraph, read, “Through the fall...”

Thoughts? What does it mean to “remit” a record of sin? How does one do that? What would that entail? Would it entail destroying evidence? Would Bibles need to be burned? Would the heavenly record books need to be destroyed? Would angels need lobotomies? Would humans need memory erasure?

Does anyone see a problem with a theological system which requires records to be remitted? Is there some other way to understand this that I am missing?

Read last paragraph, “Paul contrasts...” thoughts?

Do you like how this is said? Did Christ come to undo what Adam did? Absolutely! And what did Adam do to humanity? How did Christ undo it?

Does paying a legal penalty undo what Adam did? Did Adam simply break a rule that was imposed, that in itself had no consequence and therefore all that was needed is the perfect fine to be paid? Or did Adam actually get changed, literally, and needed to be healed?

How did Christ undo this?

SUNDAY

The lesson asks us to read Romans 5:1-5:

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. ³

Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us. NIV

Then read first two paragraphs – “Being justified”... Thoughts?

What could be more glorious? How about the character of God as revealed in Christ – that God is not a liar, fraud, or twister of evidence and truth? How about that God is love and love sacrifices self to heal and restore? How about that God never required a payment or that sins be punished, such an idea is Satan’s allegations:

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. DA 761

Two paragraphs later EGW states:

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Thoughts regarding this or the presentation from the quarterly?
 What do you hear from the lesson guide? Any questions? Any concerns?

Can sin be transferred? Are historic acts of sin transferrable from person to person? If acts of sin were transferred to Christ does that mean Hitler and Stalin reduced Christ's suffering by shorting the lives of millions thus reducing committed sins by trillions? Do we reduce Christ's suffering with abortions, thus preventing people from being born who would commit sin? Are acts of sins transferable?

Notice the logic in the lesson, it is by transferring our sins to Christ that we avoid being punished and He receives our punishment in our place.

Consider Ezekiel 18 – the guilt of one is not transferable to another, and the righteousness of one is not transferable to another. And God challenges them because they accuse God of not being fair.

Consider the parable of the 10 Virgins – all appeared ready but five didn't have oil, why couldn't the five who had oil share it with those who didn't?

But some will have delayed to obtain the oil for replenishing their lamps, and too late they will find that character, which is represented by the oil, is not transferable. That oil is the righteousness of Christ. It represents character, and character is not transferable. No man can secure it for another. Each must obtain for himself a character purified from every stain of sin. The Lord is coming in power and great glory. It will then be His work to make a complete separation between the righteous and the wicked. But the oil cannot then be transferred to the vessels of those who have it not. {BEcho, May 4, 1896 par. 2}

Is it only righteous character that is not transferable or is sinful character also not transferable?

The problem we have is real – it is an actual condition of being, which when we are born is out of harmony with God and His protocols for life. Jesus came to reverse this. Because of Jesus we can be actually healed in mind/heart to love God and others more than self.

If character isn't transferable how do we receive Christ's character?

Any Scripture come to mind?

TUESDAY

Read second and third paragraph, "Commentators..." thoughts?

We are born infected with a condition we did not choose – we are not held responsible for this. But there is a free remedy which will cure us, if we refuse the remedy are we responsible for that?

Read Romans 5:12-14 – thoughts?

Here is my paraphrase:

^{5:12} Therefore, the infection of distrust of God, which deformed man's heart and mind with selfishness and fear and results only in death, infected the human race when Adam accepted Satan's lies about God and broke trust with him. This infection of distrust and selfishness is inherited by all mankind, because all are born infected – ¹³ this is revealed by the fact that before the written law was given, the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness was already in the world. But this infection of distrust, fear and selfishness is not diagnosable without the law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, even without being diagnosed as infected with this terminal condition, mankind still died from the time of Adam to Moses, even those who did not break a specific command, like Adam did – revealing that the problem is the infected state of our minds not a legal issue with God.

Adam, the first man, being the conduit through which the infection entered humanity, represents the one man who is the conduit of the antidote which cures the many who accept it.

While behaviors or acts of sin cannot be passed along, can the consequences of our behavior, both healthy/righteous and unhealthy/sinful be passed along to our children? Any examples?

The commandment “unto the third and fourth generations” what does it mean?

We have talked before about epigenetic changes – epi means above, so these changes are not genes to the genes, or DNA itself, but to control regions of the DNA.

Experience changes the various control groups which determine which genes are turned on and which are turned off, and these changes are passed down multiple generations:

- Fruit flies exposed to a drug called geldanamycin show unusual outgrowths on their eyes that can last through at least 13 generations of offspring even though no change in DNA has occurred (and generations 2 through 13 were not directly exposed to the drug).
- roundworms fed with a particular type of bacteria exhibit loss of a green fluorescent protein and a small dumpy appearance that lasts 40 generations. In human terms, factoring for 40 years equaling one generation, would represent 1600 years of generational history.
- What about stressful emotional events? Michael Meany at McGill University in Montreal, Canada, discovered newborn mice that were neglected by their mothers are more fearful and agitated as adults, which correlated with epigenetic changes in the genes that control stress.
- What about behavior? Men who smoke before the age of 11 increase the rate of obesity and metabolic problems in their sons, but not their daughters. This means epigenetic changes to their Y chromosome.

- Men who experience starvation or short food supplies before they have children will confer higher mortality risks to their grandsons, but not granddaughter, where as women who experience famine will confer higher mortality risks to their granddaughters but not grandsons. Again demonstrating epigenetic changes of the X and Y chromosomes passing multigenerational.

These are examples of negative effects being passed along, what about positive changes? Can we pass those along?

- Mice genetically engineered to have memory problems were raised in an enriched environment--given toys, exercise, and social interaction--for two weeks during adolescence. The animals' memory improved--an unsurprising finding, given that enrichment has been previously shown to boost brain function. The mice were then returned to normal conditions, where they grew up and had offspring. This next generation of mice also had better memory, despite having the genetic defect and never having been exposed to the enriched environment.
- The researchers also looked at a molecular correlate of memory called long-term potentiation, or LTP, a mechanism that strengthens connections between neurons. Environmental enrichment fixed faulty LTP in mice with the genetic defect; the fixed LTP was then passed on to their offspring. The findings held true even when pups were raised by memory-deficient mice that had never had the benefits of toys and social interaction.

Thoughts?

- A genuine conversion changes hereditary and cultivated tendencies to wrong. The religion of God is a firm fabric, composed of innumerable threads, and woven together with tact and skill. Only the wisdom which comes from God can make this fabric complete. There are a great many kinds of cloth which at first have a fine appearance, but they cannot endure the test. They wash out. The colors are not fast. Under the heat of summer they fade away and are lost. The cloth cannot endure rough handling. {Mar 237.2}

Christ came to fix everything Adam's sin did to humanity. In order to do this He took upon Himself a humanity just like ours. And only through unity with Christ can we experience a real transformation in our minds, brains, characters and even how our DNA is expressed.

MONDAY

First paragraph, read – “When Adam and Eve....” – this is well said.

Read second and third paragraph, “As the blood...” thoughts?

Does God have wrath toward sin? What about toward the sinner? What about this idea that it is because of love He has wrath?

Is it true that God's love motivates Him to destroy that which destroys His creation? Is it true He has a holy hatred for that which damages the objects of His love?

Will God eventually eradicate the universe of sin?

What is damaging God's creation? Sin, and God hates it and is going to destroy it – how?

Question – what is sin made of? What is this sin stuff that God has wrath toward? Is sin physical? Is it made from molecules? Or is sin ideas and attitudes of hearts and minds of intelligent beings?

How can God eradicate this? What eradicates lies? Truth – is God's supreme revelation of truth, at the end of time, when He reveals Himself without any veil in between Him and His creatures the fullness of His wrath? Will truth consume lies? What happens to those steeped in lies?

What about selfishness in hearts and minds? What eradicates selfishness? Love – is God’s supreme, unveiled, loving presence what ultimately consumes selfishness? What happens in the hearts and minds of those solidified in selfishness?

Those who have chosen Satan as their leader and have been controlled by his power are not prepared to enter the presence of God. Pride, deception, licentiousness, cruelty, have become fixed in their characters. Can they enter heaven to dwell forever with those whom they despised and hated on earth? Truth will never be agreeable to a liar; meekness will not satisfy self-esteem and pride; purity is not acceptable to the corrupt; disinterested love does not appear attractive to the selfish. What source of enjoyment could heaven offer to those who are wholly absorbed in earthly and selfish interests? {GC 542.1}

Could those whose lives have been spent in rebellion against God be suddenly transported to heaven and witness the high, the holy state of perfection that ever exists there,-- every soul filled with love, every countenance beaming with joy, enrapturing music in melodious strains rising in honor of God and the Lamb, and ceaseless streams of light flowing upon the redeemed from the face of Him who sitteth upon the throne,--could those whose hearts are filled with hatred of God, of truth and holiness, mingle with the heavenly throng and join their songs of praise? Could they endure the glory of God and the Lamb? No, no; years of probation were granted them, that they might form characters for heaven; but they have never trained the mind to love purity; they have never learned the language of heaven, and now it is too late. A life of rebellion against God has unfitted them for heaven. Its purity, holiness, and peace would be torture to them; the glory of God would be a consuming fire. They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is voluntary with themselves, and just and merciful on the part of God. {GC 542.2}

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable. GC 542

WEDNESDAY

Read third paragraph, “It is true...” thoughts?

What is the premise? Why is sin bad? What happens to those who sin? In order for God to be just what must He do? Punish – in this model where does the pain and suffering and death originate? Does it suggest God inflicts punishment?

What would happen to sinners if He didn't? Would they live eternally in sin, or is sin terminal?

Read last paragraph, “When the Israelites...” thoughts? If our faith is not legalistic, then why is there so much emphasis on legalities?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “As humans....” Thoughts?

How would you explain Christ is our substitute?

What does it mean to be on vantage ground with God?

The lesson says it very well in the third paragraph, “Look at the opposing...” thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2 and 3

Redemption in Romans Lesson 7 3Q 2010

Victory Over Sin

Thoughts regarding the title?

What is your belief about what this means?

Is it possible to have victory over sin? In this life? What would that look like? What does it entail?

When the Scripture says that “you shall call his name Immanuel for he shall save his people from their sin” what does that mean?

Should we expect victory over sin in this life?

Grace can thrive only in the heart that is being constantly prepared for the precious seeds of truth. The thorns of sin will grow in any soil; they need no cultivation; but grace must be carefully cultivated. The briars and thorns are always ready to spring up, and the work of purification must advance continually. If the heart is not kept under the control of God, if the Holy Spirit does not work unceasingly to refine and ennoble the character, the old habits will reveal themselves in the life. Men may profess to believe the gospel; but unless they are sanctified by the gospel their profession is of no avail. If they do not gain the victory over sin, then sin is gaining the victory over them. The thorns that have been cut off but not uprooted grow apace, until the soul is overspread with them. {COL 50.4}

Christ specified the things that are dangerous to the soul. As recorded by Mark He mentions the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things. Luke specifies the cares, riches, and pleasures of this life. These are what choke the word, the growing spiritual seed. The soul ceases to draw nourishment from Christ, and spirituality dies out of the heart. {COL 51.1}

Thoughts? Can we experience victory? How?

Christ promised that the Holy Spirit should abide with those who wrestle for victory over sin, to demonstrate the power of divine might by endowing the human agent with supernatural strength and instructing the ignorant in the mysteries of the kingdom of God. . . . {AG 212.5}

When one is fully emptied of self, when every false god is cast out of the soul, the vacuum is filled by the inflowing of the Spirit of Christ. Such a one has the faith that purifies the soul from defilement. He is conformed to the Spirit, and he minds the things of the Spirit. He has no confidence in self. Christ is all and in all. {AG 212.6}

What does it mean to have every false god cast out?

Christ gave his life that all who would might be freed from sin, and reinstated in the favor of the Creator. It was the anticipation of the redeemed, holy universe that prompted Christ to make this great sacrifice. Are we followers of God as dear children? or are we servants of the prince of darkness? Are we worshipers of Jehovah, or of Baal? of the living God, or of idols? No outward shrines may be visible, there may be no image for the eye to rest upon; yet we may be practising idolatry. It is as easy to make an idol of cherished ideas or objects as to fashion gods of wood or stone. Thousands have a false conception of God and his attributes. They are as verily serving a false god as were the servants of Baal. God is a God of truth. Justice and mercy are the attributes of his throne. He is a God of love, of pity, and tender compassion. Thus he is represented in his Son, our Saviour. He is a God of patience and long-suffering. If such is the being whom we adore, and whose character we are seeking to imitate, we are worshiping the true God. {RH, December 3, 1908 par. 2}

Could a person be a Christian, a baptized member of the church and not experience victory over sin because they continue to worship a false god in concept and idea?

How do we understand, “Be perfect as your father in heaven is perfect”? Is this an impossibility? Would God direct us to do something impossible to achieve?

Is it based on behavior or something else?

“You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’⁴⁴ But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,⁴⁵ that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.⁴⁶ If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that?⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that?⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect. Matt 5:43-48

What type of perfection is this? Would this be victory over sin?

Is it a perfect attitude of love and desire to grow, develop, advance – a humble, cooperative attitude? Is it living like Micah wrote?

He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. Micah 6:8

This week I thought we might do something a little different than just examine what the study guide says. This week’s lesson is focused on Romans chapter six. Let’s examine Romans six ourselves and see what we discover. If we have time we can then examine some points from the lesson guide.

Read Romans 6:1-4

What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase? ² By no means! We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? ³ Or don’t you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

Thoughts? What does this passage mean to you? How would you explain it?

What does it mean to die to sin? How does baptism play a role? Is sin something active, something within, or is sin historical, records? If sin is recorded acts how do we die to it?

So what is sin? Is it a commodity?

I asked over 350 Christian HS students to answer the question, on a 3x5 card, “what is sin” here are some of their answers:

- An act against what God stands for
- It is something that separates us from God
- To do something that is morally wrong
- Anything evil or unjust
- Something that brings us down
- The absence of anything good/anything not of God
- Doing anything you know in your gut is wrong
- Bad stuff
- A bad thing that Satan discovered and brought upon us
- The cause of all pain and suffering
- When you do something you feel guilty about
- Anything that makes God unhappy
- Something to be forgiven
- Whatever you do wrong and you don't even care what you did

And the following two answers were submitted by more than ten percent of the students:

- Sin is not following the Ten Commandments
- Sin is going against the will of God

These answers break down into two general categories:

- (1) sin is bad behavior, an act of disobedience, something we do wrong; or,
- (2) sin is some evil commodity, entity, element, some “thing” or some “stuff” that separates us from God or makes us unhappy.

Three students saw sin differently. Their answers pierced a deeper level of truth. To them sin was something more than bad behavior and was certainly not a commodity that could be passed from one person to the next. These three saw sin as:

- The absence of love
- The opposite of God’s character – sin is being selfish
- Focusing on self. It all started with Satan and how he wanted to be greater than God. This is the root of all evil.

They saw sin as a state of being, a defect in character, a deviation from God’s heart of love.

How do you answer the question, “What is sin?” Does our answer to what is sin impact how we understand Romans?

Satan's rebellion was to be a lesson to the universe through all coming ages--a perpetual testimony to the nature of sin and its terrible results. The working out of Satan's rule, its effects upon both men and angels, would show what must be the fruit of setting aside the divine authority. It would testify that with the existence of God's government is bound up the well-being of all the creatures He has made. Thus the history of this terrible experiment of rebellion was to be a perpetual safeguard to all holy beings, to prevent them from being deceived as to the nature of transgression, to save them from committing sin, and suffering its penalty. {PP 42.4}

Has the nature of sin been a question in the Great Controversy? Satan’s allegation is that sin is legal, breaking rules, God’s position is that sin is a condition, a state of being out of harmony with His law of love – a principle at war with love – selfishness.

Here is my paraphrase of Romans 6:1-4:

Romans 6:1 What, then, should we say about this amazing healing plan? Should we spread the infection of distrust and selfishness, cause more devastation and destruction so that the power of God's healing solution may be more fully displayed? ² Absolutely not! We have taken the antidote, and the infection of distrust and selfishness has been purged from our hearts and minds; how then, can we choose to be reinfected with distrust of God and practice selfish methods again? ³ Or don't you realize that all of us who were immersed into union with Christ Jesus were immersed into selflessness and have died to self-centeredness? ⁴ We symbolically demonstrate we have joined him in dying to self by being buried in water, in order that just as Jesus arose from the dead displaying the life giving glory of the Father, we too live a new life displaying God's glorious character in our lives.

Thoughts?

Read Romans 6:5-7:

If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection. ⁶ For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin— ⁷ because anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

Thoughts? How do you understand this? How would you explain it to another?

What does it mean to do away with the body of sin? Is it talking about our physical tissue, our actual human body? Is it talking about our inherited condition of selfishness?

Here is my paraphrase:

^{6:5} If we have joined him in dying to self, we will absolutely join him in his resurrection and new life! ⁶ For we know that when our old selfish hearts and fear ridden minds trust God and surrenders to be crucified with Christ, the infection of selfishness is purged, and our hearts are no longer controlled by Satanic principles – ⁷ because anyone who dies to selfishness is free from Satan's methods, principles and control.

Thoughts?

Read verses 8-10:

⁸ Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹ For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. ¹⁰ The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

How would you explain these verses? What does it mean the death He died He died to sin? What is sin? How did Christ die to it? Why does death no longer have mastery over Him?

Here is my paraphrase:

^{6:8} Now if we join Christ in dying to self, we are confident we will live with him forever. ⁹ Because Christ was raised from the dead and cannot die again; he has secured the remedy and has revealed the truth, and death cannot touch him again. ¹⁰ The death he died, he died once destroying Satan's lies, the infection of fear and selfishness and restoring love and trust; therefore, the life he lives, he lives to glorify God.

Thoughts?

Read verses 11-14:

In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. ¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. ¹³ Do not offer the parts of your body to sin, as instruments of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

How would you explain this? What does it mean do not let sin reign in your mortal body? What would it mean to offer your body to sin? What about offering your body to God? How do we experience a life where sin is not our master?

Here is my paraphrase:

^{6:11} In the same way recognize you are dead to the ways of Satan and alive to the ways of God as revealed in Christ Jesus. ¹² Therefore do not indulge the selfish desires and participate in destructive activities. ¹³ Do not use your physical body for evil, to indulge selfishness, but rather offer your entire being to God – revealing that Satan’s principles of death have been replaced by God’s principles of life. So offer your entire self to God doing what is right and healthy because it is right and healthy. ¹⁴ For distrust, fear and selfishness will no longer be what controls you, because you are no longer under the law’s terminal diagnosis, but have partaken of God’s gracious remedy and are under his healing care.

Thoughts?

Read verses 15-18:

What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶ Don’t you know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were entrusted. ¹⁸ You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

Thoughts? What does it mean sin leads to death? Does it mean God must inflict death for sin? What about obedience which leads to righteousness?

What does it mean to be set free from sin? To be slaves of righteousness?

My paraphrase:

6:15 What then? Shall we indulge selfish desires because God has provided a gracious cure for our terminal condition? Absolutely not! ¹⁶ Don't you realize that when you gratify the selfish desires, you are slowly transformed and become more and more selfish destroying the very faculties that recognize and respond to God's healing truth – thus over time you lose your freedom to choose and become a slave to selfishness and lust, which leads only to self-destruction and death? Conversely if you accept God's gracious remedy and choose his methods you are transformed and become Christlike in character. ¹⁷ Thanks be to God, that even though you used to be slaves to selfishness, you wholeheartedly accepted the truth revealed by Jesus, trusted God and practice his methods of love, truth and freedom, which you were taught. ¹⁸ Therefore, you have been freed from distrust, fear and selfishness and have been bonded to love, truth and liberty, doing what is right because it is right.

Thoughts?

Read verses 19-23:

I put this in human terms because you are weak in your natural selves. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness. ²⁰ When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness. ²¹ What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death! ²² But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. ²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

What does this mean? How would you explain it?

My paraphrase:

^{6:19} I state this as simply as possible, using human terms because it is easier to understand and learn that way. Just as you used to choose to use your bodies in lewd, vile and debasing ways, so now choose to use your bodies doing what is right, reasonable and healthy, which leads to purity and holiness. ²⁰ When you slavishly indulged the selfish desires you avoided what was healthy, right and good. ²¹ But what good did that do you? It only caused pain, heartache and ultimately death. ²² But now you have accepted the truth about God, been restored to trust and been set free from fear and selfishness. You are wholeheartedly committed to God and receive complete recreation of heart and mind resulting in eternal life. ²³ For the infection of selfishness leads only to death, but the gift of God is eternal life through the healing remedy brought by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thoughts?

How do we have victory over sin? By surrendering self and trusting God with our lives, wants, future and outcomes. By choosing His methods and allowing Him to determine how things turn out. By saying no to selfish desires and yes to what is right and healthy.

SABBATH

Read fourth and fifth paragraph, "In the Bible..." thoughts? Is this clear to you? How do you explain sanctification? How do you explain being sanctified? How is sanctification a work of a lifetime?

Does that mean the older get greater opportunity? Did the antediluvians have an advantage?

Is eating a work of a lifetime? Why? Is this what “sanctification is a work of a lifetime” means? Are we to be daily set apart, dedicated to God? Do we err if we focus on some level of achievement in sanctification rather than focusing on the daily surrender and commitment of oneself to God?

Can one be justified without being sanctified? Can one be sanctified without being justified? What is the benefit of such distinctions?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul follows...” Thoughts? Is the lesson stating that a justified person has died to sin? I think so and I agree with that, but wouldn’t that mean something has changed in the believer? If a person has died to sin hasn’t a change occurred in them? Is such a change more than a “claim” or “declaration”? Yes, justification is putting the sinner right with God again, which means the sinner, in heart, has died to sin.

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “The word...” thoughts? What is sin? After our discussion today, how do you answer?

Read third paragraph, “The Greek...” thoughts? Have you ever heard the idea that we overcome by faith and claiming promises? What does that mean? I have many patients say they pray every day, they claim promises but....

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read last paragraph, “We should...” Thoughts? What does it mean the condemnation the law inevitably brings? Is it the law that condemns us or our own condition of being out of harmony with the law, while the law merely diagnoses, exposes, or allows us to see what our condition really is? Should we blame the law for our condemnation?

WEDNESDAY

Read last paragraph, “Notice how...” thoughts?

What does it mean to obey? A humble willingness to listen and follow, an openness to truth, a willingness to be shown the error of your ways, accept redirection and follow the new light.

Wow, how many Sabbath keepers are not obeying?

What is the importance of doctrine? How does doctrine, even correct doctrine become a stumbling block?

Sabbath, correct day of week taught, but taught as an arbitrary test suddenly misrepresents God and obstructs the truth about Him!

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, “Notice too...” thoughts? Did the paragraph make it clear to you? That free from dominion means no longer dominated? How would you explain it?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph? Do you believe this? Why or why not?

Read second paragraph, “A profession..” why is it not harmless to engage in pleasure and amusements?

As the Supreme Ruler of the universe, God has ordained laws for the government not only of all living beings, but of all the operations of nature. Everything, whether great or small, animate or inanimate, is under fixed laws which cannot be disregarded. There are no exceptions to this rule; for nothing that the divine hand has made has been forgotten by the divine mind. But while everything in nature is governed by natural law, man alone, as an intelligent being, capable of understanding its of his creation, God has given a conscience to realize the sacred claims of the divine law, and a heart capable of loving it as holy, just, and good; and of man prompt and perfect obedience is required. Yet God does not compel him to obey; requirements, is amenable to moral law. To man alone, the crowning work he is left a free moral agent. {ST, April 15, 1886 par. 2}

Thoughts?

Redemption in Romans Lesson 8 3Q 2010

The Man of Romans 7

SABBATH

Read second paragraph, “Bible students...” thoughts?

What does this paragraph say to you? What questions come to your mind?

If we stand perfect before God then why does He need to then sanctify us and conform us to the image of His Son?

Is there a different way to say this? Could it mean we stand before God in a restored trust and in that trust He heals us and restores us to the image of His Son?

What do you think is Paul talking about in regard to Romans 7? Is Paul referring to the converted man’s struggle or the uncovered man? Let’s see if we can answer that this week.

SUNDAY

Romans 7:1-6 Paul uses the analogy of a woman married and after the death of her husband she is no longer legally bound to her husband. He does this to say something about the Jews and their relationship to the law – what lesson do you derive?

Read third paragraph, “As the death...” thoughts?

What does it mean “delivers her from the law of her husband?” The previous paragraph said, “she is free from the law that bound her to him.” Any difference?

What about the death of the old life through Christ? What does this mean? Did it deliver just the Jews? What were the Jews delivered from?

Were the Jews, previous to Christ, involved in a system that brought salvation? Was salvation possible through the blood of animals?

Had the Jews attempted to save themselves through their own effort at obeying the law? Didn't Christ deliver all humanity from trying to save self?

The lesson suggests the analogy is teaching deliverance from the Jewish system of ordinances – what do you think? What law would a person die to? What law would they be delivered from? Is it the ceremonial law or is it the law of sin and death, i.e. selfishness?

What would be the basis of the new marriage? Would it be to the same husband? Is the husband the ceremonial system or the law of sin and death? Is the new husband a new system, or a new life based on a new law the law of love in union with Christ?

Read Romans 7:1-3

Do you not know, brothers—for I am speaking to men who know the law—that the law has authority over a man only as long as he lives? ² For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage. ³ So then, if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress, even though she marries another man.

- The Woman is human will – our individuality –
- The first husband who dies is our carnal nature, selfishness, the law of sin and death. We are born with our will enslaved to our carnal natures. When we die to selfishness our will can be united with another.
- The second husband is Christ and the law of love

The last paragraph says that Paul would not suggest that the 10 Commandments were no longer binding, was the ceremonial law binding? In what way was it binding?

What is Paul trying to free them from? Was it the ceremonies and rituals designed to teach them about the Messiah, or the distorted, twisted, belief system they had developed about those rituals that prevented them from being free from the law of sin and death i.e. selfishness?

Was there ever any saving benefit in sacrificing animals?

MONDAY

Read fourth paragraph, "Thus, Paul explains..." thoughts? Could you find a definition for sin in Scripture like this? What do you think about it?

Violation of the revealed will of God? When Satan sinned in heaven had there been a list of rules not to lie? If God's will on this issue was so clearly revealed in heaven why did 1/3 of the perfect angels, without carnal natures choose to rebel against it?

But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. {MB 109.2}

What was the purpose of the written law? To make sin easier to see, why? Could it be that God's will i.e. methods, law, principles weren't easily seen? And why were they not easy to see? Could it be because Satan began to misrepresent, distort and twist thus causing confusion?

How has God used law and what does it say about Him?

What about the idea of recognizing oneself as a sinner under condemnation and death and “In this sense, the person dies”?

Read Romans 7:7-11:

⁷ What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, “Do not covet.” ⁸ But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from law, sin is dead. ⁹ Once I was alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. ¹⁰ I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death. ¹¹ For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through the commandment put me to death. (NIV)

Thought about this? Here is my paraphrase:

^{7:7} What shall we say then? Is the law evil and selfish because it increases the amount of evil and selfishness we see? Absolutely not! For I would not have known what evil and selfishness looks like if it wasn't for the diagnostic efficacy of the law. I would not have realized that coveting was evil and selfish if the law didn't say, “Don't covet.” ⁸ But selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the law is only a diagnostic instrument and not a remedy, magnified every covetous desire within me. For apart from the diagnostic ability of the law, sin is unrecognizable. ⁹ Once I thought I was healthy and free from the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness, but then the commandment examined me, exposed how utterly infected I was and diagnosed me as terminal. ¹⁰ I discovered that the very commandment given only to diagnose my condition, I had unwittingly attempted to use as a cure and thus my condition only worsened. ¹¹ For selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the commandment could only diagnose and not cure, deceived me into thinking I could be cured by working to keep the commandments, but instead my terminal state only worsened.

TUESDAY

The lesson states some really great things in Tuesday's lesson.

Read the first three paragraphs, "Because the Jews..." well said, on all accounts. Thoughts?

We agree with all of this. Isn't God wonderful to provide us with such an efficient diagnostic tool to help us realize our need?

What has been the problem with the law through history?

Romans 7:12-15 from my paraphrase:

¹² So understand this, the law diagnoses perfectly, and the commandment is the standard of what is right and good, set apart by God, to reveal what is evil and destructive.

^{7:13} Did the law, which did good by diagnosing what was wrong with me, become the source of my terminal condition? Of course not! It only exposed what was already in me so that I could recognize how totally decayed, putrid and near death I was, so that through the lens of the commandment I might become utterly disgusted with evil and selfishness and long for a cure.

^{7:14} We know that the law is consistent, reliable and reasonable; but I am inconsistent, unreliable and unreasonable, because the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness has warped my mind and damaged my thinking. ¹⁵ I am frustrated with what I do. For having been restored to trust, I want to do what is in harmony with God and his methods and principles; but I find that even though I trust God, old habits, conditioned responses, preconceived ideas and other remnants of the devastation caused by distrust and selfishness are not yet fully removed.

Thoughts?

If the law is a diagnostic instrument and not a remedy to sin why do some suggest the need we have is to pay the penalty of the law?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? Why is it not a good idea to play with sin? We are changed, we actually alter ourselves, our neural circuits, our gene expression and makes it harder to be free. One hit of cocaine activates a gene which produces a protein, not previously produced, which causes increased cravings for cocaine.

WEDESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Using the law...” thoughts?

Can we fulfill the requirements of the law? So is the law reminding us no matter what we do God is displeased with us? Are we displeasing to God? What about being the apple of His eye?

If your child is sick with a terminal disease and suffering, is your child displeasing to you?

What is the problem with this sentence? The lesson has made it clear that we can never fulfill the requirements of the law, that we were born in this condition not of our own choosing, and now suggest we are displeasing to God? Is it not sin that is displeasing to God?

Read Romans 7:16-20

¹⁶ And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. ¹⁷ As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. ¹⁸ I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. ¹⁹ For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing. ²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

Thoughts? Converted or unconverted man?

My paraphrase:

¹⁶ And if I find an old habit causing me to behave in ways that I now find detestable, I affirm that the law is a very helpful tool revealing residual damage in need of healing. ¹⁷ What is happening is this: I have come to trust God and desire to do his will, but old habits and conditioned responses, which present almost reflexively in certain situations, have not yet been totally eliminated and thus cause me to do things I do not want to do. ¹⁸ I know that my mind was completely infected with distrust, fear and selfishness which totally perverted all my desires and faculties, so that even when distrust has been eradicated and trust has been restored, the damage caused by years of distrustful and selfish behavior has not yet been fully healed. So I find, at times, I have the desire to do what is right, but do not yet have the ability to carry out the desire. ¹⁹ For the old habits and conditioned responses are not the good I want to do; no, they are remnants of my selfish unconverted mind. ²⁰ So, if I find myself doing what I no longer desire to do, it is not I, but vestiges of old habits and conditioned responses that have yet to be removed, and through God's grace will soon be removed.

Does it matter how we see sin? Are old habits, conditioned responses, preconceived ideas excuses to avoid victory? Even though we struggle with these is victory reasonable to pursue?

THURSDAY

Read Romans 7:21-25

²¹ So I find this law at work: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. ²² For in my inner being I delight in God's law; ²³ but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members. ²⁴

What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? ²⁵ Thanks be to God—through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in the sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.

Thoughts?

Read first paragraph, "In this passage..." thoughts?

From my paraphrase:

^{7:21} So, I find this reality at work: When I want to do good, old selfish habits and residual feelings of fear are right there with me. ²² For in my mind I rejoice in God's methods and principles; ²³ but I recognize I remain damaged from years of being infected with distrust and practicing Satan's methods, so that even though the infection of distrust has been removed, the old habits of fear and self-promotion tempt me from within. ²⁴ What a damaged and corrupt man I am! Who will deliver and heal me from a brain and body so diseased and deformed? ²⁵ Praise be to God – for he has provided the healing solution through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, I find that in my mind I am now renewed with trust for God and love of his methods, but my brain and body remain damaged by years of self-indulgent behavior.

Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read third paragraph, "After Christ..." thoughts? What force did the ceremonial law have before the Cross?

Discuss questions 1-3

Redemption in Romans Lesson 9 3Q 2010

Freedom in Christ

SABBATH

Read memory text – what does it mean to be “in” Christ?

Read second paragraph, “Paul was saying...” Thoughts?

No doubt Christ offers to free us from sin – question – when? When can we take Christ up on that offer? Have you heard Christ’s deliverance from sin broken up into portions?

- Delivers from the penalty of sin
- Delivers from the power of sin
- Delivers from the presence of sin

Can we be delivered from sin’s penalty without being delivered from sin’s power or presence? So how does Christ deliver us from sin’s penalty? Is it not by delivering us from sin?

Can we experience deliverance from sin now? How?

The knowledge of God as revealed in Christ is the knowledge that all who are saved must have. It is the knowledge that works transformation of character. This knowledge, received, will re-create the soul in the image of God. It will impart to the whole being a spiritual power that is divine. {MH 425.2}

This is life eternal that they might know you the only true God and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. John 17:3

Read next paragraph, “Paul continues...” thoughts?

Much to contemplate in this paragraph,

Isn't it true it cost God (all three) infinitely to save mankind? How can the reality that "it cost God infinitely to save us and eliminate sin from the universe," be misconstrued?

Isn't it similar to say "it cost God infinitely" and "God paid an infinite price" to save mankind? These are reasonably the same – are they the same as saying "God paid our legal penalty?" Does this language introduce another element?

He took our humanity, the only way He could relate to us, what does this mean?

What about Hebrews 2:17,18?

For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Does this mean that because Jesus became human God now knows what we are going through and can sympathize with our needs? Did the humanity of Jesus educate God in some fashion so that Christ is now our sympathizing and faithful High Priest who informs the Father of our struggles and plight?

Christ was about to visit our world, and to become incarnate. He says, "A body hast Thou prepared Me." Had He appeared with the glory that was His with the Father before the world was, we could not have endured the light of His presence. That we might behold it and not be destroyed, the manifestation of His glory was shrouded. His divinity was veiled with humanity,--the invisible glory in the visible human form. {DA 23.1}

Why would we have been destroyed if Christ would have come with His unveiled divinity? Would He have been angry and inflicting death or is death unavoidable for unhealed sinners in the unveiled glory of God? Does this give us insight as to why the wicked die in the end?

What other reasons did He become incarnate?

He pitched His tent by the side of the tents of men, that He might dwell among us, and make us familiar with His divine character and life. DA 23.3

Since Jesus came to dwell with us, we know that God is acquainted with our trials, and sympathizes with our griefs. Every son and daughter of Adam may understand that our Creator is the friend of sinners. For in every doctrine of grace, every promise of joy, every deed of love, every divine attraction presented in the Saviour's life on earth, we see "God with us." {DA 24.1}

Was God's character called into question? Did human beings fail to know this about God?

Did Christ become incarnate in order to learn something He didn't know? Did God become incarnate to educate Himself? No! He became incarnate to reveal God to us without destroying us, to convince us of God's everlasting goodness and love for us, to overcome our fear and mistrust of Him!

Any other reasons why He had to be made like His brothers in every way? This is addressed in next point of the paragraph which said, He became "the substitute and died in our stead."

What does Hebrews say He needed to accomplish – atonement, and what does this mean? Reconciliation, unity, at-one-ment. How does suffering and being tempted like us enable Him to achieve atonement and help us who are being tempted?

What is the problem sin caused God needed to fix? Did God get changed in some fashion when Adam sinned? Did mankind get changed? Was mankind, after Adam's sin in unity, harmony, oneness with God? No!

What needed to happen? Someone had to restore God's law and character back into the species human. Jesus became like us so that He could accomplish this, so that He could fix humanity, eradicate sin from us and restore mankind into perfection!

The atonement of Christ is not a mere skillful way to have our sins pardoned; it is a divine remedy for the cure of transgression and the restoration of spiritual health. It is the Heaven-ordained means by which the righteousness of Christ may be not only upon us but in our hearts and characters (Letter 406, 1906). {6BC 1074.2}

How does Christ help us when we are tempted? He provides us with a new heart and right spirit, He regenerates us into His likeness when we open our hearts to Him.

Nothing but divine power can regenerate the human heart and imbue souls with the love of Christ, which will ever manifest itself with love for those for whom He died. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. When a man is converted to God, a new moral taste is supplied, a new motive power is given, and he loves the things that God loves. . . . Love, joy, peace, and inexpressible gratitude will pervade the soul, and the language of him who is blessed will be, "Thy gentleness hath made me great" (Ps. 18:35). {AG 302.2}

But those who are waiting to behold a magical change in their characters without determined effort on their part to overcome sin, will be disappointed. We have no reason to fear while looking to Jesus, no reason to doubt but that He is able to save to the uttermost all that come unto Him. . . . {AG 302.3}

We are to grow daily in spiritual loveliness. We shall fail often in our efforts to copy the divine pattern. We shall often have to bow down to weep at the feet of Jesus, because of our shortcomings and mistakes; but we are not to be discouraged; we are to pray more fervently, believe more fully, and try again with more steadfastness to grow into the likeness of our Lord. As we distrust our own power, we shall trust the power of our Redeemer, and render praise to God, who is the health of our countenance, and our God. . . . {AG 302.4}

By beholding we are to become changed; and as we meditate upon the perfections of the divine Model, we shall desire to become wholly transformed, and renewed in the image of His purity. It is by faith in the Son of God that transformation takes place in the character, and the child of wrath becomes the child of God. {AG 302.5}

Why are we not to become discouraged with shortcomings? Because it is not our power that cures or heals us, it is Gods! He has achieved our remedy and cure, ours is merely the daily cooperative walk with Him as He continues to transform us.

Do not settle down in Satan's easy chair, and say that there is no use, you cannot cease to sin, that there is no power in you to overcome. There is no power in you apart from Christ, but it is your privilege to have Christ abiding in your heart by faith, and He can overcome sin in you, when you cooperate with His efforts. . . . You may be living epistles, known and read of all men. You are not to be a dead letter, but a living one, testifying to the world that Jesus is able to save. {OHC 76.5}

So why is Christ able to help those who are tempted, because He now knows something He didn't previously know, or because He now achieved something not previously achieved – He now has perfected humanity? He has now cured the human condition in His own person and it is this He offers to us!

Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered ⁹ and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him. Heb 5:8,9

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

SUNDAY

Read Romans 8:1,2

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, ² because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.

Top section of the lesson asks, "What does 'no condemnation' mean? No condemnation from what?"

From where does condemnation of sinners arise?

- But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned." Matt 12:36,37
- "As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. ⁴⁸ There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day. John 12:47,48
- "I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life. John 5:24

What do you understand from these passages about condemnation? From where does it arise? What causes a person to be condemned? Is it not their very own condition of remaining in sin, of retaining a selfish heart, of remaining out of harmony with the very basis of life in God's universe?

What prevents condemnation? Belief in Christ, which results in a transformation within the believer such that they have new hearts, right spirits, and are in harmony with God and His law of love!

The lesson describes a person who is in sin and wretchedness who surrenders to Christ in the third paragraph, "But then..." - thoughts?

Where does the actual change take place? Is it in the standing a person has before God or in the heart of the one who has surrendered to Him? Does God recognize the change in the heart of the believer who previously distrusted God but now trusts Him? Or is God prevented, by Christ, from seeing the true heart condition of the sinner?

Why is there no more condemnation? Is it, as the lesson says, that Christ's perfect record stands for ours? If that were true what would it imply about the source of condemnation? And what does it imply about the solution? Notice, this scenario has the solution as fixing books in heaven rather than fixing sinners.

But Hebrews 8:10 tells us that it is our hearts that get fixed, not records in heaven.

From where does condemnation arise? From the condition of being selfish and alienated from God. The reason there is no more condemnation for those in Christ is because these sinners, while not yet perfected, are in unity, harmony, relationship, friendship with God through their trust in Christ. In other words their hearts have been changed from enemies to friends.

Anyone who is joined to Christ is a new being; the old is gone, the new has come. ¹⁸All this is done by God, who through Christ changed us from enemies into his friends and gave us the task of making others his friends also. ¹⁹Our message is that God was in Christ making the whole human race his friends.^d God did not keep an account of their sins, and he has given us the message which tells how he makes them his friends.

20 Here we are, then, speaking for Christ, as though God himself were making his appeal through us. We plead on Christ's behalf: let God change you from enemies into his friends! 2Cor 5:17-20 GNT

Thoughts? What is God doing? Changing us!

What is the law of the Spirit of life that set us free from the law of sin and death? And what is the law of sin and death?

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, "God provided..." thoughts? Was Christ's life in the likeness of sinful flesh "extremely important" or essential?

TUESDAY

Read Romans 8:5,6:

Those who live as their human nature tells them to, have their minds controlled by what human nature wants. Those who live as the Spirit tells them to, have their minds controlled by what the Spirit wants. ⁶To be controlled by human nature results in death; to be controlled by the Spirit results in life and peace. GNT

Thoughts? Read second paragraph, "To have one's..." thoughts?

^d God was making the whole human race his friends through Christ; or God was in Christ making the whole human race his friends.

Why is such a mind against God? Is it that they consciously choose to say no to God or consciously rebel against God or is it that selfishness is opposed to all that God is? And why is such a state death because God is powerful and will kill or because selfishness goes against His design for life?

WEDNESDAY

Read Romans 8:9-14

But you do not live as your human nature tells you to; instead, you live as the Spirit tells you to—if, in fact, God’s Spirit lives in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. ¹⁰But if Christ lives in you, the Spirit is life for you because you have been put right with God, even though your bodies are going to die because of sin. If the Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from death, lives in you, then he who raised Christ from death will also give life to your mortal bodies by the presence of his Spirit in you.

¹² So then, my brothers and sisters, we have an obligation, but it is not to live as our human nature wants us to. For if you live according to your human nature, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death your sinful actions, you will live. ¹⁴Those who are led by God’s Spirit are God’s children.

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read versus 15,16

For the Spirit that God has given you does not make you slaves and cause you to be afraid; instead, the Spirit makes you God’s children, and by the Spirit’s power we cry out to God, “Father! my Father!” God’s Spirit joins himself to our spirits to declare that we are God’s children.

Thoughts? What do you notice from these verses? God's Spirit doesn't make us slaves – why do you think Paul is saying this? What is he telling us? What is the lesson?

And Paul says the Spirit won't make us afraid – what is the importance of this? Any other texts bear on this? How about “perfect love casts out all fear.”

What does it mean to be a child of God? Does it mean we reveal God in us? His image is again reproduced in us?

What does it mean God's Spirit joins himself to ours?

FRIDAY

Read fourth paragraph, “Our ransom...” thoughts? What does a ransom do? Frees from bondage, what holds us in bondage? Lies about God and sinful nature – what is the price to free us? The truth about God and a new nature purified!

Read question 2 and discuss.

Redemption in Romans Lesson 10 3Q 2010

Redemption for Jew and Gentile

SABBATH

Read memory text – “Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.” Rom 9:18

Thoughts? What does this text mean? Is there anyone on whom God does not want to have mercy? Is there anyone God inflicts hardness? Does God use His power to cause the hardening of hearts? Does God use His power to prevent someone from conversion and instead forces them into rebellion and hardness of heart?

If God did that what would such action say about God?

Some argue that God’s sovereignty is such that He actively does cause all things including the hardening of hearts – this is a common teaching among Reform theology a.k.a. Calvinism.

Did God harden Pharaoh’s heart?

- But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go. Exodus 10:20
- But the Egyptian magicians did the same things by their secret arts, and Pharaoh’s heart became hard; he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said. Exodus 7:22
- But this time also Pharaoh hardened his heart and would not let the people go. Exodus 8:32

Are all these verses equally inspired? Which is correct? How do we understand them?

From our Bible commentary on Romans 9:18 we read:

“In Exodus the hardening of Pharaoh’s heart is sometimes described as self-produced and sometimes described as produced by God. In the Bible God is often represented as doing that which He does not prevent (see on 2Chron. 18:18). Paul here chooses the latter representation as better suited to his purpose in this context.”

Thoughts? Is there any further explanation beyond this?

How is a heart actually hardened? What is required to harden a heart? Is it not the choosing against the truth, the choosing against God? Did God present to Pharaoh truth regarding the impotence of the Egyptian gods and the truth that He was the only true God? Did Pharaoh get convicted by this truth? Did he then choose to reject it? Would Pharaoh’s heart have been as hard without the truth presented? But did God force Pharaoh to choose against the truth? No! Thus all passages of scripture are true!

The Lord sends us warning, counsel, and reproof that we may have opportunity to correct our errors before they become second nature. But if we refuse to be corrected, God does not interfere to counteract the tendencies of our own course of action. He works no miracle that the seed sown may not spring up and bear fruit. {1MCP 35.2}

That man who manifests an infidel hardihood or a stolid indifference to divine truth is but reaping the harvest which he has himself sown. Such has been the experience of many. They listen with stoical indifference to the truths which once stirred their very souls. They sowed neglect, indifference, and resistance to the truth; and such is the harvest which they reap. The coldness of ice, the hardness of iron, the impenetrable, unimpressible nature of rock--all these find a counterpart in the character of many a professed Christian. {1MCP 35.3}

It was thus that the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh. God spoke to the Egyptian king by the mouth of Moses, giving him the most striking evidences of divine power; but the monarch stubbornly refused the light which would have brought him to repentance. God did not send a supernatural power to harden the heart of the rebellious king, but as Pharaoh resisted the truth the Holy Spirit was withdrawn, and he was left to the darkness and unbelief which he had chosen. By persistent rejection of the Spirit's influence, men cut themselves off from God. He has in reserve no more potent agency to enlighten their minds. No revelation of His will can reach them in their unbelief.--RH, June 20, 1882. (3BC 1151.) 1MCP 36.

Thoughts?

Read third and fourth paragraph, "The answer is found..."

I agree that Paul is talking about God's use for various purposes and calls some for one office and another for another office. In this case Paul is saying that God has called Gentiles to share in the gift of salvation and the evangelizing of the world, and who are you, Jews, to argue with God – is He not free to call anyone to His service?

But, does this mean God forces people to take on certain roles against their will?

What do you understand about mercy? What is mercy?

A member of our online class, Jon Nash, emailed the following:

The word, "mercy", has always implied to me that an authority figure was bending a law so that I would not experience the consequence (real or arbitrary) of my action. In that context mercy always seemed at odds with "justice". I have come to feel that in the context of Romans, Christians actually mix laws and God's actions to create a confusing and contradictory explanation of what Paul was speaking about. It seems to me that "showing mercy" is in fact the extension of God's power to forestall the consequences of sin while God's justice or righteousness is His dependable actions based on His own law of love - saving or letting go - always desiring to rescue and restore. His mercy is not the bending of His law at all.

This seems so consistent with Micah 6:8. We should show mercy - working to protect and save people from consequences of sin, act justly - applying the law of love to rescue or let go, and at all times walk humbly with God, following His leading, learning from Him, developing a Christ-like character which leads to hope.

Thoughts? I think it is well said.

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "God needed..." thoughts?

What happened? What did God provide for Israel to help them succeed in their mission?

- Prophets – to reveal God’s truths
- Scripture – to reveal God and the truth
- Sanctuary service – to reveal God and His plan to save
- 10 Commandments/Sabbath – to reveal God and diagnose us
- Health reform – to reveal God and teach us His methods
- Tithes and offerings – to participate in God’s methods
- Jubilees – to exercise trust in God

What happened to each of these?

- Prophets – were martyred or rejected
- Scriptures – twisted and misinterpreted to see a severe and punitive God
- Sanctuary service – became legalistic
- 10 Commandments/Sabbath – became badge of honor, burdened with rules, test of obedience, and method of salvation
- Health reform became a spiritual work and point of pride
- Tithes and offerings became means of boasting and exploitation

- Jubilees became ignored

Was there a remnant in Israel that was true to Jesus and who did recognize Him and did become His followers?

And with this twisting and perverting of what God had given what happened to their construct of God?

Christ came to save fallen man, and Satan with fiercest wrath met him on the field of conflict; for the enemy knew that when divine strength was added to human weakness, man was armed with power and intelligence, and could break away from the captivity in which he had bound him. Satan sought to intercept every ray of light from the throne of God. He sought to cast his shadow across the earth, that men might lose the true views of God's character, and that the knowledge of God might become extinct in the earth. He had caused truth of vital importance to be so mingled with error that it had lost its significance. The law of Jehovah was burdened with needless exactions and traditions, and God was represented as severe, exacting, revengeful, and arbitrary. He was pictured as one who could take pleasure in the sufferings of his creatures. The very attributes that belonged to the character of Satan, the evil one represented as belonging to the character of God. Jesus came to teach men of the Father, to correctly represent him before the fallen children of earth. Angels could not fully portray the character of God, but Christ, who was a living impersonation of God, could not fail to accomplish the work. The only way in which he could set and keep men right was to make himself visible and familiar to their eyes. That men might have salvation he came directly to man, and became a partaker of his nature. {ST, January 20, 1890 par. 6}

Thoughts?

Read question 2 from FRIDAY's lesson:

“How do you see the Seventh-day Adventist Church and its calling in the world today paralleling the role of ancient Israel in its day? What are the similarities and the differences? In what way are we doing better? In what way are we doing worse?”

What was Israel’s purpose? To evangelize the world with the truth about God preparing the world for the first advent?

What is the mission of the SDA church? To evangelize the world with the truth about God to prepare the world for the second advent.

With what has God blessed the SDA church to help succeed in our mission?

- Prophet
- Scripture
- Sanctuary message
- 10 Commandments/Sabbath
- Health reform
- Tithes and offerings

What happened to each of these?

- Prophet – shipped to Australia and increasingly rejected
- Scriptures – do we struggle with twisting and misinterpreting scripture that promotes a severe and punitive God
- Sanctuary message – has it become legalistic?
- 10 Commandments/Sabbath – has it become a badge of honor and burdened with rules and a test of remnant status?
- Health reform – has it become a spiritual work and point of pride
- Tithes and offerings – an obligation or ignored?

What are all these blessings of God to do for us? Is it related to revealing God to us? How important is it for us, as a people, to have the right concept of God?

In order to endure the trial before them, [those who would stand during the time of trouble] they must understand the will of God as revealed in His word; they can honor Him only as they have a right conception of His character, government, and purposes, and act in accordance with them. GC 593

We must understand the truth about God's character, government and purposes and act in accordance –

- What is God's character?
- What is the basis of God's government?
- What is God's purpose on earth at this time in history, His purpose for this last day movement?

“It is the darkness of misapprehension of God that is enshrouding the world. Men are losing their knowledge of His character. It has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At this time a message from God is to be proclaimed, a message illuminating in its influence and saving in its power. His character is to be made known. Into the darkness of the world is to be shed the light of His glory, the light of His goodness, mercy and truth...The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is the revelation of His character of love.” Christ's Object Lessons, p.415

Is it God's purpose that the message of His character is to go to the world? How? Does He have a last day purpose for us?

Christ is waiting with longing desire for the manifestation of Himself in His church. When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own. {COL 69.1}

It is the privilege of every Christian not only to look for but to hasten the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, (2 Peter 3:12, margin). Were all who profess His name bearing fruit to His glory, how quickly the whole world would be sown with the seed of the gospel. Quickly the last great harvest would be ripened, and Christ would come to gather the precious grain. {COL 69.2}

How do we hasten the day? Is it not be revealing God's character in our lives? Is it God's purpose for you and me to reveal His character in our lives?

Does the Bible speak of a group of people, who at the end of time, have the character of Christ reproduced within them?

After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was lightened with his glory. Rev 18:1

- Who is the angel referred to in this passage? God's last day people!
- What is glory? Character of God!
- Whose glory is lighting the world? The glory of the angel!
- How does the angel lighten the world with glory?

Is this message of God to be carried forward in our lives? Do we expect to be the very vehicles God uses to glorify Himself on earth to finish the work?

"Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³ I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

²⁴ "For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols.

²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

Ezekiel 36:22-27

In the parable the wise virgins had oil in their vessels with their lamps. Their light burned with undimmed flame through the night of watching. It helped to swell the illumination for the bridegroom's honor. Shining out in the darkness, it helped to illuminate the way to the home of the bridegroom, to the marriage feast. {COL 414.1}

So the followers of Christ are to shed light into the darkness of the world. Through the Holy Spirit, God's word is a light as it becomes a transforming power in the life of the receiver. By implanting in their hearts the principles of His word, the Holy Spirit develops in men the attributes of God. The light of His glory--His character--is to shine forth in His followers. Thus they are to glorify God, to lighten the path to the Bridegroom's home, to the city of God, to the marriage supper of the Lamb. {COL 414.2}

Do we believe God can do this in us, so perfectly that we genuinely glorify Him in our lives?

Has this message been made more difficult to see by some traditions?

THURSDAY

Was there a remnant in Israel?

Read Romans 9:27-32:

Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

“Though the number of the Israelites be like the sand by the sea, only the remnant will be saved. ²⁸ For the Lord will carry out his sentence on earth with speed and finality.”

²⁹ It is just as Isaiah said previously:

“Unless the Lord Almighty had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.”

³⁰ What then shall we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith; ³¹ but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it. ³² Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the “stumbling stone.” ³³ As it is written: “See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

Thoughts?

Here is my paraphrase of Romans 9:25-32:

²⁵ As he says in Hosea:

“I will call them ‘my representatives’ who were not my representatives; and I will call her ‘the conduit of my love’ who had previously rejected my love.”

^{9:26} and,

“It will happen that even though they were told, ‘You do not represent me,’ they will be changed in character and called ‘sons of the living God.’”

^{9:27} Isaiah declares concerning Israel:

“Though the genetic descendants of Abraham are as numerous as the sand by the sea, only a small remnant will accept the remedy and be healed.

^{9:28} For the Lord will carry out his diagnosis on the earth with accuracy and certainty.”

^{9:29} It is sadly as Isaiah has said:

“If the Lord Almighty hadn’t worked so hard, so patiently, so diligently to preserve us, we would have no descendents. We would have ended up like Sodom, we would have ended up like Gomorrah.”

^{9:30} How then do we understand this? It is very simple – the Gentiles who had no idea they were infected with selfishness and were therefore dying, and certainly didn’t have a clue that a remedy to heal them was available, therefore, didn’t pursue God’s healing cure. But when they became aware of their condition and that a cure existed obtained it by trust in him who heals and restores; ³¹ but Israel, who knew their condition and knew a cure was available, who had been given the teaching tools designed to lead them back to trust did not attain it. ³² Why not? Instead of trusting God and accepting his free remedy, they attempted to cure themselves by their own efforts. Thus they stumbled over the “stumbling stone” refusing to trust in him. ³³ As it is written:

“See, I have placed in Zion a stone of truth that reveals the stumbling and shortcoming of men, and a rock of righteousness that exposes how far short they fall, but the one who trusts in him will be completely healed and never stumble or fall again.”

What about our church? Are we doing better than ancient Israel? In what way? What can we do better than we are currently doing?

MONDAY

The third paragraph expresses quite nicely who decides our eternal destiny – is it God’s judgment of us or our decision? The lesson says, “It’s our own choices, not God’s, that keep us from the promise of eternal life in Christ.”

TUESDAY

Read memory verse at top of page, “For my thoughts...” thoughts?

How have you heard this text used? Have you ever heard it used to justify the idea that God will inflict torture and suffering on sinners to make them pay and then execute them in the end?

But what is the context, verse 7, immediately before says:

Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

Thoughts? What is God saying are not His ways? The way of vengeance, revenge, punishment etc. Instead, God's ways are the ways of mercy and free forgiveness!

Does that mean Christ's death wasn't necessary for our salvation? Of course not, we could not be saved without the death of Christ, but Christ's death wasn't needed to get God to forgive or have mercy. Christ's death was necessary for our healing, our restoration!

Read second paragraph, "Obviously..." thoughts? Do you find this line of reasoning a little thin?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? If we understand God's character is exactly as Jesus revealed it, does that set certain parameters or boundaries on how we interpret the rest of Scripture? Any examples?

WEDNESDAY

Read Romans 9:25,26:

As he says in Hosea: "I will call them 'my people' who are not my people; and I will call her 'my loved one' who is not my loved one," and, "It will happen that in the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"

What is Paul saying in this passage? Who are the people of God?
Why were they not God's people before?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph and discuss? Thoughts about what we are elected to accomplish? How does Christ elect us to this?

Read and discuss question 1

Redemption in Romans Lesson 11 3Q 2010

The Election of Grace

SUNDAY

Read Romans 10:4:

Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Thoughts? What does it mean “end of the law?” Does it mean he brought an end to the penalty the broken law required by paying our legal debt? No! Why not? Somehow being an end to the law brings righteousness - How would paying a penalty bring righteousness? It doesn't –

The classic example often given of a speeder coming into court and the judge finds him guilty and then gets off the bench and pays the fine himself – demonstrates the weakness – we have our fine paid, but how does that change us? We are still speeders – more so if we now know the judge just didn't pay that fine but all future fines are likewise paid in full.

The third paragraph in the lesson points out that the word translated “end” can also be translated “goal” or “purpose” of the law. How is Christ the end, goal or purpose of the law?

What was the goal or purpose of the law? The written law was given to diagnose sin and lead us to Christ is that what this is referring to? Is Christ the end, goal or purpose of the written law's diagnosis?

Or is there another, deeper understanding of God's law?

- Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. Romans 13:10
- The entire law is summed up in a single command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Galatians 5:14

- If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing right. James 2:8
- Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” Matt 12:37-40
- The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul. Ps 19:7

Is Jesus the complete fulfillment of the law of love? And does this idea fit with the text in regard to righteousness for everyone? Did Jesus restore the law into humanity?

The law is more than a code on stone but a living law upon which life is built. Doesn't that mean we can only really see and understand God's law when it is seen in a living being – Jesus?

Read first paragraph, “Legalism...” thoughts

What forms of legalism have you heard or seen?

Works of the law as the lesson points out, with which some again try to burden us. How may read the blog for this week posted yesterday regarding circumcision and feast days? Some argue we should still be observing them because God never said to stop – what is the weakness of this position?

Any other forms of legalism?

What about legal penal substitution? Is this a form of legalism? Jesus died to pay our legal penalty, or to pay the law, or so the Father could offer us legal pardon etc.?

What about models that have legal events transpiring in heaven in which God declares things to be such and such when they are not? Or record books are being adjusted and sins are being erased from the books – a heavenly, legal, record keeping scheme?

Do we teach various forms of legalism and call it righteousness?

If our sin problem isn't a legal problem how would you describe our problem and God's solution?

Read second paragraph, "Romans 10:4..." thoughts? What is righteousness? What does righteousness mean?

Does it mean harmony with God's law? What law? Would it be the law of love? And how do we understand the law of love? Is it imposed? Is it the design template for life? If righteousness means harmony with the law of love which is the law of life, in what would we expect righteousness to result? Health and life?

- In the way of righteousness there is life; along that path is immortality. Proverbs 12:28
- He who pursues righteousness and love finds life, prosperity and honor. Proverbs 21:21

So if righteousness is the same as perfect harmony with the law of love – how do we achieve it?

He [God] would have us comprehend something of His love in giving His Son to die that He might counteract evil, remove the defiling stains of sin from the workmanship of God, and reinstate the lost, elevating and ennobling the soul to its original purity through Christ's imputed righteousness. TMK 206

What do you hear in this description? What does imputed righteousness do? Penal models claim imputed righteousness is a legal proclamation or accounting as if it were so – but notice this description is an actual event, achievement, transformation that occurs within the believer – all possible because of Christ's actual achievements on earth.

"But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18). Beholding Christ means studying His life as given in His Word. We are to dig for truth as for hidden treasure. We are to fix our eyes upon Christ. When we take Him as our personal Saviour, this gives us boldness to approach the throne of grace. By beholding we become changed, morally assimilated to the One who is perfect in character. By receiving His imputed righteousness, through the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, we become like Him. The image of Christ is cherished, and it captivates the whole being. {AG 96.4}

Again what do you hear? How are we changed? By meditating, admiring, worshipping, surrendering, choosing, beholding and loving Christ!

Brain science reveals that what we believe actually changes us and by beholding we are transformed more and more to be like that which we revere and admire. Even DNA expression can be changed.

MONDAY

Read Romans 11:1-7:

I ask then: Did God reject his people? By no means! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ² God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Don't you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah—how he appealed to God against Israel: ³ "Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me"^a? ⁴ And what was God's answer to him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal."^b ⁵ So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. ⁶ And if by grace, then it is no longer by works; if it were, grace would no longer be grace.^c

^a 1 Kings 19:10,14

^b 1 Kings 19:18

^c Some manuscripts by grace. But if by works, then it is no longer grace; if it were, work would no longer be work.

Thoughts?

Who is the remnant? Was Israel the remnant or was the remnant a group from within Israel who were loyal to Christ? What about in the SDA church? Is the remnant the SDA church or those who in the church experience renewing grace and the true knowledge of God?

Read Romans 11:7-10:

What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened, ⁸ as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes so that they could not see and ears so that they could not hear, to this very day."^{d 9} And David says: "May their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them. ¹⁰ May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent forever."^e

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, "In these verses..." thoughts? Does God blind people to salvation? But the lesson emphasizes this is not about salvation but about the role people are to take. Does God use His power to blind people to His calling for their lives?

How do we understand these passages?

Each actor in history stands in his lot and place; for God's great work after His own plan will be carried out by men who have prepared themselves to fill positions for good or evil. In opposition to righteousness, men become instruments of unrighteousness. But they are not forced to take this course of action. They need not become instruments of

^d Deut. 29:4; Isaiah 29:10

^e Psalm 69:22,23

unrighteousness, any more than Cain needed to. . . . {CC 371.2}

Men of all characters, righteous and unrighteous, will stand in their several positions in God's plan. With the characters they have formed, they will act their part in the fulfillment of history. In a crisis, just at the right moment, they will stand in the places they have prepared themselves to fill. Believers and unbelievers will fall into line as witnesses to confirm truth that they themselves do not comprehend. All will cooperate in accomplishing the purposes of God, just as did Annas, Caiaphas, Pilate, and Herod. In putting Christ to death, the priests thought they were carrying out their own purposes, but unconsciously and unintentionally they were fulfilling the purpose of God. {CC 371.3}

God looks into the tiny seed that He Himself has formed, and sees wrapped within it the beautiful flower, the shrub, or the lofty, wide-spreading tree. So does He see the possibilities in every human being. We are here for a purpose. God has given us His plan for our life, and He desires us to reach the highest standard of development. . . . {CC 371.4}

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read third paragraph, "Into this tree..." thoughts? Do you think the tree represents Israel? Are we to derive our sap from Israel?

Isn't Jesus the vine and we are the branches?

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶ If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. ⁷ If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. ⁸ This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples. John 15:5-8

Read fourth paragraph, “What happened...” thoughts?

Have you ever struggled with either question, once saved always saved, or every sin loses your salvation? What is the problem with both?

Both perspectives are legalistic in nature – Once saved always saved is based on sin being in legal trouble with God, once we accept the legal payment Jesus has made, then all sins past, present, future have been paid for and we are saved. Any future sin is already been paid for so we cannot be lost, once we accept Jesus and His legal payment.

The other view, is also legalistic, every sin committed must be punished (who urged this idea? see DA 761) and therefore if we don't confess and ask forgiveness for every individual act of sin then those sins won't be “paid” for and won't be “erased” from the record book and will stand against us in the judgment and result in required punishment of eternal death.

Both views are wrong because both have accepted a wrong concept of God's character, government and what sin actually is.

What is the truth?

WEDNESDAY

Read Romans 11:25-27:

I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. And this is^a my covenant with them when I take away their sins.”^b

Thoughts? The lesson says this passage has been debated for centuries, what do you think it means?

To whom does God’s covenant of removing their sins from them apply? Is it not to all people or only to genetic descendants of Abraham?

Who, according to the Bible is a descendent of Abraham?

³⁹“Abraham is our father,” they answered.

“If you were Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then you would^c do the things Abraham did. ⁴⁰ As it is, you are determined to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things. ⁴¹ You are doing the things your own father does.”

“We are not illegitimate children,” they protested. “The only Father we have is God himself.”

⁴² Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. ⁴³ Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. ⁴⁴ You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. John 8:39-44

What did Jesus say makes one a child of Abraham?

Romans four Paul already made the point that Abraham is the father of all who believe, or trust God like Abraham did, both the circumcised and uncircumcised.

^a Or will be

^b Isaiah 59:20,21; 27:9; Jer. 31:33,34

^c Some early manuscripts “If you are Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then

Paul makes the same point to the Galatians:

Consider Abraham: “He believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^a ⁷ Understand, then, that those who believe are children of Abraham. Gal 3:6,7

So what does the text in Romans mean? Here is my paraphrase:

11:25 I want to explain to you this mystery – this unexplainable rejection of God’s plan by Israel, so that you will not become conceited and make the same mistake: A large part of the genetic descendants of Abraham have hardened their hearts to God and rejected the truth as revealed by Jesus, therefore God’s plan for Abraham’s descendants will not be fulfilled until those hardened and broken off are replaced by a large number of Gentiles who are grafted in. ²⁶ And so all true children of Abraham – those like Abraham in character, not genetics, will be saved, as it is written:

“The deliverer will come from Zion;
he will remove all selfishness and sin from all those who trust God like Jacob.

11:27 And my promise to them is this: I will heal them and remove all sin, disease and defect from them restoring them perfectly to my original ideal.”

Thoughts?

What was God’s plan for Israel? To reveal the truth about God to the world – and God’s plan for Israel will not be fulfilled until all of us, who will accept Jesus come in and reveal Him in our lives and characters.

THURSDAY - Any questions or comments about Thursday’s lesson?

FRIDAY Read questions 1-3 and discuss

^a Gen. 15:6

Redemption in Romans Lesson 12 3Q 2010

Love and Law

What do you think about the title? Is there a difference between love and law? If so how? If not why not?

SABBATH

Read second paragraph, “Romans contains...” thoughts? What would cause a person to desire to obey?

- Truth – about how obedience heals and disobedience destroys
- Love – experienced from God and others
- Fear? What about the time honored method of inciting fear of punishment? Is there a place for this? Yes – when and where? What happens if this method never changes?

- The man who attempts to keep the commandments of God from a sense of obligation merely--because he is required to do so--will never enter into the joy of obedience. He does not obey. When the requirements of God are accounted a burden because they cut across human inclination, we may know that the life is not a Christian life. True obedience is the outworking of a principle within. It springs from the love of righteousness, the love of the law of God. The essence of all righteousness is loyalty to our Redeemer. This will lead us to do right because it is right--because right doing is pleasing to God. {COL 97.3}

- A sullen submission to the will of the Father will develop the character of a rebel. By such a one service is looked upon as drudgery. It is not rendered cheerfully, and in the love of God. It is a mere mechanical performance. If he dared, such a one would disobey. His rebellion is smothered, ready to break out at any time in bitter murmurings and complaints. Such service brings no peace or quietude to the soul. {ST, July 22, 1897}

What happens if fear of punishment, or fear of loss of eternal life, or fear of embarrassment or any other fear remains our motivator for obedience? Rebellion and failure to mature – what then about sermons designed to incite fear?

What obstructs or interferes with our desire to obey?

- Lies – clearly lies about God, but what about lies about what obedience is and is not? And lies about why we obey?
- Misunderstanding of God’s law and universe
- Habits
- Emotions/feelings of attachment to disobedience
- Discomfort of change – what if the truth is that a certain diet is healthier than the one you were raised upon?
- Pain of accepting the truth – what if the truth means a certain way of living is unhealthy, like living together without being married, and someone you love and admire is in such a situation? What would accepting the truth mean? We cannot model ourselves after the person we admire, our estimation of them may fall, this may be disappointing and we may be unwilling to allow this? What happens if we are the one in such a relationship?
- Stress of relationships, what if accepting the truth results in rejection from family?
- Stress of society – what if accepting the truth results in loss of job or imprisonment?

Last paragraph states,

“One could even argue that because of the added revelation after Jesus came, the New Testament requirements are more difficult than what was required in the Old. New Testament believers have been given an example of proper moral behavior in Jesus Christ.”

Thoughts? What do you think this means? What argument can be made for the idea that it is harder after Christ than before? Were the requirements of salvation different before the cross than after?

God requires at this time just what He required of the holy pair in Eden--perfect obedience to His requirements. His law remains the same in all ages. The great standard of righteousness presented in the Old Testament is not lowered in the New. It is not the work of the gospel to weaken the claims of God's holy law but to bring men up where they can keep its precepts. {FW 52.1}

It is unsafe to trust to feelings or impressions; these are unreliable guides. God's law is the only correct standard of holiness. It is by this law that character is to be judged. If an inquirer after salvation were to ask, "What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" the modern teachers of sanctification would answer, "Only believe that Jesus saves you." But when Christ was asked this question He said, "What is written in the law? how readest thou?" And when the questioner replied, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, . . . and thy neighbour as thyself," Jesus said, "Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live" (Luke 10:25-29). {FW 52.3}

What do you hear? Has there been a change in the requirements? And what are the requirements? Love – why is this the requirement? Because this is the basis upon which life is constructed to operate – it is the same as asking why is it a requirement we breathe?

Is it harder today than before the cross? Or is it easier now that we have a clearer picture of God and the assurance that Christ has won the battle?

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “For starters...” thoughts?

Several points to contemplate –

- Faith is not a substitute for obedience – why? If you are sick and go to your doctor and you have a kind, loving, competent doctor, and you trust or have faith in your doctor and he tells you that you need to change your diet, exercise, cut out alcohol, get 7.5 hours sleep per night. Will your trust in the doctor substitute for actually choosing to apply to your life what He has instructed? If you are sick and the doctor gives an antibiotic, if you trust the doctor what will you do? Will trust substitute for taking the antibiotics? Is this similar to our relationship to God?

- The lesson states, “The moral precepts are still in force.” How do you hear this? What does it mean?
- The paragraph states that “if we stumble, we are not cast away but have a High Priest who intercedes in our behalf.” (Heb 7:25). What does this mean? What is our High Priest interceding to achieve? What does intercession look like? Where and with whom does He intercede?

The lesson quotes Heb 7:25:

“Therefore he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.”

What does it sound like the High Priest is interceding to achieve? Our salvation – which means what? What needs to happen for us to be saved? Does God need to be persuaded to save us? Does God need some cosmic legal loophole created so He is allowed to save us? Is the obstacle to our salvation found somewhere in God?

What is the obstacle to our salvation? Is it not our own sinfulness? Then when we sin where would the High Priest intercede? Would it not be in our hearts and minds to heal and restore?

The OT sanctuary gives examples of this – where is the law in the old system? In the Most Holy place – where in the new covenant? In our hearts and minds. Where was the blood administered in the old system? Throughout the courtyard and building – where in the new? Inside us (John 6). Jesus is the light which lightens the world and is represented by the solid gold candlestick, but we are the branches connected to the vine and are to let our light shine – what happened to the candle stick twice per day? The High Priest and only the High Priest trimmed the wicks so they would shine brighter – meaning that Christ works in our hearts so we will shine brighter for Him!

In the parable of the wedding what was to happen to the guests? They were to wear new clothes – was someone interceding standing between the guests and the Lord of the supper preventing Him from seeing them or did the Lord provide new clothes for the guests? Is the High Priest clothing/cleansing us or obstructing the view of the Father?

In Malachi 3 the Lord comes to His temple and does something – He cleanses the Levites – this is what our High Priest is interceding to accomplish!

Next paragraph asks us to consider Romans 12:1:

- Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. NIV
- I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. KJV
- I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the compassions of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your intelligent service. Darby Thoughts? What does this mean? What does it mean to be spiritual?

The Greek translated as “spiritual, reasonable, logical” is log·ik·os

What do you hear in this word? Can a person be spiritual without being logical and reasonable?

When we talk about being sealed by God what is that seal?

Just as soon as the people of God are sealed in their foreheads--it is not any seal or mark that can be seen, but a settling into the truth, both intellectually and spiritually, so they cannot be moved--just as soon as God's people are sealed and prepared for the shaking, it will come. Indeed, it has begun already; {FLB 287.7}

What does it mean to be settled intellectually? What does it mean to be settled spiritually? How does this relate to what Paul is telling us in Romans 12:1?

Consider smoking – have you evaluated the truth about what smoking does? Have you been settled into the truth intellectually so that no graph or chart or statistics from a tobacco company could shake you out of that truth? Are you not only settled intellectually, but have you also decided to never smoke and in character and behavior you are settled beyond the point you could be induced to smoke? This is spiritual settling, settling into the character and behavior.

Consider a smoker – have you ever known one who was convinced and intellectually settled into the truth of the harm smoking does, yet they keep on smoking? This would be a person who is settled intellectually but not spiritually.

And I have a rare patient who actually believes that smoking is good for their lungs and such a person is not settled intellectually or spiritually.

So what is Paul telling us? Is it reasonable and logical for a person to understand the truth about smoking and choose to be so settled they will never smoke? Is it reasonable and logical to be so settled into the truth about God, His kingdom of love, our inherent condition and inability to fix ourselves, that we present ourselves fully to Him for His healing and we intelligently choose His methods for our lives, and through His grace actually love others more than self?

TUESDAY

Second paragraph states, "The concept, the principle of government, is God-ordained. Human beings need to live in a community with rules and regulations and standards." Thoughts?

Is it true we need a community with rules, regulations and standards? Is this true only for our condition in sin or will we still need rules and regulations when sin will be eliminated?

Is there a difference between rules, regulations and law?

Why does a child need a "rule" to brush their teeth? Does the child need the rule? Once the child is an adult does the child need the rule? Was it only needed because the child didn't have such principle upon the heart?

Where is God's law to be written? In the heart and in heaven will there be a law? Absolutely! What law? The law of love! Will there be codified rules and regulations? Absolutely NOT!

But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. Love for God makes their service a joy. So in every soul wherein Christ, the hope of glory, dwells, His words are re-echoed, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God: yea, Thy law is within My heart." Psalm 40:8. {MB 109.2}

Why do you think so many religious people emphasize rules and regulations?

The effort to earn salvation by one's own works inevitably leads men to pile up human exactions as a barrier against sin. For, seeing that they fail to keep the law, they will devise rules and regulations of their own to force themselves to obey. All this turns the mind away from God to self. His love dies out of the heart, and with it perishes love for his fellow men. A system of human invention, with its multitudinous exactions, will lead its advocates to judge all who come short of the prescribed human standard. The atmosphere of selfish and narrow criticism stifles the noble and generous emotions, and causes men to become self-centered judges and petty spies. {MB 123.1}

Thoughts? Have you ever felt under a system of multitudinous exactions? How do we avoid it? What is the truth about God's law?

Do we expect a written law in heaven?

Paul evidently didn't:

We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. ⁹ We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine ¹¹ that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me. 1Tim 1:8-11

Why will we not need a written law, or regulations, or rules in heaven?

This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. Heb 8:10

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section "Owe no man..." thoughts? What fallacy or false assumption exists in the question? That there is a law other than the law of love! There is no other law in God's universe and perfect harmony with the law of love is perfect harmony with all God's law!

- But turning from all lesser representations, we behold God in Jesus. Looking unto Jesus we see that it is the glory of our God to give. "I do nothing of Myself," said Christ; "the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father." "I seek not Mine own glory," but the glory of Him that sent Me. John 8:28; 6:57; 8:50; 7:18. In these words is set forth the great principle which is the law of life for the universe. All things Christ received from God, but He took to give. So in the heavenly courts, in His ministry for all created beings: through the beloved Son, the Father's life flows out to all; through the Son it returns, in praise and joyous service, a tide of love, to the great Source of all. And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life. DA 21
- God is constantly employed in upholding and using as His servants the things that He has made. He works through the laws of nature, using them as His instruments. They are not self-acting. Nature in her work testifies of the intelligent presence and active agency of a Being who moves in all things according to His will. MH 416
- Many teach that matter possesses vital power--that certain properties are imparted to matter, and it is then left to act through its own inherent energy; and that the operations of nature are conducted in harmony with fixed laws, with which God Himself cannot interfere. This is false science, and is not sustained by the word of God. Nature is the servant of her Creator. God does not annul His laws or work contrary to them, but He is continually using them as His instruments. Nature testifies of an intelligence, a presence, an active energy, that works in and through her laws. There is in nature the continual working of the Father and the Son. Christ says, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." John 5:17. {PP 114.4}

- But His energy is still exerted in upholding the objects of His creation. It is not because the mechanism that has once been set in motion continues to act by its own inherent energy that the pulse beats and breath follows breath; but every breath, every pulsation of the heart, is an evidence of the all-pervading care of Him in whom "we live, and move, and have our being." Acts 17:28. It is not because of inherent power that year by year the earth produces her bounties and continues her motion around the sun. The hand of God guides the planets and keeps them in position in their orderly march through the heavens. {PP 115.1}

God is love. His law is love and all nature, as God designed, is an expression of this law. All laws of nature are designed to operate as expressions and in harmony with God's law of love, which is His character.

Thoughts?

Read first paragraph, "As Jesus...." Thoughts? Why is the law still binding? Why will the law always be binding? Does our position undermine the standard and exactness of the law or does it make it much more uncompromising? The law cannot be changed to meet the sinner in his sin – why? So if the law cannot be changed what must be changed? Not the penalty of the law – not appeasing, paying or any other way – but the sinner must be changed, to be brought back into harmony with the very standard life is built upon!

Bottom green section – read and discuss

THURSDAY

Read Romans 13:11

And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

Thoughts? What does it mean? What does it mean to wake up from slumber?

Last two sentences of first paragraph state, “Though, ideally, Judaism even in Old Testament times was a religion of grace, legalism arose and did a lot of damage. How careful we as a church need to be that we don’t make the same mistake.”

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, “Though Paul...” thoughts?

Is our faith really meaningless without the second coming? If there was no second coming would that mean there is a better way to live than in harmony with the law of love? If we “obey” only to get the reward of the second coming are we really obeying or is it still all about self?

Angels were so interested for man's salvation that there could be found among them those who would yield their glory and give their life for perishing man... SR 45

Isn't it God's goal to heal our hearts to such a point?

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.
1John 3:16

Isn't it still better to live as God designed, if for only a few years, than to live out of harmony with His law for centuries? In fact, isn't living out of harmony with His law the very basis of pain, suffering and torment?

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, “Yet, it is...” thoughts? How do you hear this? What does “spirit” of the law mean? Which is greater, the 10 Commandments or the law of love? Why?

Read fourth paragraph, “Paul here shows...” thoughts?

What does practical love look and act like? Any examples?

- Gifts, flowers, kind words, smiles, food, clothes, shelter
- What about vaccines, time outs, spankings, prison?

Does love ever act contrary to love? Does love ever end?

- What about the final destruction of the wicked?
- How is the final destruction of the wicked an act of love?

Those who have chosen Satan as their leader and have been controlled by his power are not prepared to enter the presence of God. Pride, deception, licentiousness, cruelty, have become fixed in their characters. Can they enter heaven to dwell forever with those whom they despised and hated on earth? Truth will never be agreeable to a liar; meekness will not satisfy self-esteem and pride; purity is not acceptable to the corrupt; disinterested love does not appear attractive to the selfish. What source of enjoyment could heaven offer to those who are wholly absorbed in earthly and selfish interests? {GC 542.1}

Could those whose lives have been spent in rebellion against God be suddenly transported to heaven and witness the high, the holy state of perfection that ever exists there,-- every soul filled with love, every countenance beaming with joy, enrapturing music in melodious strains rising in honor of God and the Lamb, and ceaseless streams of light flowing upon the redeemed from the face of Him who sitteth upon the throne,--could those whose hearts are filled with hatred of God, of truth and holiness, mingle with the heavenly throng and join their songs of praise? Could they endure the glory of God and the Lamb? No, no; years of probation were granted them, that they might form characters for heaven; but they have never trained the mind to love purity; they have never learned the language of heaven, and now it is too late. A life of rebellion against God has unfitted them for heaven. Its purity, holiness, and peace would be torture to them; the glory of God would be a consuming fire. They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is voluntary with themselves, and just and merciful on the part of God. {GC 542.2}

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable. GC 542.3

Does God have to act to inflict death or is it when God let's go, stops exercising His power that the wicked die? If God were to act to keep them at His side, what would be the result? Why would keeping the wicked at His side be torture? Would God be inflicting it? What would such a state do to God? What is the only course love can take?

FRIDAY - Read first paragraph, "In the Bible..." thoughts?

Read and discuss questions 2 and 3.

Redemption in Romans Lesson 13 3Q 2010

All the Rest is Commentary

SABBATH

Second paragraph states, "What is the role of the law – be it the whole Old Testament system or just the Ten Commandments – in the area of salvation? Paul needed to define clearly what are the grounds upon which God accepts a person."

Thoughts about this?

What would you say are the grounds upon which God accepts a person? What makes a person unacceptable to God? How does our unacceptableness get changed into acceptance?

What reasons have you heard that we are unacceptable to God and what grounds have you heard that God can accept us?

After Adam and Eve had partaken of the forbidden fruit, they were filled with a sense of shame and terror. At first their only thought was how to excuse their sin before God and escape the dreaded sentence of death. When the Lord inquired concerning their sin, Adam replied, laying the guilt partly upon God and partly upon his companion: "The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." The woman put the blame upon the serpent, saying: "The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.' Why did You make the serpent? Why did You suffer him to come into Eden?" These were the questions implied in her excuse for her sin, thus charging God with the responsibility of their fall. The spirit of self-justification originated in the father of lies and has been exhibited by all the sons and daughters of Adam. Confessions of this order are not inspired by the divine Spirit and will not be acceptable before God. True repentance will lead a man to bear his guilt himself and acknowledge it without deception or hypocrisy. {5T 637.2}

Why is such a confession not acceptable before God?

Does this give us insight into what makes one acceptable, what the grounds are?

The apostle says, "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof." Let every soul heed these words, and know that the Lord Jesus will accept of no compromise. In accepting and retaining workers who persist in retaining their imperfections of character, and do not give full proof of their ministry, the standard has been greatly lowered. There are many in responsible positions who do not heed the injunction of the apostle, but make provision for fulfilling the lust of the flesh. Unless the worker puts on the Lord Jesus Christ and finds in Him wisdom, sanctification, and redemption, how can he represent the religion of Jesus? All his efficiency, all his reward, is found in Christ. .. Why is it that those who have been long engaged in the ministry do not grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus? I have been shown that they gratify their selfish propensities and do only such things as agree with their tastes and ideas. They make provision for indulgence in pride and sensuality and carry out their selfish ambitions and plans. They are full of self-esteem. But although their evil propensities may seem to them as precious as the right hand or the right eye, they must be separated from the worker, or he cannot be acceptable before God.
{TM 171.1}

What do you hear in this reference that prevents one from being acceptable to God? Is it similar to the first reference? Does our lack of acceptance with God have anything to do with our condition?

The apostle recognizes the importance of the family relations, and the powerful influence of the home. In his epistles he enjoins certain rules upon families. He says of the children, "Let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents; for that is good and acceptable before God."
{The Health Reformer, December 1, 1877 par. 1}

What is good and acceptable before God? Again is it something about our heart/mind/character condition?

What makes us acceptable before God? Is it not union with Jesus Christ which transforms us back into His image and we live His life?

You can show to the world that there is power in the religion of Christ. Jesus will help those who seek him with all their hearts, to overcome the world, the flesh, and the Devil. When you follow the light, walking in the path of truth, you will reflect the rays of glory, and be like a city set upon a hill that cannot be hid. When the books of remembrance shall be opened, your words, your deeds of love, will be acceptable before God; your robes, washed in the blood of the Lamb, will be spotless; the righteousness of Christ will be put upon you, and you will be given a new, an immortal name. {RH, September 16, 1890 par. 8}

What makes us acceptable before God? Is it not being healed and restored to Christlikeness by God's work in our lives and living a life in harmony with God's law of love?

Why is this what makes us acceptable? Why can God not accept something else?

It is faith that engrafts us into the parent stalk of the living vine. Faith that depends on Christ, derives virtue from him as the branch draws sap from the root. Says the prophet, "The just shall live by faith," and this truth, woven into the religious experience of every Christian, should be that by which the righteous shall live. .. {ST, August 5, 1889 par. 7}

The Gentiles had no light upon the law of God, and had not followed after righteousness, but those who believed in Christ attained unto righteousness through faith in him. They accepted God's law as the rule of character. The unbelieving Jews had not attained to the righteous requirements of the law, because they refused the only virtue that could avail to make them righteous and acceptable before God. "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness [which is of the law], have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth." Christ is the end, or purpose, of the law. The law condemns the sinner, and thus drives him to Christ for righteousness. {ST, August 5, 1889 par. 8}

What do you hear? What do we obtain from Christ – a declaration or a real transformation in heart/mind/character? We are actually changed to be like Him and this is what makes us acceptable to God!

What is the role of the law? Is there more than one law? Let's name as many of the different types of law as we can:

- Universal Principles
 - Law of love
 - Law of liberty
 - Law of worship
 - Laws of health
 - Laws of nature
- Written laws
 - By God
 - 10 Commandments
 - Criminal
 - Civil
 - Property ownership
 - Marriage
 - Ceremonial laws
 - Religious rituals
 - Diet
 - Hygiene
 - By men
 - Criminal
 - Civil

- Rules
 - Parental
 - Brush teeth, clean room etc.
 - Organizational
 - School
 - Dress, absenteeism, conduct
 - Work
 - Dress, absenteeism, conduct
- Social rules/conventions
 - Don't come to church in a swimsuit
 - Eastern society take shoes off indoors

With this in mind let's turn to Sunday's lesson

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "In Romans..." thoughts? Why is there confusion over this point? Because people confuse three different laws.

- The text is referring to the law of worship and that if you recognize an idol is nothing more than a piece of stone or wood it has no impact on the nutritional value of the food, so eat. But if you don't recognize this, and your spiritual maturity (faith) is such that you still struggle with certain superstitions and fear the food offered to idols may curse you, then don't eat.
- Second law sometimes considered in this text is the ceremonial law. We recognize that after Christ one cannot be ceremonially unclean by association with things non-Jewish.
- Third law – laws of health

The mistake made today by much of Christianity is in confusing these three laws. While it is true an idol is not real and has no power and the ceremonial law is no longer applied, neither of those truths do away with the laws of health. Meaning, just because something isn't affected by an idol, or causes us ceremonial uncleanness, doesn't mean it is healthy. And therefore much of Christianity suffers with illness of body and mind they could avoid if they would remember the laws of health and eat only that which God has given for food.

Can you think of other areas in which we get “laws” confused?

Read bottom green section, “Though we need...” thoughts?

How can we know when to speak and when to keep silent? When are we to speak?

- When we are in the position of responsibility – like parents teaching our children the principles of God’s kingdom and healthy living
- When we are health care practitioners treating a patient
- When we are preacher or teach exhorting a group

What about person to person in the church or community?

I have seen the great sacrifice which Jesus made to redeem man. He did not consider His own life too dear to sacrifice. Said Jesus: "Love one another, as I have loved you." Do you feel, when a brother errs, that you could give your life to save him? If you feel thus, you can approach him and affect his heart; you are just the one to visit that brother. But it is a lamentable fact that many who profess to be brethren, are not willing to sacrifice any of their opinions or their judgment to save a brother. There is but little love for one another. A selfish spirit is manifested. {1T 166.2}

Thoughts? What about judging our leadership? Is it ever appropriate to do this? Why or why not? What about judging God? Are we to make judgments about God?

MONDAY

Read memory text from SABBATH’s lesson and then read first paragraph, “We tend...” thoughts?

Why will those who judge others be judged with the same measure? Is it because God has an angel keeping track of what we do and how we judge others to ensure He gives us exactly what we have given others? No!

Jesus said, “from the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks, the good man brings forth good out of the good stored up in him and the evil man brings forth evil out of the evil stored up in him.” Matt 12:34,35.

What is Jesus telling us? The measure we use to judge others reveals what? The actual condition of our heart and mind, therefore, this is the measure to judge us because it is the measure of our very own condition!

Read next paragraph, “The citation...” thoughts? How do you understand the idea of appearing before the judgment seat of God? Would you hear it differently if we said “everyone must appear before the diagnostic eye of God?”

When God “judges” what is He doing? Is it not making the accurate diagnosis of our hearts and minds, either healed or unhealed?

Here is one of God’s judgments in Hosea 4:17:

Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone!

Does such a judgment cause Ephraim to be this way or merely accurately diagnose his actual condition?

Why can no one answer for another? We are all responsible for the condition of our own hearts and minds and characters, have we accepted opportunities to overcome injury, heal wounds, rise above disadvantages of upbringing and through God’s grace develop a loving, kind and forgiving heart – or have we made excuses and refused God’s healing plan?

Last paragraph, “A person should not...” thoughts? Why is this true? Can someone actually have an overly sensitive conscience? I want to suggest no, we can have a misinformed conscious or an overly active conscious. In other words we can believe untruths which bring sense of guilt when no wrong had transpired, or have neural circuit defects which cause guilt, but the conscious in this state is not overly sensitive but overly active. What is the way to help someone in this state? By the truth and other appropriate treatments.

But we can have an imbalanced mind in which reason is not operating while conscience is. Our judgment is comprised of reason and conscience and if reason is diminished or sidelined then conscience can become unhealthy.

WEDNESDAY

Read Romans 14:5:

One man considers one day more sacred than another; another man considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

The lesson asks if this applies or refers to the fourth commandment and then argues that it does not. What are your thoughts?

Is Christ important to our salvation? Does each person, who is saved, need to be fully persuaded in their own mind regarding Christ?

Is the Sabbath important? Does each person need to be fully persuaded in their own mind?

Is Paul saying whichever day doesn't really matter or is he saying if you are not fully persuaded in your own mind about the value and benefit of the Sabbath, then even if you avoid work on it, you won't be blessed by it.

What are you persuaded about when it comes to the Sabbath?

- Which day of the week is the Sabbath

- What about its purpose?
 - Embodiment of God's principles truth, love, freedom
 - Evidence of God's character
 - Evidence to the fundamental questions of life, where are we from, why are we here, and where are we going
 - Given to mankind for our protection, enlightenment, and as evidence of God's true nature and character
- Is it a delight?

TUESDAY

Read Romans 14:15-23:

If your brother is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy your brother for whom Christ died. ¹⁶ Do not allow what you consider good to be spoken of as evil. ¹⁷ For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, ¹⁸ because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.

¹⁹ Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification. ²⁰ Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a man to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble. ²¹ It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother to fall.

²² So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn himself by what he approves. ²³ But the man who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Thoughts? What does this mean to you? How do you apply this in your life?

THURSDAY

Read Romans 15:1-3:

We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. ² Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. ³ For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”^c

Thoughts? What does this mean?

My paraphrase:

Romans 15:1 We who have had our minds set free from distrust and fear, and are therefore strong in our confidence in God and in our understanding of his methods, have a responsibility to help those still weakened by the infection of distrust and selfishness and not simply live to please ourselves. ² Each of us should do all in our power to help our neighbor recover from the devastation caused by distrust in God, fear and selfishness. We should work to help heal and restore our neighbor. ³ Christ, himself, has shown how to live, for he did not live to please himself but, as the Scriptures state, “I have accepted the abuse meant for you in order to protect and heal you.”

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2 and 3.

^c Psalm 69:9

Backgrounds and Characters in the Old Testament L1 4Q 2010

Story and History

SABBATH

Read memory text, “Every Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the person dedicated to God may be capable and equipped for every good work.”

Thoughts about this passage? Is it true? I have with me the Bible that was given to me in the US Army, let me read from Maccabees, Tobit, Susana, or I also have the book of Mormon would we want to use it this morning? But isn't all Scripture inspired by God?

Why are we not comfortable with this? Is the Scripture correct? The translation is not. The American Standard Version is more accurate:

Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness.

Do you notice the difference? Is every scripture inspired by God? But those that are inspired are useful for teaching etc.

Is the entire Bible inspired by God? What does it mean? Does that mean any verse in Scripture represents a truth from God?

What do we mean when we say the Bible is inspired? Are the words of scripture inspired? Or are the ideas represented by the words inspired? Is the Bible an expression of God's thoughts or men's thoughts?

The Bible is written by inspired men, but it is not God's mode of thought and expression. It is that of humanity. God, as a writer, is not represented. Men will often say such an expression is not like God. But God has not put Himself in words, in logic, in rhetoric, on trial in the Bible. The writers of the Bible were God's penmen, not His pen. Look at the different writers. {1SM 21.1}

It is not the words of the Bible that are inspired, but the men that were inspired. Inspiration acts not on the man's words or his expressions but on the man himself, who, under the influence of the Holy Ghost, is imbued with thoughts. But the words receive the impress of the individual mind. The divine mind is diffused. The divine mind and will is combined with the human mind and will; thus the utterances of the man are the word of God.--

Manuscript 24, 1886 (written in Europe in 1886). {1SM 21.2}

Thoughts? Do you agree? What difference does it make to you to realize the Bible is written by inspired men who expressed the ideas with their language, phrases, expressions?

Should we then over emphasize certain words chosen by the Bible writers? Or should we instead focus on the theme, meaning or general point?

Have you always understood inspiration this way? What danger exists in misunderstanding the meaning of Bible inspiration? Might the idea the Bible is inspired lead some to believe they are not to question or think about what the Bible says?

What is the primary purpose of Scripture? Is it a code book of how to live, what to do and not to do?

The primary purpose of Scripture is to reveal God to man – it is a weapon, a sword, a light in the darkness of misunderstanding about God. It is provided to elevate and ennoble our minds.

We should not take the testimony of any man as to what the Scriptures teach, but should study the word of God ourselves. If we allow others to do our thinking, we shall have crippled energies and contracted abilities. The noble powers of the mind may be so dwarfed by lack of exercise on themes worthy of their concentration as to lose their ability to grasp the deep meaning of the word of God. The mind will enlarge if it is employed in tracing out the subjects of the Bible, comparing scripture with scripture, and spiritual things with spiritual. There is nothing more calculated to strengthen the intellect than the study of the Scriptures. No other book is so potent to elevate the thoughts, to give vigor to the faculties, as the broad, ennobling truths of the Bible. If God's word were studied as it should be, men would have a breadth of mind, a nobility of character, and a stability of purpose that is rarely seen in these times. {CE 58.1}

Thoughts? What do you hear?

The lesson points out that the Bible is filled with stories – when we form our doctrines, do we typically use the stories or the “proof” texts? Has it ever seemed like the stories are for the children, while the proof texts are for the adults? Could it be the opposite? Could the stories be for the spiritual adults while the exhortations and instructions are for the children?

Who needed the written law, the ceremonial law, the ordinances – the mature or the children? Who needed the instructions to treat their wives like Christ treats the church, the spiritual mature or the immature?

Have we missed something by relegating the stories to the children?

Why are the stories so important? Are the stories in the Bible there for us to primarily learn about the individual characters? The stories are where we see God in action, where we see what “God is love” looks like in real life. We see how God acts and behaves and treats people and we learn of Him.

SUNDAY

Read top paragraph, “Plot is defined...” thoughts? What is the plot of the Bible?

In its wide range of style and subjects, the Bible has something to interest every mind and appeal to every heart. In its pages are found history the most ancient; biography the truest to life; principles of government for the control of the state, for the regulation of the household--principles that human wisdom has never equaled. It contains philosophy the most profound; poetry the sweetest and the most sublime, the most impassioned and the most pathetic. Immeasurably superior in value to the productions of any human author are the Bible writings, even when thus considered; but of infinitely wider scope, of infinitely greater value, are they when viewed in their relation to the grand central thought. Viewed in the light of this thought, every topic has a new significance. In the most simply stated truths are involved principles that are as high as heaven and that compass eternity. {CG 505.1}

What is the grand central thought or theme of scripture? What are the principles involved?

The student should learn to view the word as a whole, and to see the relation of its parts. He should gain a knowledge of its grand central theme, of God's original purpose for the world, of the rise of the great controversy, and of the work of redemption. He should understand the nature of the two principles that are contending for supremacy, and should learn to trace their working through the records of history and prophecy, to the great consummation. He should see how this controversy enters into every phase of human experience; how in every act of life he himself reveals the one or the other of the two antagonistic motives; and how, whether he will or not, he is even now deciding upon which side of the controversy he will be found. {Ed 190.2}

What do you hear as the plot? What is the grand central theme? How would you describe it? What are the two antagonistic principles? How do they enter every phase of our existence? How has Satan infiltrated his system into Christian thinking?

What is the basis of Satan's system? Selfishness – my way or die.
What are Satan's methods, how does he work?

How did Satan approach the angels in heaven? How did he approach Adam and Eve? How did he approach Jesus in the wilderness?

- He approached them gently, kindly, subtly, softly, to convert them to his way of thinking – the angels and man were converted – But what happens when one isn't converted?
- Jesus didn't listen and what did Satan do? Resorted to coercive pressure, brought authority to bear and when that didn't work? Execution, kill those who don't agree with him.
- What about the beast system of the Dark Ages? What methods did it employ? Send missionaries to do good works and convert, but if conversion didn't happen then what? Coercion, no one buys or sells, and if coercion didn't work, then what? Execution!
- What method does the penal model of salvation say God uses? He sends His blessing and missionaries, including His Son, revealing truth to convert. If that doesn't work He sends coercive pressure and if that doesn't work and we don't accept Jesus then He will torture and kill us in the end. Do you see this presentation, this distorted idea about God has infiltrated Christian thought and is preparing the world for the great deception. It is our mission to reveal the truth about God to counter such misconceptions and prepare minds to meet Jesus.

The lesson asks us to consider the story of Job and asks us to identify the two plots in the story and suggests in Scripture there is never one plot but two. Thoughts?

I like the lesson's focus on moving our thinking away from just what we see here and now to an eternal reality behind the scenes, don't you?

EGW talks about two antagonistic principles which enter every phase of human experience – can we see those in the story of Job?

What are those two antagonistic principles? How are they related to the grand central theme?

Do you see in Job's story the same thing, subtly, then coercive pressure?

Read bottom green, "What is your plot? What kind of character are you?" While each of our stories are unique, do we each have the exact same antagonistic principles at war in our lives?

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to consider David when he was alone in the cave with Saul, who was seeking to kill him; and Joseph when propositioned by Potiphar's wife. Do you see the same two antagonistic principles? Do you see the serpent's methods – subtly followed by coercive pressure?

The lesson asks us to consider the setting – what was the setting for David? What was the setting for Joseph?

Was David's true setting a cave or Joseph's a room in Egypt? Or is there a grander reality in which to "set" the "setting"? Do you think David and Joseph remembered the grand setting?

What was Joseph's response? "How can I commit this sin against God?" notice his perspective, what setting was he in?

Satan wants obstruct our ability to see our true setting and cause us to consider our setting as what he can construe around us.

What is our true setting? Does it make a difference to see things in this light?

Read last paragraph, "But setting is not..." thoughts?

Read bottom pink section – thoughts? Why do you think David and Joseph responded as they did?

What are the two antagonist principles vying for our hearts? Love versus selfishness – what motivates selfishness – is it not fear for what will happen to self? If David was thinking about himself what would he have done? If Joseph was thinking about himself what would he have done? When we think about self first how do we live and act? Do these stories show a better way?

TUESDAY

Read bottom paragraph, “When we lose the big...” thoughts? Do we as a modern people, as a modern church, struggle with losing our focus on what God has called us to accomplish? Do we ever make minors into majors?

What has God called this church to accomplish? Do we expect to live victoriously – lives that love rather than are controlled by fear and doubt? Do we expect to experience peace with God and peace within, in the face of a world in conflict?

What are we to witness to the world? What is the final message of mercy? How are we to present it? Does it have anything to do with our own hearts, minds and characters being healed and restored?

Where does God’s law fit in? How do we take the “major” message of the end time and make it a “minor” point? What about the Sabbath? Is the final conflict merely over which day we worship upon? Is it simply over whether we recognize Saturday versus Sunday? No! such focus turns things to a “minor” point and misses the major point.

The final conflict coming upon the world is between the two antagonistic powers – between God’s law and Satan’s law. God’s law of love versus Satan’s law of survival of the fittest.

The Sabbath is involved in that it embodies all of God’s law, truth, love, freedom. But the point in the end will be on what law do you live – will you love others more than self, will you love the truth and will you respect the freedom of others.

The beast system will be selfish, will lie and will coerce others. It is about the character of God versus the character of Satan, whose character are you developing?

WEDNESDAY

Asks us to read 1Samuel 8:7-20:

And the LORD told him: “Listen to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king. ⁸ As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you. ⁹ Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know what the king who will reign over them will do.”

¹⁰ Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king. ¹¹ He said, “This is what the king who will reign over you will do: He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses, and they will run in front of his chariots. ¹² Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and others to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and still others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. ¹³ He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. ¹⁴ He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendants. ¹⁵ He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage and give it to his officials and attendants. ¹⁶ Your menservants and maidservants and the best of your cattle^b and donkeys he will take for his own use. ¹⁷ He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves. ¹⁸ When that day comes, you will cry out for relief from the king you have chosen, and the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

¹⁹ But the people refused to listen to Samuel. “No!” they said. “We want a king over us. ²⁰ Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles.”

^b Septuagint; Hebrew young men

²¹ When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD. ²² The LORD answered, “Listen to them and give them a king.”

Thoughts? What do you hear? What lessons? Why did they get kings? Did God want them to have kings? When they asked for kings what did God do? And after His warnings what then? When they insisted on having kings what did God say? What tone do you think was in God’s voice?

This is a story – it doesn’t have a proof text, but what do we learn about God from this story? Do we see a God who wants to protect His children from harm, a God who wants to provide for them and not have them exploited? Do we see a God who warns and extols? Do we see a God who will respect the choice of His creatures and let them go?

Does this apply to how God treats the wicked and unrepentant? This is exactly what God does – listen:

I was shown that the judgments of God would not come directly out from the Lord upon them, but in this way: They place themselves beyond His protection. He warns, corrects, reproves, and points out the only path of safety; then, if those who have been the objects of His special care will follow their own course, independent of the Spirit of God, after repeated warnings, if they choose their own way, then He does not commission His angels to prevent Satan's decided attacks upon them. {LDE 242.1}

It is Satan's power that is at work at sea and on land, bringing calamity and distress and sweeping off multitudes to make sure of his prey.--14MR 3 (1883). {LDE 242.2}

God will use His enemies as instruments to punish those who have followed their own pernicious ways whereby the truth of God has been misrepresented, misjudged, and dishonored.--PC 136 (1894). {LDE 242.3}

Already the Spirit of God, insulted, refused, abused, is being withdrawn from the earth. Just as fast as God's Spirit is taken away, Satan's cruel work will be done upon land and sea.--Ms 134, 1898. {LDE 242.4}

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Describes the fall of Israel in 722 B.C. to the Assyrians and Judah to the Babylonians in 586 B.C. why? Why did these nations fall?

What do we learn from their stories? What do we see God doing during this time?

He sent prophets with messages, what kind of messages?

The city of murderers is doomed! I myself will pile up the firewood. Bring more wood! Fan the flames! Cook the meat! Boil away the broth! Burn up the bones! Now set the empty bronze pot on the coals and let it get red-hot....You will not be pure again until you have felt the full force of my anger. I, the Lord, have spoken. The time has come for me to act. (Ezekiel 24:2,9-14).

Now many theologians will read passages just like this and then preach that God will get you if you don't do what He says. But, what did God actually do to ancient Israel and Judah? He let them go! He surrendered them! He abandoned them to their own choice! It was the Babylonians, not God that came and took them away, because they no longer would let Him protect them!

Do you see the kind of trouble we can get into when we forget the stories and only remember the words God spoke?

FRIDAY

Second paragraph states, "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teachings in our past history." Have we ever forgotten how the Lord has led and His past teachings?

Read and discuss questions 1-4

Background Characters in the Old Testament L6 4Q 2010

Uriah: Faith of a Foreigner

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs, "Imagine that you..." thoughts?

What about when motivated by love for God and others, then does situation make a difference?

What about Rahab?

What about God? Does God Himself, His character of love, ever change? Does God's behavior change depending on circumstance? Examples? Did God thunder at Sinai? Did He cry at Olivet? What made the difference? Was God different?

Did God reign fire down to consume the platoons trying to arrest Elijah? Did Jesus die at cavalry? What made the difference? Was God different?

How do we understand this? Do parents ever thunder at their children? Why?

Should situation matter or should we have rules that apply in all circumstance?

Is it ever appropriate for a man to stand up in the middle of church service and rip a woman's blouse off exposing her breasts? What if she had a heart attack and he was the paramedic who was going to defibrillate her heart and save her life? Does the situation make a difference?

Is it ever okay to speak vile, lewd and disgusting profanity? What if you were a witness to a crime and under oath in court you were asked to testify to the exact words the perpetrator used? Does the situation make a difference?

Should we always tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

Maybe you can help me with such a dilemma. You all know what I do there are manmade rules which govern patient confidentiality, I have given my word and promise to my patient to protect their confidentiality...Your pastor comes to see me as a patient because he is struggling with an addiction. The only time I have ever met your pastor is as my patient. I come and do a seminar in your city and during one of the breaks you ask me, "Do you know Pastor_____?" What do I say? Do I say,

"I'm sorry, but because medical ethics, rights of patient confidentiality I am not allowed to answer your question"?

"I have much to tell you but you cannot yet bear it?"

Do I say, "no"? Do I say yes and then you ask where do you know him from?

If I say yes, not only do I harm your pastor, what if you were in marriage counseling with your pastor and he was really helping you, but you now were to discover he was in counseling for an addiction, might that undermine your confidence in him and harm you? And might you get less out of his sermons? And might you be tempted to gossip and tell what you know? And might others get harmed in the church with this news?

What is the Biblical principle in such a situation, is it to tell all the truth or to love your neighbor and protect their reputation?

Speaking of the 9th commandment EGW states:

False speaking in any matter, every attempt or purpose to deceive our neighbor, is here included. An intention to deceive is what constitutes falsehood. By a glance of the eye, a motion of the hand, an expression of the countenance, a falsehood may be told as effectually as by words. All intentional overstatement, every hint or insinuation calculated to convey an erroneous or exaggerated impression, even the statement of facts in such a manner as to mislead, is falsehood. This precept forbids every effort to injure our neighbor's reputation by misrepresentation or evil surmising, by slander or tale bearing. Even the intentional suppression of truth, by which injury may result to others, is a violation of the ninth commandment. {PP 309.3}

What do you hear? Is it that love does not harm? And therefore, telling the truth “statement of facts” in order to mislead by which someone may be harmed is the issue?

First sentence of last paragraph states, “This week we’ll see a powerful contrast of ethics between those of King David and of the soldier Uriah.” Was this a contrast of ethics or something more basic? How about a contrast of principle, of character, of heart motivation?

Before talk about David and Uriah, let’s examine another question. If two people find themselves doing the very opposite does that mean that one would necessarily be unethical? Could two people with love in their hearts, seeking to do what they thought is best for another, arrive at different decisions? Could they both be ethical but do the opposite?

Could one person, ethically support freedom of conscience and freedom to choose and therefore protect a woman’s right to abortion, while another person ethically seek to protect human life and seek to prevent abortions?

What is ethics?

a set of moral principles : a theory or system of moral values

Do you think David and Uriah had different ethics or different morals or different character development? Do you think David really thought his actions were “right” and “ethical”? If so why did he try to cover it up?

SUNDAY

The lesson talks about David's sin against Uriah, how he had an affair with Uriah's wife, then tried to cover it up culminating in the murder of Uriah.

Read second paragraph, "Some may want..." thoughts?

Was Uriah the first to suffer? Do you think Bathsheba suffered? Do you think she went home feeling shame and guilt? Do you think David suffered, with guilt, fear, dread, anxiety, searing of conscience and warping of reason?

No question Uriah suffered the fate of being murdered – but did Uriah suffer with guilt, dread, anxiety, fear of rejection, fear of loss of salvation, fear of God's displeasure with him? Did David suffer these things? Which is the greatest suffering? Which is more serious from an eternal perspective?

The paragraph describes the chain reaction of how David's sin contributed to rape, murder, rebellion in the nation. Why? Why did David's sin have this impact? What could have prevented it? What weapon has God given us to prevent this type of consequence?

Would David's sin have had this cascade of consequences if the others in his community loved as God loves? Was it David's sin that caused the problems, or David's sin impacting those still governed by selfishness?

What would have happened if those in David's community would have forgiven David? What if they recognized David's actions reveal character defect in David in need of healing? What if they longed for David's salvation? Would that have made a difference?

Locally, how can we prevent sin against us from spreading and causing greater damage?

The two sentences of the last paragraph state, “However, there is one thing that David does not control: sin. Although he seems to control the outward action, sin controls his choices and motivations.” Thoughts?

What is sin?

Our only definition of sin is that given in the Word of God; it is "the transgression of the law;" it is the outworking of a principle at war with the great law of love which is the foundation of the divine government. {GC88 492.2}

Is sin a behavior or is sin a principle? And what principle is it? It is the principle of selfishness. Selfishness controlled David’s behavior and this resulted in increased fear and insecurity which led to more self-centeredness, and protect self actions.

How do we overcome this?

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, “David decides...” thoughts?

The paragraph states that the greatest dangers are almost always from within – do you agree with this?

James 1:14 confirms this when he tell us our own evil desires lead us into temptation.

Would this be true for Christ – was His greatest danger from within – not within His character, but within the humanity He assumed?

Heb 4:15 states Christ was tempted like us “in every way.” Could He be tempted like us in every way if He did not experience the emotional temptation to save Himself?

What about the abuse of power? Does power corrupt? Did Satan make any such allegations against God?

How do we know Satan's allegations are false?

Read third paragraph from Friday's lesson, "It was the spirit..."

What lesson do we learn? Is it true that rulers of the earth are exempted from laws which apply to their subjects? That they get privileges that their subjects don't get?

This is how Satan accuses God. He claims God is exempted from loving others, that God has rules He applies to His creatures but He Himself is above them. People look at earthly governments and draw false conclusions about God, that He acts as earthly kings act. But more than this, they look at earthly governments, which have tribunals and courts and trials and inflict penalties including the death penalty and conclude God in heaven is also like this. Again a lie of Satan.

Satan had accused God of requiring self-denial of the angels, when he knew nothing of what it meant himself, and when he would not himself make any self-sacrifice for others. This was the accusation that Satan made against God in heaven; and after the evil one was expelled from heaven, he continually charged the Lord with exacting service which he would not render himself. Christ came to the world to meet these false accusations, and to reveal the Father. RH Feb 18, 1890

To Daniel was given a vision of fierce beasts, representing the powers of the earth. But the ensign of the Messiah's kingdom is a lamb. While earthly kingdoms rule by the ascendancy of physical power, Christ is to banish every carnal weapon, every instrument of coercion. His kingdom was to be established to uplift and ennoble fallen humanity. {AG 15.2}

Thoughts?

The lesson points out that David made his decisions based on emotion and passion rather than rational thinking, then asks some questions in the bottom pink section:

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Who could be an Israelite? Did one have to be a genetic descendent of Israel to be an Israelite? Ruth, Rahab, Caleb, Uriah and others were assimilated into Israel and Ruth and Rahab became progenitors of Christ.

Read bottom pink section – thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph...

Abram changed to Abraham
Jacob changed to Israel
Daniel changed to Belteshazzar

When we pray in the “name” of Jesus what does that mean?

But to pray in Christ's name means much. It means that we are to accept His character, manifest His spirit, and work His works. The Saviour's promise is given on condition. "If ye love Me," He says, "keep My commandments." He saves men, not in sin, but from sin; and those who love Him will show their love by obedience. {DA 668.2}

Thoughts?

Read fourth paragraph, “The name of...” thoughts? Does having family members in prominent position in the church give one a special standing with the Lord? What about being a pastor, conference president or SS teacher – does that give one special standing before the Lord?

How do we deal with persons who say the “pastor is the Lord’s anointed” and we should respect what he says and teaches? Are all pastors the Lord’s anointed? How can we know?

The slightest insinuations, from whatever source they may come, inviting you to indulge in sin or to allow the least unwarrantable liberty with your persons should be resented as the worst of insults to your dignified womanhood. The kiss upon your cheek, at an improper time and place, should lead you to repel the emissary of Satan with disgust. If it is from one in high places, who is dealing in sacred things, the sin is of tenfold greater magnitude and should lead a God-fearing woman or youth to recoil with horror, not only from the sin he would have you commit, but from the hypocrisy and villainy of one whom the people respect and honor as God's servant. {AH 335.3}

Is it only sexual sin such a statement would apply to? What if a pastor led people into other sin, say, believing lies about God?

The priests did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD?’ Those who deal with the law did not know me; the leaders rebelled against me. The prophets prophesied by Baal, following worthless idols. (Jeremiah 2:8).

Should we believe because a pastor, priest or SS teacher says so? When should we believe?

Read last paragraph, “By dying...” Thoughts?

Was Christ’s death necessary only for humans or was it necessary for sinless beings as well?

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Col 1:19,20

What does this mean? Do sinless beings in heaven need the cross?

But the plan of redemption had a yet broader and deeper purpose than the salvation of man. It was not for this alone that Christ came to the earth; it was not merely that the inhabitants of this little world might regard the law of God as it should be regarded; but it was to vindicate the character of God before the universe. To this result of His great sacrifice--its influence upon the intelligences of other worlds, as well as upon man--the Saviour looked forward when just before His crucifixion He said: "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto Me." John 12:31, 32. The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His Son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan. It would establish the perpetuity of the law of God and would reveal the nature and the results of sin. {PP 68.2}

To the angels and the unfallen worlds the cry, "It is finished," had a deep significance. It was for them as well as for us that the great work of redemption had been accomplished. They with us share the fruits of Christ's victory.

Not until the death of Christ was the character of Satan clearly revealed to the angels or to the unfallen worlds. The archapostate had so clothed himself with deception that even holy beings had not understood his principles. They had not clearly seen the nature of his rebellion. {DA 758}

Do we believe this is true? Did the angels in heaven need a legal penalty paid for them? But the cross was still necessary and reconciles them to God?

Okay – what about mediation – do the angels in heaven need Christ as mediator?

“While we rejoice that there are worlds which have never fallen, these worlds render praise, and honor, and glory to Jesus Christ for the plan of redemption to save the fallen sons of Adam, as well as to confirm themselves in their position and character of purity. The arm that raised the human family from the ruin which Satan had brought upon the race through his temptations, is the arm which has preserved the inhabitants of other worlds from sin. Every world throughout immensity engages the care and support of the Father and the Son; and this care is constantly exercised for fallen humanity. Christ is mediating in behalf of man, and the order of unseen worlds also is preserved by his mediatorial work. Are not these themes of sufficient magnitude and importance to engage our thoughts, and call forth our gratitude and adoration to God?" {RH, January 11, 1881 par. 4}

THURSDAY

In speaking about Bathsheba the lesson states, "However, even though she appears to be passive in the entire account, she too will pay a high price." Do you like this expression? What does it sound like? How might you have expressed it?

Is sin about "paying prices"? Would it have been better to say, "Even though she appears passive she will be significantly injured by these events"?

Read last paragraph, "Read Psalms 51..." thoughts

FRIDAY

Read and discuss all questions.

Background and Characters in the OT Lesson 7 4Q 2010

Abiathar: The Priest

Who was this priest?

ABIATHAR – His name means the father is preeminent, father of abundance, or my father excels. He was the tenth high priest, and the fourth in descent from Eli. He was a descendant of Eli the priest through Phinehas, Ahitub, and Ahimelech. Abiathar was the only son of Ahimelech to escape the sword of Doeg the Edomite, who slaughtered the priests of Nob at Saul's behest because of Ahimelech's aid to David (1 Sam. 22:17–20). Abiathar fled to David with the ephod and David, feeling partly responsible for the tragedy, accepted him among his own people (vv. 20–23).

This is occurring at approximately 1000 b.c., the world at this time is inhabited by approximately 50 million people. It is the start of the Iron Age.

- Ancient Iranian people are entering Persia,
- China is in the Zhou dynasty.
- The Phoenician alphabet is invented.
- Rice is cultivated in ancient Japan.
- Chavin culture starts in the Andes.
- Italy is just being inhabited by Latin speaking people from the Danube region.
- Assyrians start conquering neighboring regions.
- Greece was in its Dark Ages, the first Olympic games wouldn't be played for another 224 years in 776 b.c. Coins wouldn't be introduced for 400 years in 600 b.c. and the Persians first invade Greece in 546 b.c. and defeat the Spartans at Thermopylae in 480 b.c.

Abiathar served as David's priest, not only at Keilah (1 Sam. 23:9) but also later when the Amalekites had raided Ziklag (30:7). He advised the future king through the lots of the ephod which he had taken with him from Nob (cf. 23:6). Abiathar continued in this capacity even after the death of Saul and subsequently during David's reign at Hebron and Jerusalem.

- AMALEKITES Amalek was the son of Eliphaz (Esau's son) by his concubine, Timna (Gn 36:12; 1 Chr 1:36). Descendants of this tribal chief of Edom were known as Amalekites. They settled in the Negev Desert and became allies of the Edomites, Ammonites, Moabites, Ishmaelites, and Midianites.¹

Throughout the rebellion of Absalom Abiathar remained loyal to King David. He and Zadok intended to carry the ark as they fled Jerusalem (2 Sam. 15:24), but were instructed by David to carry it back into the city (vv. 25, 29). They were also to keep the exiled king informed of new developments (vv. 35–36), which they did (17:15–21).

Surprisingly, near the end of David's long reign Abiathar favored Adonijah rather than David's younger son Solomon for the throne (1 Kgs. 1:7). Perhaps Abiathar, as the descendant of Aaron's youngest son Ithamar, was jealous of Zadok (the descendant of Aaron's elder son Eleazar), the other Davidic high priest (usually mentioned before Abiathar; e.g., 2 Sam. 15:24–29; so KD in loc.). But once the rebel son of David was executed, Abiathar was deposed from his priestly office by Solomon and banished to his estate at Anathoth. He was not given the death penalty because he had carried the ark and had shared in David's afflictions (1 Kgs. 2:26–27). According to the author of Kings, this is how the prophecy concerning Eli's house became fulfilled (cf. 1 Sam. 2:27–36): Eli was one of Abiathar's ancestors and Zadok, who had supported Solomon, replaced Abiathar as high priest (1 Kgs. 2:35).

In his account of Jesus' discussion with the Pharisees about David and the meaning of the Sabbath laws, Mark attributes David's eating the Bread of the Presence to the time of Abiathar rather than that of his father Ahimelech, when the incident actually occurred (Mark 2:26; cf. 1 Sam. 21:1–6).²

Thoughts?

¹ Elwell, W. A., & Comfort, P. W. (2001). Tyndale Bible dictionary. Tyndale reference library (33). Wheaton, Ill.: Tyndale House Publishers.

² Myers, A. C. (1987). The Eerdmans Bible dictionary (5–6). Grand Rapids, Mich.: Eerdmans.

SABBATH

Read memory text – “But you are a chosen people...” thoughts?

What does this text mean?

- How are you and I priests?
- What does it mean to be a priest?
- What is the duty of a priest?
- Are we priests only in our homes or are we priests of God for the community, in the church?
- Does one have to go to seminary to be a priest of God?
- Does one have to be ordained by the church?

Is there a difference between the priesthood of the Old Testament and that which we are called to fulfill? What would be the difference?

Did God want a specific elite group of priests and the rest not to have priestly duties?

Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, ⁶ you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.” Exodus 19:5,6

Thoughts?

Why a specific priesthood if God wanted all the people to be a nations of priests?

The Levitical priesthood was that of the theater, the stage, the enactment, the lesson book – they represented in the lesson book what all people were to become in reality.

What about in the church today? Is the church supposed to be a theater or is it to be a reality of Christian unity and experience? Are we to all be functioning as priests? In what way?

What were the duties of the priests? Intercession? What does this mean? What were the priests to intercede for, about, with whom?

In the lesson book example what did the priests do and how does that translate into our reality?

- They wore white robes and we are to be clothed in the character of Christ
- They ministered the blood of the sacrificial animal around the sanctuary. We are to spread the gospel truth and love of God in our world – into hearts.
- They ate the showbread together in the Holy Place on Sabbath. We are to gather together on Sabbath and ingest the living word, partake of Christ, study His word.
- People presented themselves to the priests for examination to determine cleanliness to be in community. When people come to us we can counsel and help diagnose spiritual problems that needs resolution, helping them to experience God’s grace, healing and victory in life.
- The priests carried the ark into battle – we are to carry the fullness of God’s truth, love, law, principles, methods, fruits of righteousness and His Spirit into the battles we face in life.

MONDAY

Fourth paragraph last sentence states, “The author of Hebrews tells us that Jesus can be our High Priest because He fully can empathize with us (Heb 2:17).” Thoughts?

And Question 2 from Friday states, “Dwell more on the idea of how Jesus in His humanity is able to sympathize with us in our struggles.”

What does this mean? Can the Father be our High Priest? Why not? Is the Father less empathetic? Is the Father less capable of empathizing? Does the Father need the Son to inform Him of our difficulties because the Father doesn't actually appreciate how hard it is on us?

Let's read the text starting in Heb 2:14:

Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives. 16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham. 17 Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted. ³

Thoughts? What do you hear? Why did He have to be made like us?

- To destroy Satan's power of death
 - What is Satan's power? John 17:3
- To free mankind
 - What holds us? Lies and our own carnal nature, John 8:32
- To help humans
 - Help us with what? 1John 3:8
- Propitiate, atone, forgive sins,
 - But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He "will abundantly pardon," He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:7-9.

³ New American Standard Bible : 1995 update. 1995 (Heb 2:14–18). LaHabra, CA: The Lockman Foundation.

God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

- To aid those being tempted
 - How does He aid us?

So why is Christ our High Priest and the Father is not? What does Christ possess that the Father does not possess? A perfect human character!

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Thus when he was made perfect he became the source of salvation for all who obey him. Heb 5:9

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Second to last paragraph describes the duplicity, spying, plotting, and conniving going on, people pretending to be one thing but doing another.

Read the last paragraph, “In our own...” thoughts? How do we do this?

WEDNESDAY

Second paragraph states, “In the time of David, the firstborn son was traditionally considered his father’s main heir. For a king, that would mean that the firstborn won would inherit the throne. God is, however, never bound by tradition.”

The lesson points out that Abiathar ignored God’s plan in favor of tradition.

Then read last paragraph, “Tradition can be...”

Do we have traditions today that we prefer over God’s plan?

- Day of worship?
- What we do on day of worship?
- Dress?
- Ordination?
- What about traditional ways of explaining the gospel?
 - EGW said the medical ministry is the right hand of the gospel - do we present the gospel message as a healing message or does tradition cause us to reject this in favor of a legal message?

The lesson asks in the pink section, “How often do we let tradition get in the way of God’s leading?”

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, “A superficial...”

Then read question #4 from Friday – thoughts?

Does God have foreknowledge? Does God’s foreknowledge affect free choice? Why or why not?

If God doesn’t have foreknowledge what does it say about God?

If God does have foreknowledge what does it say about God?

Does it bring you comfort to believe God has foreknowledge?

If God didn’t have foreknowledge what would it mean that He had Noah preach 120 years but build only one ark?

Bottom pink section states, “Free choice is one of the most sacred gifts God has given us.”

Why is this so important? What is lost without freedom? Love!

Do we have freedom if God is threatening to punish and kill us for disobedience? No!

Do we have freedom if God is warning us that unremedied sin will damage and destroy us? Yes!

What about doctrines that say God uses His power to inflict punishment for sin upon sinners – then are we free?

If you told your spouse they were free to talk on the phone, but if they do you will beat them, are they free?

Do we have full freedom if we are being threatened?

The earth was dark through misapprehension of God. That the gloomy shadows might be lightened, that the world might be brought back to God, Satan's deceptive power was to be broken. This could not be done by force. The exercise of force is contrary to the principles of God's government; He desires only the service of love; and love cannot be commanded; it cannot be won by force or authority. Only by love is love awakened. To know God is to love Him; His character must be manifested in contrast to the character of Satan. This work only one Being in all the universe could do. Only He who knew the height and depth of the love of God could make it known. Upon the world's dark night the Sun of Righteousness must rise, "with healing in His wings." Mal. 4:2. {DA 22.1}

God could have destroyed Satan and his sympathizers as easily as one can cast a pebble to the earth; but He did not do this. Rebellion was not to be overcome by force. Compelling power is found only under Satan's government. The Lord's principles are not of this order. His authority rests upon goodness, mercy, and love; and the presentation of these principles is the means to be used. God's government is moral, and truth and love are to be the prevailing power. {DA 759.1}

Satan's representations against the government of God, and his defense of those who sided with him, were a constant accusation against God. His murmurings and complaints were groundless; and yet God allowed him to work out his theory. God could have destroyed Satan and all his sympathizers as easily as one can pick up a pebble and cast it to the earth. But by so doing he would have given a precedent for the exercise of force. All the compelling power is found only under Satan's government. The Lord's principles are not of this order. He would not work on this line. He would not give the slightest encouragement for any human being to set himself up as God over another human being, feeling at liberty to cause him physical or mental suffering. This principle is wholly of Satan's creation. {RH, September 7, 1897 par. 7}

God made them free moral agents, capable of appreciating the wisdom and benevolence of His character and the justice of

His requirements, and with full liberty to yield or to withhold obedience. PP 48.

They do not see that to deprive man of the freedom of choice would be to rob him of his prerogative as an intelligent being, and make him a mere automaton. It is not God's purpose to coerce the will. Man was created a free moral agent. PP331

One of the traditions of the church, which opposes God's purposes, is the idea of a punishing God who must inflict punishment upon unrepentant sinners. Revelation tells us it is the beast who uses coercive power, not God!

FRIDAY - Read and discuss question 1

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 8 4Q 2010

Joab: David's Weak Strongman

SABBATH

Read memory verse – thoughts? What is this talking about? Any examples?

What about dating someone who is clearly not well matched, mature, ready, appropriate or healthy for you? If our feelings are aroused are we as honest with ourselves – or do we continue down a path that isn't right, convincing ourselves it is okay? What mental gymnastics do we have to play on ourselves to do this?

- Denial –
 - he really didn't mean to hit me,
 - he doesn't smoke around me, only when I'm not around
 - she only drinks to deal with her parents
 - he may lie to his brother, but he doesn't lie to me.
 - She only shoplifts from stores, she doesn't steal from people
- Rationalization-
 - I have been alone for so long, if I lose this person I may never find another
 - He has so much potential if only he would get in rehab, if only he would give up smoking, if only he would accept Jesus...

What happens if people do this? Who are they deceiving?

Pearl: You can never avoid the truth you can only delay the day you deal with it. The longer you delay the more damage and pain when one finally has to deal with the truth.

Read first paragraph, "Joab's story..." thoughts? What did you think about the idea that it was the kings that united Israel? Did you ask why? Why didn't they become a nation under the judges? What was God's plan or design for their nation? Did God want them to have a king? Did God want them to become a unified nation? Did God's plan for a unified nation require a king? Then why didn't they unify without a king?

Could it be they were so darkened in mind, that their thinking was so shaped by worldly traditions and values, that they couldn't conceive of a nation without a king?

What about today- does God have a plan, a gospel message that is to go to the world? Could it be that our thinking about God's government has been so impacted by worldly governments that we have accepted a distorted gospel?

Do we project onto the heavenly government a earthly system of governing – such things as God legislating/imposing/enacting laws upon His children, God conducting tribunals, God determining guilt and innocence, God (or heavenly juries) determining penalties and then God inflicting punishment upon His children?

To Daniel was given a vision of fierce beasts, representing the powers of the earth. But the ensign of the Messiah's kingdom is a lamb. While earthly kingdoms rule by the ascendancy of physical power, Christ is to banish every carnal weapon, every instrument of coercion. His kingdom was to be established to uplift and ennoble fallen humanity. {AG 15.2}

What does this mean? Why do earthly governments say we need stiff penalties for lawbreaking? To deter crime – and what does it mean to deter crime? Doesn't it mean to put in place a threat, a penalty to coerce people away from crime?

How many describe God's government as doing the exact same thing? Are we any better today than ancient Israel?

But God did give the 10 Commandments at Sinai, so how do we understand God's use of law?

Parents do you ever add rules to your child's life? You must bath every day, brush your teeth after meals, you must eat your veggies before dessert, you must go to bed by..., etc. why do you add all these rules? Do you like making rules? Why then?

Is it like this with God? Did God add rules because He originally wanted it that way or because, after sin, our condition needed it?

What do you think about this quote?

But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. Love for God makes their service a joy. So in every soul wherein Christ, the hope of glory, dwells, His words are re-echoed, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God: yea, Thy law is within My heart." Psalm 40:8. {MB 109.2}

What do we think about this quote? Do we agree? Do we find scripture to support these ideas?

We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. ⁹ We also know that law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine ¹¹ that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me. 1Tim 1:8-11

If the law wasn't given for the righteous, then was it given before sin? Did it exist in heaven? Did it exist in Eden? Or was the law added because our condition required it?

What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was put into effect through angels by a mediator. Gal 3:19

What law was added? One of the founders of our church had an opinion, with which I happen to agree:

I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments. {1SM 233.1}

Does God run His universe like earthly governments? Then why do we insist on describing God's kingdom in a model that parallels earthly governments? We need to free our minds from the warp of the world and see God's kingdom as revealed in Jesus!

SUNDAY

Read last two paragraphs, "During the..." thoughts?

Where is grace? Where is forgiveness? Where is love? Do you see selfishness in the story? What about today? Do we struggle with the same temptations?

Read pink section at the bottom. Thoughts? Do you ever step back in your own mind and ask, "What is the truth?" and how do you determine what the truth in a situation is?

I know many people who refuse to think and instead rationalize their behavior. One of the ways they rationalize selfishness in the church is by following the "law", despite who it hurts.

Why were the Pharisees angry that Christ was healing, including on the Sabbath? Because it threatened their power. But how did they justify their anger at Christ healing on the Sabbath? They claimed to be following the law, they claimed to be loyal to a "thus saith the Lord."

What about today do people do this? How have you seen this done?

How did Christ respond to those who treated Him unjustly? How should we respond?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “It seems...” Do you find this to be true? It is true – we are designed to change, yes in character, but physically, neurocircuits, gene expression, based on the decisions we make.

Our dorsolateral prefrontal cortex (DLPFC) is where we reason and plan, our ventralmedial prefrontal cortex (VMPFC) is where we experience guilt or conviction of wrong doing. When the VMPFC is active the DLPFC is less active, meaning we cannot think as clearly when our guilty, or when our consciences are not clear.

Read second paragraph, “Sin also breaks...” thoughts? When we sin do we change ourselves? Do we change ourselves to be more healthy, reliable, trustworthy, or do we become less trustworthy? Thus, sin decreases reliability because it changes us – does this mean, once we have sinned we cannot recover and be healed?

Credibility is only lost if the sin is known and recognized as sin by others. Consider how does a gang member gain credibility within the gang? Guess who has earned a reputation as one of the great heroes of al qaida? US Army psychiatrist Major Nadal Hasan – who one year ago went on a shooting rampage at Fort Hood Tx.

Sin undermines credibility when two elements are in place, the sin is known and the sin violates the values of the social group from which one derives support.

More important than credibility, is character and trustworthiness. Regardless of whether the sin is known, or whether a particular group values your sin, all sin damages the sinner, sears the conscience, warps reason, destroys the image of God within the sinner.

What do you think about the reasons given that David stands by while his sons act as they did? Do you find the idea persuasive? Then how do we explain Eli's sons and Samuel's sons? Did Eli and Samuel discipline their sons? Was it because they had publicly sinned and lost moral authority?

I know many parents who haven't committed public sin and lost credibility and are very loving, kind and good people, yet struggle to discipline their children. Do we have any evidence of David being a good disciplinarian father before his sin with Bathsheba?

Is being a good disciplinarian a guarantee that one's children will turn out healthy?

And is it true that once we have sinned, and repented, and experienced God's grace in our lives that we have no credibility to discipline? As we read last week, forgiveness means recovery from sin, which is a changed heart and right spirit. Is it possible that having suffered through the pain of sin, and having been restored to spiritual health by God that one might be more sensitive to the dangers to their children and therefore offer better discipline?

Now read the next paragraph, "Joab had the same..." thoughts, is David's and Joab's situation the same? No! David is a sinner who has experienced God's forgiveness, repentance and grace – Joab has not. Would you expect the sinner, restored to favor with God and the sinner who remains hostile to God to experience the same development of character? To practice the same methods?

Was Joab's problem that he had the blood of Abner on his hands, or that he remained selfish in heart, motives and attitude?

What do you think about the idea that after sin, after repentance, after experiencing God's grace and renewal of heart and mind that one continues to live with loss of integrity?

Definition of integrity: firm adherence to a code of especially moral values (incorruptibility).

Isn't it true that after we come to Christ, with all our history of sinfulness, that we experience a new heart and right spirit? Do we believe we get transformed in character so that we go from low integrity to great integrity or not?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Second Samuel..." thoughts? What do you think of this idea of "honor"? What makes such an act as murdering your brother honorable? Do you notice how in this value system one does something dishonorable and calls it honorable in order to restore honor?

Where do such ideas come from? Is this idea any different that God killing His innocent Son in order that justice might be served and the guilty pardoned? In other words how is calling the legal execution of the innocent in place of the guilty justice any different from murdering your brother and calling it honorable?

Today honor killings still happen – in certain parts of the world a woman who is raped may be killed by her family to restore honor – is there something wrong with this picture? How could things become so perverted that the victim is killed to restore honor to the family?

Those behind the terrorist attacks on 9/11 believe they are doing the honorable thing as they believe the US has exploited and abused Islam and thus in fighting back as they do they are restoring honor. Is there something wrong with this type of thinking?

When the Bible speaks of honoring father and mother, does it mean we should kill our parents if they embarrass us?

This so called honor is another way of promoting self under a cloak of self-justification. There is nothing honorable in murder, terrorism, family killings, or executing the innocent in place of the guilty and calling it justice. It is all selfishness hidden under a human contrivance.

Regarding Absalom, could it be that he really only wanted power and used the opportunity to avenge his sister as a way of seeking to ascend the throne?

Was all of this mess going on in the kingdom really because of David's sin? Did no other sentient being have freedom to choose? Were people prohibited from being gracious and forgiving? Are we responsible for the decisions of others? If we do good, and give a car to charity and someone uses that gift by planting a car bomb and committing an act of terrorism, are we responsible for their act?

WENESDAY

Read first three paragraphs – thoughts? What mechanism was used to justify Joab's actions? Linking Joab to David so the people thought that loyalty to David meant loyalty to Joab. Do we ever struggle with similar issues of confused loyalties?

What about the idea that loyalty to the church means loyalty to a particular pastor? What about loyalty to God means loyalty to a particular church? What about loyalty to God means loyalty to modern Israel?

How can we tell what we should be loyal to and what we should not be loyal to?

THURSDAY

David is now old and cold – and they bring a young woman as his nightly hot water bottle to keep him warm. But he was so old he never “knew” her.

Joab thinks this is time to make another move and so he supports Adonijah in a coup – but David with Nathan's help makes Solomon co-regent.

Read third paragraph, “Joab seems...” thoughts? What do you think of this idea of retribution? Is God a revengeful God? Does God have a government that seeks to take retribution on His children or that will take retribution on His children?

Christ came to save fallen man, and Satan with fiercest wrath met him on the field of conflict; for the enemy knew that when divine strength was added to human weakness, man was armed with power and intelligence, and could break away from the captivity in which he had bound him. Satan sought to intercept every ray of light from the throne of God. He sought to cast his shadow across the earth, that men might lose the true views of God's character, and that the knowledge of God might become extinct in the earth. He had caused truth of vital importance to be so mingled with error that it had lost its significance. The law of Jehovah was burdened with needless exactions and traditions, and God was represented as severe, exacting, revengeful, and arbitrary. He was pictured as one who could take pleasure in the sufferings of his creatures. The very attributes that belonged to the character of Satan, the evil one represented as belonging to the character of God. Jesus came to teach men of the Father, to correctly represent him before the fallen children of earth. Angels could not fully portray the character of God, but Christ, who was a living impersonation of God, could not fail to accomplish the work. The only way in which he could set and keep men right was to make himself visible and familiar to their eyes. That men might have salvation he came directly to man, and became a partaker of his nature. {ST, January 20, 1890 par. 6}

Thoughts? Satan lies about God, claiming that God is revengeful and severe. We have far too often believed those lies and this ugly distorted God concept gets promoted throughout the world. This is part of the wine of Babylon which all the nations drink.

Some may argue, but wait Scripture says:

“vengeance is mine says the Lord” Romans 12:19

Many use this text as “proof” that God is vengeful and Satan’s allegations against God are correct. But that is because we don’t let the Bible define its own self. When we allow the Bible to define itself we discover something altogether different:

Therefore the Lord, the Lord Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: “Ah, I will get relief from my foes and avenge myself on my enemies. ²⁵ I will turn my hand against you; I will thoroughly purge away your dross and remove all your impurities. Isaiah 1:24,25

What is the vengeance of God? Turning enemies into friends – His vengeance is not on sinners but on sinfulness. He attacks and destroys sin! This is His vengeance which purges and cleanses the sinner! The greatest vengeance God can have on Satan is healing and restoring all those who trust Him!

Thoughts?

Let’s take another look at Joab – what actually happened? Did God strike Joab down? Did God inflict punishment upon Joab? Is reaping what we sew the same as God taking retribution?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, “We should...” thoughts? What do you think about the idea of truth sanctifying? How and why? Does it have any relation to Isaiah 1:18 “come let us reason together”? How?

Read question 3 – thoughts? What about in the church? How many find themselves following “orders” in the church that are wrong? Has this ever happened? Does it happen today? How?

Discuss questions 1 and 4.

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 9 4Q 2010

From a listener, Gillian, in Canada I received the following this week:

Hi Dr Tim,

I was listening to the current lesson about Uriah and David and the question was asked "if David was forgiven why was he not allowed to build the temple(paraphrasing)" The answer is quite simple God did not intend to live in a temple he wanted to be in the tent where he could be among the people and he would not be seen as God only of Israel but available to all nations. It was David's guilt(?) after he had acquired so much wealth and had built himself a majestic palace, then he saw the tent that the Lord dwelt in he decided to give God a better idea. This happened in 2 Sam 7 before he committed adultery and murder. I hope you can clear this up for you class as many people believe that this was David's punishment from God.

Rizpah: The Influence of Faithfulness

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts? Any questions?

What is faithfulness? Last two sentences of the second paragraph state: “faithfulness is not conditioned by circumstances or good (or bad) fortunes. Faithfulness is an unconditional commitment to do what’s right regardless of the cost.”

What do you think about this? I like it – to do what is right regardless of the cost.

Could it be this, a question of faithfulness, is the very heart of the Great Controversy between Christ and Satan?

But what if some of them were not faithful? Does this mean that God will not be faithful? Certainly not! God must be true, even though every human being is a liar. As the scripture says,

“You must be shown to be right when you speak; you must win your case when you are being tried.”¹

What did the war in heaven start over? Was it not a question of God’s faithfulness, God’s trustworthiness? Was God not the one alleged to be unfaithful to His creatures? And therefore distrust of God infected the hearts of some of the angels and then mankind?

Therefore, God is working to free us from such misconceptions and restore us back to trust in Him!

How do we determine what the right is? What is our standard of right and wrong?

If our definition of right originates in God would it be important for one to have the true knowledge of God? What might happen if someone accepts distorted concepts of God?

Could someone be faithful to the wrong cause – do what they thought was right, but in actuality do wrong? Did Saul of Tarsus do what he thought was right by persecuting the church? Was it right?

What is the right thing to do in a given situation? When in doubt think “love”, what can I do to honor God, what can I do to bless the other person. This might mean keeping silent, it might mean turning the other cheek, it might mean speaking out, it might mean defending oneself, holding someone accountable, calling the authorities, giving a spanking etc.

The right course of action is the course in which we love God and love others. Thoughts?

¹ American Bible Society. (1992). The Holy Bible : The Good news Translation (2nd ed.) (Ro 3:3–4). New York: American Bible Society.

What is the sealing?

Just as soon as the people of God are sealed in their foreheads--it is not any seal or mark that can be seen, but a settling into the truth, both intellectually and spiritually, so they cannot be moved--just as soon as God's people are sealed and prepared for the shaking, it will come. FLB 287.

Would sealing mean people have been changed to the point they are "faithful," that they will do what is right no matter the cost?

SUNDAY

Rizpah was a concubine of King Saul, who became part of the royal house of Saul's son Ishbosheth after Saul died. Ishbosheth was set up by Abner to rule over Israel in opposition to David.

The lesson explains concubines were females taken from the rank of slaves or maids, with the express purpose of producing heirs. Once they had a male offspring they had a status similar to a tertiary wife.

Thoughts about this practice? Do we find this practice occurring only among those who didn't know God or who were God's enemies?

Who had concubines?

- Abraham
- Israel (Jacob)
- Gideon
- Saul
- David
- Solomon

Do we find God gave instructions, through Moses, on how concubines were to be treated, and their children?

¹⁵ If a man has two wives, and he loves one but not the other, and both bear him sons but the firstborn is the son of the wife he does not love, ¹⁶ when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the wife he does not love. ¹⁷ He must acknowledge the son of his unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double share of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father's strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him. ² (see also Exodus 21:7-11, DT 21:10-14).

Do we find God tells them not to have concubines? Then, does this mean it is God's will and okay?

Do we find a practice, engaged in by God's faithful followers, codified by God's prophets, blessed by God - as children of such relationships were part of forming the 12 tribes of Israel, to still be wrong?

If we find something in scripture, which occurred, which had prophetic involvement/instructions, and which God blessed, does that automatically mean it is right, good or in harmony with God's will?

Some other Scripture which sheds light on this:

- Another thing you do: You flood the Lord's altar with tears. You weep and wail because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands. ¹⁴ You ask, "Why?" It is because the Lord is acting as the witness between you and the wife of your youth, because you have broken faith with her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant. ¹⁵ Has not the Lord made them one? In flesh and spirit they are his. And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith with the wife of your youth. ¹⁶ "I hate divorce," says the Lord God of Israel, "and I hate a man's covering himself with violence as well as with his garment," says the Lord Almighty. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith. Mal 2:13-16

² The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (Dt 21:15-17). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

- “Haven’t you read,” he replied, “that at the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female,’⁵ and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’?⁶ So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.” Mt 19:4-6.
- Now the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of but one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach. 1Tim 3:2

Thoughts?

Keep this idea in mind, that we can find practices in Scripture, done by God’s people, even sometimes codified and blessed by God that are still wrong.

Why? Because God meets people where they are, works with them in their understanding and leads them as fast as they can move toward His methods and principles. Behavioral adherence is not what God wants. He could get this quickly, what He wants is agreement, changed hearts where we want to do it His way. This takes time.

MONDAY

Ishbosheth accuses Abner of sleeping with Rizpah and this so offends Abner that he changes loyalty and goes to David offering to bring the rest of Israel under David’s rule.

This accusation is so serious because to sleep with a king’s concubine is tantamount to usurping the throne and claiming all the king’s rights, property, position, and authority. So, if Abner had done this he would have been saying I am sovereign and this is what Ishbosheth accused him of.

TUESDAY

Read 2Samuel 21:1-10:

During the reign of David, there was a famine for three successive years; so David sought the face of the Lord. The Lord said, “It is on account of Saul and his blood-stained house; it is because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

The Gibeonites, also known as Hivites, were descendants of Canaan son of Ham and were one of the seven nations which were to be destroyed when Israel conquered Canaan. However, the Gibeonites presented themselves to Israel as ambassadors from a distant country and Israel entered into a treaty with them before consulting with God. When Joshua discovered he was deceived he honored the letter of the treaty by allowing them to live but relegated them to woodcutters and water bearers. Saul years later attempted to eliminate them and the only a few survived. It is these survivors David addresses in the following verses.

² The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not a part of Israel but were survivors of the Amorites; the Israelites had sworn to spare them, but Saul in his zeal for Israel and Judah had tried to annihilate them.) ³ David asked the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends so that you will bless the Lord’s inheritance?”

⁴ The Gibeonites answered him, “We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family, nor do we have the right to put anyone in Israel to death.”

“What do you want me to do for you?” David asked.

⁵ They answered the king, “As for the man who destroyed us and plotted against us so that we have been decimated and have no place anywhere in Israel, ⁶ let seven of his male descendants be given to us to be killed and exposed before the Lord at Gibeah of Saul—the Lord’s chosen one.”

So the king said, “I will give them to you.”

⁷ The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before the Lord between David and Jonathan son of Saul. ⁸ But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah's daughter Rizpah, whom she had borne to Saul, together with the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite. ⁹ He handed them over to the Gibeonites, who killed and exposed them on a hill before the Lord. All seven of them fell together; they were put to death during the first days of the harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.

¹⁰ Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest till the rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies, she did not let the birds of the air touch them by day or the wild animals by night.

Thoughts?

The study guide draws several lessons from this story – let's examine this story, the suggested lessons and see if we can learn something useful.

The first lesson suggested by the study guide is in the last paragraph of Tuesday's lesson, "God expects us to honor our promises."

Thoughts? If we make a promise should we honor it? In all circumstances?

Is a promise different than an agreement, a contract, a vow, a covenant, or are they all basically the same, if we give our word to do something we should do it? In any and all circumstance?

Did Balaam agree to curse Israel? But God wouldn't let him keep his word – why not?

How about if you have given your life to God, you have surrendered to Him and promised to be faithful to Him and His kingdom and sometime later someone deceives you into making a promise that would violate your promise to God – what do you do?

What about Jephthah found in Hebrews hall of faith:

And Jephthah made a vow to the Lord: “If you give the Ammonites into my hands, ³¹ whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be the Lord’s, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.”

³² Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites, and the Lord gave them into his hands. ³³ He devastated twenty towns from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, as far as Abel Keramim. Thus Israel subdued Ammon.

³⁴ When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, dancing to the sound of tambourines! She was an only child. Except for her he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵ When he saw her, he tore his clothes and cried, “Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable and wretched, because I have made a vow to the Lord that I cannot break.”

³⁶ “My father,” she replied, “you have given your word to the Lord. Do to me just as you promised, now that the Lord has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites. ³⁷ But grant me this one request,” she said. “Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry.”

³⁸ “You may go,” he said. And he let her go for two months. She and the girls went into the hills and wept because she would never marry. ³⁹ After the two months, she returned to her father and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. Judges 11:30-39

Should Jephthah have sacrificed his daughter as a burnt offering?
Do you think God was pleased?

What if your teenager made a suicide pact with some of their friends, should they say, well mom/dad, I realize I shouldn’t have made the promise, and I really don’t want to do it anymore, but since I did make the promise I am going to meet the others and kill myself?

EGW comments on the Gibeonites and the promise made:

Great was the indignation of the Israelites as they learned the deception that had been practiced upon them. And this was heightened when, after three days' journey, they reached the cities of the Gibeonites, near the center of the land. "All the congregation murmured against the princes;" but the latter refused to break the treaty, though secured by fraud, because they had "sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel." "And the children of Israel smote them not." The Gibeonites had pledged themselves to renounce idolatry, and accept the worship of Jehovah; and the preservation of their lives was not a violation of God's command to destroy the idolatrous Canaanites. Hence the Hebrews had not by their oath pledged themselves to commit sin. And though the oath had been secured by deception, it was not to be disregarded. The obligation to which one's word is pledged--if it do not bind him to perform a wrong act--should be held sacred. No consideration of gain, of revenge, or of self-interest can in any way affect the inviolability of an oath or pledge. "Lying lips are abomination to the Lord." Proverbs 12:22. He that "shall ascend into the hill of the Lord," and "stand in His holy place," is "he that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not." Psalms 24:3; 15:4. {PP 506.1}

How do we understand stories like the sacrifice of Saul's 7 sons and Jephthah's daughter?

Read bottom pink section, "Though we don't..."

The lesson is correct that behavior has consequences, but is there any direct connection between Saul's action and a famine, like there is with not brushing your teeth and cavities? Is the idea we should take that the problem with sin is that God will inflict punishment? That the only problem is that God acts to cause consequences?

WEDNESDAY

Read top paragraph, "David consents..." thoughts?

Is this a valid idea of Biblical atonement? Is the lesson trying to suggest that this is somehow related to God's plan of salvation by connecting the word used by David with the sanctuary service – what do you think?

If we go down this trail of thinking could it lead us to conclude that it is through human sacrifice that “atonement” is achieved and God needed a perfect human sacrifice to pay for the crimes of human sin and therefore, just as the Gibeonites executed the sons of Saul, God executed His Son to satisfy divine justice?

“Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.” (vs 4).

February 2007 Woodrow Whidden: “Why did God the Father choose a cross to be the instrument of death? Why did He not choose to have Christ instantly beheaded or quickly run through with a spear or sword? Was God unjust in executing judgment on Christ with a cross when He could have done it by beheading, a noose, a sword, a gas chamber, a bolt of lightning, or a lethal injection?”

(<http://www.ministrymagazine.org/archive/2007/February/sinner-s-in-the-hands-of-god.html>).

In December 2007 World Review “One of the fundamental problems of the Moral Influence Theory is that it rejects the substitutionary nature of Christ's death. The idea that God had to kill the innocent instead of the guilty in order to save us is considered a violation of justice.” (p 40, emphasis mine).

Thoughts? Do you think God killed His Son on the cross? What evidence do we have beside Isaiah's prophecy that we would misunderstand and think it was God who did it?

“My God, My God, why have you forsaken me.” Matt 27:46.

What is Jesus testimony as to what God did to Him? Did God exercise His might to execute His Son?

Consider EGW's statement:

Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. {DA 761.2}

Who does EGW said killed Christ? And when this was understood by the heavenly intelligences what impact did it have on them? And who do you think would be behind the idea that God is the one who killed His Son? And what impact does it have on us to believe God is the one who killed His Son?

The idea that God requires some arbitrary death penalty of a substitute innocent in order to satisfy some bloodlust, some sense of justice is part of human misconceptions about justice and goes all the way back to pagan god concepts and practices. Satan constantly works to project His character onto God and all too often we have accepted his distortions.

Why the Hebrew word David used is the same as that in the sanctuary service is because atonement means to bring two warring parties together, to reconcile, to make one. In the case of the Gibeonites what they required to be reconciled was the death of the seven sons. But, what is required for mankind to be one with God again?

Was the death of Christ a requirement – Absolutely – but why? Was it for the same reasons as the Gibeonites? Was it because the wronged party, God, required someone to die so His sense of justice would be appeased? Absolutely NOT!

The death of Christ was required as the only means whereby God could destroy Satan and his power, destroy death, and destroy the devil's work of defacing God's image in man and replacing it with Satan's image. (Heb 2:14, 1Tim 1:10, 1John 3:8, LHM 49).

In other words Christ death was required to remedy the sin situation and restore mankind fully back into harmony with God, to actually fix in man what sin had destroyed.

The dark section states, "How are we to understand this passage? Or can we understand it? In what ways is this an example of something in Scripture that we can't fully explain but that we simply need to trust the Lord on?"

Thoughts about this? What is the study guide suggesting? Is it encouraging us to search for answers?

Can we understand this story? Yes! It has to do with the people.

First, do we accept that the famine was somehow God's direct act, or rather that the author of scripture attributed it to God that which He did not prevent, as we read about a few weeks ago?

When the word came to David that this was a result of Saul's actions toward the Gibeonites, did David seek God's solution to the problem or did David seek the Gibeonites for solution?

Are we surprised that the Gibeonites wanted human sacrifice? Where in the text do we find God supporting this? Where do we find God instructing it? Where do we find God endorsing it?

Or do we find God working with humans, where those humans were in their understanding and developmental level?

Don't you think God was sickened by what the Gibeonites wanted and how this played out?

Do you remember how reconciliation occurred when the Assyrians surrounded Elisha? What happened? They were struck blind and Elisha led them into the midst of Israel and the king of Israel wanted to kill them but Elisha instructed them to through a feast for the Assyrians and then release them.

Do you think if they had sought the Lord He could have found another solution?

Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish and a plain path before their feet. {MH 481.2}

THURSDAY

Last paragraph first few sentences state, “The famine does not end after the seven descendents of Saul are executed. God responds to the plea for the land only after David has provided a respectable resting place for the remains of Saul and his descendants. In other words, although justice and righteousness are important elements of our interactions with one another, reconciliation is required as well.”

Thoughts? What do you think about the idea of justice and righteousness? Are these two separate things? In scripture the word translated justice is the word translated righteous or righteousness. Thus we read in Romans 1:17:

- For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.” NIV
- For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, “The just shall live by faith.” NKJV

Do we see why Paul said in Romans,

Let God be true, and every man a liar. As it is written:

“So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge.”

The issue is about God – how do you see Him? How do we understand the stories of the OT. What more could God do when dealing with people who are so darkened in mind, but patient meet them where they were and slowly lead them to greater light?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2,4 and 5

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 10 4Q 2010

The Man of God: Obedience Is Not Optional

SUNDAY

Read first two paragraphs – “After...” thoughts?

Do we have any modern day examples of well intentioned actions leading away from God?

- What about attempts to provide a day of rest for people leading to legislating Sunday laws?
- What about attempts to “promote life” leading to restricting liberties?

Read third paragraph, “It is necessary...” What do you think about the idea of “even small deviation from the clear command of God has far-reaching effects.”

Can we think of any examples of this and why?

- Adam and Eve eating the fruit – on the surface it appears a fairly minor act – it’s just a piece of fruit – why is it so significant?
 - Eve believed the words of Satan, and the belief of that falsehood in regard to God's character, changed the condition and character of both herself and husband. They were changed from good and obedient children into transgressors, and it was only by repentance toward God and faith in the promised Messiah that they could hope ever to regain the lost image of God. {RH, January 5, 1886 par. 8}
 - So the taking of the fruit, was it the primary problem or an outward manifestation of something much more significant? Is it a minor or major deal to no longer trust God?

- Analogy, what if you were traveling and following a compass and your compass was off by 1 degree – it is a minor deviation, would it really matter?

Can we think of any examples of this idea being abused, of how this truth of the importance of not deviating from God’s expressed commands gets twisted to result in people who think they are keeping God’s commands but are actually opposed to Him?

- Did God give an expressed command regarding keeping the Sabbath holy? Did God give express commands on all permutations of all behavior over all time? Could someone in seeking to keep the Sabbath holy be offended at Christ healing on the Sabbath? Could someone be a Sabbath keeper and still crucify Christ?
- What about today – could we be Sabbath keepers but still be God’s enemy? If a person goes to eat at a restaurant on Sabbath does that mean they are breaking an express command of God? Can we tell if someone is God’s friend or enemy by the way they observe Sabbath?

The last sentence of the paragraph states, “Jeroboam was compelled to make priests of common people, which in turn degraded the sacred office.” What do you think about this idea?

Was the priesthood degraded in Israel? Yes it was – was it necessarily because the priests were not Levites? If this is the reason then would genetics mean a person makes a better priest? Do we have any Biblical evidence that genetics doesn’t make a difference?

- Melchizedek - was he a priest of God? Was he a Levite?
 - It was Christ that spoke through Melchisedek, the priest of the most high God. Melchisedek was not Christ, but he was the voice of God in the world, the representative of the Father. And all through the generations of the past, Christ has spoken; Christ has led His people, and has been the light of the world. When God chose Abraham as a representative of His truth, He took him out of his country, and away from his kindred, and set him apart. He desired to mold him after His own model. He desired to teach him according to His own plan (RH Feb. 18, 1890). {1BC 1093.1}

- Christ – from what tribe was Christ? Judah, He was not a Levite, yet is He our High Priest? Was the priestly office degraded because Christ wasn't a Levite? This argument of Levitical priesthood is what Paul was dealing with in Hebrews.
- What about the priesthood of believers, is God's church composed of priests? Is it degraded because we are not of the tribe of Levi?
- Let's turn the argument around – if the priests are from the tribe of Levi does that mean that the priesthood is pure?
 - Consider Eli's sons, Samuels sons, those who crucified Christ, and Jeremiah 2:8 tells us the priests led the people astray.

So we know the priesthood was degraded in Israel – what was the primary reason, was it genetics? Or was it rejecting the truth about God and holding to lies, promoting self, refusing to humble self, seeking one's own way, selfishness reigning in the kingdom? And as such selfishness leads us to do things our way rather than cooperating with God and following His counsels, and we set up priests of our own not of Levi, but is the problems primarily and simply only that they were not genetically descended from Levi?

MONDAY

The story – Jeroboam sets up new places of worship in Israel. He builds altars and golden calves. A young prophet of God is dispatched for Judah to warn the king – let's pick up the story in 1Kings 13:1-24:

13 By the word of the Lord a man of God came from Judah to Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering. ² He cried out against the altar by the word of the Lord: "O altar, altar! This is what the Lord says: 'A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.’ ” ³ That same day the man of God gave a sign: “This is the sign the Lord has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out.”

First question – did Josiah do what the prophet foretold? Yes see 2Kings 23. How was the prophet able to predict, first that a king named Josiah would exist and secondly what that king would do? Of what is this evidence? It is evidence of God’s foreknowledge, that He actually knows the future, not what might happen, but what will happen.

Let’s keep reading our story for today:

⁴ When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But the hand he stretched out toward the man shriveled up, so that he could not pull it back.

⁵ Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the Lord.

⁶ Then the king said to the man of God, “Intercede with the Lord your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored.” So the man of God interceded with the Lord, and the king’s hand was restored and became as it was before.

Thought about this? Was God punishing Jeroboam? Why did the king’s hand wither? What was the purpose in the prophet going to Jeroboam in the first place? Was it God’s design to punish and destroy or to warn and save?

Was the miracle of the withered hand in harmony with His overall purposes to heal and save? When the king cried for mercy and the hand was restored, what impact did it have on the king?

Did the king humbly repent of his error? Why not? What does a miracle not do? It doesn’t present evidence to change a person’s beliefs or character.

Not by might nor by power but by the way the Spirit works says the Lord. Zech 4:6. This is why God doesn't accomplish His purposes with miracles. Consider the flood, Sodom, plagues of Egypt, fire by Elijah, etc. did these miracles ever get what God wanted from people? Even Christ's own miracles did not accomplish His purposes so He stopped doing them.

Today, if we see miracles does that mean we should follow the person performing the miracles? Why or why not? Can miracles be counterfeited? What about a talking serpent?

That is why God says we are to come and reason and our sins will be cleansed. It is in our minds that God works to heal and cleanse and this through His methods of truth and love presented in a free environment.

⁷ The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift."

⁸ But the man of God answered the king, "Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water here. ⁹ For I was commanded by the word of the Lord: 'You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.'" ¹⁰ So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

¹¹ Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king. ¹² Their father asked them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken. ¹³ So he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it ¹⁴ and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

"I am," he replied.

¹⁵ So the prophet said to him, "Come home with me and eat."

¹⁶ The man of God said, "I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. ¹⁷ I have been told by the word of the Lord: ‘You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.’ ”

¹⁸ The old prophet answered, “I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the Lord: ‘Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” (But he was lying to him.) ¹⁹ So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

²⁰ While they were sitting at the table, the word of the Lord came to the old prophet who had brought him back. ²¹ He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “This is what the Lord says: ‘You have defied the word of the Lord and have not kept the command the Lord your God gave you.

²² You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.’ ” ²³ When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him. ²⁴ As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

What do you think of this story? Was the old prophet a false prophet or a prophet of the Lord?

Does this give us any insight in how we should relate to prophets? Are prophets supposed to do our thinking for us? Can prophets lie, even prophets of the Lord? Can Apostles be wrong? Consider Peter and Paul’s need to rebuke him publicly.

What does this say about the purpose and role of a prophet? A prophet is a spokesperson for God an individual through whom God can speak or carry out a purpose. But is a prophet God? Does a prophet retain their humanity and sinful nature? Can they make mistakes?

If a prophet prophecies and their prophecy fails to come true what does that mean? What about Jonah – true or false prophet? Did he give conditions on his prophecy? Did it come true?

Was the point of Jonah's prophecy to predict the future or to bring a people to repentance?

Should we allow the words of prophets to be our thoughts for us or are we to hear the words of the prophets and then weigh them out for ourselves, asking the Holy Spirit to enlighten and come to our own conclusion as to the meaning?

TUESDAY

Jeroboam invited the prophet to his home for dinner and offered the prophet gifts – why do you think God told the prophet to say no? The lesson suggests that gifts put the receiver in the debt of the giver – thoughts about this?

If I give a gift and then expect the receiver to owe me something, have I actually given a gift? Have you ever received gifts with strings attached – you knew if you accepted the gift expectations were attached?

Have you ever received gifts without strings attached?

Which kind of gifts are given in love? Which do you like better? Which do you give to others?

Why do you give gifts? Because you are obligated? Because you want to influence someone to do something for you or like you? Because you love the other person and want to bless them in some way? Other reasons?

We are told that God gave the gift of His Son – why?

- What type of gift was it?
- Did God's gift indebt us to Him?
- Did He give His Son freely or with strings attached?
- Was the motivation to bless us or manipulate us?
- How can we tell?

When people give gifts with strings attached and they don't get reciprocity, how do they react? Do they feel they were cheated, that something fair didn't happen? Do they get angry, upset, threaten? How is God often portrayed in treating those who don't accept the gift of Jesus?

WEDNESDAY

Why did the young prophet die in the story? Was he condemned for believing a lie, for being tricked? Or was his problem that he failed to hold to the truth? Is there a difference?

Read fourth paragraph, "It's really..." thoughts?

Eve really believed the words of Satan, but her belief did not save her from the penalty of sin. She disbelieved the words of God, and this was what led to her fall. In the judgment men will not be condemned because they conscientiously believed a lie, but because they did not believe the truth, because they neglected the opportunity of learning what is truth. Notwithstanding the sophistry of Satan to the contrary, it is always disastrous to disobey God. We must set our hearts to know what is truth. All the lessons which God has caused to be placed on record in His word are for our warning and instruction. They are given to save us from deception. Their neglect will result in ruin to ourselves. Whatever contradicts God's word, we may be sure proceeds from Satan. {PP 55.2}

Thoughts? What does this mean? What happens if we don't love the truth?

They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. ¹¹ For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie ¹

Why is this the result? What happens in the mind if we reject truth, on any subject.

¹ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (2 Th 2:10–11). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

Is it important to have a mind receptive and open to the truth? Is having a mind like this related to obedience? How?

The Greek for obedience is: ὑπακοή hypakoē obedience

It means having a humble willingness to listen and be instructed, it is not primarily about performance, but secondarily about performance. There was a servant whose title was the hypakoē and the job of this servant was to listen for the sound of the master's voice and when he heard it open the gate for the master. If the servant faithfully listened and as soon as he heard the master jumped up to open the door, but the door was stuck, and with all his might he couldn't open it, is the servant disobedient.

This is why the religious leaders in Christ's day were disobedient because they wouldn't humbly open their minds to new truth that Jesus wanted to bring.

We can keep all the rules, eat the right foods, worship on the right day, but if don't develop a love for truth, a willingness to grow in the truth we are disobedient.

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, "the greatest..." thoughts? Do you agree with this? What evidence from history do we have?

Where did Lucifer come from when originating his rebellion? The presence of God.

What about in human history, who have opposed God most successfully? Hasn't it been various religious leaders?

Thoughts on how to prevent oneself from being led astray by a powerful speaker or teacher?

- Always think for yourself, never surrender your mind or judgment to another
- Require your beliefs to be evidenced based

- Require the evidence to harmonize
- Use all the evidence available, inspiration, science and experience
- Listen to perspectives that differ from your own but filter those perspectives through the lens of your own sanctified judgment, comparing it with the truth of God's word and science.
- Establish testable parameters to compare theories to –
 - Law of love
 - Law of liberty
 - Law of worship
- Use Jesus as the touchstone or lens to understand all doctrines regarding God

FRIDAY

Read questions 1,2,4 and discuss.

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 11 4Q 2010

The Widow of Zarepath: The Leap of Faith

Sunday

Let's set the setting –

It is 860-850 b.c., Ahab is king of Israel and married Jezebel daughter of the king of Tyre. Under her influence Baal worship experiences resurgence.

The Hebrew noun ba'al means 'master', 'possessor' or 'husband'. Used with suffixes, e.g. Baal-peor or Baal-berith, the word may have retained something of its original sense; but in general Baal is a proper name in the OT, and refers to a specific deity, Hadad, the W Semitic storm-god, the most important deity in the Canaanite pantheon. ¹

Yahweh was 'master' and 'husband' to Israel, and therefore they called him 'Baal', in all innocence; but naturally this practice led to confusion of the worship of Yahweh with the Baal rituals, and presently it became essential to call him by some different title; Hosea (2:16) proposed 'iš, another word meaning 'husband'. Once the title 'Baal' was no longer applied to Yahweh, personal names incorporating the word were likely to be misunderstood. So bōšeṭ ('shame') tended to replace ba'al in such names. Thus Esh-baal and Merib-baal (1 Ch. 8:3f.) are better known as Ishbosheth (2 Sa. 2:8) and Mephibosheth (2 Sa. 9:6).²

Baal is a weather god associated with thunderstorms, weather, rain and therefore fertility. At Ras-Shamra, Baal was called the son of Dagan, a fact not easily harmonized with the more general notion that El was sire of the pantheon. Also known as

¹ Wood, D. R. W., & Marshall, I. H. (1996). New Bible dictionary (3rd ed.) (108). Leicester, England; Downers Grove, Ill.: InterVarsity Press.

² Wood, D. R. W., & Marshall, I. H. (1996). New Bible dictionary (3rd ed.) (108). Leicester, England; Downers Grove, Ill.: InterVarsity Press.

Hadd (Hadad), Baal was called ‘the Prince,’ ‘the Powerful,’ ‘Rider of the Clouds’ (an epithet once predicated of Yahweh in the Bible, Ps. 68:4). At Ras-Shamra, Baal’s consort, evidently also his sister, was Anat. Philo of Byblos, a Greek historian (ca. a.d. 63-141), collected additional valuable information about Baal, whom Philo called Zeus. And in Greek mythos Zeus’ wife was his sister Hera. Zeus of course was the god of thunder and lightning.

El - Ancient Semitic name for deity, perhaps meaning “power” (cf. Gn 17:1); used by the Hebrews generally in a poetic sense to denote the true God of Israel. The same word was used for the senior Canaanite god and the god in Ugaritic mythology. The “Il” or “El” of ancient Canaanite mythology (before 3500 bc in the region of Syria) was not as active as the god Baal, who struggled with Death and triumphed over Chaos. But Il was the father god of the Canaanite pantheon. .. El is combined with other adjectives to describe the numerous attributes of God; for example, God Most High (Gn 14:18–24), the seeing God (16:13), the jealous God (Ex 20:5), the forgiving God (Neh 9:17), and the gracious God (v 31).³

El-Shaddai, Bethel, Eliazer, Daniel – all names in Hebrew in which El- was a part.

Back to Baal - The phenomena associated with thunderstorms were closely linked to Baal. Baal was said to appoint the season of rains. Clouds were thought to be part of his entourage. Lightning was his weapon, and it may have been his invention. The windows of Baal’s palace were thought to correspond to openings in the clouds through which rain flowed. Rain was important to Canaanite agriculture, and Baal was consequently a god of fertility—a prodigious lover as well as the giver of abundance.

³ Elwell, W. A., & Comfort, P. W. (2001). Tyndale Bible dictionary. Tyndale reference library (413). Wheaton, Ill.: Tyndale House Publishers.

The Ugaritic literature preserves a cycle of myths in which Baal is the protagonist. They link Baal to Mount Zaphon. They tell of his battle against Lotan (Leviathan) and of his struggles against other adversaries called Yamm (Sea) and Mot (Death). The struggle between Baal and Yamm has left its mark on Israelite literature in the form of stories about and allusions to Yahweh's encounters with watery enemies (e.g., Isa. 51:9b-10; Ps. 74:13). Through his struggles, Baal achieves the first rank among the gods. Along the way Baal perishes and revives, providing the Ugaritic literature with stirring themes and dramatic moments.

Baal and Ancient Israel: The cult of Baal was widespread in the Syro-Palestinian world and became the focus of Israelite religious animosity. .. We hear of the cult of Baal in a number of local manifestations: Baal of the Covenant at Shechem (Judg. 9:4); Baal of Peor at Shittim (Num. 25:3); Baal 'Zebub' ('of the flies'; but should Zebul, 'Prince,' be read?) of Philistia (2 Kings 1:2-3); and perhaps Baal of Hamon (Song of Sol. 8:11). Jezebel introduced to Samaria the worship of Tyre's god Baal (1 Kings 18:19). It is not altogether clear whether these local baals were taken to manifest the single great god Baal or whether they were imagined as discrete deities. ⁴

Any thoughts about the context of the day? Do we see how Satan works to corrupt our thinking about God? How he subtly weaves together truths and errors so that one has a difficult time separating them?

If you were an ancient Israelite, without Scripture, might you have had some confusion about God?

If Jesus were not only the name of our Savior, but also the name given to various false gods, would it make it confusing? Do we have any problems like this today, with the true God being confused with false gods in our religion?

⁴ Achtemeier, P. J., Harper & Row, P., & Society of Biblical Literature. (1985). Harper's Bible dictionary (1st ed.) (84–85). San Francisco: Harper & Row.

Thousands have a false conception of God and His attributes. They are as verily serving a false god as were the servants of Baal. Are we worshipping the true God as He is revealed in His Word, in Christ, in nature, or are we adoring some philosophical idol enshrined in His place? God is a God of truth. Justice and mercy are the attributes of His throne. He is a God of love, of pity and tender compassion. Thus He is represented in His Son, our Saviour. He is a God of patience and long-suffering. If such is the being whom we adore and to whose character we are seeking to assimilate, we are worshipping the true God. {FLB 59.8}

Is this the God we worship? Have other god concepts entered Christianity?

Do we gain some insight from ancient Israel's history into how and why the truth about God takes time to eradicate distortions?

Think about when Christ came to earth. While the fertility rights, and human sacrifices and polytheistic local god concepts had been eliminated from Israel's thinking by the time Christ came, had all their distorted ideas of God's character been eliminated?

So, into this setting we find Elijah, a man who knows God and delivers a message to King Ahab, that Baal, the god of thunder, is false and that the true Creator will hold the rain demonstrating the impotence of Baal.

SUNDAY

Read first dark section – “What irony...” thoughts?

Does this mean that famines, storms, pestilence, earthquakes, disasters are from God?

Recently several pastors/theologians have taken strong opposition to our view of God because they claim that God will use His power to pour out the seven plagues of Revelation in order to punish and destroy. Thoughts?

First, when we compare the character and methods of God versus Satan who uses coercion and force? Remember the history of Satan, how he and his agents always first approach with subtlety, distortion and flattery, but if one is not converted then coercive pressure comes followed by infliction of death.

- Satan's approach to angels and Adam, then Satan's approach to Christ
- The work of the persecuting power in the Dark Ages, missionaries to convert, then coerce, then destroy
- The beast of Revelation, convert, then no one buy or sell then the death penalty

If God is the one who inflicts plagues then what method is being used? What inspired evidence do we have to help us understand?

After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: ³ "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." ⁵

Consider the Biblical definition of wrath, is letting go, (Romans 1:18-28). Therefore, God's wrath being poured out is God letting go His restraint on evil forces.

"I was shown that the judgments of God would not come directly out from the Lord upon them, but in this way;

⁵ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (Re 7:1–3). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

"They place themselves beyond His protection. He warns, corrects, reproves, and points out the only path of safety; then if those who have been the objects of His special care will follow their own course, independent of the Spirit of God, after repeated warnings, if they choose their own way, then He does not commission His angels to prevent Satan's decided attacks upon them.

"It is Satan's power that is at work at sea and on land, bringing calamity and distress, and sweeping off multitudes to make sure of his prey, and storm and tempest both by sea and land will be, for Satan has come down in great wrath. He is at work. He knows his time is short and, he is not restrained; we shall see more terrible manifestations of his great power than we have ever dreamed of." Manuscript Release vol. 14, p. 3

Elijah flees to Zerephath and encounters a widow and her son. He asks her to feed him. She only has enough flour and oil for one more cake. Elijah has no food.

Read bottom paragraph, "It's important..." thoughts?

Do we find it hard to reach out and ask for help? Do we sometimes believe that we shouldn't have problems? Or perhaps if others knew of our problems they wouldn't like us anymore?

Read bottom pink section – thoughts?

MONDAY

Elijah was at the river Cherith until it ran dry. While there he was fed, the Bible says by Ravens – thoughts? Some commentators say that he was fed by Arabs:

Elijah was miraculously fed by ravens as he hid from King Ahab (1 Kgs. 17:1–6; some commentators read Heb. ·arbîm "Arabs").⁶

⁶ Myers, A. C. (1987). The Eerdmans Bible dictionary (874). Grand Rapids, Mich.: Eerdmans.

6158 עֵרֵב [‘oreb, ‘owreb /o·rabe/] n m. From 6150; TWOT 1690a; GK 6854; 10 occurrences; AV translates as “raven” 10 times. 1 raven.

6159 עֵרֵב [‘Oreb, ‘Owreb /o·rabe/] n pr m loc. The same as 6158; GK 6855; Seven occurrences; AV translates as “Oreb” seven times. 1 one of the chieftains of the Midianite army defeated by Gideon. 2 a rock east of the Jordan where Oreb and part of his army fell to the Ephraimites. Additional Information: Oreb = “raven”.⁷

EGW states:

For a time after appearing before Ahab, Elijah remained hidden in the mountains by the brook Cherith. There he was fed morning and evening by an angel from heaven. Later on when, because of the continued drought, the brook became dry, God sent his servant to find refuge in a heathen land. "Arise," he bade him, "get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee." {RH, August 28, 1913 par. 1}

After his first appearance to Ahab, denouncing upon him the judgments of God because of his and Israel's apostasy, God directed his course from Jezebel's power to a place of safety in the mountains, by the brook Cherith. There He honored Elijah by sending food to him morning and evening by an angel of heaven. Then, as the brook became dry, He sent him to the widow of Sarepta, and wrought a miracle daily to keep the widow's family and Elijah in food. After he had been blessed with evidences of such love and care from God, we would suppose that Elijah would never distrust Him. But the apostle tells us that he was a man of like passions as we, and subject, as we are, to temptations. {3T 288.2}

⁷ Strong, J. (1996). The exhaustive concordance of the Bible : Showing every word of the text of the common English version of the canonical books, and every occurrence of each word in regular order. (electronic ed.). Ontario: Woodside Bible Fellowship.

That God who sent the ravens to feed Elijah by the brook Cherith will not pass by one of His faithful, self-sacrificing children. Of him that walketh righteously it is written: "Bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure." "They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied." "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Isaiah 33:16; Psalm 37:19; Romans 8:32. He who lightened the cares and anxieties of His widowed mother and helped her to provide for the household at Nazareth, sympathizes with every mother in her struggle to provide her children food. {MB 110.3}

Thoughts? Do we find a contradiction here? Some have made a big deal out of whether angels or ravens came to feed Elijah, and because EGW uses both that she is inconsistent and contradicts Scripture – what do you think? What about God using the angels to direct the ravens, like the angel spoke through Balaam’s donkey? Do we really think, if ravens brought Elijah food, that they thought this up and planned it on their own? Do we really think the ravens milled the flour and baked the bread brought to Elijah?

In a time of drought lasting over three years, how hungry would the birds likely be? Do we really think in such a situation some baker was leaving bread around for ravens to steal every day, and then the ravens wouldn’t eat it but every day fly to where Elijah was and deliver it to him? Even if it was real birds bringing it to Elijah would those birds have had been guided by an intelligence? Why not angels? Doesn’t the Bible tell us they are God’s ministering spirits to help us?

After leaving the brook Elijah goes to the widow and asks her for food, she says:

“As surely as the Lord your God lives,” she replied, “I don’t have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it—and die.”⁸

Thoughts on her response? Does she sound hopeless?

Elijah responds by saying:

“Don’t be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small cake of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. ¹⁴ For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord gives rain on the land.’ ”⁹

TUESDAY

Read last two paragraphs, “Remember...” thoughts?

Was this foolish from a worldly perspective? I don’t get that concept.

She has suffered years in a drought. She has no husband, no income, no resources. She has spent most of her time scouring the country side for any scrap of food or sustenance. Does she have a real sense of the lack of resources available to her?

From a worldly perspective, what is the likelihood of her survival? From a worldly perspective what is the likelihood of her survival if she eats one more piece of bread?

From a worldly perspective do new possibilities open up to her if she shows kindness to a powerful man? Might his words be true and a miracle happen? Might, he merely be indebted to her kindness and seek to help her out?

From a worldly perspective was it really foolish to help Elijah?

⁸ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (1 Ki 17:12). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

⁹ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (1 Ki 17:13–14). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

Now, just because we realize there were objective, earthly reasons for her to consider Elijah's request as reasonable, does that remove the possibility she also had faith in what Elijah told her?

Could she have been familiar with the events transpiring in Israel? Might she have heard the reason for the drought? With the "All Points Bulletin" out on Elijah, with the king's men scouring the country for years for him, is it possible she might have heard of Elijah? And if she, having lived through the drought, believed Elijah represented the God who is stronger than Baal, might she not be expected to have some awe, respect and even faith?

Read the bottom pink section – thoughts? Is it likely the woman gave the bread in raw, naked, blind faith or might there have been some reflective reasoning that entered her decision?

Consider our story from last week – didn't the young prophet do this very thing – he exercised raw, naked, blind faith in what a prophet told him – was it a good idea?

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, "Through the prophet..." thoughts?

Why do we feel this way? When Adam sinned what did he do? He ran and hid, why? Was God angry? Was God seeking to punish? Was God his enemy? Why was Adam hiding? Where did the sense of condemnation originate?

What about today? Does God condemn us or does God have compassion? Any evidence?

What about woman caught in adultery – what did God say to her? "neither do I condemn you!"

How many have a concept of God as condemning sinners?

Read third paragraph, "Perhaps..." thoughts? Is it likely her sinfulness caused her to believe God was punishing her or distorted concepts of God, not actually knowing Him?

From the beginning it has been Satan's studied plan to cause men to forget God, that he might secure them to himself. Hence he has sought to misrepresent the character of God, to lead men to cherish a false conception of Him. The Creator has been presented to their minds as clothed with the attributes of the prince of evil himself,--as arbitrary, severe, and unforgiving,--that He might be feared, shunned, and even hated by men. Satan hoped to so confuse the minds of those whom he had deceived that they would put God out of their knowledge. Then he would obliterate the divine image in man and impress his own likeness upon the soul; he would imbue men with his own spirit and make them captives according to his will. {5T 738.1}

It was by falsifying the character of God and exciting distrust of Him that Satan tempted Eve to transgress. By sin the minds of our first parents were darkened, their natures were degraded, and their conceptions of God were molded by their own narrowness and selfishness. And as men became bolder in sin, the knowledge and the love of God faded from their minds and hearts. "Because that, when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God," they "became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." {5T 738.2}

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

The widow's son has died and Elijah prays for God to resurrect the boy – read first paragraph, "Notice..." thoughts?

Do prophets struggle to understand? Do prophets even understand all there is to know in their own prophecies?

What does this mean in how we relate to prophetic writings?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, “By this relation...” thoughts?

What limits God’s working with us? What causes us to be separated from God? Why do our sins separate us from God? Is it because each of our sins makes God angrier and angrier and if we don’t get the blood of Jesus to erase those sins from the records in heaven then God can’t even look at us?

How many used to hear or think something like this?

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

Read and discuss question 1 – thoughts?

Read and discuss question 2 – thoughts?

Read and discuss question 3 – thoughts?

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 12 4Q 2010

Gehazi: Missing the Mark

SUNDAY

Who was Gehazi? He was Elisha's servant. The lesson emphasizes his role as servant.

Read first paragraph, "Being a servant..." thoughts?

What do you think about the idea of being a servant?

Let's list the attributes of a faithful servant?

- Obedience
- Loyalty
- Trustworthiness
- Faithfulness
- Willingness to listen and be taught

Consider Biblical servants, can you name any of note?

- Abraham's chief servant
- Joseph
- Naaman's servant – who advised Naaman to follow Elisha's advice
- Jesus

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

⁶ Who, being in very nature God,
did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

⁷ but made himself nothing,
taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

⁸ And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to death—

even death on a cross!

⁹ Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
¹¹ and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:5-11

Does the Bible teach the reality that God's kingdom is the kingdom of service, where, in love, we all serve each other?

Then how do we understand John 15:15, when Jesus said to His disciples, "I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you."

Many of you have heard that A. Graham Maxwell, author of Servants or Friends died this week. Graham spent his life working to spread the truth about our God of love. He emphasized the idea that God actually wants friendship with us rather than mere servanthood.

Would you believe that this idea of friendship with God, that Christ has invited us to, is one point in which has been criticized? It is alleged that the idea of friendship with God diminishes the Biblical teaching of servanthood and creates an imbalanced concept of our relationship with God.

What is the balance between servants and friends and how do the concepts get distorted?

Is there a difference between friendly service and a serving friend?

What distortions of servanthood and friendship have you encountered?

- Servants do what the master says, no questions asked, they hear and obey.

- What about Abraham and Moses? Were they God's servants and friends? Did they ever question God?

What happens if we take the position that service means we obey without question, we simply do what the master says?

Do we develop as God would have us? Can a character be changed by mere obedience without thinking, without reason, without agreement?

A man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still. God does not want blind obedience He wants an intelligent obedience. Thus He invites us into friendship with Him to understand Him, His methods, principles and even plans!

Consider these quotes:

- He [Christ] maintained his disguise till he had interpreted the Scriptures, and had led them to an intelligent faith in his life, his character, his mission to earth, and his death and resurrection. He wished the truth to take firm root in their minds, not because it was supported by his personal testimony, but because the typical law, and the prophets of the Old Testament, agreeing with the facts of his life and death, presented unquestionable evidence of that truth. The Signs of the Times, Oct. 6, 1909.
- All whom God has blessed with reasoning powers are to become intellectual Christians. They are not requested to believe without evidence; therefore Jesus has enjoined upon all to search the Scriptures. Let the ingenious inquirer, and the one who would know for himself what is truth, exert his mental powers to search out the truth as it is in Jesus. Any neglect here is at the peril of the soul. We must know individually the prescribed conditions of entering into eternal life. . . . We cannot allow these questions to be settled for us by another's mind, or another's judgment. . . . We cannot trust the salvation of our souls to ministers, to idle traditions, to human authorities, or to pretensions. . . . The Lord positively demands of every Christian an intelligent knowledge of the Scriptures. Review and Herald, March 8, 1887 (2RH 117:1:1 - 2:0); The Medical Missionary, May 1, 1892

Thoughts? What is the difference between friendly service and a serving friend? Does being a friend of God do away with service? Or the closer in friendship the great one serves if they have God's character reproduced within?

Graham's ministry has asked those who have been blessed by Graham, or have some story to tell to share it with them. This can be done at www.pineknoll.com

In 1984 Graham wrote the following:

I believe that the most important of all Christian beliefs is the one that brings joy and assurance to God's friends everywhere -- the truth about our Heavenly Father that was confirmed at such cost by the life and death of His Son.

God is not the kind of person His enemies have made Him out to be -- arbitrary, unforgiving and severe. Jesus said, "If you have seen Me, you have seen the Father." God is just as loving and trustworthy as His Son, just as willing to forgive and heal. Though infinite in majesty and power, our Creator is an equally gracious Person who values nothing higher than the freedom, dignity, and individuality of His intelligent creatures - - that their love, their faith, their willingness to listen and obey may be freely given. He even prefers to regard us not as servants but as friends.

This is the truth revealed through all the books of Scripture. This is the everlasting Good News that wins the trust and admiration of God's loyal children throughout the universe.

Like Abraham and Moses -- the ones God spoke of as His trusted friends -- God's friends today want to speak well and truly of our Heavenly Father. We covet as the highest of all commendations the words of God about Job: "He has said of Me what is right."

Thoughts?

What group of people in scripture is called God's servants?

But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets." Rev 10:7

Who are the servants of God? And in this passage what did the servants announce? The mystery of God and what is that mystery?

Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹ and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰ His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, ¹¹ according to his eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² In him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence. Eph 3:8-12

Why can we approach in freedom and confidence? Is it because Jesus stands there to protect? Is the mystery that God has a secret payment, the blood of His Son, that if those who are sinners will claim then the Father won't see their sins and they can boldly enter the Father's presence? Is this the mystery?

How is the hidden mystery related to our ability to enter God's presence and the time when the seventh trumpet is about to blow?

I have become its servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fullness— ²⁶ the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. ²⁷ To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col 1:25-27

What is the mystery? Christ in you, renewal of heart and mind, regeneration, recreation, healing, restoration, being at-one with God. Why was it kept hidden? Because sin had not transpired and once sin did transpire Satan's lies obscured the truth about God and thus the mystery of His purpose has been hidden by lies.

Can we put the pieces together – what is the mystery? Why is it accomplished when the seventh trumpet is about to sound? And how is it related to our ability to enter freely into God's presence?

Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. ³ Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure. 1John 3:2,3

It is as the seventh trumpet is about to sound, at the end of earth's history that God has a people on earth who have accepted the truth about Him and who, through the work of the Spirit are transformed in character to receive the law of love reproduced within them, and thus we are transformed to be like Jesus, again at-one with God and thus we are able to stand confident in God's presence, knowing Him to be exactly like Jesus!

Middle of the second paragraph the lesson states, "By serving his master Elijah, Elisha would be learning to put himself aside and serve others." Thoughts about this concept of servanthood, and how this brings us into unity with God?

Read bottom pink section, "How do we get..." thoughts?

MONDAY

The story is of the Shunnamite woman who builds a room on her home for Elisha, when Elisha asks what can be done for her Gehazi reports she has no son and her husband is old. So Elisha tells her she will have a son. She does and later the son dies and is resurrected.

Thoughts?

Is this a miracle? Is it a miracle in the same order as that which happened to Mary the mother of Jesus? In other words, did the Holy Spirit come upon this woman and cause a pregnancy?

Or did God heal the physical malady of infertility and the pregnancy occurred in the normal way pregnancies occur?

In Scripture there are seven examples of miracle births that are metaphorical lessons teaching of The Virgin Birth and our Messiah:

1. Sarah- Isaac – Mount Moriah willing to be sacrificed
2. Rebekah – Jacob – who became Israel the father of the nation built upon twelve sons, Jesus the cornerstone of the church built upon twelve apostles
3. Rachel – Joseph – who sold into slavery (becomes a servant), became ruler to save people from famine
4. Monoah's wife – Samson – blessed with strength to deliver Israel from bondage of oppressors and rule over them
5. Hannah- Samuel – who became High Priest
6. Shunammite woman – child died and resurrected
7. Elizabeth – John the Baptist – who greatest of prophets

Thoughts?

Read bottom pink section "It sometimes..."

Thoughts?

Activities which activate selfish neural circuits will strengthen these circuits, activities which activate altruistic circuits will strengthen these circuits. By beholding we become changed.

We cannot, by force of will, change ourselves. We must fix our eyes on Christ, the truth about God as He revealed, to value and cherish Him and this will have a transforming effect.

But false pictures of God, or embracing the world's value set will only cause greater selfishness.

TUESDAY

The story of Naaman – let's read it from Scripture:

2Kings 5:1-19:

Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the Lord had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.

² Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. ³ She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

⁴ Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said. ⁵ "By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten sets of clothing. ⁶ The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy."

If you were the king how would you have reacted to this request?

⁷ As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

What do you think of the king's response? What about today, if today a general comes to you with cancer and a letter from the President of the US along with gold, silver and gifts and the letter says, “Here the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs. He has cancer. Please cure him.” What would you do? What if you lived in China and it was the Chinese Premiere who sent the letter with his general? Might you be stressed? Would you simply say – no problem, thank you God for giving me this opportunity to show your power and tell the man to go bathe 7 times in a river and he will be healed?

What did Elisha do?

⁸ When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: “Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel.” ⁹ So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha’s house. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, “Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed.”

¹¹ But Naaman went away angry and said, “I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. ¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? Couldn’t I wash in them and be cleansed?” So he turned and went off in a rage.

What do you think of Naaman’s response? As a kid I remember never understanding it. I thought, hey if he told me to do something that simple I would have been running to the river. Any thoughts as to why Naaman reacted the way he did? Was it pride?

The servants of Naaman, not hung up on pride, gave some counsel:

¹³ Naaman’s servants went to him and said, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, ‘Wash and be cleansed!’” ¹⁴ So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

¹⁵ Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Please accept now a gift from your servant.”

¹⁶ The prophet answered, “As surely as the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing.” And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.

Why do you think Elisha wouldn't take any reward? Shouldn't he have started a building fund for a new church? Shouldn't he have accepted gifts for the Samaritan Center? Shouldn't he have started a food bank or a new sanitarium? Why didn't he accept gifts?

What if pastors practiced the same philosophy today? Did Jesus get a salary? What about Paul or the Apostles? If pastors were required to support themselves like Paul did would it change the composition of the pastorate in anyway? Do you think we gain or lose in the church when the pastorate becomes a career rather than a calling?

¹⁷ “If you will not,” said Naaman, “please let me, your servant, be given as much earth as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the Lord. ¹⁸ But may the Lord forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning on my arm and I bow there also—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the Lord forgive your servant for this.”

¹⁹ “Go in peace,” Elisha said.

What about Naaman's request? Was he compromising? What is the difference between Namaan and three worthies in Babylon?

What does this story tell us about God?

WEDNESDAY

Gehazi goes and seeks reward from Namaan:

Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, “My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the Lord lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”

Why do you think Gehazi did this? Any clues? Was it mere greed? Was there some element of prejudice or nationalism?

²¹ So Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running toward him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. “Is everything all right?” he asked.

²² “Everything is all right,” Gehazi answered. “My master sent me to say, ‘Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two sets of clothing.’”

²³ “By all means, take two talents,” said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi. ²⁴ When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left. ²⁵ Then he went in and stood before his master Elisha.

“Where have you been, Gehazi?” Elisha asked.

“Your servant didn’t go anywhere,” Gehazi answered.

²⁶ But Elisha said to him, “Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money, or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, or menservants and maidservants? ²⁷ Naaman’s leprosy will cling to you and to your descendants forever.” Then Gehazi went from Elisha’s presence and he was leprous, as white as snow. 2Kings 5:20-27

What do you think about this story, especially the part about Naaman’s leprosy clinging to Gehazi and his descendants forever?

Do you think this was leprosy as we know leprosy, Hansen’s disease? Most likely not as the skin doesn’t turn white as snow – it sounds more consistent with Vitiligo.

THURSDAY

Gehazi finds himself in the king's court and is telling about the Shunnamite woman and her son and son's resurrection. In the intervening years, during a famine, the woman left her country for seven years and when she returned someone else had occupied her home. She now, on the day Gehazi is telling his story, appears before the king and asks for her property to be returned, which the king so ordered.

Thoughts?

Each actor in history stands in his lot and place; for God's great work after His own plan will be carried out by men who have prepared themselves to fill positions for good or evil. In opposition to righteousness, men become instruments of unrighteousness. But they are not forced to take this course of action. They need not become instruments of unrighteousness, any more than Cain needed to. . . . {CC 371.2}

Men of all characters, righteous and unrighteous, will stand in their several positions in God's plan. With the characters they have formed, they will act their part in the fulfillment of history. In a crisis, just at the right moment, they will stand in the places they have prepared themselves to fill. Believers and unbelievers will fall into line as witnesses to confirm truth that they themselves do not comprehend. All will cooperate in accomplishing the purposes of God, just as did Annas, Caiaphas, Pilate, and Herod. In putting Christ to death, the priests thought they were carrying out their own purposes, but unconsciously and unintentionally they were fulfilling the purpose of God. {CC 371.3}

Thoughts?

Read bottom paragraph, "And so Gehazi..." thoughts? Why could Gehazi only live in the past? Was his mistake such that God would not allow him to repent? Did God refuse a repentant and humble Gehazi? What happened?

Read first two paragraphs on Friday's lesson, "Solemn..." thoughts?

Does this mean for such a sin a person cannot repent? Was Gehazi's sin worse than Peter's denial of Christ? Why the different outcome?

When the king tried to have the young prophet arrested and the king's arm withered, and the king pled for mercy what happened?

What do you think would have happened if Gehazi would have genuinely repented? Mercy or not?

Why does a false witness not go unpunished? What happens to the sinner that persists in sin?

FRIDAY

Question 1 read and discuss

Background Characters in the Old Testament Lesson 13 4Q 2010

Baruch: Building a Legacy in a Crumbling World

SABBATH

Read memory text – this is a grand old memory verse – how many memorized this one as a child?

Okay – we know what it says, what does it mean?

How do we apply it?

If they speak not according to what scripture teaches then there is no light, no truth in them?

So if someone doesn't accept the seventh day Sabbath, does that mean they have no light in them?

If someone doesn't accept the state of the dead does that mean they have no light in them?

Do we make this text absolutist or do we see people on growth curves and realize it depends on which way they are going?

Does someone have to speak according to Scripture, in that they must get the interpretation of Scripture correct on all doctrines, or must a person have a love for Scripture a willingness to be led out of darkness to the truth?

Examples from history – what about Martin Luther – did he understand the Sabbath?

Foremost among those who were called to lead the church from the darkness of popery into the light of a purer faith, stood Martin Luther. Zealous, ardent, and devoted, knowing no fear but the fear of God, and acknowledging no foundation for religious faith but the Holy Scriptures, Luther was the man for his time; through him God accomplished a great work for the reformation of the church and the enlightenment of the world. {GC 120.1}

Notice “a man for his time” what does this mean? Truth is unfolding, Martin Luther didn’t understand all truth, but wanted to follow the truth where it led.

What about today? Is there any person on earth who understands the Scripture completely accurately in all details? Then is there anyone who speaks correctly on all details? Then what does the text mean?

Could it mean that if they oppose the truths that have been revealed, if they reject new light, if they are unwilling to keep the mind open for new revelation then they will lose their understanding of what they previously had?

We shall not be accepted and honored of God in doing the same work that our fathers did. We do not occupy the position which they occupied in the unfolding of truth. In order to be accepted and honored as they were, we must improve the light which shines upon us, as they improved that which shone upon them; we must do as they would have done, had they lived in our day. Luther and the Wesleys were reformers in their time. It is our duty to continue the work of reform. If we neglect to heed the light, it will become darkness; and the degree of darkness will be proportionate to the light rejected. {Spirit of Prophecy vol 4. p 186.2}

Thoughts?

The same law obtains in the spiritual as in the natural world. He who abides in darkness will at last lose the power of vision. He is shut in by a deeper than midnight blackness; and to him the brightest noontide can bring no light. He "walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes." 1 John 2:11. Through persistently cherishing evil, willfully disregarding the pleadings of divine love, the sinner loses the love for good, the desire for God, the very capacity to receive the light of heaven. The invitation of mercy is still full of love, the light is shining as brightly as when it first dawned upon his soul; but the voice falls on deaf ears, the light on blinded eyes. {MB 92.3}

No soul is ever finally deserted of God, given up to his own ways, so long as there is any hope of his salvation. "Man turns from God, not God from him." Our heavenly Father follows us with appeals and warnings and assurances of compassion, until further opportunities and privileges would be wholly in vain. The responsibility rests with the sinner. By resisting the Spirit of God today, he prepares the way for a second resistance of light when it comes with mightier power. Thus he passes on from one stage of resistance to another, until at last the light will fail to impress, and he will cease to respond in any measure to the Spirit of God. Then even "the light that is in thee" has become darkness. The very truth we do know has become so perverted as to increase the blindness of the soul. {MB 93.1}

What do you hear in this passage? What kind of God do we serve? Why will individuals be lost? What does sin do to the sinner? And what happens to the truth we possess if we reject further truth?

So when we hear our memory verse quoted and it is used to hold us to the light of past ages, rather than advance in the light, what should we think?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Baruch's world..." thoughts?

What do you think about strong nationalistic undercurrents? Should we have strong ties to our countries? Should we be patriots to an earthly king or kingdom?

Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1John 2:15

I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. ¹⁵ My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. ¹⁶ They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. ¹⁷ Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. ¹⁸ As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹ For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified. John 17:14-19

Was Jesus loyal to a nation? Was Jesus a nationalist? Are we to be His representatives in the world? Are we to be nationalists? Or are we to love all humanity regardless of nationality?

Where is our citizenship? Is it not in heaven? Are we not citizens of God's heavenly kingdom? Do we live that way?

Yesterday someone emailed me the link to a Newsweek article entitled, One Nation Under God. It is about the agenda of the Christian right in America – listen to this excerpt:

Gay marriage and abortion used to predictably drive religious-right voters to the polls. As recently as 2004, when evangelicals were credited with the reelection of George W. Bush, sex and sexual mores defined the sides in the culture wars. But no longer. As the economy has become the political priority for liberals and conservatives alike, the traditional family-values issues have been blunted—not in their importance to individuals but as weapons in the political theater. What's motivating religious conservatives now, says Campolo, is a vision of America as God's own special country, and free-market capitalism as crucial to the nation's flourishing. Everyone who doesn't see things this way, according to this perspective, is a socialist or a communist—“Pinkos who are subverting America under the auspices of the president of the United States,” he says. “The marriage between evangelicalism and patriotic nationalism is so strong that anybody who is raising questions about loyalty to the old, laissez-faire capitalist system is ex post facto unpatriotic, un-

American, and by association non-Christian.” <http://www.newsweek.com/2010/12/09/one-nation-under-god.html>

Thoughts? Where is our loyalty? Where should it be?

The lesson asks us to read Jeremiah 7:1-11

This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: ² “Stand at the gate of the Lord’s house and there proclaim this message:

“ ‘Hear the word of the Lord, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the Lord. ³ This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place. ⁴ Do not trust in deceptive words and say, “This is the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord!” ⁵ If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly, ⁶ if you do not oppress the alien, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm, ⁷ then I will let you live in this place, in the land I gave your forefathers for ever and ever. ⁸ But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless. ⁹ “ Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury, burn incense to Baal and follow other gods you have not known, ¹⁰ and then come and stand before me in this house, which bears my Name, and say, “We are safe”—safe to do all these detestable things? ¹¹ Has this house, which bears my Name, become a den of robbers to you? But I have been watching! declares the Lord.

Thoughts about this passage?

What is God telling them? Why will harm come to them? Will God use His power to punish, or will they destroy their own minds and sever their connection with God?

What were they doing? Living in harmony with Satan's methods and presenting God as Satan represents Him, thus misrepresenting God.

What about today? Do we say, "The temple, the temple" or rather "The Sabbath, The Sabbath"? Do we ever rest secure in our organizational affiliation, or traditions rather than in our intimacy with God? Do we ever claim to be God's representatives while misrepresenting Him?

Thoughts on practical steps we can take to prevent substituting religious form for spiritual substance?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, "The book of Jeremiah..." thoughts?

How do you understand inspiration?

Does the fact that the book of Jeremiah was written by his scribe rather than by Jeremiah concern you?

Does it trouble you that the Bible is not written word for word as dictation from God?

If the Bible is not a direct dictation from God, but instead it contains ideas, concepts, truths God revealed to His prophets and they expressed those ideas in their own way, what does that mean to us when we read it?

Can we be safe in proof texting our way through Scripture? What is the only safe way to be sure we understand the true meaning?

Is it not in requiring all the books of Scripture to harmonize around the central theme of God's character as revealed in Jesus?

Whenever we move God from the center of scripture and make the central focus of the Bible about something else we will begin losing focus.

What other ideas replace God as center focus of scripture?

- Our salvation
- Healthy living
- Rules for society

Read bottom pink section – thoughts?

TUESDAY

Baruch reads Jeremiah to the people and then leadership inquires what he is teaching- how does leadership respond to the message?

The king cuts up the scroll and burns it.

Why would the king do this? What was the message of the scroll? That they should humble themselves and accept Babylonian oversight - but the king wouldn't listen.

How did the king treat Jeremiah and Baruch?

If we have truth about God to share should we share it even though we know it won't be popular or some will turn against us?

How do we balance our responsibility to witness the truth with Christ's admonition:

Do not give what is holy to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces. Matt 7:6

When do we speak boldly and when do we hold our peace? Where do you draw the line?

Speak only to those who want to hear?

What principles do you use in knowing when to speak and when to keep silent?

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, “Of course, feeling dejected....” Thoughts?

Is it true we all struggle with powerful feelings, and sometimes these feelings are very discouraging?

Into the experience of all there come times of keen disappointment and utter discouragement--days when sorrow is the portion, and it is hard to believe that God is still the kind benefactor of His earthborn children; days when troubles harass the soul, till death seems preferable to life. It is then that many lose their hold on God. . . . Could we at such times discern with spiritual insight the meaning of God's providences we should see angels seeking to save us from ourselves, striving to plant our feet upon a foundation more firm than the everlasting hills, and new faith, new life, would spring into being.... {CC 213.3}

Thoughts?

We all struggle with feelings, but do our feelings reliably inform us of our true situation?

Any examples?

- Elijah after Carmel
- Disciples after Crucifixion
- Mary and Martha after Lazarus died
- Others?

What about today? When I was in my early twenties I lost a job and was discouraged and dejected. I asked God, why? The following week I found another job, there I met a person who became a friend. She was premed at UTC. I wanted to go but hadn't gotten around to it. With her encouragement I went back to school and became a physician – changed my entire life. God knew I needed that little extra encouragement and I am so glad I lost that job.

If I could have seen things from His perspective I would not have been discouraged.

What about love – when we have love in our hearts will we always feel good? What would you say is the greatest demonstration of love in the history of the universe? Would it not be Christ’s sacrifice at the Cross? What were His human emotions like?

Yet, somehow, through the agony of Gethsemane the scriptures say he went forward for the joy set BEFORE Him. He looked forward to joy which would be achieved through the valley of trial.

The greatest demonstration of love was not based on feelings but on understanding!

THURSDAY

The lesson asks at the top to read Jeremiah 45 and asks, “What does this passage tell us about God?”

This is what Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, after Baruch had written on a scroll the words Jeremiah was then dictating: ² “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³ You said, ‘Woe to me! The Lord has added sorrow to my pain; I am worn out with groaning and find no rest.’ ”

⁴ The Lord said, “Say this to him: ‘This is what the Lord says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot what I have planted, throughout the land. ⁵ Should you then seek great things for yourself? Seek them not. For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the Lord, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.’ ”

Thoughts?

What does this passage say to you about God?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, “The spirit of opposition...” thoughts? Do you see this happening today? Is it only those outside the church who refuse to heed warnings, or within as well?

Some have alleged that our class is doing this – how can you tell the right from the wrong, the truth from the error to ensure we don’t do this?

Must we compare Scripture with Scripture, using all the inspired record? But what if someone opposes the truth claiming scripture and writes long treatises opposing the truth, how can one know which interpretation of scripture is correct? We must harmonize, scripture, science and experience, use testable evidence, the laws of God’s known universe, the principles of His government, the life of Christ as a touchstone all to help differentiate the truth.

Why will there ultimately be no help from heaven for those who do this? What help does God provide? Is God not the God of truth? Is He not the God of love? And if one rejects truth and love and instead prefers lies, what happens to the mind? What can God do to help such a one?

Read questions 1,3,5 and discuss.

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 1 1Q 2011

Emotions

In the introduction to the quarterly we read in the first paragraph:

“One could argue justifiably, that emotions rule our lives to a much greater extent than reason does or ever could.”

Thoughts about this idea?

Is it true that in the world many, perhaps most, people are ruled by their emotions?

But what about the idea that emotions rule our lives to a greater extent than reason ever could? Is this true?

Is it God’s design that emotions should “rule” our lives?

James 1 tells us it is our emotions or desires that lead us into temptation – but Jesus said truth will set free. Are emotions to be a guiding light to rule over us?

Feelings can lie – we can have powerful feelings that are 100% false. Any examples?

Should we rely on our feelings as a guide to action? What about impressions, can we trust impressions, perhaps impressions of the Holy Spirit?

- They [some unconverted ministers] have occasionally a flight of feeling, which gives them the impression that they are indeed children of God. This dependence upon impressions is one of the special deceptions of Satan. Testimonies, vol. 2, p. 505.5 (Oct. 25, 1868); RH May 19, 1885
- Impressions alone are not a safe guide to duty. The enemy often persuades men to believe that it is God who is guiding them, when in reality they are following only human impulse.

Acts of the Apostles 279 (1911); Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, August 24, 1911

- Counterfeit holiness, spurious sanctification, is still doing its work of deception. Under various forms it exhibits the same spirit as in the days of Luther, diverting minds from the Scriptures and leading men to follow their own feelings and impressions rather than to yield obedience to the law of God. This is one of Satan's most successful devices to cast reproach upon purity and truth. The Spirit of Prophecy, vol. 4, p. 152 (1884); Great Controversy 193 (1888)
- We must go to the people with the solid Word of God; and when they receive that Word, the Holy Spirit may come, but it always comes, as I have stated before, in a way that commends itself to the judgment of the people. In our speaking, our singing, and in all our spiritual exercises, we are to reveal that calmness and dignity and godly fear that actuates every true child of God. . . (LDE 93)
- I am afraid of anything that would have a tendency to turn the mind away from the solid evidences of the truth as revealed in God's Word. I am afraid of it; I am afraid of it. We must bring our minds within the bounds of reason, lest the enemy so come in as to set everything in a disorderly way. There are persons of an excitable temperament who are easily led into fanaticism; and should we allow anything to come into our churches that would lead such persons into error, we would soon see these errors carried to extreme lengths, and then because of the course of these disorderly elements, a stigma would rest upon the whole body of Seventh-day Adventists. . .
- It is through the Word—not feeling, not excitement—that we want to influence the people to obey the truth. On the platform of God's Word we can stand with safety. The living Word is replete with evidence, and a wonderful power accompanies its proclamation in our world." MS 115, 1908; Selected Messages, vol. 3, pp. 372-375; portions in Selected Messages, vol. 2, pp. 43,44; VSS 290; LDE 93; "The Ralph Mackin Story," Review and Herald, Aug. 17, 1972

Thoughts?

On the second page of the introduction the lesson states, “We are, today, thousands of years from the ‘tree of life’ (Gen 2:9). The DNA is wearing thin. We’re damaged goods, and, contrary to the myths of evolution, we’re getting only worse.”

Thoughts?

The human genome is damaged – how would you classify this damage?

Scripture says we are born in sin conceived in iniquity (Ps 51). What does this mean?

The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: ²⁵but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares also among the wheat, and went away. ²⁶But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. ²⁷And the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? ²⁸And he said unto them, An enemy hath done this. Mt 13:24-28

Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Matt. 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. {2SM 288.2}

What do you think it means to sow seeds of death into the system? Would it not mean, that after Adam sinned and Satan now had access to this biosphere he began mucking around with DNA?

Viruses are an example of Satan's amalgamations. Viruses operate on the system of Satan's government of selfishness, take, take, take all for the purpose of making more of "me" the virus.

How infected is nature? In the ocean in deep sea water it is estimated that there are 3 billion virus per liter of water, in coastal waters it is estimated there are 100 billion viruses per liter of ocean water. With the sea containing 1.4 billion cubic kilometers of water it is estimated it contains 4×10^{30} viruses. If a virus measures 0.1 micrometer and we put all viruses from the sea end to end that distance would be 4×10^{20} kilometers or 42 million light years in length. This is roughly 100 times the distance across the Milky Way Galaxy.

Reference:

http://books.google.com/books?id=emJIuSbbLkYC&pg=PA131&lpg=PA131&dq=viruses+in+the+ocean+distance+light+years&source=bl&ots=FcPcUU30j_&sig=hRaL7qjggOTIthatzhfDqW7if8I&hl=en&ei=NnoJTfuTCIqCsQPN1uXEDg&sa=X&oi=book_result&ct=result&resnum=1&ved=0CBoQ6AEwAA#v=onepage&q=viruses%20in%20the%20ocean%20distance%20light%20years&f=false

What about the human genome? Science has discovered that the human genome is filled with what used to be called "junk" DNA but now appears to be something called Transposons or Transposable elements. DNA that can move around and insert itself here and there within our DNA. It is now believed that up to 50% of the human genome is composed of TEs or foreign DNA which some are beginning to argue accounts for almost all disease with which human's suffer.

Below is a list of diseases associated with TEs:

AIDS
ALCOHOLISM
ALPORT SYNDROME
ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE
ANGELMAN SYNDROME
ASTHMA

ATAXIA TELANGIECTASIA
AUTISM
AUTOIMMUNE DISEASES
BIPOLAR DISORDER
BRUGADA SYNDROME - ARRYTHMIA
CANCER: BREAST CANCER: CARTILAGE HAIR HYPOPLASIA
CANCER: LUNG CANCER: LYMPHOMA
CANCER: MULIPLE MYELOMA
CANCER: NON-POLYPOSIS COLORECTAL
CANCER: PROSTATE CANCER: THYROID
CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASE
CYSTIC FIBROSIS
DIABETES MELLITUS TYPE II
DiGEORGE SYNDROME
DUCHENNE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY
DYSKERATOSIS CONGENITA
EPILEPSY ESSENTIAL HYPERTENSION FAMILIAL DYSAUTOSOMIA FRAGILE X SYNDROME, AUTISM
FRIEDREICH CEREBELLAR ATAXIA
HIRSCHSPRUNG DISEASE
HYPERCHOLESTEROLEMIA, FAMILIAL
HYPER-FERRITINEMIA-CATARACT SYNDROME, FAMILIAL HYPER-IgM SYNDROME TYPE 1
LUPUS ERYTHEMATOSUS
LYMPHOMA, B-CELL MALARIA MEASLES
MELANOMA
MENTAL RETARDATION
MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS
MYOCARDIAL INFARCTION
MYOTONIC DYSTROPHY
NEUROFIBROMATOSIS
PARKINSONS' DISEASE

PRADER-WILLI SYNDROME
 PSEUDOXANTHOMA ELASTICUM (PXE, GROENBLAD-STRANDBERG SYNDROME)
 PSORIASIS
 RETT SYNDROME
 RETINITIS PIGMENTOSA
 SCLERODERMA
 SPINOCEREBELLAR ATAXIA STROKE SCHIZOPHRENIA
 TAY-SACHS DISEASE
 TOURETTE SYNDROME
 VON WILLEBRAND DISEASE

Aren't you looking forward to Christ's return?

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, "Emotions are..." thoughts?

When God created Adam and Eve in Eden what kind of emotions did they experience before sin? Now, of course, they had the capacity to experience painful emotions, fear, anxiety, worry, but were such feelings part of the way God designed them to be?

Could we say negative emotions are a consequence of sin? Similarly, the feeling of suffocation is never experienced unless something cuts off one's air supply – there is the capacity to experience this feeling, but one never does unless something goes terribly wrong.

What went terribly wrong? How did sin effect human emotions?

From where do positive emotions arise? What contributes to or gives rise to positive emotions of peace, joy, contentment, happiness?

Any ideas?

What gives rise to negative emotions of fear, anxiety, dread, terror, heartache, abandonment, guilt, shame?

Can we uncover any underlying themes or principles from which all positive emotions arise and from which all negative emotions arise?

What emotion do you experience when someone is kind to you? When you choose to help another? When you are appreciated and accepted and valued for who you are?

What emotion do you experience when you are betrayed, lied about, attacked? What emotion do you experience when you betray your trust, lie about another, falsely accuse, steal or cheat?

What are the underlying themes?

Is there a connection between beneficence, altruism, love and other-centered living and positive emotions?

Is there a connection between selfishness, me first living and negative emotions?

Are these two types of living at all connected to God's and Satan's governments?

In what condition are we born?

What does God want us to experience? What is conversion? Is conversion primarily a change in religious affiliation? Is it denominational? Is conversion about changing one's doctrinal understanding or is it about a change of heart motive and attitude toward God and others?

SUNDAY

The lesson asks us to read 2Sam 13

In the course of time, Amnon son of David fell in love with Tamar, the beautiful sister of Absalom son of David.

² Amnon became frustrated to the point of illness on account of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do anything to her.

³ Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man. ⁴ He asked Amnon, "Why do you, the king's son, look so haggard morning after morning? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon said to him, "I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

⁵ "Go to bed and pretend to be ill," Jonadab said. "When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.'"

⁶ So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, "I would like my sister Tamar to come and make some special bread in my sight, so I may eat from her hand."

⁷ David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare some food for him." ⁸ So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made the bread in his sight and baked it. ⁹ Then she took the pan and served him the bread, but he refused to eat.

"Send everyone out of here," Amnon said. So everyone left him.

¹⁰ Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food here into my bedroom so I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the bread she had prepared and brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom. ¹¹ But when she took it to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, "Come to bed with me, my sister."

¹² "Don't, my brother!" she said to him. "Don't force me. Such a thing should not be done in Israel! Don't do this wicked thing.

¹³ What about me? Where could I get rid of my disgrace? And what about you? You would be like one of the wicked fools in Israel. Please speak to the king; he will not keep me from being married to you." ¹⁴ But he refused to listen to her, and since he was stronger than she, he raped her.

¹⁵ Then Amnon hated her with intense hatred. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her. Amnon said to her, “Get up and get out!”

¹⁶ “No!” she said to him. “Sending me away would be a greater wrong than what you have already done to me.”

But he refused to listen to her. ¹⁷ He called his personal servant and said, “Get this woman out of here and bolt the door after her.” ¹⁸ So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her. She was wearing a richly ornamented robe, for this was the kind of garment the virgin daughters of the king wore. ¹⁹ Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the ornamented robe she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away, weeping aloud as she went.

²⁰ Her brother Absalom said to her, “Has that Amnon, your brother, been with you? Be quiet now, my sister; he is your brother. Don’t take this thing to heart.” And Tamar lived in her brother Absalom’s house, a desolate woman.

²¹ When King David heard all this, he was furious. ²² Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad; he hated Amnon because he had disgraced his sister Tamar.

²³ Two years later, when Absalom’s sheepshearers were at Baal Hazor near the border of Ephraim, he invited all the king’s sons to come there. ²⁴ Absalom went to the king and said, “Your servant has had shearers come. Will the king and his officials please join me?”

²⁵ “No, my son,” the king replied. “All of us should not go; we would only be a burden to you.” Although Absalom urged him, he still refused to go, but gave him his blessing.

²⁶ Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us.”

The king asked him, “Why should he go with you?” ²⁷ But Absalom urged him, so he sent with him Amnon and the rest of the king’s sons.

²⁸ Absalom ordered his men, “Listen! When Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine and I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon down,’ then kill him. Don’t be afraid. Have not I given you this order? Be strong and brave.” ²⁹ So Absalom’s men did to Amnon what Absalom had ordered. Then all the king's sons got up, mounted their mules and fled.

³⁰ While they were on their way, the report came to David: "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons; not one of them is left." ³¹ The king stood up, tore his clothes and lay down on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

³² But Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "My lord should not think that they killed all the princes; only Amnon is dead. This has been Absalom's expressed intention ever since the day Amnon raped his sister Tamar. ³³ My lord the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

³⁴ Meanwhile, Absalom had fled.

Now the man standing watch looked up and saw many people on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill. The watchman went and told the king, "I see men in the direction of Horonaim, on the side of the hill."

³⁵ Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons are here; it has happened just as your servant said."

³⁶ As he finished speaking, the king's sons came in, wailing loudly. The king, too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.

³⁷ Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But King David mourned for his son every day.

³⁸ After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there three years. ³⁹ And the spirit of the king longed to go to Absalom, for he was consoled concerning Amnon's death.

Thoughts?

What emotion was motivating Amnon? Was it love? Why does the Bible say it was love – if the Bible says it is love shouldn't we believe the Bible?

Can we not take the Bible as it reads? Do we have to think through what it says? If we were to conclude that Amnon loved Tamar because the Bible said he loved her, would we draw the right conclusion?

What about people who read about God's anger or wrath and draw the conclusion that God is angry or wrathful?

What does love look like? If Amnon really loved Tamar how would he have treated her?

What do you think about Tamar asking Amnon to wait so they could be married? Was it a stalling tactic to get out of the room? Did she really want to marry him?

Why do you think Amnon "hated" her? Did he hate her? The Bible says he hated her – should we believe it? Or do we have to understand what it means?

Why did Amnon "hate" Tamar? Is it because she reminded him of his own evil heart and character? Is it because he actually felt guilty and hated himself for being so weak? So who did he really hate?

Then why would the Bible say he hated Tamar? Do we learn something from this story on how we should understand Scripture? Can we take everything as it reads and believe that is exactly what it means?

Don't we have to compare what is said with the evidence to draw the right conclusions? Doesn't Amnon's behavior and the facts of what happen enlighten us to understand his true motivations? That he neither loved nor hated Tamar but lusted after her and then hated himself?

Many people who study scripture make this type of error in regard to God and devise ideas about God that He is angry, wrathful, must inflict punishment, etc. Why? Because they don't incorporate all the evidence, but take passages as they read.

Any other thoughts about this story?

Read last paragraph, "As any woman...." Thoughts?

This is a great example of how feelings lie and deceive. I have had many patients who were molested, sexually abused and/or raped. In every case the person when they came to see me struggled with feeling ugly, dirty, nasty, impure, defiled, unworthy, inadequate, ruined, no good, disgusting etc.

In every case the victim felt like they were no longer the same pure, clean, virtuous person they were before the abuse. Why?

Because of the feelings associated with the event are so powerful they dominate the internalization of the experience.

Imagine you walk in and see a 35 year old man molesting a 5 year old girl or boy – do you think, “What a disgusting, gross, ugly, dirty, perverted little girl?” Of course not – you immediately think those things about the man – because “From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks....”

The man’s behavior tells us about him, not the child. What does the child walk away feeling like? Is she or he? No!

What happens is that such an event causes very powerful negative emotions – which are appropriate to the experience but unfortunately almost always get attached to the self. Healing comes when we are able to allow the feelings to be experienced, but rightly place them where they belong, attached to the event and not the self.

I use the analogy of walking in a cow pasture....

Likewise, when a gross experience happens negative emotions are appropriate to the experience, but we remain unsullied in character, in personhood.

MONDAY

Read top paragraph, “Negative emotional...” this is true.

What impact do you believe modern society has on our emotions? Is it healthy or unhealthy?

Am J Psychiatry 2006 163:2141-2147 – The rate of depression markedly increased over the last 10 years

Comorbid Substance Use Disorders in the United States Between 1991–1992 and 2001–2002

Wilson M. Compton, M.D., M.P.E., Kevin P. Conway, Ph.D., Frederick S. Stinson, Ph.D., and Bridget F. Grant, Ph.D.

OBJECTIVE: The authors examined changes in the prevalence of major depression in the United States between 1991–1992 and 2001–2002 and sought to determine whether changes in depression rates were associated with changes in rates of comorbid substance use disorder. METHOD: Data were drawn from two large (Ns exceeding 42,000) cross-sectional surveys of representative samples of the U.S. population conducted 10 years apart. Both surveys used face-to-face interviews, the same diagnostic criteria, and consistent assessment instruments. Rates of past-year major depressive episode in the total samples and among subjects with and without co-occurring substance use disorders in major demographic groups were compared. RESULTS: From 1991–1992 to 2001–2002, the prevalence of major depression among U.S. adults increased from 3.33% to 7.06%. Increases were statistically significant for whites, blacks, and Hispanics and for all age groups. For Hispanic men overall and Hispanic women 18–29 years of age, rates increased but not significantly. The hypothesis that increases in the rates of depression could be explained by concomitant increases in co-occurring substance use disorders was supported only for black men 18–29 years of age. CONCLUSIONS: Rates of major depression rose markedly over the past decade in the United States, and increases were noted for most sociodemographic subgroups of the population. If the prevalence continues to increase at the rate it did during the past decade, the demand for services will increase dramatically in the coming years.

- In US increased wealth in the last 40 years but decrease in happiness, US is 157/173 in happiness of nations rated
- The farther from a park a person lives the higher risk of depression
- When stressed our brains activate an inflammatory cascade, two pathways both through the adrenal glands:
 - First – pituitary ACTH, Adrenals and cortisol
 - Second – Locus Ceruleus, norepinephrine (NE), Adrenals more NE and epinephrine EPI, which activate innate immunity, which is the inflammatory response, done in order to prime the system for potential injury.
- Innate immunity, shotgun approach, attacks foreign things generally and non specifically and causes much collateral damage to body tissue (inflammation). Fight or flight response.
- Acquired immunity is sniper, B cells, antibodies and specifies targets to attack, takes days or weeks to ramp up
- Stress and depression result in decreased acquired immunity and increased innate immunity and increased inflammation
- Cannot activate stress response without activating immune system

Our bodies have two general automated nervous systems – these regulate things like body temperature, heart rate, blood pressure, digestion, motility of food through the gut, alertness, breathing, etc.

These two general systems are the sympathetic and parasympathetic systems. The sympathetic system is generally the system associated with fear, anxiety, alertness, fight or flight, adrenalin. The parasympathetic is associated with calmness, digestion, and slowing things down.

Under stress the sympathetic system becomes more active and the parasympathetic less active. This means higher heart rate, blood pressure, GI upset, sleep problems and greater inflammation.

The sympathetic system will activate the immune response turning on white blood cells called macrophages which begin releasing inflammatory cytokines.

- Cytokines affect brain and cause fever, fatigue, loss of appetite, loss of joy and pleasure and impaired concentration
- Why does such a response, sickness exist? Body's response to fight off infection, if block fever increase mortality in reptiles and mammals and prolongs illness
- Same pathways are activated by psychosocial stress increasing inflammation as by infection, but this activation is much more marked in patients who are depressed
- Obesity increases inflammation
- Sedentary lifestyle increases inflammation
- Unhealthy diet (transfats) increases inflammation
- Social isolation increases inflammation
- Sleep deprivation increases inflammation
- Increase of cytokines is sine qua non of medical illness and medical illness is the number 1 factor in contributing to major depression, #2 is psychosocial stress

Within our immune system there are different types of cells. Some cells are used to turn the system on and others to turn it off. Think of the immune system as the national guard – it is designed to protect the country from invasion. Likewise the immune system is designed to protect the body from invasion.

And just as the national guard has officers to order an attack or to call off an attack, so too our immune system has cells to order attacks or call off attacks.

- T- helper cells
 - T – helper 1 fights things like TB, and when goes wrong causes autoimmune diseases, arthritis, Crohns disease, ulcerative colitis, fibromyalgia etc.
 - T –helper 2 which fights helminthes and when goes wrong causes allergies
 - T – regulator cells which turn off immune response, stop autoimmune disorders and increase IL-10 and TGF-beta cytokines which are very powerful anti-inflammatory cytokines

- Veterinary studies reveal lack of worms in dogs is set up for immune system disorders in people, we need saprophytic bacteria, gut flora, and some exposure to worms so that the immune system can learn to tolerate certain non dangerous life exposures and this occurs because of increase in Treg cells

- #1 predictor of low C-reactive protein, which means low inflammation, in people as adults is animal feces in the home as children

Bottom line, unremitting stress activates immune pathway leading to physical and mental illness.

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

Jesus emotional manifestations

What emotions were experienced by Jesus? Would not all emotions have been experience?

Heb 4:15 he was tempted in every way like us, and James 1:14 we are tempted when drug away and enticed by our own evil feelings or desires.

What motivated Jesus to action? Was it emotional? Was Jesus driven around by His emotions? Or was it a higher duty, which resulted in emotions?

Is love an emotion or does love include emotions as a piece of something much larger?

What is the greatest evidence of love in the universe? Would it not be Christ giving his life?

Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13

This is how we know what love is: Christ gave his life for us. We too, then, ought to give our lives for our brothers and sisters! 1John 3:16

When you look at Gethsemane, did Christ make this decision based on emotions?

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, “The world seems...” thoughts?

Is it true that those who engage the world’s system experience genuine joy? Can they experience pleasure? Does the pleasure last?

Consider alcohol, drugs, illicit sex, gambling, thrill seeking, relationship addiction – is there any real joy in it? Can there be pleasure? What about genuine peace, joy, happiness, contentment, health?

What about the righteous, do the righteous have a free pass to escape pain, grief, suffering? But is there a transcendence that allows one to endure such trials and still have a sense of peace?

What is it? It is being connected to Christ, being on mission, being in unity with God, having purpose for the suffering. And thus, while Jesus did not sacrifice Himself based on emotions:

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Heb 12:2

FRIDAY

Discuss question 2

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 2 1Q 2011

Divine Provision for Anxiety

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “Scripture is filled with...” thoughts?

Is it God’s plan we experience fear? When do we have the first record of humans experiencing fear?

After sin, they ran and hid because they were afraid.

How is love and fear connected or relate? What happens when one of these increases?

How then do we understand the passages of Scripture that tell us to “fear God”?

Read second paragraph, “And why not?...” thoughts? Remember what Churchill and Roosevelt said, “there is nothing to fear except fear itself.” What does this mean?

What impact does fear have upon us?

- Fear impairs physical growth
 - Iraqi children in war zones are shorter than Iraqi children in rural areas
- Fear impairs intellectual growth
 - Test anxiety, performance anxiety
- Fear impairs relational growth
 - Fear in relationships result in control, loss of freedom, jealousy etc.
- Fear impairs spiritual growth
 - Fear results in rules, regulations, decreased thinking, superstitious beliefs
- Fear impairs judgment
 - Chemistry teacher fears having car repossessed...

- Fear impairs physical performance
 - Consider walking a balance beam on the floor versus the same 4 inch beam 100 feet in the air, which are you more likely to fall from?

What does chronic fear do to us?

- Activates sympathetic nervous system “fight flight”
- Which activates innate immunity, activating macrophages
- Which release inflammatory cytokines
- Which damage insulin receptors, synapses resulting in insulin resistance, obesity, diabetes mellitus, heart attacks, strokes, depression etc.

Are some people more fear prone than others? Why? What contributes to increased fear?

- Physical contributions
- Psychological spiritual contributions

Physical contributions to increased fear:

- If mother was anxious and stressed when pregnant alters fetal brain development so the child will be less capable of calming the fear circuits of the brain
- Lack of care, nurture as infant young child, alters the developing brain so the fear circuits don't calm as easily
- Childhood abuse – over develops fear circuits
- Trauma – up regulates fear circuits, can cause unhealthy beliefs
- Alcohol/drugs (mother's use and yours) – damages brain
- Theatrical entertainment – over activates fear circuits, slows prefrontal cortex
- Genetic defects – certain disorders can result in increased or decreased fear (Williams syndrome missing 25 genes on chromosome 7 and over representation of oxytocin receptors on amygdala therefore no fear of strangers)
- Sleep deprivation

Psychological contributions to increased fear:

- Childhood abuse/neglect
- Trauma
- Theatrical entertainment
- False God concepts
- Relationship conflict
- Dishonesty, selfish behaviors
- Unforgiving attitudes

What can be done to improve one's state of anxiety?

Target the contributing factors!

- Truth about God
- Loving human relationships
- Avoid alcohol/illegal drugs
- Avoid stimulants like caffeine
- Exercise regularly
- Regular sleep
- Avoid theatrical entertainment
- Altruistic endeavors
- Honest living
- Prescription medications
- Psychotherapy
- Forgive others

Two emails I received in the last month or so:

- First of all I would like to say a huge thank you for all of your great work! I have recently committed my life to knowing God and carrying out his will. Your book and your website have been paramount in helping me reach this decision because until I came across your insights into God's nature and the healing model of atonement I had many conflicting ideas about God that kept me from fully trusting him. I am a medical student and I have also been suffering from some pretty bad anxiety this year (particularly when my search for God and the truth intensified). But since I have discovered the truth about God and his character as revealed by Jesus, and as I spend time with this God by reading his word daily, I have been noticing a real change in my heart and mind. As I learn to love others as God loves, my anxiety gets better and better. The bible quote "Perfect love casts out all fear" is so true and has changed my life completely.

- I have been listening to you for over 2 years. I really appreciate your weekly SS lessons and book. May the Lord bless you in many ways. I was raised in a SDA church and on a very rigid home (full of rules), and after listening to your lessons I am learning to love God, Jesus, the Sabbath instead of fearing them.

Does our picture of God make a difference?

SUNDAY

The first fearful experience – when Adam and Eve ate the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil – why were they afraid? What happened?

When you disobey, what happens? Have you ever said something you wished you hadn't of said? Maybe you were upset and spoke out of turn, as soon as the words were out how did you feel?

Where was the source of Adam's fear? Was there some objective external threat to Adam after eating the fruit? Did some T Rex jump out of the woods and start chasing him?

During that long time spent in communion with God, the face of Moses had reflected the glory of the divine Presence; unknown to himself his face shown with a dazzling light when he descended from the mountain. .. Aaron as well as the people shrank away from Moses, and "they were afraid to come nigh him." Seeing their confusion and terror, but ignorant of the cause, he urged them to come near. He held out to them the pledge of God's reconciliation, and assured them of His restored favor. They perceived in his voice nothing but love and entreaty, and at last one ventured to approach him. Too awed to speak, he silently pointed to the countenance of Moses, and then toward heaven. The great leader understood his meaning. In their conscious guilt, feeling themselves still under the divine displeasure, they could not endure the heavenly light, which, had they been obedient to God, would have filled them with joy. There is fear in guilt. The soul that is free from sin will not wish to hide from the light of heaven. {PP 329.5}

Thoughts? What does this mean? Were they under the divine displeasure? Why did they feel that way? When Adam sinned was his conscience guilty? Is this the source of fear? He ran and hid from who? Did he need to fear God? Was God coming to hurt Adam?

Guilt is an internal condemnation in which we feel fear, conviction, self doubt, self displeasure activating the fear circuits of the brain. It distorts our thinking and we see others through the lens of our own self-distortion, we believe that others will see us as we see ourselves.

This is an additional layer of confusion which causes so many false God concepts. People see God through the lens of their own guilt and inadequacy.

MONDAY

Abraham was afraid that after so many years the promise of God for an heir would not be realized. What is the source of this fear?

Was Abraham afraid God would not keep His word? Why was this so concerning for Abraham? Was Abraham afraid that the plan of redemption would be interrupted if he didn't have a child or was Abraham afraid he personally wouldn't have an heir?

How could Abraham have avoided this fear? By surrendering the outcome to God, by surrendering what he wanted to happen to God.

TUESDAY

Read John 14:1-3:

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. ²In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Read first paragraph, "These loving words..." thoughts?

What does it mean to trust in God? I have patients in my office every day who live in fear about the future but also affirm they trust God. What is the balance between trusting God and fear?

What causes someone who trusts God to still fear?

- Does improving one's perspective help decrease fear?
- Does a healthy biology help decrease fear?
- Do healthy relationships help decrease fear?

What enhances your trust in God? What undermines your trust in God?

What did Jesus mean in John 17:3 that life eternal is knowing God? Does this have anything to do with trust in God?

- Story of young boy in a NY 3rd floor apartment...

How can we know God better?

Experience is said to be the best teacher. Genuine experience is indeed superior to mere theoretical knowledge, but many have an erroneous idea as to what constitutes experience. Real experience is gained by a variety of careful experiments, made with the mind free from prejudice, uncontrolled by previously established opinions and habits. The results are marked with careful solicitude, and an anxious desire to learn, to improve, and to reform on every point that is not in harmony with physical and moral laws. {CTBH 109.1}

That which many term experience is not experience at all; it has resulted from mere habit, or from a course of indulgence, thoughtlessly and often ignorantly followed. There has not been a fair trial by actual experiment and thorough investigation, with a knowledge of the principles involved in the action. Experience which is opposed to natural law,-- which is in conflict with the unchangeable principles of nature,--is not to be relied upon. Superstition arising from a diseased imagination is often arrayed in opposition to reason and to scientific principles. To many a person, the idea that others may gainsay what he has learned by experience, seems folly, and even cruelty itself. But there are more errors received and held through false ideas of experience than from any other cause. There are many invalids today who will ever remain such because they cannot be convinced that their experience is not to be relied upon. {CTBH 109.2}

Thoughts? This is so true on several levels. First, in religions, including Christianity, many superstitious teachings are put forth which cannot hold up when careful experiments are done in harmony with natural laws. When we believe things that actually go against natural law, what happens to our sense of reality? Our security?

Might we come to view God as arbitrary? If God is arbitrary is there predictability? If no predictability what happens to security, what about fear?

Any examples of teachings like this? The most obvious is that sin requires God to use His power to punish. This teaching goes against experience, reason and natural law and thus causes us to fear God. It results in turning off the brain, teaching non-sense in various ways.

This is true with many anxiety disorders in which people believe falsehoods which drive fear and anxiety.

- If I don't touch the door seven times something bad will happen
- Nobody loves me
- I can't do anything right
- God doesn't care

WEDNESDAY

The lesson suggests that from Christ's Sermon on the Mount we gain some lessons:

- Keep things in perspective – God will provide
 - Are we promised that all our needs will be provided?
 - Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. ¹⁰ At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other... For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again. ²² If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened. Matt 24:9,10,21,22
 - What are we promised?
- Become inspired by simple things from nature
 - What do we learn from nature? Do we learn of the Father's law of love and His supreme care?
- Worry is useless and pointless
 - Thursday's lesson states regarding what we worry about:
 - 50% never happen
 - 25% are events of the past that cannot be changed
 - 10% are unconfirmed criticism by others
 - 10% is about health
 - 5% is about real problems

- BUT that 5% is almost always magnified out of proportion to the real stress
- Straighten out your priorities
 - Seek first the kingdom of God.... What does this mean? What is the kingdom of God that we are to seek? What does that kingdom look like?

THURSDAY

Matt 6:34 Jesus tells us not to worry about tomorrow each day has enough worries of its own. What does this mean?

Is Jesus telling us to stop escaping living in the presence by running into the past or worrying about the future? How much time to you spend ruminating over a past issue or worrying about a future problem?

How much time to you spend enjoying the moment?

Several years ago I attended a cancer support group. One of the ladies had been diagnosed with ovarian cancer. She had small children. She reported how the cancer had changed her life, FOR THE BETTER! She reported how it made her realize what was important and what wasn't. She said that before the cancer she was so stressed out about the little things that didn't matter. She would get so upset if the kids came down with socks that didn't match and would make a big fuss and make them go change. Prior to the cancer she was more concerned with appearances, how her house looked and would spend hours cleaning it. But after the diagnosis she realized that what really mattered were people and she started spending her time with people, loving her family and building relationships and her fears actually went away.

FRIDAY

Read first two paragraphs, "It is not work..." thoughts?

What does it mean to have more faith, love, patience? How do we get more of these? Is it something we passively receive? Is it something we actively participate to build?

Read and discuss question 2

Question 3 – read, why did Jacob and Joseph’s brothers experience fear? Had they done wrong? Did they have a guilty conscience? What does a guilty conscience do?

Read question 4 did Job’s problems come as a result of his fear causing self fulfilling prophecy? Can self-fulfilling prophecies occur? Examples? How about a person who is afraid that no one likes them, that they will not be loved, valued or appreciated, they believe it is just a matter of time before they are rejected, so they develop a distrustful attitude and present a hostile, obstinate, manipulative attitude creating a stressful environment? What will most people do over time?

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 3 1Q 2011

Stress

SABBATH

Memory verse: Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Matt 11:28

Thoughts – have you ever claimed this Bible promise? I know I have and I have experienced God’s peace and presence.

What is stress?

Read first paragraph, “Stress touches...” thoughts?

Is stress only negative events or can positive life events also be stressful? Can planning a wedding be stressful? Can performing a concert be stressful? Can the first day on a job be stressful?

How would you apply Christ’s invitation to come to Him when one has lost a spouse? When a parent has lost a child? What does it mean to come to Christ when stressed?

Does it mean something more than claiming Bible promises?

I thought it might be helpful to present a case and think about:

- What you might experience if you were the parent in this situation
- What you might experience if you were the child
- How would you apply Christ’s promise to come to Him in this situation

Jenny

- Jenny was out of control.
- The rages, anger outbursts, skipping school, and the steady stream of foul language started when she was 13.

- Her mother and stepfather tried various forms of discipline: grounding, loss of cell phone and iPod, and extra chores. But she only got worse.
 - At 14 she began dressing in black, wearing black nail polish, and sneaking away from school to smoke.
 - Her parents took her to counselors and psychiatrists. She was placed on several medications,
 - but by 15 she was deliberately cutting herself when stressed and bingeing and purging on an almost daily basis.
 - She complained of feeling fat, despite being only 100 pounds at five feet four inches tall.
 - She reported anxiety, emptiness, and moodiness, and when she became overwhelmed, she would either binge, then purge, or would cut herself in order to “relieve the tension.” She was out of control and getting worse fast.
-
- Jenny was beautiful with dark hair and brilliant green eyes that sparkled with a golden hue, yet radiated a deep, almost primal, pain
 - She mostly avoided direct eye contact, hanging her head with her knees pulled up to her chest and her arms wrapped tightly around them at the shin.
 - She was frightened, not of me, but of the emotional storm raging inside her; terrified she could not be helped; worried she would never find peace.
 - She felt worthless

Do you think Jenny’s parents were stressed? Was Jenny stressed? What would happen in this situation if you quoted our memory verse to Jenny? Do you think it would resolve her problem?

What does it mean to come to Jesus?

What could Jenny do in this situation to actually come to Jesus and experience His peace?

Have any of you ever felt worthless, empty, no good, struggled with low self esteem and no confidence, felt unloved, like no one cares?

I am going to tell you two truths:

1. you are not alone
2. Feelings can lie

James 1:14 no one should say God tempts, each one is tempted....

John 8:32 the truth will set you free

We have power over what we believe but our beliefs have power over us – power to heal and power to destroy! And if we believe what our feelings say, we are usually led down painful and destructive paths

- Jenny had been running from a faceless, formless, shadowy internal tormentor that haunted her constantly. She didn't know from where her persecutor had come, but she couldn't remember a day free from its taunting.
- She heard the brutal thoughts echoing in her mind,
 - You're fat,
 - you're gross,
 - you're ugly,
 - you're worthless!
 - Nobody could love you.
 - You're always messed up.
 - You're bad and disgusting.
- No matter what she did, she just couldn't make the thoughts stop, so, she wanted to die, believing it's all she deserved. She thought suicide was her only escape.
- It was hard for Jenny to talk, but eventually she told me the source of her pain
- Jenny was three when her father walked out. One day he just left home and never returned. He divorced her mother and she had not seen him since.
- Jenny began to cry as she recounted how she missed him. She told me that she remembered her father, remembered she loved to ride on his shoulders; loved to be held in his arms.
- Reluctantly, hesitantly, she told me she knew why her father left.
 - "Because I was bad,"
 - "If I had been a better girl my daddy wouldn't have left."

- It's my fault!"
- What did Jenny believe?
- What we believe has power over us, power to heal and power to destroy – Jenny believed a lie.
- This was it, the core, the pernicious root that had been poisoning her mind.
- This lie had to be removed.

What does it mean to come to Jesus? What does it mean to apply our memory verse promise? Doesn't it mean we come to know Him, His methods, principles and begin to apply them to our lives?

What are some of Satan's weapons? What weapons were being used on Jenny?

What do we receive when we come to Jesus that enables us to defeat the enemy?

I told Jenny what I am going to tell you, and

I know some of you have been hurt, mistreated, betrayed, abused I know some of you have heartaches, and have been through painful experiences. But we:

- Cannot change history
- Can reevaluate the conclusions drawn and replace distortions with facts, errors with the truth.

Jesus said, "from the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks"

- Imagine a 40 y/o man cursing a 5 y/o girl

How did Jenny file away her father's leaving?

Jenny's brain at age three couldn't understand these truths so:

- Jenny had done what almost all children do when hurt by a parent; she had blamed herself for the shortcoming of her father.
- In the aftermath of her father leaving, Jenny felt abandoned, alone, empty, and rejected.
- At age three, her mind struggled to make sense of her father's departure,
- "If I had been a good girl and picked up my toys, daddy wouldn't have left."
- Her deep feelings of hurt and rejection, having been turned back on herself, grew into a loathsome self-image. She despised herself, hated herself, and thought everyone else did as well. After all, she had driven her father away.
- The echoes of her own disapproval, her own castigation, her own constant self-criticism constantly oppressed Jenny.
- The mysterious tormentor turned out to be her own hurt feelings and distorted self-image. As she grew older it got worse.
- Her mind filtered reality. Whenever someone complimented her, commended her, or showed appreciation for her, she discounted the affirmation and thought, If they really knew me they wouldn't say that. If they really knew me they wouldn't want to be around me either. But whenever someone was critical, cruel or unkind she held onto to those experiences as proof she was "bad" and replayed them over and over again in her mind. No matter where she went or what she did she never got away from her tormentor because the tormentor lived within.
- She feared letting people get too close lest they see the horrible thing she was, (as she saw herself) and reject her. Therefore, she acted out, instigated conflict, criticized, disobeyed, was hostile, whenever anyone was too kind or got too close in order to avoid anticipated exposure and rejection.

- Jenny reported, while in the middle of a binge, she would feel a sense of relief, a feeling of comfort, an emotional soothing. But almost immediately after the binge ended she was deluged with guilt, oppressed with disgust and overwhelmed with feelings of fatness, which led her to purge.
- Why do you think Jenny binged?

- Was it for nutritional sustenance?
- What happens when infants eat?
- On some deeply unconscious level,
- Why did Jenny think she was fat? Is a young lady who is 5'4" and weighs 100 pounds fat?
- Why did she think she was fat?
- BECAUSE SHE FELT FAT
- Feelings can lie, James 1:14
- Feelings masquerade
- Then I asked her, "What does it feel like when you feel fat?" "Bad, I feel bad, Worthless, no good, gross and ugly."
- "Do you remember a time in your life when you felt bad? A time when you felt worthless?" "After my father left."
- What lie entered Jenny's mind?
- Does it feel bad when a parent leaves? Yes, it does feel bad, what is the lie?
- That because it feels bad that Jenny is bad, or gross, or disgusting, or ugly.
- Cow pasture analogy

What we believe has power over us, power to heal and power to destroy –

What does it mean to come to Jesus with our burdens? Does it mean we stop thinking? Or does it mean in relationship to Him we reason, think and begin to apply the truth and His methods to our lives?

The truth heals and the truth sets free!

SUNDAY

Elijah during the famine was fed by ravens/angels and then sent to the widow and the oil and flour miraculously never ran dry.

Was this a stressful time? What about for the widow and her son?

Why do you think that the oil and flour appeared new every day? Why not perform a miracle in which the pantry was filled with barrels of oil and tons of wheat, appropriately sealed to avoid spoilage?

Did God want to increase their stress or reduce it? Was God merely trying to sustain them for an earthly existence, or was God working through these experience to strengthen their confidence, trust, faith in Him and to open their minds to a greater reality?

What about today with our problems? Have you ever wondered why the bank account seems to have just enough to pay the bills each month? Could it be, like Elijah, to keep strengthening our faith in God and help us see a grander reality?

The lesson notes that despite Elijah's successes he had stress. What stress do you note in Elijah's life?

- Would it be stressful to go in front of the royal court and confront the king to his face?
- Would it be stressful to confront the 450 prophets of baal?
- Would it be stressful to live as a fugitive?
- Would it be stressful to have the majority of your church members think you were a heretic and trouble maker?
- Would it be stressful to have the religious leaders in your community call you divisive?
- Would it be stressful to have your church members refuse to worship with you?

Do we ever experience any stress along these lines? Does Bible prophecy tell us we will one day experience stress like this, if not already?

“See, I will send you the prophet Elijah before that great and dreadful day of the LORD comes. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers; or else I will come and strike the land with a curse.” Mal 4:5,6

What is the Elijah message that is prophesied to occur at the end of time?

A message that turns the hearts of people back to one another again, and what kind of message is that? What brings unity, harmony, oneness?

“It is the darkness of misapprehension of God that is enshrouding the world. Men are losing their knowledge of His character. It has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At this time a message from God is to be proclaimed, a message illuminating in its influence and saving in its power. His character is to be made known. Into the darkness of the world is to be shed the light of His glory, the light of His goodness, mercy and truth...The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is the revelation of His character of love.” Christ's Object Lessons, p.415

Is it happening? Is this message going forward? Will those who carry the Elijah message experience stress like Elijah did?

MONDAY

Read top paragraph, “Read 1Kings 18:40...”

Then Elijah commanded them, “Seize the prophets of Baal. Don’t let anyone get away!” They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered there. 1Kings 18:40

Thoughts?

What do you think about this revival and reformation in Israel? Should we conduct ourselves in a similar way? Was killing the prophets the only way?

How would you feel about a revival in Chattanooga between two opposing views of God and after a miracle the one leader told the audience to kill the leaders of the opposing view?

How is this different from what some elements of Islam are doing? Does God need us to physically fight to kill people who don't love and worship Him?

Would God prefer people to do this to each other? What impact does it have on the character to kill another human being? Does it cause one to become more tender, compassionate, or perhaps hardened?

Could God not have brought an earthquake as He did for Korah? Was it a necessity for humans to do the killing?

Did the killing of the prophets of Baal result in the eradication of idolatry from Israel? So the lesson's conclusion that it was the only way to eradicate idolatry is incorrect if idolatry wasn't eradicated? And God would know this wouldn't He? Then was the destruction of the prophets to eradicate idolatry?

What was it for? To reduce its influence? To slow its spread? To remove those who were hardened against God and allow for a greater opportunity for the truth to spread? As a deterrent in the future?

But what kind of methods are these? What happens to a person who obeys under threat of death? Does love flourish? What lesson should be drawn from what happened here?

What actually transpired in history? Did the use of such tactics result in what God wanted?

Then rather than a demonstration of God's methods is this perhaps a demonstration of what DOESN'T work, what methods will NOT bring about what God wants and thus in scripture we read, "not by might nor by power but by the way the spirit works says the Lord. Zech 4:6?"

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Sleep. Eat...” thoughts?

Yes, nutrition, hydration, sleep, rest, exercise are all important for maintaining physical health and combating stress.

These have anti-inflammatory properties to them and restore functioning of the prefrontal cortex which calms the stress circuitry.

Any other interventions?

Meditation, particularly on God’s character of love.

Work, altruistic endeavors, sunshine.

WEDNESDAY

What methods did Jesus use to cope with stress?

- Healthy diet
- Exercise
- Sleep
- Meditation/communion with God in prayer
- Nature
- Rest for mind
- Friends
- Helping others
- Spreading the truth
- Work
- Sunshine
- Water
- Faith/trust God with future, outcomes

Which of these do we need to do – which do we need to do more of?

Mothers frequently need to take more time away from their children – to rest their minds, to be able to turn off the “radar” and relax.

THURSDAY

Read last two paragraphs, “John D. Rockefeller...”

Thoughts? Science demonstrates that those who engage in altruistic endeavors live longer and have better physical and mental health.

But what happens if someone gives away money or resources for the purpose of getting better health and longer life?

FRIDAY

Read top paragraph and discuss

Read and discuss questions 1-4

Jesus Wept the Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 4 1Q 2011

Relationships

SABBATH

Read Memory Text:

So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets. Matt 7:12

Thoughts?

This simple principle sums up the Law and the Prophets – what is the law and the prophets? It is a way of referring to the Old Testament. The Law refers to the first five books of Moses and the Prophets refers to the rest of the Old Testament.

Sometimes the Old Testament is referred to as the Law, Prophets and Psalms, a further division. But generally, when the phrase Law and Prophets is used it is referring to the Old Testament Scriptures.

So, how is the entire Old Testament summed up in this principle?

Is there a law being summed up in this text? What law? The law of love. What does this law look like in action?

If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head. Rom 12:20

If you have done someone wrong how would you like to be treated? With grace, compassion, loving accountability to help you overcome your own weakness of character?

How important is this law? Where does it rank say in regard to the Sabbath?

³¹ “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory. ³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

³⁴ “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

³⁷ “Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

⁴⁰ “The King will reply, ‘I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.’

⁴¹ “Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.’

⁴⁴ “They also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?’

⁴⁵ “He will reply, ‘I tell you the truth, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’ Matt 25:31-45

Isn't this law of doing unto other as we would have them do to us the very outworking of God's character of love? And it is this law which is to be written upon the heart?

One other example from Scripture of this law in action – when the woman was caught in adultery – how did Jesus treat her? How did He treat those who brought her? Did He protect their reputations?

How do we want others to treat us when they know secrets about us, when they know our weaknesses, our ugly character warts?

Then how should we treat others? Should we protect them?

What helps? If we view the sin problem as legal is it easier to report what we know? If we view the sin problem as medical – they are sick in heart and mind and are struggling with symptoms, is it easier to keep confidential what we know?

What happens if this law of doing to others as you would have them do to you is broken? What happens? What is the consequence?

In a relationship do we want people to maintain their loyalty and be trustworthy, to continue to show they genuinely care about our health and welfare? What happens if this is broken, someone betrays our trust, someone is disloyal, someone lives for self instead of others?

Will the relationship suffer? How? Will the individual suffer? How?

What is the remedy for breaking such a law? If people no longer seek to do good to others, but instead have had the law of love replaced by the law of selfishness (sin and death) then what fixes it?

Will paying a legal penalty fix selfishness in a heart? Will replacing selfishness with love fix the problem?

What did this law look like in Eden? When God made Adam it wasn't good – why? Why was Eve created as his helper – to help with what?

How have marriages been affected since sin and why?

How have women been treated since sin entered the world? Is it God's plan that woman should be subordinated?

God Himself gave Adam a companion. He provided "an help meet for him"--a helper corresponding to him--one who was fitted to be his companion, and who could be one with him in love and sympathy. Eve was created from a rib taken from the side of Adam, signifying that she was not to control him as the head, nor to be trampled under his feet as an inferior, but to stand by his side as an equal, to be loved and protected by him. A part of man, bone of his bone, and flesh of his flesh, she was his second self; showing the close union and the affectionate attachment that should exist in this relation. "For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it." Eph. 5:29. . . . {FLB 251.3}

What do you hear described? Has God's ideal or design for marriage changed since sin entered? How has sin marred God's design?

Why do so many religions argue for a subordinate place for women?

The classic argument is taken from the fact Eve was deceived and Adam was not – and this fact is globalized to women will always have less spiritual light than men – is this credible?

Why do women get blamed so often? Because of selfishness in the heart so men who are seeking to find someone to blame for their lack of spiritual maturity – "It wasn't me it was that woman you gave me..." Men are still throwing that lie out and acting as if it is true.

What would you expect to happen in our marriage relationships, our church relationships, as God's law of love is reproduced within? Will self seek its way, or will we become more humble, kind, patient and seek to uplift others?

How will we treat each other when love is written in the heart? As we grow closer to Christ will our marriages grow such that there is greater and greater equality of the marriage partners?

What about in the church? As love is written in the heart will we find greater and greater equality among the sexes or will women continue to be relegated to second class citizens?

Are there spiritual lessons that we can learn from the marriage relationship?

- Life is the outgrowth of love or love is the basis of life
 - As God designed it marital love culminates in procreation
- Intimacy is more than physical
- Love is a genuine selfless regard for the wellbeing of the other

What role does trust play in a relationship? Can a healthy marriage exist without trust?

How is trust broken in a marriage?

- Adultery, sexual infidelity – the most obvious
 - Does this always mean sex with another person?
 - What about pornography?
 - $57 billion worldwide ($12 billion US)
 - Porn revenue is larger than all combined revenues of all professional football, baseball and basketball franchises.
 - US porn revenue exceeds the combined revenues of ABC, CBS, and NBC ($6.2 billion)
 - Child pornography generates $3 billion annually
 - 4.2 million pornographic websites (12%)
 - 68 million daily porn web searches (25%)
 - 20% of men visit porn sites at work
 - 47% Christians say porn is a major problem in their home
 - Visitors to porn sites 72% male 28% female
 - 1996 Promise Keepers survey at a stadium event revealed that over 50% of the men in attendance were involved with pornography within one week of attending the event.

- 51% of pastors say cyber-porn is a temptation. 37% say it is a current struggle (Christianity Today, Leadership Survey, 12/2001).
- Over half of evangelical pastors admit viewing pornography last year.
- 2000 Christianity Today survey
 - 33% of clergy admitted to visiting a sexually explicit Web site.
 - 53% had visited such sites “a few times” in the past year, and
 - 18% visit sexually explicit sites a couple of times a month or more
- 29% of born again adults in the U.S. feel it is morally acceptable to view movies with explicit sexual behavior (The Barna Group).
- 57% of pastors say that addiction to pornography is the most sexually damaging issue to their congregation (Christians and Sex Leadership Journal Survey, March 2005).

Why does Satan attack us sexually? In whose image are we made? What does sexuality say about God? How does sexual deviation change us?

Sexuality outside a loving marriage alters neural circuits such that it impairs bonding and genuine love and increases limbic system activity ultimately increasing fear, anxiety, insecurity with subsequent self-centeredness.

What other ways can trust be broken in a marriage?

- Sharing personal secrets with others
- Having loyalty to other family members before spouse
- Having someone other than your spouse as your primary emotional confidant – especially if it is someone of the opposite sex
- Scapegoating your spouse for your mistakes
- Diverting money behind the back into gambling, addictions etc

- Treat with unkindness, rudeness, cruelty, anywhere but especially in public

If trust has been broken how can it be reestablished?

- In general healing requires both repentance on part of the wrongdoer and forgiveness on part of the one wronged
- But, more specifically, requires the wrongdoer to, as far as possible, seek to heal any damage they have inflicted. They not only need to demonstrate a change in heart attitude and behavior, but to actually humble themselves and inconvenience themselves in order to promote the wellbeing of the other.
 - Examples- husband cheats on wife, is repentant but wife doesn't trust him. What can husband do to help heal the damage other than the obvious maintenance of loyalty? What about actions to reduce wife's fears? Give her access to his emails, phones, computer. What if the infidelity was with coworker – what about changing jobs?
 - If history of gambling then give spouse complete control of family assets
 - If having been unkind, seeking to lift burdens, without being asked, clean kitchen, mop floor, put things away, think actively about the burdens of the other and seek to relieve them

How can you tell the difference between confession, tearful, crying confession and genuine repentance?

- Confession lasts as long as the person who was offended remains on guard, upset, vigilant and monitors – as soon as the offended party is satisfied and no longer monitors, then the old behaviors will slowly resurface
- Repentance is a change of heart in which the person has died to self and genuinely seeks to uplift the other. Such a person will put others first across the board, will seek to give to bless others, volunteer to help without being asked, will have an overall change in attitude and demeanor across the board, which will persist even when the offended person no longer “monitors.

SUNDAY

Asks us to review the story of David, Nabal and Abigail...

Read second-fourth paragraphs, “David sent...” thoughts?

“A gentle answer turns away wrath” Prov 15:1

What if we do kindness and it doesn’t result in reconciliation? Does that mean we somehow handled things poorly?

Does love and kindness work on everyone?

God in His great mercy bore long with Lucifer. He was not immediately degraded from his exalted station when he first indulged the spirit of discontent, nor even when he began to present his false claims before the loyal angels. Long was he retained in heaven. Again and again he was offered pardon on condition of repentance and submission. Such efforts as only infinite love and wisdom could devise were made to convince him of his error. The spirit of discontent had never before been known in heaven. Lucifer himself did not at first see whither he was drifting; he did not understand the real nature of his feelings. But as his dissatisfaction was proved to be without cause, Lucifer was convinced that he was in the wrong, that the divine claims were just, and that he ought to acknowledge them as such before all heaven. Had he done this, he might have saved himself and many angels. He had not at this time fully cast off his allegiance to God. Though he had forsaken his position as covering cherub, yet if he had been willing to return to God, acknowledging the Creator's wisdom, and satisfied to fill the place appointed him in God's great plan, he would have been reinstated in his office. But pride forbade him to submit. He persistently defended his own course, maintained that he had no need of repentance, and fully committed himself, in the great controversy, against his Maker. {GC 495.3}

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “Jesus upgraded...” thoughts? What does it mean “upgraded”? Did God start with one method and discover it didn’t work so well so came out with a new version, like upgraded windows 7, now He got the glitches out?

Were Christ’s instructions new?

‘Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD. Lev 19:18

Why was eye for an eye given in the first place? Was it because God wanted it that way, or that was as much light as the people of that generation could absorb and apply?

What does it mean to “return good for evil”? What is the principle involved? Is it not doing what is in the best interest of the other party?

Read second paragraph, “A couple...” thoughts? This often is an excellent action – but does it always work?

What happens when you give to someone who is entitled and believes they deserve it? What if the neighbors had said, “well its about time you brought us some pies. What, no crust on top? Next time please make mine with crust on top. And you will have them here by the weekend won’t you?”

If they were dealing with such neighbors, then how should they respond?

The example of David is given where Saul kept attacking, but David would attack the Lord’s anointed. Did David’s refusal to attack Saul, result in any lasting change in Saul?

Did Saul initially get convicted by David's actions? What happened?

Are there some people who refuse to allow truth to heal them? Are there some who refuse to repent and humble themselves? Who do they hurt most?

TUESDAY

Forgiveness –

What is forgiveness?

- The offender relinquishing demand for revenge or repayment?
- Legal pardon
- Reconciliation with transformation of the offender such that they are now a friend?

God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Ps. 51:10. {FLB 129.2}

What we speak of God's forgiveness of the sinner it entails the entire process of healing from sin.

Does Jesus have to implore the Father to forgive? Is the Father unforgiving except for the pleadings of the Son? Did Jesus need to die in order to get God's attitude or position to be one of forgiveness?

What are the obstacles we have to forgiving those who do us wrong?

Various myths:

- I can't forgive until they say they are sorry
- Forgiveness means restored trust
- Forgiveness means forgetting

- Forgiveness increases vulnerability
- Forgiveness means what they did was okay
- Forgiveness means they get away with it

Thoughts about these?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Sins against...” thoughts? What do you think it means “secure forgiveness” from who? Do you agree? Is it always necessary, or usually necessary?

What benefit does it have to do this? Why is such confession a vital part of experiencing Biblical forgiveness?

What is Biblical forgiveness? It is heart change – does it result in a change of the offender’s heart to confess his/her sins and experience forgiveness and grace?

Can this be done without a change in the offender? Can people learn to say, “I’m sorry. I said I was sorry.” And then expect everything to be the same but no heart change has occurred? How would you handle that situation?

Read second paragraph, “There is an...” thoughts? This is so true – we live in fear, part of the infection of sin. When we have done wrong we fear if others knew they would hate us, reject us, that we would be outcast, so we hide in fear. This aspect of confessing sin to a trusted friend, and experiencing acceptance and love is part of the healing the church is to do. But, there is a warning:

Read third paragraph, “A word of caution...” thoughts?

THURSDAY

The lesson speaks about building each other up, rather than tearing each other down.

Thoughts on how we can build each other up in our community?
 What things have you done that are beneficial?

FRIDAY

Read question 1 – thoughts? What constitutes gossip?

We think with horror of the cannibal who feasts on the still warm and trembling flesh of his victim; but are the results of even this practice more terrible than are the agony and ruin caused by misrepresenting motive, blackening reputation, dissecting character? Let the children, and the youth as well, learn what God says about these things: "Death and life are in the power of the tongue." {AH 440.5}

The spirit of gossip and talebearing is one of Satan's special agencies to sow discord and strife, to separate friends, and to undermine the faith of many in the truthfulness of our positions. {AH 441.1}

When I am reading my eye will often catch upon passages that give clues as to why we haven't yet finished the work and seen the coming of the Lord. This week I came across such a passage for the first time:

We have had seasons for fasting and prayer, beseeching that the Lord would raise up laborers to go into his harvest-field, and yet, when laborers have been raised up, and sent to different fields, many of them have not been appreciated, even those who have given full proof of their devotion to, and interest in, the work. Envious tongues have spoken against them, evil surmisings have been cherished, and tares have been sown by those who would not like to reap the bitter harvest that will result. Before we appoint another day for fasting and prayer that the Lord shall raise up laborers, let us see to it that we treat those who have already been sent, with respect and love, as God would have them treated. Let us not treat them in such a distrustful manner that their prayers will ascend to God for deliverance from the evil surmisings and evil reports of their brethren. As long as those who are doing a good work for the Master, are not appreciated, but accused, condemned, and oppressed by the false tongue, how can we consistently ask God to raise up more laborers? There needs to be a turning away from talebearing and talebearers, and a drawing toward our brethren,--a coming near, even heart to heart, that the grace of Christ may be manifested in large measure through his people. The church should be bound together with the golden chain of love, and then it would be terrible as an army with banners. {RH, October 31, 1893 par. 4}

Thoughts?

Read Question 2 – 4 and discuss.

SS Quarterly 1 2011: Jesus Wept: The Bible & Human Emotions

Lesson 5 – Guilt

Legitimate guilt vs Illegitimate guilt [read Could it be this Simple? pgs. 90-96 by Tim Jennings, MD]

In summary:

Legitimate guilt—This occurs when we are out of harmony with the Law of Love. The solution is repentance-forgiveness-restoration.

Illegitimate guilt Type I—example: the moody spouse griping about everything and nothing. The other partner assumes the responsibility of the spouse's bad mood & tries to "fix" things. This actually worsens things. There is nothing to repent-forgive-restore. This guilt is resolved by application of the truth. The one spouse did nothing to cause the moodiness in the other spouse.

Illegitimate guilt Type II—guilt from having pursued a course of action, ending in trauma, based on available information that was inadequate or inaccurate. Consider the parent who takes their child to the ER with fever, etc. and is sent home with a diagnosis of a common cold and orders to give them Tylenol & "they'll be fine in a few days". The child actually has viral meningitis, and later dies. The parent blames his/herself for the child's death. This guilt is also resolved by application of the truth. The parent made the correct decision based on the information they had available.

Illegitimate guilt Type III—guilt from not being healed in heart & mind. This sounds a lot like legitimate guilt, and is often confused for it. Ex: An adulterous spouse has an affair, and is appropriately guilty. He/she confesses to God & spouse, experiences forgiveness, and restoration of the relationship, but continues to be plagued with guilt over the affair. The problem here is that the thinking pattern that led to the affair in the first place has not been corrected. The affair was a result of being led astray by powerful feelings of attraction, etc. and even the affair is over the same feelings are present. This guilt is also resolved by application of the truth. Seeing a pattern yet?? When the guilty spouse applies the truth regarding using sound judgment to overrule powerful emotions, he/she can experience healing.

Sabbath's Lesson

Memory Text: "If you, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness; therefore you are feared."

Ps. 130:4 [NIV]

1. What does this mean??
2. Does the author really mean "Awed" instead of "feared"?
3. Is this why we should be afraid of God??
4. Is this why devils tremble??
5. What is the relationship between the message of this text & our topic – Guilt ?
6. Is guilt a natural consequence of sin, or is it one of God's interventions to keep in check the consequences of sin?

Sunday's Lesson

Gen. 3:8-13

Any insights?

The 2nd paragraph of the lesson states: "Guilt brings about a seemingly automatic response to place the blame on somebody else ..." Is it really guilt that does this or is this a result of sin's effect on the mind?? Is this the same thing??

Farther down in the same paragraph the lesson suggests that blaming others poses a barrier to God's forgiveness. I want to clarify that the guilt process may, indeed, pose a barrier for humans to accept / understand God's forgiveness, but it does NOT pose a barrier to the forgiveness itself. Am I making sense??

Monday's lesson

Gen. 42.

The lesson makes a great point, in the 2nd paragraph, that in order to resolve guilt, "repentance and forgiveness are required." This is spot on. We humans struggle with both forgiveness & [true] repentance. Praise God that He does not struggle with forgiveness AND he is able to transform our hearts / characters so that true repentance is possible.

Tuesday's lesson

Ps. 32

- 1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
- 2 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- 3 When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.
- 4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah
- 5 I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my iniquity I have not hidden.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

I recently spoke with a physician about Fibromyalgia patients, and he quoted the above passage as a possible source of their discomfort. Any thoughts?? Ladies?? Don't kill the messenger, please.

1 Tim 4: 1,2

Seared consciences. Anyone [other than me] wonder why this simile?? I think this dovetails nicely with the Old Testament metaphor regarding leprosy & sin. Leprosy [Hansen's disease] is a bacterial infection of the peripheral nerves which causes a loss of sensation [pain], and, therefore further tissue damage. Don't we see the same thing in our consciences?? Think back to the first time you saw a murder on TV [many were too young to actually understand what they were seeing]. Did it cause you any discomfort, revulsion, fear?? After seeing many more murders on TV, film, etc does it still have the same effect anymore??

Wednesday's Lesson

Matt. 26:75

Contrast Peter's guilt experience with Judas'.

Thursday's Lesson

Rom: 8:1,2

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.

John 3:16,17

16 For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17 For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

John 12:48-50

47 And if anyone hears My words and does not believe,[i] I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. 48 He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. 50 And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak."

Ps 103:12

12 As far as the east is from the west,

So far has He removed our transgressions from us.

Do you think David knew that there is a North & South Pole?? Why the E – W directions??

Isa. 1:18

18 " Come now, and let us reason together,"

Says the LORD,

" Though your sins are like scarlet,

They shall be as white as snow;

Though they are red like crimson,

They shall be as wool.

The green box at the bottom of Thursday's lesson asks "How can we be sure our sins are forgiven if we don't feel that they are forgiven?" Any thoughts??

1/15/2011 7:30:00 AM

1/15/2011 7:30:00 AM

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 6 1Q 2011

Good Thinking

SABBATH

Read Memory Text:

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Philippians 4:8

Does it matter upon what we think? What difference does it make?

Read first paragraph, “As one of...” thoughts

Are there any Bible passages that describe or support this concept?

If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. John 8:31,32

What do you think it means to hold to the teaching?

As a people we are to make an entire surrender of ourselves to God. God calls upon every church member to enter His service. Truth that is not lived, that is not imparted to others, loses its life-giving power, its healing virtue." 7MS 353.

Can we “know” the truth if we don’t apply the truth?

- Can we know what it is like to swim if we never get in the water?
- Can we know how refreshing a slice of watermelon on a hot summer day is if we never eat a slice?
- Can we know the truth and be set free by it if we never apply it and live it out?

Is there a difference between knowing about swimming and knowing how to swim? Is there a difference between knowing about the truth and actually knowing the truth?

- Does it make a difference to your brain to read about swimming or to actually swim?
 - First initiate the movement in your prefrontal cortex which activates the motor cortex and the motor cortex activate
 - Corticospinal track which goes to the muscles to make them move while simultaneously activating the
 - Corticopontocerebellar track which informs the cerebellum of the intended movement
 - Then the cerebellum gets information back from the extremities through the spinalcerebellar track of where the extremity actually moved and compares this actual movement with the intended movement and
 - Then cerebellum sends information back to the motor cortex to refine what will be the next movement
 - The cerebellum, which coordinates motor movements also, via the vermix, helps coordinate thinking
 - When one actually swims the activations of these tracks results in gene expression change, production of neurotrophic factors and vascular factors which make new neurons and recruit new neurons to improve these movements.
 - Additionally, the brain produces endorphins and enkephalins with exercise which boost mood and increase hope and optimism
 - And the muscles when exercised produce anti-inflammatory interleukins which decrease inflammation and muscles, tendons, ligaments and bone all strengthen

- Progression, not stagnation, is the law of heaven. Progression is the law of every faculty of mind and body. The things of nature obey this law. In the field there is seen first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear. In the spiritual life, as in the physical life, there is to be growth. Step by step we are to advance, ever receiving and imparting, ever gaining a more complete knowledge of Christ, daily approaching more closely the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. {HP 183.4}

- The world today is full of pain and suffering and agony. But is it the will of God that such a condition shall exist? - No. God, the Creator of our bodies, has arranged every fiber and nerve, and sinew and muscle, and has pledged himself to keep the machinery in order, if the human agent will cooperate with him, and refuse to work contrary to the laws which govern the physical system. {SpM 40.5} God's law is written by His own finger upon every nerve, every muscle, every faculty which has been entrusted to man. These gifts were bestowed upon him, not to be abused, corrupted and abased, but to be used to His honor and glory. Every misuse of any part of our organism is a violation of the law which God designs shall govern us in these matters, and by violating this law human beings corrupt themselves; sickness and disease of every kind, ruined constitutions, premature decay, untimely deaths, these are the results of a violation of nature's laws. {SpM 40.6}
- As the foundation principle of all education in these lines, the youth should be taught that the laws of nature are the laws of God-- as truly divine as are the precepts of the Decalogue. The laws that govern our physical organism, God has written upon every nerve, muscle, and fiber of the body. Every careless and willful violation of these laws is a sin against our Creator. How necessary, then, that a thorough knowledge of these laws should be imparted! {CG 363.1}

What do these passages mean in regard to our spiritual life? Is there a different law at work on our physical and spiritual lives? Or is it the same law? What is that law?

- Does the brain respond differently to knowing the truth about God's kingdom of love and applying it?

- When we choose to live God’s law of love we are honest, kind, patient, gentle, loyal, faithful – this avoids conflict, results in healthy relationships, and less activation of the fear circuits of the brain – whenever we violate God’s law of love our ventromedial prefrontal cortex and orbital prefrontal cortex convict us of wrong, they increase activity, this causes decreased activity in the dorsolateral prefrontal cortex and we cannot think as clearly, this also results in increased activity of the amygdale and we experience more fear and anxiety but problem solve less efficiently. The activated fear circuits cause a cascade of inflammatory factors in our body increasing disease and within the brain suppressing growth factors and endorphins/enkaphalins resulting in increased dysphoria.

Can a person know the right doctrinal “truth” and still not “know” the truth, not know what it really means, what it is like to embrace it and apply it, how the truth transforms the life? What about those that put Christ on the cross – did they know the truth about the Sabbath? Which day of the week? Yes, did they know the truth of it? No.

Why do people have problems in thinking?

- Physical defects of the brain
 - Alzheimer’s
 - Brain injuries
 - Certain chromosomal and genetic abnormalities
 - Toxins and poisons which damage the brain
 - Drugs and alcohol
- Childhood experiences
 - Who chose to learn English? Our primary language is deeply ingrained before we make a conscious choice about it. Likewise certain patterns of thinking and processing are learned early on without our knowing it.
 - What of a child who is molested by a parent?
 - What of a child who is nurtured in a healthy way?
 - What of a child indulged?

- Learned distortions
 - Taught in school we evolved from apes
 - That survival of the fittest is normal and healthy
 - That blacks or Jews are subhuman
 - That women are subordinate and less valuable than men
- Self deception
 - In a relationship in which spouse is cheating, or beating, don't want to know because it would be emotionally painful to deal with so make excuses and lie to self
 - Addicts tell themselves they can handle it, deny they have a problem because accepting the truth hurts ego
- Trusting others
 - Allowing others to examine the evidence and tell you what to think – we don't need to examine questions that prior generations of church leaders and theologians have already thought through and answered. How does that idea work? What about in science?
- Value feelings over evidence and reason
 - If it feels right it must be right – it must be love...

Other ways?

Read bottom paragraph, “This week...” thoughts?

What do you think? Is Christ seeking to take “charge of our minds”? In what way yes and in what way no?

Is Christ seeking to take charge of the healing, recovery, restoration, rebuilding process to lead, guide, teach and restore?

Is Christ seeking to do our thinking for us or to program us?

SUNDAY

Read Mark 7:21-23:

For from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, ²² greed, malice, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance and folly. ²³ All these evils come from inside and make a man ‘unclean.’ ”

Thoughts? How did this evil get into the heart? Where did it originate?

What is the primary problem – the evil in the heart or the sinful behavior?

Where is God’s solution focused on the behavior or on renewing the heart? If the heart is renewed then the behavior takes care of itself:

Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶ Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean. Matt 23:25,26

Notice what Christ says happens to the outside when the inside is cleansed? Do you notice how much of Christianity is focused on dealing with the outside? Getting sins pardoned, or paid for, or punished in Christ, or erased from record books, or having our record covered by the blood or ourselves covered by a robe, when all of these metaphors are actually about cleansing the inside of the cup.

- God not remembering our sins means cleansing our hearts so sin is no longer in us and thus when God looks at us He doesn’t “see” or “think” about our sins, because we aren’t filled with sin anymore:
 - This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ¹¹ No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. ¹² For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more. Heb 8:10-12

- Covered with the robe of Christ's righteousness means to be cleansed in heart and mind to be like Him
 - When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}
- Cleansed by the blood means to internalize Christ and have His character reproduced within
 - Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁵⁵ For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. ⁵⁶ Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. John 6:54-57
- Erasing sins means erasing sinfulness from our character
 - Remember, your character is being daguerreotyped [photographed] by the great Master Artist in the record books of heaven, as minutely as the face is reproduced upon the polished plate of the artist. What do the books of heaven say in your case? Are you conforming your character to the Pattern, Jesus Christ? Are you washing your robes of character and making them white in the blood of the Lamb? "Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be" [Revelation 22:12]. . . . {TSB 62.1}
 - Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin... Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Ps 51:2,7
- Pardon or forgiveness means to have the heart cleansed and renewed.
 - God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Ps. 51:10. {FLB 129.2}

Did Christ's mission to earth have anything to do with transforming hearts or did He come simply to deal with penalties for bad behaviors?

Do our thoughts about God, on this issue matter?

How do we experience change in the inner man? How can we experience change in our thoughts? Do our choices make a difference?

Brain Derived Neurotrophic Factor – explain how this comes off the DNA and how our decisions impact whether a circuit grows or withers, and how our imagination plays a role.

With this in mind what happens when we watch theatrical television programming? What happens if that programming is unhealthy programming? What happens when we read unwholesome books, or play violent video games?

What happens if one continues to think of God in certain ways?

Can a person struggling with a terrible infection, high fever, sepsis, get well if they rub manure into their wound daily? What if they are taking high dose antibiotics every day but rubbing manure in the wound?

Can a person who is struggling with anxiety, fear, irritability, confused thinking, self doubt, moodiness, restlessness find God's peace if they are filling their minds with worldly material? What if they are filling their minds with worldly material but are praying at least once or twice a day and spending 15 minutes reading something inspirational?

Read second paragraph, “Indeed, sinful acts...” thoughts? It is true that a sinful thought can lead us into wrong acts – but what typically comes first?

When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. James 1:13-15

More commonly it is our feelings or desires that lead us into temptation and the desires or feelings will react on the thoughts and the thoughts will reinforce the feelings. However, it is also true that thoughts can originate feelings which will reinforce the thoughts and it is generally when the feelings, desires get to a certain intensity that we act on those desires.

MONDAY

Read top dark section, “What are the things...” thoughts?

Is the question that needs answering in order to bring us peace whether God has power? What is the source of insecurity and uncertainty? Is it that God is not powerful or is it whether God can be trusted, whether God is good, whether God cares, whether God has time, whether God is interested? Isn't the question that we need answered about God's character and motives not His power?

Second paragraph is the story of a woman who died because she believed a fortune teller who said she would die on her 23rd birthday – thoughts about this? The mind is powerful and what we believe can change us physically including stop the heart.

What do you think Ananias and Sapphira believed about God? Could their belief about God have had anything to do with their deaths? Are only witch doctors and fortune tellers able to cause someone's mind to be so fearful that they die? Could a person's distorted beliefs about God also cause death? What do the wicked in the end cry for when Christ returns? Why?

Next paragraph, “Also, just as important...” thoughts? Does it matter what we say and how we treat people? What about children and how they are spoken to by their parents?

Are there times when it is loving to speak very cutting words?

²⁵ “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶ Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.

²⁷ “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean. ²⁸ In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness. Mt 23:25-28.

How are Christ’s words loving? Are there some people so deeply rooted into self deception that their only hope is if someone speaks directly and intensely their condition?

- Patient who kept cheating on husband over and over and left him with kids at home – how confrontation of her selfishness brought her to repentance.

TUESDAY

First sentence of the first paragraph states, “Remembering, repeating, thinking about, and meditating on the words of the Bible is one of the greatest spiritual blessings available to us, and it is a sure way to cultivate what Peter called “wholesome thinking.”

How can you do this so it is a blessing? Is there any way this can be a cursing?

Healthy Bible Reading:

- Don't just read, but stop and ask "what does it mean?" and "how does it apply today and to my life?"
- Use Christ as a lens to filter all Bible stories
- Ask the question, "What does this story/passage tell me about God?"
- Read with the Great Controversy in mind
- Require Scripture to harmonize with itself and with testable laws and nature

Unhealthy Bible Reading:

- Proof text approach
- Here a little there a little patchwork approach
- Taking the Bible as it reads without asking what it means or understanding the context of when it was written and to whom
- Thinking concretely rather than abstractly
- Failing to recognize the primary purpose of Scripture is to reveal God to man and thus using Scripture to as a code of how to live to be saved
- Failing to harmonize Scripture with science and testable laws

Next paragraph last sentence states, "The Word of God is the only true fortification we have against the mental onslaught of unspiritual distractions that come from the world." Thoughts?

How many young people who are raised in the church, memory verses each week, church schools, end up leaving the church in adolescents? Why? If all that was necessary was to have them read and memorize scripture why do so many leave?

Is there a way to teach the Bible that can increase the likelihood our children will stay loyal to God?

Analogy, if we teach our children the only reason to brush teeth is because the Bible says so, I say so, the Church says so and no other reason is ever discovered – what is the likelihood they will continue?

What if they are taught the reasons for brushing teeth?

What about when we teach the Bible if we teach the reasons as because God said it, the Bible says it, the Church says it, or if you don't God will have to punish?

What if someone falls in love with Jesus and then comes into religious group who begin to monitor behavior and tell them you can't do this, you can't do that, you can't wear this and can't wear that – what will happen over time? Can love exist in an atmosphere without freedom?

What is the balance between freedom and parental authority and directing the actions of the child? Are there times that parents when dealing with children must restrict their freedom? Why? How is this loving? For what purposes are freedoms being restricted? Is it not to help the child gain self mastery and ultimately their freedom from self?

Read bottom paragraph, "Pray is another way..." Thoughts?

Is prayer important – absolutely! We need to pray for in prayer we open ourselves up to God, we share our thoughts and feeling with Him, not to inform Him but to connect with Him in relationship and allow Him to lead us in healthy ways.

So prayer is important, but does it matter to whom one prays? Isn't it true that those who flew planes into buildings on 9/11 prayed five times per day? What if one prays five times per day but cherishes faulty God concepts?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph – thoughts?

Why would it make you nervous for God to know the secrets of your heart?

If you are guilty of a crime and go before a judge who, if found guilty, will be forced by law to execute you, would you be nervous if he could see the secrets of your heart?

If you were dying of a terminal condition and you went before a doctor who specializes in curing your condition would you be nervous about him seeing the secrets of your condition? How about if your condition was due to some behavior in which you were engaged, say you had been injecting IV drugs and now have an infection of your heart – if you go to the ER with heart failure, stroke like symptoms are you afraid for the doctor to find out you have been injecting drugs or do you want him to know?

If there is a policeman in the ER do you want him to know?
 If we consider God as the great policeman in the sky will we open ourselves to Him? Does it matter what God concept we hold?
 If you were planning on doing a crime and came before a police officer would you be nervous about him seeing the secrets of your heart?

If you were having symptoms occurring, your blood pressure rising, temperature rising etc, would you be nervous about the doctor discovering these symptoms?

Which way do you see God? Do you see Him as the police officer or judge waiting to dole out punishment? Or do you see Him as your friend and savior longing for you to trust Him enough that He can heal you?

Read third paragraph, “Likewise, Satan...” Are you comforted to know Satan cannot read your thoughts? But does that mean he doesn’t have a pretty good idea of what you’re thinking?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “This passage takes us...” thoughts? Is avoiding sin a matter of choice? Do we have a say in it? What about someone who refuses to make choices to improve self but blames past experiences? It isn't my fault I was born this way? Or it isn't my fault I was abused as a child?

Do we still have choice to align ourselves with God or not?

What choices can we make to experience healing of mind here and now?

- With whom we associate
- Whether we are honest with others or deceitful
- What we watch
- What we speak
- Whether we harbor resentment or forgive
- Whether we keep our word or break it
- Whether we spend time with Christ or not
- Whether we trust God with how things turn out or continue to try to make life turn out the way we think it should?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, "More precious..." thoughts?

Read questions 2,3,5 and discuss

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 8 1Q 2011

Resilience – what is it?

1. the capability of a strained body to recover its size and shape after deformation caused especially by compressive stress
2. an ability to recover from or adjust easily to misfortune or change

Physical resilience –

What decreases physical resilience?

- Alcohol, tobacco, drugs, toxins
- Sedentary lifestyle
- Diet
 - Lack of essential nutrients
 - Meat
 - Increases risks of cancers and metabolic disorders across the board, increases inflammation
 - Milk
 - Animal studies aflatoxin, a fungus that grows in nature, in high concentrations can cause liver necrosis and cancer. Rats were randomly assigned to two groups, and received the same diet, except one of the groups had added casein protein, the protein from cow's milk. Then animals in both studies were dosed with aflatoxin. The animals receiving casein protein developed liver cancer, those not on casein protein did not.
 - Casein protein interferes with human DNA repair mechanisms
- Lack of sunshine or too much sunshine
- Dehydration
- Sleep deprivation
- Loss of hope
- Believing lies
- Age

What promotes physical resilience?

- Avoidance of alcohol, tobacco, drugs, toxins
- Avoid animal products
- Hydration
- Nutrition
 - Vit D recently hot topic in med literature with epidemiological evidence supporting Vit D lowers heart disease, blood pressure, reduces cancer risk, improve cognition, reducing inflammation – activated Vit D, once through kidneys and liver, acts like a steroid, which is different from other vitamins.
 - Omega 3 Fatty acids – lipid membranes and scavenge free radicals, animal models show omega 3 fatty acids reduce end organ damage from diabetes mellitus
 - Vitamin E from food, concentrates in lipid membranes and scavenges free radicals
 - Vitamin C contributes to connective tissue health and concentrates inside cell fluid scavenging free radicals
- Exercise – improves physical reserves and produces anti-inflammatory effect
- Sunshine anti bacterial, vit D, stimulates immune system, anti cancer (in proper doses)
- Sleep (in harmony with biorhythms)
- Group support
 - Medscape News reports on a recent article in the February Journal of the American Medical Association:
 - <http://www.medscape.com/viewarticle/736734?src=mpnews&spon=12>
 - Dr. Spiegel's essay comes about 6 months after a study on palliative care in cancer was published in the New England Journal of Medicine (2010;363:733-742). In that study, the introduction of palliative care — a program designed to minimize pain and improve quality of life — at diagnosis, in parallel with standard oncologic care, was associated with a significant improvement in survival in patients with metastatic nonsmall-cell lung cancer (NSCLS).

- After discussing the palliative care study in his essay, Dr. Spiegel states that "there is increasing evidence that social support affects survival [in cancer]." He cites 2 studies in particular: a study in women with early-stage breast cancer, which was led by Barbara Andersen, PhD, from Ohio State University in Columbus (Cancer. 2008;113:3450-3458); and a study by Dr. Spiegel himself in women with metastatic breast cancer (Lancet. 1989;2:888-891).
- To Medscape Medical News, he mentioned 3 other randomized trials and 1 matched-cohort trial that "have found that psychosocial treatment for patients with a variety of cancers produced both psychological and survival benefits." The cancers in these types of studies tend to be those with the poorest prognosis, including malignant melanoma, NSCLC, leukemia, and gastrointestinal tract cancers, Dr. Spiegel points out in his essay.
- Do we find this supported by Scripture?
 - "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Mt 11:28-30
 - Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. Gal 6:2
- Hope - What gives you hope?

General factors:

- Healthy intrauterine life – alters brain development
 - High stressed mother has increased stress hormones which alter the developing brain impairing the braking mechanism on the stress response – less resilience

- Healthy nurturing upbringing, alters brain development
 - Pups of nurturing mothers (licking/grooming) compared to pups of mothers who didn't nurture
 - Pups without attentive mothers had altered brain development such that they had over active amygdalas and social impairments
 - When pups of neglect mothers were reared by nurturing mothers their brain development was the same as the pups of the nurturing mother
 - <http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/15220929>
- Genetic constitution

Mental resilience

What decreases mental resilience?

- Physical illness disease
- Poor physical health/conditioning
- Guilt
- Resentment
- Worry
- Fear
- Stress
- TV
- Video gaming (certain games) using psychic energy, less physical intimacy with spouse
- Believing in false God concepts

What promote mental resilience

- Better physical health
- Sleep
- Exercise
- Family member confidant
 - significantly reduced the risk of overall behavioral and emotional problems by age 18.

- Females at age 18 who had a family member confidant
 - higher self-esteem and reduced risks of major mental disorders, suicidal thoughts, depression, drug disorders, and overall behavioral problems
 - Males with advice-giving families
 - had better school performance, lower school dropout rates, less depression, behavioral or emotional problems
- Family cohesion
 - in receiving school and community honors, and a reduced risk of numerous problems and some mental disorders. Family cohesion appeared to be especially important for young women in reducing risk of serious mental disorders.
- Is there scripture to support this –
 - Honor father and mother and live long – why?
- Knowing God – the truth about God
 - Does who you know make a difference? Does your personal relationship with God make a difference?
 - What if the God one worships is severe, revengeful, unforgiving? What if you fear the God you worship? If you make mistakes does it crush hope? If you see God as a severe judge waiting to punish what does that do to hope?
- Perspective – enlarging one’s view
 - Does perspective make a difference? What perspective enhances hope? What about purpose?
- Trusting God with outcomes
- Meditation and prayer
 - Meditating on God of love
- Helping others
- Having a purpose
- Having hope

SABBATH

Read memory text – thoughts?

What do you hear when you read this text? What expectations do you have because of this passage?

What is this text promising? Is it promising deliverance? What kind of deliverance?

What about the 6 million Jews who claimed this promise during WWII?

⁴ Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁷ Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ "Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me.

¹⁰ At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, ¹¹ and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. ¹² Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, ¹³ but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. Mt 24:4-14

Is this a promise to deliver us from earthly trials, tribulation and even death? What is it promising?

Why are we not to fear? Could it be because we see from a different vantage point?

Jesus said:

Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Matt 10:28

Of what are we not to be afraid? Are we to view things from a worldly or eternal perspective? Who decides whether we are saved or lost? Can any earthly trial, tribulation, army, attacker or evil entity decide whether you are saved or lost?

MONDAY

Read Romans 5:3-5

Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

Thoughts? What is the purpose of suffering? How and why does suffering help us?

In OT times David got in troubling for taking a census of his army, why?

Once David discovered he had tens of thousands of soldiers, bowman, spearmen, chariots etc. what might he be tempted to do? Might he be tempted to trust in his army rather than trust in God?

Today we have stocks, bonds, savings, retirement plans, houses, cars, land, investments and could we be tempted to trust in these rather than trust in God? Could trials be a way of helping use lift our eyes to a greater reality to where our real hope lies?

Do trials help to keep us humble? Do they help us remember our true source of strength, health, wisdom?

Do trials help us develop empathy?

Read 2Cor 1:3,4:

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, ⁴ who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God.

Thoughts

How does God comfort us? I love this quote:

The Comforter is called "the Spirit of truth." His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. {DA 671.1}

What does this mean to you? How does truth bring comfort? Any examples?

- A person who is sick with an unknown illness is finally diagnosed – is there comfort in knowing?
- I have patients who run from mistakes, guilt, shame, but it is only when they embrace the truth, deal with the truth of their situation that they find peace.
- What about spiritual truth? What happens to peace when we believe lies about God? What happens when we come to the knowledge of God?
- How many here have experienced peace and comfort as your picture of God has changed to be like Jesus revealed?

Read 2Cor 1:8,9:

⁸ We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the hardships we suffered in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life. ⁹ Indeed, in our hearts we felt the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead.

Thoughts?

Into the experience of all there come times of keen disappointment and utter discouragement--days when sorrow is the portion, and it is hard to believe that God is still the kind benefactor of His earthborn children; days when troubles harass the soul, till death seems preferable to life. It is then that many lose their hold on God and are brought into the slavery of doubt, the bondage of unbelief. Could we at such times discern with spiritual insight the meaning of God's providences we should see angels seeking to save us from ourselves, striving to plant our feet upon a foundation more firm than the everlasting hills, and new faith, new life, would spring into being. {PK 162.1}

From who do we need to be saved? Self! Our greatest battle is with self, and our greatest battle with self is with powerful feelings.

Can we trust what we feel? What impacts our feelings toward discouragement? Is it not perspective, beliefs, what we think is transpiring? Does it make a difference to know what is actually happening?

Consider being pregnant but not knowing you were pregnant, and going into labor – would it be more terrifying to experience labor pain not knowing what was happening? Does understanding what is happening make dealing with the pain easier?

Read Matt 24:4-14

⁴ Jesus answered: “Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁷ Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ “Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. ¹⁰ At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, ¹¹ and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. ¹² Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, ¹³ but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

Thoughts? What do you hear being described?

Have any of these things occurred? Are any occurring today? What about presenting the gospel to the whole world?

If you were in the airport, waiting for your flight, and someone asked you, “What is the gospel?” What would you say?

What message should we be taking to the world? Any ideas on how we can do this more effectively?

Read 2Tim 1:11,12:

And of this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher. ¹² That is why I am suffering as I am. Yet I am not ashamed, because I know whom I have believed, and am convinced that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him for that day.

When we present the true gospel message, will we experience some persecution? Why?

Why is the truth about God so viciously opposed? Who in history have been the greatest opponents to the truth about God? Has it been the agnostics – or the religious?

What about today? And from where does persecution come at the end of time, from the irreligious or the religious?

Read first sentence last paragraph, “God does not want us to suffer needlessly.” Do we need to suffer? When and why?

SUNDAY

Job – top question – “What is it about Job that makes him an example to be emulated?” thoughts?

Could the primary thing about Job that we would want to emulate be his knowledge of God, that no matter what happened he knew God is good?

The day is about patience – what has helps you gain more patience?

Do trials alone build patience? Or is it trials in the right mindset? I know many people whose lives are nothing but one trial after another and it never leads to patience.

What, in addition to trials is needed to develop patience?

For me it has definitely been coming to know God better, trusting Him with how things turn out, rather than believing I had to somehow calculate and make choices to ensure certain outcomes.

Read bottom green section, “Think about times...” thoughts?

“Pain is inevitable but misery is optional.”

TUESDAY

Naomi, who had her husband and two sons die, is comforted by two daughter in laws of Moabite descent, one, Ruth who converted to Israel and went back with Naomi eventually marrying Boaz and becoming a progenitor of Christ.

Thoughts about this? What do we learn from this?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

Esther was born into a world in which her people were in captivity to another nation – but it doesn't sound like they were slaves, just ruled or governed by another government.

Bottom green section asks us to consider our situation, how we didn't choose where we were born or what circumstances in which we were raised and consider how we can see the positive and move past the negative?

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Contentment – what is it? How do we get it? What prevents us from experiencing it?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, thoughts? What do you hear? What does it mean?

Read and answer questions 1,2,3 and 5

Lesson 9 - Self Esteem

Sabbath:

Is the concept of „Self Esteem“ God given or has it resulted from sin??

Did Adam and Eve consider their self esteem before the fall??

Where do we see the first example of „Self Esteem“ gone wrong?? Hint – Isa. 14:12-14.

Did you know there are sports events for children where there are no winners / losers?? School classes where everyone gets the same grade?? All in the interest of improving self esteem.

Definitions of Self Esteem [yes, they are from Wikipedia – deal with it].

1. The original definition presents self-esteem as a ratio found by dividing one's successes in areas of life of importance to a given individual by the failures in them or one's "success / pretensions".[6]

Problems with this approach come from making self-esteem contingent upon success: this implies inherent instability because failure can occur at any moment.[7]

1. In the mid 1960s Morris Rosenberg and social-learning theorists defined self-esteem in terms of a stable sense of personal worth or worthiness. [Baumeister, Smart, & Boden, 1996]

1. Nathaniel Branden in 1969 briefly defined self-esteem as "...the experience of being competent to cope with the basic challenges of life and being worthy of happiness". This two-factor approach, as some have also called it, provides a balanced definition that seems to be capable of dealing with limits of defining self-esteem primarily in terms of competence or worth alone.[8]

Branden's (1969) description of self-esteem includes the following primary properties:

1. self-esteem as a basic human need, i.e., "...it makes an essential contribution to the life process", "...is indispensable to normal and healthy self-development, and has a value for survival."
2. self-esteem as an automatic and inevitable consequence of the sum of individuals' choices in using their consciousness
3. something experienced as a part of, or background to, all of the individuals thoughts, feelings and actions.

Self esteem is a concept of personality, for it to grow, we need to have self worth, and this self worth will be sought from embracing challenges that result in the showing of success.

Implicit self-esteem refers to a person's disposition to evaluate themselves positively or negatively in a spontaneous, automatic, or unconscious manner. It contrasts with explicit self-esteem, which entails more conscious and reflective self-evaluation. Both explicit self-esteem and implicit self-esteem are subtypes of self-esteem proper.

Implicit self-esteem is assessed using indirect measures of cognitive processing. These include the Name Letter Task^[9] and the Such indirect measures are designed to reduce awareness of, or control of, the process of assessment. When used to assess implicit self-esteem, they feature stimuli designed to represent the self, such as personal pronouns (e.g., "I") or letters in one's name.

[6] James, W. (1983). The principles of psychology. Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press. (Original work published 1890).

[7] Crocker, J., & Park, L. E. (2004). "The costly pursuit of self-esteem". Psychological Bulletin, 130(3), 392–414.

[8] Mruk, C. (2006). Self-Esteem research, theory, and practice: Toward a positive psychology of self-esteem (3rd ed.). New York: Springer.

[9] Koole, S. L., & Pelham, B. W. (2003). On the nature of implicit self-esteem: The case of the name letter effect. In S. Spencer, S. Fein, & M. P. Zanna (Eds.), Motivated social perception: The Ontario Symposium (pp. 93-116). Hillsdale, NJ: Lawrence Erlbaum.

High self-esteem correlates highly with self-reported happiness. However, it is not clear which, if either, necessarily leads to the other.^[20] Additionally, self-esteem has been found to be related to forgiveness in close relationships, in that people with high self-esteem will be more forgiving than people with low self-esteem.^[21]

[20] Baumeister, Roy F., et al. (2003). "Does High Self-Esteem Cause Better Performance, Interpersonal Success, Happiness, or Healthier Lifestyles?", Psychological Science in the Public Interest, 4 (1), pages 1–44; May 2003. (ed: other researchers: Jennifer D. Campbell, Joachim I. Krueger and Kathleen D. Vohs)

[21] Eaton, Struthers, & Santelli, 2006.

The concept of self-esteem has been criticized by different camps but notably by figures like Dalai Lama, Carl Rogers, Paul Tillich, and Alfred Korzybski.

Perhaps one of the strongest theoretical and operational critiques of the concept of self-esteem has come from American psychologist Albert Ellis who on numerous occasions criticized the philosophy as essentially self-defeating and ultimately destructive.^[24] Although acknowledging the human propensity and tendency to ego rating as innate, he has claimed that the philosophy of self-esteem in the last analysis is both unrealistic, illogical and self- and socially destructive – often doing more harm than good. Questioning the foundations and usefulness of generalized ego strength, he has claimed that self-esteem is based on arbitrary definitional premises, over-generalized, perfectionistic and grandiose thinking.^[24] Acknowledging that rating and valuing behaviours and characteristics is functional and even necessary, he sees rating and valuing human beings' totality and total selves as irrational, unethical and absolutistic. The healthier alternative to self-esteem according to him is unconditional self-acceptance and unconditional other-acceptance and these concepts are incorporated in his therapeutic system Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy. In 2005 he released a book with a detailed analysis of the concept of self-esteem titled "The Myth of Self-esteem".

[24] Ellis, A. (2001). Feeling better, getting better, staying better. Impact Publishers.

Rosenberg self-esteem scale

1. On the whole, I am satisfied with myself.

SA -A -D -SD

2.* At times, I think I am no good at all.

SA -A -D -SD

3. I feel that I have a number of good qualities.

SA -A -D -SD

4. I am able to do things as well as most other people.

SA -A -D -SD

5. * I feel I do not have much to be proud of.

SA -A -D -SD

6. * I certainly feel useless at times.

SA -A -D -SD

7. I feel that I'm a person of worth, at least on an equal plane with others.

SA -A -D -SD

8. * I wish I could have more respect for myself.

SA -A -D -SD

9. * All in all, I am inclined to feel that I am a failure.

SA -A -D -SD

10. I take a positive attitude toward myself.

SA -A -D -SD

Scoring: SA=3, A=2, D=1, SD=0. Items with an asterisk are reverse scored, that is, SA=0, A=1, D=2, SD=3. Sum the scores for the 10 items. The higher the score, the higher the self-esteem. Scores below 15 suggest low self-esteem.

Key Concept for Spiritual Growth: The only means by which human beings can come to a true estimate of their worth is by looking at themselves through the eyes of God. God has placed a high price on us: the blood of His Son. [Teachers Quarterly].

Sunday:

Origins – Do our beliefs regarding humanity’s origin affect our self esteem?? Should it?? How could a belief in an evolutionary beginning damage „self esteem“??

Monday:

Do we see ourselves as others see us?? Do we generally see ourselves more positively or negatively than others see us?? Matt 22: 34-40.

34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” 37 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” [c] 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: „Love your neighbor as yourself.” [d] 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Rom 12: 1-3.

1 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. 2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. 3 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you.

Tuesday:

The lesson asks an important question: “How does gender/class/nationality prejudice affect people’s self esteem??

Gal. 3: 26-28.

26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s descendants, heirs according to promise.

Wednesday:

Luke 15 – Parables of the lost sheep / coin / prodigal son.

Thursday:

Eph. 4:21-24.

21if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught in Him, just as truth is in Jesus, 22that, in reference to your former manner of life, you lay aside the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit, 23and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24and put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

Did you know that deceit was lustful?? Does this sound like those who love lies more than the truth?

What does this “new self” look like??

Eph. 4: 25-31.

25 Therefore, putting away lying, “ Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,” for we are members of one another. 26 “Be angry, and do not sin”: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, 27 nor give place to the devil. 28 Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have something to give him who has need. 29 Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but what is good for necessary edification, that it may impart grace to the hearers. 30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

Friday:

Thoughts on the last quote from EGW??

—We lose many and rich blessings because we neglect to seek the Lord with humble hearts. When we come to Him in sincerity of heart, asking Him to reveal our defects, He will show us a true picture of ourselves, reflected in the mirror of His Word. Then, having seen ourselves as God sees us, let us not go away forgetting what manner of men we are. Let us study critically the features of our character that are defective, and seek for grace to make them like the pattern presented in the Word of God.”—Ellen G. White, The Lake Union Herald, November 3, 1909.

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 10 1Q 2011

Jealousy

SUNDAY

Where did jealousy begin? Isa 14:12-14:

- How you have fallen from heaven,
 O morning star, son of the dawn!
 You have been cast down to the earth,
 you who once laid low the nations!
- ¹³ You said in your heart,
 "I will ascend to heaven;
 I will raise my throne
 above the stars of God;
 I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly,
 on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain.
- ¹⁴ I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
 I will make myself like the Most High."

Who is this text referring to? Lucifer – what is the problem here?
 What is the root?

What do you think of the third paragraph, what insight does this give into what led to jealousy?

Satan was jealous of Jesus. He wished to be consulted concerning the formation of man, and because he was not, he was filled with envy, jealousy, and hatred. He desired to receive the highest honors in heaven next to God. {EW 145.1}

What was the source of jealousy? Was it not a basic misunderstanding of God, His nature, character and government?

In Isaiah 14:14 Lucifer said, "I will make myself like the Most High."

First, can a created being make himself like God?

Second, if Lucifer were to strive to actually be like God what would that have looked like?

What do we see in the life of Jesus, humble self-sacrifice. So what does it mean that Lucifer was striving to be like God and in doing so was seeking power, authority to rule, used practices of deceit and deception? Doesn't it mean that somewhere he had distorted in his mind the truth about God?

Read fourth paragraph, "By contrast..." thoughts? How does this save us? Why was this important? Is the lesson suggesting that Jesus came to reveal the truth about God to destroy the lies of Satan and win us to trust?

Read bottom green section, thoughts? Is it wrong to look at what others have, or is the problem in the motives when looking? Can you look at what someone else has and rejoice in their skill, ability, position, talent etc.? Can you look and be thankful the other person has their position, skill etc and not be jealous?

Can you also look at another and long to be like them without being jealous of them?

What did Paul mean when he said,

"Imitate me, then, just as I imitate Christ." 1Cor 11:1

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, "So often..." thoughts? How have you seen jealousy arise in families?

- It's not fair...
- Why does he get to do and I don't?
- She got to why cant I?
- You let...

How do you answer your children on such issues?

Should we treat our children the same or should we purposely seek to treat them differently?

If one of your children was suffering from diabetes would they get to eat the same foods as the other children or would they have a special diet?

If one of your children had a learning disability, speech impediment, might they get some special training the others didn't get why?

Do all of your children have the exact same temperament, attitudes, ability to learn, willingness to learn?

Should we recognize our children as individuals and seek to provide what each child needs to help them develop Christlike character?

Might one child respond well to one form of discipline while another child respond differently?

I don't apologize for treating kids differently. I tell them they are unique and get their own individualized parenting plan.

The lesson talks about the jealousy Joseph's brothers had and how that jealousy led them to sell him as a slave and tell their father he was dead. Can you imagine the level of cruelty to do such a thing? Not just to Joseph, but what about to Jacob?

Read fourth paragraph, "But Joseph's attitude..." thoughts? Do you think Joseph should have forgiven as he did, outright, or should he have required some appeasement, some legal payment, something to expiate his wrath? Is Joseph more forgiving than God? Why do we suggest that God requires a blood payment in order to forgive?

Was Jesus death necessary to get God to forgive us or did God forgive outright and then send Jesus to fulfill a different purpose in our salvation?

What happens in your attitude toward God if you believe Jesus had to die in order to get God to forgive?

THURSDAY

Jealousy toward Jesus? Was there anyone jealous of Jesus when he was on earth? Was it the common people? Who was jealous of Jesus? Why?

Why would those who have dedicated their lives to studying scripture, why would religious leaders, theologians be jealous of Jesus?

What could have led these Bible scholars to get it so wrong?

As someone told me, while we press forward in the truth we must be sure not to go so far we go over an edge and fall off.

Now I have spent several years thinking about this – is there anything that can secure us in truth and keep us from going over a theological edge of error?

- In the study of the sciences also, we are to obtain a knowledge of the Creator. All true science is but an interpretation of the handwriting of God in the material world. Science brings from her research only fresh evidences of the wisdom and power of God. Rightly understood, both the book of nature and the written word make us acquainted with God by teaching us something of the wise and beneficent laws through which he works. {CE 66.2}
- Rightly understood, both the revelations of science and the experiences of life are in harmony with the testimony of Scripture to the constant working of God in nature. {Ed 130.3}

What do we hear? There are three threads of evidence that are to be harmonized, scripture, science and experience.

God's kingdom is not a theoretical kingdom but a real kingdom constructed with real elements, molecules, substance, individuals.

The problem with some is that they reject two of the three evidentiary threads and cling only to scripture, which becomes unanchored and thus they go over theological edges.

What happens if we study science disconnected and divorced from scripture? We become unanchored and go over the edge of evolutionism or godlessness. What happens if we study scripture divorced from science and experience? We go over the edge of false theologies which misrepresent God – this is exactly what has happened.

God's kingdom is built in harmony with His laws, His testable laws and this is scientific. Those who reject this and insist on using scripture divorced from science and experience can twist the scriptures to say anything they want. Some of the greatest opponents to our class take the approach that divorces scripture from science and experience.

Fortunately, one of the founders of our church didn't:

Experience is said to be the best teacher. Genuine experience is indeed superior to mere theoretical knowledge, but many have an erroneous idea as to what constitutes experience. Real experience is gained by a variety of careful experiments, made with the mind free from prejudice, uncontrolled by previously established opinions and habits. The results are marked with careful solicitude, and an anxious desire to learn, to improve, and to reform on every point that is not in harmony with physical and moral laws.
{CTBH 109.1}

That which many term experience is not experience at all; it has resulted from mere habit, or from a course of indulgence, thoughtlessly and often ignorantly followed. There has not been a fair trial by actual experiment and thorough investigation, with a knowledge of the principles involved in the action. Experience which is opposed to natural law,--which is in conflict with the unchangeable principles of nature,--is not to be relied upon. Superstition arising from a diseased imagination is often arrayed in opposition to reason and to scientific principles. To many a person, the idea that others may gainsay what he has learned by experience, seems folly, and even cruelty itself. But there are more errors received and held through false ideas of experience than from any other cause. There are many invalids today who will ever remain such because they cannot be convinced that their experience is not to be relied upon. {CTBH 109.2}

There is a science of Christianity to be mastered,--a science as much deeper, broader, higher than any human science as the heavens are higher than the earth. The mind is to be disciplined, educated, trained; for we are to do service for God in ways that are not in harmony with inborn inclination. There are hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil that must be overcome. ... Every act, every word, every thought, is to be in accord with these principles. {8T 314.1}

What anchors can we have when pushing forward in the truth?

- Jesus is the lens through which we understand God – any doctrine of God that is contrary to what we see in the life of Jesus is wrong, misunderstood
- Jesus is the lens through which we understand the OT scripture, we do not understand Jesus through the lens of the OT.
- God's testable laws, the law of liberty, law of love, law of worship, laws of nature and science. God does not violate His laws as they originate in His character. Thus theologies which have God in the position of violating liberty, being cosmic executioner, forcing, intimidating, coercing are wrong for they are contrary to testable laws.

Every law governing the human system is to be strictly regarded; for it is as truly a law of God as is the word of Holy Writ; and every willful deviation from obedience to this law is as certainly sin as a violation of the moral law. All nature expresses the law of God, but in our physical structure Jehovah has written His law with His own finger upon every thrilling nerve, upon every living fiber, and upon every organ of the body. We shall suffer loss and defeat, if we step out of nature's path, which God Himself has marked out, into one of our own devising. {Temperance 213.5}

Perfection of character cannot be attained when the laws of nature are disregarded; for this is transgression of the law of God. His law is written by His own finger upon every nerve, every muscle, every fiber of our being, upon every faculty which has been entrusted to man. These gifts are bestowed, not to be abused and corrupted, but to be used to His honor and glory in the uplifting of humanity.... {OHC 266.2}

The relation that exists between mind and body is very intimate: when one is affected, the other is always more or less in sympathy. It is impossible for men, while under the power of sinful, health-destroying habits, to appreciate sacred truths. When the intellect is clouded, the moral powers are enfeebled, and sin does not look sinful. The most ennobling, grand, and glorious themes of God's Word seem but idle tales. Satan can then easily snatch away the good seed that has been sown in the heart; for the soul is in no condition to comprehend or understand its true value. It is thus that selfish, health-destroying indulgences are counteracting the influence of the message which is to prepare a people for the great day of God. {OHC 266.3}

"Whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for My sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it." Selfishness is death. No organ of the body could live should it confine its service to itself. The heart, failing to send its lifeblood to the hand and the head, would quickly lose its power. As our lifeblood, so is the love of Christ diffused through every part of His mystical body. We are members one of another, and the soul that refuses to impart will perish. And "what is a man profited," said Jesus, "if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" {DA 417.2}

In order to do successful work for the Lord, we must be willing to do and to suffer cheerfully for His sake. Selfishness is death. No organ of the body could live, should it confine its service to itself. The heart, failing to send its life-blood to the hand and the head, would quickly lose its power. We are members one of another, and the soul that refuses to impart will perish. {ST, February 3, 1904 par. 5}

Christ came to this earth "as He that serveth." The angels are "ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation." The same law of service is written upon all things in nature. The birds of the air, the beasts of the field, the trees of the forest, the leaves, the grass, and the flowers, the sun in the heavens, and the stars of light,--all have their ministry. Lake and ocean, river and water-spring,--each takes to give. {ST, February 3, 1904 par. 6}

Any examples of how scripture divorced from God's testable laws, science and nature, result in false theologies?

- HyperCalvinism – God predetermines who will be saved and who will be lost, we have no choice – this theology is based on reading scripture divorced from the law of liberty, which is a testable law and which reveals love cannot exist in an atmosphere without freedom
- God will use His power to inflict pain and suffering and torment upon sinners – again, violates God's law of love and liberty, violates the evidence demonstrated in the life of Christ and thus leads to false ideas about God

Does it matter if our theology becomes twisted?

- The position that it is of no consequence what men believe, is one of Satan's most successful deceptions. He knows that the truth, received in the love of it, sanctifies the soul of the receiver; therefore he is constantly seeking to substitute false theories, fables, another gospel. From the beginning, the servants of God have contended against false teachers, not merely as vicious men, but as inculcators of falsehoods that were fatal to the soul. Elijah, Jeremiah, Paul, firmly and fearlessly opposed those who were turning men from the Word of God. {GC88 520.2}

- The Comforter is called "the Spirit of truth." His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. {DA 671.1}

Read second paragraph, "How often..." thoughts?

What evidence did Christ provide that was most convincing? What evidence is to be relied upon and what evidence is not ultimately most convincing?

What about evidence of miracles? Was this the most persuasive evidence Christ gave? Why or why not?

Can miracles be counterfeited? What about a talking serpent? What can Satan not counterfeit? The perfect selfless life of Christ in harmony with God's laws and principles. A human being living out God's character perfectly this is the greatest miracle and evidence of His identity.

The Apostles performed miracles, but they did not have perfect character!

Read third paragraph, "Perhaps because..." thoughts? Could this same thing be a problem in our day, in our church?

When a movement becomes institutionalized it often loses its mission and stops moving forward and instead becomes focused on institutional security, protection and promotion – are we in danger of this?

What can we do to revitalize the church to fulfill its mission to get off the need to protect the institution and instead stand up to do what is right – promote the final message of mercy to the world?

TUESDAY

The lesson is about Saul's jealousy of David – thoughts or questions about this?

Why was Saul jealous? Was Saul afraid? Of what was Saul afraid?

What error in thinking led Saul to become afraid of David? Did Saul come to believe he had some right to the throne? Did Saul come to believe he was on the throne by his own authority and needed to rely on self to protect what he had?

Notice fear and selfishness is the root of jealousy. What if Saul would have remembered that he was merely fulfilling God's purpose for Israel and that he would serve as long as God wanted him to?

Do we ever come to think that our position is because of our ability or right, and forget we serve at God's will? Do you have the attitude that if God has another who can do it better that would be okay? Or do we feel we need to protect self?

Read fifth paragraph, "Jealousy generates..." thoughts?

Why does jealousy generate negative emotions? Because our consciences convict us when we act upon jealousy, in our hearts, judgment, conscience we know we are wrong. We can twist our minds as much as we want but we get no peace until we embrace the truth and stop trying to make life work out our way.

WEDNESDAY

Read fifth paragraph, "Saul, by letting..." thoughts?

Is there any sin that doesn't hurt us? Why are we injured when we sin? From where does the injury arise?

Does God send angels to punish sin? Where does the idea that God must punish sin arise?

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. When men broke the law of God, and defied His will, Satan exulted. It was proved, he declared, that the law could not be obeyed; man could not be forgiven. Because he, after his rebellion, had been banished from heaven, Satan claimed that the human race must be forever shut out from God's favor. God could not be just, he urged, and yet show mercy to the sinner. {DA 761.4}

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

Thoughts? What impact does it have on your attitude toward God if you believe that God is required to punish sin? Why does He not have to?

What has God been using His power to do, punish sin, or hold back the full consequences that sin would have otherwise brought?

FRIDAY

Read question 2 – thoughts? The Bible says,

“Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.” EX 34:14

What does this mean? If jealousy is evil, how can God be jealous?

Is there a difference between God being jealous for the good of another, for another’s happiness and being jealous for self?

Dictionary definitions of jealousy:

- 1: a : intolerant of rivalry or unfaithfulness b : disposed to suspect rivalry or unfaithfulness
- 2: hostile toward a rival or one believed to enjoy an advantage
- 3: vigilant in guarding a possession

Read and discuss questions 1 and 4

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 11 1Q 2011

Freedom From Addictions

SABBATH

Read memory verse – What does it mean? Does it mean that if an addict reads this verse, prays to Jesus then they will be free of their addiction?

All heaven is interested in the salvation of man, and is ready to pour upon him her beneficent gifts, if he will comply with the conditions Christ has made: "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean." 2 Corinthians 6:17.
{Counsels on Health 288.1}

Are there conditions to salvation? Are there conditions a sinner or addict must comply with in order to gain freedom? Or does God choose –

Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

¹⁴ What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Not at all! ¹⁵ For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. Romans 9:13-15

There was no arbitrary choice on the part of God by which Esau was shut out from the blessings of salvation. The gifts of His grace through Christ are free to all. There is no election but one's own by which any may perish. . . . Every soul is elected who will work out his own salvation with fear and trembling. He is elected who will put on the armor and fight the good fight of faith. He is elected who will watch unto prayer, who will search the Scriptures, and flee from temptation. He is elected who will have faith continually, and who will be obedient to every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. The provisions of redemption are free to all; the results of redemption will be enjoyed by those who have complied with the conditions. {CC 71.4}

What are the conditions to salvation?

The blessings of the new covenant are grounded purely on mercy in forgiving unrighteousness and sins. . . . All who humble their hearts, confessing their sins, will find mercy and grace and assurance. Has God, in showing mercy to the sinner, ceased to be just? Has He dishonored His holy law, and will He henceforth pass over the violation of it? God is true. He changes not. The conditions of salvation are ever the same. Life, eternal life, is for all who will obey God's law. . . . {AG 136.5}

Under the new covenant, the conditions by which eternal life may be gained are the same as under the old--perfect obedience. . . . In the new and better covenant, Christ has fulfilled the law for the transgressors of law, if they receive Him by faith as a personal Saviour. . . . In the better covenant we are cleansed from sin by the blood of Christ. {AG 136.6}

What do you hear? What are the conditions for salvation? Notice, Christ as our substitute did something we could not do – and how do we benefit? What is cleansed by Christ? Records? No! We are cleansed, we receive Christ, we become partaker of the divine nature, the law is written on our minds!

What are the conditions for healing and restoration? Perfect obedience to the law of God – why?

What is the condition for healing someone from sickness? Perfect harmony with the laws of health! It is the same in God's universe!

Christ came to achieve what we could not – a perfect humanity. What do we receive in union with Christ?

- I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. Eze 36:26
- No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Romans 2:29 (DT 10:16, 30:6).
- This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. Heb 8:10
- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 2Co 5:17
- For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust. 2Pet 1:4 NASB

- When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Can we, in union with Christ, be free from addiction? Do we have a role to play or is something done with our consent but without our effort?

- While God was working in Daniel and his companions "to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13), they were working out their own salvation. Herein is revealed the outworking of the divine principle of cooperation, without which no true success can be attained. Human effort avails nothing without divine power; and without human endeavor, divine effort is with many of no avail. To make God's grace our own, we must act our part. His grace is given to work in us to will and to do, but never as a substitute for our effort. {LHU 193.4}
- We are laborers together with God. This is the Lord's own wise arrangement. The cooperation of the human will and endeavor with divine energy is the link that binds men up with one another and with God. The apostle says, "We are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building" (1 Corinthians 3:9). Man is to work with the facilities God has given him. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," He says. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12, 13).-MS 113, 1898. {2MCP 694.3}
- There are two grand forces at work in the salvation of the human soul. It requires the cooperation of man with the divine agencies--divine influences, and a strong, living, working faith. It is in this way only that the human agent can become a laborer together with God. The Lord does not sanction in any one of us a blind, stupid credulity. He does not dishonor the human understanding, but, far from this, He calls for the human will to be brought into connection with the divine will. He calls for the ingenuity of the human mind, the tact, the skill, to be strenuously exercised in searching out the truth as it is in Jesus. . . . Ye are labourers together with God. {OHC 310.5}

So the balance is as follows:

- The Remedy to sin was fully achieved by Christ and no one else.
- We can do nothing to add to what Christ has done to save mankind, but, each person now must choose to open their heart in trust to receive from the Holy Spirit the benefit of Christ's victory in their life.
- When we do this a supernatural transformation of character, desire, motive, and attitude takes place.
- In this process there is a daily, ongoing, and constant cooperative work of the individual with the Divine in which the person chooses to continue to follow the direction of the Heavenly Physician until they are one day fully healed and set free to be self-controlled beings operating on the law of love, which has been fully restored into the heart. (Heb 8:10).

What is an addiction, what definition would you give?

The compulsive engagement in behaviors that have short term reward

But bring long term destruction

What can you name that fits this definition?

- Alcohol
- Tobacco
- Drugs
- Sex/porn
- Gambling
- Work
- Relationships
- Video games
- TV
- Food

SUNDAY

Alcohol – Read Proverbs 23:29-35:

Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
 Who has strife? Who has complaints?
 Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?
 30 Those who linger over wine, who go to sample bowls of mixed wine.
 31 Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup,
 when it goes down smoothly!
 32 In the end it bites like a snake and poisons like a viper.
 33 Your eyes will see strange sights and your mind imagine confusing things.
 34 You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the rigging.
 35 "They hit me," you will say, "but I'm not hurt!
 They beat me, but I don't feel it!
 When will I wake up so I can find another drink?"

Thoughts?

What danger is there in alcohol?

- Average age of first drink is 12
- 20% of teens 12-20 are binge drinkers
- Adolescent drinkers scored worse than non-users on vocabulary, general information, memory, memory retrieval and at least three other tests
- Perform worse in school, are more likely to fall behind and have an increased risk of social problems, depression, suicidal thoughts and violence
- Alcohol affects the sleep cycle, resulting in impaired learning and memory as well as disrupted release of hormones necessary for growth and maturation
- Alcohol use increases risk of stroke among young drinkers
 - <http://www.ama-assn.org/ama/no-index/physician-resources/9416.shtml>

Alcohol while pregnant:

- Increased psychosis in offspring¹
- Alcohol tastes better to offspring²
- Mental retardation increased in offspring¹

- Multiple organ defects in offspring¹
 - Fetal alcohol syndrome¹
 - 1 drink/week or less^{4,5,6}
 - shorter children/smaller heads
 - Behavior problems
 - Delinquency
 - Emotional problems
1. . Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders. Updated 5/2/06.
 2. Youngentob, S. Glendinning, J. Fetal ethanol exposure increases ethanol intake by making it smell and taste better PNAS 2009 106 (13) 5359-5364;
 4. Sood, B., et al. Prenatal Alcohol Exposure and Childhood Behavior at Age 6 to 7. Pediatrics, volume 108, number 2, August 2001, page e34.
 5. Sayal, K., et al. Prenatal Alcohol Exposure and Gender Differences in Childhood Mental Health Problems: A Longitudinal Population-Based Study. Pediatrics, volume 119, number 2, February 2007, pages e426-434.
 6. Streissguth, A.P., et al. Risk Factors for Adverse Life Outcomes in Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and Fetal Alcohol Effects. J Dev Behav Pediatr, volume 25, number 4, August 2004, pages 228-238.
- Low Neuropeptide Y in amygdala is associated with increased alcohol preference in animal models¹
 - NPY receptor knockout mice show alcohol preference²
 - Olling et al 2009 demonstrated that ETOH causes³
 - Decreased histone deacetylase (gene inhibitors)
 - Resulting in increased NPY in amygdala and low anxiety
 - Alcohol withdraw increased histone deacetylase thus suppressing NPY and increasing anxiety
 - Administration of a drug that blocked histone deacetylase blocked withdraw anxiety
 - 1. Alcoholism: Clinical and Experimental Research Volume 23, Issue 6, pages 1023–1030, June 1999
 - 2. The Journal of Neuroscience, 2002, 22:RC208:1-6
 - 3. Journal of Neuroscience Research Volume 87, Issue 10, pages 2386–2397, 1 August 2009

Thoughts? Alcohol damages brain, alters gene expression, impairs thinking, increases anxiety and fear circuitry firing.

If all of this is so then what do we make of Proverbs 31:4-7:

- “It is not for kings, O Lemuel—not for kings to drink wine, not for rulers to crave beer,
 5 lest they drink and forget what the law decrees, and deprive all the oppressed of their rights.
 6 Give beer to those who are perishing,

- wine to those who are in anguish;
 7 let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.

Thoughts? Do we follow this Biblical guidance today? How about when we give cough syrup to those who are sick and it is suspended in an alcohol solution? This is speaking of using alcohol as a medicinal agent, to reduce suffering for those who are in a state deserving of medical intervention. Fortunately we have much better medicines today than alcohol.

Read fourth paragraph, "Alcohol, as well as..." thoughts? It clearly implies that psychoactive substances have a universally negative moral influence. But don't you think this should say "other psychoactive substances of abuse"? Antidepressants and antipsychotics are also psychoactive substances which restore healthy functioning and improve moral decision making.

MONDAY

Sex addiction –

- Average American teen watches:
 - 15,000 sexual acts per year
- Children don't differentiate between reality and TV
- Media normalizes sex
- Teen programming has more sexual content than adult
- 2/3 teens have seen pornography on the internet
- 3/6 major networks will not allow advertising for condoms or birth control, yet all allow ads for male enhancement drugs
- 6 studies document that the higher exposure to media sexual content the earlier kids have sex
- $57 billion worldwide ($12 billion US)
 - Porn revenue is larger than all combined revenues of all professional football, baseball and basketball franchises.
 - US porn revenue exceeds the combined revenues of ABC, CBS, and NBC ($6.2 billion)
 - Child pornography generates $3 billion annually
- 4.2 million pornographic websites (12%)
- 68 million daily porn web searches (25%)
- 20% of men visit porn sites at work
- 47% Christians say porn is a major problem in their home

- Visitors to porn sites 72% male 28% female
- A 1996 Promise Keepers survey at one of their stadium events revealed that over 50% of the men in attendance were involved with pornography within one week of attending the event.
- 51% of pastors say cyber-porn is a possible temptation. 37% say it is a current struggle (Christianity Today, Leadership Survey, 12/2001).
- Over half of evangelical pastors admits viewing pornography last year.
- Roger Charman of Focus on the Family's Pastoral Ministries reports that approximately 20 percent of the calls received on their Pastoral Care Line are for help with issues such as pornography and compulsive sexual behavior.
- In a 2000 Christianity Today survey, 33% of clergy admitted to having visited a sexually explicit Web site. Of those who had visited a porn site, 53% had visited such sites "a few times" in the past year, and 18% visit sexually explicit sites between a couple of times a month and more than once a week.
- 29% of born again adults in the U.S. feel it is morally acceptable to view movies with explicit sexual behavior (The Barna Group).
- 57% of pastors say that addiction to pornography is the most sexually damaging issue to their congregation (Christians and Sex Leadership Journal Survey, March 2005).

Thoughts? We have a problem –

Read last paragraph, "God is willing..." thoughts? Is the problem an addict faces the problem of obtaining a legal pardon from God? Was this ever a problem?

What is the number one obstacle for the addict to find freedom?

The warfare against self is the greatest battle that was ever fought. The yielding of self, surrendering all to the will of God, requires a struggle; but the soul must submit to God before it can be renewed in holiness. {FLB 87.4}

Denial, I don't have a problem, I can handle it...

What do those who engage in porn always forget? To actually think about the health and welfare of the people they are exploiting.

TUESDAY

Gambling

- 85% of U.S. adults have gambled at least once in their lives, 80% in the past year. National Problem Gambling Awareness Week, January 2011.
- College graduates (24%) are significantly more likely than non-graduates (14%) to gamble on sports Gallup Poll, February 2008.
- Gambling occurs at a higher percentage in higher-income households (72%) versus lower-income households (55%) Gallup Poll, February 2008. But problem gamblers are more likely to come from lower income households.

Card Rooms	$1.18 billion
Commercial Casinos	$34.41 billion ¹
Charitable Games and Bingo	$2.22 billion
Indian Casinos	$26.02 billion ²
Legal Bookmaking	$168.8 million
Lotteries	$24.78 billion
Pari-mutuel Wagering	$3.50 billion
GRAND TOTAL	$92.27 billion

http://www.americangaming.org/Industry/factsheets/statistics_detail.cfv?id=7

What does gambling look like? What is included in gambling?

- Casinos, lotteries, bookmaking, track
- What about Stock market?
- What about Gambling with life choices? Relationships? Russian Roulette?

What is it that fuels the behavior of gambling?

- Desire for some form of self enhancement, something to give self a boost, advantage, either money, fame, power, (selfishness), combined with....
- Self deception – creating imaginary fantasies about what winning looks like rather than honest evaluation of what is transpiring, which is reinforced by...
- Intermittent success to keep the self-deception alive

What needs to be done to resolve this? Truth, love – how might these help a gambler?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph – “The Bible...” thoughts?

What leads one to have money as an idol?

Would it be fear and insecurity and seeking to protect self? Would it be a failure to see the universe as it really is and the true valuelessness of money?

Read bottom green – thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, “The intensive desire to...” thoughts?

Do you think Body Dysmorphic Disorder or Anorexia Nervosa is an addiction?

They are not classified as addictions by the DSM IV TR because they are not addictions they are problems of a different nature.

BDD and Anorexia are not about worshipping the body, or making the body an idol as the lesson suggests or becoming addicted to certain treatments or behaviors, or loving self and worshipping self-

Just the opposite – these disorders are related to deep seated insecurity, fear and distorted self image typically related to some psychological traumas or problems earlier in life that were unable to be resolved and thus got channeled into these symptoms.

While the addict seeks the behavior for a high, thrill, escape stress, and calm self – the BDD and Anorexic do not get joy or highs or thrills or reward, in the classic sense, from their behaviors. These behaviors are driven primarily as an attempt to avoid some other pain and the behaviors themselves are painful to endure. These disorders are much closer to Obsessive Compulsive Disorder than Addictions.

However, there is a form of self-centeredness in which self can become an idol and we become superficial and focused on ourselves, appearance and become petty judges of those around us and going to church is a weekly beauty contest. This type of person is also not an addict but a shallow self-centered person who has yet to experience genuine love for others.

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2 and 4

What can an addict do?

12 Step Programs:

- 1. We admitted that we were powerless over our addictions, that our lives had become unmanageable.
- 2. We came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
- 3. We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him. "Jesus Christ is the Highest Power."
- 4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
- 5. We admitted to God, to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
- 6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
- 7. We humbly asked Him to remove all our shortcomings.
- 8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all.
- 9. We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
- 10. We continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it.
- 11. We sought, through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
- 12. Having had a spiritual experience as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to others, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Steps to Recovery:

- Set a Date
- Stop other substances
- Trigger Identification and Replacement
- Join Forces
- Buddy Up – 12 Steps get a sponsor
- Exercise
- Right Use of Imagination
- Drink Plenty of Water and Fresh Juices
- Pray/Meditate/Higher Power
- Clean Everything

- Avoid Mental Games
- Remind Yourself the Reasons for Quitting
- Consider Medications

Jesus Wept The Bible and Human Emotions Lesson 13 1Q 2011

Partnership with Jesus

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs – “In recent years...” thoughts?

What does it mean? Why is religion a safeguard to guilt for the committed believer? Does it mean they are living healthier and holier lives?

Or could it mean religiosity produces a false security to allow people to avoid guilt while indulging in sin?

What if one adheres to a system that instructs to partake mass regularly, confess sins to a priest, pay penance, recite our fathers and hail marys, light candles and one adheres to these rules and after every sin one confess it to the priest and receive absolution, might one avoid feeling guilty while running a crime syndicate or carrying out murder?

What if one adheres to a system that instructs to worship on the seventh day, eat certain foods, dress in a particular way, don't watch certain things, pay a regular tithe and one is committed to this and strongly complies, does this mean such a one is holy? Might one harbor resentment, selfishness, pride and elitism yet not feel guilt but instead judge someone who wears earrings or worships on a different day?

Can religion provide a FALSE security in which one feels secure, avoids guilt, believes one is eternally saved, yet in which they are not?

Christ said,

Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?’²³ Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’ Matt 7:22,23

What does this mean? How can this happen?

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days.² People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy,³ without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good,⁴ treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—⁵ having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them. 2Tim 3:1-5

Thoughts? What does this mean? Are these people irreligious? No, these are the religious, but they deny the power – what is the power?

I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. Romans 1:16

What is the power? The gospel and what is the gospel? Is the gospel the good news that God is angry and wrathful over our sin and is forced, by holiness and justice to use His mighty power to torture and kill us, but Jesus loves us and pleads His blood to the Father and all those who accept this payment God won't have to kill? Would it be good news to spend eternity with a God who is as Satan alleges?

What did Satan allege?

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. DA 761

Would it be good news if this were true? The eternal gospel is the Good News, not only of eternity future, but eternity past and in eternity past Christ had not died for sinners. The eternal Good News is the Good News which has always been true and which will always be true and that is the Good News about God Himself!

The more sincerely a man believes falsehood, the more fatal it is to his own soul. He earnestly advocates this falsehood, and those who have not been sanctified through the truth accept it. The more he advocates error, the more certain he becomes that it is truth, and that truth is error, and must be exposed and denounced. He is imbued with a zeal that is in accordance with the zeal of his leader. {RH, May 3, 1898 par. 10}

A striking contrast is seen between those who practise the truth and those who have joined the ranks of the apostate. Meek and lowly will those be who follow the Lamb of God. Boastful, denunciatory, and lawless in word and deed will those be who war against the commandments of God. They are thus because they have the spirit and attributes of the dragon, who was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus. {RH, May 3, 1898 par. 11}

God's law is immutable and eternal; for it is the transcript of his character, and by it God designs to bring the family on earth into harmony with the family in heaven. God has made it possible for men to obey his requirements, by making it possible for them to be partakers of the divine nature. Thus our characters may be molded in accordance with the law of God. And by willing obedience to this law our characters are conformed to the character of God. {RH, May 3, 1898 par. 12}

What does the law require? Why? How do we become obedient to God's law? Through partaking of Christ, we are actually transformed to love God and others more than self.

What does religion do to those who have exchanged the truth of God for a lie? Paul tells us right after he tells us that the gospel is the power of God to save, that when we exchange the truth of God for a lie the mind becomes darkened, depraved and futile.

Is all religion of equal value? Will all religion result in healing of the mind/heart/character? Or can some religion cause one to feel secure while destroying the mind?

Read last paragraph, “Prayer and Bible...” thoughts? Does it matter which Jesus one is using as their example?

SUNDAY

Read third paragraph, “That must have...” thoughts? What does this mean? Doesn't it mean Jesus journeyed on earth as a human, with a human physiology, strength, brain and overcame as a human being relying solely on His Father in faith and not using His own divine power?

The lesson states prayer is a positive factor in our mental and spiritual health – does it matter to whom one prays? Weren't the prophets of Baal, who opposed Elijah, praying? Was it a positive factor in their mental and spiritual health?

What about the prayers of those who live in fear of God? “God please be merciful, please don't be mad at me, please don't punish me, please God....”

How about the prayer, “Please bless mommy, daddy, the missionaries in China...” the perfunctory, rote prayer?

What kind of prayer is helpful to mental health?

MONDAY

The lesson lists a long list of benefits from regular church attendance and is it true these benefits can be associated with church attendance?

- Does this mean if you experience these benefits you are attending the “right” church?
- Does it mean all church attendance is equally healthy?
- Are there any methods to determine whether a particular group is healthy or not?
 - How about if the group doesn’t focus on mining the truth from scripture but instead promotes emotional experiences? Can you experience positive emotional benefit from a community like this? Will it necessarily result in spiritual growth?
 - What about a community in which hierarchy determines the thinking for the parishioners? Can one experience a sense of emotional peace and security from following the directions of the leader? Will it necessarily result in spiritual growth?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

What can we do to foster a healthier relationship with our local church? If there is a rift with another, individual or group, does it mean we have necessarily done something wrong? What happened to Lucifer’s relationship with God? Did God do something wrong?

But given we are not God, it is a good chance there are things we can do better than we have done thus far. Any suggestions on how we can have a healthier relationship with our local church?

TUESDAY

Forgiveness – what happens if one refuses to forgive? What does it say about the one who refuses to forgive? What happens to the person who refuses to forgive?

Unforgiveness hardens the heart, and physiologically causes activation of the stress pathways, increases physical and mental health problems.

Is this avoidable? Can a person refuse to forgive and not be damaged by this refusal? What if a person held out for some payment, some appeasement, some abasement on the part of the other before they forgave? What would that attitude do to the one refusing to forgive?

What about God? Does God forgive outright or does God withhold forgiveness until some appeasement, abasement, payment? Did God need some payment to be given to Him in order to forgive?

If He did would it be forgiveness? Can you collect a debt and forgive it also? If some owes you $100 and you collect it after collecting the debt do you say, now that you have paid your debt I forgive your debt? Do you notice the legal model has God being paid our debt by the blood of the Son, but Jesus said the Father forgives us our debts, which is it?

Consider the parable of Jesus: Mt 18:21-35,

Thoughts? Did the king require some payment in order to forgive? Why do we say God couldn't forgive without a legal payment?

The lesson states the idea that if we do not forgive God will not forgive us, "the thought is terrifying." Why is this thought terrifying?

How do we understand the idea that God will not forgive us if we don't forgive others?

God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

Can we experience this transformation of heart if we refuse to forgive and instead hold grudges? So is God unforgiving toward us if we refuse to forgive, or is our unforgiving heart and obstacle to experience the healing that God's free forgiveness would bring?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "The SDA..." thoughts? Should these two branches be separate or should they be integrated? Why?

The medical missionary work is to be to the work of the church as the right arm to the body. The third angel goes forth proclaiming the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. The medical missionary work is the gospel in practice. All lines of work are to be harmoniously blended in giving the invitation: "Come; for all things are now ready." {8T 77.2}

Again and again I have been instructed that the medical missionary work is to bear the same relation to the work of the third angel's message that the arm and hand bear to the body. Under the direction of the divine Head they are to work unitedly in preparing the way for the coming of Christ. The right arm of the body of truth is to be constantly active, constantly at work, and God will strengthen it. But it is not to be made the body. At the same time the body is not to say to the arm, "I have no need of thee." The body has need of the arm in order to do active, aggressive work. Both have their appointed work, and each will suffer great loss if worked independently of the other.--Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 288. {ChS 134.4}

The health message is to be the right arm of our work because it not only opens doors, but models most powerfully the plan of salvation as God's plan to heal us from sin and restore His law of love in our minds. It is "the gospel in practice." Why? Because the practice of medicine operates upon the law of love. Only in cooperation with God's design template are physical ailments cured and that means leading people to understand the law of love. As they see this law in nature, through the health message, their minds can be elevated to see the reality of God's character. The reason it is the "right arm" and not the "body," is that we need mental/spiritual healing, not just physical healing. We need heart/mind renewal with fear and selfishness removed and love restored within. So if we made the medical missionary work the "body," we would merely help people live longer in sin, rather than helping them experience, through the Holy Spirit, renewal of mind, heart and character.

Thoughts?

Last sentence of second paragraph states, "There's something wired in us, something not totally eradicated by six thousand years of sin, that makes us feel good, even whole, when we serve others."

Thoughts?

Is there something wired in us, or is it something else working in us?

The Lord says, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman." The enmity does not exist as a natural fact. As soon as Adam sinned, he was in harmony with the first great apostate, and at war with God; and if God had not interfered in man's behalf, Satan and man would have formed a confederacy against heaven, and carried on united opposition against the God of hosts. There is no natural enmity between evil angels and evil men; both are evil through transgression of the law of God, and evil will always league against good. Fallen men and fallen angels enter into a desperate companionship. {ST, July 11, 1895 par. 5}

Is there something wired in us, or is there a power outside of us working to deliver us from our wiring?

Why do we get healthier when we minister to others?

THURSDAY

Top question, I love this question, “What reasons do we have for putting our hope in the Lord?”

- God intercedes to hold at bay the damage which unremedied sin would bring – he intercedes in our minds/hearts, with Satanic powers, and Christ interceded in the course sin would have done to the human race and overcame.
- God revealed Himself as perfectly selfless in Christ. What does it mean that Christ had all power but wouldn't use it to save Himself? Can you trust a God like that? What happens to the evidence when people undermine the divinity of Christ?
- What about in your own life?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph,

Every ray of light shed upon others will be reflected upon our own hearts. Every kind and sympathizing word spoken to the sorrowful, every act to relieve the oppressed, and every gift to supply the necessities of our fellow beings, given or done with an eye to God's glory, will result in blessings to the giver.

Those who are thus working are obeying a law of heaven and will receive the approval of God. The pleasure of doing good to others imparts a glow to the feelings which flashes through the nerves, quickens the circulation of the blood, and induces mental and physical health. {4T 56.2}

Thoughts? Why?

Read and discuss questions 2 and 4

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 1 2Q 2011

I have heard several rumors around the community that this class is composed of a group of people who don't think for themselves, a group of people who have surrendered their thinking to Dr. Jennings and come each week to class to hear what I have to say.

This idea has been heard all over the community – we know this is not true. One thing which might inadvertently give this impression is if someone were to say, “Dr. Jennings said in class this week...”etc. I want to encourage you, as always, to believe nothing because I say it, but to think through what I have said, examine the evidence, make up your own mind, and then when you are convinced of the truth present it as your own – don't attribute it to me but say “The Bible says!” or “The evidence says!”

INTRODUCTION

Read first paragraph – “We are awash...”

The lesson is correct – we are awash in symbols – what is the danger in symbols? That we might draw the wrong meaning from the symbol.

What about the rainbow – a symbol given in the Bible to remind us of what? What about today? What message is being proclaimed by a rainbow flag or a rainbow bumper sticker? Do we have to be careful what meaning we derive from a symbol? Let's keep this in mind the entire quarter.

In the Loom of Heaven

SABBATH

Read memory verse, “Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.” Rom 4:7

Thoughts? What does this text mean? The words are symbols, what is the meaning? Do sins get covered? Is God's plan of salvation nothing more than a cosmic cover-up? Is it a great cosmetic, covering over defect and blemish?

My paraphrase of this verse is: "Happy are they whose wicked minds are restored to perfect purity, whose selfishness is eradicated.

Read first paragraph, "Christ..." thoughts? How do we understand this?

Did you notice this sentence, "Christ has made reconciliation for sin, and borne all its ignominy, reproach, and punishment..."? Where does punishment for sin arise? Notice she didn't say, bore the Father's infliction of punishment for sin.

Here we have the covering metaphor again – is it a cover-up? Is it the candy coated rotten-apple? Just cover the sin, cover the defect, paint over the rot, put a band aid over the necrosis, is that what this mean?

How have you heard this theory put forth?

Jump to MONDAY

Read second paragraph, "What hope..." thoughts?

What is generally missing from the traditional explanation of this symbolism?

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa. 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps. 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Is there a difference between covering over sin and actually transforming the sinner? Is there a difference between getting a legal credit in a record book and getting transformed?

In fact, the theory typically given leads us astray because it undermines the reality of what is transpiring. They talk about Christ's perfect law keeping being applied to our record – let's use this language, and accept that the record of Christ gets applied to our record in heaven – next question how? How could Christ's perfect law keeping get applied to our records?

What is recorded in our records?

Remember, your character is being daguerreotyped [photographed] by the great Master Artist in the record books of heaven, as minutely as the face is reproduced upon the polished plate of the artist. What do the books of heaven say in your case? Are you conforming your character to the Pattern, Jesus Christ? Are you washing your robes of character and making them white in the blood of the Lamb? "Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be" [Revelation 22:12]. . . . {TSB 62.1}

So if we take this example of Christ perfect law keeping being applied to our record in heaven, what is the route such law keeping must necessarily take to get into our records?

It must go through our own hearts and minds as the records in heaven actually record the condition of our characters. We have either been won back to trust in God or we have not. This other idea of something happening in a record book outside, separate and distinct from what is transpiring in us is a fiction and a distortion. It does put God in the business of misrepresenting reality.

Classically it is taught that God says we are righteous when we are not righteous. Think about that.

Read next paragraph, “Paul said in Romans...” thoughts? Notice the lesson itself states that it was after Abraham trusted God that he was recognized as righteous. What is the natural state of our hearts?

Do we naturally “trust” God or is the carnal heart at war with God? Thus, which came first, God’s recognition that Abraham was righteous, or a change in Abraham from distrusting God to trust in God? God is working to actually cleanse, heal, restore, rebuild, renew, regenerate our hearts and minds and rewrite His law of love in us, to win us back to trust in Him. It is only when we experience that trust in Him that righteousness occurs in the life, and then subsequently in the record of the believer.

The Greek word translated imputed or credited is: logizomai and means:

3049 λογίζομαι [logizomai /log·id·zom·ahee/] v. Middle voice from 3056; TDNT 4:284; TDNTA 536; GK 3357; 41 occurrences; AV translates as “think” nine times, “impute”

v v: verb

TDNT Theological Dictionary of the New Testament

TDNTA Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Abridged in One Volume

GK Goodrick-Kohlenberger

AV Authorized Version

eight times, “reckon” six times, “count” five times, “account” four times, “suppose” twice, “reason” once, “number” once, and translated miscellaneous five times. 1 to reckon, count, compute, calculate, count over. 1A to take into account, to make an account of. 1A1 metaph. to pass to one’s account, to impute. 1A2 a thing is reckoned as or to be something, i.e. as availing for or equivalent to something, as having the like force and weight. 1B to number among, reckon with. 1C to reckon or account. 2 to reckon inward, count up or weigh the reasons, to deliberate. 3 by reckoning up all the reasons, to gather or infer. 3A to consider, take into account, weigh, meditate on. 3B to suppose, deem, judge. 3C to determine, purpose, decide. Additional Information: This word deals with reality. If I “logizomai” or reckon that my bank book has $25 in it, it has $25 in it. Otherwise I am deceiving myself. This word refers to facts not suppositions. ¹

Thoughts? Is imputed righteousness separated from an actual change in the person or are they inextricably connected? Listen to some quotations from one of the founders of our church and see how you hear the meaning of imputed righteousness:

Abundant grace has been provided that the believing soul may be kept free from sin; for all heaven, with its limitless resources, has been placed at our command. We are to draw from the well of salvation. . . . In ourselves we are sinners; but in Christ we are righteous. Having made us righteous through the imputed righteousness of Christ, God pronounces us just, and treats us as just. He looks upon us as His dear children. Christ works against the power of sin, and where sin abounded, grace much more abounds. {God’s Amazing Grace 181.4}

How do you hear this description of imputed righteousness? It is through imputed righteousness we are “made” righteous. Does being made righteous mean something different than being “declared” righteous, or being “accounted” righteous, or being “credited” with righteousness?

¹Strong, James: The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible : Showing Every Word of the Test of the Common English Version of the Canonical Books, and Every Occurrence of Each Word in Regular Order. electronic ed. Ontario : Woodside Bible Fellowship., 1996, S. G3049

Metaphor in the Bible is leprosy – when did the High Priest declare someone clean, before or after they were made clean? Leprosy was a metaphor for sin – Christ cleansed the lepers and then told them to go to the priest to be “declared” clean.

“By beholding we become changed, morally assimilated to the One who is perfect in character. By receiving His imputed righteousness, through the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, we become like Him. The image of Christ is cherished, and it captivates the whole being. {God’s Amazing Grace 96.4}

How is “imputed” being used in this statement? Does it sound like a mere legal accounting? Is it more than that?

We aim too low. The mark is much higher. Our minds need expansion, that we may comprehend the significance of the provision of God. We are to reflect the highest attributes of the character of God. . . . The law of God is the exalted standard to which we are to attain through the imputed righteousness of Christ. {OHC 364.2}

Is the imputed righteousness of Christ somehow connected to what we attain? Is attainment different than credits? What would it mean to aim to low? Would it mean we are aiming for legal pardon rather than character transformation?

He would have us comprehend something of His love in giving His Son to die that He might counteract evil, remove the defiling stains of sin from the workmanship of God, and reinstate the lost, elevating and ennobling the soul to its original purity through Christ's imputed righteousness.
TMK 206

Where does it sound like Christ's righteousness is being "imputed"? Into record books or into believers? And because the record books record what is transpiring in the character of the believer by imputing His perfect character into the believer it is recorded in the heavenly record book!

Is there a difference between legally accounting one righteous and actually transforming the believer into righteousness? Do you find EGW to be in harmony with the Biblical meaning of logizomai? Absolutely!

So, how might we, with this understand read Romans 4:20-24?

Here is my paraphrase:

Yet, even though, from human understanding, the promise seemed hopeless, Abraham did not waver in his confidence in God, but praised God as he ²¹ realized God was able to miraculously fulfill the promise. ²² This unwavering trust in God, in the face of scientific evidence to the contrary, was recognized as righteousness because this trust replaced distrust and opened Abraham's mind to receive the endowment of a new heart, right motives, and Christlike principles established by God's recreative power. ²³ This record of his trust being "recognized as righteousness" is not written merely for Abraham, ²⁴ but for everyone who trusts in God. For everyone who trusts in God, who raised Jesus from the dead, is recognized as righteous because distrust in God is gone and through trust he receives the endowment of a perfect heart and new motives created within. Romans 4:20-24 My paraphrase

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph "Imagine it is..."

Let's explain the symbolism – how can this be understood correctly, how could this same symbolism get misconstrued?

FRIDAY

Do we agree that God never changes, is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow?

Do we agree that God's law cannot change?

Do we agree that man was changed when man sinned?

Then does it make sense that God, through Christ, would have to effect change in man in order to save man?

Notice what the first paragraph states:

Read first paragraph- thoughts – what does this mean? What is being described? What does the law require? Does it require a payment? Why does it require a perfect life?

TUESDAY

Read first three paragraphs – “A preacher...” what is the man saying? What is the message?

Read last paragraph, “Though Paul...” thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

The lesson asks us to Romans 6:1-13 – thoughts? Read this section, What does this symbolic language mean?

Here it is from my paraphrase:

Romans 6:1 What, then, should we say about this amazing healing plan? Should we spread the infection of distrust and selfishness, cause more devastation and destruction so that the power of God's healing solution may be more fully displayed? ² Absolutely not! We have taken the antidote, and the infection of distrust and selfishness has been purged from our hearts and minds; how then, can we choose to be reinfected with distrust of God and practice selfish methods again? ³ Or don't you realize that all of us who were immersed into union with Christ Jesus were immersed into selflessness and have died to self-centeredness? ⁴ We symbolically demonstrate we have joined him in dying to self by being buried in water, in order that just as Jesus arose from the dead displaying the life giving glory of the Father, we too live a new life displaying God's glorious character in our lives.

^{6:5} If we have joined him in dying to self, we will absolutely join him in his resurrection and new life! ⁶ For we know that when our old selfish hearts and fear ridden minds trust God and surrenders to be crucified with Christ, the infection of selfishness is purged, and our hearts are no longer controlled by Satanic principles – ⁷ because anyone who dies to selfishness is free from Satan's methods, principles and control.

^{6:8} Now if we join Christ in dying to self, we are confident we will live with him forever. ⁹ Because Christ was raised from the dead and cannot die again; he has secured the remedy and has revealed the truth, and death cannot touch him again. ¹⁰ The death he died, he died once destroying Satan's lies, the infection of fear and selfishness and restoring love and trust; therefore, the life he lives, he lives to glorify God.

^{6:11} In the same way recognize you are dead to the ways of Satan and alive to the ways of God as revealed in Christ Jesus. ¹² Therefore do not indulge the selfish desires and participate in destructive activities. ¹³ Do not use your physical body for evil, to indulge selfishness, but rather offer your entire being to God – revealing that Satan's principles of death have been replaced by God's principles of life. So offer your entire self to God doing what is right and healthy because it is right and healthy.

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read third paragraph, “We must keep...” thoughts? What does this mean? Is this distinction in scripture or is this distinction created by people trying their best to understand the God’s plan of salvation?

When did this idea of atonement originate? Who were the men who conceived it? Was it not men coming out of the Dark Ages? Why has light not advanced in 500 years? Do we really believe that this is the ultimate word in understanding God’s plan of salvation?

Read last paragraph, “The understanding that...” thoughts? What does this sound like to you?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions.

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 2 2Q 2011

From Exalted to Cast Down

SABBATH

Read memory text – “Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.” EZ 28:15

Read first paragraph, “Today’s memory text...” thoughts?

Does this bother anyone that sin could arise out of perfection?

Does this idea tell us anything about God?

MONDAY

Lucifer means what? It is the Latin word for Morning Star, bearer of light, or bright shining light, or light bearer, it refers to the heavenly body Venus – the bright morning star – and in Scripture is used to refer to both Satan before his fall and Christ.

Why do you think Scripture gives a common name to both Satan and Christ?

This quarter the lesson is on clothing imagery – why are we discussing Lucifer in this context? What lesson do we learn from Lucifer’s clothing?

You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz and emerald, chrysolite, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared. Eze 28:13

Does this description remind you of anything?

⁸ They fashioned the breastpiece—the work of a skilled craftsman. They made it like the ephod: of gold, .. they mounted four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a beryl; ¹¹ in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald; ¹² in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst; ¹³ in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Exodus 39:8-14

And who is our High Priest? Do we find other parallels between Christ and Lucifer?

How was Lucifer dressed? Here is a description I found in a book called The Story of Redemption:

Lucifer in heaven, before his rebellion, was a high and exalted angel, next in honor to God's dear Son. His countenance, like those of the other angels, was mild and expressive of happiness. His forehead was high and broad, showing a powerful intellect. His form was perfect; his bearing noble and majestic. A special light beamed in his countenance and shone around him brighter and more beautiful than around the other angels; yet Christ, God's dear Son, had the pre-eminence over all the angelic host. He was one with the Father before the angels were created. Lucifer was envious of Christ, and gradually assumed command which devolved on Christ alone. {SR 13.1}

What ideas come to your mind? What do jewels do when you shine light through them?

Can you imagine Lucifer – a being who emanates light, a being who radiates fire, clothed in pure jewels of various shades and as he speaks, or talks or sings or praises the radiance from him goes out through the stones creating magnificent rainbows of colors and patterns of different variety?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Our God..." thoughts? Which member of the Godhead was the one who actually created? Was it Jesus? How do we know?

- In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made... John 1:1-3
- For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. Col 1:16,17

Why was Jesus the member of the Godhead through which all things were made? Why was Jesus the one that created earth and mankind?

With whom had Satan alleged equality? With Jesus! One of the founders of our church saw it the same way -

Little by little Lucifer came to indulge the desire for self-exaltation. The Scripture says, "Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness." Ezekiel 28:17. "Thou hast said in thine heart, . . . I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. . . I will be like the Most High." Isaiah 14:13, 14. Though all his glory was from God, this mighty angel came to regard it as pertaining to himself. Not content with his position, though honored above the heavenly host, he ventured to covet homage due alone to the Creator. Instead of seeking to make God supreme in the affections and allegiance of all created beings, it was his endeavor to secure their service and loyalty to himself. And coveting the glory with which the infinite Father had invested His Son, this prince of angels aspired to power that was the prerogative of Christ alone. {PP 35.2}

To dispute the supremacy of the Son of God, thus impeaching the wisdom and love of the Creator, had become the purpose of this prince of angels. To this object he was about to bend the energies of that master mind, which, next to Christ's, was first among the hosts of God. {PP 36.1}

Lucifer is jealous of Christ and undermines confidence in God by alleging equality to Christ – how could he do this? Could it be because Christ was manifesting Himself in the form of an angel?

How did God respond?

The King of the universe summoned the heavenly hosts before Him, that in their presence He might set forth the true position of His Son and show the relation He sustained to all created beings. The Son of God shared the Father's throne, and the glory of the eternal, self-existent One encircled both. .. Before the assembled inhabitants of heaven the King declared that none but Christ, the Only Begotten of God, could fully enter into His purposes, and to Him it was committed to execute the mighty counsels of His will. The Son of God had wrought the Father's will in the creation of all the hosts of heaven; and to Him, as well as to God, their homage and allegiance were due. {PP 36.2}

- Why did God have to hold a counsel to announce the rightful position of His Son?
- Do we need to have a counsel to announce that the sun is bright, or fire is hot, or that water is wet?
- When something is obvious and universally understood does it have to be announced?
- Does the announcement not indicate that it wasn't obvious, that the difference between Christ and Satan was not fully understood by the angels?

What did Satan do in response to God's announcement? What would you have done in his shoes?

Leaving his place in the immediate presence of the Father, Lucifer went forth to diffuse the spirit of discontent among the angels. He worked with mysterious secrecy, and for a time concealed his real purpose under an appearance of reverence for God. ... The exaltation of the Son of God as equal with the Father was represented as an injustice to Lucifer, who, it was claimed, was also entitled to reverence and honor. If this prince of angels could but attain to his true, exalted position, great good would accrue to the entire host of heaven; for it was his object to secure freedom for all. But now even the liberty which they had hitherto enjoyed was at an end; for an absolute Ruler had been appointed them, and to His authority all must pay homage. Such were the subtle deceptions that through the wiles of Lucifer were fast obtaining in the heavenly courts. {PP 37.1}

Was this true? Was Christ elevated to position greater than Lucifer placed as a ruler over the angels?

“There had been no change in the position or authority of Christ. Lucifer's envy and misrepresentation and his claims to equality with Christ had made necessary a statement of the true position of the Son of God; but this had been the same from the beginning. Many of the angels were, however, blinded by Lucifer's deceptions.” PP 38

Does this give any insight as to why Jesus is the member of the Godhead through which earth was created? Does it give any insight as to why Jesus was the one who came as our Savior?

THURSDAY

Read middle paragraph, “Fortunately, because of the Cross...” thoughts?

What methods does Satan use to keep us from finding righteousness?

Is Satan not the father of lies? What is the primary focus of his lies?

What would happen in the heart and mind of a person who believed lies about God? What happens in the heart and mind of a person who believed lies about God, but then comes to embrace and accept the truth about God? How would you describe that experience?

If you used the Biblical metaphor of Paul, “Don’t you know you are a temple of God and God’s spirit dwells in you.” If you used this metaphor to describe the experience of having the lies about God removed from the heart/mind, how might you describe it?

What about the 2300 year prophecy? Could it be speaking of this process?

Daniel 8:14 “unto 2300 days and the sanctuary will be cleansed” or “reconsecrated” or “set right” or “justified” or “put back right” or “restored to its right state” or made righteous!

What might this be referring to? Is it referring to refurbishing a building in heaven? Is it referring to changing the record books by erasing data, facts and evidence from the accounts of the saved? Is it referring to cleansing the hearts and minds of God’s people?

One of the people involved in crafting our current sanctuary doctrine wrote:

“The coming of Christ as our high priest to the most holy place, for the cleansing of the sanctuary, brought to view in Daniel 8:14; the coming of the Son of man to the Ancient of Days, as presented in Daniel 7:13; and the coming of the Lord to His temple, foretold by Malachi[3:1-3], are descriptions of the same event; and this is also represented by the coming of the bridegroom to the marriage, described by Christ in the parable of the ten virgins, of Matthew 25.” Great Controversy 426

The quotation cites Daniel 7:13 as describing the same event, what is happening in this passage?

¹³ “In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. ¹⁴ He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed. Daniel 7:13,-14

What is being described? In the context of the passage, what is happening, a judicial review or something else? The text is describing a coronation, a crowning, a time in the universe in which God is on His throne and all the intelligences of the universe have gathered and Christ is brought into God’s presence and “all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him.”

How many languages do you think there are in heaven? Before the tower of Babel how many languages were on earth? So what is implied by the idea that men of every language worshiped him? Is it suggesting the future restored new heaven and earth, the current beings in heaven, or the humans still on earth?

What does this mean? Would it not mean that this is the time in history when the lies of God are removed from the minds of men so we can worship Him instead of some superstitious false system?

If we keep reading in Daniel seven, we are told that an evil power will arise and will war against the saints until something happens? What?

As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them, ²² until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom. Daniel 7:21,22

What does it mean, pronounced judgment? Some have concluded this means a court room is ongoing in heaven in which God is judging men on earth and thus conclude Rev 14 (Fear God and give glory to him for the hour of his judgment has come) is God sitting in judgment. Does the Biblical evidence support this as a judicial proceeding by God in heaven?

First, this evil power wages war against the saints but what kind of war?

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2 Cor 10:3-5

What kind of war? Where is it being fought? In our minds!

Second, these passages have something to do with cleansing the Temple – how might the Temple be connected to this war going on in our minds? Daniel describes a little horn power that wars against the saints, Paul describes the same power and notice carefully what he says:

Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers, ²not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come. ³Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. ⁴He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God. 2Thes 2:1-4.

In the after math of Christ death and resurrection and ascension into heaven, did this man of lawlessness ride into heaven overthrow God, set himself up in God's temple in heaven and proclaim himself to be God? No, where did this happen? In the Spirit Temple! In our minds!

Then what is Daniel 7:21,22 talking about?

The Hebrew word translated "pronounced" actually means "to give" or "to impart" and thus the KJV states:

Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Daniel 7:22

Daniel is told in vision that an evil power would arise that would lie, distort, misrepresent God and defile the Spirit Temple by getting humans to accept, worship and teach a false picture of God. That it would be 2300 years before enough truth would be recovered for Christ to empower His people on earth with judgment to break free from the lies and be cleansed in their minds and characters about Him!

This evil power is able to succeed against the saints until we are given "judgment" or "discernment" or "ability" to see through the lies and have our minds cleansed by the truth. Thus we read in Malachi 3:1-3, another passage describing the same event as Daniel 8:14:

Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the LORD Almighty.

² But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap. ³ He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver.

According to Malachi, what is being cleansed by the Lord when He comes to His temple? The Levites! And who are the Levites? The priesthood of believers!

We are living in the time in earth's history where Christ is working to cleanse our minds, hearts and characters from all the lies, distortions and misrepresentations of God. This wins us to trust and in trust we open the heart, experience the indwelling of His Spirit and we partake of the divine nature, the law is written on our hearts and minds and real transformation occurs where we love others more than ourselves!

Now, what objections do you think we might hear when we present these evidences and ideas? "Don't you believe in a real temple in heaven?" My answer, Absolutely – question, "Out of what material is the heavenly temple constructed?" The Bible indicates it is a living temple constructed out of living beings:

- Paul says, "Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's HOUSE [sanctuary/temple], built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building [sanctuary/temple] is joined together and rises to become a HOLY TEMPLE in the Lord. And in him YOU too [you all] are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit. Ephesians 2:19-22.
- And Peter says, "As you come to him, the living Stone--rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him-- YOU also, like LIVING STONES [building blocks of the Temple], are being built into a SPIRITUAL HOUSE [Temple] to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." 1 Pet 2:4,5.
- And Paul says, "For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building [Temple]...Don't you know that you yourselves [the church] are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is sacred, and you [you all] are that temple.” 1 Cor 3:9,16,17.

- Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. Revelation 3:12
- Or David is Ps 23 “I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.” Was he describing a literal building where he will be an eternal prisoner, or the fact that the saved are building blocks of the temple of God?

One of the founders of our church saw it the same way:

In order that we may become instruments fit for a valuable service, we must be prepared for our labor. We are as rough stones from the quarry, and we must be chiseled and hewn, until God sees that the unsightly edges are all taken off, and we are fitted and polished for a place in the heavenly temple. {RH, May 1, 1888 par. 11}

Most of the distortion on the heavenly sanctuary doctrine comes from studying the OT sanctuary and then projecting that idea onto the heavenly temple in an overly concrete fashion. Notice what the same founder says about the relationship between the old earthly lesson book and the real temple in heaven:

The first tabernacle, built according to God's directions, was indeed blessed of Him. The people thus were preparing themselves to worship in the temple not made with hands--a temple in the heavens. The stones of the Temple built by Solomon were all prepared at the quarry and then brought to the Temple site. They came together without the sound of ax or hammer. The timbers were also fitted in the forest. The furniture was likewise brought to this house all prepared for use. {3MR 231.3}

Even so, the mighty cleaver of truth has taken out a people from the quarry of the world and is fitting this people, who profess to be the children of God, for a place in His heavenly temple. We want the cleaver of truth to do its work for us. We are taken from the quarry of the world. The material must not be a dead substance but living souls, and these souls must be brought out of the quarry of the world, where the hand of God can fit them for the temple in heaven. We are here as probationers, and we must pass under the hand of God. All rough edges and rough surfaces must be removed and we must be stones fitted for the building. We are brought into church capacity with defects of character, but we must not retain them. We must be fitted and squared for the building. We must be "laborers together with God," for we are "God's husbandry," we are "God's building." In view of this we must see that our temple is not defiled with sin. We should be lively stones, not dead ones, but live ones that will reflect the image of Christ. We must be worshipers in spirit and in truth. {3MR 231.4}

So how does Satan work today to obstruct people from experiencing righteousness? By distorting the truth of God, His methods, principles, kingdom, what Christ accomplished and accepting a distorted theology of God which fails to transform the believer.

TUESDAY

Read Ezekiel 28:17,18

Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. So I threw you to the earth; I made a spectacle of you before kings. By your many sins and dishonest trade you have desecrated your sanctuaries. So I made a fire come out from you, and it consumed you, and I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching.

What does this mean? What brought Lucifer down? And what does it mean he desecrated his sanctuaries?

And what about the idea that fire comes out from him and consumes him? What does this mean?

WEDNESDAY

- How you have fallen from heaven,
 O morning star, son of the dawn!
 You have been cast down to the earth,
 you who once laid low the nations!
- ¹³ You said in your heart,
 “I will ascend to heaven;
I will raise my throne
 above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly,
 on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain.
- ¹⁴ I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High.”
- ¹⁵ But you are brought down to the grave, to the depths of the pit. ¹

What lessons do we learn from this?

- What does self promotion lead to? Why?
- Lucifer was jealous of Christ, he was comparing himself to Christ, he was alleging equality to Christ – how does he actually compare to Christ?

⁵ Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

- ⁶ Who, being in very nature God,
did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

¹ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (Is 14:12–15). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

7 but made himself nothing,
taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

8 And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to death—
even death on a cross!

9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place
and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. ²

What do we learn? Satan takes six steps “up” to exalt self, but ends up going down. Jesus humbles self seven steps down and ends up being exalted.

So if Satan really wanted to be like God he would have humbled himself.

What does that say about his understanding of God? Did sin not only start with distorted ideas about self but distorted ideas about God?

Read last paragraph, “The temptation...” thoughts? How do we do this today? Refusing to forgive self? Calculating to control outcomes rather than trusting God with outcomes and merely doing what is right because it is right?

Read bottom pink section – thoughts? When is it appropriate to be in the role of God? What about parents to small children?

² The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (Php 2:5–11). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph – “When Satan...” thoughts? How do you understand it? Is it emotional guilt or legal guilt? Did he take our place, our infirmities, our iniquities, our sinfulness, our sick condition and experience the anguish of guilt that this sick state inflicts? Or did He assume legal position of guilt in God’s universe and suffer a legal penalty imposed? Or is it both?

Well are we legally guilty? Imagine an HIV infected man and woman get together and have a baby born HIV infected – what did the baby do wrong? Is the baby legally guilty? Even though the baby did nothing wrong does the baby still have a condition if unremedied will kill it? That is our situation, God knows we “are born in sin conceived in iniquity” that we did not choose to be rebels, sinners, infected with fear and distrust. He does not blame us anymore that we would blame the baby born HIV infected.

But he “diagnosis” us accurately – i.e. He “judges” our actual condition for what it is, and prescribes a remedy that will cure and that remedy is Christ. Christ came to heal mankind and restore us back into unity and harmony with God!

But if the HIV infected baby, once old enough to decide for itself, rejects a free remedy that will cure it – the baby will be responsible for that choice. That is our situation with God!

Question # 3 – notice what character those have who overcome – they are changed such that selfishness, survival of the fittest is replaced with self-sacrificing love! This is cleansing of God’s temple!

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 3 2Q 2011

A Garment of Innocence

SUNDAY

The lesson asks us to consider what the earth was like prior to sin and how our world today differs from the world God created. Any thoughts?

- No death, decay, disease, noxious or poisonous herb, predators
- No weather extremes or polar extremes
- No fatigue

The Father and the Son engaged in the mighty, wondrous work they had contemplated--of creating the world. The earth came forth from the hand of the Creator exceedingly beautiful. There were mountains and hills and plains; and interspersed among them were rivers and bodies of water. The earth was not one extensive plain, but the monotony of the scenery was broken by hills and mountains, not high and ragged as they now are, but regular and beautiful in shape. The bare, high rocks were never seen upon them, but lay beneath the surface, answering as bones to the earth. The waters were regularly dispersed. The hills, mountains, and very beautiful plains were adorned with plants and flowers and tall, majestic trees of every description, which were many times larger and much more beautiful than trees now are. The air was pure and healthful, and the earth seemed like a noble palace. Angels beheld and rejoiced at the wonderful and beautiful works of God. {SR 20.1}

Thoughts? Have you ever considered how beautiful the earth must have been? Think of it, the mountains we see now and consider so majestic and beautiful, were like bones to the earth. If you saw a person with a bone sticking out of their leg would you think, "how beautiful?"

In the days of Noah a double curse was resting upon the earth in consequence of Adam's transgression and of the murder committed by Cain. Yet this had not greatly changed the face of nature. There were evident tokens of decay, but the earth was still rich and beautiful in the gifts of God's providence. The hills were crowned with majestic trees supporting the fruit-laden branches of the vine. The vast, gardenlike plains were clothed with verdure, and sweet with the fragrance of a thousand flowers. The fruits of the earth were in great variety, and almost without limit. The trees far surpassed in size, beauty, and perfect proportion any now to be found; their wood was of fine grain and hard substance, closely resembling stone, and hardly less enduring. Gold, silver, and precious stones existed in abundance. {PP 90.1}

Can you imagine what this must have been like? Rivers with beds of various precious stones, emeralds, sapphires, rubies, or waterfall with platinum, altering with diamonds and sapphires – can you imagine the beauty?

MONDAY

Read third paragraph, “The sinless pair...” thoughts?

What garments did Adam and Eve wear before the fall? What happened to those garments? Where did they originate? Are they related to the robe woven in the loom of heaven or are these two different types of garments?

What is the robe woven in the loom of heaven? How do we wear it? Is it a covering or something within?

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us... When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. {COL 311.4}

Thoughts? Is this robe and the robe of light the same or are they different?

Was Moses started to “get dressed” in this clothing when he came down the mountain? What about Stephen, when his face shown like an angel?

It came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the testimony were in Moses’ hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him.

30 So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him...

34 But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded,

35 the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses’ face shone. So Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him. Exodus 34:29-35

What is going on? Is this magic? Was Moses being transformed in character by his beholding of God? Was Moses putting on the robe of Christ’s righteousness? Can we experience this type of thing still in our bodies as Moses did?

When we are rebuilt by God into His image – i.e. the “character of God is perfectly reproduce in His people..” will we have such clothes?

In the time of trouble, we all fled from the cities and villages, but were pursued by the wicked, who entered the houses of the saints with the sword. They raised the sword to kill us, but it broke, and fell as powerless as a straw. Then we all cried day and night for deliverance, and the cry came up before God. ... The Israel of God stood with their eyes fixed upwards, listening to the words as they came from the mouth of Jehovah, and rolled through the earth like peals of loudest thunder. It was awfully solemn. At the end of every sentence, the saints shouted, Glory! Hallelujah! Their countenances were lighted up with the glory of God; and they shone with the glory as Moses' face did when he came down from Sinai. The wicked could not look on them for the glory... {RH, July 21, 1851 par. 13}

What is this clothing? When do we get this clothing?

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." Gal. 5:22, 23. This fruit can never perish, but will produce after its kind a harvest unto eternal life. {COL 68.1}

"When the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come." Christ is waiting with longing desire for the manifestation of Himself in His church. When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own. {COL 69.1}

What happened to it? How do we get dressed in it now? Why was Christ' death necessary to dress us in this clothing?

TUESDAY

Read second paragraph, "A simple test..." thoughts

What does it mean "to see whether they would – in their freedom – obey the Lord"?

Did the Lord wonder? Did the Father look over to the Son and say, "Hey what do you think? Will they stay loyal or disobey? I don't know but I sure hope they stay loyal. What do you think the odds are?"

Was the tree put there “to see” if they would? Why was the tree put there?

Two reasons for the tree of knowledge – to protect – Satan could only approach at the tree - and develop them!

Our first parents, though created innocent and holy, were not placed beyond the possibility of wrongdoing. . . . They were to enjoy communion with God and with holy angels; but before they could be rendered eternally secure, their loyalty must be tested. At the very beginning of man's existence a check was placed upon the desire for self-indulgence, the fatal passion that lay at the foundation of Satan's fall. The tree of knowledge, which stood near the tree of life in the midst of the garden, was to be a test of the obedience, faith, and love of our first parents. While permitted to eat freely of every other tree, they were forbidden to taste of this, on pain of death. They were also to be exposed to the temptations of Satan; but if they endured the trial, they would finally be placed beyond his power, to enjoy perpetual favor with God. . . . {CC 13.2}

God might have created man without the power to transgress His law; He might have withheld the hand of Adam from touching the forbidden fruit; but in that case man would have been, not a free moral agent, but a mere automation. Without freedom of choice, his obedience would not have been voluntary, but forced. There could have been no development of character. . . . It would have been unworthy of man as an intelligent being, and would have sustained Satan's charge of God's arbitrary rule. {CC 13.3}

Could Adam and Eve have developed as individuals if they had no power to make choices for or against God?

If they would have not taken from the tree, endured the test, they would have been placed beyond Satan's power. What does this mean? What would have placed them beyond Satan's power?

- Would God have removed Satan from their presence and that is what places them beyond his power?
- What is Satan’s power? Lies, what puts them beyond this power?
 - Thinking through the issues and deciding for themselves and being so settled into the truth that they could not be moved. The tree, while a “test” was a tool for their development – without it, in the context of what was transpiring in the universe, they could never grow, develop and ultimately be secure.
 - What about today? What puts us beyond Satan’s power? “You will know the truth and the truth will set you free!” John 8:32. Life eternal is knowing God – John 17:3.
 - "Just as soon as the people of God are sealed in their foreheads--it is not any seal or mark that can be seen, but a settling into the truth, both intellectually and spiritually, so they cannot be moved--just as soon as God's people are sealed and prepared for the shaking, it will come. Indeed, it has begun already; the judgments of God are now upon the land, . . . that we may know what is coming. {FLB 287.7}
 - What settles us into the truth?

Thoughts?

What about after Adam and Eve sinned – what happened to the robe of light? Why did it disappear?

What was the source of this light?

Why were they barred from the tree of life? Was God punishing them? Or was it grace – what happens to a sinner who lives forever? Will they ever find peace, happiness, joy or would such a state be perpetual torture of soul? In barring the way was God punishing or in mercy preventing the experience of eternal suffering?

Why do some insist on presenting this as God punishing when he barred the way to the tree of life?

THURSDAY

Read memory text and then second paragraph, “First we...”

Thoughts? What do you think of the idea that if fig leaves were good enough that there would be “no need to kill innocent animals”?

Does inspiration ever say, anywhere, that God killed innocent animals for their skins to cover Adam and Eve? If God could speak animals into existence could He not speak animal skins into existence? Which is harder to create the living animal or the skin? Why do some insist God killed animals to clothe them?

What would it say about God if this were so?

Do we see God in the killing business? Is God the executioner of the universe? Why does sin result in death? Is it because God must kill or that sin destroys and unremedied sin results in death?

What about “our works would have been cheaper than the death of Christ.” Is it about “expense”? Did salvation have a “price tag” on it that required a “payment” to achieve the freedom for sinners?

Is it like C.S. Lewis’ depiction of the Lion Witch and the Wardrobe? The White Witch has enticed a “son of Adam” and now she has the “right” to his life and Aslan makes a deal with the White Witch to pay her the price of his life to save the “son of Adam”?

Is it true that it was at great cost that God provided salvation through Christ? Yes! Was there any other way to achieve our salvation? No!

So what do we mean when we use language of “expense” or “price”?

- Is it a payment like a mortgage payment?
- Is it a price like a prison sentence?
- Or does it mean something else?
- If a father donates a kidney to save his son, did he pay a “price” did it “cost” him? What was the price? Why was there a price? Was it a legally imposed price?

Read third paragraph, “Second, what’s...” thoughts? What do we mean by blood?

We heard in the sermon last week that the death of Christ was not to appease the Father – but what was it for? What was accomplished by Christ’s death? Why was “blood” necessary to save mankind? Who demanded “blood”?

If we had the shroud in which Christ was buried today, and we had the actual dried blood of Christ upon it, would this dried blood save us? Could we present this dried blood to God as our “price” to heaven? Or does the blood have to be fresh?

When we speak of being saved by the “blood” is it red corpuscles or is this language symbolic of something else? If so what?

Where is the blood applied? Who needs the blood?

Scripture tells us that “the life is in the blood” so the blood is representative of the life.

Jesus said that unless we eat His flesh and drink His blood we can have no part with Him. John 6

What does this mean?

“In the study of the Bible the converted soul eats the flesh and drinks the blood of the Son of God, which He himself interprets as the receiving and doing of His words, that are spirit and life.” Fundamentals of Christian Education 378.1

“The leaven of truth works a change in the whole man, making the coarse refined, the rough gentle, the selfish generous. By it [the truth] the impure are cleansed, washed in the blood of the Lamb.” Christ’s Object Lessons 102

What does the blood symbolize? Where does the truth and life of Christ get “applied” in reality? What does this application result in when it is applied to the heart/mind of a sinner? Would it be cleansing of the sinner's heart and mind from sin? Would it not be the reproduction of Christlike character within the sinner?

Where in the OT sanctuary service was the blood applied? If the blood represents the life and truth of Jesus the what is the meaning of the ministry of blood in the sanctuary service? What is it doing? Does God need the truth presented to Him? Who needs the truth and the character of Christ? Then wouldn't the OT system be a lesson book on God's plan to actually heal and transform the sinner and bring us back into at-one-ment with God?

What questions do you have about this?

WEDNESDAY

Read third paragraph, Notice too..." thoughts? What else is implied in the question from God? Isn't it that, "Adam who told you that you are naked? You didn't hear me saying anything did you? I am not the one criticizing, finding fault or making you feel insecure and uncomfortable. Adam that is what sin has done. You have been changed by it."

FRIDAY

Read top two paragraphs – what did we learn in the last two weeks which unlocks the symbolism of these quotes? (see COL quote under this week's Monday's lesson) What is actually going on when one is "clothed" with the robe of Christ's righteousness?

Read and discuss question 4

What is evil? What does evil look like? Is it red, horns and pitchfork? Or robes of light, priestly vestments, claiming to be your friend, while telling you lies about God? Which is most evil?

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 4 2Q 2011

The Coat of Different Colors

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs, "The seed (so to speak)... thoughts?"

How many believe it was wrong for Jacob to take more than one wife? How many think Jacob did not do wrong by taking more than one wife?

It seems obvious that Jacob should not have taken the two concubines – but what do you think about Jacob taking Rachel as his wife? What do you think he should have done after the deception practiced upon him?

Would you consider him married to Leah? Would marriage require informed consent to be considered married? What about in God's eyes – is it sex that makes one married? Is it the ceremony? Is it the voluntary commitment of two individuals to accept each other as husband and wife? Did Jacob actually do this with Leah?

Did Jacob marry Leah? When? When Jacob left the wedding ceremony and was on his way to the wedding tent, had he married Leah or Rachel? Who did he commit himself to be the husband of?

Did Jacob sin in having intimate relations with the sister of the woman he thought he was marrying?

What would you have done if you had been Jacob? Should he have returned Leah? Should he have stayed married to only Leah?

What would have happened to Leah in that society if Jacob would have said no? Is it likely she would have been shunned? Could she possibly have been expelled from her family with no inheritance, might she have been killed?

Where do we find in the scripture God chastising Jacob for having multiple wives?

Why do you think God didn't chastise him for it?

Was the sin Jacob's? Or was it Leah's and her father's? Was Jacob being merciful to this woman by not spurning her?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Life, as we all.." thoughts? How can one apply this knowledge effectively?

Where do each of us have the most power to actually effect change? Isn't over ourselves? If we change ourselves what will those around us do?

Read bottom pink section – what can we actually control? Can we control anything beyond our own choices?

The universe runs on such predictable laws that we sometimes get the illusion that we can control outcomes or even others, but can we?

Who was the first US President targeted by an assassin?
January 30, 1835, Andrew Jackson.

- Richard Lawrence, an unemployed house painter, approached Jackson as he left a congressional funeral held in the House chamber of the Capitol and shot at him.
- His gun misfired.
- Jackson, who was 67 at the time, repeatedly clubbed Lawrence with his walking cane.
- During the ensuing scuffle, Lawrence took another pistol out of his pocket and pulled the trigger. But that gun also misfired.

- Bystanders joined in, wrestling Lawrence to the ground and disarming him. One of them was Rep. Davy Crockett of Tennessee.
- In the 1930s, researchers at the Smithsonian Institution test fired Lawrence's derringer pistols. Both of them discharged normally on the first try.
 - <http://www.politico.com/news/stories/0108/8184.html>

Richard Lawrence could control purchasing the guns, loading the guns, going to the capital building, pulling out the guns, pointing the guns, pulling the trigger – but could he control whether they fired or not?

Can we control how things turn out? We control our choices – but because God's laws are so predictable and reliable we come to believe we can control outcomes – we can't!

This is what it means to live by faith – to choose to do, in governance of ourselves, that which is in harmony with God's laws, methods, principles and purposes for our lives and trust God with the outcome.

What has helped you be able to trust God with outcomes in your life?

What about the last sentence in the pink section, "Ask yourself, How might these choices impact others, and is that what I really want to see happen?"

- Is this the best basis for decision making?
"They won't like it. They might be mad. They might get their feelings hurt, or be upset..." is this the best basis for decision making?
- How do we fit in our awareness of others to our decision making? What is the balance?

MONDAY

Joseph and his brothers – how would you describe their relationship?

What contributed to the tensions?

Fourth paragraph, “Finally...” thoughts? How do you understand this?

Just as it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.” Romans 9:13

Thoughts?

- Did God not love Esau?
- Was God’s love for Jacob the reason Esau rebelled?
- What does it mean God loved Jacob but not Esau?

Could it be that Jacob was receptive to God’s love, so God’s was able to actively love Jacob, but Esau would not receive or respond to God’s love?

What about Jacob and his sons?

- Is it likely Jacob didn’t love his other sons?
- Is it possible Joseph was more receptive to God’s love and therefore, the natural result was a closer unity to anyone else who also had God’s love operating in their heart, thus a closer bond between Jacob and Joseph, than Jacob and the sons who were so obviously selfish?

Let’s turn to TUESDAY’s lesson and read second paragraph, “There was one...” thoughts?

- Could Joseph’s heart, character, disposition, have had anything to do with why he was closer to his father than the other sons?
- Do you think Jacob preferred to have 10 of his son’s he couldn’t trust?
- Would Jacob have preferred to have 10 sons just like Joseph?

What about God?

- Does God love some people more than others?
- Does our response to God have anything to do with how much of His love we experience and thus how close we are to Him?

I have found this to be true in my life. When I have travelled around the world and met people who worship a God of love, as Jesus revealed, who practice those principles in their lives – I have an automatic affinity for them, we are just closer than I am with people who don't share this perspective and love for God. Haven't you found this to be true as well?

So was Jacob at fault for the difference in loving closeness between the sons and himself?

In the third paragraph it states, "Whatever the father meant by giving Joseph the coat- and it could simply have been a token of love and nothing more – it was a big mistake, for it fanned even more the flames of hatred in the brother's hearts toward Joseph."

Thoughts?

- Does this mean when God blesses His faithful children and it fans the flames of jealousy in the wicked, stirring up persecution, that God made a mistake?
- Should God withhold blessings because He doesn't want those with selfish hearts to get jealous?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Not only..." thoughts?

Is this hard to imagine? Could anyone we know do this?

The teacher can do much to discourage that evil habit, the curse of the community, the neighborhood, and the home--the habit of backbiting, gossip, ungenerous criticism. In this no pains should be spared. Impress upon the students the fact that this habit reveals a lack of culture and refinement and of true goodness of heart; it unfits one both for the society of the truly cultured and refined in this world and for association with the holy ones of heaven. {Ed 235.3}

We think with horror of the cannibal who feasts on the still warm and trembling flesh of his victim; but are the results of even this practice more terrible than are the agony and ruin caused by misrepresenting motive, blackening reputation, dissecting character? Let the children, and the youth as well, learn what God says about these things: {Ed 235.4}

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue." Proverbs 18:21. {Ed 235.5}

Thoughts? Why is gossiping such a destructive behavior?

- How did the war begin in heaven?
- What happens in the minds of those who hear the gossip?
- What causes the gossip to be most influential?
- Does the esteem one holds for the person sharing the gossip cause it to be accepted more easily as fact?

What can we do to put a stop to the spread of rumor and gossip in our community? Can we commit to go to people directly and talk to them rather than "I got from a reliable source...?"

Second paragraph states, "The first thing the brothers talked about when they saw Joseph from afar was the dreams, which made their hatred for him grow." Thoughts?

- Why were the brothers mad? They didn't want to bow down to Joseph.
- What did they do to ensure they never would? Sold him as a slave.
- What did this result in? Joseph become ruler and them bowing down to him.
- What lesson is there in this?

Is there a lesson in trusting God with outcomes?

What happens when we try and plan and plot to ensure things turn out the way we want them?

- What if the brothers would have trusted God with how it turns out and merely went about choosing to govern themselves in harmony with God's principles?
- What would have happened?
- Would they have sold Joseph?

What about today?

- Should we try and plan and plot to ensure things turn out the way we want, or merely choose to practice God's methods in our lives and trust Him with how things turn out?
- Might that mean we go through a period of uncertainty? Joseph spent 13 years as a slave before he became ruler – during that time might he have had some uncertainty.

Why is it important to focus on developing healthy decision making in harmony with God's methods?

Each actor in history stands in his lot and place; for God's great work after His own plan will be carried out by men who have prepared themselves to fill positions for good or evil. In opposition to righteousness, men become instruments of unrighteousness. But they are not forced to take this course of action. They need not become instruments of unrighteousness, any more than Cain needed to. . . . {CC 371.2}

Men of all characters, righteous and unrighteous, will stand in their several positions in God's plan. With the characters they have formed, they will act their part in the fulfillment of history. In a crisis, just at the right moment, they will stand in the places they have prepared themselves to fill. Believers and unbelievers will fall into line as witnesses to confirm truth that they themselves do not comprehend. All will cooperate in accomplishing the purposes of God, just as did Annas, Caiaphas, Pilate, and Herod. In putting Christ to death, the priests thought they were carrying out their own purposes, but unconsciously and unintentionally they were fulfilling the purpose of God. {CC 371.3}

God looks into the tiny seed that He Himself has formed, and sees wrapped within it the beautiful flower, the shrub, or the lofty, wide-spreading tree. So does He see the possibilities in every human being. We are here for a purpose. God has given us His plan for our life, and He desires us to reach the highest standard of development. . . . {CC 371.4}

What plan does God have for your life?

What do you think caused the hatred the brothers had toward Joseph?

- Was it the dreams?
- Was it the coat?
- Was there something in Joseph that was the source of such hatred?
- What about Christ? What caused the hatred of Christ? Was there something in Christ that caused hatred?
- What was the source of their hatred?

Read last paragraph, “Thus, here...” thoughts?

- Was Joseph superior to his brothers?
- In what way?
- Was his character superior to theirs?
- How did Joseph become superior to his brothers?
- Was he born this way?

Read bottom pink section, thoughts?

- What does it mean to keep our emotions under the power of God?
- What is God’s power?
- How do we experience that power?
- The gospel is the power of God according to Paul.
- Zechariah states that it is not by might nor by power but by how the Spirit works.
- How do we get our emotions under the power of God?

- Truth and Love – we must examine our feelings in light of truth, keeping reason and good judgment in charge of decisions and actions, and practice God’s methods of other centered love.

EGW had comments on emotions:

- "It is through the Word—not feeling, not excitement—that we want to influence the people to obey the truth. On the platform of God’s Word we can stand with safety. The living Word is replete with evidence, and a wonderful power accompanies its proclamation in our world." MS 115, 1908; Selected Messages, vol. 3, pp. 372-375; portions in Selected Messages, vol. 2, pp. 43,44; VSS 290; LDE 93; "The Ralph Mackin Story," Review and Herald, Aug. 17, 1972
- "I am afraid of anything that would have a tendency to turn the mind away from the solid evidences of the truth as revealed in God’s Word. I am afraid of it; I am afraid of it. We must bring our minds within the bounds of reason, lest the enemy so come in as to set everything in a disorderly way. There are persons of an excitable temperament who are easily led into fanaticism; and should we allow anything to come into our churches that would lead such persons into error, we would soon see these errors carried to extreme lengths, and then because of the course of these disorderly elements, a stigma would rest upon the whole body of Seventh-day Adventists. . .
- "During the years of Christ’s ministry on earth, . . . The truth was proclaimed intelligently, and so plainly that all could understand. . . Now I am afraid to have anything of a fanatical nature brought in among our people. There are many, many who must be sanctified, but they are to be sanctified through obedience to the message of truth. I am writing on this subject today. In this message there is a beautiful consistency that appeals to the judgment. We cannot allow excitable elements among us to display themselves in a way that would destroy our influence with those whom we wish to reach with the truth. . . (compare 2SG 50; 1T 66; LS 215)

What was she afraid of? Anything that would turn the mind away from “solid evidence”. What might that be? What turns the mind away from evidence?

- Emotions
- Traditions
- Blind faith
- Allowing others to think for you
- Thinking patterns in which one refuses to test one’s ideas against the evidence -

THURSDAY

Read top paragraph, “How could they...” – thoughts?

- How could they?
- What led them to act this way?
- What happened to love in their hearts?
- What took over?

Do people go from good to evil in an instant?

- Peter's fall was not instantaneous, but gradual. Self-confidence led him to the belief that he was saved, and step after step was taken in the downward path, until he could deny his Master. Never can we safely put confidence in self or feel, this side of heaven, that we are secure against temptation. Those who accept the Saviour, however sincere their conversion, should never be taught to say or to feel that they are saved. This is misleading. Every one should be taught to cherish hope and faith; but even when we give ourselves to Christ and know that He accepts us, we are not beyond the reach of temptation. God's word declares, "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried." Dan. 12:10. Only he who endures the trial will receive the crown of life. (James 1:12.) {COL 155.1}

Thoughts about this? What does it mean? Should we experience security in our salvation? Should we live in doubt? What is the balance?

- Could it mean that we should not consider our self “fully” saved, i.e. cured – rather than rescued from a terminal state and partaking in the cure?
- If we accept the idea we are cured, when we are not, then we have a problem. But if we recognized we are not cured, but are daily participating with God in His treatment for our condition we can have confidence in the outcome.

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1, 3, 4

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 5 2Q 2011

The Priestly Garments of Grace

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “One great theme...” thoughts?

What does this mean? Did you notice how the lesson seemed to criticize those organizations which have a priesthood acting as earthly mediators?

What about our church? Do we believe in the priesthood of all believers? If so then:

- Why are women not ordained?
- Why are only ordained pastors allowed to be conference presidents?
- Why do we believe the truth must come through the seminary or those who have seminary training?
- Are all believers priests of God or just those with certain credentials?

What does the 1Tim 2:5 text mean there is “one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus”?

What does it mean to be a mediator?

- Go between
- Advocate
- Envoy
- Ambassador
- Representative

What is Christ’s role in mediation?

Who needs a mediator?

Do angels unfallen need a mediator?

“While we rejoice that there are worlds which have never fallen, these worlds render praise, and honor, and glory to Jesus Christ for the plan of redemption to save the fallen sons of Adam, as well as to confirm themselves in their position and character of purity. The arm that raised the human family from the ruin which Satan had brought upon the race through his temptations, is the arm which has preserved the inhabitants of other worlds from sin. Every world throughout immensity engages the care and support of the Father and the Son; and this care is constantly exercised for fallen humanity. Christ is mediating in behalf of man, and the order of unseen worlds also is preserved by his mediatorial work. Are not these themes of sufficient magnitude and importance to engage our thoughts, and call forth our gratitude and adoration to God?” {RH, January 11, 1881 par. 4}

What does this mean?

Does this change the way we think about mediation?

What does mediation mean? Is it not the work to bring reconciliation? What needs to be reconciled? What about the angels unfallen? How are they preserved by Christ’s mediatorial work?

Would it have anything to do with providing truth to destroy the lies which break the circle of love and trust? Would it have anything to do with restoring humanity to God’s original design?

TUESDAY

What is represented by the High Priest’s clothing?

Only in the Ephod, the curious girdle and the Breastplate of the High Priest do we find gold woven into the fabric.

Make the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen—the work of a skilled craftsman. ⁷ It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so it can be fastened. Exodus 28:6,7

What do these colors symbolize?

- Gold – God’s divine character of love
- Blue – heavenly origin
- Purple – royalty
- Scarlet – the sacrificed life of Christ
- Fine linen – perfect human character developed by Christ

What is symbolized by the shoulder pieces being joined together? Is it merely functional or symbolic?

From which tribe was the priesthood derived? What does the name Levi mean?

Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” So he was named Levi. Genesis 39:34

Levi means “joined together”.

The Levites were symbolic of what? The priesthood of believers, you and me:

And thy brethren also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou near with thee [High Priest], that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall be before the tent of the testimony... ⁴And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. Numbers 18:2,4

Are we to be joined to Christ?

Upon the shoulders of the Ephod were engraved the names of the 12 tribes in order of their birth. What does this symbolize?

The shoulders symbolize strength and that Christ strengthens and carries humanity on His shoulders.

As we continue the High Priest garments let's jump to WEDNESDAY and then back to complete Tuesday:

Read first paragraph Wednesday's lesson, "Of all the vestments..." thoughts?

What do you hear in the description, "breastplate of judgment"?

Is it a breastplate of a judicial proceeding or a breastplate to enhance, or provide, or enable good discernment or judgment?

Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions—the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen. Exodus 28:15 NIV.

Does it make a difference which way it is heard? What difference does it make?

If you are sick and go to the doctor, do you want a doctor with good judgment? A doctor who can make good judgments?

If you have to go to a place for judgment would you prefer to go to the doctor's office, who has the ability to heal whatever is wrong, for his examination and judgment or to the courtroom? Why?

Which of these two examples is closer to the reality of God's universe?

The Breast Plate was made from Gold and had 12 stones plus Urim and Thummin. On each stone was written the name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel and the breastplate was attached via four gold chains.

Is this symbolism or is Jesus in heaven wearing such an outfit?

Any significance in this symbolism? Can we understand any of the reality it was to signify?

The names written on the stones represent the people of God who are “sealed” or “set” in the character of God, gold breastplate, and close to the heart of God, who come from every nation, tribe and people.

The breastplate was attached via four gold chains what do these represent?

Christ's believing people are to perpetuate His love. This love is to draw them together around the cross. It is to divest them of all selfishness, and bind them to God and to one another. {CS 16.2}

Meet around the cross of Calvary in self-sacrifice and self-denial. God will bless you as you do your best. As you approach the throne of grace, as you find yourself bound to this throne by the golden chain let down from heaven to earth, to draw men from the pit of sin, your heart will go out in love for your brethren and sisters who are without God and without hope in the world.--9T 253-256. {CS 16.3}

Do you hear anything in this passage which would indicate what the golden chain is that binds us to God?

"These things I have spoken unto you," He said, "that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Christ did not fail, neither was He discouraged, and His followers are to manifest a faith of the same enduring nature. They are to live as He lived, and work as He worked, because they depend on Him as the great Master Worker. Courage, energy, and perseverance they must possess. Though apparent impossibilities obstruct their way, by His grace they are to go forward. Instead of deploring difficulties, they are called upon to surmount them. They are to despair of nothing, and to hope for everything. With the golden chain of His matchless love Christ has bound them to the throne of God. It is His purpose that the highest influence in the universe, emanating from the source of all power, shall be theirs.

They are to have power to resist evil, power that neither earth, nor death, nor hell can master, power that will enable them to overcome as Christ overcame. {DA 679.3}

What is the golden chain that binds us to God? What is the highest influence in the universe?

Thoughts?

What of the Urim and Thummin? What do these symbolize? Notice where they are found? They are found on the breastplate – where the stones representing the people of God are found, which is made of gold, representing the divine character, which the people of God now are settled into, and tied to God by the chains of His love. What then do these two stones symbolize?

The work of the Holy Spirit upon the conscience and minds of the believers investing them with spiritual gifts of discernment, insight, judgment, ability to know the right from the wrong.

The Lord answered him [Saul] not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 1 Sam. 28:6. {CC 171.1}

The Lord never turned away a soul that came to Him in sincerity and humility. Why did he turn Saul away unanswered? The king had by his own act forfeited the benefits of all the methods of inquiring of God. He had rejected the counsel of Samuel the prophet; he had exiled David, the chosen of God; he had slain the priests of the Lord. . . . He had sinned away the Spirit of grace, and could he be answered by dreams and revelations from the Lord? Saul did not turn to God with humility and repentance. It was not pardon for sin and reconciliation with God, that he sought, but deliverance from his foes. By his own stubbornness and rebellion he had cut himself off from God. There could be no return but by the way of penitence and contrition; but the proud monarch, in his anguish and despair, determined to seek help from another source. . . . It was told the king that a woman who had a familiar spirit was living in concealment at Endor. . . . Disguising himself, Saul went forth by night with but two attendants, to seek the retreat of the sorceress. . . .

{CC 171.2}

Thoughts?

The High Priest also had a blue robe:

And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue. ³²And it shall have a hole for the head in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it be not rent. ³³And upon the skirts of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the skirts thereof; and bells of gold between them round about: ³⁴a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the skirts of the robe round about. ³⁵And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and the sound thereof shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before Jehovah, and when he cometh out, that he die not. Exodus 28:31-38

Thoughts? What does this blue robe represent?

The High Priest also wore a white linen robe identical to the ones worn by the daily priests – does this give any clue?

What does the white linen robe represent? Perfect human character developed by Christ and given as a gift to all who accept it. Then what might the blue robe represent? His divine character, His divinity which was united with our humanity.

What about the bells and pomegranates? What do they represent attached to the blue robe?

- The bells are made of gold- gold represents God's perfect character of love – would the bells then be, the "sound" of Christ's love in action as He works as our High Priest to heal and cure mankind of sin?

- It is from heaven that Christ came thus the sound of His love originates in heaven – and He works as our High Priest in the sanctuary in heaven.
- What of the pomegranates? blue, scarlet and gold?
 - The pomegranate is a fruit full of seeds – seeds symbolize life. Christ is the Seed, Christ came to “seed” a new humanity built of His perfect character, originating in heaven and achieved through His sacrifice, from which all of His followers will spring.
 - If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal 3:29

The High Priest also wore a miter with a gold plate:

Exodus 28:36-38:

“Make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD. ³⁷ Fasten a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban. ³⁸ It will be on Aaron’s forehead, and he will bear the guilt involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It will be on Aaron’s forehead continually so that they will be acceptable to the LORD. ¹ NIV

And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLY TO JEHOVAH. ³⁷And thou shalt put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. ³⁸And it shall be upon Aaron’s forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before Jehovah. ² ASV

“Make an ornament of pure gold and engrave on it ‘Dedicated to the LORD’. ³⁷Tie it to the front of the turban with a blue cord.

¹ The Holy Bible : New International Version. 1996 (electronic ed.) (Ex 28:36–38). Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

² American Standard Version. 1995 (Ex 28:36–38). Oak Harbor, WA: Logos Research Systems, Inc.

³⁸Aaron is to wear it on his forehead, so that I, the LORD, will accept all the offerings that the Israelites dedicate to me, even if the people commit some error in offering them.³ GNT

What is represented by the golden plate?

Read last paragraph, "Notice, too..." thoughts? What does it mean for Jesus to bear our sins?

The guilt of fallen humanity He must bear. Upon Him who knew no sin must be laid the iniquity of us all. So dreadful does sin appear to Him, so great is the weight of guilt which He must bear, that He is tempted to fear it will shut Him out forever from His Father's love. Feeling how terrible is the wrath of God against transgression, He exclaims, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death." {DA 685.2}

What does it mean for Christ to be our sin Bearer? Does it mean recorded sin gets put upon Him and God metes out a certain amount of punishment upon Christ?

Notwithstanding that the sins of a guilty world were laid upon Christ, notwithstanding the humiliation of taking upon Himself our fallen nature, the voice from heaven declared Him to be the Son of the Eternal. {DA 112.3}

What does this mean?

The angels of heaven witnessed every movement made against their loved Commander. They longed to deliver Christ. Under God the angels are all-powerful. On one occasion, in obedience to the command of Christ, they slew of the Assyrian army in one night one hundred and eighty-five thousand men. How easily could the angels, beholding the shameful scene of the trial of Christ, have testified their indignation by consuming the adversaries of God! But they were not commanded to do this. He who could have doomed His enemies to death bore with their cruelty. His love for His Father, and His pledge, made from the foundation of the world, to become the Sin Bearer, led Him to endure uncomplainingly the coarse treatment of those He came to save. It was a part of His mission to bear, in His humanity, all the taunts and abuse that men could heap upon Him. The only hope of humanity was in this submission of Christ to all that He could endure from the hands and hearts of men. {DA 700.5}

³ American Bible Society. (1992). The Holy Bible : The Good news Translation (2nd ed.) (Ex 28:36–38). New York: American Bible Society.

Is this what it means to bear our sins?

Could it mean simply that he endured what our sinfulness brought with it and overcame restoring mankind to its perfect original ideal?

In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isaiah was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: {DA 597.5}

"Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa. 8:13-15; 28:16. {DA 598.1}

What was the purpose of these tests and trials which Christ was to bear? Why was He "bearing" it? Was it related to building the Temple in heaven?

Tell him this is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Here is the man whose name is the Branch, and he will branch out from his place and build the temple of the LORD. ¹³ It is he who will build the temple of the LORD, and he will be clothed with majesty and will sit and rule on his throne. And he will be a priest on his throne. And there will be harmony between the two.' Zechariah 6:12,13.

If the temple was already built, then why is the Branch (Christ) going to branch out to build the temple of the Lord?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Therefore, since...” thoughts?

What does this mean? Does it mean Jesus is more sympathetic than the Father? Does it mean that Jesus learned something that He or the Father didn't previously know or understand until Jesus became human?

Does it mean Jesus achieved something, in a human brain, that He previously didn't possess in His Godly form? What was that? A perfect humanity! Why is this significant?

- Remedy for human sinfulness
- Revelation of truth to destroy lies about God
- Evidence that Christ did not make a manufacturer's defect in creating mankind

Read second paragraph, “Because Christ resides...” Thoughts?

What does it mean “he ever lives to make intercession” for us? Where is Christ interceding?

- Our hearts and minds – Genesis 3
- Principalities and powers of darkness (angels holding back 4 winds of strife)
- In the course of sinfulness in mankind by becoming sin for us and curing our condition

What does it mean “we know that we stand perfect before God”?

The lesson points us to Heb 8:10-12:

This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord.
I will put my laws in their minds

- and write them on their hearts.
 I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.
- ¹¹ No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.
- ¹² For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.

Thoughts? Is this why we stand before God perfect – because Christ lives in us and writes His perfect law on our hearts and minds?

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, “As we saw yesterday...” thoughts? Who needed mediation? Why was it necessary? Is it God’s preference to have someone other than God speak to us directly? Who prefers it this way?

¹⁸ When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance ¹⁹ and said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die.”

²⁰ Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning.” Exodus 20:18-20

Thoughts? What is God’s preference? Is it not to speak to us face to face as with a friend? Why doesn’t He? Because we can’t endure it!

Christ was about to visit our world, and to become incarnate. He says, "A body hast Thou prepared Me." Had He appeared with the glory that was His with the Father before the world was, we could not have endured the light of His presence. That we might behold it and not be destroyed, the manifestation of His glory was shrouded. His divinity was veiled with humanity,--the invisible glory in the visible human form. {DA 23.1}

Why would men have been destroyed if Christ would have come with unveiled glory? Would it indicate anger and hostility on God's part? Would Jesus have had an unloving heart or was it that something is broken in sinful man that cannot survive in God's unveiled presence?

Will it be different when Christ comes a second time? Will sinful, unregenerate men now be able to live in God's unveiled presence without being destroyed?

FRIDAY

Read the two quotations on Friday - what do these mean to you?

How do you hear them? Could they be misunderstood? If so how?

Read and discuss questions 1-3

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph – “Jesus said...” thoughts?

Have we as SDA's been given much? Who in history sounds like us as a group?

- Sabbath
- Health message
- Sanctuary
- Gift of prophetic writings
- Looking for the Advent
- Tithes and offerings

Was it enough to know these truths? What was missing? Could persons know all these truths and still crucify Christ? How?

Do we need to understand what these truths tell us about God? If these truths are viewed through the lens of an arbitrary or punitive God then rather than blessings these become cursings and result in harder hearts. This is what happened two thousand years ago.

Could it happen again? What can we do to prevent ourselves from being caught up into a movement that places us as enemies of God?

Is it enough to worship on the “right” day? What is essential?

Read third paragraph, “However, and here’s...” thoughts? What is the lesson? What does it say about God that he works with people who make such mistakes? What if He didn’t? What should our attitude be toward people after they have sinned?

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 6 2Q 2011

Elijah's and Elisha's Mantle

SABBATH

Memory verse – 2 Cor 7:10 “Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death.”

Thoughts? What does it mean?

What is the difference between Godly sorrow and worldly sorrow?
Any examples?

Is Godly sorrow, sorrow for sin, sorrow for the wickedness in the heart, sorry for iniquity? And would worldly sorry be sorry for the consequences of sin?

"Godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. .." This is genuine repentance. It will lead to a transformation in the life. It is the absence of this true sorrow for sin that makes many conversions superficial. Reformations are not made in the life. But when sin is viewed in the light of the law of God, and its true character is realized, it will be put away from the heart and life. {RH, June 8, 1911 par. 10}

Thoughts? What does it mean to view sin in the light of God's law, to see its true character? What is the true character of sin?

How wide the difference between those schools taught by the prophets of God, and our modern institutions of learning! How few schools are to be found that are not governed by the maxims and customs of the world! ... Superficial talk, mere sentimentalism, passes for instruction in morals and religion. The justice and mercy of God, the beauty of holiness, and the sure reward of right-doing, the heinous character of sin, and the certainty of its terrible results, are not impressed upon the minds of the young. {CE 63.1}

There are but few who have an appreciation of the grievous character of sin, and who comprehend the greatness of the ruin that has resulted from the transgression of God's law. By examining the wonderful plan of redemption to restore the sinner to the moral image of God, we see that the only means for man's deliverance was wrought out by the self-sacrifice, and the unparalleled condescension and love of the Son of God. He alone had the strength to fight the battles with the great adversary of God and man, and, as our substitute and surety, he has given power to those who lay hold of him by faith, to become victors in his name, and through his merits. {CE 112.1}

What is the character of sin? What is the purpose of the plan of salvation? To restore the moral image of God in man!

Jump to Tuesday's lesson – Ahab wanted the vineyard of Naboth, Naboth would not sell. Jezebel laid a trap to kill Naboth and then Ahab took the vineyard. Elijah meets Ahab in the vineyard with a message, read third paragraph, “you shall speak...”

What do you think about this message? What does it mean? Why did God send this message to Ahab? Is God threatening Him? What is the God's goal for Ahab? Does God love Ahab? What does God want to see for Ahab? Does God want to see Ahab repent and be saved? Is this message from Elijah designed for this purpose?

And then read last paragraph, “When Ahab heard...” thoughts?

What about the “judgments” of God? What purpose do they serve? Are the judgments of God some infliction of “just desserts” on the wicked to make them pay? Or are they “God's judgments” i.e. What God judges will most likely bring people to repentance and salvation, or some action by God to protect, or to keep open the channels of blessings, or to save?

What about the judgment of no rain until Elijah gives word? Was this a punishment or a therapeutic intervention to heal and save?

It was only by the exercise of strong faith in the unfailing power of God's word that Elijah delivered his message. Had he not possessed implicit confidence in the One whom he served, he would never have appeared before Ahab. On his way to Samaria, Elijah had passed by ever-flowing streams, hills covered with verdure, and stately forests that seemed beyond the reach of drought. Everything on which the eye rested was clothed with beauty. The prophet might have wondered how the streams that had never ceased their flow could become dry, or how those hills and valleys could be burned with drought. But he gave no place to unbelief. He fully believed that God would humble apostate Israel, and that through judgments they would be brought to repentance. The fiat of Heaven had gone forth; God's word could not fail; and at the peril of his life Elijah fearlessly fulfilled his commission. Like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, the message of impending judgment fell upon the ears of the wicked king; but before Ahab could recover from his astonishment, or frame a reply, Elijah disappeared as abruptly as he had come, without waiting to witness the effect of his message. And the Lord went before him, making plain the way. "Turn thee eastward," the prophet was bidden, "and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee."
{PK 121.2}

When you think of God's judgments to you understand them as punishments for wickedness to exact proper recompense, or do you understand His judgments as wise interventions to resolve the sin problem and bring healing?

Does it make a difference?

Why did Elijah bring this message? How is this connected to:

“But before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes, I will send you the prophet Elijah. ⁶He will bring fathers and children together again; otherwise I would have to come and destroy your country.” Malachi 4:5,6

Who is this Elijah of Malachi 4?

Read top paragraph FRIDAY,

“Elijah, who had been translated to heaven without seeing death, represented those who will be living upon the earth at Christ's second coming, and who will be "changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump;" when "this mortal must put on immortality," and "this corruptible must put on incorruption." 1 Cor. 15:51-53. Jesus was clothed with the light of heaven, as He will appear when He shall come "the second time without sin unto salvation." For He will come "in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." Heb. 9:28; Mark 8:38.” DA 422.

What is the message this Elijah is to bring? What did the first Elijah do? Do we have a similar role to play?

Elijah gave a message calling people back from idolatry to the true God and went to heaven without seeing death.

We are told that Elijah will present again a message before the coming of the Lord and those who give it will then be translated without seeing death – (maybe not every individual but as a group/generation).

Elijah confronted idolatry, notice the dynamics of that day:

Religious leaders in Elijah’s day were leading people to worship Baal.

- Do you think the prophets and priests of Baal thought they were worshipping a false god?

- Do you think they were thinking, “Let’s lead these people to worship a false god?” Or did they actually believe Baal was the true God?

The religious leaders, with their position, prestige, and conviction of heart, deceived the people of God into worshipping Baal.

What was the problem with worshipping Baal?

What made Baal a false God? Was it that the word “Baal” was the wrong group of letters pronounced when worshipping God? Was it because they were not saying Yahweh? Was it something else?

The Hebrew noun ba'al means ‘master’, ‘possessor’ or ‘husband’. Used with suffixes, e.g. Baal-peor or Baal-berith, the word may have retained something of its original sense; but in general Baal is a proper name in the OT, and refers to a specific deity, Hadad, the W Semitic storm-god, the most important deity in the Canaanite pantheon. ¹

Yahweh was ‘master’ and ‘husband’ to Israel, and therefore they called him ‘Baal’, in all innocence; but naturally this practice led to confusion of the worship of Yahweh with the Baal rituals, and it became essential to call him by some different title; Hosea (2:16) proposed ’iš, another word meaning ‘husband’.²

The phenomena associated with thunderstorms were closely linked to Baal. Baal was said to appoint the season of rains. Clouds were thought to be part of his entourage. Lightning was his weapon, and it may have been his invention. The windows of Baal’s palace were thought to correspond to openings in the clouds through which rain flowed. Rain was important to Canaanite agriculture, and Baal was consequently a god of fertility—a prodigious lover as well as the giver of abundance.

¹ Wood, D. R. W., & Marshall, I. H. (1996). New Bible dictionary (3rd ed.) (108). Leicester, England; Downers Grove, Ill.: InterVarsity Press.

² Wood, D. R. W., & Marshall, I. H. (1996). New Bible dictionary (3rd ed.) (108). Leicester, England; Downers Grove, Ill.: InterVarsity Press.

The Ugaritic literature preserves a cycle of myths in which Baal is the protagonist. They tell of his battle against Lotan (Leviathan) and of his struggles against other adversaries called Yamm (Sea) and Mot (Death). The struggle between Baal and Yamm has left its mark on Israelite literature in the form of stories about and allusions to Yahweh's encounters with watery enemies (e.g., Isa. 51:9b-10; Ps. 74:13). Through his struggles, Baal achieves the first rank among the gods. Along the way Baal perishes and revives, providing the Ugaritic literature with stirring themes and dramatic moments.³

What was the problem with worshipping a god who controlled thunder and lightening, who brought rain, sunshine, fertility, blessed with full harvest, who warred against the great serpent and death, who died and was resurrected? What was wrong with this god?

What was Elijah opposing? Is there a lesson for us if we are to give the Elijah message at this time to recognize what was wrong that caused this worship to be false?

Was it that Baal represented the characteristics of Satan's version of God? What would be central to that?

Determined to keep the people in deception, the priests of Baal continue to offer sacrifices to their gods and to call upon them night and day to refresh the earth. With costly offerings the priests attempt to appease the anger of their gods; with a zeal and a perseverance worthy of a better cause they linger round their pagan altars and pray earnestly for rain. Night after night, throughout the doomed land, their cries and entreaties arise. But no clouds appear in the heavens by day to hide the burning rays of the sun. No dew or rain refreshes the thirsty earth. The word of Jehovah stands unchanged by anything the priests of Baal can do. {PK 124.2}

³ Achtemeier, P. J., Harper & Row, P., & Society of Biblical Literature. (1985). Harper's Bible dictionary (1st ed.) (84–85). San Francisco: Harper & Row.

What caused Baal to be false? Is it false to worship the creator? The giver of life? The conqueror of death? The sacrificial God? The God who wars against the great serpent? The God of the weather?

What about Malachi's prophecy regarding Elijah returning? Will we face a similar problem, a god construct, taught by religious leaders, in which people are led to believe that the god who controls the weather, the god who blesses with fertility and abundance, the god who fights against the great serpent and death, the god who died and rose again, also requires appeasement or payment in order to be just? Could this be the very lie we are to confront as Elijah did? Could those who confront this lie be the ones translated without seeing death?

Is it wrong to worship a god who must be appeased? One who requires payment? One who must have sacrifice to assuage his wrath? Is this not the heart of pagan worship and what Elijah is supposed to oppose?

Thousands have a false conception of God and His attributes. They are as verily serving a false god as were the servants of Baal. Are we worshiping the true God as He is revealed in His Word, in Christ, in nature, or are we adoring some philosophical idol enshrined in His place? God is a God of truth. Justice and mercy are the attributes of His throne. He is a God of love, of pity and tender compassion. Thus He is represented in His Son, our Saviour. He is a God of patience and long-suffering. If such is the being whom we adore and to whose character we are seeking to assimilate, we are worshiping the true God. {FLB 59.8}

Elijah was sent with a message that Baal is false, the true God is not like this. The proponents of the false god, outnumbered the people of God and sought their destruction.

God empowered His representative to stand firm and call to account the leaders who misrepresented Him and led the people to believe in a god who required payment and sacrifice to appease.

Do we find any parallels today? Has the idea that God requires blood to be forgiving entered Christian thought? Has the idea that Jesus died to appease the wrath of God or to assuage the wrath of God entered Christian thought? Has the idea that God requires a legal payment entered Christian thought? Is this part of what the Elijah message is to oppose?

Here is a statement from a paper called, "A Call to Evangelical Unity," from Christianity Today, June 14, 1999:

- We affirm that the atonement of Christ by which, in his obedience, he offered a perfect sacrifice, propitiating the Father by paying for our sins and satisfying divine justice on our behalf according to God's eternal plan, is an essential element of the Gospel.

Recently a book was recommend to shed light on what some believe are deficiencies in our class. Here are some excerpts from this book:

"Paul always speaks of people being reconciled to God (2Cor 5:19; Rom 5:10; Col. 1:20). He never refers to God being reconciled to us. In spite of that fact, however, we should recognize that sin affected both sides. Humanity's rebellion and sense of guilt alienated it from God, while God was separated from humankind by His necessary hatred of and judgment on sin (His wrath). Christ's sacrificial death (propitiation) removed the barrier to reconciliation from God's side." Knight, The Cross of Christ, p. 74.

"Leon Morris writes that *if God's 'wrath is regarded as a very real factor so that the sinner is exposed to its severity, then the removal of the wrath will be an important part of our understanding of salvation.' Of course, 'if we diminish the part played by divine wrath we shall not find it necessary to think seriously of propitiation.' Thus Morris comments in another connection, ‘if people are to be forgiven, then the fact of that wrath must be taken into consideration. It does not fade away by being given some other name or regarded as an impersonal process.’ In other words, Gods’ wrath must be propitiated or turned away from the sinner. That was one aim of Christ’s self-sacrifice on the cross.” Ibid p 64.

Here is from the SDA 27 Fundamental Beliefs:

“Christ’s self-sacrifice is pleasing to God because this sacrificial offering took away the barrier between God and sinful man in that Christ fully bore God’s wrath on man’s sin. Through Christ, God’s wrath is not turned into love but is turned away from man and borne by Himself.” SDA 27 fundamental beliefs page 111.

“For a loving God to maintain His justice and righteousness, the atoning death of Jesus Christ became ‘a moral and legal necessity.’ God’s ‘justice requires that sin be carried to judgment. God must therefore execute judgment on sin and thus on the sinner. In this execution the Son of God took our place, the sinner’s place, according to God’s will. Ibid.

And this has led to theologians writing things like this:

“Why did God the Father choose a cross to be the instrument of death? Why did He not choose to have Christ instantly beheaded or quickly run through with a spear or sword? Was God unjust in executing judgment on Christ with a cross when He could have done it by beheading, a noose, a sword, a gas chamber, a bolt of lightning, or a lethal injection?”

(<http://www.ministrymagazine.org/archive/2007/February/sinners-in-the-hands-of-god.html>).

Angel Rodriguez said in December 2007 World Review “One of the fundamental problems of the Moral Influence Theory is that it rejects the substitutionary nature of Christ’s death. The idea that God had to kill the innocent instead of the guilty in order to save us is considered a violation of justice.” (p 40, emphasis mine).

Did God choose to execute His Son on the Cross? Or was this done at the instigation of Satan and unholy men? Is God the source of killing, execution and death or does death arise from sin?

Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. Isa 53:4

Did God afflict Him, or did Isaiah prophecy we would misunderstand and attribute to God the murder of Christ?

What did Jesus say about what His Father did to Him? “My God, My God why have you forsaken my?”

What about EGW, who actually killed Christ?

Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. {DA 761.2}

Did God execute His Son? No! Does Elijah need to stand up and oppose this view of God?

What about the idea that God needed to be appeased or have His wrath assuaged?

“The atonement of Christ was not made in order to induce God to love those whom he otherwise hated; it was not made to produce a love that was not in existence; but it was made as a manifestation of the love that was already in God's heart, an exponent of the divine favor in the sight of heavenly intelligences, in the sight of worlds unfallen, and in the sight of a fallen race. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." We are not to entertain the idea that God loves us because Christ has died for us, but that he so loved us that he gave his only-begotten Son to die for us. The death of Christ was expedient in order that mercy might reach us with its full pardoning power, and at the same time that justice might be satisfied in the righteous substitute.” {ST, May 30, 1895 par. 6}

Is the message of Elijah that is to lighten the world a confrontation with paganism even more insidious than the original Elijah faced? And do we have a message which will demolish all of the false god concepts being taught?

Would it be wrong to consider this message, the final message to lighten the world for Christ's return is the message about God's character of love which will confront paganism.

“It is the darkness of misapprehension of God that is enshrouding the world. Men are losing their knowledge of His character. It has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At this time a message from God is to be proclaimed, a message illuminating in its influence and saving in its power. His character is to be made known. Into the darkness of the world is to be shed the light of His glory, the light of His goodness, mercy and truth...The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is the revelation of His character of love.” Christ's Object Lessons, p.415

SUNDAY

We have the Mt Carmel experience of 1 Kings 18, where Elijah confronts the prophets of Baal, calls fire down, has the prophets of Baal slaughtered and then ran ahead of Ahab's chariot for 20 miles! Then what happens – fear, panic, discouragement after being threatened by Jezebel.

Elijah runs away, later Jezebel is killed and eaten by dogs.

What do we learn from this?

Satan is a blowhard – Satan threatens, intimidates, makes noise to get us to doubt our position, standing, safety, security, to turn our mind's attention away from our mission and back onto ourselves.

Peter, while looking to Christ was walking on water, when he looked to self to show the others, look at me, he sank.

We must fix our eyes on Christ – keep our focus on mission, trust God with how things turn out, with our reputation and keep fulfilling our duty to the best of our ability.

Elijah, ran trying to save self – rather than trusting God with His life.

This is easy for me to say, thousands of years downstream and not in that situation – it is much harder to do. This is the battle with which we all struggle, how to stay surrendered to Christ, trusting Him with how things turn out in the face of threats of various kinds!

Elijah ends up at a cave and while there he sees a great wind, an earthquake and a fire – but the Lord was not in any of these. Then he hears the sound of the still small voice, and the Lord was in this.

What does this mean? What lessons do we learn from this?

- God is not found in the great shows of thunder, fire, and miracles
- God does not want to reach us through “shock and awe” Why not?
- God prefers the still small voice, why?

What happens to thinking and reasoning when we are shocked and awed? What happens to capacity to comprehend, understand, develop? What happens to love?

What does God want for us? Can His goals for us be accomplished through the exercise of might and power?

Bottom pink section asks, “How can we learn to recognize the still small voice?”

WEDNESDAY

Read top paragraph, “Whatever one can...” thoughts?

How did Elijah leave earth? In a chariot of fire – what does this mean? What lessons do we learn?

In Daniel 7 when God takes His throne what flows out from Him? Rivers of fire.

Did Elijah get hurt in the fire? Or the intelligent beings in Daniel 7?

What is the source of this fire? Why didn't it destroy Elijah?

Is the fire harmful? What about the fire that at the end of time – is it different?

Does the fire in which the wicked are consumed cause suffering and pain? Or does their unhealed sinful condition cause the suffering, pain and ultimate death?

Is God the source of life? What is the cause/source of death?

If you were Satan who would you try and get people to believe is the source of death?

What about the idea that it really doesn't matter whether God inflicts the death of the wicked by raining fire upon them, or He merely lets them reap the consequences of sin in the fire, God is the one who designed the system in which they die so God is ultimately causing it?

Who designed the system in which sin could arise? God, did God cause sin? Then can God create a system in which certain things occur which He did not want, choose or cause? Like sin and the death of the wicked in the end!

We must stop casting God in the role of cosmic executioner – how can we fulfill our mission to lighten the world for Christ's return if we don't present the truth about God's character of love!

THURSDAY

Read top dark section:

Was there something magical about the mantle? Did the mantle possess some supernatural power?

What if someone were to discover in a sealed clay jar, the actual mantle of Elijah and Elisha today? What would happen?

Do you think people touching it would experience miraculous healing? Do you think this would lead to greater understanding and enlightenment regarding God and His kingdom?

Read last paragraph, "In the end.." thoughts? What does this mean? What is faith, where does it derive?

What helps you strengthen your faith?

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 7 2Q 2011

In the Shadow of His Wings

What comes to mind from the lesson title?

- What does the eaglet feel in the shadow of the eagle's wing?
- What does the field mouse feel in the shadow of the eagle's wings?

Do some people relate to God like the eaglet? When they think of being under His wings they feel safe and secure.

Do others feel like the field mouse, terrified, afraid and looking for a place to hide – just like Adam and Eve?

Does the eagle have a different attitude toward the eaglet and field mouse?

Does God have a different attitude toward those who love Him and those who don't? If so what would that difference be?

Does God love one and hate the other? Does God want to protect the one and destroy the other?

Would God's attitude difference be more like the eagle toward the eaglet and field mouse – or would God's attitude difference be more like a parent who has one child with leukemia and one child who is healthy? Does the child with leukemia get many more restrictions, interventions, attentions, and treatments from the parent?

What lessons can we derive from the eagle? What do you think an eagle looked like before sin?

SUNDAY

Read third paragraph, "At the pinnacle..." thoughts? What is the significance of understanding this point?

As we approach the end of sinful earth, the events leading to the second coming – where is the battle between good and evil fought? Is it in the mind?

What weapons are used? How does Satan get us to miss this point?

Is the battle of Armageddon fought with tanks, artillery, jets, nuclear weapons – or is it a battle for the mind? What will this battle center upon? (2Cor 10:3-5).

The lesson reports that after David's sin with Bathsheba he attempted to "cover" his sin in various ways – what ways?

- Having Uriah come home to sleep with his wife
- Having Uriah murdered

Why do we attempt to "cover" our sin? What motivates us to act in this way? Is it fear? Fear of what? What is the source of this fear?

As soon as Adam and Eve sinned they ran and hid because they were afraid – where did that fear originate? Did God do something to incite this fear?

During that long time spent in communion with God, the face of Moses had reflected the glory of the divine Presence; unknown to himself his face shown with a dazzling light when he descended from the mountain. ... Aaron as well as the people shrank away from Moses, and "they were afraid to come nigh him." Seeing their confusion and terror, but ignorant of the cause, he urged them to come near. He held out to them the pledge of God's reconciliation, and assured them of His restored favor. They perceived in his voice nothing but love and entreaty, and at last one ventured to approach him. Too awed to speak, he silently pointed to the countenance of Moses, and then toward heaven. The great leader understood his meaning. In their conscious guilt, feeling themselves still under the divine displeasure, they could not endure the heavenly light, which, had they been obedient to God, would have filled them with joy. There is fear in guilt. The soul that is free from sin will not wish to hide from the light of heaven. {PP 329.5}

Did God do something to incite the fear the Israelites experienced at Sinai? Where does the fear originate?

What does the fear cause one to do?

What are we afraid of in the aftermath of sin? Are we afraid of reprisal, embarrassment, rejection, punishment, exaction, hostility, animosity?

Are we generally more afraid of the natural consequences of sin or the perceived imposed consequences?

- Is the child more afraid of teeth rotting from not brushing or a spanking?
- Is the drug addict generally more afraid of destroyed brain and health or going to prison?
- Is the child molester generally more afraid of the destruction of their character or going to prison?
- Is the sinner generally more afraid of how sin damages and destroys them or the perceived idea that God will inflict punishment?

Does society, including Christianity, distort the reality of what we are to fear?

Was there any reason, in fact, for Adam and Eve to fear God? Did God have any attitude to harm Adam and Eve? Did the children of Israel at Sinai have any reason, in fact, to fear God?

Did Adam and Eve have reasons to fear what sinfulness was doing to them?

Does Satan work to get us to place on God the consequences of what sin does?

Could the fear we experience of God all be based in lies, distortions and misunderstandings?

If you were to commit a sin – would you have fear? If not fear of God would you fear people finding out? Why?

- We wouldn't need to fear if members of our own church were to find out about our sin would we?
- No member of the church would use knowledge of a historic sin to injure another member of the church would they?
- What does it mean when this happens? If you find out a pastor has been divorced and remarried – what do you think?
- If you find out an evangelist was once a drug addict – after he finished seminary – what do you think?
- If you find out a deacon once had an intimate relationship outside of wedlock, what do you think?
- What should we think? How should we act?

Are there reasons, based on experience in our society, that teach people to “cover” their sins?

Is there a difference between David's effort to “cover” his sin and God's “covering” of our sin? – see TUESDAY

TUESDAY

Memory verse: “Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.” Ps 32:1.

When you hear the word “cover” what do you think?

- If someone says get under cover – it means?
 - In the military concealment means to hide, cover means to get behind something that offers protection

- If someone says to a friend, who forgot their wallet at a restaurant, “Don’t worry I’ll cover it” what does it mean?
- If someone says, “I’m going to be in so much trouble with the boss for being late.” And their friend says, “Don’t worry I’ve got you covered.” What does it mean?
- If a person is in combat and their commander says, “run I’ll cover you.” What does it mean?

How is God’s covering of our sin different that our covering of our sin?

When man attempts to “cover” his sin what is he attempting to do? Is he attempting to “hide” or cover-up his sin, to conceal it, to prevent it from being known?

Is that what God does when God “covers” our sin? Does He cover over it, conceal it, cover it up? Is the plan of salvation the great “cover-up?”

Or is God’s “covering” just like in the military a protection from sin rather than a concealment of sin?

Is God’s covering the opposite of human covering, where human’s attempt to hide, God’s covering requires full exposure. What did David actually pray when he pursued God’s “covering?”

“Search me and see the wicked way in me...” does this sound like a covering over? And “create in me a clean heart oh God...”

The sinner covers over an infection without treating it, or providing remedy, God covers by exposing and curing, recreating, regenerating so the infection of sinfulness in the heart is gone.

Or do you think the last paragraph says it more clearly, “God does not overlook...” thoughts?

I received an email this week from a class member who came across a quotation which was difficult to understand and made God sound like a harsh judge. He asked how do we understand it.

The Lord Jesus Christ has prepared a covering--the robe of His own righteousness--that He will put on every repenting, believing soul who by faith will receive it. Said John, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). Sin is the transgression of the law. Christ died to make it possible for every man to have his sins taken away. {Upward Look 378.2}

A fig-leaf apron will never cover our nakedness. Sin must be taken away, and the garment of Christ's righteousness must cover the transgressor of God's law. Then when the Lord looks upon the believing sinner, He sees, not the fig leaves covering him, but Christ's own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. Man has hidden his nakedness, not under a covering of fig leaves, but under the robe of Christ's righteousness. {UL 378.3}

Christ has made a sacrifice to satisfy the demands of justice. What a price for Heaven to pay to ransom the transgressor of the law of Jehovah. Yet that holy law could not be maintained with any smaller price. In the place of the law being abolished to meet sinful man in his fallen condition, it has been maintained in all its sacred dignity. In His Son, God gave Himself to save from eternal ruin all who would believe in Him. {UL 378.4}

Sin is disloyalty to God, and [is] deserving of punishment. Fig leaves sewed together have been employed since the days of Adam, yet the nakedness of the soul of the sinner is not covered. All the arguments pieced together by all who have interested themselves in this flimsy robe will come to nought. Sin is the transgression of the law. Christ was manifest in our world to take away transgression and sin, and to substitute for the covering of fig leaves the pure robes of His righteousness. The law of God stands vindicated by the suffering and death of the only begotten Son of the infinite God. {UL 378.5}

The transgression of God's law in a single instance, in the smallest particular, is sin. And the nonexecution of the penalty of that sin would be a crime in the divine administration. God is a judge, the Avenger of justice, which is the habitation and the foundation of His throne. He cannot dispense with His law; He cannot do away with its smallest item in order to meet and pardon sin. The rectitude, justice, and moral excellence of the law must be maintained and vindicated before the heavenly universe and the worlds unfallen.--Manuscript 145, Dec. 30, 1897, "Notes of Work." {UL 378.6}

Thoughts?

How do we understand such language? Is this literal? Is it metaphorical or some other imagery? Let's break it down to its constituent parts and see what it means.

Sin is what?

- Transgression of the law?
- Which means what?
- What law?
- What does it mean to transgress?
 - If someone jumps off a building does gravity act differently or is it constant? Would this be an example of transgressing the law?
 - If someone ties a plastic bag over their head, will the law of respiration act differently? Is this an example of transgression of the law?

What about the law of love?

- How do you understand it?
- Is it something arbitrary that God enacted and imposed and now enforces or is it the construction protocol upon which God built life to operate?
- And if one transgresses that protocol what happens?

What is justice? Doing what is right or just?

- What determines the standard of justice?
- Is it not the law of the realm?
- And what is the law of God's realm?
- Is it not the law of love?

- Then what does justice look like in God's realm?

With these points in mind, what does this paragraph mean:

Christ has made a sacrifice to satisfy the demands of justice. What a price for Heaven to pay to ransom the transgressor of the law of Jehovah. Yet that holy law could not be maintained with any smaller price. In the place of the law being abolished to meet sinful man in his fallen condition, it has been maintained in all its sacred dignity. In His Son, God gave Himself to save from eternal ruin all who would believe in Him. {UL 378.4}

- What did justice demand?
- What does the phrase "the holy law could not be maintained..." mean? Or what does "the law could not be abolished to meet sinful man" mean, why not?
- Why did it have to be maintained? Because the law is the design protocol for life, it is the way God built life to operate, it cannot be changed and life continue.
- Therefore, justice demanded that the sinner be restored to harmony with the law! Christ's death was the means whereby God could actually accomplish this outcome. Notice this statement:

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}

What does the law demand? What does justice look like?

What about this section, how do we understand it:

Sin is disloyalty to God, and [is] deserving of punishment. Fig leaves sewed together have been employed since the days of Adam, yet the nakedness of the soul of the sinner is not covered. All the arguments pieced together by all who have interested themselves in this flimsy robe will come to nought. Sin is the transgression of the law. Christ was manifest in our world to take away transgression and sin, and to substitute for the covering of fig leaves the pure robes of His righteousness. The law of God stands vindicated by the suffering and death of the only begotten Son of the infinite God. {UL 378.5}

Is sin disloyalty to God? Yes, God is love, sin is violation of the law of love. It is not maintaining faithfulness to the law of love which is disloyalty. What does it mean, sin is deserving of punishment?

- If someone jumps off a tall building is that act deserving of pain and suffering, and possibly death?
- If someone is shot in the chest with a bullet is that deserving of pain, suffering and possibly death?
- Now does this mean such pain and suffering is a requirement, even though it is deserving? If someone jumped off a building, it would be deserving of punishment, but what if someone intervened and inflated a landing cushion to save them? Or what if the person shot in the chest had been given a bullet proof vest?
- Must every sin be punished? Who urged that idea? Satan did – DA 761 – but Romans tells us that God left the sins committed beforehand “unpunished.” (3:25).

- Sin is deserving of punishment, just like jumping off a building is deserving of pain and suffering, but what if someone intervenes to save, can the punishment be averted?

What was Christ manifested to do?

- Take away our transgressions – what does this mean?
- Take them away from where?
- Is it to take them away from history, to change historical fact so that David never had an affair with Bathsheba, and subsequently never murdered Uriah, and therefore Solomon and all his children were never born (including Christ), Absalom didn't rebel and die etc.
- Does Christ take our transgressions away from history?
- From where does He remove our transgressions?
- Is it not from our characters, minds, hearts, motives, cleansing us and healing us?

He came to remove transgression from the sinner by writing His law in our hearts and minds!

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. .. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

What does this covering sound like? A cover up or a cure?

And what about the final paragraph:

The transgression of God's law in a single instance, in the smallest particular, is sin. And the nonexecution of the penalty of that sin would be a crime in the divine administration. God is a judge, the Avenger of justice, which is the habitation and the foundation of His throne. He cannot dispense with His law; He cannot do away with its smallest item in order to meet and pardon sin. The rectitude, justice, and moral excellence of the law must be maintained and vindicated before the heavenly universe and the worlds unfallen.--Manuscript 145, Dec. 30, 1897, "Notes of Work." {UL 378.6}

What does this mean? What would the non-execution of the penalty of sin mean? What is the result of transgression of the law upon which life was built to operate? What is the penalty? What did God tell Adam and Eve would happen? Death.

And Christ who knew no sin became sin for us so that we might become the righteousness of God – what does this mean? Christ took up our infirmities – what does this mean? Christ united His divinity with our humanity in order to destroy the carnal nature and develop a perfect human character which He offers to all of us.

Thus in Jesus, at the cross, He destroyed the infection of sin, destroyed the carnal nature and perfectly restored the law of love into His humanity, developing a perfect character and thus rose again on the third day.

If it was a legal, courtroom, type of penalty rather than a fixing, healing, process, then the penalty for sin is not paid because Christ is not eternally dead.

But because the penalty is death for that which is out of harmony with the law life is built upon, Christ was able to take upon Himself our defective and terminal condition, take that condition to the grave, leave that condition in the grave and rise again in a purified humanity!

What does it mean to be the Avenger of justice – again what is justice? Is it not doing what the law of love demands? And avenger means to take vengeance. Can we let the Bible guide us on this or must we insist on human understanding of vengeance?

Therefore the Lord, the LORD Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: “Ah, I will get relief from my foes and avenge myself on my enemies. ²⁵ I will turn my hand against you; I will thoroughly purge away your dross and remove all your impurities. Isaiah 1:24,25

The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, ² to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, ³ and provide for those who grieve in Zion— to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. Isa 61:1-3

What is the vengeance of God? Turning enemies into friends – His vengeance is not on sinners but on sinfulness. He attacks and destroys sin! This is His vengeance which purges and cleanses the sinner! The greatest vengeance God can have on Satan is healing and restoring all those who trust Him!

Thoughts?

MONDAY

What do you think about this sentence in the third paragraph, “David’s sin is covered, but the child conceived in sin must die.”

Now the child did die, but I don’t follow the idea of the “child conceived in sin must die” what are they trying to say?

Which of us in this room were not conceived in sin and born in iniquity? Is the lesson trying to help us understand that all of us born in sin, “must die” unless we are reborn?

WEDNESDAY

The lesson is about being whiter than snow and purging from sin – what does this mean?

What does God purge? Is it not sinners? And how does He do it?

Would it not be through the truth and relationship with Christ?

Isaiah 1:18 – come let us reason together.... Is there a connection with reasoning with God and cleansing from sin? What?

Read last paragraph, “God does...” thoughts

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Some eagles...” thoughts? From where is sin blotted out?

Was David responsible for the consequences of his sin? Was he responsible for how his children acted or responded? Were they forbidden from forgiving their father, for being gracious? Did they have no responsibility or choice in the matter?

What about today? When we sin does it have consequences? Yes, what is the balance between the consequences from sin and our freedom to choose?

Are there choices we can make to stop the consequences of sin? What about forgiving others? What about loving the sinners among us like Christ loves us?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 2 and 4

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 8 2Q 2011

Garments of Splendor

SABBATH

Read memory text, Isaiah 61:10 – thoughts?

If you lived in Isaiah’s day what might this message have meant to you?

- Did the people in the OT put on a different garment of salvation than we put on?
- Did the people in the OT put the garment on differently?
- What is the garment of salvation?
- How do we put on the garment of salvation?

Let’s turn to Zechariah chapter 3:

3 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right side to accuse him.

Who are the characters in this plot?

- Who does Joshua represent?
- Who is the angel of the Lord?
 - Read Exodus 3:1-6:

Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. ² There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. ³ So Moses thought, “I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up.”

⁴ When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses! Moses!”

And Moses said, "Here I am."

⁵ "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." ⁶ Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

- And Satan is obviously himself

² The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?"

Who is speaking to Satan? The Lord, also known as the angel of the Lord. And which member of the Godhead is this? Jesus!

What is happening here? Why is the Lord rebuking Satan?

³ Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. ⁴ The angel said to those who were standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes."

Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have taken away your sin, and I will put rich garments on you."

⁵ Then I said, "Put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.

⁶ The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: ⁷ "This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements, then you will govern my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.'

⁸ " 'Listen, O high priest Joshua and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch.

What does this mean?

In what is Joshua originally dressed? Who is accusing? Why is the devil accusing? How did Joshua get dressed in such filthy clothes? Did Joshua choose to wear such clothing? Did Joshua dress himself in such clothing? Was Joshua born with such clothing?

Who is defending Joshua? From whom is Christ defending him? Have you ever heard Jesus pleads to the Father for us?

What is taken away from Joshua when the filthy clothes are removed? Sin – what is God removing from us? Our sin –from where is sin removed? Is it removed from record books of heaven or from our hearts and minds, from our characters?

Where do the new clothes originate? What do they represent? How does Joshua get them? What does it mean for us?

It says they are symbolic of things to come – what might this mean? What things to come? Could it be the antitypical day of atonement when hearts and minds are restored into unity with God and rebelliousness, iniquity, and sin is removed from the heart and the law of God is written on the heart?

What does it mean a branch plucked from the fire? Does this text relate

- Jesus said in John 14:12, “I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.”
- Could this imply something about our experience?

If you were dying with cancer and a physician healed you would you be able to brag about yourself? But do you become a powerful witness for the one who healed you? What do they see in your home? Do they see the power of God, the power of love, the power of truth healing transforming and recreating you to be like Jesus?

Did Jesus reveal what perfect character looks like and that a human can live perfectly in harmony with God’s law of love? Did Jesus in His life demonstrate how God’s love, methods and principles entering into a heart/mind damaged and ravaged by sin can heal, transform and renew that being back into perfection? Do we get that privilege?

EZE 36:22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, `This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³ I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

EZE 36:24 " `For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. ²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

"...The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple...behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver." Mal 3:1-3

"This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, `Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.” Heb 8:10-11

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “Perhaps the scariest...” thoughts?

Read Isaiah 1:11-18:

- 1 “The multitude of your sacrifices—
what are they to me?” says the LORD.
“I have more than enough of burnt offerings,
of rams and the fat of fattened animals;
I have no pleasure
in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.
- 12 When you come to appear before me,
who has asked this of you,
this trampling of my courts?
- 13 Stop bringing meaningless offerings!
Your incense is detestable to me.
New Moons, Sabbaths and convocations—
I cannot bear your evil assemblies.
- 14 Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts
my soul hates.
They have become a burden to me;
I am weary of bearing them.
- 15 When you spread out your hands in prayer,
I will hide my eyes from you;
even if you offer many prayers,
I will not listen.
Your hands are full of blood;
- 16 wash and make yourselves clean.
Take your evil deeds
out of my sight!

What are the children of Israel doing? Who told them to pray, come to Temple, offer sacrifices, observe Sabbath? Why is God berating them?

Could it be that they failed to understand – verse 13, stop bringing “meaningless” sacrifices.

Then in verses 17, 18:

Stop doing wrong,
 17 learn to do right!
 Seek justice,
 encourage the oppressed.
 Defend the cause of the fatherless,
 plead the case of the widow.

18 “Come now, let us reason together,”
 says the LORD.
 “Though your sins are like scarlet,
 they shall be as white as snow;
 though they are red as crimson,
 they shall be like wool.

What is the point? We must press past simple symbolic representations, understandings, teachings, activities, observances and understand God, His methods, kingdom, principles, and what is happening in the Great Controversy over His character!

God wants an intelligent people who freely agree with Him!

Are we in danger of doing the same thing today of simply going through the motions of religion and not understanding God, His methods and principles etc.?

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to contemplate Isaiah 6:

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. ² Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. ³ And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴ At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵ “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.”

⁶ Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷ With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.”

⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”

And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

What was Isaiah seeing? Do you think he was seeing the literal reality of heaven or a symbolic representation of heaven? Does God wear a robe that has a train so long it fills the entire temple?

Did Isaiah’s tongue get touched with a live coal? What was this symbolic of?

What does it mean your guilt is taken away your sin is atoned for? From where was the guilt taken? Was it legal guilt or was it the experience of guilt and shame that sin brings to the sinner – the conscious guilt which separates us from God?

How does a coal from the altar take away guilt and atone for sin? I thought it must be blood? What does this mean?

The Temple imagery has multiple applications – one is to Christ, “tear down this temple and in three days I will raise it up.”

Christ said, “unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no part with me.”

Could this represent the application, via the work of the Holy Spirit of Christ's character into the heart and mind of Isaiah? Could it represent the "burning" out of sinfulness and writing in of righteousness into the heart of the believer?

The lesson says his sin was "purged", but from where? From where does God purge sin?

Isaiah had denounced the sin of others; but now he sees himself exposed to the same condemnation he had pronounced upon them. He had been satisfied with a cold, lifeless ceremony in his worship of God. He had not known this until the vision was given him of the Lord. How little now appeared his wisdom and talents as he looked upon the sacredness and majesty of the sanctuary. How unworthy he was! how unfitted for sacred service! . . . {CC 234.2}

The vision given to Isaiah represents the condition of God's people in the last days. They are privileged to see by faith the work that is going forward in the heavenly sanctuary. "And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament." As they look by faith into the holy of holies, and see the work of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary, they perceive that they are a people of unclean lips,--a people whose lips have often spoken vanity, and whose talents have not been sanctified and employed to the glory of God. Well may they despair as they contrast their own weakness and unworthiness with the purity and loveliness of the glorious character of Christ. But if they, like Isaiah, will receive the impression the Lord designs shall be made upon the heart, if they will humble their souls before God, there is hope for them. The bow of promise is above the throne, and the work done for Isaiah will be performed in them. God will respond to the petitions coming from the contrite heart. {CC 234.3}

We want the living coal from off the altar placed upon our lips. We want to hear the word spoken, "Thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged." {CC 234.4}

The live coal is symbolical of purification. If it touches the lips, no impure word will fall from them. {CC 234.5}

Who wants this live coal? Which means what? We want our hearts and minds purified to speak only the truth about God!

TUESDAY

The lesson asks us to consider Isaiah 51:6-8:

- 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
 look at the earth beneath;
 the heavens will vanish like smoke,
 the earth will wear out like a garment and its inhabitants die like flies.
 But my salvation will last forever,
 my righteousness will never fail.
- 7 “Hear me, you who know what is right,
 you people who have my law in your hearts:
 Do not fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults.
- 8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment;
 the worm will devour them like wool.
 But my righteousness will last forever,
 my salvation through all generations.”

Thoughts? Who is it that hears God? Those with His law in their hearts, and what did God say we are not to fear? The reproach of men, nor their insults or attacks. Does this have application today?

What does it mean to have the law written in the heart? Does it mean we hold to a certain set of doctrines or worship on a certain day?

What does it look like to have the law written on the heart? Would it look like Jesus?

So, in the church if the law is written on the heart, how do we treat those who disagree with us on a point of theology? In our class how are we treating those who disagree with us?

I know I need more grace. I have been tempted to anger and frustration. How should we treat those who oppose this message?

Would those who have God's law written on their heart go behind the scenes and spread rumors or attack reputation? Should we fear those who do this?

What is the Christlike response?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "It's always..." thoughts?

Do some people worship a God who is severe and brings punishments upon people? Does it make a difference in whom we become?

This week Kathy Kiley sent me an article from the Los Angeles Times which reported on a recent research article that found there were no differences in cheating in college exams between those who believe in God and those who don't. What was surprising is that those who believed in a compassionate God were more likely to cheat than those who believe in a "angry, punitive God."

The article suggested that believing in an angry punitive God may make nicer people- thoughts about that?

<http://www.urbanchristiannews.com/ucn/2011/04/cheating-and-god-study-ties-willingness-to-cheat-viewpoint-on-what-god-is-like.html>

What is the problem? The underlying theology of both groups is that the problem with sin is God gets offended, it breaks God's rules, and He is the great judge who determines our sentences. They see sin as a legal problem. Therefore, a compassionate God doesn't enforce consequences but puts them on Jesus and it doesn't matter what we do.

Those who believe in an angry punitive God, believe God will punish us if we keep doing bad after we know about Jesus. Thus they want to avoid punishment and don't cheat.

Is the problem with sin that God is required to punish? Or is the problem with sin that sin damages and destroys the sinner? Sin is lawlessness, choosing to operate outside the protocols God built life to operate upon.

Does the view of God taught in the class lead you to be more or less likely to cheat? Why?

THURSDAY

The lesson asks us to read Isaiah 61 and discuss

What do you hear in this passage?

What is the Lord's vengeance? What is being described?

What is the everlasting covenant? What is the garment of salvation?

Does this have any application to us today?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 and 2

SS Lesson #9 “A Brand Plucked from the Fire”.

Some questions to consider for this weeks lesson.

What are the following symbolic of?: 1. The Accuser / Accused. 2. The Angel of the Lord. 3. The filthy rags. 4. The Fine Garments. 5. The Fire. 6. Joshua. 7. The removal of sin in one day.

Sunday

The two passages below give us some insight in to God’s anger and his “fire”.

Zech 1:12-15

12 Then the angel of the LORD said, —LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?” 13 So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. 14 Then the angel who was speaking to me said, —Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says: I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, 15 and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they went too far with the punishment.’

Zech 2:1-5.

1 Then I looked up, and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 I asked, —Where are you going?” He answered me, —To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.” 3 While the angel who was speaking to me was leaving, another angel came to meet him 4 and said to him: —Man, tell that young man, Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of people and animals in it. 5 And I myself will be a wall of fire around it,‘ declares the LORD, and I will be its glory within.’

Monday – The Accuser and the Accused

Zechariah 3

Clean Garments for the High Priest

1 Then he showed me Joshua[a] the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right side to accuse him. 2 The LORD said to Satan, —The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

3 Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. 4 The angel said to those who were standing before him, —Take off his filthy clothes.”

Then he said to Joshua, —See, I have taken away your sin, and I will put fine garments on you.”

5 Then I said, —Put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: 7 —This is what the LORD Almighty says: Uf you will walk in obedience to me and keep my requirements, then you will govern my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.

8 —Lien, High Priest Joshua, you and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. 9 See, the stone I have set in front of Joshua! There are seven eyes[c] on that one stone, and I will engrave an inscription on it,‘ says the LORD Almighty, und I will remove the sin of this land in a single day.

10 —In that day each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree,‘ declares the LORD Almighty.”

In the prophecy of Zechariah is brought to view Satan’s accusing work, and the work of Christ in resisting the adversary of His people. The prophet says, “He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.” Zechariah 3:1-3. {COL 166.3}

The people of God are here represented as a criminal on trial. Joshua, as high priest, is seeking for a blessing for his people, who are in great affliction. While he is pleading before God, Satan is standing at his right hand as his adversary. He is accusing the children of God, and making their case appear as desperate as possible. He presents before the Lord their evil doings and their defects. He shows their faults and failures, hoping they will appear of such a character in the eyes of Christ that He will render them no help in their great need. Joshua, as the representative of God’s people, stands under condemnation, clothed with filthy garments. Aware of the sins of his people, he is weighed down with discouragement. Satan is pressing upon his soul a sense of guiltiness that makes him feel almost hopeless. Yet there he stands as a suppliant, with Satan arrayed against him. {COL 166.4}

The work of Satan as an accuser began in heaven. This has been his work on earth ever since man’s fall, and it will be his work in a special sense as we approach nearer to the close of this world’s history. As he sees that his time is short, he will work with greater earnestness to deceive and destroy. He is angry when he sees a people on the earth who, even in their weakness and sinfulness, have respect to the law of Jehovah. He is determined that they shall not obey God. He delights in their unworthiness, and has devices prepared for every soul, that all may be ensnared and separated from God. He seeks to accuse and condemn God and all who strive to carry out His purposes in this world in mercy and love, in compassion and forgiveness. {COL 167.1}*

Tuesday – The Angel of the Lord

There are 50 references to “The Angel of the Lord” found in Scripture [NIV], and all of them in the Old Testament. Why none in the New Testament?

Ex. 3:2-14.

There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. 3 So Moses thought, —I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up.”

4 When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, —Moses! Moses!”

And Moses said, —He~~r~~ I am.”

5 —Do not ~~o~~me any closer,” God said. —The off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.” 6 Then he said, —I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

7 The LORD said, —I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering. 8 So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. 9 And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. 10 So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.”

11 But Moses said to God, —Wh am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?”

12 And God said, —I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.”

13 Moses said to God, —Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what shall I tell them?”

14 God said to Moses, —I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: I AM has sent me to you.“

Numbers 22:31

Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell facedown.

Judges 6:22

When Gideon realized that it was the angel of the LORD, he exclaimed, —Alas, Sovereign LORD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

1 Kings 19:6-8

6 He [Elijah] looked around, and there by his head was some bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

7 The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, —Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you.” 8 So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

Isaiah 37:36

Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies!

Then the Angel, who is Christ Himself, the Saviour of sinners, puts to silence the accuser of His people, declaring, "The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?" Verse 2. Long had Israel remained in the furnace of affliction. Because of their sins they had been well-nigh consumed in the flame kindled by Satan and his agents for their destruction, but God had now set His hand to bring them forth. {PK 584.1}

Wednesday – Change of Clothes

1. Filthy Rags: ?? Why this imagery. ?? Any connection to the scenes of people in repentance putting on sack cloth and ashes.

Every manifestation of God's power for His people arouses the enmity of Satan. Every time God works in their behalf, Satan with his angels works with renewed vigor to compass their ruin. He is jealous of all who make Christ their strength. His object is to instigate evil, and when he has succeeded, throw all the blame upon the tempted ones. He points to their filthy garments, their defective characters. He presents their weakness and folly, their sins of ingratitude, their unlikeness to Christ, which have dishonored their Redeemer. All this he urges as an argument proving his right to work his will in their destruction. He endeavors to affright their souls with the thought that their case is hopeless, that the stain of their defilement can never be washed away. He hopes so to destroy their faith that they will yield fully to his temptations, and turn from their allegiance to God. {COL 168.1}

Jesus does not excuse their sins, but shows their penitence and faith, and, claiming for them forgiveness, he lifts his wounded hands before the Father and the holy angels, saying, "I know them by name. I have graven them on the palms of my hands. „The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise." [Psalm 51:17.] And to the accuser of his people he declares, "The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee. Is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?" [Zechariah 3:2.] Christ will clothe his faithful ones with his own righteousness, that he may present them to his Father "a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing." [Ephesians 5:27.] Their names stand enrolled in the book of life, and concerning them it is written, "They shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy." [Revelation 3:4.] {GC88 484.2}

2. Change of Raiment / Clean clothing: Zech 3: 4 The angel said to those who were standing before him, —Take off his filthy clothes." Then he said to Joshua, —See, I have taken away your sin, and I will put fine garments on you.  How does Christ "take away our sin"? ***

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isaiah 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Psalm 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Notwithstanding the defects of the people of God, Christ does not turn away from the objects of His care. He has the power to change their raiment. He removes the filthy garments, He places upon the repenting, believing ones His own robe of righteousness, and writes pardon against their names on the records of heaven. He confesses them as His before the heavenly universe. Satan their adversary is shown to be an accuser and deceiver. God will do justice for His own elect. {COL 169.3}

Thursday – An Effectual Plea

But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He “will abundantly pardon,” He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: “My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.” Isaiah 55:7-9. God’s forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, “Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.” Psalm 51:10. And again he says, “As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us.” Psalm 103:12. {Pr 298.1}

Zechariah’s description of Joshua, the high priest, is a striking representation of the sinner for whom Christ is mediating that he may be brought to repentance. Satan is standing at the right hand of the Advocate, resisting the work of Christ, and pleading against him that man is his property since he has chosen him as his ruler. But the defender of man, the restorer, mightier than the mightiest, hears the demands and claims of Satan, and answers him: “The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments and stood before the angel. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the Lord stood by.” [Zechariah 3:2-5.] {CE 159.2}

The work of investigative judgment and blotting out of sins is to be accomplished before the second advent of the Lord. In the typical service the high priest came forth and blessed the congregation. So Christ, at the close of His work as mediator, will appear “without sin unto salvation.” Hebrews 9:28. {HF 299.4} The priest, in removing the sins from the sanctuary, confessed them upon the head of the scapegoat. Christ will place all these sins upon Satan, the instigator of sin. The scapegoat was sent away “unto a land not inhabited.” Leviticus 16:22. Satan, bearing the guilt of sins he has caused God’s people to commit, will for a thousand years be confined to the desolate earth and will at last suffer the penalty of fire that shall destroy the wicked. Thus the plan of redemption will reach its accomplishment in the final eradication of sin. {HF 299.5}

Additional Reading:

As Satan accused Joshua and his people, so in all ages he accuses those who are seeking the mercy and favor of God. In the Revelation he is declared to be the “accuser of our brethren,” “which accused them before our God day and night.” Revelation 12:10. The controversy is repeated over every soul that is rescued from the power of evil and whose name is registered in the Lamb’s book of life. Never is one received from the family of Satan into the family of God without exciting the determined resistance of the wicked one. Satan’s accusations against those who seek the Lord are not prompted by displeasure at their sins. He exults in their defective characters. Only through their transgression of God’s law can he obtain power over them. His accusations arise solely from his enmity to Christ. Through the plan of salvation, Jesus is breaking Satan's hold upon the human family and rescuing souls from his power. All the hatred and malignity of the archrebel is stirred as he beholds the evidence of Christ's supremacy, and with fiendish power and cunning he works to wrest from Him the remnant of the children of men who have accepted His salvation. {CCh 350.4}

We read in the prophecy of Zechariah that when Satan with all his synagogue stood up to resist the prayers of Joshua the high priest, and to resist Christ, who was about to show decided favor to Joshua, "The Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee; is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?" Zechariah 3:2. {CW 59.2} The course of Christ in dealing even with the adversary of souls, should be an example to us in all our intercourse with others, never to bring a railing accusation against any; much less should we employ harshness or severity toward those who may be as anxious to know the right way as we are ourselves. {CW 59.3}

"In a vision in 1880 I asked, „Where is the security for the people of God in these days of peril?" The answer was, „Jesus maketh intercession for His people, though Satan standeth at His right hand to resist Him." „And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?" „As man's Intercessor and Advocate, Jesus will lead all who are willing to be led, saying, „Follow Me upward, step by step, where the clear light of the Sun of Righteousness shines." {LS 324.1} "But not all are following the light. Some are moving away from the safe path, which at every step is a path of humility. God has committed to His servants a message for this time; but this message does not in every particular coincide with the ideas of all the leading men, and some criticize the message and the messengers. They dare even to reject the words of reproof sent to them from God through His Holy Spirit. {LS 324.2}

Satan seeks to bring us into temptation, that the evil of our characters may be revealed before men and angels, that he may claim us as his own. In the symbolic prophecy of Zechariah, Satan is seen standing at the right hand of the Angel of the Lord, accusing Joshua, the high priest, who is clothed in filthy garments, and resisting the work that the Angel desires to do for him. This represents the attitude of Satan toward every soul whom Christ is seeking to draw unto Himself. The enemy leads us into sin, and then he accuses us before the heavenly universe as unworthy of the love of God. But "the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?" And unto Joshua He said, "Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment." Zechariah 3:1-4. {Pr 300.2}

God in His great love is seeking to develop in us the precious graces of His Spirit. He permits us to encounter obstacles, persecution, and hardships, not as a curse, but as the greatest blessing of our lives. Every temptation resisted, every trial bravely borne, gives us a new experience and advances us in the work of character building. The soul that through divine power resists temptation reveals to the world and to the heavenly universe the efficiency of the grace of Christ. {Pr 300.3}

In his own strength, man cannot meet the charges of the enemy. In sin-stained garments, confessing his guilt, he stands before God. But Jesus, our Advocate, presents an effectual plea in behalf of all who by repentance and faith have committed the keeping of their souls to Him. He pleads their cause, and by the mighty arguments of Calvary, vanquishes their accuser. His perfect obedience to God's law has given Him all power in heaven and in earth, and He claims from His Father mercy and reconciliation for guilty man. To the accuser of His people He declares: 587 "The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan. These are the purchase of My blood, brands plucked from the burning." And to those who rely on Him in faith, He gives the assurance, "Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment." Zechariah 3:4. {PK 586.2}

Does the above illustration demonstrate a stronger case for a "penal substitution" model of salvation or a "healing substitution" model??

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 11 2Q 2011

Guten Morgen, Wir sind wieder da! Wir hatten eine tolle zeit in Deutschland. Danke zu unsere freunde in deutschland. Wir sind dankbar für alles, was Sie getan haben. Wir vermissen dich schon. Wir hoffen, Sie bald zu sehen

The Wedding Garment

SABBATH

Read memory text, Romans 8:1

What does it mean?

Why is there no condemnation for those who are in Christ? What are the possible explanations?

- The legal price has been paid by Jesus and God cannot legally condemn us?
- Jesus stands between us and the Father and when the Father looks at us He only sees Jesus and therefore we are not condemned?
- Jesus pleads to His Father for mercy and the Father acquiesces to the pleas of His Son and doesn't condemn?
- Those "in Jesus" are "in unity" of heart and mind with Him and have been recreated in heart, mind, attitude to be like Jesus thus when the Father looks at us He sees the perfection of His Son restored within the believer?

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Rom. 8:1. {FLB 103.1}

If sinners can be led to give one earnest look at the cross, if they can obtain a full view of the crucified Saviour, they will realize the depth of God's compassion and the sinfulness of sin. {FLB 103.2}

As your conscience has been quickened by the Holy Spirit, you have seen something of the evil of sin, of its power, its guilt, its woe; and you look upon it with abhorrence. . . . You long to be forgiven, to be cleansed, to be set free. Harmony with God, likeness to Him-- what can you do to obtain it? {FLB 103.3}

It is peace that you need--Heaven's forgiveness and peace and love in the soul. Money cannot buy it, intellect cannot procure it, wisdom cannot attain to it; you can never hope, by your own efforts, to secure it. But God offers it to you as a gift, "without money and without price." Isa. 55:1. . . . {FLB 103.4}

Go to Him, and ask that He will wash away your sins, and give you a new heart. Then believe that He does this because He has promised It is our privilege to go to Jesus and be cleansed, and to stand before the law without shame or remorse. {FLB 103.5}

As you read the promises, remember they are the expression of unutterable love and pity. . . . Yes, only believe that God is your helper. He wants to restore His moral image in man. As you draw near to Him with confession and repentance, He will draw near to you with mercy and forgiveness.

What do you hear in this passage? Do you hear the healing, restoring, regenerating message of God? Do you hear from where pain, suffering and misery arise? It is sin! Let us be clear – sin severs our connection with God, damages us, and ultimately brings death. God is constantly and always working to destroy sin and save sinners. God is the source of love and life!

So why is there no condemnation for those who are in Christ? Because they no longer live after the flesh but are changed, healed and renewed to live in harmony with the Spirit!

Read first paragraph, "Christian history..." thoughts? How can this happen? What would you say are the errors or missteps required for Christians to do horrible things in the name of Christ?

- Unconversion passing as conversion especially in leadership
 - What contributes to this?

- Could it be a false idea of what conversion means?
- What is conversion?
 - For the first 300 years after Christ what did it take to be a Christian?
 - What happened after that?
 - Conversion is the change of heart away from the birthright we received from Adam – the natural self-centeredness, to a heart which loves others more than self – our inheritance from Christ?
 - Is anything more than this required for conversion?
 - So those who retain selfishness as the primary motivator of their character but join the church could do such things.
- Accepting false views of God
 - What happens when people believe God will use His power to inflict “punishments” for sin?
 - What happens when people forget sin severs and destroys and instead see God as the great executioner?
- Unforgiveness, resentment, grudge holding
- Distorted ideas of justice – pigeon holing God’s government into the mold of earthly governments.

SUNDAY

Read first two paragraphs, “Matthew 21...” then, last two sentences of today’s lesson, “How sad – those who should have been teachers of others were the ones who had the most to learn and, in many cases, never learned it. When they finally do, it will be too late (Rom. 14:10).” thoughts?

Do you believe this is true?

If this is true what does it mean? What would be wise application of this reality?

- "We must study the truth for ourselves. No man should be relied upon to think for us. No matter who he is, or in what position he may be placed, we are not to look upon any man as a criterion for us. We are to counsel together, and to be subject one to another; but at the same time we are to exercise the ability God has given us, in order to learn what is truth. Each one of us must look to God for divine enlightenment. We must individually develop a character that will stand the test in the day of God." Testimonies to Ministers 109,110; first published in Gospel Workers, 1892 ed., pp. 128,129; cf. 2RH 311:3:1 (RH, June 18, 1889); CW 45; ST, Feb. 6, 1893

- Would this include prophets? Should we surrender our thinking to prophets?
- "Satan is constantly endeavoring to attract attention to man in the place of God. He leads the people to look to bishops, to pastors, to professors of theology, as their guides, instead of searching the Scriptures to learn their duty for themselves. . . . (Reflecting Christ 369)
- "There are today thousands of professors of religion who can give no other reason for points of faith which they hold than that they were so instructed by their religious leaders. They pass by the Saviour's teachings almost unnoticed, and place implicit confidence in the words of the ministers. But are ministers infallible? How can we trust our souls to their guidance unless we know from God's word that they are light bearers?" 4SP 413-415 (1884); Great Controversy 595-597 (1888); RH, June 7, 1906

We must each one study out the evidence for ourselves and come to our own conclusion based on the evidence, not on the preaching or opinion of another.

What can we do to ensure we don't fall into this group of religiously callous people?

TUESDAY

Read the second paragraph, "Have you ever..." thoughts? How can this be?

What can we do to ensure we are not among this group?

What is the difference from “playing” church, and being a church?

Would it not be love? Isn't the difference that a healthy church, a genuine church, the people love each other, they care about each other, they take care of each other, they protect each other, including their reputations – they don't turn on each other, attack each other, gossip about each other?

Friends, I want to experience real church – God's love in our lives, here and now. This is what God wants for all of us!

At the bottom of the page we read, “Who are we to judge hearts? We shouldn't judge – but God does, should, and will (Rom 14:10...). Seventh-day Adventists call it the ‘investigative judgment,’ and it is revealed in this parable.”

GO TO THURSDAY

Read last three paragraphs, “It's so important...” thoughts?

When God went into the Garden and asked Adam questions – was God conducting an “investigation”? Was God conducting a judgment? Some might argue this – He condemned the serpent to crawl, cursed the ground, pronounced birth pains and women to be subject to their husbands, and cast the pair out of the Garden.

Many have taken this as God investigating, judging and punishing, but is it?

The lesson acknowledges that God didn't need to investigate. He already knew. It rightly points out the Great Controversy – but fails to refocus our attention on what the central issue in the controversy actually is – what or who is actually being investigated?

Who did Satan make His allegations against? Are the angels and intelligences in the universe primarily concerned about Adam and Eve, or how God deals with Adam and Eve?

It is a war over the knowledge of God (2Cor 10:3-5).

Who should our focus be upon? God – He is demonstrating His character, which has been misrepresented. And what do we see in this case?

- Even though God knows where they were hiding – He doesn't use that knowledge to overwhelm, incite fear, intimidate, but instead to prevent fear He calls out to Adam. What does this say about God?
- He asks Adam questions – for what purpose? To “uncover” some facts he doesn't know, or to reveal to Adam the mess Adam was in and why? Wasn't it to help Adam to see that God was not the one condemning Him? What does this say about God?
- Mankind is now altered from God's design and is motivated by fear and selfishness, and will eternally die if God doesn't intervene to save. God pronounces a curse on the ground, was the curse an infliction by God or an announcement of what will be?
 - Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the Master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? how then hath it tares?" The Master answered, "An enemy hath done this." All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares (MS 65, 1899) [published in F. D. Nichol, Ellen G. White and Her Critics]. {1BC 1086.2}
- And why didn't God intervene to prevent the curse? Why was it permitted? To punish or to bless, to give man work to keep him busy so he will be less likely to be ruined by his own selfish nature?
 - To Adam the Lord declared: "Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return." {PP 59.2}

Under the curse of sin all nature was to witness to man of the character and results of rebellion against God. When God made man He made him rule over the earth and all living creatures. So long as Adam remained loyal to Heaven, all nature was in subjection to him. But when he rebelled against the divine law, the inferior creatures were in rebellion against his rule. Thus the Lord, in His great mercy, would show men the sacredness of His law, and lead them, by their own experience, to see the danger of setting it aside, even in the slightest degree. {PP 59.4}

And the life of toil and care which was henceforth to be man's lot was appointed in love. It was a discipline rendered needful by his sin, to place a check upon the indulgence of appetite and passion, to develop habits of self-control. It was a part of God's great plan of man's recovery from the ruin and degradation of sin. {PP 60.1}

- Does this sound like a punishment to you? What does it say about God?

Who is really being judged, us by God or are we judging God?

Paul says in Romans 3:4, "God may you be proved right when you are judged."

- They thought themselves passing judgment on Christ; but in rejecting Him they were pronouncing sentence upon themselves. "He that is of God," said Jesus, "heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God." {DA 468.1}

The lesson is true for all time. Many a man who delights to quibble, to criticize, seeking for something to question in the word of God, thinks that he is thereby giving evidence of independence of thought, and mental acuteness. He supposes that he is sitting in judgment on the Bible, when in truth he is judging himself. He makes it manifest that he is incapable of appreciating truths that originate in heaven, and that compass eternity. DA 468.2

- The people who beheld the Saviour at His advent were favored with a fuller manifestation of the divine presence than the world had ever enjoyed before. The knowledge of God was revealed more perfectly. But in this very revelation, judgment was passing upon men. Their character was tested, their destiny determined. {DA 475.2}

How does judgment get passed upon us? Who passes judgment upon us?

I have found it helpful to think of God's judgment like a doctor and not a lawyer. Doctors make diagnosis, which are judgments, based on the evidence of the condition of the person. It is the person's condition which determines the diagnosis, assuming the doctor doesn't misdiagnose, and with God He never does. And when the doctor diagnosis, he also makes "judgments" about what is the best treatment course. This is how we understand the "judgments" of God from the Old Testament times. God's "judgment" in cursing the ground, in casting out of the garden, in not giving rain to Israel for 3.5 years. Elijah believed through these "Judgments" Israel would be brought to repentance.

These are not punishments but are therapeutic interventions, judged to be most beneficial in the circumstance, but never removing freewill of the sinner to be rebellious and non-compliant with the treatment plan.

Imagine an HIV infected man and woman have a child born HIV infected, what did the child do wrong? Nothing, will the child have symptoms? Will the child die if not cured? Is the child held to blame for the condition of its birth? And what if a free remedy is offered but the adult child refuses? Will he be held to blame for that rejection and thus let go to die of his disease?

Under the demonstration of the Holy Spirit's power, the Jews saw their guilt in refusing the evidence that God had sent; but they would not yield their wicked resistance. Their obstinacy became more and more determined, and worked the ruin of their souls. It was not that they could not yield, for they could, yet would not. It was not alone that they had been guilty, and deserving of wrath, but that they armed themselves with the attributes of Satan, and determinedly continued to be opposed to God. Every day, in their refusal to repent, they took up their rebellion afresh. They were preparing to reap that which they had sown. The wrath of God is not declared against men merely because of the sins which they have committed, but for choosing to continue in a state of resistance, and, although they have light and knowledge, repeating their sins of the past. If they would submit, they would be pardoned; but they are determined not to yield. They defy God by their obstinacy. These souls have given themselves to Satan, and he controls them according to his will. {TM 74.2}

What is being described?

MONDAY

The King's Invitation –

- Who is the king?
- To what is the invitation? The wedding supper –
- When does the wedding supper take place? After the wedding.
- Who is the groom?
- What is symbolized by the wedding?
- A wedding is when the groom receives the bride.
- Who is the bride of Christ?
 - In the summer and autumn of 1844, the proclamation, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh," was given. The two classes represented by the wise and foolish virgins were then developed,--one class who looked with joy to the Lord's appearing, and who had been diligently preparing to meet him; another class that, influenced by fear, and acting from impulse, had been satisfied with a theory of the truth, but were destitute of the grace of God. In the parable, when the bridegroom came, "they that were ready went in with him to the marriage." The coming of the bridegroom, here brought to view, takes place before the marriage. The marriage represents the reception by Christ of his kingdom. The holy city, the New Jerusalem, which is the capital and representative of the kingdom, is called "the bride, the Lamb's wife." Said the angel to John, "Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife." "He carried me away in the spirit," says the prophet, "and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of Heaven from God." [REV. 21:9, 10.] Clearly, then, the bride represents the holy city, and the virgins that go out to meet the bridegroom are a symbol of the church. In the Revelation the people of God are said to be the guests at the marriage supper. [REV. 19:9.] If guests, they cannot be represented also as the bride. Christ, as stated by the prophet Daniel, will receive from the Ancient of days in Heaven, "dominion, and glory, and a kingdom," he will receive the New Jerusalem, the capital of his kingdom, "prepared as a bride adorned for her husband." [DAN. 7:14; REV. 21:2.] Having received the kingdom, he will come in his glory, as King of kings, and Lord of lords, for the redemption of his people, who are to "sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob," at his table in his kingdom, [MATT. 8:11; LUKE 22:30.] to partake of the marriage supper of the Lamb. {GC88 426.2}

- What do you think? Is the bride the city and the believers are the guests? Or is the church both the bride and the guests?
- What happens at a wedding, two become one, at-one-ment. Can Christ become one with inanimate nature with a building? Doesn't a marriage require love? Isn't the bride to love the groom? Can a city love? Then is it possible the New Jerusalem is a metaphor for the redeemed?

- Christ honored the marriage relation by making it also a symbol of the union between Him and His redeemed ones. He Himself is the Bridegroom; the bride is the church, of which, as His chosen one, He says, "Thou art all fair, My love; there is no spot in thee." {AH 26.2}
- Very close and sacred is the relation between Christ and His church,--He the bridegroom, and the church the bride; He the head, and the church the body. Connection with Christ, then, involves connection with His church.-- Education, p. 268. (1903) {Ev 318.1}
- The church is the bride, the Lamb's wife. She should keep herself pure, sanctified, holy. Never should she indulge in any foolishness; for she is the bride of a King. Yet she does not realize her exalted position. If she understood this, she would be all-glorious within (Letter 177, 1901). {7BC 986.1}
- The church is the bride of Christ, and her members are to yoke up with their Leader. God warns us not to defile our garments (Letter 123 1/2, 1898). {7BC 986.2}

What do you think? Is this a contradiction or is the New Jerusalem merely a metaphor for the Church – the bride of Christ? Could the bride and New Jerusalem be one and the same?

- "And I John saw the Holy City, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband." "Her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; and had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel." "The twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it." Revelation 21:2, 11, 12, 21, 22.

- The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb....The wall was made of jasper, and the city of pure gold, as pure as glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, ²⁰the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. ²¹The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was of pure gold, like transparent glass. Rev 21:14, 19-21
- Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household, ²⁰built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. ²¹In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. ²²And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit. Ephesians 2:19-22
- Who makes all the wedding arrangement?
- What is our role?

Is this similar to being sick and a doctor preparing a cure and offering it free? What would our role be? To accept and receive what has been prepared for us.

FRIDAY

Read top two paragraphs, "But the plan..." thoughts?

What must we see? The difference between the character of God and the character of Satan! What would you say are the defining, demarcating differences between the two?

- God is love, Satan is selfish
- God is truthful, Satan a liar

- God is humble, Satan is proud
- God is kind, Satan is cruel
- God respects freedom, Satan coerces
- God is the source of life, Satan the source of death

Can we test our doctrines with this list?

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 12 2Q 2011 Lesson for June 18, 2011 - "More Clothing Imagery"
Come & Reason Sabbath School Class (June 4, 2011)

1. Stories
 - a. Hem of his garment story
 - b. Laying aside his garments to wash disciples feet
 - c. Rending of high priest's garments at Christ's inquisition
 - d. Garments of mockery before Pilate
 - e. Casting lots for his garments at the cross

2. Sabbath Afternoon Lesson: Introduction
 - a. The lesson lists the stories that are to be studied in this week's lesson along with a brief commentary. It ends by saying: "Just clothing, yes, but full of symbolism and meaning."
 - b. What are symbols?
 - c. How do we use symbols to communicate to others?
 - d. What would happen if your meaning for a symbol differed from what the person you were communicating with understood with that same symbol?
 - i. In preparation for a national based inspection of the children's hospital and our orthopaedic office, the physicians have been reminded that we are not to use certain abbreviations and symbols. There have been cases an abbreviation or symbol has been misunderstood and a patient has received 10x or 100x the appropriate dose of certain medications or the wrong medication resulting in illness and death.
 - e. Do you know of any Christian symbols that mean something different to you than a Christian friend may mean?
 - i. Is there any consequence to this difference of meaning?
 - ii. Is it important for you to correct how your friend uses those symbols?

iii. Is it important that we clarify our communication?

3. Sunday's Lesson: "Who Touched My Clothes?"

- a. Sunday's lesson goes over the story of the woman who was healed by touching the hem of Christ's robe.
- b. Why question (in red) at bottom of page: "Why would Jesus ask who touched His garment?"
 - (1) paragraph following this question there are two reasons supplied
 - (a) Witness to others
 - (b) Know it wasn't magical clothes that healed her
- c. Can you think of other Possible Reasons?
 - i. Do you think she was going to keep this a secret from those around her if Christ had not stopped?
 - (1) why?
 - (2) why not?
 - ii. Correct her theology
 - (1) When was she healed? Before or after her theology was correct
 - (2) Do we sometimes consider poor theology as the reason someone's prayers are not answered
 - iii. Announce to community that she was healed - reintroduce her to the community of believers
 - (1) Do we have trouble doing this after a sinner from amongst us repents?
 - iv. Commend her for her faith:
 - (1) where was she in self worth at this point
 - (a) 12 years of misery
 - (b) 12 years without community worship
 - (c) She was not to touch anything or anyone that was holy or going to the temple/synagogue

- (2) He commended her faith - praised something she had done. How long had it been since someone had done that?
 - (a) When we are God-like, Christ-like, are we more about right behavior, rules, correct theology or more about strengthening and encouraging others who are struggling with trials we little know?
- (3) Witness to others: (as listed in the paragraph)
 - (a) Mrs White in her discussion of this story in DA says: “Our confession of His faithfulness is Heaven's chosen agency for revealing Christ to the world. We are to acknowledge His grace as made known through the holy men of old; but that which will be most effectual is the testimony of our own experience. We are witnesses for God as we reveal in ourselves the working of a power that is divine. Every individual has a life distinct from all others, and an experience differing essentially from theirs. God desires that our praise shall ascend to Him, marked by our own individuality. These precious acknowledgments to the praise of the glory of His grace, when supported by a Christ-like life, have an irresistible power that works for the salvation of souls. {DA 347.3}
- (4) Who was Christ with? (Jairus - the temple leader) Had he been one of those in the role of keeping her away from public contact?
 - (a) Did Jairus need this contact and revelation of healing as well as others?

(b) Jairus couldn't appreciate this at that time, (what parent could?) but later when his daughter was healed, could he appreciate someone else's daughter being healed?

(5) Celebration at healing and restoration of a church member to community.

(a) Christ said "Luke 15:7, 10 GNB In the same way, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine respectable people who do not need to repent. (10) In the same way, I tell you, the angels of God rejoice over one sinner who repents."

(b) Three stories of something lost and found: Coin, Sheep, & Son. At the end of each of the lost & found stories Christ told there was a party. How many times have you staged a party for sinners who have come home to God? (Tony Campolo's story of a birthday party for prostitutes in Hawaii)

v. Read Matt 9:22 Matthew 9:22 GW "When Jesus turned and saw her he said, "Cheer up, daughter! Your faith has made you well." At that very moment the woman became well." "cheer up" - he wanted her to feel better physically, socially, spiritually and mentally. Do we have that effect on those around us on a daily basis? (Sometimes I am so stressed with my life, those around me cannot see much cheer, comfort or courage.)

4. Was anyone else in the crowd energized by touching Him? No. It wasn't magical fairy dust you got from His clothes.

a. Are clothes are holy?

b. The person who wears them is.

- c. We do (or should) treat things that belong to God differently (Church sanctuary, pulpit, etc, priestly robes, etc). Think of those in Old Testament who were disciplined for irreverence. But it is God who is the object of our trust, love and reverence for His holiness, not his clothes, burial shroud, nails, cross, etc.

5. Further along in the same chapter in the book “Desire of Ages” we read: “To talk of religion in a casual way, to pray without soul hunger and living faith, avails nothing. A nominal faith in Christ, which accepts Him merely as the Saviour of the world, can never bring healing to the soul. The faith that is unto salvation is not a mere intellectual assent to the truth. He who waits for entire knowledge before he will exercise faith, cannot receive blessing from God. It is not enough to believe about Christ; we must believe in Him. The only faith that will benefit us is that which embraces Him as a personal Saviour; which appropriates His merits to ourselves. Many hold faith as an opinion. Saving faith is a transaction by which those who receive Christ join themselves in covenant relation with God. Genuine faith is life. A living faith means an increase of vigor, a confiding trust, by which the soul becomes a conquering power.” {DA 347.1}

6. Monday’s Lesson: He “Laid Aside His Garments”
 - a. Read the first paragraph “In the last few days. . .”
 - b. If we entered the upper room during the Last Supper when Jesus was washing the disciples feet, what would it look like?
 - i. Who was the best dressed in the room?
 - ii. Who was the best educated in the room?
 - iii. Who was the most out-spoken and verbal in the room?
 - iv. What did God look like in that room?
 - v. Do we look like that when we are interacting with our peers?

- vi. John 13:1 - 16 Verse 13 - He served them as a servant, even though he was their Lord & teacher.
 - vii. Will Christ look and act differently when he returns the second time?
- c. Why did Jesus act in the way that He did?
- i. Read John 13:1 from several translations
 - (1) He loved them to the end; very end; completely
 - ii. He loved his disciples.
 - (1) Define Love: To live/act in the behalf of another. It is an act of the will and intellect.
 - (2) Opposite of love:
 - (a) not hate
 - (b) Selfishness
 - (c) Be careful when using this definition. It is not the one found in any dictionary.
 - (3) Hebrews 10:24 “GNB Let us be concerned for one another, to help one another to show love and to do good. (25) Let us not give up the habit of meeting together, as some are doing. Instead, let us encourage one another all the more, since you see that the Day of the Lord is coming nearer.”
 - (a) Why do we go to church: it is for the benefit of those around us, not for our spiritual enrichment.
- d. Philippians 2:5-8 GW Have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had. (6) Although he was in the form of God and equal with God, he did not take advantage of this equality. (7) Instead, he emptied himself by taking on the form of a servant, by becoming like other humans, by having a human appearance. (8) He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, death on a cross.

- (1) We are to be servants of others
- ii. 1 Corinthians 1:18 GW “The message about the cross is nonsense to those who are being destroyed, but it is God's power to us who are being saved.”
 - (1) Those who are still infected with the “survival of the fittest” virus cannot understand another way.
 - (2) 1 Corinthians 2:14-16 GW A person who isn't spiritual doesn't accept the teachings of God's Spirit. He thinks they're nonsense. He can't understand them because a person must be spiritual to evaluate them. (15) Spiritual people evaluate everything but are subject to no one's evaluation. (16) "Who has known the mind of the Lord so that he can teach him?" However, we have the mind of Christ.
- iii. Read the pink section at the bottom of the page of Monday's lesson:
 - (1) That is possibly one of the reasons we were created as human beings with the capacity to create others and care for others in our own image.
 - (2) Sacrifice:
 - (a) Is a mother feeling like she is sacrificing herself when she care for her child?
 - (i) yes - no - maybe - sometimes
 - (ii) Remember we still have an infection, Christ is the antibiotic / cure.

7. Ordinance of Humility: initiated in the Upper Room
 - a. Is the ordinance an important thing?
 - i. If so, what is important about it?
 - ii. How are our rituals / ordinances different than those of the Israelites?
 - b. Compare with Isaiah 58:5, 6
 - i. These are the fasts that God wishes for:
 - (1) Relief of suffering
 - (2) Release those in bonds
 - (3) Help the widow (helpless)
 - (4) etc.
 - ii. What is the purpose of the rituals?
 - iii. Are they beneficial if we don't have love for our fellow man as evidenced by daily actions of humility and care for others?

8. Tuesday's Lesson: "Nor Rend His Clothes"

- a. Have you ever been tempted to tear your clothes over something someone said?
 - i. Why or why not?
- b. Discuss why this was such a big deal for Caiaphas.
- c. We are not to "take the Lord's name in vain."
 - i. What does it mean to be a Christian?
 - ii. What would be modern equivalents to the prohibition of tearing a priest's clothes?
 - (1) Does it only apply to the clergy?
 - (2) What does being a priest in the New Testament church imply?
 - (3) If we are to represent Christ to the world, what cultural activities will mislead the world about what Christ / God is really like?

9. Wednesday's Lesson: Garments of Mockery
 - a. I haven't always liked to look at the crucifixion and trial scenes. They are too gory.
 - i. If, like some, you think that Christ had to suffer for your individual acts of sin, then his suffering becomes more important, emphasized. (The Passion of the Cross movie and all the explanations around its portrayal.)
 - ii. Others have read Psalms 22 and have come to the conclusion that Christ was performing a scripted drama. He did not have any choices. He was playing a role.
 - b. Who was being mocked?
 - c. Look both at Monday's lesson and combine with Wednesday's lesson:
 - i. Read the second paragraph on Monday's lesson: "As if the disciples . . ."
(1) It says "Jesus had every right to be disgusted."
 - ii. Read the first paragraph on Wednesday's lesson: "Jesus was stripped and garbed. . ."
 - iii. Did Christ have any "rights" at the time of his trial or did He just have to take it since it was prophesied to be that way?
 - d. In America we talk about "rights." Are we suppose to stand up for our rights?
 - i. For the rights of others?
 - ii. When?

- e. Read the Pink box at the bottom of Wednesday's lesson:
 "How do you respond. . ."

 - i. What does it mean to be treated unfairly?
 - (1) What is fair?
 - (2) Is not this world an unfair place?
 - ii. Does it make a difference if it is you or someone else who is being mistreated?
 - (1) Your family member?
 - (2) Your child?
 - (3) Your coworker?
 - iii. When is it appropriate to demand fair treatment?
 - iv. Was Christ active or passive during His trial?
 - (1) Was he working to save Pilate, the priests, the soldiers?
 - (2) Was he paying attention to what was going on or in his own little world trying to survive?
 - (a) Why didn't he drink the wine/vinegar combo that was offered to Him on the cross?
 - (3) Was He in control of the situation?
 - (a) Was he manipulating the situation?
 - (b) Was he in control of Himself?
 - (c) The fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22, 23) is self control.
 - (d) Did Christ ever give up His self control to the Father?
 - (i) To the situation
 - (ii) To the predictions about Him in the scriptures.

- f. Read the last paragraph "And yet, . . ."

 - i. "At least in part"
 - (1) What was the other part?

10. Thursday's Lesson: "They Parted My Garments"

11. Naked on the cross: Teacher's quarterly notes - "Christ, as a man, wore clothing. Lack of clothing indicated a lower station, or humiliation, to which He submitted on our behalf. Although He was our Creator and King of the universe, He humbly bore the mocking and the insults of the high priest and the pagan soldiers."

- a. We can suffer humiliation for Christ's sake - but when is that?
 - i. Few have a similar experience to that of the three Hebrews & Nebuchadnezzar in which worship of God vs worship of another god is so clearly defined.

12. Friday's Lesson: Discussion Questions

- a. Question #3: ". . . . Does this ignorance of what they were doing in any way excuse their actions? Why should they be punished for something they did without knowing exactly what it was? Discuss.
- b. Who will punish them?
- c. How will they be punished?
- d. Does it make a difference to the person who accidentally ingests poison, if they know what kind of poison it is? Does poison act any differently if you don't know you are ingesting it, if you are ignorant of its presence?
 - i. Will someone need to punish them to make them pay for their wrong action? Does God need to send an angel from heaven to make sure that the poison ingested does what exactly what its chemical composition should do?

- e. Will ignorance of the direction I am traveling make it any more likely that I will arrive at where I want to go? Or that I will like the destination any better when I arrive at the wrong one?
 - i. Will I be “punished” for being at the wrong place?
 - ii. Will I be “rewarded”?

Fundamentals of Christian Education: pp 364 “The disciples of Christ are not called upon to magnify men, but to magnify God, the source of all wisdom. Let educators give the Holy Spirit room to do its work upon human hearts. The greatest Teacher is represented in our midst by His Holy Spirit. However you may study, however you may reach higher and still higher, although you occupy every moment of your probationary time in the pursuit of knowledge, you will not become complete. When time is over, you would have to ask yourself the question, “What good have I done to those who are in midnight darkness? To whom have I communicated the knowledge of God, or even the knowledge of those things for which I have spent so much time and money?” It will soon be said in heaven, “It is done.” “He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be.” When this fiat is spoken, every (pg 364) case will have been decided.”

Life Sketches pp 93 “We are not called upon to enter into controversy with those who hold false theories. Controversy is unprofitable. Christ never entered into it. “It is written” is the weapon used by the world's Redeemer. Let us keep close to the World. Let us allow the Lord Jesus and His messengers to testify. We know that their testimony is true.” {LS 93.1}

Mind, Character, and Personality Vol 1 pp 344 “No One to Live an Aimless Life.--Every soul is to minister. He is to use every physical, moral and mental power--through sanctification of the Spirit--that he may be a laborer together with God. All are bound to devote themselves actively and unreservedly to God's (pg 345) service. They are to cooperate with Jesus Christ in the great work of helping others. Christ died for every man. He has ransomed every man by giving His life on the cross. This He did that man might no longer live an aimless, selfish life but that he might live unto Jesus Christ, who died for his salvation. All are not called upon to enter the ministry, but nevertheless, they are to minister. It is an insult to the Holy Spirit of God for any man to choose a life of self-serving.--Lt 10, 1897." (4BC 1159.) {1MCP 344.5}

Selected Messages, Book 1 pp394 "The Lord would have His people sound in the faith-- not ignorant of the great salvation so abundantly provided for them. They are not to look forward, thinking (pg 395) that at some future time a great work is to be done for them; for the work is now complete. The believer is not called upon to make his peace with God; he never has nor ever can do this. He is to accept Christ as his peace, for with Christ is God and peace. Christ made an end of sin, bearing its heavy curse in His own body on the tree, and He hath taken away the curse from all those who believe in Him as a personal Saviour. He makes an end of the controlling power of sin in the heart, and the life and character of the believer testify to the genuine character of the grace of Christ. To those that ask Him, Jesus imparts the Holy Spirit; for it is necessary that every believer should be delivered from pollution, as well as from the curse and condemnation of the law. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, the sanctification of the truth, the believer becomes fitted for the courts of heaven; for Christ works within us, and His righteousness is upon us. Without this no soul will be entitled to heaven. We would not enjoy heaven unless qualified for its holy atmosphere by the influence of the Spirit and the righteousness of Christ. {1SM 394.3}

In order to be candidates for heaven we must meet the requirement of the law: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself" (Luke 10:27). We can do this only as we grasp by faith the righteousness of Christ. By beholding Jesus we receive a living, expanding principle in the heart, and the Holy Spirit carries on the work, and the believer advances from grace to grace, from strength to strength, from character to character. He conforms to the image of Christ, until in spiritual growth he attains unto the measure of the full stature in Christ Jesus. Thus Christ makes an end of the curse of sin, and sets the believing soul free from its action and effect. {1SM 395.1}

Christ alone is able to do this, for "in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. For in that he himself hath suffered being (pg 396) tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted" (Heb. 2:17, 18).

Reconciliation means that every barrier between the soul and God is removed, and that the sinner realizes what the pardoning love of God means. By reason of the sacrifice made by Christ for fallen men, God can justly pardon the transgressor who accepts the merits of Christ. Christ was the channel through which the mercy, love, and righteousness might flow from the heart of God to the heart of the sinner. "He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9)."

Selected Messages, Book 2 "You can help us, my brother, in many ways. But I am commissioned of the Lord to say to you that you are not to be self-centered. Take heed how you hear, how you understand, and how you appropriate the Word of God. The Lord will bless you in drawing in even lines with your brethren. Those whom He has sent forth to proclaim the third angel's message have been working in unison with the heavenly intelligences. The Lord does not lay upon you a burden to proclaim a message that will bring discord into the ranks of believers. I repeat, He is not leading anyone by His Holy Spirit to frame a theory that will unsettle faith in the solemn messages He has given His people to bear to our world. {2SM 115.1}"

Garments of Grace Clothing Imagery in the Bible Lesson 13 2Q 2011

Clothed in Christ

SABBATH

Read second paragraph, “A fundamental law...” thoughts?

Why do we see this?

Did God design plants to die, people to age, houses to deteriorate? Did He design tornados, hurricanes, earthquakes? Did He design death? Or are all of these manifestations of the law of sin and death, of what happens when separation from God occurs?

What is the relationship between the second law of thermodynamics and the law of sin and death?

Hypothesis – God created everything and is the source of all life, energy, matter:

- He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. Col 1:15-17

Therefore, it is only in connection with Him that the universe continues. The universe is designed to be perpetual, without decay, as long as connected to God – but when disconnection occurs, when energy from God does not go into the system then the system slowly decays.

Thoughts?

- Upon all created things is seen the impress of the Deity. Nature testifies of God. The susceptible mind, brought in contact with the miracle and mystery of the universe, cannot but recognize the working of infinite power. Not by its own inherent energy does the earth produce its bounties, and year by year continue its motion around the sun. An unseen hand guides the planets in their circuit of the heavens. A mysterious life pervades all nature--a life that sustains the unnumbered worlds throughout immensity, that lives in the insect atom which floats in the summer breeze, that wings the flight of the swallow and feeds the young ravens which cry, that brings the bud to blossom and the flower to fruit. {Ed 99.1}

The same power that upholds nature, is working also in man. The same great laws that guide alike the star and the atom control human life. The laws that govern the heart's action, regulating the flow of the current of life to the body, are the laws of the mighty Intelligence that has the jurisdiction of the soul. From Him all life proceeds. Only in harmony with Him can be found its true sphere of action. For all the objects of His creation the condition is the same--a life sustained by receiving the life of God, a life exercised in harmony with the Creator's will. To transgress His law, physical, mental, or moral, is to place one's self out of harmony with the universe, to introduce discord, anarchy, ruin. {Ed 99.2}

Thoughts?

So next paragraph quotes Isaiah 51:6 "And the earth shall wax old like a garment." Why? Could it be that the earth slowly decays as it is disconnected from God? And does this explain why we age and die?

- God is the fountain of life, and we can have life only as we are in communion with Him. Separated from God, existence may be ours for a little time, but we do not possess life. "She that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth." 1 Timothy 5:6. Only through the surrender of our will to God is it possible for Him to impart life to us. {MB 61.2}

When Adam and Eve sinned they severed their connection with God, they immediately lost their robes of light, and started to die, the plants started to decay, death was introduced into the system.

But in the transgression of man both the Father and the Son were dishonored. Man committed sin, and sin is the transgression of the law, which is holy, just, and good. Through sin the temple of God which he had builded for his own indwelling and glory, was reduced to ruin, was fallen and in decay. Satan beguiled the holy pair to their own destruction, and introduced an element of character that was antagonistic to God and to their fellow-creatures. Before the entrance of sin, the hearts of God's children had been filled with love toward their Creator, and they were in harmony with his will; but upon yielding to the tempter a warring element began to work in the human agent. Even the earth itself shows the curse of transgression, and signs of enmity appear. Darkness covers the earth like the pall of death, and will continue to shroud the glory of God until death is swallowed up in victory. {ST, December 12, 1895 par. 7}

In the creation of God before the entrance of sin, every part of nature was in perfection; God had nothing to take down as unnecessary to his plan. He needed to set into operation no power by which to dispossess; he needed to inaugurate no opposing force. But through the calamity of sin, the work of disintegration was begun, and the beautiful temple of God's building was defiled and laid in ruins. God no longer was a dweller in the heart of man. To oppose and bring to naught the work of the enemy, the promise was given, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." {ST, December 12, 1895 par. 8}

What is that principle that Satan introduced into man?

All sin is selfishness. Satan's first sin was a manifestation of selfishness. He sought to grasp power, to exalt self. A species of insanity led him to seek to supersede God. And the temptation that led Adam to sin was Satan's declaration that it was possible for man to attain to something more than he already enjoyed, possible for him to be as God Himself. The sowing of seeds of selfishness in the human heart was the first result of the entrance of sin into the world. God desires every one to understand the evil of selfishness, and to co operate with Him in guarding the human family against its terrible, deceptive powers. The design of the gospel is to confront this evil by means of remedial missionary work, and to destroy its destructive power by establishing enterprises of benevolence. {WB, September 9, 1902 par. 3}

Our only definition of sin is that given in the Word of God; it is "the transgression of the law;" it is the outworking of a principle at war with the great law of love which is the foundation of the divine government. {GC88 492.2}

So God is the source of life – the law of love is the law upon which life is built. Harmony with God means His love/life flows through us and upholds and sustains all things. Sin is selfishness, a principle at war with the law of love, a principle that severs the connection with God and thus prevents God's love/life from sustaining His creation.

Therefore, the more sin and rejection of God the more separation from Him and the greater the decay and death.

As Satan gets more control then more calamities and destruction occurs because God's universe runs out of control, the law of sin and death takes over.

Rev 7:1-3 – four angels loose the four winds and destruction happens.

"I was shown that the judgments of God would not come directly out from the Lord upon them, but in this way;

"They place themselves beyond His protection. He warns, corrects, reproves, and points out the only path of safety; then if those who have been the objects of His special care will follow their own course, independent of the Spirit of God, after repeated warnings, if they choose their own way, then He does not commission His angels to prevent Satan's decided attacks upon them.

"It is Satan's power that is at work at sea and on land, bringing calamity and distress, and sweeping off multitudes to make sure of his prey, and storm and tempest both by sea and land will be, for Satan has come down in great wrath. He is at work. He knows his time is short and, he is not restrained; we shall see more terrible manifestations of his great power than we have ever dreamed of." Manuscript Release vol. 14, p. 3

Conversely, the closer the unity the greater the healing and restoration.

And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you. Romans 8:11

Thoughts?

Would this mean as we come closer to unity with God that decay, aging, and deterioration would lessen?

- Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone. Dt 34:7

What do you think of the Temple references in this passage? Does it relate at all to the cleansing of the sanctuary?

Look at THURSDAY's lesson, read 2Cor 5:1-4, thoughts? What is it talking about? A house not made with human hands? Does that wording sound familiar?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “One of the great...”

Thoughts?

Is there disagreement on this issue in Christianity?

How do you think we should handle such disagreement? What is the appropriate attitude toward those who understand “how” differently than we do?

Isn't the Christlike approach to present our perspectives and understandings in love, and leave others free to come to their own conclusion?

If someone accepts Jesus as their savior and believes that we are saved through plasma energy transfers from God, through Jesus, to all who accept Him, what should our attitude toward that person be?

Should we require such a person to agree with us to fellowship with us?

Should we muzzle such a person? Should we allow them to present their understanding, evidence and perspective and leave each person free to think it out for themselves?

Read Galatians 3:26-29 – thoughts?

Next paragraph, “In verse 27...” thoughts?

Do we claim His character or do we experience His character?

Here are those same verses from my paraphrase:

Gal 3:26 Through the remedy established by Jesus Christ you reveal his character and are all sons of God, 27 for all of you who have immersed your minds and hearts into the truth of God, as revealed by Christ, have had your characters changed, like a new set of clothing, replaced with the character of Christ. 28 Your station on earth is irrelevant; it doesn't matter whether you are Jew or Greek, slave or free, male or female, for you are all one in character, method, principle and motive through all that Christ has done. 29 If you are Christlike in heart and mind, then you are one of Abraham's descendents and an heir to all the promises of God. (Dr. J's paraphrase)

Thoughts?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, "For all of Paul's..." thoughts?

Notice how they state it is not "just" about our legal status – as if it ever were about our legal status.

She's not just a woman she's also governor.

The "not just" language assumes that the legal status is obviously what Christ came to do and the healing transformation aspects are less obvious.

Notice through this lesson they provide Bible text after Bible text documenting how being clothed in Christ is about an actual change and transformation in the believer, a healing and restoration. But they never provide one text that states our legal status needed to be or was changed.

Read last paragraph, "The context..." thoughts?

Again, nice job of accurately describing that it is about character building about transformation.

What is the darkness and light referring to? Darkness about what? What is the light we now walk in? Is it not the knowledge of God?

TUESDAY

Read last paragraph, “Notice the contrast...” thoughts?

Notice how they describe so nicely that salvation is about transformation – yet somehow they still get confused over legal status.

But, let’s speak in the language Paul at times used to communicate to those who prefer to see the issue in legal terms. What causes our “legal” status to change? It is fulfilling the requirements of the law. And, what does the law require?

- The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Rom. 3:26. {DA 762.2}
- The law of God, as presented in the Scriptures, is broad in its requirements. Every principle is holy, just, and good. The law lays men under obligation to God; it reaches to the thoughts and feelings; and it will produce conviction of sin in everyone who is sensible of having transgressed its requirements. If the law extended to the outward conduct only, men would not be guilty in their wrong thoughts, desires, and designs. But the law requires that the soul itself be pure and the mind holy, that the thoughts and feelings may be in accordance with the standard of love and righteousness.--RH, Apr 5, 1898. (2SM 211.) {2MCP 564.1}

- The divine law requires us to love God supremely and our neighbor as ourselves. Without the exercise of this love, the highest profession of faith is mere hypocrisy. . . . {A New Life NL 32.1}
- That which God required of Adam before his fall was perfect obedience to His law. God requires now what He required of Adam, perfect obedience, righteousness without a flaw, without shortcoming in His sight. God help us to render to Him all His law requires. We cannot do this without that faith that brings Christ's righteousness into daily practice. {2SM 380.4}
- While the law is holy, the Jews could not attain righteousness by their own efforts to keep the law. The disciples of Christ must obtain righteousness of a different character from that of the Pharisees, if they would enter the kingdom of heaven. God offered them, in His Son, the perfect righteousness of the law. If they would open their hearts fully to receive Christ, then the very life of God, His love, would dwell in them, transforming them into His own likeness; and thus through God's free gift they would possess the righteousness which the law requires. But the Pharisees rejected Christ; "being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness" (Romans 10:3), they would not submit themselves unto the righteousness of God. {MB 54.2}
- The duty we owe to God is revealed in his word in unmistakable clearness. Here the obligation of man is declared so explicitly that the day of Judgment will reveal no excuse for not serving God. God's great moral standard of righteousness is to be met. His law requires your heart's supreme affection for your Maker. It requires you to do unto others as you would have them do to you. "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth," is a positive declaration; but "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven," is equally positive. {BEcho, February 15, 1889 par. 8}

- This is the voice of God to you, my brethren and sisters who profess to keep the law of God. That law requires that you love your neighbor as yourself. Are you doing it? {RH, March 11, 1884 par. 10}
- The Chinese New Year commences in February, and lasts one week. They have a custom of settling all quarrels between themselves and all outstanding debts; and if there are any who are unable to pay their debts, they are forgiven them. Thus the new year is commenced with all difficulties and accounts settled. This is a heathen custom that the Christian world would do well to imitate. God's law requires all this of us, and more,--we are to love our neighbor as ourselves. That is, we are to deal with our neighbors in everything just as we would wish them to deal with us. If we wish them to act fairly and justly toward us, then we should act fairly and justly toward them. We are simply to do as we would be done by. {RH, December 16, 1884 par. 4}
- Christ saw that that which prevented the truth from reaching many hearts was their misconception of the nature and claims of the law. They neglected to cultivate spirituality. They did not know the Lord whom they professed to serve and obey. They did not discern the relation of Jesus to the Father, neither did they know by experience the paternal character of God, or understand that his law requires us to love God supremely, and our neighbor as ourselves. If they would have emptied the soul of selfishness, pride, and self-love, and humbled their hearts to be instructed by the greatest Teacher the world ever knew, they would have recognized the grace of God in the gift of Jesus to our world to save those who were ready to perish. {ST, November 23, 1891 par. 5}
- God's law requires that justice and right be exercised between man and his fellow man; it requires that we shall not injure our neighbor in his property, his feelings, his health, or his good name. It requires compassion for the afflicted, even if he be our enemy, that in all our associations with our fellow beings we shall show the same love and care that we would wish to have exercised toward ourselves. Who can stand before this great moral standard, and plead not guilty? {ST, January 7, 1897 par. 3}

- Christ came to this world to live the law and represent the character of God, that the delusions which Satan had brought upon the world might be dispelled. In the sermon on the mount, He who gave the law became an expositor of the law. That sermon, so full of what it means to love and obey God, is the unfolding of His character. The law is shown to be a representation of God's character, that man may see that he must render obedience to the law if he would become a member of the royal family, a child of the heavenly King. This law requires nothing short of perfect spiritual obedience. {ST, February 24, 1898 par. 5}

What did we not hear in any of these passages? Did we hear the weight of these passages talking about legal penalties being paid? Did we hear the law require a legal penalty or healing and transformation?

But what about this quotation?

- Christ saw the helpless condition of the race, and he came to redeem them by living the life of obedience the law requires, and by paying in his death the penalty of disobedience. He came to bring us the message and means of deliverance, an assurance of salvation, not through the abrogation of the law, but through obedience made possible by his merits. {RH, April 29, 1902 par. 10}
 - Does it say the penalty is a legal penalty? Or that there is a penalty and that penalty was paid? The law requires a life of obedience, there is a penalty for sin, but the law doesn't require sin be punished, only that the infection of sin be destroyed so that a life of obedience could be obtained. Thus lawlessness results in death and Christ could only restore a life of obedience into humanity by destroying the carnal nature He assumed – thus suffering the penalty sin brought. In so doing He destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light (2Tim 1:10).

Thoughts? What does it mean to have a change in our legal status? It means that we have a change in our character so that we are in harmony with the law? Why? Because the law is the basis upon which life is built and only in harmony with it can we be united with God and live eternally!

FRIDAY

First paragraph, thoughts? What do you think about the idea of the sun burning 7 times hotter? Where does such an idea come from?

The Bible:

The moon will shine like the sun, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals the wounds he inflicted. Isaiah 30:26

But how could this be without destroying the earth? By having a water canopy over the earth. In such a situation the two lights, one to rule the day, one to rule the night, would keep the water, which now constitutes most of our oceans, in a suspended state above the earth. The polar extremes would disappear, the severe weather would disappear, no more rain, hurricanes, tornados, thunderstorms, no polar caps, the entire earth a pleasant warm place.

What happened to the sun and the moon? Why are they not this way now? The water came down at the flood, and if the sun were seven times hotter now or the moon was as hot as the sun the earth would be destroyed.

Read question 2 – it is an error to rely on science divorced from scripture, but it is equally erroneous to study scripture divorced from science.

WEDNESDAY

Top sentence - "No question..." thoughts? Well said!

Worship Lesson 1 3Q 2011

INTRODUCTION to the Study Guide

The first paragraph quotes the First Angel's message of Revelation 14, then second paragraph, "First, John..."

Thoughts?

What do you understand to be the everlasting gospel? Does everlasting, eternal, mean only for eternity future? Or is the good news an eternal good news that was true for eternity past? When Lucifer rebelled in heaven was it true that Jesus had died for humans? Was the gospel in existence then?

What is the eternal good news? Would it be good news that we get eternal life with God if God is like Satan in character?

Is the gospel that we get to live forever with God, or the ultimate good news is that God is not like Satan has alleged?

"Foundational then to our worship needs to be Jesus' death in our behalf."

Is this the most foundational focus of our worship – Jesus dying for us? Or is there something more foundational?

What was foundational to the worship of Adam and Eve before they sinned? Did the foundation of their worship change after sin? Did Christ's death build a new foundation or was Christ's death a further revelation of the foundation of true worship which already existed?

- This is life eternal that they might know you, the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou has sent. John 17:3
- Jesus mission was to reveal the Father John 17:5

- 2 Cor 10:3-5 We wage war against everything that sets itself up against the knowledge of God and take captive every thought to Jesus Christ
- Romans 1:18-35 when we exchange the truth of God for a lie the mind becomes depraved, futile and darkened
- John 14:9 anyone who has seen Christ has seen the Father
- But the plan of redemption had a yet broader and deeper purpose than the salvation of man. It was not for this alone that Christ came to the earth; it was not merely that the inhabitants of this little world might regard the law of God as it should be regarded; but it was to vindicate the character of God before the universe. To this result of His great sacrifice--its influence upon the intelligences of other worlds, as well as upon man--the Saviour looked forward when just before His crucifixion He said: "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto Me." John 12:31, 32. The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His Son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan. It would establish the perpetuity of the law of God and would reveal the nature and the results of sin. {PP 68.2}
- It was in order that the heavenly universe might see the conditions of the covenant of redemption that Christ bore the penalty in behalf of the human race. The throne of Justice must be eternally and forever made secure, even tho the race be wiped out, and another creation populate the earth. By the sacrifice Christ was about to make, all doubts would be forever settled, and the human race would be saved if they would return to their allegiance. Christ alone could restore honor to God's government. The cross of Calvary would be looked upon by the unfallen worlds, by the heavenly universe, by Satanic agencies, by the fallen race, and every mouth would be stopped. In making His infinite sacrifice Christ would exalt and honor the law. He would make known the exalted character of God's government, which could not in any way be changed to meet man in his sinful condition. {ST, July 12, 1899 par. 2}

Who is able to describe the last scenes of Christ's life on earth, His trial in the judgment hall, His crucifixion? Who witnessed these scenes?--The heavenly universe, God the Father, Satan and his angels. Wonderful events took place in the betrayal of Christ... {ST, July 12, 1899 par. 3}

... The enmity of the apostate against the Commander of all heaven must be seen. It must be shown that Satan's mercy is cruelty. What a battle was this, between Christ and Satan! It was waged up to the very time of the resurrection, yea, up to the time of the ascension. Then it was transferred to Christ's followers, and today Satan wars against them. {ST, July 12, 1899 par. 4}

What is foundational to our worship? It is the truth about the character of God, His nature, methods, principles and being!

What kind of war is it? And how does Satan wage it against Christ's followers today?

Third paragraph of the introduction states, "When we approach God in worship as a kind of buddy or pal, we degrade Him and place ourselves in a role in which we do not belong. Worship should be permeated by a sense of reverence and awe for our God, an attitude that will give us the humility and surrender so needed for true worship."

Thoughts?

What is another name for a buddy or pal? Comrade, chum, mate or friend?

What did Jesus say?

I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. John 15:15

What about one of the founders of our church, what did she say?

If we keep the Lord ever before us, allowing our hearts to go out in thanksgiving and praise to Him, we shall have a continual freshness in our religious life. Our prayers will take the form of a conversation with God as we would talk with a friend. He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Often there will come to us a sweet, joyful sense of the presence of Jesus. . . . Prayer turns aside the attacks of Satan. FLB 226

Thoughts?

Can one have reverence and awe and also friendship, be pals? Or are these mutually exclusive?

Read the next paragraph, “We are also told...”

Yes, our worship, our hearts and minds must be focused on God. Is this what the Revelation text primarily means when it says to give glory to God, that we, in our worship services talk about Him?

“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³ I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.”

²⁴ “For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. ²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

Ezekiel 36:22-27

Thoughts? Don't we give glory to God by allowing Him to restore His character in us and therefore we reveal His character in the way we live?

Read next paragraph, "We are told..." thoughts?

Does Revelation 14 speak of Christ sitting on the throne in Judgment or of God Himself being judged? What did Jesus say?

"As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. ⁴⁸ There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day. John 12:47,48

What does this mean? That the truth of our own condition is what judges us. If all of us are infected with a terminal illness, and a remedy is offered, and while all of us claim to have taken the remedy, only some of us have – do we have to have someone sit in judgment to determine who has really taken the remedy, or will the truth of our condition reveal itself?

Then what is the judgment of God in Revelation 14 talking about?

What did the war in heaven, initiated by Lucifer, start over? Lucifer alleged God could not be trusted. How did Satan spread his rebellion to earth? He deceived our first parents in regard to God's trustworthiness.

We are fighting a thought war and are to demolish everything that sets itself up against "the knowledge of God!" (2Cor 10:5). And in Romans 3:4 Paul tells us that God is the One on trial, the One accused and the One who will be proved innocent:

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. KJV

May it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man be found a liar, as it is written, “That You may be justified in Your words, And prevail when You are judged.” NASB

Certainly not! God must be true, even though every human being is a liar. As the scripture says, “You must be shown to be right when you speak; you must win your case when you are being tried.” GNT

No! God will continue to be true even when every person is false. As the Scriptures say: “So you will be shown to be right when you speak, and you will win your case.” NCV

As we move into this quarterly let us remember the central focus of all our worship is the truth about God, as revealed in Christ!

LESSON 1 Worship in Genesis: Two Classes of Worshipers

SABBATH

Read both paragraphs, “It has been...” thoughts?

Is this the real lesson of Cain and Abel? Was Cain worshipping self? Was Cain bringing offerings to an altar with an idol of himself? Or while there was something amiss with Cain, was he still presenting his offering to God?

In MONDAY’s lesson it asks what made the difference between Cain and Abel’s offerings to God?

So what was the problem with Cain’s offering? Was Cain trying to buy God? Was Cain trying to “work” his way into heaven, as is often the case? Or was something else going on in this process?

Remember the story of the Pharisee and publican who came to worship when Jesus was on earth? One was pompous and boastful the other humble and needful? Is this the difference?

The Pharisee and the publican represent two great classes into which those who come to worship God are divided. Their first two representatives are found in the first two children that were born into the world. Cain thought himself righteous, and he came to God with a thank offering only. He made no confession of sin, and acknowledged no need of mercy. But Abel came with the blood that pointed to the Lamb of God. He came as a sinner, confessing himself lost; his only hope was the unmerited love of God. The Lord had respect to his offering, but to Cain and his offering He had not respect. The sense of need, the recognition of our poverty and sin, is the very first condition of acceptance with God. "Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Matt. 5:3. {COL 152.1}

What was the difference? Cain refused to accept he was sick, terminal, dying. If a patient refuses to accept he is sick, will he participate in the treatment plan? This is what the problem is in this situation. Those who think they are okay and those who recognize their need!

Remember the old movie 2001 a space odyssey? In the movie HAL was an artificial intelligence, computer, which ran the ship. On the way to Jupiter the astronauts kept dying. When the last two finally figured out what was going on, that HAL was killing them. The computer said that he was perfect, that computers never make mistakes, that anytime any error happens with a computer it is always traced back to a human being. In other words, I am perfect, but even if I did make a mistake it was because you, my creator made me this way.

This is exactly, what Cain and the class of the lost say. There is nothing wrong with us, but even if there is, it is your fault God because you made us this way. This is Lucifer's allegations, that God is the one at fault.

God could not accept Cain's sacrifice because Cain's heart was closed to God's remedy to sin! So, where was the barrier between God and Cain? Was the barrier, as some have alleged, God's wrath which needed a blood sacrifice to remove it, or was the barrier Cain's condition and closed heart and refusal to accept God's remedy?

SUNDAY

Speaks about worship in Eden and references the Sabbath – what role did the Sabbath have in Eden?

- Physical rest
- Church attendance
- Reminder of who the creator is?
- A time to fellowship with God?
- An evidence of God's character, which is worthy of our worship?

How is the Sabbath connected to worship?

One aspect of the Sabbath is to remind us of God as creator, and God's creatorship is one of the reasons often given in Scripture for our worship:

The duty to worship God is based upon the fact that he is the Creator, and that to him all other beings owe their existence. And wherever, in the Bible, his claim to reverence and worship, above the gods of the heathen, is presented, there is cited the evidence of his creative power. "All the gods of the nations are idols; but the Lord made the heavens." [PS. 96:5.] "To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things." "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; . . . I am Jehovah; and there is none else." [ISA. 40:25, 26; 45:18.] Says the psalmist, "Know ye that Jehovah, he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves." "O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker." [PS. 100:3; 95:6.] And the holy beings who worship God in Heaven state, as the reason why their homage is due to him, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for thou hast created all things." [REV. 4: 11.] {GC88 436.2}

Why is this issue emphasized over and over again in Scripture? Thoughts? What is the significance? In a post fall world had the question of who created us arisen? Has the truth of our origins become obscured by human theories? Was this true in Eden?

So while, in our fallen world, we are thankful for the Sabbath as a reminder of our Awesome Creator, what was the purpose of the Sabbath in Eden?

Which member of the Godhead is our Creator? Does this have any significance? Why? With whom did Satan allege equality? Is it important to worship our Creator merely because He has the power to create – in other words, does creative power alone make God worthy of our worship?

- “What is the deepest in God? His power? No, for power could not make him what we mean when we say God. A being whose essence was only power would be such a negation of the divine that no righteous worship could be offered him; his service would be only fear.” George MacDonald, Discovering the Character of God, p. 29.

Thoughts? Is something more than creative power alone necessary to be worthy of our worship?

Did Satan allege God did not have creative power? Or did Satan allege God uses His power arbitrarily and selfishly?

Did Satan allege, like Hal, that if we do anything wrong it is because God made us this way so the real problem is with God?

The lesson points to Revelation 14:7 “worship him who made...” emphasizing the reality that we need to worship only the creator.

But according to Revelation in addition to being our Creator, what makes Him worthy of our worship?

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!” Rev 5:12

What significance is it to recognize Jesus is our Creator and our Creator let us kill Him and wouldn't use His power to stop us?

Isn't it the selfless character of Christ, proven beyond question, which makes our Creator worthy of our worship?

Is there a difference between duty – and the reason God said to worship Him? Does God say to worship Him because it is our duty?

The man who attempts to keep the commandments of God from a sense of obligation merely--because he is required to do so--will never enter into the joy of obedience. He does not obey. When the requirements of God are accounted a burden because they cut across human inclination, we may know that the life is not a Christian life. True obedience is the outworking of a principle within. It springs from the love of righteousness, the love of the law of God. The essence of all righteousness is loyalty to our Redeemer. This will lead us to do right because it is right--because right doing is pleasing to God. {COL 97.3}

Why does God say we are to worship Him? While it is our duty to worship God, why is it our duty? It is true God is Creator, Sovereign, All Powerful, but is this why God says to worship Him?

TUESDAY

The lesson points out that from Cain came one type of worshipper and from Seth another. These are referred to in the Bible as the Son's of God and the daughters of men. And it points out that eventually they began to intermarry, and this led to degradation in worship, which resulted in degradation in character and eventually the flood.

What lessons do we learn from this history?

WEDNESDAY

Read last paragraph, "As we have seen..." thoughts? What was the purpose of God asking Abraham to sacrifice Isaac? Was God ever going to have Abraham go through with it?

Does this stand as a representation of God killing Jesus? What is the purpose?

Abraham wanted to see God, to know Him, to understand Him, and in this task Abraham was brought more closely in union with God's heart than in any other aspect of Abraham's life. Abraham could empathize with what God would be going through when Jesus died. God did send His Son as the way and means of saving mankind and bringing sin in the universe to an end.

THURSDAY

Last paragraph, "Worship is not..." thoughts? What is God's attitude toward us? What does He want from us?

Does God want us in the closest unity and intimacy of friendship or to keep a formal Royal separation between us?

Are we not children of God, part of the heavenly royal family?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 and 3

Lesson 2

Worship and the Exodus: Understanding who God is.

Sabbath Afternoon

Ex. 20: 2,3. “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other gods before Me.”

Did you ever wonder why the 10 commandments start with “I am the Lord ...” ??

If you perform a search for the phrase “I am the Lord” on a Bible search engine, you will get anywhere from 0 [Message Bible] to 249 [New International Reader’s Version] verses. Most versions I looked at have somewhere around 150 verses with this phrase in them. Most of the verses are in the books of Leviticus, Isaiah, and Ezekiel. NO texts are in the New Testament. Any thoughts as to WHY??

Think about what life was like to the children of Israel having been just delivered from bondage in Egypt. For nearly four centuries your ancestors had been in slavery – working from dawn to dark building monuments to heathen gods. [For some perspective: the first printing of the King James Bible was in 1611 – 400 years ago.] Imagine how darkened your mind would be regarding a God you could not see/touch/hear/smell/etc.

We are sometimes prone to think that if we had lived back then, things would have been very different, but do we not still have mistaken God concepts now?? even after Jesus clearly revealed his character, and we’ve had 400 years of the Word of God available [now at just the touch of a button].

Sunday – Holy Ground

At the time Moses came upon the burning bush, did he have a correct God concept??

1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. 2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. 3 So Moses thought, “I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up.” 4 When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses! Moses!” And Moses said, “Here I am.” 5 “Do not come any closer,” God said. “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.” 6 Then he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

The lesson states: “Reverence, awe, and fear – these are the attitudes that are crucial it is for us in order to engage in true worship.” Really?? Fear?? I hope the author meant respect instead of fear, but ...

Adam and Eve ran and hid because they were afraid, Moses hid his face because he was afraid – later on the Mountain, he asked to see God’s face [where’s the fear now??], and God, in his wisdom covered Moses with his hand and caused his “goodness” to pass before Moses, which made his face glow, but didn’t burn it ... hmmm.

Ex. 34: 6,7. And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, 7 maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation.”

In the last paragraph the lesson states: “In the same way, Jesus did not come to this earth merely to represent God and help us know more about Him. No, Jesus came to die for our sins, to give His life as a ransom, to die on the cross the death that we deserve. Through His death, of course, we know more and more about the character of God, but in the end Christ came to pay the penalty for our sins and thus give us true deliverance, the deliverance symbolized in part by what the Lord did for Israel when He freed the nation from Egypt.”

While I agree Jesus came NOT ONLY to reveal the character of God, He did NOT pay any penalty. He did pay a dear price [my understanding is He gave up his omnipresence, because Phil. 2: 5-7. Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

He also came to develop the remedy to cure our terminal condition [sin] and thus its symptoms [sins].

Monday – The Death of the Firstborn: Passover & Worship.

Let’s start at the beginning of the plagues / miracles:

1. Moses’ serpent devoured the magician’s serpents [Serpents were objects of Egyptian worship].
2. Nile turned to blood. [The Nile and its inhabitants also objects of Egyptian worship].
3. Legions of frogs. [Nile god became a source of pollution to its worshippers].
NOTE: Miracles 1-3 counterfeited by the Egyptian magicians.

4. Lice. [The pagan priests were particular about approaching the altars for worship, and an insect on one's person would prevent them from offering food or gifts to the idols. Imagine the difficulty the infestation of lice caused on pagan Egypt.]
5. Flies. This was designed to destroy the Egyptians faith in Beelzebub [the Fly god], who supposedly protected the people from flies.
6. Destruction of livestock [except those of the Israelites]. This was intended to wake up Egypt to their entire system of brute beast worship.
7. [6th plague / 7th miracle] Boils. Human sacrifice was still practiced in Egypt at this time. Often the priests would burn human victims alive, and toss the ashes into the air to appease the god Typhon, or the Evil Principle. The people believed that wherever ash would land, evil would be averted. Consider the distress when severe boils broke out from the ash that Moses threw into the air. Instead of evil being averted, the ash caused evil.
8. Hail. This [along with the 9th plague / 10th miracle] was directed against the worship of Isis and Osiris – the moon and sun gods, respectively. Egypt was not accustomed to violent storms, much less those producing large hailstones. The hail revealed that the God of heaven was able to control the weather, as well as the heavenly bodies.
9. Locusts. This plague was directed against Serapis, the god credited with protecting the country from locust. He failed.
10. Darkness. See #8.
11. Death of the first born. This was designed to reveal that God is the only source of life. Period. [Source: PP Appendix Note 5 pgs 758,9]

See the below link for an interesting take on the Passover meaning. I have no idea if it is accurate or credible, but it makes sense.

In summary: In Eastern culture at the time of the Passover, when expecting a guest, blood would be sprinkled over the doorway in an expression of welcome, or a covenant of hospitality, not one of unwelcome. The more honored the guest, the more costly the blood. For example, the blood of a dove or pigeon might be used for a neighbor or distant family member, but the blood of a “fatted calf” would be used when welcoming royalty.

http://www.familyfoundations.com/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=148%3Aunderstanding-passover-article-by-craig-hill&catid=51%3Afree-stuff&Itemid=187&lang=en

Tuesday – No other gods.

The law was not spoken at this time exclusively for the benefit of the Hebrews. God honored them by making them the guardians and keepers of His law, but it was to be held as a sacred trust for the whole world. The precepts of the Decalogue are adapted to all mankind, and they were given for the instruction and government of all. Ten precepts, brief, comprehensive, and authoritative, cover the duty of man to God and to his fellow man; and all based upon the great fundamental principle of love. “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.” Luke 10:27. See also Deuteronomy 6:4, 5; Leviticus 19:18. In the Ten Commandments these principles are carried out in detail, and made applicable to the condition and circumstances of man. {PP 305.2}

Why does God want “no other gods before me”?? Some would suggest He’s that insecure, as to need our worship constantly. Seriously??

Wednesday – “These be your Gods ...”

While Moses was absent it was a time of waiting and suspense to Israel. The people knew that he had ascended the mount with Joshua, and had entered the cloud of thick darkness which could be seen from the plain below, resting on the mountain peak, illuminated from time to time with the lightnings of the divine Presence. They waited eagerly for his return. Accustomed as they had been in Egypt to material representations of deity, it had been hard for them to trust in an invisible being, and they had come to rely upon Moses to sustain their faith. Now he was taken from them. Day after day, week after week passed, and still he did not return. Notwithstanding the cloud was still in view, it seemed to many in the camp that their leader had deserted them, or that he had been consumed by the devouring fire. {PP 315.1}
During this period of waiting, there was time for them to meditate upon the law of God which they had heard, and to prepare their hearts to receive the further revelations that He might make to them. They had none too much time for this work; and had they been thus seeking a clearer understanding of God’s requirements, and humbling their hearts before Him, they would have been shielded from temptation. But they did not do this, and they soon became careless, inattentive, and lawless. Especially was this the case with the mixed multitude. They were impatient to be on their way to the Land of Promise—the land flowing with milk and honey. It was only on condition of obedience that the goodly land was promised them, but they had lost sight of this. There were some who suggested a return to Egypt, but whether forward to Canaan or backward to Egypt, the masses of the people were determined to wait no longer for Moses. {PP 315.2}

Moses in the mount was warned of the apostasy in the camp and was directed to return without delay. “Go, get thee down,” were the words of God; “thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made them a molten calf, and have worshiped it.” God might have checked the movement at the outset; but He suffered it to come to this height that He might teach all a lesson in His punishment of treason and apostasy. {PP 317.4}

God’s covenant with His people had been disannulled, and He declared to Moses, “Let Me alone, that My wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.” The people of Israel, especially the mixed multitude, would be constantly disposed to rebel against God. They would also murmur against their leader, and would grieve him by their unbelief and stubbornness, and it would be a laborious and soul-trying work to lead them through to the Promised Land. Their sins had already forfeited the favor of God, and justice called for their destruction. The Lord therefore proposed to destroy them, and make of Moses a mighty nation. {PP 318.1}

“Let Me alone, ...that I may consume them,” were the words of God. If God had purposed to destroy Israel, who could plead for them? How few but would have left the sinners to their fate! How few but would have gladly exchanged a lot of toil and burden and sacrifice, repaid with ingratitude and murmuring, for a position of ease and honor, when it was God Himself that offered the release. {PP 318.2}

But Moses discerned ground for hope where there appeared only discouragement and wrath. The words of God, “Let Me alone,” he understood not to forbid but to encourage intercession, implying that nothing but the prayers of Moses could save Israel, but that if thus entreated, God would spare His people. He “besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth Thy wrath wax hot against Thy people, which Thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?” {PP 318.3}

Love no less than justice demanded that for this sin judgment should be inflicted. God is the guardian as well as the sovereign of His people. He cuts off those who are determined upon rebellion, that they may not lead others to ruin. In sparing the life of Cain, God had demonstrated to the universe what would be the result of permitting sin to go unpunished. The influence exerted upon his descendants by his life and teaching led to the state of corruption that demanded the destruction of the whole world by a flood. The history of the antediluvians testifies that long life is not a blessing to the sinner; God's great forbearance did not repress their wickedness. The longer men lived, the more corrupt they became. {PP 325.2}

The lesson correctly points out, in the last paragraph, the principle of “by beholding, we become changed.” We understand this as the Law of Worship.

Thursday – Show me your Glory

We saw in Sunday's lesson that at the burning bush, God kind of introduced himself to Moses. A few months later, Moses was asking God “...show me thy way, that I may know thee ...” WHY??

Still the prophet did not cease pleading. Every prayer had been answered, but he thirsted for greater tokens of God's favor. He now made a request that no human being had ever made before: “I beseech Thee, show me Thy glory.” {PP 328.2}

God did not rebuke his request as presumptuous; but the gracious words were spoken, “I will make all My goodness pass before thee.” The unveiled glory of God, no man in this mortal state can look upon and live; but Moses was assured that he should behold as much of the divine glory as he could endure. Again he was summoned to the mountain summit; then the hand that made the world, that hand that “removeth the mountains, and they know not” (Job 9:5), took this creature of the dust, this mighty man of faith, and placed him in a cleft of the rock, while the glory of God and all His goodness passed before him. {PP 328.3}

This experience—above all else the promise that the divine Presence would attend him—was to Moses an assurance of success in the work before him; and he counted it of infinitely greater worth than all the learning of Egypt or all his attainments as a statesman or a military leader. No earthly power or skill or learning can supply the place of God's abiding presence. {PP 328.4}

To the transgressor it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God; but Moses stood alone in the presence of the Eternal One, and he was not afraid; for his soul was in harmony with the will of his Maker. Says the psalmist, “If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.” Psalm 66:18. But “the secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him; and He will show them His covenant.” Psalm 25:14. {PP 329.1}

Friday

Suggested reading: Patriarchs and Prophets. Ch 1 “Why was sin permitted”, Ch's 22-29. “Moses, The Plagues of Egypt, The Passover, The Exodus, From the Red Sea to Sinai, The Law Given to Israel, Idolatry at Sinai, Satan's Enmity against the Law”.

Worship Lesson 3 3Q 2011

The Sabbath and Worship

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, "As we saw..."

What does the lesson define the gospel to be? "the good news of salvation in Jesus..."

Do you agree with this as the everlasting gospel?

How would you define the gospel?

What is the eternal good news? Is it not that:

- God is good
- God is trustworthy
- God is love
- God is faithful
- God is kind, patient, loyal
- God is NOT as Satan alleged

And isn't this knowledge, knowing God, not in a Gnostic, intellectual knowing, but in an experiential knowing that results in salvation and eternal life?

John 17:3 This is life eternal that they might know you the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

Do you notice how the gospel has become a formula for our salvation? Is the eternal good news primarily about us, about what happens to us, or is the good news primarily about God?

What if we misidentify the gospel? Do we miss the meaning of the message? Do we miss the message we are to take to the world? Do we struggle in our ability to fulfill our purpose in this time in history?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Remember the Sabbath..." Can we make the Sabbath unholy? Can we do things that cause the Sabbath to no longer be holy?

When they mistreated and abused Jesus, the holy one of God, did their unholy treatment of Jesus make Him unholy?

Can unholy human behavior make the Sabbath unholy?

Then what does the commandment mean when it says to "keep the Sabbath Holy?"

Doesn't it mean for us to keep ourselves holy on the Sabbath?

But in order to keep the Sabbath holy, men must themselves be holy. Through faith they must become partakers of the righteousness of Christ. When the command was given to Israel, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy," the Lord said also to them, "Ye shall be holy men unto Me." Ex. 20:8; 22:31. Only thus could the Sabbath distinguish Israel as the worshipers of God. {DA 283.3}

And what does it mean to be holy? Does it mean to be set apart for sacred use?

Set apart from what? Would it be from the world? What makes something of the world? Would it be selfishness? So would set apart from selfishness mean?

So does keeping the Sabbath holy mean we are to keep ourselves apart from selfishness?

Turn to WEDNESDAY, which asks us about Exodus 31:13

Say to the Israelites, 'You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.'

How is the Sabbath and our holiness connected? Who made the Sabbath holy? Who makes us holy?

What does it mean to be holy? Does this mean we are to avoid work? Only if it is to promote self – but if it is work to bless others, to avoid it would be to break the Sabbath.

This is why Jesus said that His Father is always at work and so is He. The Jews avoided work on Sabbath and created a long list of rules for their behavior in order to keep the Sabbath Holy. The Sabbath became a day of restriction, rather than freedom and a day which was a test of their orthodoxy, a test of their righteousness, a test of their holiness, in other words, the Sabbath became a day about them.

Jesus stated to them that the work of relieving the afflicted was in harmony with the Sabbath law. It was in harmony with the work of God's angels, who are ever descending and ascending between heaven and earth to minister to suffering humanity. Jesus declared, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." All days are God's, in which to carry out His plans for the human race...

Should God forbid the sun to perform its office upon the Sabbath, cut off its genial rays from warming the earth and nourishing vegetation? Must the system of worlds stand still through that holy day? ...

In such a case, men would miss the fruits of the earth, and the blessings that make life desirable. Nature must continue her unvarying course. God could not for a moment stay His hand, or man would faint and die. And man also has a work to perform on this day. The necessities of life must be attended to, the sick must be cared for, the wants of the needy must be supplied. He will not be held guiltless who neglects to relieve suffering on the Sabbath. God's holy rest day was made for man, and acts of mercy are in perfect harmony with its intent. God does not desire His creatures to suffer an hour's pain that may be relieved upon the Sabbath or any other day.

The demands upon God are even greater upon the Sabbath than upon other days. His people then leave their usual employment, and spend the time in meditation and worship. They ask more favors of Him on the Sabbath than upon other days. They demand His special attention. They crave His choicest blessings. God does not wait for the Sabbath to pass before He grants these requests. Heaven's work never ceases, and men should never rest from doing good. The Sabbath is not intended to be a period of useless inactivity. The law forbids secular labor on the rest day of the Lord; the toil that gains a livelihood must cease; no labor for worldly pleasure or profit is lawful upon that day; but as God ceased His labor of creating, and rested upon the Sabbath and blessed it, so man is to leave the occupations of his daily life, and devote those sacred hours to healthful rest, to worship, and to holy deeds. The work of Christ in healing the sick was in perfect accord with the law. It honored the Sabbath. - Desire of Ages, pp. 206-207

Thoughts?

Read third paragraph SUNDAY, "Creation and Redemption..." thoughts?

This reminds me of a time when Christie and I were visiting another church. It was Sabbath morning and for the introductory prayer the pastor prayed, "Lord we are here today, in church, on your Sabbath day, not to visit with friends, not to hear the special music, not even to hear the sermon. No, Lord, we are here for one reason and one reason only, Because you have commanded us to be here."

Is this a good reason because God has ordered it? What is your reason for valuing the Sabbath? Why are you here today?

First question – Has God ordered it? Has God commanded it?

Are not the 10 Commandments a distillation of God's law of love uniquely designed for humans in sin? Didn't Christ say the greatest commandment is to love God and second is to love man, all the law and the prophets hang on these?

Can love be commanded? So how do we understand the 10 Commandments, are they the 10 suggestions?

Is there a difference from a military order, a governmental command, a dictator's dictate, and a doctor's prescription, a doctor's order?

What is the difference?

How do you hear the 10 Commandments? As an order to obey, or as a prescription to take?

Does it make a difference?

From the White Estate:

ELLEN WHITE ONCE WROTE, "A SULLEN SUBMISSION TO THE WILL OF THE FATHER WILL DEVELOP THE CHARACTER OF A REBEL."--"THAT I MAY KNOW HIM," P. 120. IN WRITING THIS, GOD'S SERVANT ANTICIPATED THE NUMBER ONE PROBLEM CONFRONTING EDUCATORS AND PARENTS: HOW TO CREATE A POSITIVE ATTITUDE ON THE PART OF CHILDREN TOWARD THE CHURCH. THIS IS THE SUBJECT IN THE FOLLOWING LETTER. {PCP 45.1}

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE CONSTANTLY URGED TO FOLLOW THE ADVICE GIVEN IN 2 PETER 1. BUT MANY REBEL. WHY? BECAUSE WITHOUT A POSITIVE CONCEPT OF GOD AND WHAT HE WISHES TO DO FOR THEM, CHILDREN RELATE TO THEIR CHURCH AND TO GOD OUT OF FEAR OR SHEAR DUTY RATHER THAN ADMIRATION. RELIGION BECOMES

OPPRESSIVE, AND IT IS EVENTUALLY REJECTED. {PCP 45.2}

CLEARLY OUR DUTY IS TO INTRODUCE CHILDREN TO THE GOD WHO STANDS BEHIND THE CHURCH'S DOCTRINES AND STANDARDS. SECOND PETER HELPS US DO THIS: THE EMPHASIS IS ON OBEDIENCE AND GROWTH BASED UPON KNOWING GOD AS A FRIEND. {PCP 45.3}

Isn't that great! Did you experience things this way when you were growing up? I didn't – and many of my friends didn't either. And do you notice, we in our class have tried to do this very thing, and what have we experienced?

How about when it comes to the Sabbath? Is our focus on the God of the Sabbath or on the Sabbath and its do's and don'ts? What does the Sabbath tell us about God?

MONDAY

Read bottom green section, "If we truly..."

The lesson points us to the Sabbath as a reminder that we were created by God and didn't evolve from lower life forms.

I am a creationist – six literal days followed by the Sabbath, the evidence of design is too great and the idea of spontaneous generation too preposterous. Also, understanding the law of love versus survival of the fittest, makes it clear creation occurred.

I also agree the Sabbath exists because God created – if we evolved over billions of years, why a 7 day week in every culture of the world?

The year, month, day all have astronomical basis – but not the seven day week – no astronomical reason for it – why then a seven day week if no creation?

But, having said all that, what about our friends who worship the creator God on Sunday of a seven day week and call it Sabbath?

Can our Sunday keeping friends worship and appreciate the creator and redeemer each seven days on Sunday?

Can Sunday keeping remind our Sunday keeping friends of the creator God? Or when one worships on Sunday are they suddenly incapable of appreciating God as creator and believing a literal six days creation?

Do you think there are more six day creation believing people who worship weekly on Saturday the Sabbath or Sunday?

When God created Adam and Eve in Eden was the Sabbath given for Adam's physical rest? Was it given to remind Adam he didn't evolve from lower life forms? Was it given to remind Adam Jesus died to save him?

In Eden why was the Sabbath given to man – Adam? What was its purpose then? Did it only have a future purpose for fallen man? Was there no purpose for the Sabbath before the fall of man? What was that purpose?

When did it originate? Under what circumstance? What was transpiring in the universe when the Sabbath was created? What does it mean that this day exists? What is its evidence of?

Why is Christ our Creator and Redeemer instead of another member of the Godhead?

- Christ's creating us was demonstration, evidence, that God was not arbitrary in including Christ in counsels that Lucifer was not included in
- Christ built us so He can rebuild or fix any damage from sin
- Christ proves through His life on earth that there was no manufacturer's defect in the creation of man
- Christ reveals, through His life on earth, that even though He has power to create, He is completely trustworthy with that power and would never use it to coerce or control.

What makes the Sabbath Holy? Is it not the fact the Sabbath very existence is a day invested with the truth presented in love with freedom to think without coercion? What does it mean that God would use power to create the Sabbath but not use power to force His intelligent creatures into line?

How do we then keep the Sabbath holy? Is it not by incorporating God's character, methods, principles into our lives such that we present the truth in love and leave others free – this is genuine Sabbath observance, and is much more than avoiding work on the “right” day every seven.

Do you see how without proper appreciation for the Sabbath people can be religious and use Satan's methods of coercion to force others into line? How such Sabbath keepers could crucify Christ? What about today?

Could Sabbath keepers use coercive tactics?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “As we have...” thoughts? What did the Lord do to bring the people out of slavery in Egypt? What was revealed? What was the purpose of acting as He did?

Could God not have arranged for Moses to be Pharaoh and then have Moses set the people free? Why did it go this way? Was the setting of the people a legal problem? We need a ruler who has the legal right to set the people free, so God will get Moses to be Pharaoh and then he can legally set the people free.

No, the people could have been legally set free by Pharaoh, but would they have been free? What was the purpose of the way God did it? What was He really trying to free them from? What was revealed? Was it not the impotence of all the other false gods?

What was God really trying to free them from, human slavery, or free their minds from slavery to superstition and false thinking?

Did God pay a legal penalty to anyone to bring the Jews out of Egypt? Is there a lesson for us? Slavery in Egypt is symbolic of slavery to sin in this world. God acted in power to give evidence of the worthlessness of the pagan gods in order to free the minds of the people, both Jew and Egyptian.

God has acted throughout history to give evidence of the worthlessness of false gods, money, power, science, self.

A sacrificial animal was slain and the blood of the animal was applied to the door post – was this a legal penalty or symbolic of the remedy, the key to freedom?

Russell shared with you last week that the custom at that time was when a ruler came to a town the friends of the ruler would offer a sacrifice and apply the blood to the doorpost as an invitation to the king, inviting him into their home.

According to scripture the life is in the blood, so the blood on the doorpost reveals those who have internalized Christ into their hearts, thus those who are taken out of the world of sin are those who have taken the remedy of Jesus.

In other words the blood on the doorpost symbolized those whose hearts were in harmony with Christ, those who were sympathetic to God, those who were friends of God!

Where is the legal penalty in this?

The last sentence of Tuesday's lesson states, "Thus, for us the Sabbath worship experience should be a celebration of God's grace in freeing us not only from the legal penalty of sin (which fell upon Jesus in our behalf) but from the power of sin to enslave us."

The legal penalty for sin idea is projected constantly from historic pagan concepts into the sacred text. Show me a text from Scripture that says Jesus paid our legal penalty?

Thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "Creation, Redemption..." thoughts? Is forgiveness of sin and redemption from sin different or the two ways to say the same thing?

But forgiveness has a broader meaning than many suppose. When God gives the promise that He "will abundantly pardon," He adds, as if the meaning of that promise exceeded all that we could comprehend: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:7-9. God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin, but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. And again he says, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12. {MB 114.1}

Read second paragraph, "Of course..." is redemption and sanctification different or are they two ways of saying the same thing?

Can God redeem without sanctifying us? Can he sanctify without redeeming?

What do you understand holiness to be?

- It is not a conclusive evidence that a man is a Christian because he manifests spiritual ecstasy under extraordinary circumstances. Holiness is not rapture: it is an entire surrender of the will to God; it is living by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; it is doing the will of our heavenly Father; it is trusting God in trial, in darkness as well as in the light; it is walking by faith and not by sight; it is relying on God with unquestioning confidence, and resting in His love. {AA 51.2}

- True holiness is wholeness in the service of God. This is the condition of true Christian living. Christ asks for an unreserved consecration, for undivided service. He demands the heart, the mind, the soul, the strength. Self is not to be cherished. He who lives to himself is not a Christian. {COL 48.4}

How do we experience holiness?

- The work of transformation from unholiness to holiness is a continuous one. Day by day God labors for man's sanctification, and man is to co-operate with Him, putting forth persevering efforts in the cultivation of right habits. He is to add grace to grace; and as he thus works on the plan of addition, God works for him on the plan of multiplication. Our Saviour is always ready to hear and answer the prayer of the contrite heart, and grace and peace are multiplied to His faithful ones. Gladly He grants them the blessings they need in their struggle against the evils that beset them. {AA 532.2}

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, "The 'rest' Jesus offered..." thoughts?

It is true that we need a weekly rest, nightly rest for the body, weekly rest for the mind, to set aside the cares, worries, problems, trials, tasks, and come into rest with God.

How would this have worked in Eden before sin? Were they worn down from a week of trials, worries, cares, problems, struggles, burdens? Did they need to come away from the burdens of the world to rest? Or was there a different purpose in Eden?

But today, we are burdened, we do face trials, we do struggle, how is the Sabbath a blessing to us today?

Is the Sabbath a blessing only 1 day in 7 or does the Sabbath, when rightly experienced, bless us all the time? How?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss question number 1

Worship Lesson 4 3Q 2011

Rejoicing Before the Lord: The Sanctuary and Worship

SABBATH

Read first and second paragraph, “Russian writer...” thoughts?

Is this the only, or even the most significant, danger of mere ritual, that one will leave religion and a belief in God?

What other dangers are there in mere ritual?

- That one can enforce ritual upon others, if you are baptized in a certain way you are shunned, ostracized, executed
- That one can conform without thinking and over time lose their individuality and ability to think

Which is worse to reject the idea of God or to adhere to a ritualistic belief system in which one loses the ability to think, reason and make informed choices without someone telling them what to do?

Which is most likely to undermine development of character and godliness, the rejection of a ritualistic god, or the worship of a ritualistic god?

"All whom God has blessed with reasoning powers are to become intellectual Christians. They are not requested to believe without evidence; therefore Jesus has enjoined upon all to search the Scriptures. Let the ingenious inquirer, and the one who would know for himself what is truth, exert his mental powers to search out the truth as it is in Jesus. Any neglect here is at the peril of the soul. We must know individually the prescribed conditions of entering into eternal life. . . . We cannot allow these questions to be settled for us by another's mind, or another's judgment. . . . We cannot trust the salvation of our souls to ministers, to idle traditions, to human authorities, or to pretensions. . . . The Lord positively demands of every Christian an intelligent knowledge of the Scriptures." Review and Herald, March 8, 1887 (2RH 117:1:1 - 2:0); The Medical Missionary, May 1, 1892

If we mistake the wisdom of man for the wisdom of God we are led astray by the foolishness of man's wisdom. Here is the great danger of many in ----- . They have not an experience for themselves. They have not been in the habit of prayerfully considering for themselves, with unprejudiced, unbiased judgment, questions and subjects that are new and that are ever liable to arise. They wait to see what others will think. If these dissent, that is all that is needed to convince them that the subject under consideration is of no account whatever. Although this class is large, it does not change the fact that they are inexperienced and weak-minded through long yielding to the enemy, and will always be as sickly as babes, walking by others' light, living on others' experience, feeling as others feel, and acting as others act. They act as though they had not an individuality. Their identity is submerged in others; they are merely shadows of those whom they think about right. Unless these become sensible of their wavering character and correct it, they will all fail of everlasting life; they will be unable to cope with the perils of the last days. They will possess no stamina to resist the devil, for they do not know that it is he. Someone must be at their side to inform them whether a foe or a friend is approaching. They are not spiritual, therefore spiritual things are not discerned. They are not wise in those things which relate to the kingdom of God. Neither young nor old are excusable in trusting to another to have an experience for them. Said the angel: "Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm." A noble self-reliance is needed in the Christian experience and warfare. {2T 129.2}

SUNDAY

Read Exodus 25:1-9 – thoughts? What are the high points of this passage?

What was the purpose of the sanctuary? The lesson reminds us it was so God could dwell amongst them? Why was the sanctuary needed for this?

How did God dwell among Abraham? Or what about the burning bush? Or on Sinai? Why the sanctuary?

- Did God need the building?
- Did the Israelites need a building? For what?
- To help focus their attention?
- Did they need rituals to help stimulate their thinking?
- Did they need routines to help order the lives?
- Did they need to come with a lamb they raised and kill it with their own hands to get some sense of how awful sin is?
- Did they need to be participants in the building to help awaken their minds to a larger reality?

God wants to dwell with His people – the Sanctuary teaches this. What prevents Him from dwelling amongst us?

Is the problem we just don't have accommodations to His liking?

If we were to build a tent with all the specification listed in the Bible would God come by for a visit? Would He dwell in the tent?

Was it God's original plan to have such a tent system, or did God go to this because the people wouldn't respond to a different plan, a more direct plan?

If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by

Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God's law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. {PP 364.2}

Exodus 20 the people say, after the Commandments are given, "Don't let God talk to us lest we die, Moses let God talk to you and then you talk to us."

So God wanted to dwell among His creatures, but they were afraid to have Him close. So what did God do? He instructed them to build a Sanctuary, to bring them into the process of moving closer to Him.

What about today? What does God want in relation to us? What prevents Him from dwelling amongst us today? Would it be our condition?

Is the Old Testament Sanctuary/Temple a reality or an illustration of something larger and more significant?

What did it represent?

- Christ
- The believer
- The church
- The collection of all intelligent beings in the universe loyal to God in a unity of relationship with Him

What was Moses shown on the mountain? Was he shown the sanctuary in heaven or was he shown a "pattern"?

What is this picture?

This is a pattern, diagram, depiction of DNA. Is this DNA? If, from this two dimensional pattern, we construct, with beads and rods, a three dimensional object, which exactly follows the pattern on this picture, will we now have DNA? Will we now have anything that is actually close to DNA in substance, function, ability, similarity? No! We will only have a model which teaches us something about DNA but isn't DNA nor even close to DNA.

Would it be wise to begin making medical decisions that are concretely tied to this model?

The earthly sanctuary is not a miniature of the heavenly, but a pattern of the heavenly – i.e. an illustration, a model, an object lesson, a symbolic representation, but not a direct literal concrete miniature. Would it be wise to make salvation decisions that are tied to concrete applications of the model?

Here is what one of the founders of our church said about the model:

In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit. The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,--from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. "The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver." Malachi 3:1-3. {DA 161.1}

Thoughts? If we fail to understand the reality the model is trying to teach us might we misunderstand God's plan to heal and save?

MONDAY

Willing Hearts:

Why were gifts to build the sanctuary only to be from those who had a willing heart – why?

What does the sanctuary represent? Can the victory over sin be accomplished by force? Does the victory over sin require the willing heart participation of those involved?

So the willing bringing of gifts represents:

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.
Romans 12:1 NKJV

Why is this reasonable? And does this take a willing heart? What brings us to the point we are willing to present ourselves completely to God?

Will such willingness be brought about by threat or fear? What about by the truth about God's character?

What does God want to accomplish when we surrender ourselves to Him? Is it not, what we read earlier, the cleansing our minds and transformation of character?

Can Godly character be created by a divine edict from God?

Christ was to suffer in our behalf, standing at the head of humanity as representative of the race. He was to work out the character which every follower of His is to work out, through the provision He has made,--His infinite sacrifice, His life and death on earth. {The Gospel Herald, March 1, 1901 par. 4}

- A spotless character is as precious as the gold of Ophir. Without pure, unsullied virtue, none can ever rise to any honorable eminence. But noble aspirations and the love of righteousness are not inherited. Character cannot be bought; it must be formed by stern efforts to resist temptation. .. {Fundamentals of Christian Education 87.2}
- The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Romans 3:26. {DA 762.2}

Is a Christlike character necessary for salvation? Must we receive the mind of Christ? Must we experience the law written on the heart and mind? And is this another way of saying having the character of Christ reproduced within?

If Christlike character is a requirement for salvation, and character cannot be "bought" why do we say Christ died to purchase our salvation? What does this mean and what does it not mean?

It means it cost God/Christ dearly for Christ to become human and in His human brain overcome Satan and develop a perfect human character! It means Christ paid a “high price” of personal sacrifice, suffering, humility, subordination, diminishment of being, loss of abilities, in order to become human and create the remedy for our sinful condition.

It does not mean that God’s government has a sin payment department and Christ shed His blood so in heaven a blood fine can be paid, collected, recorded and applied to a legal account of a sinner.

Jesus said the “blood” was to be applied into the believer, John 6. The price was the achievement of victory over sinfulness and restoration of God’s law/development of perfect character into humanity.

Read bottom paragraph, “We often...” thoughts? Do you consider helping others worship?

Have you ever heard, “Imitation is the greatest compliment?”

Then wouldn’t the greatest form of worship be to imitate Christ?

³⁴ “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

³⁷ “Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

⁴⁰ “The King will reply, ‘I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.’ Matthew 24:34-40

Then where to religious rituals, ordinances, ceremonies come into worship?

- Hear the word of the LORD,
 you rulers of Sodom;
 listen to the law of our God,
 you people of Gomorrah!
- 11 “The multitude of your sacrifices—
 what are they to me?” says the LORD.
 “I have more than enough of burnt offerings,
 of rams and the fat of fattened animals;
 I have no pleasure
 in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.
- 12 When you come to appear before me,
 who has asked this of you,
 this trampling of my courts?
- 13 Stop bringing meaningless offerings!
 Your incense is detestable to me.
 New Moons, Sabbaths and convocations—
 I cannot bear your evil assemblies.
- 14 Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts
 my soul hates.
 They have become a burden to me;
 I am weary of bearing them.
- 15 When you spread out your hands in prayer,
 I will hide my eyes from you;
 even if you offer many prayers,
 I will not listen.
 Your hands are full of blood;
- 16 wash and make yourselves clean.
 Take your evil deeds
 out of my sight!
 Stop doing wrong,
- 17 learn to do right!
Seek justice,
 encourage the oppressed.
 Defend the cause of the fatherless,
 plead the case of the widow.

18 “Come now, let us reason together,”
says the LORD.
“Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red as crimson,
they shall be like wool. Isa 1:10-18

What was God tired of? Was it not religious rituals? What did He want? People to have character like His to love others more than self!

What about today? Do we still struggle with rituals over living like Christ?

TUESDAY

The morning and evening sacrifice – what was its purpose?

Were people saved by the blood of the animals sacrificed?

What was being symbolized by the shedding of the blood?

The lesson states, “Their faith was to grasp the promises of a Savior to come, the true Lamb of God who would spill His blood for the sins of the whole world.”

What does this mean? What is being cleansed by the blood?

The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean. ¹⁴ How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!... let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience... Heb 10:13,14,22

Do we understand the morning and evening sacrifice related to the cleansing of sinners?

WENDESDAY

Read second paragraph, "Above the sacred ark..." thoughts

What is being represented by this symbolism?

What does the smoke represent? The prayers of the saints, and the incense represents what? The righteous character of Christ.

How does the righteous character of Christ get into the prayers of the saints? Is it added at the end when we say, "In Jesus name amen"?

But to pray in Christ's name means much. It means that we are to accept His character, manifest His spirit, and work His works. The Saviour's promise is given on condition. "If ye love Me," He says, "keep My commandments." He saves men, not in sin, but from sin; and those who love Him will show their love by obedience. {DA 668.2}

So, how does the righteousness of Christ get into our prayers? Isn't by having Christ in the heart of the one praying?

Then where is Christ "interceding" with God to be patient and kind with us, or in our hearts to soften us to be like Him?

God's people, rescued from the fire by Jesus Christ, have a sense of their sin, feel humbled and ashamed. God sees and recognizes their repentance, and notes their sorrow for sin, which they cannot remove or cancel themselves. But as they pray their prayers are heard, and this is the reason that Satan stands by to resist Christ; because He hears their prayers, He maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. He regenerates the sinner, and pardon is written off against his name. This stirs Satan up to resistance. He steps in between the repenting, believing soul and Christ. He seeks to cast his hellish shadow before that soul, to dampen faith, and to make of none effect the words of God. . . . {UL 20.3}

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “A substantial...” thoughts? What do you think of the idea, “it was the place where Israel came to be forgiven and cleansed of sin...”

Was it the only place? Was it a required place? If one didn’t come to this place could one be forgiven and cleansed of sin?

Any examples of Jews forgiven and cleansed away from the sanctuary? What about the 70 years of captivity? Any forgiving and cleansing going on then?

Then was the sanctuary the place one went to get forgiven and cleansed of sin, or was it the place one went when one wanted to symbolically act out the process of getting forgiven and cleansed of sin? Is there a difference?

Read last paragraph, “An important point...” thoughts?

Who determines what is the truth? “Each person must be fully persuaded in his own mind.” Romans 14:5.

Does that mean anything goes or there are multiple truths? Or does it mean it does no good in the heart until an individual is convinced in his own mind of the truth?

What would you say are the core teaching points the sanctuary was designed to teach?

What is the key that helps us unlock the mysteries of the sanctuary service?

Jesus is the key – we look to Jesus first and His life and then understand the sanctuary, we err if we look to the sanctuary first and then try to make Jesus fit into our understanding of the sanctuary.

The significance of the Jewish economy is not yet fully comprehended. Truths vast and profound are shadowed forth in its rites and symbols. The gospel is the key that unlocks its mysteries. Through a knowledge of the plan of redemption, its truths are opened to the understanding. Far more than we do, it is our privilege to understand these wonderful themes. We are to comprehend the deep things of God. Angels desire to look into the truths that are revealed to the people who with contrite hearts are searching the word of God, and praying for greater lengths and breadths and depths and heights of the knowledge which He alone can give. {COL 133.1}

FRIDAY

Read and discuss the questions

Worship Lesson 5 3Q 2011

Happy Are You, Oh Israel!

SABBATH

Read memory text – Isa 5:20,21

Thoughts? To what is this referring? What, in general, would be the most heinous example of this? Would it not be attributing to God the character traits of Satan?

SUNDAY

Read last paragraph, “The tabernacle...” and then read green section.

Thoughts?

Do you think the Lord was happy with this entire situation?

Do you think God enjoys it when we fall on our faces cowering in fear before Him? Do you think this is what God wants from His creatures? Would you like your children to act this way with you?

When we look at the inspired record what do we find?

- Moses talks to God face to face as a man to a friend
- God speaks with Abraham face to face
- God came and met with Adam and Eve in the cool of the day – do you think before sin when this happened Adam and Eve fell on their face in fear? What do you imagine was the response to Adam and Eve to God’s approach before sin? Would this be more reflective of God’s ideal for our relationship with Him?
- What about in Revelation when it says the 24 elders fell on their face before the Lamb?
 - Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷ He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne. ⁸ And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹ And they sang a new song: “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth.” Rev 5:6-10

○ Is this literal or symbolic?

- But Daniel chapter 7 has millions not on their face before the Ancient of Days
- What about the prophets who, when an angel would approach fell on their faces?
 - ⁵ “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.” ⁶ Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷ With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.” Isa 6:5-7

What do we learn from this passage? What is Isaiah’s reaction to his experience? Fear, but why? Here is another example:

- ¹⁰ A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said, “Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you.” And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.¹² Then he continued, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. Daniel 10:10-12

What do you hear in this passage? Did the messenger from heaven want Daniel in fear, on his face? Then why fear?

- Aaron as well as the people shrank away from Moses, and "they were afraid to come nigh him." Seeing their confusion and terror, but ignorant of the cause, he urged them to come near. He held out to them the pledge of God's reconciliation, and assured them of His restored favor. They perceived in his voice nothing but love and entreaty, and at last one ventured to approach him. Too awed to speak, he silently pointed to the countenance of Moses, and then toward heaven. The great leader understood his meaning. In their conscious guilt, feeling themselves still under the divine displeasure, they could not endure the heavenly light, which, had they been obedient to God, would have filled them with joy. There is fear in guilt. The soul that is free from sin will not wish to hide from the light of heaven. {PP 329.5}

As soon as Adam and Eve sin they ran because they were afraid, fear, especially fear of God, is part of the infection of sin. Perfect love casts out fear. What does God want for us? Does He want to restore His perfect love in us? Then what will happen to fear? Does God want us afraid, cowering, falling down in terror?

When we come back into unity with God, through Jesus Christ, there is no fear of God, only complete trust and love.

Should we use the fear response that humans have after sin have toward God, specifically fear and falling down, and make that our ideal and promote it as God's desire for us? Did Adam and Eve act this way when God approached them in the Garden before they sinned?

God is calling us back to a relationship where we really know Him and trust Him and love Him and in this relationship there is no fear. There is great admiration, awe, respect, love, adoration, and trust – but there is no fear because there is no reason to be afraid.

What should we legitimately be afraid of? Sin! We should fear sin, fear deviating from God’s design for life, fear our own selves, our own weakness, distrust and unhealthy habit patterns. But not God!

MONDAY

The lesson recounts how fire came out from the Lord and consumed the dedication sacrifice for the sanctuary. Then, how Nadab and Abihu took unauthorized fire in the sanctuary and fire came out from the Lord and consumed them.

The lesson then states, “It is hard to believe that after some things so dramatic, a terrible fall would immediately follow. One would have thought that with such a demonstration of God’s power, all the people, particularly the priests (especially priests as highly honored as these), would have fallen strictly in line.”

Thoughts?

Is it hard to believe? Look at the evidence of history:

- The flood – followed by... tower of Babel
- Sodom and Gomorrah – followed by... more hedonism
- The 10 Plagues of Egypt – followed by... golden calf
- Mt Carmel – followed by... more rebellion and eventual crucifixion of Christ

What does God want? What is He trying to accomplish? He is trying to restore love into the hearts of His creatures and can that be accomplished by power?

Zech 4:6, “Not by might nor by power but by the Spirit says the Lord.” Why?

Then why all the use of might and power? It was the only thing to which they would respond.

Read last paragraph, “The Hebrew wording in both...” thoughts?

What do you hear? Do you see the leap they made from the fire of God, to God’s wrath?

What does the evidence of Scripture actually reveal?

- What does the historic record of the gospels tell us about what Jesus experienced at the cross?
- Any record of fire raining down upon Him?
- What words did Jesus Himself speak? “Why are you burning me?”

If the lesson is true, then who does the lesson have as killing Christ? Did God kill Christ? One of the founders of our church saw it in a different light:

Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. {DA 761.2}

Who do you think murdered Christ, God our Father or Satan? How could Christians come to think that God killed Christ? They have accepted a false idea about God and His government and teach it to the people today.

Listen to this amazing quote from Prophets and Kings, Dennis Steele pointed this out to me last week:

“From the day the Lord declared to the serpent in Eden, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed" (Genesis 3:15), Satan has known that he can never hold absolute sway over the inhabitants of this world. When Adam and his sons began to offer the ceremonial sacrifices ordained by God as a type of the coming Redeemer, Satan discerned in these a symbol of communion between earth and heaven. During the long centuries that have followed, it has been his constant effort to intercept this communion. Untiringly has he sought to misrepresent God and to misinterpret the rites pointing to the Saviour, and with a great majority of the members of the human family he has been successful.

“While God has desired to teach men that from His own love comes the Gift which reconciles them to Himself, the archenemy of mankind has endeavored to represent God as one who delights in their destruction. Thus the sacrifices and the ordinances designed of Heaven to reveal divine love have been perverted to serve as means whereby sinners have vainly hoped to propitiate, with gifts and good works, the wrath of an offended God.” PK 685.

According to one of the founders of our church, this idea that God’s wrath needed to be propitiated is a perversion of Satan. What do you think? Did God kill His Son in order to assuage or propitiate His wrath?

What about the fire?

- The fire consumed the dead animal sacrifice such that the matter that made up the animal was combusted into energy. What about the fire that “consumed” the sons of Aaron? Their bodies were not burned up nor even burnt as they were carried out still in their tunics.
- The lesson suggests we will never have to face the fire – what about Daniel chapter 7? What about Hebrews 12:29?
- What is the source of the fire? God and “to sin wherever it is found our God is a consuming fire.” What would have happened if God would have revealed Himself to Jesus on the Cross? Would Jesus have been consumed by the fire? What was Jesus longing for? What was He desiring? Was it not the presence of His Father?
- In fact, it was the hiding of God’s presence which was so tormenting and painful to Jesus and led to His death.
- This is exactly opposite of what the wicked in the end experience. They are consumed by the fire of God’s presence when God fully reveals Himself, “They are destroyed by the brightness of his coming.”

Satan has lied to us and gotten people to teach the place you don’t want to go and the place you don’t want to be is the place of eternal burning and it is God’s very presence in which the righteous dwell. See Isaiah 33:14,15.

Satan has lied to us and gotten people to believe God must kill in order to be just.

Satan has lied to us and gotten people to believe God killed His Son on the cross.

We are in a war – 2Cor10:3-5 over the trustworthiness of God Himself. Satan uses weapons of lies and distortion, God uses truth, love and freedom.

God is waiting for His people on earth to reject the lies, have the spirit temple cleansed and proclaim a clear message about Him to the world – then He will come.

Who will go? Are we to wait for pastors to do the work? Are we to wait for the church politic to do the work? If we want the message to go forward, each of us must begin to share it.

Our board is working on making materials to share. We have distributed over 100 of the DVD sets around the world to people who want to use them in their churches, schools, or to hold community seminars or in home study groups. I have brought some today for any in our class who would like to share with your friends and neighbors.

If any of our online class wants a set to use to minister in your community email us with your address and we will send you one.

Some might allege we are attacking the church – if you hear this, reject it. We are not attacking the church, we are attacking a distorted theology that has infected the church.

When Christ was on earth He did not attack the church of His day. He did attack the distorted ideas which obstructed people from seeing God. But when speaking to the woman at the well He told her salvation is of the Jews.

Likewise, we understand the important role the church has in preparing the world for Christ's return. But we also understand that we cannot complete our mission if we don't rid ourselves of the infection of false God constructs.

If a doctor pointed out the infection in a patient, is the doctor attacking the patient? No! He is attacking the infection to save the patient.

So don't get insecure if someone makes a false allegation that we are attacking the church – redirect them that we are warring against “everything that sets itself up against the knowledge of God!” 2Cor 10:3-5.

TUESDAY

The lesson reminds us of the importance of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

What do you have to be thankful for? What would you like to praise God for?

- Who He is!
- What Jesus has done to bring us the truth!
- His methods, principles, government of love!
- His patience with us!
- The Bible and inspired writings!
- For our brothers and sisters who know and love God and the truth about God!
- Thankful for my wife
- Thankful that my mother’s health is improving
- Thankful for my family
- Thankful for the wisdom God has given me regarding the human mind and God’s methods that heal.

What are you thankful for?

WEDNESDAY

Read top paragraph, “Worship, in the Bible...” thoughts? What does it mean “personal taste”? Is worship of God supposed to be personal? What about personal taste? Is God offended when Handel writes the Messiah as worship? Or when Michael Angelo carves a sculpture in worship?

Does God want us to bring our personalities to bear in worship? Does He want us to bring our personal tastes into worship?

Where does personal taste cross the line and is no longer worship? Is it about personal taste, or is about heart attitude?

Does God want worship that is scripted and follows a rigid formula? Does God want to give a list of rituals and instructions on what to do and have us follow it precisely and call that worship?

What about the OT? Did God do this? But how did God respond when the people followed the script exactly? He chastised them in Isaiah and Amos and Micah. Why? Because their hearts were not in it. Yet, we find David writing songs, worshipping with his own personal style and David was a man after God's heart.

What is "true worship"?

Have you ever heard "Imitation is the greatest form of flattery"?

Would this be true worship – to imitate Christ?

"Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' ³⁷ "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

⁴⁰ “The King will reply, ‘I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.’ MT 25:34-40

Would you consider this worship?

- Would going out to help victims of the tornado be worship?
- Would donating blood be worship?
- Would turning the other cheek be worship?
- Would giving of your time to help your neighbor be worship?
- Would laying down your life for a friend be worship?
- Would sharing the truth about God be worship?

Read third paragraph, “However much...” thoughts? Have you ever felt like God was a distant, far off, abstract being? Why does God seem distant and far off? Is He? Does God want to be distant and far off?

Does God keep His distance from us? Yes and no, He keeps His unveiled presence distant, but came close in Christ and the Holy Spirit. Why does God keep is unveiled presence from us?

THURSDAY

Read top dark section, “And Samuel...” the lesson draws three conclusions from this passage listed below, Read the three conclusions.

What do you think about these conclusions?

1. Is absolutely true – He wants our hearts – for what purpose?
2. Is absolutely true – depending on how you define obedience – what is obedience – humble willingness to listen
3. Were Abraham and Moses practicing idolatry when they challenged the Lord?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, "God has pronounced..." what does this mean?

Worship Lesson 6 3Q 2011

Worship and Song and Praise

SABBATH

What comes to mind when you think about the title of this week's lesson?

What songs have particularly blessed you over the years?

What about Amazing Grace? How many have been blessed by that song?

Amazing Grace was written by John Newton published in 1779. John Newton was a former slave ship captain, who had given up the belief in God, but during a severe storm in which the ship was in threat of capsizing he called out to the Lord. After that, he began to reflect on his life and wonder if it was possible for someone as sinful as he, not just a slave ship captain, but one who had rejected Christ and had mocked those who believe in him, to be saved.

He eventually taught himself Latin, Greek and theology and eventually became a minister. It was as a minister he wrote Amazing Grace.

Amazing Grace is purported to be the most famous Christian hymn, and reportedly to this day is performed more than 10 million times each year. It has appeared on top 10 charts for pop music on more than one occasion since 1960.

What is it about Amazing Grace that has made it so enduring and popular?

Read Memory Verse – Psalms 96:1 – thoughts?

What do you think the passage means by “a new song?”

Psalms 96 calls the world to praise God and give Him His rightful due – i.e. recognize Him for who He really is, creator, redeemer, source of righteousness, goodness.

Why do you think it means a new song?

Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. ² And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder. The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps. ³ And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. Rev 14:1-3

What is this new song they are singing? Why can only the 144,000 sing it?

Upon the crystal sea before the throne, that sea of glass as it were mingled with fire—so resplendent is it with the glory of God—are gathered the company that have “gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name.” With the Lamb upon Mount Zion, “having the harps of God,” they stand, the hundred and forty and four thousand that were redeemed from among men; and there is heard, as the sound of many waters, and as the sound of a great thunder, “the voice of harpers harping with their harps.” And they sing “a new song” before the throne, a song which no man can learn save the hundred and forty and four thousand. It is the song of Moses and the Lamb—a song of deliverance. None but the hundred and forty-four thousand can learn that song; for it is the song of their experience—an experience such as no other company have ever had. “These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.” These, having been translated from the earth, from among the living, are counted as “the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb.” Revelation 15:2, 3; 14:1-5.—GC 648, 649.

What is the new song? Then what is the old song? How do we learn to sing the new song? Would it require we have a new understanding, knowledge, experience with God?

Which song are we singing today?

What do you think about the Bible admonitions to shout?

In last week’s lesson, Lev 9:24 when the sacrifice was consumed the people “shouted for joy.”

Throughout the Old Testament when the Ark of the Lord was brought into the camp the people would shout with shouts of triumph.

Do we miss something when we don’t shout?

How did the people in France react when the allied troops entered the city to set it free? Did they shout? How did people all over the world react on V-E day? Was there shouting?

How do people react when their football team scores the winning goal in the final minute of the game?

When we see Christ coming in the clouds, the graves are opening, the sky is unfolding, angels are winging their way to and fro bringing saved ones to Christ, our mortal bodies are being transformed into immortal ones – will there be shouting? Or will people be going, “SHHHHUSSSH HHH BE REVERENT?”

Do we have anything to shout about? Why are we so “solemn” and reserved and afraid to shout? Do we fail to see the significance of what Christ has done for us?

Or are we too damaged by sin to react to what Christ has done? While the citizens in Europe shouted for joy when the allied troops entered their cities and set them free, the survivors of the concentration camps just stared blankly ahead, expressionless, solemn, quiet – were they reverent or just so damaged by abuse they couldn't react? Are we so damaged by spiritual abuse, being beaten up by ugly God concepts that we cannot react with joy?

Through the cunning devices of the enemy the minds of God's people seem to be incapable of comprehending and appropriating the promises of God. They seem to think that only the scantiest showers of grace are to fall upon the thirsty soul. The people of God have accustomed themselves to think that they must rely upon their own efforts, that little help is to be received from heaven; and the result is that they have little light to communicate to other souls who are dying in error and darkness. The church has long been contented with little of the blessing of God; they have not felt the need of reaching up to the exalted privileges purchased for them at infinite cost. Their spiritual strength has been feeble, their experience of a dwarfed and crippled character, and they are disqualified for the work the Lord would have them to do. They are not able to present the great and glorious truths of God's Holy Word that would convict and convert souls through the agency of the Holy Spirit. The power of God awaits their demand and reception. A harvest of joy will be reaped by those who sow the holy seeds of truth. "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." {TM 174.2}

The world have received the idea from the attitude of the church that God's people are indeed a joyless people, that the service of Christ is unattractive, that the blessing of God is bestowed at severe cost to the receivers. By dwelling upon our trials, and making much of difficulties, we misrepresent God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent; for the path to heaven is made unattractive by the gloom that gathers about the soul of the believer, and many turn in disappointment from the service of Christ. But are those who thus present Christ believers? No, for believers rely upon the divine promise, and the Holy Spirit is a comforter as well as a reprover. {TM 175.1}

Do we have the elation, relief, joy, happiness in the heart that comes with victory, freedom from oppression, experience of new love? Or are we so accustomed to Satan's view of God that we are joyless and beaten down in despair?

I have been to churches, who have in the service, a praise moment when people applaud, shout and give praise to God. The people look up toward heaven and send their shouts and praise to God. Would you be comfortable if we shouted? Why or why not?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "God chose Saul..." thoughts? What is the lesson? What matters to God? Is it abilities or character? What of a person has some defect in ability, dyslexia, blindness, paralysis, mental illness, is this what matters to God? Or does God look at the character, the heart? Can a person with disability still have a pure heart?

Can persons without apparent disability have a rebellious heart?

It is the heart attitude that matters, do we love God, do we want to do His will in our lives, do we love others, are we willing to learn and grow as God leads?

Read next paragraph, "David was..." thoughts? What do we learn from the life of David regarding qualification to serve God?

Did God know beforehand what David was going to do?
Assuming God did know, why didn't this disqualify David from serving God?

What about Noah? Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Aaron, Peter, you and me?

Is our fitness for God based on our perfection? No! None of us are perfect; our fitness for God's cause is based on our willingness, our heart attitude, our surrender to Him, not our performance per se. We may stumble, we may make mistakes, but if we remain humble, willing to learn from mistakes, willing to be corrected, reprovved, redirected, if we can unlearn things and are willing to give of ourselves for God and others, then we are useful in God's cause!

Notice, while David committed terrible sin, after the sin, while he initially compounded his sin by trying to cover it up and committing more sin, he eventually repented, learned from his mistake, experienced a change in heart and didn't treat people like that any more.

In other words, David was converted and transformed. He took the remedy and experienced a new heart and right spirit.

What about God's forgiveness? Did God withhold forgiveness from Saul? Was God unforgiving toward Saul? Was Saul forgiven?

Why did Saul not experience forgiveness?

MONDAY

Read top paragraph, "The sacrifices of God..." thoughts?

What does it mean the sacrifices of God are a broken and contrite heart? Does it mean this is what God wants rather than blood sacrifice?

Does it mean this is what was represented by the sacrifices on the altar? Does it mean the sacrifices were designed to lead us to a broken and contrite heart?

As we see the lamb slain, because of our sinful need, our hearts are broken – the sacrifice of Christ is “applied” to the broken and contrite heart, and the heart is renewed, the Holy Spirit burns within.

What about the sacrifice of Christ – was it for the purpose of procuring a broken and contrite heart in mankind?

But he was pierced for our transgressions,
 he was crushed for our iniquities;
 the punishment that brought us peace was upon him,
 and by his wounds we are healed. ISA 53:5

What does this mean? Why was He pierced and crushed? To accomplish what? Our healing!

What does it mean to be healed? What does healing look like?

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2Cor 5:21

Notice the reason He became sin, so we could become righteous – not so we could be declared righteous!

Read first two sentences of second paragraph, “As Christians, we take it as a given (or at least we should) that all of humanity is fallen, sinful, degraded. This degradation and sinfulness includes each one of us, individually.”

Thoughts? Do you agree? What does it mean?

- Is it our fault we are degraded and sinful?
- Are we guilty because we are this way?
- How did we become this way?

- When did we become this way?
- Does God hold us individually accountable because we are sinful?
- If we were born in this condition, not of our choosing what does God hold us accountable for? Does God hold us accountable for not accepting the remedy when it is available?
- Why? What does it mean to be “held accountable”?

The Lord God of heaven collected all the riches of the universe, and laid them down in order to purchase the pearl of lost humanity. The Father gave all his divine resources into the hands of Christ in order that the richest blessings of heaven might be poured out upon a fallen race. God could not express greater love than he has expressed in giving the Son of his bosom to this world. This gift was given to man to convince him that God had left nothing undone that he could do, that there is nothing held in reserve, but that all heaven has been poured out in one vast gift. The present and eternal happiness of man consists in receiving God's love, and in keeping God's commandments. Christ is our Redeemer. He is the Word that became flesh and dwelt among us. He is the fountain in which we may be washed and cleansed from all impurity. He is the costly sacrifice that has been given for the reconciliation of man. The universe of heaven, the worlds unfallen, the fallen world, and the confederacy of evil cannot say that God could do more for the salvation of man than he has done. Never can his gift be surpassed, never can he display a richer depth of love. Calvary represents his crowning work. It is man's part to respond to his great love, by appropriating the great salvation the blessing of the Lord has made it possible for man to obtain. We are to show our appreciation of the wonderful gift of God by becoming partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. We are to show our gratitude to God by becoming a co-worker with Jesus Christ, by representing his character to the world. In great mercy the Lord has rolled back the thick darkness from before his throne, that we may behold him as a God of love.

{YI, October 17, 1895 par. 2}

What do you think of this passage? Do you agree or disagree? Why did Christ have to die? To reveal the Father's love and to restore man back into unity with God! What was needed to restore man back into unity with God? To reconcile man to God, not God to man!

Read last paragraph, "Yet, the joy..." thoughts? How about instead of credited to us by faith, "assimilated" by faith?

I found this sentence interesting, "Our worship should center not just on our own sinfulness but on God's amazing solution to it." Thoughts?

What are they trying to say? I honestly was a little confused.

WEDNESDAY

Read top Bible verse, "When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." (Job 38:7).

Who are these stars and sons?

The stars are the angels of God and the sons are God's created beings, represented heads of the other unfallen worlds.

Biblical evidence for other worlds?

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. Heb 1:1,2

Evidence for the sons being heads of the worlds and stars being angels:

The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him. Rev 12:9

an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. ⁴ His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. Rev 12:3,4 the son of Enosh,

the son of Seth, the son of Adam,
the son of God. Luke 3:38

Adam was the “son of God” while all the other people in the Bible are the son of another human being. One could argue that the counsel in heaven was the representative heads of the worlds, the first beings created by God on each, and Satan comes from earth claiming a seat at the counsel as earth’s representative. God says, not so fast, Job doesn’t recognize you as his representative...

What was going on that caused the heavenly beings to shout?
What was happening in the universe?

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, “Over the years...” thoughts?

What determines whether music is appropriate for church or not? What determines whether music is “good” music or “bad” music?

Would the effect it has on the listeners be of any relevance in making that decision? If the music contributes to more irritability, unruliness, rebelliousness, hedonism, violence, ugliness, unkindness, vulgarity, crudeness etc. could we conclude such music is not appropriate?

How about if the music contains those things?

If the music leads to greater peace, calmness, thoughtfulness, enhances reason, comprehension, learning, and promotes themes of kindness, self sacrifice, giving, beneficence would such music be appropriate?

Is it primarily in the style or in the message?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, “Let the subject...” thoughts? What does this mean?

Could we simply say, “we cannot heal ourselves”?

Think of someone dying of a terminal disease, does any amount of confession, repentance, good works, help fix their terminal condition?

This is our situation, we are literally “dead” in our trespass and sin, not “legally under a death sentence” but in a condition which if unremedied is incompatible with life. No amount of confession, repentance, good works will cure our situation – only Jesus Christ can do that. He is our cure and only in a trust relationship with Him, in which we receive Him, partake of Him, experience unity with Him do we find healing for our condition.

Read and answer questions 1, 2

Worship Lesson 7 3Q 2011

Worship in the Psalms

What is your favorite Psalm and why?

Psalms 23? The psalm of the conversion experience?

What about Psalms 19? Let's examine it:

- How does the heavens reveal the glory of God?
- Why does the psalmist start out talking about creation and then talk about the law?
- What law is he talking about?
- What law makes us wise?
- Why does the law give strength?
- Why does happiness and wisdom come from the law?
- What does it mean no one can see his own errors?
- Does the law have any role here?
- Was the written law given to help us with this?

Romans 7:7-12

⁷ What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, "Do not covet."⁸ But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from law, sin is dead.⁹ Once I was alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.¹⁰ I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death.¹¹ For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through the commandment put me to death.¹² So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.

Here is my paraphrase:

^{7:7} What shall we say then? Is the law evil and selfish because it increases the amount of evil and selfishness we see? Absolutely not! For I would not have known what evil and selfishness looks like if it wasn't for the diagnostic efficacy of the law. I would not have realized that coveting was evil and selfish if the law didn't say, "Don't covet."⁸ But selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the law is only a diagnostic instrument and not a remedy, magnified every covetous desire within me. For apart from the diagnostic ability of the law, sin is unrecognizable.⁹ Once I thought I was healthy and free from the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness, but then the commandment examined me, exposed how utterly infected I was and diagnosed me as terminal.¹⁰ I discovered that the very commandment given only to diagnose my condition, I had unwittingly attempted to use as a cure and thus my condition only worsened.¹¹ For selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the commandment could only diagnose and not cure, deceived me into thinking I could be cured by working to keep the commandments, but instead my terminal state only worsened.¹² So understand this, the law diagnoses perfectly, and the commandment is the standard of what is right and good, set apart by God, to reveal what is evil and destructive.

So the law helps us, diagnosis us, does the law cure us? What does?

- When the psalmist asks for deliverance over willful sins, what is he asking for?
- Is it not a change in character a new heart, a new motive a purified will?
- Where do we get a new character? Where in the universe does a perfect humanity exist? In Jesus Christ – we - become partakers of the divine nature through our unity with Him.

- If you were a villain, and you wanted to destroy people, as many as possible, a good weapon might be a biological weapon, something like a virus that spreads to everyone.
 - And once they were all infected, if someone brought a remedy, what strategies would you employ to prevent as many as possible from partaking the remedy?
 - Misrepresent the one who brought the remedy so no one trusts Him to take what He offers
 - Offer counterfeit remedies
 - What about offer the idea that one needs to go to court and get oneself legally declared healthy?

Lets examine some sections of Psalms 22:

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning?
- 6 But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me mock me;
they hurl insults, shaking their heads:
- 8 “He trusts in the LORD;
let the LORD rescue him.
Let him deliver him,
since he delights in him.”
- 9 Yet you brought me out of the womb;
you made me trust in you even at my mother’s breast.
- 10 From birth I was cast upon you;
from my mother’s womb you have been my God.
- 11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.
- 12 Many bulls surround me;

- strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.
- 13 Roaring lions tearing their prey open their mouths wide against me...
- 15 "My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and I'm as dry as an old piece of pottery. My tongue clings to my jaws.
You have brought me to the dust of death."
- 16 Dogs have surrounded me;
a band of evil men has encircled me,
they have pierced my hands and my feet...
- 18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing...
- 22 I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the congregation I will praise you.
- 24 For he has not despised or disdained the suffering of the afflicted one;
he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help...
- 27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him,
- 28 for dominion belongs to the LORD and he rules over the nations.
- 29 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship;
all who go down to the dust will kneel before him—those who cannot keep themselves alive.
- 30 Posterity will serve him;
future generations will be told about the Lord.
- 31 They will proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn—for he has done it.

The Hebrew translated “encircled” actually means “crowned” and what is being said is that strong bulls, or bullheaded rebellious men have crowned me, a prophecy of the crown of thorns put on Christ’s head by the Roman soldiers.

"Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus. When they had twisted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head and a reed in His hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, 'Hail, King of the Jews.'"

Psalm 22:15: "My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and I'm as dry as an old piece of pottery. My tongue clings to my jaws. You have brought me to the dust of death."

Crucifixion drains the body of fluids and literally dries one out. Remember Jesus' words, "I thirst."

They pierced "my hands and feet." Crucifixion was not yet a form of punishment when David wrote this, thus he was prophesying about the Messiah.

They gambled for His clothes.

And Jesus spoke the words of this Psalm, "Why have you forsaken me?"

But what is the ending of the Psalm? A future in which Christ will reign in love and righteousness and all will be united to Him. That is yet to come. How can we help bring that about?

What is God waiting for? Why hasn't Christ returned? What do you understand are the obstacles for the return of Christ?

- Gospel of the kingdom preached to the entire world – has this happened? What is the gospel of the kingdom? What kingdom? The kingdom of love – are we taking this gospel to the world?
- EGW says the final message of mercy to lighten the world for Christ's return is the truth about God's character of love. Is this the gospel – the good news about the King of - the kingdom of love? Are we taking this message to the world?

- What stands in the way? 2 Cor 10:3-5 another view of God stands in the way and we are to stand up against it with the truth about God.

This week as I was preparing the lesson I received an email from one of our listeners. The listener was confused as to why I had so much difficulty with the Study Guide as they were familiar with the principle contributor and also had seen the lessons prior to their submission for publication in the Study Guide. Fortunately I was supplied with a copy of the author's original material before submission.

I want to give you a little example of the changes made by the editors. A few weeks ago Lesson five of Monday's lesson, we read:

The Hebrew wording in both Leviticus 9:24 and 10:2 was the same, "and fire came out from before the Lord and consumed" (9:24 NKJV). Consumed what? In the first case, the offering; in the other, the sinners. What a powerful representation of the plan of salvation. At the Cross, the "fire from God," the wrath of God, "consumed" the offering, and that was Jesus. Thus, all who put their faith in Him never have to face that fire, that wrath, because a substitute did it for them."

Here is what the principle contributor submitted for lesson five, Monday last paragraph:

According to vs. 21, 22, the entire congregation was in danger of being destroyed because of the rebellion of these men. Presumption breeds disobedience. Disobedience, not checked, develops into full-blown rebellion. Rebellion self-destructs! Moses pled with both the congregation and the rebels. This was their opportunity, for, “Jesus, the Angel who went before the Hebrews, sought to save them from destruction.

Forgiveness was lingering for them.” Ellen G. White, Patriarchs & Prophets, (Mountain View, C.A.: Pacific Press, 1958) p. 401. (emphasis supplied) But they stubbornly persisted in their rebellion. God, in His infinite wisdom and mercy, dared not allow them to live and continue their vicious work, which would have resulted in anarchy and an even greater loss of life.

Wow – are these the same thoughts? Are these the same conceptions of God? How can we finish our mission as a people when we don’t even present the truth about God’s character of love?

I asked Dean to do a digital analysis of the originals submitted by the principle contributor and what was actually published and assess what percent was changed.

Over 60% of the original manuscript was deleted and replaced by the editors.

I know personally two other principle contributors of the past, and both of them experienced the same thing, major changes to what they submitted.

One was so distraught that he created his own website to make available his originals, but he worked for the GC at the time and his boss ordered him to take it down.

Why is this happening? And does this have any relationship to what we have experienced here in Collegedale?

Historic Adventism valued freedom of thinking, promoted the principles of Romans 14, “let everyone be fully persuaded in their own mind” and sought to practice the loving unity of the Apostolic church. Thus we see that EGW was a Trinitarian, while Uriah Smith and James White were Arian, but this disagreement on a major doctrinal issue, the divinity of Christ, did not disqualify any of them from leadership in the church. Why? Because they all valued the principles of God’s kingdom, truth, love and freedom, recognizing that each person must be persuaded in their own mind. As long as one realizes God is love, understands His law of love and is practicing the principles of love in their lives they can have variations on how they understand certain concepts, because they are willing to grow in truth as the Holy Spirit enlightens their minds.

Adventism historically is an open and tolerant church. Because of this history the SDA church is filled with many perspectives and beliefs and views and all have historically been accepted within a very large umbrella. But something seems to have changed.

Why do the editors delete gracious God concepts and insert punitive God concepts? Why don’t they allow a divergent view? Recently when our own local leadership had the Rainbow-Views on the Atonement, why wouldn’t they allow our views to be presented?

Is this part of a spiritual war over the nature and character of God?

Do we see this as part of the inevitable process of these two opposing views coming into more and more conflict as the world prepares to meet Christ?

When Satan comes to impersonate Christ what will separate the false from the true? Will it be the feet? Will it be the sound of the voice? Will it be the way he looks? Will it be the methods employed? What methods will the false Christ use? What happens to those who won't receive the mark of the beast?

Coercion, imprisonment, death sentence.

What do some teach God will do to the wicked in the end?
Plagues to pressure, punish and coerce followed by torture and imposition of a death penalty. This is the false god concept. This is the idea Satan wants so deeply ingrained into the mindset of people that when Satan comes claiming to be Christ they will accept the use of such tactics and say, "This is our god we have waited for him."

God is waiting for a people who will study for themselves, who will think for themselves, who will not let another tell them who God is, but as Hebrews says, will know God for themselves, and then will take the final message of mercy, the truth about God's character of love to the world!

Is it possible that the majority of Christians are, like the Jews and Samaritans of Christ's day, eager, open and longing for the truth about God as Jesus revealed, but there are many in leadership that are stuck in another view? Thus when the Study Guide uses the names of "principle contributors," misrepresents their views to teach a punitive god concept, they are trying to make it appear that the majority of the church sees God a certain way – when in fact, might the majority of the church be longing for the truth as Jesus revealed?

MONDAY

Read last paragraph, "Here, too..." thoughts? What does justice look like in God's government?

Some argue it looks like God, performing miracles, to keep people alive in order to torture them as long as they deserve, or some say eternally.

Hitler burned 6 million Jews in ovens in Nazi Germany, but had the decency to gas them first and we call him a monster. What kind of God do people promote when they teach God will burn people alive, and perform miracles to make sure they suffer. It is the grossest lie ever told about God and it is time we Christians stand up and reject it and call on our leaders to stop promoting it.

Top of TUESDAY's lesson we read, "All through the Bible, the Lord has warned about this exploitation of injustice. Those who are guilty of such exploitation, and who do not repent and turn away, will have a lot to answer for on Judgment Day."

Thoughts? What does this mean? How do we "answer" for it?

God has given in His word decisive evidence that He will punish the transgressors of His law. Those who flatter themselves that He is too merciful to execute justice upon the sinner, have only to look to the cross of Calvary. The death of the spotless Son of God testifies that "the wages of sin is death," that every violation of God's law must receive its just retribution. Christ the sinless became sin for man. He bore the guilt of transgression, and the hiding of His Father's face, until His heart was broken and His life crushed out. All this sacrifice was made that sinners might be redeemed. In no other way could man be freed from the penalty of sin. And every soul that refuses to become a partaker of the atonement provided at such a cost must bear in his own person the guilt and punishment of transgression. {GC 539.3}

God has given to men a declaration of His character and of His method of dealing with sin. "The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty." Exodus 34:6, 7. "All the wicked will He destroy." "The transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off." Psalm 145:20; 37:38. The power and authority of the divine government will be employed to put down rebellion; yet all the manifestations of retributive justice will be perfectly consistent with the character of God as a merciful, long-suffering, benevolent being. {GC 541.2}

God does not force the will or judgment of any. He takes no pleasure in a slavish obedience. He desires that the creatures of His hands shall love Him because He is worthy of love. He would have them obey Him because they have an intelligent appreciation of His wisdom, justice, and benevolence. And all who have a just conception of these qualities will love Him because they are drawn toward Him in admiration of His attributes. {GC 541.3}

The principles of kindness, mercy, and love, taught and exemplified by our Saviour, are a transcript of the will and character of God. Christ declared that He taught nothing except that which He had received from His Father. The principles of the divine government are in perfect harmony with the Saviour's precept, "Love your enemies." God executes justice upon the wicked, for the good of the universe, and even for the good of those upon whom His judgments are visited. He would make them happy if He could do so in accordance with the laws of His government and the justice of His character. He surrounds them with the tokens of His love, He grants them a knowledge of His law, and follows them with the offers of His mercy; but they despise His love, make void His law, and reject His mercy. While constantly receiving His gifts, they dishonor the Giver; they hate God because they know that He abhors their sins. The Lord bears long with their perversity; but the decisive hour will come at last, when their destiny is to be decided. Will He then chain these rebels to His side? Will He force them to do His will? {GC 541.4}

Those who have chosen Satan as their leader and have been controlled by his power are not prepared to enter the presence of God. Pride, deception, licentiousness, cruelty, have become fixed in their characters. Can they enter heaven to dwell forever with those whom they despised and hated on earth? Truth will never be agreeable to a liar; meekness will not satisfy self-esteem and pride; purity is not acceptable to the corrupt; disinterested love does not appear attractive to the selfish. What source of enjoyment could heaven offer to those who are wholly absorbed in earthly and selfish interests? {GC 542.1}

Could those whose lives have been spent in rebellion against God be suddenly transported to heaven and witness the high, the holy state of perfection that ever exists there,-- every soul filled with love, every countenance beaming with joy, enrapturing music in melodious strains rising in honor of God and the Lamb, and ceaseless streams of light flowing upon the redeemed from the face of Him who sitteth upon the throne,--could those whose hearts are filled with hatred of God, of truth and holiness, mingle with the heavenly throng and join their songs of praise? Could they endure the glory of God and the Lamb? No, no; years of probation were granted them, that they might form characters for heaven; but they have never trained the mind to love purity; they have never learned the language of heaven, and now it is too late. A life of rebellion against God has unfitted them for heaven. Its purity, holiness, and peace would be torture to them; the glory of God would be a consuming fire. They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is voluntary with themselves, and just and merciful on the part of God. {GC 542.2}

Like the waters of the Flood the fires of the great day declare God's verdict that the wicked are incurable.
GC 542

What do you hear? Why do the wicked die? Is it because God inflicts death or because they are incurable, their condition is incompatible with life as God designed it to function?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “The entire...” thoughts? What was the message of the sanctuary – sacrifice – what about reconciliation with God through sacrifice?

How does that work? Why was sacrifice needed? What was taught by the sacrifice? What happened after the animal was sacrifice? Where did the blood go? For what purpose?

The lesson rightly points out that it is a perversion to believe that sacrifices were designed to appease an angry god. Absolutely, then why do they in other places teach that God’s anger and wrath had to be appeased by the blood of His Son?

Read last paragraph, “The author’s...” thoughts?

What is true forgiveness?

God's forgiveness is not merely a judicial act by which He sets us free from condemnation. It is not only forgiveness for sin but reclaiming from sin. It is the outflow of redeeming love that transforms the heart. David had the true conception of forgiveness when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. {FLB 129.2}

What about the idea of moving away from symbols to reality – good idea? What about today? Do we struggle with any symbols today that impair our ability to embrace reality?

- Saved by the blood/washed in the blood
- Covered in the robe of righteousness
- Christ ministering in a heavenly sanctuary
- Prayers mingled with incense going to the Father

Others?

What is the reality behind these symbols?

THURSDAY

Why is it important we remember history?

We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history. 3 SM 162

Thoughts? What are we in danger of forgetting of our past? Could it be the openness, tolerance, freedom to think, mutual respect and love?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 and 2

Lesson #8,

Conformity, Compromise, and Crises in Worship

Memory Verse: “But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their sense exercised to discern both good and evil.” Hebrews 5:14

I. Evil, Sabbath

What is sin or evil?

Romans 14:23 - “But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.”

How are we healed of evil? What might be included in the process?

Allowing God to heal us and following his prescriptions for the cure, which might include the following:

“Communion with God through prayer develops the mental and moral faculties, and the spiritual powers strengthen as we cultivate thoughts upon spiritual things.” {DA 70.4}

“He was wise to discern evil, and strong to resist it.” {DA 72.1}

What is true worship?

“True worship consists in working together with Christ. Prayers, exhortation, and talk are cheap fruits, which are frequently tied on; but fruits that are manifested in good works, in caring for the needy, the fatherless, and widows, are genuine fruits, and grow naturally upon a good tree.”—
The Review and Herald, August 16, 1881. {ChS 96.5}

What kind of worship does that sound like to you?

Other-centered love.

What was God’s plan for Israel?

“The children of Israel were to occupy all the territory which God appointed them. Those nations that rejected the worship and service of the true God were to be dispossessed. But it was God’s purpose that by the revelation of His character through Israel men should be drawn unto Him. To all the world the gospel invitation was to be given. Through the teaching of the sacrificial service Christ was to be uplifted before the nations, and all who would look unto Him should live. All who, like Rahab the Canaanite, and Ruth the Moabitess, turned from idolatry to the worship of the true God, were to unite themselves with His chosen people. As the numbers of Israel increased they were to enlarge their borders, until their kingdom should embrace the world. {COL 290.1}

God desired to bring all peoples under His merciful rule. He desired that the earth should be filled with joy and peace. He created man for happiness, and He longs to fill human hearts with the peace of heaven. He desires that the families below shall be a symbol of the great family above.” {COL 290.2}

II. In Different Eyes – Culture and Evil, Sunday

What is the common denominator in the following texts?

Genesis 6:5 – “The Lord saw how great man’s wickedness on the earth had become and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all of the time.”

Jeremiah 17:5 – “This is what the Lord says: ‘Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who depends on flesh for his strength and whose heart turns away from the Lord.’”

John 2:25 – “He did not need man’s testimony about man for he knew what was in man.”

Romans 3:9-12 – “What shall we conclude then? Are we any better? Not at all! We have already made the charge that the Jews and Gentiles alike are all under sin. As it is written:

‘There is no one righteous, not even one;

There is no one who understands, no one who seeks God.

All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, no not even one.

Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit.

The poison of vipers is on their lips.

Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”

These texts seem to indicate that since the fall, man has become selfish and self-centered and this leads to self destruction. Damaged as we are by sin and our relationship or lack of one with God we may or may not see a lack of trust with God in some areas of our lives.

Some areas we have surrendered to God and allowed his Holy Spirit to begin healing us and other areas we may still be struggling to surrender so with that perspective how do we become conscious that we are embracing evil?

“God chose Israel to reveal His character to men. He desired them to be as wells of salvation in the world. To them were committed the oracles of heaven, the revelation of God’s will. In the early days of Israel the nations of the world, through corrupt practices, had lost the knowledge of God.” {AA 13.2}

So how do we learn about God’s character?

The word of God is the seed. Every seed has in itself a germinating principle. In it the life of the plant is enfolded. So there is life in God’s word. Christ says, “The words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life.” John 6:63. “He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life.” John 5:24. In every command and in every promise of the word of God is the power, the very life of God, by which the command may be fulfilled and the promise realized. He who by faith receives the word is receiving the very life and character of God. {COL 38.1}

III. The Art (and Evil) of Compromise, Monday

What does it mean to compromise?

Merriam - Webster:

- 1 a: settlement of differences by arbitration or by consent reached by mutual concessions
b: something intermediate between or blending qualities of two different things

Is it evil to compromise?

Of course not! How many of us would have arrived here without some compromise? How many of us have dealt with differences of desires or ways of doing things among friends or family where we have needed to compromise?

To be civilized and sociable as a member of a team we must all compromise in order that goals and objectives of society, the group, or the team are met. As long as it does not lead us to violate or misrepresent the character of God then compromise can be an important part of life.

So evil and compromise are related only in what it is that we are willing to compromise; not just in the process of compromise.

Assumption for the next question: Assuming we wish to have God's character and thus are willing to have Him heal us and we desire to live out his character because we see He is gracious, loving, kind, intelligent.

Why or what would lead us to compromise in allowing God to heal and change us and thus fail to reflect his character or ultimately even reject God?

How about fear and believing Satan's lies about God? What about failure to trust God and what He says and what He is like.

The lesson provides us a scriptural example

1 Kings 11:1-13 – ¹ King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women besides Pharaoh's daughter—Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. ² They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods." Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love. ³ He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines, and his wives led him astray. ⁴ As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been. ⁵ He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molek the detestable god of the Ammonites. ⁶ So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.

⁷ On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable god of Moab, and for Molek the detestable god of the Ammonites. ⁸ He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

⁹ The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. ¹⁰ Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep the LORD's command. ¹¹ So the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees, which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates. ¹² Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son. ¹³ Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen.”

Why would God forbid Israel to follow these Gods?

I am not a psychologist so I am stepping out on a limb here and willing to be corrected; however, I have heard it stated that the highest forms of abuse a human can suffer psychologically are either sexual or religious abuse. The only form of abuse more damaging is when both sexual and religious abuse take place simultaneously.

Who were these Gods? Who was Ashtoreth?

Goddess who was derived from god Ishtar, the morning and evening star, who originated from Babylon. Ashtoreth took on the evening star form of Ishtar, or the moon depending on the group who worshipped her. The goddess also took on the feminine form of Ishtar and became the goddess of fertility, sexuality, and war. The goddess was also considered the consort of Baal who was considered male. Thus, for those who worshipped her she was the god of creation, reproduction, and successful conquest.

Who was Molek?

A god whose name means the king and required human sacrifices in the form of children placed who were place in the white hot brass arms of this idol which was heated internally. Incense was used in the service to disguise the burning flesh and drums were beaten to drown out the screams of the children.

Who was Chemosh?

A god variation of either Ashtar the male form of Ashtoreth, or Baal. Human sacrifices were part of the rites in order to secure his favor.

Who was Baal?

God of rain, fertility, and agriculture. Name means lord or master. Demonic lord of the flies if considered as part of Baal zebub. Baal did not acknowledge death. Worship included human sacrifice and prostitution.

IV. Counterfeit Worship, Tuesday

In 1 Kings 11 and 12 we have the dramatic story of the end of Solomon's reign and the upheaval of political change that took place after his death. We find through the story that Solomon's pagan wives lead him into pagan worship and though God appeared twice to him to counsel him he did not for a time follow God's counsel.

The results were that God's Spirit was grieved and his restraining power was removed so that enemies harassed Solomon's kingdom. God attempted to discipline Solomon so that he might reopen communication with him and Israel. He wanted to restore their friendship as well as warn and save Solomon and Israel from sin's terrible consequence should they persist in the direction they were headed. As part of that process God shared with Solomon that his kingdom was to be divided. We know that God was able to reach Solomon and communication and friendship was re-established because Solomon eventually did turn back to God. In this story, God's love, grace, and desire to heal are demonstrated in asking Solomon, who had gone from the pinnacle of wisdom and wealth to ultimate depravity, to write the wonderful book of Ecclesiastes to be included in the Bible.

Within the context of reconnecting, Jeroboam was a leader of the labor for the descendants of Joseph under Solomon's rule. Ahijah the prophet meets him going out of Jerusalem and shares with him that God intends to have him rule over ten of the twelve tribes. He apparently rebelled enough to come to Solomon's attention and runs to Egypt to save his life. He returns after Solomon's death and arrives in time for Rehoboam's coronation. During that time the people ask Rehoboam if he was going to make their lives miserable like his father did, or if he was going to ease up. Rehoboam decides he will make their lives even more difficult. As a consequence the people rebelled and killed Adoniram who is in charge of forced labor. Rehoboam escapes to Jerusalem and the ten tribes make Jeroboam king over them instead of Rehoboam.

Rehoboam feared he would lose power and influence over the people if they continued to go to Jerusalem to worship God. So he established new order of worship in that he created two golden calves, established a non-Levitical order of priests, established alternate festivals, developed new sacrificial times, placed locations of the religious services up in the pagan groves, and created new centers of worship in Dan and Bethel, north of Jerusalem.

What is idolatry?

Definition:

1. The worship of idols, images, or anything made by hands, or which is not God.

Idolatry is of two kinds; the worship of images, statues, pictures, &c. made by hands; and the worship of the heavenly bodies, the sun, moon and stars, or of demons, angels, men and animals.

2. Excessive attachment or veneration for anything, or that which borders on adoration.

Webster's Revised Unabridged Dictionary 1828 – retrieved from University of Chicago Department of Romance Languages and Literature ARTFL Project website on August 3, 2011. .

<http://machaut.uchicago.edu/?action=search&word=idolatry&resource=Webster%27s&quicksearch=on>

What was wrong with the new system of worship that Rehoboam established and were they worshipping God?

Their worship certainly doesn't seem to be one that admired God and his character of other-centered love. It seems to have been motivated out of fear, selfishness, and distrust of God.

I am sure that for those who were unsure about worshipping golden calves, Rehoboam assured them that these were just mere representatives of the invisible true God.

Is there a problem with that line of thinking? If so, why is it a problem?

If one looks at the results of this form of worship we see Israel leaving the worship of the true God and worshipping severe, revengeful, arbitrary, and destructive deities and demons. As they worshipped these deities they took up their characters and became like them.

- 2 Corinthians 3:18 - "18 And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate[a] the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit."

Did Rehoboam's worship advocate examining the evidences of God's character of love?

It appears that this worship was based solely on the emotional and imaginative experience of the participants, an experience that might be more exciting and interesting than that found in Jerusalem.

Certainly, God wants those who worship to enjoy good emotions. Have we not felt excitement, peace, and love for God as we learn the truth about His character? Just as the two travelers to Emmaus who exclaimed "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" - Luke 24:32. We are, after all, emotional beings; however, if emotion alone dictates what or who we worship then we may be misled to worship a false picture of God.

V. Elijah and the Prophets of Baal, Wednesday

1 Kings 17-19 we have the showdown between the gods. Here God challenges the Israelites' preferred god, Baal, as to his true divinity and power in an attempt to win those who worship Baal back to trust in Himself, the true creator and God of the universe. Baal a deity who controls thunder, lightning, storms, and rain is shown to have lost his touch over three years. During this period of time Israel is allowed to contemplate who truly is interested in their prosperity and well being and who has ultimate control of nature.

The three years of drought come to a close and Elijah extends an invitation to Ahab and his 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Ashtoreth to a challenge between God and Baal in an ultimate showdown between who is the true God. The challenge is centered on Baal's preferred strengths and his ability to control lightning. God even allows his contender to go first and to take the majority of the day to prove his abilities and truthfulness.

Baal's prophets urge their god to act with the most barbaric and torturous of acts by cutting themselves until blood flowed profusely in vain attempts to reach the attention of their god so he would act on their behalf, but he does not answer as requested.

As the quiet of the evening began to settle on the mountain top Elijah rebuilds the alter, places the wood and pieces of bull on it, digs a trench, and drenches the sacrifice with water three times until there is not even a remote chance a fire can be kindled to light the sacrifice. Then he prays a simple prayer asking God to demonstrate the truth about himself as the creator and sustainer of life. God answers with a bolt of fire that consumes the sacrifice and alter.

The prophets of Baal and Ashtoreth are shown to have been counterfeits. Elijah rounds up the prophets of Baal and Ashtoreth, and then they are killed in the valley below. Elijah returns to the mountain top then prays seven more times and the drought is broken as rain sweeps over the country and Elijah runs to lead Ahab home.

How can we compare and contrast how we worship with who we worship? In other words, in which direction is there progression in worship? Is it more important how we worship in order to receive and encourage Gods favor and love? Or is who we worship more important and the effect of who we worship influences our love and how we worship?

If we contemplate the finer points of God's character, which include:

- His respect of us even as sinners and rebels
- His care
- His numerous and ongoing attempts to re-establish friendship with us
- His desire that we are informed about how to best live within the design parameters of His universe
- His willingness to heal us and accept us back into His family
- His determination throughout the Great Controversy to see that true freedom is maintained for his created beings
- His willingness to be challenged and have open dialog with all His creatures
- His willingness to demonstrate the consequences of sin by His dying the second death
- His humility in being willing to become eternally like his created beings
- His kind treatment of His most ardent enemies
- His willingness to meet us where we are even though His actions may be misunderstood for a time
- Etc.

Then doesn't the admiration and love that springs from knowing a God who is like this naturally create a desire to offer Him respectful, reverential, joyful, and loving worship in whatever way our particular culture and background suggests is appropriate?

Think of a figure that you highly esteemed and met. Share with us your experience and how you acted and responded in their presence.

As a child I had the opportunity to meet the then President of the United States as he visited family in my small home town. I remember Marine One flying in and his walking along the short drive from the airport to the highway greeting those who had come to see and hopefully shake his hand to welcome him to our community. I remember him shaking my hand and the thrill of that moment. I certainly didn't want to embarrass myself or act crudely, it wasn't even on my mind, I was just intent on seeing and meeting him.

How do we act in the presence of someone we really love, admire, respect, and want to know better?

Are we not in reverence and awe? Yet, will we not in the presence of such a gracious Being be open, happy, joyous and wish to tell him how much we love and respect him? Will we not seek to know Him even more deeply?

“The incense of true worship, which should have been offered to God, has been mingled with the worship of self. In the place of lifting their thoughts to God, in the place of learning to know Him better, men deny Him in their lives. Their attention is taken up with objects that conceal God from their view.“ {9MR 386.1}

“ Thus it is with the great majority of religionists. God calls for sincere heart-worship. The door to light and an intelligent knowledge of the truth is open to every sincere worker for God. In order for worship to be acceptable, it must be offered in faith and hope, and the life must be in harmony with it. God requires the devotion of heart, mind, soul, and strength. Our noblest powers are to be used to do Him homage. Our thoughts are to be conformed to His will; our affections sanctified to His service”.--Letter 143, 1904, pp. 3,4. (To Marian Davis, April 28, 1904.)

Does worship take place only in a church and at a given time on Sabbath morning?

“The true ground of divine worship, not of that on the seventh day merely, but of all worship, is found in the distinction between the Creator and His creatures. This great fact can never become obsolete, and must never be forgotten.” It was to keep His truth ever before the minds of men that God instituted the Sabbath in Eden; and so long as the fact that he is our Creator continues to be a reason why we should worship him, so long the Sabbath will continue as its sign and memorial. Had the Sabbath been universally kept, man's thoughts and affections would have been led to the Creator as the object of reverence and worship, and there would never have been an idolater, an atheist, or an infidel. The keeping of the Sabbath is a sign of loyalty to the true God, "him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." It follows that the message which commands men to worship God and keep His commandments, will especially call upon them to keep the fourth commandment.” {GC88 437.2}

VI. The Elijah Message, Thursday

Malachi 3:13-18 - ¹³(^{AB}) "Your words have been hard against me, says the LORD. (^{AC}) But you say, 'How have we spoken against you?' ¹⁴You have said, (^{AD}) 'It is vain to serve God. (^{AE}) What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts? ¹⁵And now we call (^{AF}) the arrogant blessed. (^{AG}) Evildoers not only prosper but they put God to the test and they escape.'"

¹⁶"Then those who feared the LORD (^{AH}) spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and (^{AI}) a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. ¹⁷"They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, (^{AJ}) in the day when I make up (^{AK}) my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. ¹⁸Then once more you shall (^{AL}) see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him."

What can we take away from the Mount Carmel experience and will this play out again?

As in the Mount Carmel experience, a showdown between the True God and the false god Satan will take place again at the end of time. In Revelation we see glimpses of the Mount Carmel story and we too will choose one way or the other in whom we believe. However, the fire this time will come from the false god. Here it seems miracles and displays of power are not with who has the truth.

Revelation 13:13, 14 – “13 And it performed great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to the earth in full view of the people. 14 Because of the signs it was given power to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived the inhabitants of the earth. It ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.”

Revelation 16:16-21 – “16 Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon. 17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and out of the temple came a loud voice from the throne, saying, “It is done!” 18 Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth, so tremendous was the quake. 19 The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered Babylon the Great and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath. 20 Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found. 21 From the sky huge hailstones, each weighing about a hundred pounds,[a] fell on people. And they cursed God on account of the plague of hail, because the plague was so terrible.”

So how can we know who the true God is?

The one who has not just made claims or used a show of power, but who has demonstrated his character over many various circumstances, is the true God. We will only know the true God as we seek to understand and believe the evidence we have available to us.

The one who lies can only make claims and deceive with the power he is allowed to use. The truth is not with him and in a way the evidence of his character will also be demonstrated by how he has interacted with the beings of the universe.

What will be the distinction between those who serve God and those who choose Satan and the picture of God he has presented?

For those who have believed God based on the evidence he has provided and who have asked him to heal them they will reflect and radiate his character. Those who have believed Satan's lies will reflect Satan and his character since they have rejected God's offer of healing.

What is the last day Elijah message?

Mark 16:15 – “15 He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.”

Revelation 14:6 – “6 Then I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people.

What is the good news and message?

God has demonstrated with evidence he is not who his accuser has made him out to be. He loves all his created beings. He is not severe, arbitrary, revengeful, and unforgiving. He has become one with the human race by becoming one of us for all eternity, and He died to show us the truth about the consequences of sin. He offers to heal us from sin and make us right again to spend all eternity enjoying and developing a friendship with Him.

Harmegeddon – the stand off between the unholy trinity and the holy trinity. Satan this time will be using the miracles and God will not.

Paulien, Jon. (2008). Armageddon at the Door. Hagerstown, Maryland. Autumn House Publishing.

VII. Further Study, Friday

Worship Lesson 9 3Q 2011

Trust Not in Deceptive Words: The Prophets and Worship

SABBATH

Read Memory text, Isaiah 44:7 – thoughts?

How good are we at predicting the future? How many of you have tried to prophecy the future?

- How many of you create imaginary scenarios in your mind about what the future will hold and then begin worrying about it?
 - There is no use in applying for that job, I will never get it...
 - I will be alone forever, I will never find someone to love me...
 - I will never find a career, I'll never get ahead...
 - My ex husband is going to take my kids from me...
 - My son is going to get deployed to Iraq and...
 - If I bow down to the idol I will die in a fiery furnace.
 - If I pay tithe I won't have enough money to pay bills.

Do we try and prophecy? How good are we at predicting the future? How much suffering, worry, distress do we experience because we don't realize we cannot predict the future?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Unlike every other religion..." thoughts?

What does it mean to be accepted by God? What does it take to be accepted by God? Why doesn't God accept us as we are?

Sin has caused a gap in our connection with God, why can our works not bridge it? Where does the "gap" actually exist, in man or in God? In other words, where is the defect that causes the break in our relationship with God – is the defect in God or man?

Then, whatever the plan of salvation is designed to do, if the defect, which causes the break in our relationship with God, is not in God, is there any element of the plan of salvation that must to be applied to fix God? No! The entire Godhead are working in complete unity for the restoration and fixing of the brokenness in mankind to restore us into unity with Them and to eradicate sin from the universe.

What does “atone for sin” mean? Why can good works not “atone for sin?”

If we say “atone for sin” means to pay a legal penalty to God or the law, then where have we just suggested the problem is? Where does such a description place the application of the remedy?

Read second paragraph – thoughts? There is much good in this paragraph, particularly the idea that sin caused a problem that leads to death and only the death of Christ could solve that problem. Very nicely said. Much different that sin caused a legal problem that resulted in the Father standing as an executioner over His children and the death of Christ was designed to appease (fix) the Father’s wrath and anger.

Thus, Micah, the prophet we are studying in today’s lesson, makes it clear the Father doesn’t need any sacrifice, we need to have a change in heart, character to be back in unity with God’s design.

Micah 6:6-8:

With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the exalted God?
 Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?
 7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil?

 Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
 8 He has showed you, O man, what is good.
 And what does the LORD require of you?
 To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

Thoughts?

Read first sentence green section, “What do you think is more important: correct theology or correct actions?” Thoughts?

What about those with humble, loving hearts who worship on Sunday? Or those Sabbath keepers who wanted Christ down by sunset?

Read first sentence of last paragraph, “Those who claim to be children of God but who fail to show justice and mercy to their fellow men are acting out the spirit of Satan no matter how piously they may adhere to the forms of worship.” – thoughts?

This is also well said, - question – what is Bible justice?

His [Christ's] object was to reconcile the prerogatives of Justice and Mercy, and let each stand separate in its dignity, yet united. His mercy was not weakness, but a terrible power to punish sin because it is sin; yet a power to draw to it the love of humanity. Through Christ, Justice is enabled to forgive without sacrificing one jot of its exalted holiness. {7BC 935.15}

Justice and Mercy stood apart, in opposition to each other, separated by a wide gulf. The Lord our Redeemer clothed His divinity with humanity, and wrought out in behalf of man a character that was without spot or blemish. He planted His cross midway between heaven and earth, and made it the object of attraction which reached both ways, drawing both Justice and Mercy across the gulf. Justice moved from its exalted throne, and with all the armies of heaven approached the cross. There it saw One equal with God bearing the penalty for all injustice and sin. With perfect satisfaction Justice bowed in reverence at the cross, saying, It is enough (MS 94, 1899). {7BC 936.1}

Thoughts? What do you hear, what does it mean? What is God's justice?

Why is mercy the power to punish sin?

- Why is medical mercy the power to punish disease? To patient ravaged by cancer the doctor administers a remedy which punishes and destroys cancer – is this merciful? Could the mercy be expressed without the power to punish and destroy the cancer? Is punishing the cancer the same as punishing the patient?
- And thus a doctor who effectively and totally, attacks, punishes and destroys cancer will draw thousands of patients to him. Likewise, God's mercy, which is the power to punish and destroy sin, when rightly seen and understood is "the power to draw to it the love of humanity."
- But what if an enemy of the doctor started telling people that the doctor hates cancer so bad, if he ever finds even one cancerous cell in a patient his anger and rage and wrath will be felt full force by the cancer patient? Would you want to go to that doctor?
- Can a doctor heal a patient outside the laws of health? Then what does the law of health "require" if a doctor is going to heal a patient? "perfect" compliance with the law? Could we say that health "justice" requires perfect obedience to the laws of health?

What is the penalty of injustice, i.e. violations of the law, both physically and morally? How did Christ bear it?

What is sin? Lawlessness, transgression of the law, what law? The law of love, which is the law of life, which results in what? Death, how did Christ bear this? When?

Why was "justice" satisfied with what Christ achieved? What does the law of health require in order to heal, in order for justice to be fulfilled? And what does the law of righteousness require?

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Romans 3:26. {DA 762.2}

God's love has been expressed in His justice no less than in His mercy. Justice is the foundation of His throne, and the fruit of His love. It had been Satan's purpose to divorce mercy from truth and justice. He sought to prove that the righteousness of God's law is an enemy to peace. But Christ shows that in God's plan they are indissolubly joined together; the one cannot exist without the other. "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other." Psalm 85:10. {DA 762.3}

As we have taken our time to slowly think through the meaning of the quotations just read, does it become clear what was necessary for our salvation and what God's justice and mercy are?

Do you ever wonder why prophets don't always say things clearly?

Was David a prophet of God? Consider the implications of the following:

The psalmist David in his experience had many changes of mind. At times, as he obtained views of God's will and ways, he was highly exalted. Then as he caught sight of the reverse of God's mercy and changeless love, everything seemed to be shrouded in a cloud of darkness. But through the darkness he obtained a view of the attributes of God, which gave him confidence and strengthened his faith. But when he meditated upon the difficulties and danger of life, they looked so forbidding that he thought himself abandoned by God because of his sins. He viewed his sin in such a strong light that he exclaimed, "Will the Lord cast off for ever? will he be favorable no more?" {3BC 1149.2}

But as he wept and prayed, he obtained a clearer view of the character and attributes of God, being educated by heavenly agencies, and he decided that his ideas of God's justice and severity were exaggerated. He rejected his impressions as being the result of his weakness, ignorance, and physical infirmities, and as dishonoring to God, and with renewed faith he exclaimed, "This is my infirmity; but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High." {3BC 1149.3}

What implications from this passage? First, do you believe it is true, did David have various changes in perspective to God and divine things? What implication does this have when we read prophetic writings? Are all prophetic writings equally as clear and accurate regarding God's character?

What does it mean that we grow and develop our understanding?

What if we don't? What if we instead find ourselves going backward, reversing our gains and instead, cling to 500 year old theology?

This is a problem for our church today. Our church today is stubbornly clinging to theology that is 500 years old, rather than advancing in the truth. God is waiting for a people who will march forward in understanding, who will think for themselves, who will love the truth and embrace the truth rather than refuse to move forward with new insights into the reality of God and what He accomplished for us through Christ.

MONDAY

Read Isaiah 6:1-6 – then read third paragraph, “Try to imagine...” thoughts?

What did Isaiah see? Why did he react the way he did? The lesson uses the language, “Suddenly, he sees his own sins and the sins of his people...”

Where did he see this? Who is the accuser of the brethren? When we get true glimpses of God is He standing there with a list of sins with which to accuse us? When God approached Adam in Eden did Adam become acutely aware of his sinfulness? Yes, was God pointing it out to Him? From where did Adam’s awareness of his sinfulness arise?

God is the source of truth and love, in His presence we are unable to avoid the truth of our own condition. It is by contrast that we become aware of our deficiency, it is not because God stands with a list to point it out to us.

The lives of the righteous, by contrast, will bring conviction to the wicked, this is why teens doing drugs pick on, criticize and degrade the “goody too shoes” who wont.

It is sinfulness in our own hearts, characters and minds that bring fear and insecurity and uneasiness and dissatisfaction with self and causes us to feel unworthy. But, notice God’s response, God’s attitude – what did He say to Adam? Did He condemn Adam? What does the angel say to Isaiah? What did Jesus say to the woman caught in adultery?

God does not condemn, criticize, point out our defects to hurt, humiliate or embarrass us. God searches us for defects exactly like a good doctor will search his patient for disease, never to embarrass, criticize, mock or punish, but to heal and cure!

We may “feel” insecure and unworthy as we approach God, as we get a greater sense of our defects, our need, but as we see God’s true character as revealed in Christ, the greater our awareness of our defects, then the greater our confidence in God’s desire for us to come to Him – because He is longing to heal!

Read last paragraph, “Think for a moment...” wouldn’t it be great to experience, in worship the presence of God? Why do we often not experience this?

What kind of response would we elicit from the worshippers if the worship service has been hijacked by a false god concept?

Does our modern church service have its roots in the Bible or paganism?

- Is the separation of ordained clergy from the laity Biblical or pagan? What does this idea suggest about God?
- What was the setting and “liturgy” of the New Testament church?
 - They met in homes – what was the atmosphere connoted by fellowshiping in homes? Would it generate eye to eye contact, fellowship, interaction, honest heart to heart communication, sharing and caring?
 - What about the setting of churches with pews bolted to the floor all facing forward, with tradition pressuring no eye contact, no talking, no sharing, no fellowship, but quietness, receiving a lecture, without opportunity for discussion and interaction?

 What message is sent?

- Does it connote a authoritarian hierarchy?
 - Is this concept Biblical or pagan?
 - What did Satan allege about God?
 - What did Jesus say He wanted in regard to relationship with Him?
 - How did Jesus speak to the crowds?
 - Did He allow questions and discussion and dialogue?
- What about the church building? Do we ever get the idea that the church building is holy and say things like, this is God's sanctuary, where God dwells, we must be reverent in the sanctuary?
 - Is this idea Biblical or pagan?
 - According to the Bible what is God's sanctuary? Where does God dwell?
 - The OT sanctuary, where God dwelt, was a theater to act out a larger reality. God's presence in that sanctuary was to teach is desire to dwell somewhere else – where? Was it in buildings made by human hands?
 - When you hear “the church” do you think building or people? Which is the holy sanctuary where God dwells?
 - What impact does it have on our understanding of God to shift the idea of the church from the community of believers to a building?

Read green section- thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “It is easy...” thoughts?

Why was it necessary for prophets to speak this way to the people who had been given the written word of God and the little theater of the sanctuary? What about the church today?

Are we any better than they were? Do we understand God and His methods better than the pagans?

The lesson diagnoses correctly the problem, that the children of Israel were doing the rituals without thinking and that God called them to think through the meaning and to treat others with love, i.e. live God's law of love!

Read third paragraph, "But that is not..." well said.

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, "However much..." thoughts? Why is God alone worthy?

How do we know God alone is worthy? Do we know because God said it, or because God showed it? How did God show it?

What does the death of Christ reveal regarding God's worthiness of our worship?

THURSDAY

Read last two paragraphs, "Look especially..." thoughts?

They had more light than their pagan neighbors. No doubt God had provided much more light, then how do we explain the Roman Centurion that Christ said had more faith than all in Israel?

What happened that the children of Israel failed to be blessed by the Temple and its service? They failed to understand the meaning of the symbols.

What about today? Do we as a people make the same mistake? Have we failed to understand the reality of the heavenly sanctuary?

I believe in a literal, physical temple in heaven, now let me ask you. If you use only inspired sources, out of what is the temple in heaven built?

- Paul says, “Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's HOUSE [sanctuary/temple], built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building [sanctuary/temple] is joined together and rises to become a HOLY TEMPLE in the Lord. And in him YOU too [you all] are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit. Ephesians 2:19-22.
- And Peter says, “As you come to him, the living Stone--rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him-- YOU also, like LIVING STONES [building blocks of the Temple], are being built into a SPIRITUAL HOUSE [Temple] to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.” 1 Pet 2:4,5.
- And Paul says, “For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building [Temple]...Don't you know that you yourselves [the church] are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is sacred, and you [you all] are that temple.” 1 Cor 3:9,16,17.
- Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. Revelation 3:12
- The first tabernacle, built according to God's directions, was indeed blessed of Him. The people thus were preparing themselves to worship in the temple not made with hands--a temple in the heavens. The stones of the Temple built by Solomon were all prepared at the quarry and then brought to the Temple site. They came together without the sound of ax or hammer. The timbers were also fitted in the forest. The furniture was likewise brought to this house all prepared for use. {3MR 231.3}

Even so, the mighty cleaver of truth has taken out a people from the quarry of the world and is fitting this people, who profess to be the children of God, for a place in His heavenly temple. We want the cleaver of truth to do its work for us. We are taken from the quarry of the world. The material must not be a dead substance but living souls, and these souls must be brought out of the quarry of the world, where the hand of God can fit them for the temple in heaven. We are here as probationers, and we must pass under the hand of God. All rough edges and rough surfaces must be removed and we must be stones fitted for the building. We are brought into church capacity with defects of character, but we must not retain them. We must be fitted and squared for the building. We must be "laborers together with God," for we are "God's husbandry," we are "God's building." In view of this we must see that our temple is not defiled with sin. We should be lively stones, not dead ones, but live ones that will reflect the image of Christ. We must be worshipers in spirit and in truth. {3MR 231.4}

- In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit. The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,--from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. "The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver." Malachi 3:1-3. {DA 161.1}

In the building of the sanctuary as a dwelling place for God, Moses was directed to make all things according to the pattern of things in the heavens. God called him into the mount, and revealed to him the heavenly things, and in their similitude the tabernacle, with all that pertained to it, was fashioned. {Ed 35.2}

So to Israel, whom He desired to make His dwelling place, He revealed His glorious ideal of character. The pattern was shown them in the mount when the law was given from Sinai and when God passed by before Moses and proclaimed, "The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth." Exodus 34:6... {Ed 35.3}

Through Christ was to be fulfilled the purpose of which the tabernacle was a symbol--that glorious building, its walls of glistening gold reflecting in rainbow hues the curtains inwrought with cherubim, the fragrance of ever-burning incense pervading all, the priests robed in spotless white, and in the deep mystery of the inner place, above the mercy seat, between the figures of the bowed, worshiping angels, the glory of the Holiest. In all, God desired His people to read His purpose for the human soul. It was the same purpose long afterward set forth by the apostle Paul, speaking by the Holy Spirit: {Ed 36.2}

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." 1 Corinthians 3:16, 17. {Ed 36.3}

There is a real, physical, material temple in heaven which Christ ministers and it is constructed out of intelligent beings. This is the temple in which Satan wanted to sit enthroned. Satan didn't want to sit in an empty temple building made out of inanimate material. He wanted to sit enthroned in the heart/mind temple of intelligent beings as the one most loved and adored. Thus the warfare we fight is a spiritual warfare over the knowledge of God and Christ came to restore in man God's law and character, to dwell again in the temple He designed without human hands!

FRIDAY

Read top two paragraphs, "In Isaiah's day..." thoughts?

Read and discuss questions 2-4.

Worship Lesson 10 3Q 2011

Worship: From Exile to Restoration

Read memory text – Haggai 1:6 – thoughts? What is the message? Is there any application for today?

Could this be reminding us not to put our energy into things that don't matter, into things that pass and fade, into things that are only about getting ahead on earth, but bring no eternal benefit?

What does it matter to gain the entire world and lose your soul?

How do we find ourselves seduced into investing into what does not matter?

What is the difference between investing in what doesn't matter and dealing with the realities of day-to-day living, food, shelter, clothing?

Read first two paragraphs, "It is very hard..." thoughts?

What was the problem they had with the Temple? Did the Temple in Jerusalem have any ability to save sinners? Was the Temple in Jerusalem the literal reality of God's kingdom, or merely a God inspired theater, lesson book, to help them learn the true reality for which it stood?

What did Jesus say or do to try and help them shift their thinking about the temple?

- Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up – designed to teach what?
- I am the bread of heaven – designed to teach what?
- Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood – designed to teach what?

- You will neither worship on this mountain nor at the Temple but in spirit and truth – designed to teach what?
- Cleansed the temple from buyers and sellers – designed to teach what?

What was the problem the Jews had with the Temple?

Do we have a similar problem when it comes to the heavenly sanctuary?

Why was the Temple in Jerusalem destroyed, twice? What caused this to happen, what led to its destruction?

Did God destroy it? Did it happen as an object lesson? What is the object lesson?

What does the Temple at Jerusalem symbolize?

- In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God...God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. DA 161

So, the temple is a symbolic representation of the human soul – why did the temple in Jerusalem get destroyed twice?

Because the people did what?

- But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit. The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,--from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul.{DA 161.1}

Why did the temple at Jerusalem get destroyed? What does it symbolize? The destruction of the actual temple of the human soul – and why will the human soul get destroyed? What happens to the human soul if Christ is forbidden from cleansing it?

Who destroyed the temple at Jerusalem? Does this give us any insight as to the source of the destruction of the human soul?

Many argue for God to be the destroyer – Did God destroy the temple at Jerusalem? Why did it happen? Because God no longer intervened to stop the armies Satan from destroying Jerusalem – what is the lesson?

Sin destroys, sin unremedied results in death (Romans 6:23, James 1:15).

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “Apostasy...” thoughts?

Apostasy doesn't happen over night, it is a gradual slow process. But, are they suggesting that less rigidity leads to apostasy? What does inspiration and history tell us regarding rigidity and apostasy?

Were the Jews in the OT given a rigid set of guidelines to abide by? What happened to them? Did they suffer with apostasy? What about in the days of Christ? Did the Jews have a rigid set of guidelines to abide by? What happened, did it result in apostasy?

What about the Apostolic church? Did they have a rigid set of guidelines or was there very loose guidelines and great openness and acceptance of a wide variety of theology and practices?

Acts 15:19,20

“It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. ²⁰ Instead we should write to them, telling them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals and from blood.

- When the eunuch got baptized was there a requirement for study of the doctrines before baptism?
- What does history tell us about the theology of the early church?
 - Arians and Trinitarians both accepted and tolerated, those who were circumcised and those who were not, those who valued and practiced the Jewish feasts and those who did not.

Was there a rigid set of rules and doctrines in the Apostolic church or was their wide love and acceptance?

What about during the Dark Ages, rigid rules? Was there apostasy?

The lesson equates ancient Israel and the early church, did they start out from the same place? What was the spiritual state of Israel coming out of Egypt? What did they know? What was their attitude? What was the condition of their hearts?

How did one become a member of the camp of Israel?

What about the early church? What was the condition of the people? How did one become a member of the Apostolic church?

Did the two groups start at the same spiritual point? Did God need to deal differently with the two groups? Did apostasy occur in both groups?

How did apostasy enter the church? The greatest divergence of the church occurred in the 4th century when Constantine converted and called for the council of Nicaea. This council did not occur at a religious organization, because up to this point in church history there were no church buildings. This council occurred at Constantine's Palace and Constantine seduced church leaders and a huge list of problems began:

- Distorted ideas of God as God came to be viewed through the lens of paganism
- The church began to model itself structurally after Rome with an authoritarian head, thus misrepresenting God's character as authoritarian in nature
- Creeds were developed as tests of fellowship, orthodoxy of thought began and thought police were established, thus misrepresenting God as dictatorial, petty, and arbitrary
- Church buildings began to be built to model after Rome, designed to undermine thinking and reasoning and instead overwhelm with a sense of awe and the mystical
- A division between royalty and commoners, which was part of the Roman culture, entered the church with clergy and laity, undermining the priesthood of believers
- The church building elevated the clergy, modeled after the emperor of Rome, on an elevated platform, a elevated seat and pulpit – all designed to communicate a separation of rank, and instill a top down, authoritarian idea regarding church and God.
- The church authority became more rigid, establishing rules, requirements for behavior and tests of fellowship.
- Membership in the church became the new political party and only those in right standing with the church could wield political power or even be crowned king.

Then, once these practices became entrenched through hundreds of years, they became accepted as holy and orthodox.

And he said to them: “You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions! MK 7:9

Do we struggle with such problems? Has the reformation really freed us from all the infection and distorted ideas about God and the way He runs His universe?

Here is a poem I really liked, which depicts the power of tradition and the tendency of people to go along with tradition without ever considering its real value or source:

The Calf Path

by Sam Walter Foss (1858-1911)

One day, through the primeval wood,
A calf walked home, as good calves should;
But made a trail all bent askew,
A crooked trail, as all calves do.

Since then three hundred years have fled,
And, I infer, the calf is dead.
But still he left behind his trail,
And thereby hangs my moral tale.

The trail was taken up next day
By a lone dog that passed that way;
And then a wise bellwether sheep
Pursued the trail o'er vale and steep,
And drew the flock behind him, too,
As good bellwethers always do.

And from that day, o'er hill and glade,
Through those old woods a path was made,
And many men wound in and out,

And dodged and turned and bent about,
 And uttered words of righteous wrath
 Because 'twas such a crooked path;
 But still they followed — do not laugh —
 The first migrations of that calf,
 And through this winding wood-way stalked
 Because he wobbled when he walked.

This forest path became a lane,
 That bent, and turned, and turned again.
 This crooked lane became a road,
 Where many a poor horse with his load
 Toiled on beneath the burning sun,
 And traveled some three miles in one.
 And thus a century and a half
 They trod the footsteps of that calf.

The years passed on in swiftness fleet.
 The road became a village street,
 And this, before men were aware,
 A city's crowded thoroughfare,
 And soon the central street was this
 Of a renowned metropolis;
 And men two centuries and a half
 Trod in the footsteps of that calf.

Each day a hundred thousand rout
 Followed that zigzag calf about,
 And o'er his crooked journey went
 The traffic of a continent.
 A hundred thousand men were led
 By one calf near three centuries dead.
 They follow still his crooked way,
 And lose one hundred years a day,
 For thus such reverence is lent
 To well-established precedent.

A moral lesson this might teach
 Were I ordained and called to preach;
 For men are prone to go it blind

Along the calf-paths of the mind,
 And work away from sun to sun
 To do what other men have done.
 They follow in the beaten track,
 And out and in, and forth and back,
 And still their devious course pursue,
 To keep the path that others do.

They keep the path a sacred groove,
 Along which all their lives they move;
 But how the wise old wood-gods laugh,
 Who saw the first primeval calf!
 Ah, many things this tale might teach —
 But I am not ordained to preach.

Thoughts?

Read second paragraph, “The secret sins...” thoughts? Are we in danger of doing this very thing today? How? How can we guard against it?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “As we have...” thoughts?

What do you believe the main issue will be in this contest for worship?

- Sabbath?
- Lifestyle?
- Atonement theories?
- Beliefs about hell?
- The character of God versus the character of Satan?

Read third paragraph, “The second commandment...” thoughts?

How can we tell the difference between the two systems of worship, which is in harmony with God and which is against God?

The lesson suggests it will be in relationship to God's law? What do you think? The lesson points out that the false system and those who support the false system will support a change in God's law, do you agree?

How has the false system sought to change God's law?

The lesson suggests by changing the 10 Commandments number 2 and 4, and certainly this is a change – but is this the most significant change, or has the false system instilled another more insidious change in God's law that we miss because we focus only on number 2 and 4, but the more insidious change is the real test at the end of time and these two commandments are only expressions of that change?

What does the Inspiration tell us about God's law?

- Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. Romans 13:10
- The entire law is summed up in a single command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Galatians 5:14
- If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing right. James 2:8
- Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself.’ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” Matt 22:37-40
- In the way of righteousness there is life; along that path is immortality. Pr 12:28
- He who pursues righteousness and love finds life, prosperity and honor. Pr 21:21
- The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul. Ps 19:7
- In living for self he has rejected that divine love which would have flowed out in mercy to his fellow men. Thus he has rejected life. For God is love, and love is life. COL 258

- Our only definition of sin is that given in the word of God; it is "the transgression of the law;" it is the outworking of a principle at war with the great law of love which is the foundation of the divine government. GC 493
- The law of love being the foundation of the government of God, the happiness of all created beings depended upon their perfect accord with its great principles of righteousness. GC 493
- But turning from all lesser representations, we behold God in Jesus. Looking unto Jesus we see that it is the glory of our God to give. "I do nothing of Myself," said Christ; "the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father." "I seek not Mine own glory," but the glory of Him that sent Me. John 8:28; 6:57; 8:50; 7:18. In these words is set forth the great principle which is the law of life for the universe. All things Christ received from God, but He took to give. So in the heavenly courts, in His ministry for all created beings: through the beloved Son, the Father's life flows out to all; through the Son it returns, in praise and joyous service, a tide of love, to the great Source of all. And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life. DA 21

According to inspiration what is God's law? The law of love? What kind of law is this? Where did it originate? Is it a natural law or an imposed law?

How did the false system seek to change this? Did the false system create an idea that the law of God is arbitrary, that God imposed it, that God enacted a law, that God created a law and put it upon His creatures and now God uses His power to enforce it?

Do we see God's law as an expression of His character of love, the design template upon which life is built, or do we see it as an imposed law He places upon His creation?

Has the beast system, the little horn, the man of perdition changed the very foundational understanding of God's law in the minds of men from the law of love, to an imposed law?

Do we as a Christian people still struggle with this distorted idea of God's law?

Christ came to save fallen man, and Satan with fiercest wrath met him on the field of conflict; for the enemy knew that when divine strength was added to human weakness, man was armed with power and intelligence, and could break away from the captivity in which he had bound him. Satan sought to intercept every ray of light from the throne of God. He sought to cast his shadow across the earth, that men might lose the true views of God's character, and that the knowledge of God might become extinct in the earth. He had caused truth of vital importance to be so mingled with error that it had lost its significance. The law of Jehovah was burdened with needless exactions and traditions, and God was represented as severe, exacting, revengeful, and arbitrary. He was pictured as one who could take pleasure in the sufferings of his creatures. The very attributes that belonged to the character of Satan, the evil one represented as belonging to the character of God. Jesus came to teach men of the Father, to correctly represent him before the fallen children of earth. Angels could not fully portray the character of God, but Christ, who was a living impersonation of God, could not fail to accomplish the work. The only way in which he could set and keep men right was to make himself visible and familiar to their eyes. That men might have salvation he came directly to man, and became a partaker of his nature. {ST, January 20, 1890 par. 6}

What about the Sabbath Commandment? How does it fit in to the end time events? Has the Sabbath Commandment been changed beyond seeking to change the day, but by changing the concept of the Sabbath to an arbitrary test of obedience?

What is the significance of the Sabbath and how does it become a test in the end time?

Is there a difference between a test given at school and a test done at a hospital? What is the difference?

Which way is God's law a test? How does the Sabbath play in?

As school, are there "examinations?" At the doctors office are there "examinations?" In the end the issue is not an examination of your heavenly records, but an examination of your character!

When people use the metaphor of a birthday and suggest we can't replace your birthday with any other day, therefore we can't replace the Sabbath with any other day. Consider this, what if your spouse said to you:

- Remember my birthday to celebrate with me and show me your love and devotion. 364 days you have to work and play and do your own thing, but the 365th day is my birthday and in it you shall only do those things that celebrate me. And if you choose to ignore my birthday and make it like all the other days of the year, then for breaking this law I have commanded you to observe, I will be forced to kill you. Now, shall we celebrate my birthday?

Is that how we understand the Sabbath? If so, even if we get the day of the week right, are we still partaking of the change in God's law instituted by the false system, specifically that God's law is imposed and thus are not Sabbath keepers?

The Sabbath is an expression of God's character of love, provided for mankind in the context of a war over God's trustworthiness. The first six days of creation we learn God has power, the seventh reveals His character, which presents truth, in love and leaves others free. Thus true Sabbath keepers have God's law of love written on their hearts and therefore, present the truth in love and leave others free. They understand that the test is a lab test, an "examination" of the character to see if we will practice God's methods in our life. The final test is not merely a check of the calendar to see if we go to church on the right day. The Jews in Christ day wanted Him off the cross to keep the right day, but their characters were selfish and not renewed to be like God's.

So, I am suggesting that those who teach God's law is imposed, God's law is a test of behavioral obedience, that God uses His law to keep track of our misdeeds and then God imposes penalties upon His children by using His power to inflict pain, suffering and death – have accepted the changes to the law done by the false system and continue to promote the false god concept.

I am suggesting that the message which lightens the world for Christ's return is the truth about God's character of love, and the test is whether we will love others more than self! Thus true Sabbath keepers have the law written in the heart and it becomes the living expression of the character of God reproduced in the believer.

Read last paragraph, "In both cases..." thoughts?

Do we agree that the false power will resort to violence in order to get that worship, which means it will punish those who won't worship it?

What do some say God will do to those who refuse to worship Him? Who can punish more severely, the beast or God? Do we then worship the one we fear can hurt us the most? If you believe God will punish those who don't worship Him and can do it more severely than the beast power, than who is ends up more beastly?

What did Satan allege about God?

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. DA 761

Satan alleges sin has to be punished – does it? This allegation comes from Satan’s attempt, the beast’s attempt, to change God’s law from the law upon which life is built, to an imposed set of rules which requires imposed punishment. Does the law require sin to be punished? Or does the law require sinners to be healed? Will God use His power to inflict punishment?

This quotation was sent to Uriah Smith, editor of the Review, in the 1890’s he didn’t know what to do with it so he filed it and it remained in the R&H files until the 1950s when it was published in the SM. Consider what it says about the law and the idea of punishment:

The law of ten commandments is not to be looked upon as much from the prohibitory side, as from the mercy side. Its prohibitions are the sure guarantee of happiness in obedience. As received in Christ, it works in us the purity of character that will bring joy to us through eternal ages. To the obedient it is a wall of protection. We behold in it the goodness of God, who by revealing to men the immutable principles of righteousness, seeks to shield them from the evils that result from transgression. {1SM 235.1}

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

The law is an expression of God's idea. When we receive it in Christ, it becomes our idea. It lifts us above the power of natural desires and tendencies, above temptations that lead to sin. "Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them" (Psalm 119:165)-- cause them to stumble. {1SM 235.3}

There is no peace in unrighteousness; the wicked are at war with God. But he who receives the righteousness of the law in Christ is in harmony with heaven. "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other" (Psalm 85:10).--Letter 96, 1896. {1SM 235.4}

Thoughts? What kind of law is being described? What happens when we break this law? What happens when we are in harmony with it? Do you see how the beast system has changed the law? And do you see how this beastly idea of the law has infected our thinking about God?

What is the first lie told in Eden? You will not surely die? How is this lie repeated today?

- We have an immortal soul/spirit
- The wicked burn forever in hell
- We reincarnate from one life to the next eternally
- Or, how about this – God must use His power to kill the wicked in the end. What does this by definition mean? You will not die, therefore I will have to kill you. Did God say in the day you eat I will be required to kill you, or you will die? When we say God must kill not only do we make God out to be the source of death, we support Satan's original lie that sin does not result in death.

Satan twisted everything – he twists the reality that sin, which is lawlessness, being out of harmony with the law of love upon which life is designed to operate, result in death and instead spins it around and teaches sin is not the problem, the problem is God, who gets upset when His law is broken and His anger and wrath must destroy those breakers of the law, unless something can be done to deal with God.

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, “Yet, as often is...” thoughts? What do you hear?

Then from the last paragraph we read, “Again, though obedience cannot save us (it is way too late for that), there is no such thing as salvation without it, regardless of how flawed our obedience tends to be.”

Do you notice the tension they have with the role our obedience has in our salvation? Our obedience is not a means to salvation, yet we can’t be saved without our obedience?

How would you explain it? Does our understanding of the sin problem make a difference in our ability to understand where obedience fits in?

If we understand sin as a legal problem, then we have this unnatural tension where Christ did it all in His perfect obedience to accomplish salvation by paying our legal debt, and no amount of obedience we can do can provide proper payment. But, even though we accept His perfect payment, we can’t be saved without our obedience, even though our obedience adds nothing to the payment. This is why some Christians have no expectation for obedience, while others, doubt salvation if their obedience fails at a particular point – have I asked forgiveness and gotten my latest sin paid for?

If you have the healing model, and understand sin as an actual change in the heart, mind, character of the intelligent being, where the principle of love has been replaced by fear and selfishness. Then we understand no human could fix this situation, therefore Christ came to procure remedy, a remedy that we cannot add to because it is completely perfect in Christ. But once the remedy to our condition has been perfectly procured by Christ, we still must participate, take the remedy, as Jesus said, “eat my flesh and drink my blood” or it does us no good. This requires our active participation, i.e. obedience, following the doctor’s prescription.

When we follow the doctor’s prescription we still don’t heal or save ourselves, we merely, by our freewill choice, accept the application of that remedy to our hearts and minds. Like taking an antibiotic, we take it but it does something in us we cannot do for ourselves.

TUESDAY

Read Haggai 1:5-12

What does it mean? Why does the Lord speak this way to them?

The people of Israel are as stubborn as mules. How can I feed them like lambs in a meadow? Hosea 4:6

So, why does He speak to them this way? Is it out of hate, dislike, disgust, or love, to warn and protect a people who don’t otherwise listen to gentle words?

When you read such language do you hear a God of anger or a God of love?

What is the lesson of this story? What conclusions do we draw from the fact that all their energy to promote themselves was coming to nothing as long as they failed to attend to building the temple?

- Does it mean if you don’t do what God wants He will ruin your plans?
- Is this an object lesson? What does the Temple symbolize? You and me, and what then would the lesson be? What happens when we spend our energies trying to get rich, power, good times, or whatever, while we neglect

- the care of our spirit temple? Can we grow healthier, can we experience in our lives God's blessings if the spirit temple is neglected? Why? Is it because God refuses to bless or is it because we, by abusing the spirit temple, close the channel to receive His blessing?
- Can we have healing of our spirit temple outside the law of love? Thus when we focus on selfish advancement we cannot prosper.
 - Does it make a difference in how you read the meaning of the text?

THURSDAY

The lesson turns our attention to Nehemiah, what did he and Ezra do?

I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God's name and said: "You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves. ²⁶ Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women. ²⁷ Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?"
Ne 13:25-27

Ezra the priest stood up and spoke to them. He said, "You have been faithless and have brought guilt on Israel by marrying foreign women. ¹¹ Now then, confess your sins to the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and do what pleases him. Separate yourselves from the foreigners living in our land and get rid of your foreign wives." Ezra 10:10,11

Thoughts? Is there any evidence these wives were cheating with other men? Why then the instruction to get rid of them?

What were they alleged to be doing? Corrupting the priesthood, how?

Is there an object lesson here? Who is the priesthood today? Does this have any bearing on marriage and divorce? Should a Christian “put away” a spouse who is unconverted and constantly tempting the spouse away from the Lord?

EGW gave advise to a man who was head of a mission in Chicago and had married an immature, unconverted wife, who was subject to hysterical acting out if she didn't get her way. There is no evidence or record of the woman being involved with another man. The letter EGW wrote is quite long, but here is one paragraph:

His best course with this child-wife, so overbearing, so unyielding, and so uncontrollable, is to take her home and leave her with the mother who has made her what she is. Though it must be painful, this is the only thing for him to do if he would not be ruined spiritually, sacrificed to the demon of hysterics and satanic imaginings. Satan takes entire control of her temper and will, and uses them like desolating hail to beat down every obstruction. Her husband can do her no good, but is doing himself incalculable harm, and robbing God of the talents and influence He has given. 16MR page 305.

Thoughts? What is the reason cited for this action? Is this in harmony with what Ezra and Nehemiah instructed the priests of Israel to do? Should we do this today? Why or why not?

FRIDAY

Read second paragraph, “There is constant...” thoughts?

What does this look like? Are we talking electric guitar, drums, power point? Or perhaps is the real problem conforming to the world's concept of who God is regardless of worship style?

Does our worship style promote the idea of unity, equality of fellowship, or hierarchy, authoritarian leadership, relational disengagement, and undermine the service of member to member in the body of Christ?

Read and discuss questions 2,3,4

Worship Lesson 11 3Q 2011

In Spirit and in Truth

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, "As we have seen..." thoughts?

- What is the gospel we are proclaiming?
- Is the gospel we are proclaiming different than any other Christian gospel? Should it be?
- How would you explain the gospel to others?

- What are we doing to proclaim the everlasting gospel?
- How can we be more effective?
- What obstacles do you see that impair our ability to proclaim the gospel?
- What can we, as a class, do to proclaim it more effectively?
- Who would like to be involved in proclaiming the gospel?
- What aides, materials, resources would you need to help you proclaim the gospel?
- Would you like handouts to give to people? On different topics?

To where should we look for support in spreading the gospel?

After last week's class Dennis emailed me the following:

"The Sanhedrin had rejected Christ's message and was bent upon His death; therefore Jesus departed from Jerusalem, from the priests, the temple, the religious leaders, the people who had been instructed in the law, and turned to another class to proclaim His message, and to gather out those who should carry the gospel to all nations. {DA 232.1}

As the light and life of men was rejected by the ecclesiastical authorities in the days of Christ, so it has been rejected in every succeeding generation.

Again and again the history of Christ's withdrawal from Judea has been repeated. When the Reformers preached the word of God, they had no thought of separating themselves from the established church; but the religious leaders would not tolerate the light, and those that bore it were forced to seek another class, who were longing for the truth. In our day few of the professed followers of the Reformers are actuated by their spirit. Few are listening for the voice of God, and ready to accept truth in whatever guise it may be presented.

Often those who follow in the steps of the Reformers are forced to turn away from the churches they love, in order to declare the plain teaching of the word of God. And many times those who are seeking for light are by the same teaching obliged to leave the church of their fathers, that they may render obedience. {DA 232.2}

The people of Galilee were despised by the rabbis of Jerusalem as rude and unlearned, yet they presented a more favorable field for the Saviour's work. They were more earnest and sincere; less under the control of bigotry; their minds were more open for the reception of truth. In going to Galilee, Jesus was not seeking seclusion or isolation. The province was at this time the home of a crowded population, with a much larger admixture of people of other nations than was found in Judea. "{DA 232.3}

Thoughts? When I read this my heart was saddened.

Where can we focus our energies in taking the gospel to our world?

We would like to do more than just meet once a week for class, we would like to start an awakening, a movement, a reevaluation of thinking, a spark to start the investigation of truth so that we may move forward in the truth rather than defend truths of a past generation.

Read second paragraph, “Think through...” thoughts?

Do we ever become so accustomed to the story of Jesus incarnation that we fail to be awed by it? What have you found to be effective in keeping your heart and mind in a state of wonder and admiration for what Christ has done?

How is the cross foolishness to the world? Why is it foolishness to those who are perishing?

Those who are perishing live in harmony with the prime directive of this world, which is survival of the fittest. From the perspective of our natural instinct to survive, does it make any sense to lay down your life so that you may find it?

Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it.” MT 16:24, 25.

What does this mean?

God’s kingdom is the kingdom of love, which is the principle of giving. The cross is where God’s principle of love destroyed Satan’s infection of survival of the fittest in the human brain of Jesus Christ. It is only as we know God, His methods of love, that the Cross make sense.

SUNDAY

The lesson is about Mary and her response to being told she would be the mother of Christ.

Lady's take a moment and consider, what would it have been like for you at age 13-16 to be told you are going to be pregnant with God's Son?

- How might you have responded?
- What do you think your parents would have said when you told them you were pregnant but had not known a man?
- How do you think your friends and classmates at school would have responded?
- What about school administration?
- What about church leaders?

Do you think there would be any social stress involved? Would you have been rejoicing to find this out?

What about Mary? What of her response? It appears it was one of joy and thanksgiving. What enabled this response?

Did Mary know something we don't?

Read bottom green section – thoughts? Anyone want to share a miracle they experienced in their lives?

MONDAY

The lesson is describing how we serve what we worship,

Read bottom paragraph, "Thus, we..." thoughts?

Healthy worship does protect our minds and develop our faculties. Thus it is essential to engage in healthy worship.

And unhealthy worship will damage our faculties and corrupt the mind and character.

Can people be members of a Christian church, be baptized, take communion, attend church weekly, hold church office, tithe and given offerings and still be an idolater? How?

What is the basis of idolatry? Is it not worshipping anything other than the true God? And what if one worships God but invests Him with the character of Satan?

Did Jesus state that people would think they were worshipping Him but He wouldn't even know them?

What can we do to enhance our ability to know God and worship Jesus in truth?

How can one tell? Would the methods one uses in living their lives change as one comes to know the true God? Do we treat others differently? How about those who disagree with us?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "As we have seen..." thoughts?

Do we agree? Is the form of worship what matters or is it the heart?

What do you think about our forms, rituals and liturgy? Do they enhance our relationship with God, or have they become an obstacle to experiencing what God wants for His people?

What does God want His church on earth to look like?

Could we use the New Testament as a guide to answer this question?

What did the church in the New Testament look like? How did it function?

Do each of you believe you are qualified to lead the church?
Do each of you believe you are ordained of God to be the church pastor?

Do each of you believe you are authorized of God to baptize, lead out in communion?

What would the New Testament say about whether you are authorized of God or not?

How was the church of God to function? Who were the priests in God's New Testament Church? Who was authorized to lead worship? Who was authorized to hold communion, baptize?

As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him—you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ...But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. 1Pet 2:4,5,9,10

What impact does it have on a believer to lead others to Christ? What impact does it have on a believer to lead out in worship? What impact does it have on the body of Christ if all members are serving each other as equals?

Does our liturgy, forms, rituals enhance every member functioning in the body of Christ or undermine it?

What then shall we say, brothers? When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church. 1Cor 14:26

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. Col 3:12-16

Are we all to be priests of God serving each other in love or is the church to be divided into the professional clergy and the unqualified laity?

Are we all to be ministers to each other, serving each other in love, or are we to go to service and sit and be entertained by the professional musicians and speakers who choose for us what to sing, think and speak?

- What are we to be experiencing in our hearts?
- Does the organized church help break down the dividing wall of hostility?
- Do we experience closer intimacy, acceptance, with others? Or does the church foster a costume party in which we each dress up and present ourselves in the “right” way to ensure we will be accepted by the system and not chastised or criticized?
- Do we open our hearts, souls and selves up to each other to bear one another’s burdens and difficulties, helping each other overcome in the name of Christ or do we hide our faults and problems pretending we are victorious for fear of rejection?
- Does the church today function as God designed it to function?

How can we, in this class, break out of a man made tradition and come to know, love, support, uplift, encourage, and promote the development of God’s character in each other?

How can we in this class move beyond tradition, forms, rituals and habits and enter into the at-one-ment, the unity of heart, mind and spirit God designed for His children to experience?

WEDNESDAY

Read top Bible verse, John 4:23 – thoughts?

What does “Truth and Spirit” mean? How do we worship God in spirit and in truth?

The Teacher from heaven, no less a personage than the Son of God, came to earth to reveal *the character of the Father to men, that they might worship him in spirit and in truth. Christ revealed to men the fact that the strictest adherence to ceremony and form would not save them; for the kingdom of God was spiritual in its nature. Christ came to the world to sow it with truth. He held the keys to all the treasures of wisdom, and was able to open doors to science, and to reveal undiscovered stores of knowledge, were it essential to salvation. He presented to men that which was exactly contrary to the representations of the enemy in regard to *the character of God, and sought to impress upon men the paternal love of the Father, who "so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." [John 3:16.] He urged upon men the necessity of prayer, repentance, confession, and the abandonment of sin. He taught them honesty, forbearance, mercy, and compassion, enjoining upon them to love not only those who loved them, but those who hated them, who treated them spitefully. In this he was revealing to them *the character of the Father, who is long-suffering, merciful, and gracious, slow to anger, and full of goodness and truth. Those who accepted his teaching were under the guardian care of angels, who were commissioned to strengthen, to enlighten, that the truth might renew and sanctify the soul. {CE 74.1}

What does it mean to worship in Spirit and in Truth?

Does it have anything to do with the character of God? How is the truth about God's character related to worshipping God in spirit and in truth?

What happens when we come to see God as He truly is? What impact does the "knowledge of God" have on us?

Life eternal is to "know" God, what does this mean?

This is more than intellectual knowledge, it is a personal knowing of God.

Does "spirit and truth" mean in our intellectual understanding (truth) and in our heart assimilation and experience with the truth, which changes the way we live (spirit)? Thus we must not only understand the truth, but embrace and assimilate the truth into our own individuality, identity, character?

Even so, the mighty cleaver of truth has taken out a people from the quarry of the world and is fitting this people, who profess to be the children of God, for a place in His heavenly temple. We want the cleaver of truth to do its work for us. . . . We are here as probationers, and we must pass under the hand of God. All rough edges and rough surfaces must be removed, and we must be stones fitted for the building. We are brought into church capacity with defects of character, but we must not retain them. We must be fitted and squared for the building. We must be "labourers together with God," for we are "God's husbandry," we are "God's building." In view of this we must see that the temple is not defiled with sin. We should be lively stones, not dead ones, but live ones that will reflect the image of Christ. We must be worshipers in spirit and in truth.—Manuscript 49, 1886 (Manuscript Releases, vol. 3, pp. 230-232). {CTr 155.5}

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, “At the same time...” thoughts?

What is the balance between correct beliefs and correct attitude of the heart?

Will anyone, when Christ appears in the clouds, know correctly everything in Scripture? Will there be any human being that has 100% correct beliefs when Christ first returns?

What is essential for salvation? Is it correct beliefs, or a renewed heart?

What is the attitude of those who have a renewed heart toward their beliefs?

The heart of those who will be saved is the heart that loves truth, that wants to grow in truth, they acknowledge their own finiteness and are hungry to grow in truth as more truth is understood.

The heart of those who are not ready to meet Christ is the heart that does not love the truth, but loves their beliefs and refuses to grow in truth, but instead holds to the traditions or old beliefs and defends them to the exclusion of growing in truth.

They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. 2Thes 2:10

Notice they perish, not because they don't have the right beliefs, but because they don't love the truth.

Eve really believed the words of Satan, but her belief did not save her from the penalty of sin. She disbelieved the words of God, and this was what led to her fall. In the judgment men will not be condemned because they conscientiously believed a lie, but because they did not believe the truth, because they neglected the opportunity of learning what is truth. {CC 15.7}

Why will men be condemned? Not because they have some misunderstanding on some belief, or even believe the wrong thing, but because they were not lovers of truth and thus could not be moved out of a distorted belief system.

How do we see this today? In my experience tradition, the desire to “protect” the beliefs of the past, the idea that we must hold to what previous generations understood is a great lie.

Only in theology is it a virtue to not grow in truth, knowledge understanding. In every other field of study the expectation, passion, desire is to learn and understand more, even to the point of overthrowing previously held dogma – consider medicine, physics, biology, mechanical engineering etc. All fields of study grow in knowledge – except theology, somehow in theology it has been a virtue to resist growth, to hold to old ideas and old concepts.

Churches even say things like, we don't want any change, we want things to remain like they are... How sad, what can God do for such people? Do you see how such an attitude delays the coming of Christ?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Throughout the long...” thoughts?

Was Christ fully God or was He a demi-god?

Read third paragraph, “Jesus was very clear...”

This is a great point. If Jesus was not God why did He allow Himself to be worshipped?

What is the basis for your belief that Jesus is fully God?

What do we lose in the plan of salvation if Jesus is not fully God?

Read last paragraph, “The point here...” thoughts?

What did Jesus say His purpose was in coming to earth? Who did He say He was pointing our minds toward? Did Jesus seek His own glory or that of the Father? Did Jesus want us to worship Him or the Father? Did Jesus say if you’ve seen me you’ve seen me, or you’ve seen the Father?

Jesus purpose was to reveal the Father to man and make Him known, thus when we rightly worship Jesus we put the truth about the Father at the center of all our worship!

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 and 2

Worship Lesson 12 3 Q 2011

Worship in the Early Church

SABBATH

Read second paragraph, "At Pentecost..." thoughts?

Was this a good thing or a bad thing that 3000 were baptized this day?

How often do you see this happen now? What do you think prevents this from happening now? Do we do anything that hinders this process?

What would happen if we did a public campaign and anywhere from 1-3000 people stood up and said they wanted to become Christians? What would we do? Would we baptize them that day? Why not?

Have we substituted something for Bible baptism? Is it Biblical? If a non-Christian hears the gospel and wants to give their lives to Christ, do we take them, right then, or as soon as is physically possible, and baptize them? What do we do instead? We have them pray the sinner's prayer.

Is this God's method? What are the benefits to immediate baptism? Is there benefit to substituting prayer for baptism? Is there a problem with substituting prayer for baptism?

Why do we require a long indoctrination period before baptism?

At Pentecost did the Apostles require those who wanted to be baptized to attest to change their diet, give up smoking, stop using alcohol, or commit to pay tithes and offerings before being baptized? Why do we?

What would happen if we had a public series of meetings in Chattanooga and we began baptizing people into Christ that very day?

Would it be in harmony with Scripture or opposed to it? Would it be in harmony with the organized church?

Do you think baptizing people into Christ at a public meeting would have a positive impact on the lives or a negative impact? Would it hinder or help the work of the Spirit?

What about the way we currently do it? Any thoughts?

Should we conduct such a series of meetings?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "From a human..." thoughts?

Is there any attempt at slight revisionist history going on? I have noticed that many evangelicals are moving away from the Jews crucifying Christ and instead putting the responsibility of His crucifixion on the Romans. What do you think about this?

I want to read a little from Scripture Matt 27:19-25:

While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him."

²⁰ But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

²¹ "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor.

"Barabbas," they answered.

²² "What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called Christ?" Pilate asked.

They all answered, "Crucify him!"

²³ “Why? What crime has he committed?” asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify him!”

²⁴ When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. “I am innocent of this man’s blood,” he said. “It is your responsibility!”

²⁵ All the people answered, “Let his blood be on us and on our children!”

Thoughts? Yes it is true that the Roman government had the legal authority to carry out and ultimately ordered the execution of Christ – but, who was responsible for orchestrating the crucifixion? Who took public responsibility for it? Who tried to resist and avoid the crucifixion of Christ?

Is it honest to present the Crucifixion of Christ as solely done by the Romans, or even the preponderance of the responsibility on the Romans?

Why is this happening? What do we lose if we go down this path? What lesson will we fail to see if we accept this line of thinking? We fail to realize that those who call themselves God’s children, but accept a false picture of God, are actually God’s enemies.

The Jewish rulers did not love God; therefore they cut themselves away from Him, ... They envied Christ's beauty of character. His manner of teaching was far superior to theirs, and they dreaded His success. He remonstrated with them, unveiling their hypocrisy, and showing them the sure results of their course of action. This stirred them to madness. They smarted under the rebukes they could not silence. They hated the high standard of righteousness which Christ continually presented. They saw that His teaching was placing them where their selfishness would be uncloaked, and they determined to kill Him. They hated His example of truthfulness and piety and the elevated spirituality revealed in all He did. His whole life was a reproof to their selfishness, and when the final test came, the test which meant obedience unto eternal life or disobedience unto eternal death, they rejected the Holy One of Israel. When they were asked to choose between Christ and Barabbas, they cried out, "Release unto us Barabbas!" Luke 23:18. And when Pilate asked, "What shall I do then with Jesus?" they cried fiercely, "Let Him be crucified." Matthew 27:22. "Shall I crucify your King?" Pilate asked, and from the priests and rulers came the answer, "We have no king but Caesar." John 19:15. When Pilate washed his hands, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just person," the priests joined with the ignorant mob in declaring passionately, "His blood be on us, and on our children." Matthew 27:24, 25. {COL 293.3}

Thus the Jewish leaders made their choice. Their decision was registered in the book which John saw in the hand of Him that sat upon the throne, the book which no man could open. In all its vindictiveness this decision will appear before them in the day when this book is unsealed by the Lion of the tribe of Judah. {COL 294.1}

Thoughts? Who does she hold responsible for the crucifixion of Christ? Why might we want to forget this? Could this next paragraph provide a reason we want to deny what the Jews did?

The Jewish people cherished the idea that they were the favorites of heaven, and that they were always to be exalted as the church of God. They were the children of Abraham, they declared, and so firm did the foundation of their prosperity seem to them that they defied earth and heaven to dispossess them of their rights. But by lives of unfaithfulness they were preparing for the condemnation of heaven and for separation from God. {COL 294.2}

What happened to the Jewish nation because of its rejection of Christ? Why did ruin come to them?

- Were they agnostic?
- Did they deny God existed?
- Did they claim to be the true worshippers of God?
- Did they worship the Roman pantheon?
- Did they possess the oracles of God?
- Yet, despite all this did they reject God?

Could we do the same thing?

Read last paragraph, “One of the most...” thoughts?

Were they to believe in Christ with or without “proof”? What is your understanding of faith? Is our faith based on evidence, proof, facts or is our faith believing without evidence?

Read bottom green section?

What is faith? Where does it come from? How do we get more?

What undermines our growth in faith? Does evidence and experience undermine faith or strengthen it? What then would the idea that we don’t need evidence do to faith?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, thoughts? Is the protestant weekly sermon and what Peter and Paul did the same thing?

Can you think of examples of sermons from scripture?

- Jesus sermon on the mount
- Paul Mars Hill
- Peter Pentecost
- Stephen

How would you describe all of these Bible examples of preaching?

- Who was the audience?
- Where was the forum?
- Were they regularly scheduled events?
- Were they scripted?
- Were they paid to present these speeches?
- Does it matter?
- Do we lose anything if we have regularly scheduled speaking events, scripted by professionally trained speakers?

Where did the “power” come from in the Bible preachers?

About the middle of the festival Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. ¹⁵ The Jews were astonished at it, saying, “How does this man have such learning, when he has never been taught?” ¹⁶ Then Jesus answered them, “My teaching is not mine but his who sent me. ¹⁷ Anyone who resolves to do the will of God will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own. ¹⁸ Those who speak on their own seek their own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and there is nothing false in him. John 7:14-18

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: “Rulers and elders of the people! ⁹ If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a cripple and are asked how he was healed, ¹⁰ then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. ¹¹ He is “ ‘the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.’

¹² Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.”

¹³ When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. Acts 4:8-13

Does the liturgy of our current church service originate in the Bible? Has the traditions we have accepted promoted the spread of the gospel, the health of the church, the finishing of the work, hindered it, or had not effect?

What about the way we observe the Lord's Supper, is it how they did it in the New Testament? Did they have a thimble full of grape juice and a tiny cracker? Did they have a professional speaker give a homily designed to focus their attention on their sinfulness and unworthiness?

But the Communion service was not to be a season of sorrowing. This was not its purpose. As the Lord's disciples gather about His table, they are not to remember and lament their shortcomings. They are not to dwell upon their past religious experience, whether that experience has been elevating or depressing. They are not to recall the differences between them and their brethren. The preparatory service has embraced all this. The self-examination, the confession of sin, the reconciling of differences, has all been done. Now they come to meet with Christ. They are not to stand in the shadow of the cross, but in its saving light. They are to open the soul to the bright beams of the Sun of Righteousness. With hearts cleansed by Christ's most precious blood, in full consciousness of His presence, although unseen, they are to hear His words, "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you." John 14:27.
{DA 659.1}

Was the NT a celebration love feast in which they celebrated the victory provided by Jesus Christ?

Who is the church? What is its purpose on earth? What is its purpose when it meets together?

What then shall we say, brothers? When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church. 1Cor 14:26

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. Col 3:12-16

- Isn't the purpose of the church to spread the truth about God and to equip each of us for this mission?
- Are we not, when we meet together to be helping each other overcome sinfulness in our lives?
- What role in the process of overcoming does ministering to one another have?
- Do we benefit when we have more interaction, discussion, heart to heart communion, conversation, prayer for and with each other, or do we hinder the work of character development?

Where do you think more character development and down to brass tacks overcoming of defects occurs, in a weekly church service or a AA meeting? Where should be the #1 place on earth for a person to be able to experience help in overcoming problems in their hearts, minds and characters?

Should it not be the church? Is it? Why not? Is it because we no longer function as God designed?

Read last paragraph, “No doubt...” thoughts?

THURSDAY

Love conquers all – what does love look like in action?

I received this email this week:

Dr. Jennings,

I have a friend who has been with her husband for many years and he has cheated much of those years. He is a good father and the children love him. This woman has been an obedient child of Christ in staying with her husband.

Last year she had had enough and divorced him. He came back and wanted to mend his marriage but continues to sin with other women and every week still comes home and sleeps in another room in the house. My sister in Christ would like her marriage to heal but cannot take his cheating.

Does God want her to stay in this marriage when her husband continues like this. Role modeling evil behavior in the house.

I believe God does not want her to live in pain

What does love do? How would you respond? Here is my response:

Of course God does not want anyone to live in a deceitful, exploitive, selfish relationship where trust doesn't exist. Her husband doesn't love her and until she realizes it she will fail to be able to love him. The most loving action for her is to hold him accountable for his untrustworthy character and throw him out. She should only allow him back when he had demonstrated, reliable, documentable, credible evidence that he is trustworthy and loves her more than himself. His words are meaningless, his actions demonstrate an immature human being who is not qualified to be a husband.

Here is the response back:

But Dr Jennings ~ Can't a person still love his wife and give into the flesh? He has to love her, why would he come back to be with her & the children. The bible says to forgive so she has forgiven and when we marry aren't we suppose to stay married ~ God wants us to keep our families together doesn't he?!

It's confusing (when there is emotional abuse) to know what God would have us do. It must be possible to have the Holy Spirit guide us out of bad relationships and focus on God.

At the same time, when emotionally leaving someone we may feel like we are hurting them but be strong and it feels like we are being unloving.

What does love do? How would you respond to this? Here is my response:

Love does what is right because it is right, not because it feels right. Love is the principle of selfless giving for the benefit of the other's welfare and happiness. In this case neither husband nor wife act upon love toward the other. The husband acts in self interests and deceives his wife with his emotional attachment he calls love and the wife deceives herself allowing him to say calling it loving as she colludes with a path that is destructive to his character and ruining him for heaven. If she loved him she would not cooperate with him by allowing him to stay but would hold him accountable.

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth, He works by presenting truth to our minds. When we choose to reject the truth we close our minds to the Spirit. In this case which of them doesn't know the truth about adultery? Which of them doesn't know the truth of its destructiveness and its selfishness? Which of them doesn't know the truth that they try to hide from because it will be painful to deal with? But love does what is right because it is right, look at Gethsemane, the greatest act of love, what were Christ's emotions? They were not pleasant, love is not mere emotions but harmony with God's character despite emotions.

Here is their final response:

You are sound and correct as much as it is difficult to listen to. I will share this with her. She only wants to do what is right and needs our prayers and support. Please pray for her as I will brother Jennings. Thank you for being here for us your wisdom helped me very much I will pass all your teachings on.

And again thank you for your time.

What is love? What does it look like?

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, "Though we..." thoughts? We cannot rely on worship leaders, but do we? Is the system friendly to those who would forgo the worship leadership and want to have their own worship experience?

Read third paragraph, "At the same time..." thoughts?

What is the "end"? What is the purpose of worship?

Read fourth paragraph, "It is fascinating...." Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, "Again, though our..." thoughts? Could people be led, in worship, to the cross, but still not encounter Christ? How could that happen?

When we are led to the cross what are we to experience at the cross? What is it we are to attain at the cross? What are we to learn?

1) God's love for man

a. John 3:16

b. 1John 3:16

c. Christ's death proves God's great love for man. It is our pledge of salvation. To remove the cross from the Christian would be like blotting the sun from the sky. The cross brings us near to God, reconciling us to Him. With the relenting compassion of a father's love, Jehovah looks upon the suffering that His Son endured in order to save the race from eternal death, and accepts us in the Beloved. {AA 209.3}

Without the cross, man could have no union with the Father. On it depends our every hope. From it shines the light of the Saviour's love, and when at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fullness of joy, for his sins are pardoned. Kneeling in faith at the cross, he has reached the highest place to which man can attain. {AA 209.4}

Through the cross we learn that the heavenly Father loves us with a love that is infinite. Can we wonder that Paul exclaimed, "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ"? Galatians 6:14. It is our privilege also to glory in the cross, our privilege to give ourselves wholly to Him who gave Himself for us. Then, with the light that streams from Calvary shining in our faces, we may go forth to reveal this light to those in darkness. {AA 210.1}

- 2) Reveal God's character – never use power to force His way or act selfishly
 - a. John 13 – all power given to Christ
 - b. On the Cross how did Christ treat those who crucified Him?
 - c. Did He use power to stop them? Could He have?
 - d. In Gethsemane did Christ use power to save self?
 - e. But the plan of redemption had a yet broader and deeper purpose than the salvation of man. It was not for this alone that Christ came to the earth; it was not merely that the inhabitants of this little world might regard the law of God as it should be regarded; but it was to vindicate the character of God before the universe. To this result of His great sacrifice--its influence upon the intelligences of other worlds, as well as upon man--the Saviour looked forward when just before His crucifixion He said: "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto Me." John 12:31, 32. The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His Son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan. It would establish the perpetuity of the law of God and would reveal the nature and the results of sin. {PP 68.2}

- 3) The Value of the human soul
 - a. The value of a soul, who can estimate? Would you know its worth, go to Gethsemane, and there watch with Christ through those hours of anguish, when He sweat as it were great drops of blood. Look upon the Saviour uplifted on the cross. Hear that despairing cry, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" Mark 15:34. Look upon the wounded head, the pierced side, the marred feet. Remember that Christ risked all. For our redemption, heaven itself was imperiled. At the foot of the cross, remembering that for one sinner Christ would have laid down His life, you may estimate the value of a soul. {COL 196.4}

- 4) The security of the heavenly universe
- a. Col 1:20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.
 - b. That which alone can effectually restrain from sin in this world of darkness, will prevent sin in heaven. The significance of the death of Christ will be seen by saints and angels. Fallen men could not have a home in the paradise of God without the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Shall we not then exalt the cross of Christ? The angels ascribe honor and glory to Christ, for even they are not secure except by looking to the sufferings of the Son of God. It is through the efficacy of the cross that the angels of heaven are guarded from apostasy. Without the cross they would be no more secure against evil than were the angels before the fall of Satan. Angelic perfection failed in heaven. Human perfection failed in Eden, the paradise of bliss. All who wish for security in earth or heaven must look to the Lamb of God.

The plan of salvation, making manifest the justice and love of God, provides an eternal safeguard against defection in unfallen worlds, as well as among those who shall be redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. {5BC 1132.8}

- 5) Expose Satan as a liar and fraud

- a. To the angels and the unfallen worlds the cry, "It is finished," had a deep significance. It was for them as well as for us that the great work of redemption had been accomplished. They with us share the fruits of Christ's victory.

Not until the death of Christ was the character of Satan clearly revealed to the angels or to the unfallen worlds. The archapostate had so clothed himself with deception that even holy beings had not understood his principles. They had not clearly seen the nature of his rebellion. {DA 758}

- 6) Destroy Satan's power – lies about God
- a. Heb 2:14 Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—
- 7) Destroy the carnal nature, selfishness in the human soul
- a. 1John 3:8 The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.
- b. Man was the crowning act of the creation of God, made in the image of God, and designed to be a counterpart of God; but Satan has labored to obliterate the image of God in man, and to imprint upon him his own image. LHU 48
- c. He restored God's character, law into mankind in His own person.
- 8) Destroy death
- a. 2Tim 1:10 Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "In the days..." thoughts?

The lesson points out that on Mars Hill Paul did not quote the Bible but used logic, reason and their own philosophers – was this a good idea or bad idea?

Read last paragraph, “In the end...” thoughts? What would happen today if you went to scientific people, who haven’t had the gospel brought to them, but were taught to think, reason, look for evidence, and you said, “you must believe what I say. God sent His Son, He died for you, to pay for your sins. You must repent and accept this on faith, without thinking, for human reason is flawed, and don’t ask for evidence. You must believe!”

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, “Holiness...” is this what you typically think of when you think of holiness? So could one be holy while running in a marathon, playing basketball, baseball, cooking, cleaning, going to school? When you see daily living activities, do you see holiness? Should we? Or should we see holiness only in religious activities?

Read and discuss questions 1-4

Worship Lesson 13, 3Q 2011

Worship in the Book of Revelation

What are your thoughts about the lesson title?

When you think of worship in Revelation what comes to mind?

What is the basis of our worship? Is it not the truth about God, who He is, the experience we have and knowledge we have of Him?

While our personal journey, and thus our “song” will be different as we will each be brought through and out of different difficulties and trials, won’t we all be brought to the same God?

And, ultimately, won’t our worship be based on the same truth of who God is?

Hasn’t the entire controversy been over this issue? Is it any different in Revelation?

In general, has Revelation made it easier for most people to get a true picture about God, or has Revelation created difficulties for people?

To the degree any misunderstanding of God has come from Revelation, why has that happened? Could it be that people have failed to recognize the symbolic nature of the text and instead have taken certain passages concretely – like Revelation 14?

Do we let the Bible interpret itself or do we project into the Bible our own preconceived ideas?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "Perhaps one of the greatest..."

Facts about our universe:

- Our sun is about 865,000 miles in diameter, talk about big, that makes it equivalent to about 109 planet Earths.
- It is estimated that the Milky Way galaxy contains 200-400 billion stars.
- It is estimated that the universe contains 100-500 billion galaxies, with each galaxy containing anywhere from 10 million to 1 trillion stars. If we just averaged each galaxy containing 100 billion stars, then 100-500 billion galaxies multiplied by 100 billion stars is a number I can't even imagine.
- The Andromeda Galaxy is our closest neighboring galaxy and is 2.5 million light years away. One light year equals 5,878,625,373,183 miles (about 6 trillion miles). So multiple 6 trillion by 2.5 million to get the rough distance. And it is estimated that Andromeda contains 1 trillion stars.

And, as the Study Guide points out, something greater than the cosmos built the cosmos. Can your mind even comprehend it?

God is amazing – and because He is so amazing, so infinite, so beyond our finite capacities to consider, some humans conclude God simply cannot exist. So, what do they do to deal with the origins of the universe? Rather than believe in an intelligent being who created, they postulate that at one point in universal history there was nothing, no time, energy, matter, space, gravity, molecules, life, nothing at all and from this nothing an explosion happened from which everything emerged, and they call that reasonable.

What can we do to keep our minds aware of God as our creator and our relationship to Him?

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to consider various texts in Revelation and the reasons cited for worship.

Read Revelation 4:8-11:

Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under his wings. Day and night they never stop saying:

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.”

Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever, ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

“You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.”

What reason are they worshipping God?

- How is this truth under attack as time comes to a close?
 - 2006 news report:

Nearly 450 Christian churches in the United States yesterday celebrated the 197th birthday of Charles Darwin. The churches say Darwin's theory of biological evolution is compatible with faith and that Christians have no need to choose between religion and science. Some churches sang praises for "tall boiling test tubes" and "classrooms and labs." Many churches held adult education and Sunday school classes on evolution, and ministers preached that followers of Christ do not have to choose between biblical stories of creation and evolution... A variety of denominational and non-denominational churches, including Methodist, Lutheran, Episcopalian, Presbyterian, Unitarian, Congregationalist, United Church of Christ, Baptist and a host of community churches, participated in the event... [M]ore than 10,000 Christian ministers... sign[ed] a letter urging school boards across the country to “preserve the integrity of the science curriculum by affirming the teaching of the theory of evolution as a core component of human knowledge.”ⁱ

- Is this truth under attack in the SDA church?
 - How?
 - Do you find it credible that God created by evolutionary mechanism? Why not?
 - How do you explain the age of the universe being billions of years but the Biblical record suggesting life on earth is only 6,000-10,000 years old?
 - How do we explain Carbon dating of life 50,000 years? Or rocks billions of years?
- Genesis is not a record of creation of the entire universe, only of our solar system. The universe was created before our solar system, i.e. earth and mankind. Job 38:4

Read Revelation 5:8-14:

What reason are they worshipping Christ? The Lamb was slain and what is He now worthy to receive? Power and honor and glory? What is the connection between the Lamb being slain and His being worthy to receive power and honor?

- How is this truth under attack as time comes to a close?
 - By twisting the meaning of the Cross away from a revelation of God’s character and achievement of a purified humanity, to pay a legal penalty. That God must inflict penalties and therefore executed His Son, and God will use His power to inflict pain and suffering on all those who don't accept the legal penalty paid.

Read Revelation 7:9-12:

What reason is given for worship here?

Christ has saved humanity, saved those terminal in sin.

- How is this truth under attack as time comes to a close?
 - He isn't the Savior only, but the destroyer of those who won't love Him
 - Christ receives power to use a rod of iron to dominate and destroy His enemies
 - March 5, 2006 Louis Farrakhan We are living at a time that was described by Jesus in these words: "If those days were not shortened for his elect sake, no flesh would be saved." We know that we have now entered that period when we witnessed a tsunami killing over 200,000 people in Asia; an earthquake in Pakistan; storms raging throughout America, fire on one side, water on the other, snow, cold, ice in between...

At the townhall meeting in New Orleans, I pointed out the high Black-on-Black crime rates, rebellion against the will and law of God, and the love of partying and acting foolishness that prevails in the city. I asked them if they did not think that Allah (God) would handle the city as He did two ancient cities that lived in rebellion. I told them Allah (God) brought a punishment to America, but He also brought a punishment to Black people, and that punishment is going to spread. There will be many more disasters that we are not prepared for in this country.

This country glories in its cities and skyscrapers, but Allah (God) is going to bring them down. We are going to know that He is God. ..

The Bible says that in His Second Coming, He will have a sword dripping with blood in His hand. He is not coming back to teach. He is coming back to kill the enemies of His teaching and set up a new government.

- o Love me or I will kill you

Read Revelation 11:15-19:

The seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, which said:

“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever.”

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷ saying:

“We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.

¹⁸ The nations were angry; and your wrath has come. The time has come for judging the dead, and for rewarding your servants the prophets and your saints and those who reverence your name, both small and great— and for destroying those who destroy the earth.”

¹⁹ Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

Why are they worshipping here?

Because Christ kingdom consumes and puts an end to the kingdom of the world – i.e. Christ’s kingdom of love finally eradicates the infection of selfishness, an end to sin, death, disease, deviations from God’s design for life, an end to all pain and suffering!

How has this idea been corrupted and distorted as we approach the end of time?

- God’s judgment determines who will be saved and who will be lost – i.e. in a courtroom type scenario
- God’s use of power inflicts the punishment upon sinners for their behavioral crimes and causes them to suffer and die

The Greek for judging in the passage means “determining” or “selecting” or “choosing” or “to separate” or “to pick out”. So the time has come for God to separate the dead, to pick out from the dead those who are healed from those who are not, separating sheep from goats, etc. This does not mean a time when a court sits, evidence is presented, a jury debates and a decision of innocence or guilt is rendered. It does mean a time when God simply acknowledges, who has accepted Christ and experienced transformation and healing and who has not.

Thus the text says the time has come to select those from the dead who have accepted Christ so they can experience their reward of eternal life!

Regarding destroying those who destroy the earth, it means to consume, put an end to, remove sinfulness from the earth. It doesn’t say how, just that He does. So we must look to the rest of scripture to understand how God brings an end. And how does He do it?

To sin, wherever found, "our God is a consuming fire." Hebrews 12:29. In all who submit to His power the Spirit of God will consume sin. But if men cling to sin, they become identified with it. Then the glory of God, which destroys sin, must destroy them. DA 107

What do you hear this passage saying? What is it that causes death? Is it the fire of God's presence? If so why can the angels and the saved live in His presence if His presence destroys? What is the only thing His presence destroys? Sin – thus is the source of death God or is the source of death, sin? God destroys death by destroying sin!

Read Revelation 15:1-4:

I saw in heaven another great and marvelous sign: seven angels with the seven last plagues—last, because with them God's wrath is completed. ² And I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire and, standing beside the sea, those who had been victorious over the beast and his image and over the number of his name. They held harps given them by God ³ and sang the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb:

“Great and marvelous are your deeds,
Lord God Almighty.
Just and true are your ways,
King of the ages.

⁴ Who will not fear you, O Lord, and bring glory to your name?
For you alone are holy.
All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”

What is the reason for worship in this passage?

- God's holiness
- God's justice

- God's right ways
- God's wrath is complete

How has this been distorted and misrepresented as we approach the end of time?

- God's wrath is an active process in which He inflicts pain and suffering upon His creatures
- God's justice is using power to punish
- The seven last plagues result from God using power to inflict pain upon sinners

What is the truth

- Romans 1:18-31 – God's wrath is letting go
- The seven last plagues are a result of God granting freedom and letting go, not an infliction
 - Revelation 7:1-3
 - "I was shown that the judgments of God would not come directly out from the Lord upon them, but in this way;

They place themselves beyond His protection. He warns, corrects, reprovcs, and points out the only path of safety; then if those who have been the objects of His special care will follow their own course, independent of the Spirit of God, after repeated warnings, if they choose their own way, then He does not commission His angels to prevent Satan's decided attacks upon them.

It is Satan's power that is at work at sea and on land, bringing calamity and distress, and sweeping off multitudes to make sure of his prey, and storm and tempest both by sea and land will be, for Satan has come down in great wrath. He is at work. He knows his time is short and, he is not restrained; we shall see more terrible manifestations of his great power than we have ever dreamed of."

Manuscript Release vol. 14, p. 3

- Worship results from God using power to put down rebellion and driving all beings by fear of punishment
 - Zech 4:6 not by might nor by fear but by the spirit says the lord

Read Revelation 19:1-5:

After this I heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude in heaven shouting:

“Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power belong to our God,
² for true and just are his judgments.

He has condemned the great prostitute who corrupted the earth by her adulteries.

He has avenged on her the blood of his servants.”

³ And again they shouted:

“Hallelujah!

The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever.”

⁴ The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God, who was seated on the throne. And they cried:

“Amen, Hallelujah!”

⁵ Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

“Praise our God,
 all you his servants,
 you who fear him,
 both small and great!”

What is the reason for worship? God is right, His ways and methods have been proved true. The false system has been exposed and an end to sin and sinners has been experienced!

How has this been corrupted and distorted as we approach the end of time?

- The Great Controversy doesn't exist
- God was not accused by Satan
- God has no need to prove His character or trustworthiness
- Sin is a willful choice to rebel against God without Satan deceiving
- God merely must pay the legal penalty and punish those who remain in rebellion

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "From the introduction..." thoughts?

It is a matter of worship, what do you understand the main issue in this battle to be about? Why does it matter?

Read second paragraph, "From the beginning..." thoughts?

What are Satan's methods as practiced by the beast system?

What is the common Christian teaching on what Christ/God will do when He returns? What is the common Christian teaching regarding what methods God will employ in dealing with the wicked in the end? How is the common teach attributed to God different than what the Bible says the beast will use?

Is it possible the common teaching in Christianity regarding how God treats sinners in the end, is in actuality the methods of Satan, the beast system? Is it how Christianity is preparing the world to accept Satan's counterfeit to Christ?

Could our church be caught up in this?

WEDNESDAY

Middle dark section, Read, "Read Revelation 14:6-12..."

Thoughts?

What is the message of the three angels? What are we to be telling the world? Has this message been corrupted? How?

THURSDAY

The lesson calls us back to worship of the true God, and emphasizes its importance, an excellent insight in paragraph five, “And that is because...” thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-3

ⁱ http://www.ekklesia.co.uk/content/news_syndication/article_060213evolution.shtml

Lesson 1. Paul: Apostle to the Gentiles

Sabbath.

What was at the root of Saul's persecution of the early Christian church??

If we, today, believe in a similar God concept, might we be in danger of similar or worse persecution of those who do not share our beliefs??

From the teacher's quarterly.

You want to become really bad? Not bad as in "misunderstood"; not bad as in a diamond-in-the-rough kind of character with the proverbial heart of gold; but bad as in some of the world's most evil men? You must start by convincing yourself you're good. So good, in fact, that you believe you're better than anybody else. Or that you can do no wrong. Not only that, but you have God on your side and anyone who opposes you opposes God. French philosopher and mathematician Blaise Pascal wrote, "Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from a religious conviction." That could be you. It could be any of us if, in misguided devotion, we put ourselves in God's place and stop listening to the real God.

Sunday.

Acts 6:9-15.

9. Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen. 10. And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11. Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12. And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council. 13. They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law; 14. for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15. And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

The lesson asks of whom are we reminded with this passage [Matt 26:59-61].

57 And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. 58 But Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests, the elders, and all the council sought false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, 60 but found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward 61 and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.” 62 And the high priest arose and said to Him, “Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?” 63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, “I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!” 64 Jesus said to him, “It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.” 65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, “He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His blasphemy! 66 What do you think?” They answered and said, “He is deserving of death.” 67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and others struck Him with the palms of their hands, 68 saying, “Prophecy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?”

NOTE: Both Steven and Christ are referring to the Spirit Temple / Sanctuary. Have we, today, received any grief from the current church leaders on this subject??

Read the red section at the bottom of Sunday’s lesson.

Convinced he was right, Saul was willing to put to death those whom he thought wrong. While we need to have zeal and fervor for what we believe, how do we learn to temper our zeal with the realization that, at times, we just might be wrong?

Monday.

The lesson asks, “What role did the grace of God have in this experience [Saul’s conversion]?”

Might this be why Paul later said we are “saved by grace.” [Acts 15:11, Eph 2:5, 8.]

What role did Saul play in his conversion??

The martyrdom of Stephen made a deep impression upon all who witnessed it. The memory of the signet of God upon his face; his words, which touched the very souls of those who heard them, remained in the minds of the beholders, and testified to the truth of that which he had proclaimed. His death was a sore trial to the church, but it resulted in the conviction of Saul, who could not efface from his memory the faith and constancy of the martyr, and the glory that had rested on his countenance. {AA 101.3} At the scene of Stephen’s trial and death, Saul had seemed to be imbued with a frenzied zeal. Afterward he was angered by his own secret conviction that Stephen had been honored by God at the very time when he was dishonored by men. Saul continued to persecute the church of God, hunting them down, seizing them in their houses, and delivering them up to the priests and rulers for imprisonment and death. His zeal in carrying forward this persecution brought terror to the Christians at Jerusalem. The Roman authorities made no special effort to stay the cruel work and secretly aided the Jews in order to conciliate them and to secure their favor. {AA 101.4} After the death of Stephen, Saul was elected a member of the Sanhedrin council in consideration of the part he had acted on that occasion. For a time he was a mighty instrument in the hands of Satan to carry out his rebellion against the Son of God. But soon this relentless persecutor was to be employed in building up the church that he was now tearing down. A Mightier than Satan had chosen Saul to take the place of the martyred Stephen, to preach and suffer for His name, and to spread far and wide the tidings of salvation through His blood. {AA 102.1}

According to the lesson: “The only thing Saul deserved was punishment.” Really?? Why do we keep coming back to this idea that all sinners deserve punishment?? Did any of us choose to be born?? Born a sinner??

I want to make clear that, while we do NOT deserve God’s grace [it’s a gift], we do not deserve punishment either. That is a doctrine of devils [see DA 761].

Tuesday.

The following is a quote from the teachers quarterly:

“Saul, on the other hand, did not so much turn as he was turned. Until the moment when the living Christ appears and incapacitates him, we see no sign of a change of heart in Saul. The passages in chapters 8 and 9 tell us nothing at all about his internal state. We see a lot of his external state, vividly described in terms evoking a fierce predatory animal (Acts 8:3). Was the Holy Spirit working with him? Undoubtedly, but to see it would have taken greater faith than most had then or have now.”

Did God “turn” Saul?? or merely choose the best method to get his attention?? As we have seen above from the AA 102,103 quote, Saul was struggling with the Holy Spirit before his “conversion”.

What would you have done if you were Ananias??
Do you think our ministry has been judged fairly or accurately??
Have you misjudged anyone else’s ministry??

Wednesday.

In the later centuries of Israel’s history prior to the first advent it was generally understood that the coming of the Messiah was referred to in the prophecy, “It is a light thing that Thou shouldest be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give Thee for a light to the Gentiles, that Thou mayest be My salvation unto the end of the earth.” [Isa. 49:6]. PK 68

The OT is quite clear that God intended to save the “Gentiles” also. The children of Israel were his initial instrument for this, but he knew they would not live up to the task, so he included in the prophecies of the coming Messiah language to enlighten them.

Are there any “Gentiles” that we, as Adventists, think are beneath our efforts??

I attended a small Adventist church in middle TN, as a guest about 2 years ago. The SS teacher and pastor, both, referred to non-Adventists as “Philistines”. What kind of message is being sent from our pulpits??

The lesson brings out the point that persecution after Steven’s death is the catalyst for the spreading of the message of Christ to Antioch. Has the tyranny of Satan ever succeeded in destroying the Church?? Has he come close??

Thursday. Conflict within the Church.

Can we identify any rites, beliefs, and ordinances that cause conflict in the church today??

What’s the big deal about circumcision, anyway??

If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God’s law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. PP 364.

Friday.

*“A general slain in battle is lost to his army, but his death gives no additional strength to the enemy. But when a man of prominence joins the opposing force, not only are his services lost, but those to whom he joins himself gain a decided advantage. Saul of Tarsus, on his way to Damascus, might easily have been struck dead by the Lord, and much strength would have been withdrawn from the persecuting power. But God in His providence not only spared Saul’s life, but converted him, thus transferring a champion from the side of the enemy to the side of Christ. An eloquent speaker and a severe critic, Paul, with his stern purpose and undaunted courage, possessed the very qualifications needed in the early church.”—Ellen G. White, The Acts of the Apostles, p. 124.*

Paul’s conversion is a perfect example of God’s “vengeance”. He used the best method needed to get Paul’s attention, knowing that Paul’s heart was still receptive to the Holy Spirit, and then He healed Paul. This was far more effective for the growth of the early church than just striking him dead. How do you think Satan felt, losing one of his best soldiers??

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 2 4Q 2011

Paul's Authority and Gospel

What is "authority"?

Definition of AUTHORITY

1

a (1) : a citation (as from a book or file) used in defense or support (2) : the source from which the citation is drawn b (1) : a conclusive statement or set of statements (as an official decision of a court) (2) : a decision taken as a precedent (3) : TESTIMONY
c : an individual cited or appealed to as an expert

2

a : power to influence or command thought, opinion, or behavior

b : freedom granted by one in authority : RIGHT

3

a : persons in command; specifically : GOVERNMENT
b : a governmental agency or corporation to administer a revenue-producing public enterprise <the transit authority>

4

a : GROUNDS, WARRANT <had excellent authority for believing the claim>
b : convincing force <lent authority to the performance>

Do any of these definitions fit Paul's "authority"?

From where does "authority" on a topic originate? Is the authority of Paul's gospel based on governmental empowerment? In other words, did God appoint Paul to an office, and by virtue of holding the office of Apostle Paul now has authority?

If authority comes from holding office – then did Peter have authority? Then when Peter began avoiding socializing with Gentiles and Paul confronted him publicly, who was more authoritative? Was Peter still an authority on that point? Why not? Was He still an Apostle? Yet, on this point he lost authority, why?

The four servants [Paul, Barnabas, Judas, Silas] of God were sent to Antioch with the epistle and message that was to put an end to all controversy; for it was the voice of the highest authority upon the earth. {AA 195.3}

Does authority come by force? Power? Previous decisions?

So, from where does ultimate authority arise? Would it not be the truth?

I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. Romans 1:16

What about this type of authority?

Notwithstanding the fact that Paul was personally taught by God, he had no strained ideas of individual responsibility. While looking to God for direct guidance, he was ever ready to recognize the authority vested in the body of believers united in church fellowship. He felt the need of counsel, and when matters of importance arose, he was glad to lay these before the church and to unite with his brethren in seeking God for wisdom to make right decisions. Even "the spirits of the prophets," he declared, "are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." 1 Corinthians 14:32, 33. With Peter, he taught that all united in church capacity should be "subject one to another." 1 Peter 5:5. {AA 200.2}

Do we have that mindset today? If Paul came to one of our churches would we recognize he was subject to the authority of the body of believers? Or would we reverse it and allow one individual to be the mind for the body? What about with the writings of EGW? Do we let her be the mind for the entire church?

Does that mean, then if the church meets and the board votes an action we should submit to it?

In the presence of the monarch and the leading men of Sweden, Olaf Petri with great ability defended the doctrines of the reformed faith against the Romish champions. He declared that the teachings of the Fathers are to be received only when in accordance with the Scriptures; that the essential doctrines of the faith are presented in the Bible in a clear and simple manner, so that all men may understand them. Christ said, "My doctrine is not Mine, but His that sent Me" (John 7:16); and Paul declared that should he preach any other gospel than that which he had received, he would be accursed (Galatians 1:8). "How, then," said the Reformer, "shall others presume to enact dogmas at their pleasure, and impose them as things necessary to salvation?"-- Wylie, b. 10, ch. 4. He showed that the decrees of the church are of no authority when in opposition to the commands of God, and maintained the great Protestant principle that "the Bible and the Bible only" is the rule of faith and practice. {GC 243.2}

Should we submit blindly to the teachings a true Apostle? A prophet? Or a church board? Or must each one of us think for ourselves, study for ourselves, and decide for ourselves?

Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.
Romans 14:5

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs "Students at a university..." thoughts?

Was this “Paul’s” plan, or was it God’s plan that Gentiles could join based on faith?

Why did the Judiazers come to think that circumcision was necessary?

Do we struggle with any of these things today?

I received a piece of literature recently handed to me after SS by someone. As I perused the literature its entire emphasis was on making the case that Jewish feast days and holidays were still binding and that we must observe these holidays in order to prepare for the second coming. Thoughts?

Is this any different than what Paul was dealing with in regard to circumcision? Why or why not?

Is there a difference in someone freely choosing to observe the Jewish feast days, because they want to experience the event, find some personal meaning, experience an enhanced closeness with God, and making the observances a requirement for salvation, or preparation for Christ’s return?

If we begin telling people that in order to be prepared to meet Jesus we must observe the feast days what have we done? Have we not erected a barrier, a work, an obstacle to our relationship with Christ? Further, we have moved backward away from the reality the system was designed to teach, which was transformation of character and preparation of heart/mind to meet Jesus to a ritualistic set of observances, which have already proven to devolve into legalism.

Jump to Thursday’s Lesson – read second paragraph, “Why did Paul...” thoughts?

Do we struggle with this today? Do we struggle with people who want to erect barriers to people coming to Christ? I received this email two weeks ago:

i have recently had a very trying and troubling time in my church. i was asked to serve on the nominating committee ... and heard some very disturbing things about our church family... a man's name was mentioned as someone we should find a place for him to serve in the church. this same man is asking for re-baptism but is being denied this because he smokes. now, it seems contradictory to me that the pastor won't baptize him because of his smoking but yet wants us to find him a place to serve in the church. i personally feel that he should be baptized and let the Lord deal with him on his health habits or lack there of. i don't recall that Jesus or John the baptist had any such requirements before they would baptize people.

next, there is another member who, according to one of the nominating committee members, flagrantly flaunts his "addiction" to caffeine by drinking pepsi at potlucks and therefore he should not be asked to be an elder in the church. i am not sure why people feel such a need to judge on these superficial things. it is just so disturbing to me as it often will keep the very souls who need Jesus the most out and make us a very unwelcoming people. Satan is doing such a good work distracting and dividing us, isn't he. where is Christ's love to be found? it is so painful to see people treat each other like this, it makes my heart hurt and my senses recoil. i am embarrassed to be connected to such a group of people even. i don't want to leave the church by any means but still cannot support this line of thinking and have told them as much. they may ask me to leave?? (LOL) thanks for you time and i continue to feel blessed by your teachings and your groups lesson studies.

Thoughts? Was requiring circumcision a barrier that obstructed people coming to Christ to which Paul fought against? Yet, circumcision was instituted by God. Is requiring people to give up their sins, habits, and defects of character before being baptized in harmony with the Bible? Or does it put in place obstacles that keep people away from Christ?

Who is the only one that can free us from our defects? Must we experience victory over sin in our lives before we are good enough to be baptized?

Why do we do it? Are we baptizing into Christ or into an institution? Christ doesn't require we change before we come to Him, but organizations have certain "standards" and in order to be a member of the organization then one has to achieve a certain level of performance before one can join.

Where did such thinking originate? Thankfully, not all pastors think this way. I know one, my former pastor, who would baptize people that still struggled with smoking, because he understood it was the power of God that could free them from their addiction.

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "When Paul wrote..." thoughts? Was Paul writing to believers in Collegedale in 2011? Is the message of Galatians written to you and me? How do we then understand and apply what we read in Scripture?

Is it important to understand the original audience? Is it important to understand their circumstances and struggles?

Who were the Galatians?

Galatia is the area of central and western Turkey and gets its name from the Gauls who colonized the area. The Gauls were Celtic people of the Gallic tribes which occupied most of Europe and were eventually defeated in Europe by Julius Caesar in 52 BC.

The people in the Galatians churches, in western Turkey were descendants of these Gallic tribes.

Many wars were fought in this region of Turkey. Alexander the Great conquered it, after his death it became part of the Seleucus portion, and later in 63 BC Pompeii defeated Antiochus to gain Roman dominance over this region.

It is unclear which churches Paul was addressing in this Epistle, there is speculation on northern or southern churches. But what were some of the churches in Galatia?

- Antioch
- Iconium
- Lystra
- Derbe

Antioch at one time was the third largest city in the world having a population of over 500,000 second only to Rome and Alexandria. By the time Paul was writing the population of Antioch had decreased to 200,000-300,000 – roughly the size of Chattanooga.

Antioch was chosen as the capital of the Seleucus empire by ritual – an eagle, which was the bird of Zeus – and Zeus was the Greek form of Baal, was given a piece of sacrificial meat and where the bird carried the meat was where Antioch was founded.

They worshipped a pantheon of Roman and Greek gods. Slavery was an accepted practice, women had few rights, Roman Imperialism was the governmental model. Jewish legalism was pervasive.

Earthquakes were common in this area and a major earthquake hit Antioch in 37 AD causing Emperor Caligula to send two senators to investigate the damage. Another major earthquake hit the area sometime during the reign of Claudius 41-54 AD.

Galatians was written between 55-60 AD.

Was Paul writing this book of the Bible to us? How do we understand it?

MONDAY

Apostle means messenger – the lesson points out in the strictest application it would be a messenger who was personally instructed by Christ.

Some attacked Paul's ministry by attacking his right to preach, his qualifications, credentials to give a message. Read last paragraph, "Yet, they did not..." thoughts?

Why do people attack the credentials or qualifications of another person? Why do people go behind the back of others to try and undermine their ministry? Is it not because they have no argument against the truth, and therefore must try and stop the messenger who is bringing the truth?

How did Satan work in heaven? Did he work openly or behind the scenes? Did he go directly to Christ and talk with Christ about his complaints? Did he undermine Christ's authority and position?

What would have been the healthiest response from the angels? Would it have been to call Christ into the conversation and have Christ and Lucifer discuss it openly?

What about today? If someone comes to you and suggests "so and so teaches this, or doesn't believe that, or has no authority from the church to teach this..." what is the best approach? Should we invite the parties to discuss it together?

What would happen today if someone stood up and claimed to have spent three years in the desert being instructed by Christ and has a message for the church?

Would such a person be taken seriously? How should we respond to such a person? Do you think Paul's recounting of his experience made it easier for people to accept what He said?

How should we respond if someone stands up today claiming the gift of prophecy?

- Examine the message, does it present the truth about God as revealed by Jesus?
- Is it in harmony with God's testable laws?
- Does it enlighten, ennoble, promote autonomy and freedom of individuals, or does the message darken minds, reduce thinking, undermine freedoms?

WEDNESDAY

No Other Gospel – today, is there more than one gospel that is being presented in the world? Within Christianity? Within Adventism?

What other gospels are being preached?

- Eastern Mysticism – become one with the universe through emptying oneself in meditation
- Mankind is slowly evolving to ever more advanced stages
- Mankind can save itself by legislation and a unified government
- The earth is our mother and we must care for the earth and thereby save ourselves
- God is angry at the nations and will punish those who don't accept the blood payment of His Son
- Israel has a special genetic advantage over the rest of humanity and God gives them a different path to salvation than the rest of humanity

What does Paul say about those who present another gospel?

Read last paragraph, "How were the Galatians..." thoughts?

Was Paul desiring that anyone who taught another gospel be cursed?

What is Paul saying?

Here is my paraphrase:

Gal 1:6 I am shocked and amazed that you are so quick to reject the truth about God and turn away from his gracious character and methods of love as revealed by Christ and instead are turning to a different message of “good news” – 7 which really isn’t good news at all, but a grand deception which will only destroy. Evidently there are some people who are twisting and perverting the good news about God that Christ has brought and thus throwing you into all kinds of confusion. 8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should come and present a message of “good news” different than what we have already presented – a message that, in effect, misrepresents God and changes the meaning of what Christ accomplished – then he will be eternally lost, because he will be presenting a message without truth and with no power to heal and restore. 9 As we have said once, so that no one will misunderstand I now say it again: If anyone, from anywhere, regardless of accompanying signs or miracles, presents a so called message of “good news” different than what you already accepted, he will be eternally lost, because he will be presenting a false message with no power to heal or restore!

What do you think? Is Paul saying what he wants to happen, that he wants people to be cursed, and that if they present a false gospel God uses His power to curse and condemn, or is he describing the reality what will happen if one abandons the truth for a lie?

What happens if one is dying of a terminal condition and trades the genuine remedy for a false remedy? Does the doctor have to curse you or punish the foolish patient? Will the foolish patient be lost if that happens? This is what Paul is describing!

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “One of the unique...” thoughts?

Read second paragraph, “Although...” thoughts? What is the gospel?

- How would you describe the “good news”?
- How can you know if the gospel you believe is the genuine remedy to sin or a false gospel with no power to heal and restore?

What does it mean that God sends the message of grace and peace? How is that message communicated in Christ? What is the good news that Christ has revealed?

What did Christ accomplish for us that we couldn’t accomplish for ourselves?

Read bottom pink section, “In about...” did anyone do this and want to share? Here is my paraphrase:

Galatians 1:1 Paul, an ambassador of the celestial government of God – not appointed or sent by men, but called by Jesus Christ and confirmed by God the Father, who raised Christ from the dead—2 and all the brothers with me,

To those who have partaken of God’s healing remedy in Galatia:

Gal 1:3 God our Father sends his graciousness and peace to you, as does the Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who voluntarily sacrificed himself to restore trust and heal us from the infection of fear and selfishness and thus deliver us out of this present self-indulgent, self-destructive evil age, according to the eternal purpose of our God and Father, 5 to whom be all honor and praise and glory for ever and ever. Amen

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read bottom pink section

Thoughts? Has God called you? What has He called you to? What is your purpose in His plan? How can you know?

Does God call each of us to a specific vocation? Or does God call each of us to His kingdom of love and regardless of vocation we are to reveal His character, to be salt in the earth, light in the darkness revealing the truth of God's kingdom of love and methods of truth, love and freedom!

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-4

Lesson 3 – The Unity of the Gospel

Sabbath

“Complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.” Phil. 2:2.

What does it mean to be in UNITY? Was this message just for the 1st century Christian church, or can we learn some principles for the 21st century church??

u·ni·ty [yoo-ni-tee]

noun, plural -ties.

1. the state of being one; oneness.
2. a whole or totality as combining all its parts into one.
3. the state or fact of being united or combined into one, as of the parts of a whole; unification.
4. absence of diversity; unvaried or uniform character.
5. oneness of mind, feeling, etc., as among a number of persons; concord, harmony, or agreement.

Which of these definitions best fits the Godhead?? Which best fits Adventism?? Which best fits our class??

Sunday

The Importance of Unity

1 Cor 1:10-13.

10 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought. 11 My brothers and sisters, some from Chloe’s household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. 12 What I mean is this: One of you says, “I follow Paul”; another, “I follow Apollos”; another, “I follow Cephas”; still another, “I follow Christ.” 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul?

Paul is being branded as a “renegade” according to the lesson. He seems to just be making trouble for the church establishment. He later accuses one of Christ’s disciples [a prominent church leader] of hypocrisy. Any of this sounding familiar yet??

The pink section at the bottom of Sunday’s lesson asks: “What are some issues that threaten the unity of the church today? What issues are more important than unity itself??”

Doesn’t it matter what we are unified about?? This is from a Christian author:

There are a thousand temptations in disguise prepared for those who have the light of truth; and the only safety for any of us is in receiving no new doctrine, no new interpretation of the Scriptures, without first submitting it to brethren of experience. Lay it before them in a humble, teachable spirit, with earnest prayer; and if they see no light in it, yield to their judgment; for “in the multitude of counselors there is safety.” {5T 293.1}

Monday

Circumcision and the False Brothers

Galatians 2.

1 Then after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem, this time with Barnabas. I took Titus along also. 2 I went in response to a revelation and, meeting privately with those esteemed as leaders, I presented to them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. I wanted to be sure I was not running and had not been running my race in vain. 3 Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek. 4 This matter arose because some false believers had infiltrated our ranks to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves. 5 We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you. 6 As for those who were held in high esteem—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism—they added nothing to my message. 7 On the contrary, they recognized that I had been entrusted with the task of preaching the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised. 8 For God, who was at work in Peter as an apostle to the circumcised, was also at work in me as an apostle to the Gentiles. 9 James, Cephas and John, those esteemed as pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. 10 All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.

Paul Opposes Cephas

11 When Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group. 13 The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray. 14 When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all, “You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs? 15 “We who are Jews by birth and not sinful Gentiles 16 know that a person is not justified by the works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no one will be justified. 17 “But if, in seeking to be justified in Christ, we Jews find ourselves also among the sinners, doesn’t that mean that Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not! 18 If I rebuild what I destroyed, then I really would be a lawbreaker. 19 “For through the law I died to the law so that I might live for God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 21 I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!”

What’s the big deal about circumcision anyway?? We touched on this 2 weeks ago with this quote:

If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God’s law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. {PP 364.2}

Tuesday Unity in Diversity.

Is this contradictory?

What does it mean to be “free” in Jesus Christ?? Are we “free” to do what we please?? Are we “free” to live our lives without fear?? Are we “free” to violate the “Laws of God” [health/worship/love/liberty/natural laws/giving/etc]?? Are we free to violate God’s Law at the risk of His character of Love and forgiveness changing toward us?? Are we free to violate God’s Law without consequence?? Have you ever really pondered what this freedom means??

Is the drug addict free?? Is the drunk free?? Is the obese diabetic free?? Is the jealous spouse free?? Is the person with a distorted God concept free??

Paul understood the concept that God’s Law was NOT something legislated after sin entered the world, but it emanates from his character; it has natural consequences for violations; and the Earth and mankind were created in harmony with the Law of God and functioned that way until Adam and Eve believed the lie that they would “not surely die.” While Paul didn’t understand anywhere near what we understand of the natural laws and the laws of health, he understood enough to write in Romans 1: 18-20: “18 The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness, 19 since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. 20 For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.”

Is our, present day, SDA church unified in diversity?? In diversity of culture maybe. In diversity of gender, probably. In diversity of thought, light, and wisdom, doubtfully.

Wednesday Confrontation at Antioch

This is a familiar story where Paul confronts Peter for his hypocrisy in eating with the Gentiles, except when some prominent Jews came to visit. [Thursday’s lesson shows us this was NOT the real problem.] Could/should Paul have handled the confrontation with Peter better?? Paul himself uses some pejorative language in Gal 2:15 [15 “We who are Jews by birth and not sinful Gentiles...”].

What can we learn from Peter’s behavior after he was confronted?? Have we experienced any confrontation in our family lives lately?? In our SS class?? At work?? Have we handled things like Peter did??

Thursday

Paul's Concern

Gal. 2:11-14

11 When Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group. 13 The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray. 14 When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all, "You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?"

How does Peter's behavior compromise the Gospel of Jesus?? The lesson, rightly, states, "From Paul's perspective, Peter's behavior implied that the Gentile Christians were second-rate believers at best, and he believed that Peter's actions would place strong pressure upon the Gentiles to conform if they wanted to experience full fellowship."

Have we treated any group or individual as "second-rate Christians"? Smokers?? Anyone of a different language or skin color?? Carnivores?? Sunday worshipers??

Friday

In the pink box, #1: "Very few people enjoy confrontation, but sometimes it is necessary. In what circumstances should a church condemn error and discipline those who refuse to accept correction?" Any thoughts on this one??

Justification by Faith Alone -- Lesson 4 of The Gospel in Galatians

Sabbath Afternoon:

Memory Text: "I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Galatians 2:20, ESV).

This week we will be looking at what it is that happens to bring broken, selfish, fearful people to the place where they can be described by the memory text for this week. What has to happen to lead an individual to "die" -- to have Christ be the one "who lives in" them -- to "live by faith in the Son of God"?

2nd paragraph : "What did Paul actually . . ."

Key words that are foundational to understanding the gospel and the rest of Paul's letter to the Galatians: justification, righteousness, works of the law, belief, faith -- faith of Jesus.

"What does Paul mean by these terms, and what do they teach us about the plan of salvation?"

Let's take a look at Friday's lesson to understand the importance of our journey today.

"The danger has been presented to me again and again of entertaining, as a people, false ideas of justification by faith. I have been shown for years that Satan would work in a special manner to confuse the mind on this point. The law of God has been largely dwelt upon and has been presented to congregations, almost as destitute of the knowledge of Jesus Christ and His relation to the law as was the offering of Cain. I have been shown that many have been kept from the faith because of the mixed, confused ideas of salvation, because the ministers have worked in a wrong manner to reach hearts. The point that has been urged upon my mind for years is the imputed righteousness of Christ. . . ."

"There is not a point that needs to be dwelt upon more earnestly, repeated more frequently, or established more firmly in the minds of all than the impossibility of fallen man meriting anything by his own best good works. Salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone."—Ellen G. White, Faith and Works, pp. 18, 19.

We will be studying what it means to be justified by faith or to be righteous by faith -- righteousness by faith. As we study be reflecting on why it is that Satan would "work in a special manner to confuse the mind on this point"?

Sunday: The Question of "Justification" (Gal. 2:15-16)

When you think of the word justification what do you think of?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. Gal.2:15, 16 NKJV

The Jews felt that circumcision was necessary to be part of God's family--to be acceptable to God. Would circumcision be one of the "works of the law"? What do we mean when we speak of "works of the law"?

What went wrong in God's universe that resulted in things being so out of place here on our earth -- so out of place in you and in me? There was war in heaven (Rev. 12:7). What was this war about? When the war took place in heaven the dragon--the serpent of old--the one called the Devil and Satan is said to have been cast out of heaven. He was cast to the earth--he is described as one "who deceives the whole world." Is this deception about God? Are the questions similar to the ones raised with Adam and Eve in the Garden? Is God a liar? Is He withholding things from us that would lead to our advancement, growth, elevation? Is He selfish?

This war seems to be over the character and government of God. We are born in the middle of the conflict in a world darkened by Satan's lies about God -- a world filled with misapprehension about God. What would God do to solve this problem?

Christ came to represent the Father. We behold in him the image of the invisible God. He clothed his divinity with humanity, and came to the world that the erroneous ideas Satan had been the means of creating in the minds of men, in regard to the character of God, might be removed. We could not behold the glory of God unveiled in Christ and live; but as he came in the garb of humanity, we may draw nigh to our Redeemer. We are called upon to behold the Lord our Father in the person of his Son. Christ came in the robe of the flesh, with his glory subdued in humanity, that lost man might communicate with him and live. Through Christ we may comprehend something of him who is glorious in holiness. Jesus is the mystic ladder by which we may mount to behold the glory of the infinite God. By faith we behold Christ standing between humanity and divinity, connecting God and man, and earth and heaven. {ST January 20, 1890, par. 5}

Christ came to save fallen man, and Satan with fiercest wrath met him on the field of conflict; for the enemy knew that when divine strength was added to human weakness, man was armed with power and intelligence, and could break away from the captivity in which he had bound him. Satan sought to intercept every ray of light from the throne of God. He sought to cast his shadow across the earth, that men might lose the true views of God's character, and that the knowledge of God might become extinct in the earth. He had caused truth of vital importance to be so mingled with error that it had lost its significance. The law of Jehovah was burdened with needless exactions and traditions, and God was represented as severe, exacting, revengeful, and arbitrary. He was pictured as one who could take pleasure in the sufferings of his creatures. The very attributes that belonged to the character of Satan, the evil one represented as belonging to the character of God. Jesus came to teach men of the Father, to correctly represent him before the fallen children of earth. Angels could not fully portray the character of God, but Christ, who was a living impersonation of God, could not fail to accomplish the work. The only way in which he could set and keep men right was to make himself visible and familiar to their eyes. That men might have salvation he came directly to man, and became a partaker of his nature. {ST January 20, 1890, par. 6} God Made Manifest in Christ

Read the paragraph beginning, "The verb to justify . . . "
Does this legal system describe God's government? If so, how would this fix what has gone wrong in God's universe? Would we be safe in a universe filled with people ""declared innocent", "counted as righteous"? Are we or are we not "faithful members" of God's community / family?

Monday: Works of the Law

Do we perform certain acts or behaviors to get the Holy Spirit, to see miracles, to be in God's favor?

Read:

Gal. 3:1-12

1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified? 2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh? 4 Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain? 5 Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?— 6 just as Abraham “believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” 7 Therefore know that only those who are of faith are sons of Abraham. 8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, “In you all the nations shall be blessed.” 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.”

11 But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for “the just shall live by faith. 12 Yet the law is not of faith, but “the man who does them shall live by them.”

Rom. 3:9-31

9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin.

10 As it is written:

“ There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none who understands;

There is none who seeks after God.

12 They have all turned aside;

They have together become unprofitable;

There is none who does good, no, not one.”

13 “ Their throat is an open tomb;

With their tongues they have practiced deceit”;

“ The poison of asps is under their lips”;

14 “ Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”

15 “ Their feet are swift to shed blood;

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17 And the way of peace they have not known.”

18 “ There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. 20 Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, 22 even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all who believe. For there is no difference; 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed, 26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. 28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law. 29 Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, 30 since there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

Rom. 3:9-20 We are sick -- the law makes us conscious of our sin -- shows us our sickness.

vs. 21 -- Apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known . . .

vs. 22 -- This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe.

What is God looking for? Does He want certain acts of behaviors?

Deut. 10:12 "And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, 13 and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today for your good?"

Micah 6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good; And what does the LORD require of you But to do justly, To love mercy, And to walk humbly with your God?

How does God get these things from broken / sick people? Can He command it -- LAW? Can He send us tablets of stone with the rules or conditions listed and solve the problem? Can He force it? How does God get LOVE, DEVOTION, RELATIONSHIP from children who are fearful and selfish?

Tuesday: The Basis of Our Justification

"And be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith" (Phil. 3:9, NKJV).

Read 1st paragraph. "We should not . . ."

Were the Jewish Christians "believers in Jesus"? Did they "all have faith in Him?" What was the real problem with these Jewish Christians? What kind of god did they serve -- what was their god looking for? Love, faithfulness, a mind restored to truth, a healed relationship between them and their God? Or did their god require them to have long lists of behaviors and to be preoccupied with being sure that everything on that list was checked off? If this is the case did they serve an arbitrary, exacting God?

Maybe this is the god they believed in -- but is it the God revealed in the life and death of Jesus?

2nd paragraph "For Paul . . ." What work did Christ accomplish in our behalf? What work did He do through His faithfulness -- the "faithfulness of Jesus"? Was it something accomplished in a legal system -- bookwork, declarations? Or did the faithfulness of Jesus reveal to us the truth about God -- truth that actually brings healing and restoration to our broken relationship with Him -- to our broken condition of selfishness and fear? Does the faithfulness of Jesus SET US RIGHT -- justify us?

What is the relationship of faith to our justification? How would you explain to someone the part faith has to play?

Works of the law verses faithfulness of Jesus? Reflect on the controversy over the character and government of God. Will any effort on our part to keep a list of rules repair our broken relationship with God? Could the faithfulness of Jesus -- the revelation of Jesus -- God made manifest -- repair our broken relationship? Could God come to us and make Himself known clear up any misunderstandings we have -- reveal that Satan's representation of God is actually a LIE? Could God's love towards us actually beget love in us?

Question in the pink : How is "Christ's faithfulness for us, His perfect obedience to God" the only basis of our salvation? How does that work?

Wednesday: The Obedience of Faith

What is faith? What does it involve?

Read Gen. 15:5,6, John 3:14-16, 2 Cor. 5:14,15, Gal. 5:6

Jesus was lifted up that all who believe in him can have life! The love of Christ compels us! Faith works through love!

Why did Abraham believe God?

Jn. 3:14-16 shows us some concrete reasons to have faith / believe in God.

faith / belief are the same Greek word -- pisteus

Rom. 1:16,17 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "The just shall live by faith."

The gospel -- the good news revealed by Christ, is the power of God to salvation -- because the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith -- "The just shall live by faith."

James 2:19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble!

What do the demons believe about God -- why are they trembling? Is it important to know who God is --evidence -- so that faith / belief / trust / confidence can be safely placed in our God? If we don't KNOW the true God could we end up believing like the demons do -- could we too tremble? Would that kind of belief rescue our minds from darkness, heal our characters of fear and selfishness?

Read paragraph "A careful examination . . . "

"Distorted ideas about the character of God actually can make it more difficult to have faith."

Is this true? Any words you would choose to replace in this sentence? Would it be more accurate to say that distorted ideas about the character of God make it impossible to have faith -- to trust God?

Will a restored relationship with God, a mind rescued from the lies about God affect our behavior? Will our faith / trust / belief in God lead us to love Him, to be willing to listen to His counsel, to be will to live our lives for the one who lives for us? Reflect on any love relationship you have experienced on this earth -- did that love affect the way you moved about?

Read James 2:14-24

14 What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, 16 and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? 17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! 20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? 22 Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called the friend of God. 24 You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

Faith / belief / trust / confidence in the true God, as revealed in Christ will lead to a life spurred on by LOVE -- a desire to follow, listen, cooperate, walk along side of! As we respond to the love of God by our "works" of love our trust in God will be made perfect -- it will grow as we walk together!

Thursday: Does Faith Promote Sin?

Does knowing that the truth about God alone can save your mind lead you to live a lawless life? When you understand the goodness of God and how free you are and that He is not arbitrary, exacting, severe, and vengeful -- does that lead you to be careless about how you live your life? Many believe that the trust / healing model leads those who believe it to be careless about how they live -- is this what you have experienced in you own life?

Why be concerned with how we live?

Does careless / lazy behavior affect our human relationships? Would it affect our relationship with God? Are we free to be careless / lazy / thoughtless / and selfish? Indeed we are that free -- we can walk away without fear that God will "punish" us or do something to hurt us or cause us to suffer. If we choose to be careless in our relationship with God, is it God's fault or are we making ourselves lawless (loveless)?

Gal. 2:17-18 "But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! 18 For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

Paul's description of his union with Christ :

Gal. 2:19-21 For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. 21 I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

Carla's paraphrase : A day came when I realized through the law just how sick I was. That realization caused me to give up the idea that there was anything that I could do to fix what was wrong with me. When that realization came to me I turned my mind to God. Seeing the life and the death of Christ has led me to understand the goodness and love and wisdom of my God. Everything is now changed -- its a new life! The old me is gone -- now I have an entire new mindset towards my God! Now the life I live day by day I live because of the trust / confidence / faith I have in God, as revealed by His Son -- the one who loved me and gave Himself for me! I'll never again live a life centered in keeping a list of rules and regulations. If my mind could be set right through rules and regulations there would be no need for Christ to have died -- in fact He wouldn't have even needed to live! None of that law - centered life for me. I love because I was first loved! :)

Read question in the pink box.

A list of rules can never set my mind right -- only God made manifest can enlighten my darkened mind and rescue me from fear / selfishness. When I see Him I trust Him because of His trustworthiness -- revealed though an abundance of evidence. I therefore rejoice -- I'm new -- my mind is rescued and the healing begins!

Friday:

Why is it dangerous to entertain false ideas of justification by faith? Why would Satan want to confuse the mind on this point?

Under the summary it says that "it is only by accepting what God has done for us in Christ that the sinner can be justified in His sight."

What are we accepting that leads us to be justified in His sight?

Good Works the Fruit of Faith

Genuine faith will be manifested in good works; for good works are the fruits of faith. As God works in the heart, and man surrenders his will to God, and cooperates with God, he works out in the life what God works in by the Holy Spirit, and there is harmony between the purpose of the heart and the practice of the life. Every sin must be renounced as the hateful thing that crucified the Lord of life and glory, and the believer must have a progressive experience by continually doing the works of Christ. It is by continual surrender of the will, by continual obedience, that the blessing of justification is retained. {1SM 397.1}

Those who are justified by faith must have a heart to keep the way of the Lord. It is an evidence that a man is not justified by faith when his works do not correspond to his profession. James says, "Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was his faith made perfect?" (James 2:22). {1SM 397.2}

The faith that does not produce good works does not justify the soul. "Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only" (James 2:24). "Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness" (Romans 4:3). {1SM 397.3}

Imputation of the righteousness of Christ comes through justifying faith, and is the justification for which Paul so earnestly contends. He says: "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God: being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God.... Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law" (Romans 3:20-31). {1SM 397.4}

Grace is unmerited favor, and the believer is justified without any merit of his own, without any claim to offer to God. He is justified through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, who stands in the courts of heaven as the sinner's substitute and surety. But while he is justified because of the merit of Christ, he is not free to work unrighteousness. Faith works by love and purifies the soul. Faith buds and blossoms and bears a harvest of precious fruit. Where faith is, good works appear. The sick are visited, the poor are cared for, the fatherless and the widows are not neglected, the naked are clothed, the destitute are fed. Christ went about doing good, and when men are united with Him, they love the children of God, and meekness and truth guide their footsteps. The expression of the countenance reveals their experience, and men take knowledge of them that they have been with Jesus and learned of Him. Christ and the believer become one, and His beauty of character is revealed in those who are vitally connected with the Source of power and love. Christ is the great depository of justifying righteousness and sanctifying grace. {1SM 398.1}

All may come to Him, and receive of His fullness. He says, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). Then why not cast aside all unbelief and heed the words of Jesus? You want rest; you long for peace. Then say from the heart, "Lord Jesus, I come, because Thou hast given me this invitation." Believe in Him with steadfast faith, and He will save you. Have you been looking unto Jesus, who is the author and finisher of your faith? Have you been beholding Him who is full of truth and grace? Have you accepted the peace which Christ alone can give? If you have not, then yield to Him, and through His grace seek for a character that will be noble and elevated. Seek for a constant, resolute, cheerful spirit. Feed on Christ, who is the bread of life, and you will manifest His loveliness of character and spirit. {1SM 398.2}

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 5 4Q 2011

Old Testament Faith

SABBATH

Memory verse – Galatians 3:13, read – thoughts?

What does this mean to you? What does it mean to be cursed of God? How did Christ become a curse for us?

Read paragraphs 1-3, “A little boy...” thoughts?

What are the strengths of this story?

- God did build us
- The human race was stolen by deception
- God did redeem us at great cost to Himself

What are the weaknesses of the story?

- The plan of salvation was not a simple bartering with the devil
- The plan of salvation was not a purchase or payment to a holder of some legal debt
- The story could cause misunderstanding as to what was necessary to redeem
- What was the purchase price? Why?
 - What holds us in bondage? The lies of Satan that we believe and our carnal nature – so what is the price to free us?

SUNDAY

Read top dark section, thoughts?

What do you understand legalism to be?

Here is a traditional definition of legalism:

Legalism refers to any doctrine which states salvation comes strictly from adherence to the law. It can be thought of as a works-based religion. Groups in the New Testament said to be falling into this category include the Pharisees, Sadducees, Scribes, Judaizers, and Nicolaitans. (Wikipedia)

Thoughts?

What about the idea of God having to fulfill legal requirements in order for God to have the legal right to save us? Would that be legalism?

What about God having to pay legal penalties in order to appease the law in order to save us? Would that be legalism?

Isn't legalism anything which makes the plan of salvation a legal issue?

One form of legalism has us trying to achieve legal outcomes and the other form has God trying to achieve legal outcomes, but both are legalistic.

Read first paragraph, "Several modern..." thoughts?

Who has bewitched? The devil of course, so how has the devil tried to obstruct God from saving mankind and bringing an end to sin? What specific actions has he taken, or methods has he employed?

1. Tried to prevent Christ from coming to earth by getting every human being to close their heart to God – why would this have obstructed the plan of salvation?
 - a. Because God would not force a person against their will to be the vessel for Christ's incarnation – thus Christ could not have become human and the earth would have been lost.
2. Tried to destroy Christ as an infant?

- a. Why would this have obstructed the plan?
 - b. Christ would have been born a human. He would have been sinless. Herod would have had shed His innocent blood, and if the problem was merely the legal need to have a blood payment, why didn't God permit it? Why would the death of Christ as an infant obstructed the plan of salvation?
 - i. Because the problem was not a legal one and the shedding of blood to pay a legal penalty would have done nothing to fix the actual problem of sin – specifically:
 - ii. No evidence of God's character revealed
 - iii. No evidence of Satan's character exposed as a murderer and fraud
 - iv. No evidence that keeping the "law" behaviorally results in becoming God's enemy
 - v. The real reason sin results in death not revealed
 - vi. God's law of love not restored into a human being by the freewill choice of that human brain
 - vii. A perfect human character not developed
 - viii. The infection of selfishness not eradicated in the human brain by the free exercise of the human will to love perfectly
3. Tried to get Christ to choose to act selfishly. Why would this have obstructed the plan of salvation?
- a. Christ would have misrepresented God as selfish and sustained Satan's allegations against God.
 - b. It would have resulted in a failure to procure the remedy to sin, a revelation of truth to destroy lies and a developing of a perfect human character.
4. Tried to destroy the early church through persecution
- a. Why would this have obstructed the plan of salvation – it would not have prevented the end of sin and sinners since Christ had achieved His victory, but it would have prevented the spread of the remedy and thus reduce the number of sinners eventually saved.

5. Tried to turn the mind away from the Cross to have the Cross forgotten.
 - a. Lost the knowledge of God deforms the character, hardens the heart, and destroys the faculties that respond to truth and love.
6. Tried to twist the meaning of what Christ achieved at the Cross replacing in with a false understanding.
 - a. The creation of legal reason by changing the nature of God's law from natural to imposed, and the purpose of the Cross was not to reveal truth and achieve remedy, but to pay legal penalty to the imperial authority of the universe.

Thoughts? Do any of these infect Christianity today?

Read second paragraph, "What baffles..." thoughts? Do Christians today know salvation is rooted in the Cross? Does that mean all Christians who know this will be saved? Why not?

MONDAY

In Paul's day when he refers to the Scripture, to what is he referring?

Do Christians today value the Old Testament as Paul did? What impact has it had on our theology to forget the Old Testament?

How has the Old Testament been demeaned? Two dispensations, the dispensation of law and the dispensation of grace idea, rather than seeing the Old Testament is the dispensation of grace as well. This is what Paul is teaching when he teaches Abraham was saved by grace, not by law.

Read bottom pink section, "Do you at..." thoughts?

What portion of scripture is inspired? What does it mean? Does it mean all portions of scripture tell the truth?

- When the devil said, “you will not surely die” in Eden, was he telling the truth.
- When Job’s friends said he must have done something awful for God to punish him the way He was, were they telling the truth?
- When the Pharisees said Jesus had a devil were they telling the truth?

The Scriptures are inspired, but we must be careful to understand who is speaking as the Scriptures give us a history of the controversy between Christ and Satan and as such have portions which document the enemies allegations and actions.

TUESDAY

Top question, “Why do...” thoughts? Could it be because the people confusing everyone were Judiazers and they were introducing Jewish traditions, circumcision which started with Abraham? And, because they misunderstood the entire purpose of what was going on it was important to go to the origin and show its true meaning.

What was the position of the Jews Paul was opposing? And how is that different from modern Christianity?

- The Jews took the position – Abraham obeyed and therefore God recognized him as righteous.
- Modern Christianity’s position – Abraham believed and therefore God credited him righteousness, even though he wasn’t.
- Paul’s position, Abraham trusted God with all his heart and therefore God recognized Abraham’s heart had changed from one of distrust, unright with God, to trust or right with God. Abraham was righteous.

Thoughts?

Read third paragraph, “Whereas....” Thoughts?

Does the bank, credit to your account with funds that are not in your account? So, if we use the “credit” idea, then we still must differentiate between fiction and fact.

Are funds credited on paper, but don’t actually exist in the bank? Or, when the bank credits the funds to your account has their been an actual transfer of funds into the account?

Does God credit us righteousness on books in heaven, when no righteousness exists in the heart? Or do the record books of heaven get the notation of righteousness when such righteousness is experienced in your heart?

The Greek imputed is:

3049 λογίζομαι [logizomai /log·id·zom·ahee/] v. Middle voice from 3056; TDNT 4:284; TDNTA 536; GK 3357; 41 occurrences; AV translates as “think” nine times, “impute” eight times, “reckon” six times, “count” five times, “account” four times, “suppose” twice, “reason” once, “number” once, and translated miscellaneous five times. 1 to reckon, count, compute, calculate, count over. 1a to take into account, to make an account of. 1a1 metaph. to pass to one’s account, to impute. 1a2 a thing is reckoned as or to be something, i.e. as availing for or equivalent to something, as having the like force and weight. 1b to number among, reckon with. 1c to reckon or account. 2 to reckon inward, count up or weigh the reasons, to deliberate. 3 by reckoning up all the reasons, to gather or infer. 3a to consider, take into account, weigh, meditate on. 3b to suppose, deem, judge. 3c to determine, purpose, decide. Additional Information: This word deals with reality. If I “logizomai” or reckon that my bank book has $25 in it, it has $25 in it. Otherwise I am deceiving myself. This word refers to facts not suppositions.

- Abundant grace has been provided that the believing soul may be kept free from sin; for all heaven, with its limitless resources, has been placed at our command. We are to draw from the well of salvation. . . . In ourselves we are sinners; but in Christ we are righteous. Having made us righteous through the imputed righteousness of Christ, God pronounces us just, and treats us as just. He looks upon us as His dear children. Christ works against the power of sin, and where sin abounded, grace much more abounds. -- God's Amazing Grace, pg. 181.4
- But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18). Beholding Christ means studying His life as given in His Word. We are to dig for truth as for hidden treasure. We are to fix our eyes upon Christ. When we take Him as our personal Saviour, this gives us boldness to approach the throne of grace. By beholding we become changed, morally assimilated to the One who is perfect in character. By receiving His imputed righteousness, through the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, we become like Him. The image of Christ is cherished, and it captivates the whole being. -- God's Amazing Grace, pg. 96.4
- We aim too low. The mark is much higher. Our minds need expansion, that we may comprehend the significance of the provision of God. We are to reflect the highest attributes of the character of God. . . . The law of God is the exalted standard to which we are to attain through the imputed righteousness of Christ. - - Our High Calling, pg. 364.2
- He would have us comprehend something of His love in giving His Son to die that He might counteract evil, remove the defiling stains of sin from the workmanship of God, and reinstate the lost, elevating and ennobling the soul to its original purity through Christ's imputed righteousness. -- That I May Know Him, pg. 206

When your heart has been changed from distrust of God, to genuine trust, such that you willingly follow where He leads, you are righteous! Such a heart is not achieved by works, but by trust, or faith, and it is received through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit who reproduces Christlikeness within!

Thoughts?

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "And the Scripture..." thoughts?

Thoughts?

Would Abraham have had the gospel preached to him at Mt. Moriah? Wouldn't that experience have been the experience in which Abraham was able to comprehend what the good news of God and the plan of salvation are truly about?

Read second paragraph, "The basis..." thoughts?

The lesson states, "We usually promise we will serve Him, if only He will do something for us in return. But that is legalism."

What if we changed the sentence to say this, "We usually say Jesus promised to serve Him, if only He will do something for us in return. But that is legalism."

Is this any less legalism than the first? Isn't this what Christianity often teaches? What does the Bible teach?

- God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself
2Cor 5:19 ASV
- For God so loved the world He gave His only son..." John 3:16
- If God is for us who can be against us...Romans 8:31
- As the Saviour is lifted up before the people, they will see his humiliation, his self-denial, his self-sacrifice, his goodness, his tender compassion, his sufferings to save fallen man, and will realize that the atonement of Christ was not the cause of God's love, but the result of that love. Jesus died because God loved the world. The channel had to be made whereby the love of God should be recognized by man, and flow into the sinner's heart in perfect harmony with truth and justice. {RH, September 2, 1890 par. 7}
- The atonement of Christ is not a mere skillful way to have our sins pardoned; it is a divine remedy for the cure of transgression and the restoration of spiritual health. It is the heaven-ordained means by which the righteousness of Christ may be not only upon us, but in our hearts and characters.--Letter 406, 1906. {7BC 464.2}

What is the basis of the covenant to Abraham? It is salvation by grace through faith – it is the same covenant as given to Adam after the fall, the same covenant as confirmed by Jesus' life, death and resurrection. It is the covenant written in Jeremiah and Hebrews, of writing the law of the heart and mind. It is the promise of God that through Christ He would provide remedy to our terminal condition and would apply that remedy to the hearts and minds of all who allow Him.

THURSDAY

Read Galatians 3:10-14:

All who rely on observing the law are under a curse, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.” ¹¹ Clearly no one is justified before God by the law, because, “The righteous will live by faith.” ¹² The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, “The man who does these things will live by them.” ¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.” ¹⁴ He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit. (NIV)

Thoughts?

Read second paragraph, “Paul is contrasting...” thoughts?

How would you describe what Paul is saying? Is Paul describing a legal process of salvation or is Paul attacking the fallacy of a legal process of salvation?

Gal 3:10 All who try to get well and experience unity with God by observing certain rituals or following a written script or obeying a set of rules are abandoned to their own fate, for it is written: “Abandoned to your own choice is everyone who fails in the slightest to do everything written in the Book of the Law.” ¹¹ Clearly no one is healed and set right with God by working to follow a set of rules, because “Those set right with God live by trust.” ¹² The written law, as applied by the Jews, is not based on trust; on the contrary it is based on individual performance, on attempts to heal oneself, as it is written: “The man who works to save himself will live in fear and only get worse.” ¹³ Christ saved us from where the law leaves us – diagnosed as terminal and abandoned to die, by being abandoned on the cross in order to restore us to trust and purge humanity from the infection of selfishness and death, for it is written: “Abandoned to die is everyone who is hung on a tree.” ¹⁴ He saved us from a futile self-focused works system so that the blessings of love, life and freedom given to Abraham and achieved through trust might come to the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, so that by trust we might receive the full enlightenment, renewal and regeneration of heart and mind that comes by the Spirit.

Thoughts? What do you think about my use of “Abandoned” for “cursed”? What is God’s curse?

What actually happened to Christ on the Cross? What did God actually do to Him?

“Because of our sins he was given over to die...” (Romans 4:25 – GN)

“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Matt 27:46

Wouldn’t this be the “curse” God letting go?

When a patient is dying of a terminal condition does the doctor have to kill the non-compliant patient?

God doesn’t have to inflict death or is death what happens if we refuse God’s remedy!

Read last paragraph, “Paul introduces..” thoughts? What does this mean?

Who did Christ buy us back from? Who was the price paid to?

Does the language of “a death sentence” help or confuse? Could we say, a person with terminal cancer, who refuses the remedy is under a death sentence? Yes, but who imposed the death sentence? Is it the same as a prisoner on death row?

When we hear descriptions of sinners under a “death sentence” do we hear it as God imposing a judicial punishment, or do we hear it as a terminal condition? Which is more accurate to the problem of sin?

So what is it we are redeemed from? What is the price paid? To whom is it paid? What does a ransom do? It frees, what holds us in bondage? The lies of Satan that we believe and our terminal condition, our carnal nature. What is the price necessary to free us from this bondage? The truth about God which destroys the lies and wins us to trust PLUS a new character, a new humanity, received freely as a gift, achieved solely by Jesus Christ.

The Lord Jesus loves His people, and when they put their trust in Him, depending wholly upon Him, He strengthens them. He will live through them, giving them the inspiration of His sanctifying Spirit, imparting to the soul a vital transfusion of Himself. He acts through their faculties and causes them to choose His will and to act out His character. With the apostle Paul they then may say, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me" (Galatians 2:20).
 . . . {TMK 78.4}

We actually become "partakers of the divine nature."

Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read first two paragraphs, "Upon Christ..." thoughts? What was placed upon Christ? What did He take upon Himself? It was our terminal condition!

What does it mean the guilt of every descendent of Adam was pressing upon His heart? Does that mean he felt the guilt of each individual sin, or that He was aware of our experience of guilt?

What is the significance that the psychological pain obscured the physical pain? What implications are there for our consideration of the wicked in the end?

Was his fear that He would be separated from the Father forever, the same as being separated from the Father forever?

Will the wicked be separated forever? Why was Christ not separated forever? If the legal penalty is eternal separation from the Father, has that penalty been paid merely because Christ felt like that might happen?

Amid the awful darkness, apparently forsaken of God, Christ had drained the last dregs in the cup of human woe. In those dreadful hours He had relied upon the evidence of His Father's acceptance heretofore given Him. He was acquainted with the character of His Father; He understood His justice, His mercy, and His great love. By faith He rested in Him whom it had ever been His joy to obey. And as in submission He committed Himself to God, the sense of the loss of His Father's favor was withdrawn. By faith, Christ was victor. {DA 756.3}

Is this the experience of the wicked in the end? The legal, penal substitution model is flawed, seriously. It gives a false hope because it removes the problem from our condition, to our legal account in heaven, and moves the solution from transforming us to adjusting records in heaven.

Christ redeemed humanity when He recreated humanity in His own person. In Jesus humanity was freed from the infection of sin/selfishness and rebuilt into God's original ideal!

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 6 4Q 2011

The Priority of the Promise

What do you think of God's Promises?

What promises of God can you name?

- A Savior to crush Satan – Genesis 3:15
- Never to destroy the entire world with a flood again Genesis 9:11
- To be faithful
 - Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands. DT 7:9
 - He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he. DT 32:4
 -
- To never change Heb 13:8
- To save all who trust Him John 3:16
- To come again and put an end to sin John 14:1-3

Are God's promises ever misused? How?

SABBATH

Read memory verse – Galatians 3:18

Thoughts? What should this tell those who insist on having a legal model for salvation? Our inheritance is through Christ, not through the law.

I included a link to an article "Did Jesus die for our sins?" The article documents that the penal substitution model, the legal model, was not part of Christianity until the 12th century. Interestingly, not written by an SDA.

http://www.huffingtonpost.com/christian-piatt/did-jesus-realy-die-for-the-sins-of-humanity_b_1007345.html

Here are some quotations from early church Fathers Justin and Ireneus, from the first and second century after Christ, documenting they taught the Healing Substitution Model, calling it "recapitulation" that Christ came to fix humanity from the damage sin caused by Adam's fall.

“According to the Apology and Dialogue of Justin, Christ accomplishes the conversion and restoration of humanity to its destination by His teaching as to the worship of the true God and a virtuous life in faith in the eternal reward of immortality, which He will bestow at His second coming.”¹

Nevertheless we find also in Justin ideas that resemble the doctrine of Ignatius as to a Divine economy in the Incarnation whose purpose is to overthrow of death and Satan.

Justin Taught Christ came to do three things – overthrow death, destroy Satan and restore humanity back to God’s design providing eternal life.

“(Christ) having been made flesh submitted to be born of the Virgin, in order that through this dispensation the Serpent, who at the first had done evil, and the angels assimilated to him might be put down and death might be despised.”² In fact we find in Justin clear indications of the presence to his mind of the recapitulation theory, afterwards more fully developed by Irenaeus, according to which Christ becomes a new head of humanity, undoes the sin of Adam by reversing the acts and circumstances of his disobedience, and finally communicates to men immortal life. Compare the sentence quoted by Irenaeus from Justin’s treatise against Marcion, “The only-begotten Son came to us, recapitulating His creation into Himself.”³ Compare also the following passage: --

1. Thomasius, D.G., I.P. 394, note by Bonwetsch
2. "Dial." 45.
3. Irenaeus "Adv. Haer." IV. 6, 2, Harvey's edition II. P. 159.

Quoted Franks page 20, 21

Here is from Irenaeus:

"We come here to the famous Irenaeian doctrine of Recapitulation. The conception is that of Christ as the Second Adam, or second head of humanity, who not only undoes the consequences of Adam's fall, but also takes up the development of humanity broken off in him, and carries it to completion, i.e. to union with God and consequent immortality."

'It was God recapitulating the ancient creation of man in Himself, that He might slay sin, and annul death, and give life to man.' Also III. 18, 1: 'The Son of God, when He was incarnate and was made man, recapitulated in Himself the long line of men, giving us salvation compendiously (in compendio), so that what we had lost in Adam, viz. that we should be after in the image and similitude of God, this we should receive in Jesus Christ.'

Franks p 37, 38

He also teaches Christ accomplished three things – destroy death, sin and Satan and restore mankind to God's original design providing eternal life.

What does this mean? What we teach in our class is what the Christian church taught for hundreds of years after Christ's time on earth. It was centuries later that the penal idea infected Christianity and corrupted the gospel.

It is our mission, in this time in history, to present the truth about God, which will lighten the world for His return. And in order to do that we must stop representing Him as a dictator, punisher, executioner, and in need of appeasement.

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph "Even if his..." thoughts? Why did God give the law four hundred years after the promise?

What was the purpose of the written law?

We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. ⁹ We also know that law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine ¹¹ that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me. 1Tim 1:8-11

The law was added so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more. Rom 5:20

The written law is like an MRI it examines and diagnoses, it does not cure. Thus the written law is not for the healthy or righteous but for the unhealthy unrighteous.

Near the end of the first paragraph the lesson states, "God's covenant was based on nothing other than His own will." What is God's will toward mankind?

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul has argued...” thoughts?

What does it mean to be justified?

Through him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses. ⁴⁰ Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to you: Acts 13:39,40

From the SDA Bible Commentary:

The verb translated “is justified” is not found elsewhere in Acts. In Paul’s teaching this is, in fact, the first recorded instance of the doctrine of justification, which became so characteristic of his theology (see Rom. 3:21–26). In the context of “forgiveness of sins,” the word “justified” means “acquitted,” “declared not guilty.”¹

Thoughts?

What does justify mean? Is Justification, a mere legal declaration? What are the problems with this idea?

- It is a result of a misdiagnosis of the sin problem. It is based on the idea that the sin problem is a legal problem needing legal solution
- It minimizes the awfulness, and evilness of sin, failing to appreciate how it actually damages and destroys
- It makes the sin problem a problem with the law or law giver.
- It makes God out to be a distorter of reality, declaring righteous those who are not and declaring innocent those who are guilty.

¹ Nichol, F. D. (1978; 2002). The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, Volume 6 (290). Review and Herald Publishing Association.

Then why do people hold to this doctrine?

- It gives a false security of claimed legal pardon without the required personal heart transformation and repudiation of selfishness in the heart.
- In other words, people can claim this type of righteousness while they are still unrighteous in heart, just as the doctrine itself proclaims God does.

What is Bible justification?

- Consider first the margins on your word document, if you “justify” the margins what are you doing? All that is out of harmony, line, or order is brought into line harmony and order.
- What is out of or harmony, line or order as a result of sin that needs to be put right? Is it God? Is it God’s law? Is it mankind’s “record”? Is it the nature/character/heart of man?
- Justification is the process of putting back to rightness with God that which is out of harmony or at enmity with God. And that is man’s heart/mind.

Thus we read –

He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him be righteous still; he who is holy, let him be holy still.”²

The Greek for righteous is the exact same as “justify” and it does not say “let him who is declared righteous continue to be declared righteous”.

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2Cor 5:21

² The New King James Version. 1982 (Re 22:11). Nashville: Thomas Nelson.

Notice, we become the righteousness of God through Christ, not simply are declared righteous.

Notice how EGW gets this exactly right:

The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. His life stands for the life of men. Thus they have remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. More than this, Christ imbues men with the attributes of God. He builds up the human character after the similitude of the divine character, a goodly fabric of spiritual strength and beauty. Thus the very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. God can "be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."
Romans 3:26. {DA 762.2}

What is justification to EGW? It is rebuilding in humanity the righteousness of God's character!

Explaining Jesus' parable of the branch connected to the vine notice the description in the book Desire of Ages:

So the soul dead in trespasses and sins receives life through connection with Christ. By faith in Him as a personal Saviour the union is formed. The sinner unites his weakness to Christ's strength, his emptiness to Christ's fullness, his frailty to Christ's enduring might. Then he has the mind of Christ. The humanity of Christ has touched our humanity, and our humanity has touched divinity. Thus through the agency of the Holy Spirit man becomes a partaker of the divine nature. He is accepted in the Beloved. {DA 675.3}

When is the sinner accepted in the beloved? When He is declared righteous, but is not, or when he becomes a partaker of the divine nature, when he has the mind of Christ?

The legal/penal idea is a fraud designed to have people rest satisfied with a legal claim of righteousness without an actual change of heart from selfish, to loving/righteous.

Read second paragraph, “Paul’s argument in Romans 3...” thoughts?

Why did Paul know that some would fear he was “abolishing the law?” Because he was dealing with people who have a legal mentality when it comes to the plan of salvation. They had misdiagnosed the problem and had created a false understanding of the solution. As Paul tried to lead them away from a legal solution, to the actual healing of mind and character, he knew they would resist.

From my paraphrase:

Romans 3:27 Where, then, is human bragging or accomplishment? It has no place, for our healing has been accomplished by God, through trust made possible by Jesus. And why is boasting not possible? Because our efforts to conform to a set of rules does not establish trust or remove the infection of selfishness from our hearts! Only trust in God eliminates fear and opens the heart to God and then he uses his divine power to apply the remedy Christ achieved in order to recreate us, in love, to be like Jesus. ²⁸ Therefore, we insist that a man is cleansed – set right with God, only by trusting in God and opening his heart to him – and this is different from keeping rules. ²⁹ Is the Creator of the entire human race the God of the Jews only? Is he not God of all humanity, including Gentiles? Of course – he is the God of all humanity, ³⁰ and he will heal the circumcised if they trust him and the uncircumcised will also be healed if they trust him. ³¹ Do we then destroy or make useless, by our trust, the written code God gave to help us? Of course not! We show that the written code was helpful in diagnosing our sickness, revealing God's plan to heal and leading us back to trust so we could be healed.

Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read top section, "In their bondage..." thoughts?

What do you hear?

- What is their condition? The law "condemns them" which means what? It diagnoses them as terminal
- What was the obstacle they had in getting well?
 - They had lost the knowledge of God and the principles of his covenant – what were they?
- Why did God take them to the Red Sea?
- Why did God want to reveal his power? His power to do what?
- God's power is "power to help." When you read about God's power to you always see His power is manifest to help us, and deliver us from sin? Or do we primarily see and teach God uses His power to punish and destroy?
 - Flood – keep open the channel to save the world and unify the universe
 - Sodom and Gomorrah to stem corruption and keep open the channel for Messiah
 - Plagues of Egypt – reveal the impotence of false gods and open their minds to their condition, leading them to healing, including the Egyptians
 - Thunder at Sinai, stop an orgy, idol worship, selfishness, and bring them to a knowledge of their condition and need
 - Power to keep scorpions and snakes out – to protect
 - Power to heal when looked at snake on pole – to heal
 - Power to provide manna and water

- Drought for 3.5 years and Fire at Mt. Carmel – to reveal impotence of Baal and again bring people back to God for healing
- Power to raise a dead man whose body touched the bones of Elisha – to reawaken the message of Elijah and Elisha and turn minds back to the true God
- Power to break Dagon when the ark was there and give hemorrhoids to the pagans – to open their minds to the impotence of their gods and lead them to the true God
- Power to stop the fire from consuming the three worthies and the lions from eating Daniel – to bring pagan rulers to a knowledge of God
- Power demonstrated by Jesus in all His miracles, to heal and restore
- Power of miracles done by Apostles to bring people to the knowledge of God

God uses His power to heal and restore, not to punish and destroy!

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Some, believing...” thoughts?

Many have argued over the law in Galatians that “was added.” Some have argued it was just the ceremonial law others the 10 Commandments, others all law since sin. What do you think?

I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments... "The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). In this scripture, the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. {1SM 233, 234}

The lesson is absolutely right on this point!

Read the second paragraph, “Paul is not...” thoughts?

Read last paragraph, “While the ceremonial..” thoughts?

What do you think about the idea, “that shows us that sin is not just part of our natural condition but is, indeed, a violation of God’s law.”

We use the language “natural heart” or “natural condition” commonly, from our earthly vantage point – but is it really natural?

Do you see an oxymoron in this? Do you see that God’s law, or design protocol, is what defines our true “nature” or defines what is “natural” for mankind? And if that is so then all violations of God’s law are unnatural?

We might say the natural sinful heart, or what is natural for a heart infected by selfishness. But, I just wanted to point out that our condition in sin and selfishness, is not natural to God’s order or design. It is an infection to be cured and purged!

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section, “Does Paul’s statement...”

Thoughts?

Had the 10 Commandments been in existence long before Sinai?

If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God's law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. {PP 364.2}

Was the written law in existence in heaven before Sinai?

But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. {MB 109.2}

Read last paragraph, "The role of the law..." thoughts? This is well said.

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, "In Galatians..." thoughts? How do you hear this? What does it mean? Is it good news? Why?

How might you rephrase it? What would our position be if we had to rely on ourselves to create a remedy for sin?

Read second paragraph, "Although..." thoughts? Why is the law subsidiary to the promise? Is it because it was mediated by angels and Moses? Is that what makes it subsidiary? Or is it subsidiary by its very nature – it is a diagnostic tool, whereas Christ is the cure!

Read last paragraph, "As majestic..." thoughts?

I don't understand the sentence, "In stark contrast, God's promise was made directly to Abraham (and therefore, to all believers), for there was no need for a mediator."

What do you understand that to be saying?

While we rejoice that there are worlds which have never fallen, these worlds render praise, and honor, and glory to Jesus Christ for the plan of redemption to save the fallen sons of Adam, as well as to confirm themselves in their position and character of purity. The arm that raised the human family from the ruin which Satan had brought upon the race through his temptations, is the arm which has preserved the inhabitants of other worlds from sin. Every world throughout immensity engages the care and support of the Father and the Son; and this care is constantly exercised for fallen humanity. Christ is mediating in behalf of man, and the order of unseen worlds also is preserved by his mediatorial work. Are not these themes of sufficient magnitude and importance to engage our thoughts, and call forth our gratitude and adoration to God?" {RH, January 11, 1881 par. 4}

Thoughts?

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 7 4Q 2011

The Road to Faith

What do you think about the title?

What does “faith” mean to you?

- Christianity, a religion, - are you of the faith?
- Conviction, certainty “I have faith”
- Trust in a relationship
- Believing without evidence?

When you hear the word faith what do you hear?

What is the lesson referring to when it speaks of the road to faith?

Would it be referring to the steps or path in our life journey that leads us to a trust relationship with God?

What has led you to your faith, confidence or trust in God?

- Studying the evidence in God’s Word and Science, with application of those principles in life and seeing the results – God’s testable laws in action
- The accuracy of Bible prophecy in knowing the future
- The life of Jesus revealing perfect love
- God’s actions dealing with humanity, revealing one altogether trustworthy
- Change in lives of people who have come to know Jesus
- Answered prayers in my own life
 - Undergraduate school, taking physics – working full time, full load, big brother, giving Bible study to another student...
 - Seminar in Portland Oregon 2009

SABBATH

Read memory text Gal 3:22:

But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ESV

This is the ESV translation – what do you think of this verse?

Here is from the NIV, NKJV and GNT:

But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe. NIV

But the Scripture has confined all under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. NKJV

But the scripture says that the whole world is under the power of sin; and so the gift which is promised on the basis of faith in Jesus Christ is given to those who believe. GNT

Thoughts? Are these the same? Do you hear the message the same? It seems the meaning is shifted slightly in these translations – and this is a good example of the problem with translation. The Greek allows for either translation to be equally accurate if one uses only the words, and doesn't think through the larger meaning of Scripture.

This means that one's biases toward the Bible influence how one translates the texts.

Which do you think is the more accurate translation of this text?

Is the world imprisoned by the Scripture? If God never provided the Scripture would humans be less imprisoned?

Or is humanity, all nature for that matter, imprisoned by sin and the Scripture describes accurately this condition?

So here is my paraphrase of this verse:

But Scripture is clear, all humanity is infected with selfishness and is imprisoned by this terminal condition. It is by trust that we experience the only cure, the one promised – Jesus Christ, who was given to mankind as the remedy to this terminal condition.

Thoughts?

The lesson for the day describes how homing pigeons can sometimes become disoriented and get lost. Then states in paragraph three:

“The same is true in the spiritual realm. Even after we accept Christ, we can get lost, or disoriented, even to the point of never returning to the Lord.”

Thoughts?

How can one tell if one is gotten lost? Any methods?

Read last paragraph, “The good news...”

What about the law? Is it helpful as a compass to keep us on track? How might the law be used beneficially? How might the law be used to keep us off track with the Lord?

- When the written law is used to diagnose selfishness in the heart, to point out failure to love God and others, and convict us of our condition and need for healing it is used properly.

- When the law is used as a list of behaviors to which we must adhere, and a measuring stick to compare our behavior to others in order for us to feel good about ourselves and our righteous condition – then it leads us away from Christ.

What could lead someone who has come to know and trust God to get disoriented and off track?

- Trauma to tragedy they struggle to understand
- Having come to know God through a belief system infected with distortion and error – having faith in the system, accepting the errors as truth and then the realities of life shatter their system, thus causing a loss of belief in God.
 - Believe that if you keep all the rules, eat the right foods, go to church on the right day, exercise, pay tithe, avoid premarital sex, don't curse, honor your parents, don't steal etc. that life will turn out okay – and then a death occurs, a divorce, a trauma – shatters the belief – Doesn't God care? I was supposed to be protected?
 - In scripture do miracles happen most often for (not through) the strong in faith or for the weak?
 - 10 plagues of Egypt
 - Gideon
 - Elijah
 - Daniel and the three worthies
 - Jesus and the Apostles
 - Who were the miracles for?
- Lies –
- Relationships –

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “The people believed...”

What does it mean to be “spiritually” alive or dead?

Have you ever heard that Adam and Eve, when they ate the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, “died spiritually”?

What does that mean?

- Does it mean their “spirit” died?
 - What is the “spirit”?
 - Intelligent apparition that lives outside the body (ghost)?
 - The breath of life received from God?
 - Wind?
 - The intelligent aspect of the human being?
 - Something else?
- Does it mean they were “sentenced to death” in the heavenly courtroom?
- Here’s what Wikipedia says about spiritual death:
 - Spiritual death is related to but distinct from physical death and the second (eternal) death. According to the doctrine of original sin, all people are born with a sinful nature and thereby spiritually dead, being separated from God. Christians believe that because Christ defeated sin and death, those who have faith in him are made spiritually alive. Physical death is the separation of the soul from the body. For the Christian, physical death means the beginning of eternal life in the presence of God but for the unbeliever, eternal death and suffering. Saint Gregory Palamas wrote very eloquently on the subject of spiritual death.

Thoughts?

- Does spiritual death mean the law of love is no longer written in the heart, therefore, we are out of harmony with God’s design for life and are in a terminal state, slowly dying?

Does this quotation have any bearing on the question?

God is the fountain of life, and we can have life only as we are in communion with Him. Separated from God, existence may be ours for a little time, but we do not possess life. "She that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth." 1 Timothy 5:6. Only through the surrender of our will to God is it possible for Him to impart life to us. Only by receiving His life through self-surrender is it possible, said Jesus, for these hidden sins, which I have pointed out, to be overcome. It is possible that you may bury them in your hearts and conceal them from human eyes, but how will you stand in God's presence? {MB 61.2}

If you cling to self, refusing to yield your will to God, you are choosing death. To sin, wherever found, God is a consuming fire. If you choose sin, and refuse to separate from it, the presence of God, which consumes sin, must consume you. {MB 62.1}

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, "His point?..." thoughts

What does this mean? Faithfulness of Christ in our behalf to do what?

MONDAY

The lesson cites Galatians 3:23 "kept under the law" and then gives various possible meanings to this idea or phrase, kept under the law – what do you think this means?

The lesson suggests:

- The law as a means of salvation
- Being under the condemnation of the law

Under number two the lesson points out that the Greek in verse 23 means to guard, to protect.

How does the law guard and protect? It sets a hedge of behavioral guidelines that guards of from self-destruction, acting on the impulses of the selfish nature, while we are on our way to experience Christ and have a new heart created within.

Here is my paraphrase of Galatians 3:21-25:

Gal 3:21 Is the written law, then, somehow in opposition to the promises of God? Of course not! The written law was simply a tool to diagnose our sickness and lead us to God for healing. If the written law could somehow cure the infection of selfishness and promote life, then healing would certainly have followed the giving of the law. 22 But Scripture is clear, all humanity is infected with selfishness and is imprisoned by this terminal condition. It is by trust that we experience the only cure, the one promised – Jesus Christ who was given to mankind as the remedy to this terminal condition.

Gal 3:23 Before Christ came we were quarantined by the written law, restrained from continual self-destruction until Christ procured the only true cure. 24 So then, the written law was provided as a safeguard to protect us and lead us to Christ – the Great Physician so that we might be restored to unity with God by, trust in and partaking of, Christ. 25 Now that trust in God has been restored and we are set right in heart, mind, character and again practice God’s methods, we no longer need the law to diagnose our condition or lead us back to God.

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul gives two...”

Why are these points needed? Why do Christians struggle with the relationship of the law to salvation?

Because Christianity by and large has accepted a change in the way it conceives of God's law, when Imperial Rome influenced the idea of law away from the natural laws God built His universe to run upon, to Imperial law imposed upon subjects to enforce behavioral conformity and measure out punishment.

With this change in the concept of law, God's character and universe became misunderstood, and then the Cross and what Christ accomplished came to mean appeasement of wrath and paying of legal penalty rather than the accomplishment of victory over the infection of selfishness in humanity and the destruction of Satan and sin.

When we understand God's law as the natural law and God's character as love, as Jesus revealed, then we understand the written law was added to provide a diagnostic and protective tool we needed until Christ could come and remedy the situation.

WEDNESDAY

Read third paragraph, "Paul's description..." thoughts?

Does the law have a negative aspect? Or does sin have a negative aspect?

When the MRI points out a tumor does the MRI have a negative aspect?

Does the law condemn or does the law diagnose? Where does the condemnation come from, the law, or the condition of the person being outside the law?

And how you answer this question reveals how much you see God's law as natural or imposed?

If the law is imposed then the condemnation comes from the law. If the law is natural the condemnation comes from the very condition of being out of harmony with the law.

If someone jumps off a tall building, does the law of gravity condemn, or is it their choice to jump that condemns? If they suddenly open a parachute does the law of gravity suddenly pardon? The law of gravity never changes, it is a constant, a principle upon which the universe operates. We either live in harmony or out of harmony with these principles and it is the condition of being out of harmony that condemns.

Now the written law is like writing down in a physics book the law of gravity – writing the equations that describe and define gravity on paper, or stone, do not establish gravity. Neither does writing the 10 commandments on stone establish God's law. God's law is established in the character of God and the very fabric of the universe as God constructed it.

- The law of God, from its very nature, is unchangeable. It is a revelation of the will and the character of its Author. God is love, and His law is love. Its two great principles are love to God and love to man. "Love is the fulfilling of the law" (Rom. 13:10). The character of God is righteousness and truth; such is the nature of His law. Says the psalmist: "Thy law is the truth"; "all thy commandments are righteousness" (Ps. 119:142, 172). And the apostle Paul declares: "The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good" (Rom. 7:12). Such a law, being an expression of the mind and will of God, must be as enduring as its Author. {Reflecting Christ 46.5}
- But turning from all lesser representations, we behold God in Jesus. Looking unto Jesus we see that it is the glory of our God to give. "I do nothing of Myself," said Christ; "the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father." "I seek not Mine own glory," but the glory of Him that sent Me. John 8:28; 6:57; 8:50; 7:18. In these words is set forth the great principle which is the law of life for the universe. All things Christ received from God, but He took to give. So in the heavenly courts, in His ministry for all created beings: through the beloved Son, the Father's life flows out to all; through the Son it returns, in praise and joyous service, a tide of love, to the great Source of all. And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life. DA 21

- As the Supreme Ruler of the universe, God has ordained laws for the government not only of all living beings, but of all the operations of nature. Everything, whether great or small, animate or inanimate, is under fixed laws which cannot be disregarded. There are no exceptions to this rule; for nothing that the divine hand has made has been forgotten by the divine mind. But while everything in nature is governed by natural law, man alone, as an intelligent being, capable of understanding its requirements, is amenable to moral law. To man alone, the crowning work of his creation, God has given a conscience to realize the sacred claims of the divine law, and a heart capable of loving it as holy, just, and good; and of man prompt and perfect obedience is required. Yet God does not compel him to obey; he is left a free moral agent. {ST, April 15, 1886 par. 2}

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Read second paragraph, "First, we are..." thoughts?

Why are we no longer under the condemnation of the law?

The lesson suggests we read Romans 8:1-3, but lets read through verse 4:

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, ² because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man, ⁴ in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit.

Thoughts? What does it mean? Why are we not condemned?

Because we are now in harmony with it, it is in our hearts and characters! Heb 8:10 the law is written in the heart!

What is do you think of the description in the paragraph “That gives us the liberty of serving Christ wholeheartedly, without fear of being condemned for mistakes we might make in the process”?

Does it tend to sound like our behavior is the problem? Is it? Which is the problem, the behavior or the heart motive? Where does sin occur, in the behavior or the motive of the heart?

If the heart is purified what happens to the behavior? If the heart is impure, can the behavior still appear pure?

Do we ever focus too much on mistakes? Where do mistakes fit in?

When we get a new heart do we immediately get a changed brain? Do all our old habits, reflexes, conditioned responses immediately get over written?

So, with conversion and a new motive of love for God and man in the heart, can we still find ourselves making mistakes?

What is the difference then? Now we grieve the mistakes and long to be changed and actively choose to work toward overcoming because we don't want to be like this.

Read third paragraph, "As a result..." thoughts?

How do you understand this idea of being forgiven changing our relationship to the law?

If Jeffery Dalmer gets pardoned, forgiven, by the president, his relationship to the law is changed, it can no longer hold him. But do you want him as your neighbor – no!

This analogy points out again the problem with how Imperial Rome changed Christianity's concept of law.

The president, the government, can forgive a person, and the penalty of the law can be waived – but that can only happen when we think imposed law.

A person who smokes and gets lung cancer, can have the doctor forgive them, but that doesn't change the laws of health or their relationship to the laws of health.

When we realize God's law is the law upon which life is built, and sin is a problem of our hearts and minds being out of harmony with that law, then we recognize legal pardon is not what is needed. What is needed is what God has provided, a remedy, thus we can receive a new heart and right spirit!

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1 & 2

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 8 4Q 2011

From Slaves to Heirs

SABBATH

Read first paragraph – “Paul tells...” thoughts?

What are the “rights and privileges” of the sons and daughters of God?

I could think of lots of privileges but I was having a hard time thinking of “rights”? While I list some of the privileges I thought of, can you think of any “rights”?

- The privilege to love others
- The privilege to know God
- The privilege to give of ourselves to bless others
- The privilege of being transformed in character to be like Jesus
- The privilege of fulfilling a role/purpose in God’s cause
- The privilege of sharing the truth about God with others
- The privilege of seeing others freed from sin
- The privilege of eternal life
- The privilege of sharing our story of deliverance with sinless beings in the hereafter
- The privilege of experiencing God’s love
- The privilege of truth, and understanding of the GC
- The privilege of returned self-control/governance
- We have privilege of a closer intimacy with God than if mankind had never sinned –
 - Christ taken humanity, is part of this creation,
 - if your father president you would have a closer connection,
 - In foxhole, in combat, bonds are forged, we have suffered with Christ and fought the good fight of faith with him. This creates a closer connection with God than the unfallen beings experience

- While we may value and appreciate our soldiers who have fought for our freedoms, we don't have the same closeness and bonds that those who have fought together experience. The onlooking universe will be like those of us who benefit and appreciate, and support our troops, but those doing the fighting get a closer relationship with each other that we don't experience.

Read second paragraph – “No matter...” thoughts?

What is the strength of this example? Do we have to be perfect in all we do?

Read last paragraph, “We, too,...” thoughts?

Was mankind, in Eden, created as God's heir or did mankind only become an heir after sin and Christ's victory?

- Did mankind, in Eden, have an “inheritance” from God?
- Was earth given as mankind's inheritance from God?
- What would cause mankind to lose that inheritance?
- What would restore the inheritance?
- If a son has an illness, while he is sick is he still an heir to his father's kingdom?
- If he dies before his father dies, is he still an heir, will he inherit the kingdom?
- So, could we say, that mankind is an heir to God, we have an inheritance from our Heavenly Father, but we are all sick, terminal, and can only inherit our inheritance if we experience healing through Christ?
- Or, is it more accurate to say, we are not heirs, we are not sons of God, until we are first healed and then we become heirs?
- Is receiving our inheritance, then a legal process, or a healing process?

SUNDAY

Read Galatians 3:26-29:

You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, ²⁷ for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹ If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Thoughts?

Heirs according to the promise – the promise to do what? To heal us! Thus we are heirs because we don't die eternally and thus can inherit what God has for us. Those who don't accept Christ and what He has accomplished are not heirs, because they won't inherit the kingdom because they die! It is not a legal process but a healing process!

Read third paragraph, "Paul's use..." thoughts?

What do you think of the idea of conferred? What does it mean to confer something?

grant or bestow (a title, degree, benefit, or right): moves were made to confer an honorary degree on her.

Is this the Biblical definition of what it means to be clothed in Christ's righteousness?

What does the Bible say?

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, ² because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man, ⁴ in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit. Romans 8:1-3

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2Cor 5:21

Here is how one of the founders of our church described what it means to be clothed in Christ:

This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isaiah 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4... By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. {COL 311.4}

Is this "conferred" or is this "imparted"? The Bible truth is so much more wonderful that we are commonly taught. We can actually become "partakers of the divine nature"!

Read bottom red section, "Dwell..." thoughts?

Is this true? In what way?

- Both human
- Both tempted by sin
- Both suffered
- Both born into the earth from a sinful mother (except Adam and Eve)
- Both Christ and saved have unity with God
- Christ and saved reign on thrones in heaven

In what way is it not true?

- Christ never sinned, we are healed from sin
- Christ is fully God and fully man, we are only human
- Christ was pre-existent, we have a beginning
- Christ loves always – we don't

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul’s choice...” thoughts?

This is one reason that God may have chosen this time, are there perhaps other reasons, not from history, but from the Bible that God chose this time to come?

While the Bible is a book to reveal God to man, whom did God choose to tell this story through? Is the Bible narrative told through the Chinese, Aborigine, Anglo-Saxon, Native American? No, the Bible narrative is told through Abraham’s descendants.

Is there a reason, related to Abraham’s descendants, that God chose this particular time in history for Christ to come?

Are humans the only intelligent beings involved in the war between Christ and Satan? No, intelligent beings in heaven are also watching (Job chapter 1, Daniel chapter 10).

So, from the vantage point of heaven, what was different about the Jewish people when Christ came than previously in their history?

This was the first time that they appeared to an outside observer to be adhering to the script, following the manual, applying the blueprint to their lives. They observed Sabbath, kept the feasts, followed the dietary restrictions even straining gnats out of their food, paid tithe, no longer sacrificed to false gods. They, for all outward appearances, seemed to finally be onboard with God's plan.

Now, why might this be an important time for Christ to come? What was revealed?

That obedience to the rules, without the true picture of God makes no difference, that obedience for the wrong reasons makes one God's enemy! That outward conformity is not what God wants, what God wants is a transformed heart!

I would suggest, that God could not provide all the evidence He needed to provide had He come to earth, to Israel, at a prior time in history. Had He come when they were worshipping Baal, it would have not taught this lesson when they rejected Him.

Read fifth paragraph, "The phrase 'born under the law...' thoughts?"

What do you understand the law here to mean? It depends on how you understand law – Do you understand God's law to be like Imperial Rome, an imposed law upon His subjects which He must enforce, or do you understand God's law to be the law of love, the construction protocols He built life to operate upon.

If you believe the law is imposed then you believe he was born under legal condemnation, the legal death sentence. But if you believe the law is natural, then you understand Paul is saying that Jesus was born, under the “law of sin and death.” That He was born with a humanity that was infected and damaged by Satan’s principle of selfishness, a humanity that could tempt Him to act in self-interest, which was evidenced in Gethsemane, and confirmed by Hebrews 2:14 and James 1:13-15.

Read last paragraph, “It was necessary...” thoughts?

When one makes the mistake of accepting the little horn’s change in God’s law from the law of love, the natural law He built the universe to run upon, to the imposed law idea, then one misconstrues what Christ did and sees things through a legal lens.

Now we believe Christ did become our substitute, but not to achieve some court room, legal requirement, but to achieve the cleansing of mankind from sin and selfishness.

Notice, because of the false idea of God’s law accepted by penal substitution theology, how they say, “He met the justice of the law, which required the death of the sinner...”

Does the law require the death of the sinner? What does the law require?

If the law is like Rome – an imposed law, what does that type of law require when it is broken? Punishment – in this case the death of the lawbreaker. It is satisfied by having the penalty, for breaking the law paid.

If the law is like God’s law, the law He built life to operate upon, what does that law require? That we are put back in harmony with it, for in no other way can it be satisfied – for in no other way can life exist.

How did one of the founders of our church see it?

- The law requires righteousness,--a righteous life, a perfect character; and this man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. {DA 762.2}
- But the law requires that the soul itself be pure and the mind holy, that the thoughts and feelings may be in accordance with the standard of love and righteousness.--RH, Apr 5, 1898. (2SM 211.) {2MCP 564.1}
- The divine law requires us to love God supremely and our neighbor as ourselves. {A New Life NL 32.1}
- That which God required of Adam before his fall was perfect obedience to His law. God requires now what He required of Adam, perfect obedience, righteousness without a flaw, without shortcoming in His sight. God help us to render to Him all His law requires. We cannot do this without that faith that brings Christ's righteousness into daily practice. {2SM 380.4}
 - If the law requires the death of the sinner, should we be praying “God help us render to Him all His law requires?”
- His law requires your heart's supreme affection for your Maker. It requires you to do unto others as you would have them do to you. {BEcho, February 15, 1889 par. 8}
- This is the voice of God to you, my brethren and sisters who profess to keep the law of God. That law requires that you love your neighbor as yourself. Are you doing it? {RH, March 11, 1884 par. 10}

- The Lord will give ample light to all who will be true and loyal to him, but he will show no more favor to Phariseism and self-righteousness today than when he walked in his humanity in our world. The soul that encourages an atmosphere of doubt, God cannot favor with constantly increasing grace. His mercy and the gracious influences of his Spirit remain the same for all who will receive them. His offer of salvation does not change. It is man who changes his relationship to God. Many place themselves where they cannot recognize his grace and his salvation. They are under a delusion as to what constitutes Christianity. And while man refuses to become pure, holy, and undefiled, as God's law requires him to do, he is walking away from Christ. {RH, February 15, 1898 par. 10}
 - Imagine an HIV man and woman get together and have a child – what did the child do wrong? That is every human since Adam and Eve, born in sin and conceived in iniquity. We didn't do anything wrong, it is not our fault. But, even though the HIV baby is innocent, does it still have a terminal condition that if unremedied will kill it? That is also our situation. If the child grows up and there is a free remedy offered and the child refuses it will that be his/her fault? Yes, that is also our situation. What if a deceiver offers the child a false-remedy, and the child accepts the false remedy – what happens?
 - What happens when people accept the legal payment for their sins, because they haven't understood the real problem of sinfulness in the heart? They are under a delusion as to what constitutes Christianity!
- ...his law requires us to love God supremely, and our neighbor as ourselves. {ST, November 23, 1891 par. 5}
- The law requires us to present to God a holy character. It demands of men today just what it demanded of Adam in Eden,--perfect obedience, perfect harmony with all its precepts in all relations of life, under all circumstances and conditions. {ST, May 30, 1895 par. 2}

- God's law requires that justice and right be exercised between man and his fellow man; it requires that we shall not injure our neighbor in his property, his feelings, his health, or his good name. It requires compassion for the afflicted, even if he be our enemy, that in all our associations with our fellow beings we shall show the same love and care that we would wish to have exercised toward ourselves. {ST, January 7, 1897 par. 3}

So if the law requires us to love our enemies, wouldn't that be true of God? Then do you see the fallacy of teaching that God hates, or inflicts torture upon His enemies!

- Christ came to this world to live the law and represent the character of God, that the delusions which Satan had brought upon the world might be dispelled. In the sermon on the mount, He who gave the law became an expositor of the law. That sermon, so full of what it means to love and obey God, is the unfolding of His character. The law is shown to be a representation of God's character, that man may see that he must render obedience to the law if he would become a member of the royal family, a child of the heavenly King. This law requires nothing short of perfect spiritual obedience. {ST, February 24, 1898 par. 5}

I put in the search engine of the EGW CD "Law, requires, death" and there is not one place she says the law requires death. This idea of the law requiring death is another distortion based off accepting Imperial Rome's distortion of God's law!

How can experience what the law does require?

- While the law is holy, the Jews could not attain righteousness by their own efforts to keep the law. The disciples of Christ must obtain righteousness of a different character from that of the Pharisees, if they would enter the kingdom of heaven. God offered them, in His Son, the perfect righteousness of the law. If they would open their hearts fully to receive Christ, then the very life of God, His love, would dwell in them, transforming them into His own likeness; and thus through God's free gift they would possess the righteousness which the law requires. {MB 54.2}

Where is the law? In the believer, we don't get a new record erased of sins, we get a new heart cleansed of sinfulness!

Why do so many get confused about what the law requires? Because they have accepted the little horn's version of what God's law is like, an imposed law, and then conceive of God having to impose penalties for breaches in the law. Then they misunderstand the meaning of what they read. Consider the following:

- Christ saw the helpless condition of the race, and he came to redeem them by living the life of obedience the law requires, and by paying in his death the penalty of disobedience. He came to bring us the message and means of deliverance, an assurance of salvation, not through the abrogation of the law, but through obedience made possible by his merits. {RH, April 29, 1902 par. 10}
 [the law requires a life of obedience, there is a penalty for sin, but the law doesn't require sin be punished, only that the infection of sin be destroyed so that a life of obedience could be obtained. Thus lawlessness results in death and Christ could only restore a life of obedience into humanity by destroying the carnal nature He assumed – thus suffering the penalty sin brought.]

What does the law require? Does the law require the death of the sinner? NO! The law requires we be healed and restored to righteousness! Why? What does the law of respiration require? It requires we breathe! If someone breaks the law, trying to commit suicide and ties a plastic bag over their head, and they pass out, but are not yet dead, and someone removes the plastic bag, does the law of respiration require they now be killed? No, the law requires one breathes!

So mankind is infected with a terminal condition of selfishness, the law requires righteousness, because that is the basis upon which life is built. Christ could only put mankind back in harmony with God's design principles, by destroying the infection of selfishness, which is why He died!

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, thoughts?

What is it that held us in bondage? Sinful nature, lies of Satan – so what is the price to free us? The truth which destroys lies, and a new character, which Christ achieved!

Read third paragraph, “We often speak...” thoughts – this is a metaphor, but what happens when we take a metaphor and apply it concretely? We get misled, this happens when those who take the parable of Lazarus and the rich man and apply it concretely.

Those who see a legal problem and solution in the plan of salvation, use this metaphor concretely and as evidence of a legal requirement in the solution for sin. But they forget it is a metaphor, written to whom?

This was written to the Galatians, who were being infected by Judiazers, who were suggesting that Gentile converts didn't have the same rights, privileges, promises, inheritance as the Jews, unless they converted to Judaism, and practice the Jewish customs, including circumcision. Paul, uses the metaphor of adoption, not to teach the plan of salvation for humanity is a legal process, but to show that one didn't have to be a Jew to be part of God's family and an heir of the promises to Abraham. In other words, one didn't have to get circumcised and practice feasts days – what one had to do was accept Christ and experience a new heart/mind/character. Thus the “adopted” son had all the same “rights and privileges” as the biological son. So this undercut the argument of the Judiazers who were trying to mislead the people!

THURSDAY

Read Galatians 4:9-11, thoughts?

But now that you know God—or rather are known by God—how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again? ¹⁰ You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! ¹¹ I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

The lesson argues that some mistakenly use this in regard to the weekly Sabbath, when it applies only to the ceremonial law, what do you think?

Here is my paraphrase:

But now that you have come to know God, as revealed by Jesus (or more importantly, now that Christlike character has been developing within you and you are known as God's children), how could you possibly turn back to the dark, powerless, destructive beliefs and practices of your former lives? Do you wish to have your minds destroyed and be enslaved by superstition and ignorance all over again? ¹⁰ You are actually observing ceremonial holidays as if somehow such observances could heal the mind, remove selfishness and guilt or restore the character to Christlikeness. 11 I can hardly believe it. I am beginning to wonder if all my time with you has been wasted.

Do you think I miss the meaning? If this is the meaning, then wouldn't the weekly Sabbath be included? In other words, if we keep the weekly Sabbath as a means to save ourselves we have missed the point and are lost, correct? Or put another way, does observance of the weekly Sabbath cure sinfulness?

Read bottom pink section – thoughts?

MONDAY

Read Galatians 4:1-3- thoughts?

What do you hear? What does it mean?

Here is my paraphrase:

Galatians 4:1 What I am trying to explain to you is that as long as the heir remains immature, he is really no different from a slave because he needs someone to supervise his behavior, make his decisions and guide his actions, even though he owns the entire estate. 2 He doesn't have self-governance so he needs the guardians and trustees to protect him from himself until such time he can handle his own affairs. 3 Likewise, when we were childlike in character and immature in our thinking we had no self-control and were slaves to selfish impulses.

Thoughts?

FRIDAY

Read top paragraph, "thoughts?"

Read and discuss questions 1-3

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 9 4Q 2011

Paul's Pastoral Appeal

Read first paragraph – “As we’ve...” thoughts?

Does it matter what we believe? Why?

We have power over what we believe but what we believe has power over us:

Consider you believe your spouse is cheating on you but they are not, would this belief change you? How?

The Comforter is called "the Spirit of truth." His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. {DA 671.1}

Thoughts? Satan is the father of lies, as he gets us to believe lies he can change us.

- When we believe lies we experience activation of the fear circuits of the brain, which cause activation of the immune system release of inflammatory factors which damage the body and brain and lead to physical and mental health problems.
- Further, fear causes us to act in self interest which causes us relationship problems.

As our physical life is sustained by food, so our spiritual life is sustained by the word of God. And every soul is to receive life from God's word for himself. As we must eat for ourselves in order to receive nourishment, so we must receive the word for ourselves. We are not to obtain it merely through the medium of another's mind. We should carefully study the Bible, asking God for the aid of the Holy Spirit, that we may understand His word. We should take one verse, and concentrate the mind on the task of ascertaining the thought which God has put in that verse for us. We should dwell upon the thought until it becomes our own, and we know "what saith the Lord."
 {DA 390.4}

Do our beliefs matter?

What beliefs or doctrines are important?

- God as creator?
- The nature of man?
- The Sabbath?
- The Sanctuary?
- Tithing?
- Healthful living?

Those who crucified Christ held and taught all of these doctrines – what went wrong?

What is the primary purpose of all Bible doctrine?

Bible doctrine is ONLY relevant as it is connected to, and informs us about, God! When we separate doctrine from God's character, from the Great Controversy over God's character, we actually create a distorted religion in which doctrines become a barrier to salvation!

Let's review some of our doctrines and ask, what do they tell us about God?

- Trinity –
 - God is love, love cannot exist in isolation, thus denying the trinity denies the character of God as love.
 - If Jesus isn't fully God then we learn God is willing to sacrifice someone else in His place, but He is not willing to sacrifice Himself. God without the Trinity is a selfish God!
- Creator –
 - God is love and gives of Himself to create – theories of theistic evolution deny God's character of love and instead teach a God who uses pain, suffering and death to create, all of which are Satan's principles
- God's Law
 - Natural law of love He built His universe to run upon or,
 - Imposed law He enforces upon His creatures – if we teach the law is imposed then we create a god construct who is imperialistic, imposes law, monitors behavior, imposes penalties, must have payments for justice to be served etc.
- Nature of mankind
 - Mankind is mortal, God has foreknowledge and would never create a situation in which His children would suffer for eternity
 - Mankind possess immortality - God is ignorant, foolish, capricious, callous, or sadistic as He either didn't know what was going to happen and foolishly gave immortality to beings before He knew what they would do, or He knew they would disobey and created them to suffer eternally.
- Sabbath
 - Evidence of God's character of love and the principles of freedom or,
 - An arbitrary test of obedience
- Sanctuary
 - A little theater designed to teach God's plan to heal the Spirit Temple back to God's original intent revealing God as a gracious, patient, loving being who reaches down to meet us where we are and teach as we are able to learn

- A sacrificial system of appeasement to pay a blood payment to atone for the broken law revealing a god who is like Baal, requiring payment in order to give to his creatures
- Final End of Sin
 - God unveils the fullness of His life giving glory and those whose minds are solidified with lies and selfishness are tormented when they come face to face with themselves, in the presence of unveiled truth and love and die as a result of unremedied sin. Reveals a God who is love and has done everything in His power to save and heal His children, patiently waiting until there was no one left who would respond, and sadly grants each person the results of their free choice.
 - God uses His power to inflict pain and suffering on His children torturing them and then killing them, makes God out to be a vengeful and brutal tyrant, a sadistic monster.
 - God reveals Himself and everyone who looks is healed and transformed and saved, including Satan and no one is lost in the end. Reveals a God who minimizes the freewill choice of beings, which undermines genuine love and minimizes the malignity of sin and operating out of harmony from God's design, makes the entire history of sin a brutal charade.

SUNDAY

Second paragraph states, "Paul's concern was not simply about theological ideas and doctrinal points of view. His heart was bound up with the lives of the people who were brought to Christ through his ministry." – thoughts?

Why was Paul concerned about the lives of the people?

Paul understood God's law is a living law and must exist in the living being. Paul understood God's law is the natural law upon which He built His universe and thus teaching people the truth about God and His law, would necessarily have a real time impact on their lives, relationships and health. Thus Paul, was interested in the lives, rather than just the doctrines, because he understood God's law is a living law, not a dead set of rules, and as such has transforming power in the lives of believers.

Examples:

Pharisees saw the Sabbath as a rule to obey, Jesus understood the Sabbath as evidence of God's character of love, and thus gave of Himself to enrich and heal on the Sabbath. The Pharisees, saw the healing as breaking the rule and wanted to crucify Jesus as a law breaker.

Church school teacher is being physically abused by her deacon husband. She goes to the pastor for help. The pastor counsels the husband but he continues to beat her. So she divorces him. He goes to the church conference and complains that she divorced him without Biblical grounds because he had not committed adultery, so the conference fired her from her job. Now she is single and unemployed.

The conference and her husband saw the law as an imposed law, a set of rules to keep, rather than the Biblical truth that the law is the law of love, the design for life. Neither the conference nor her husband operated in harmony with the law of love. The Bible teaches that breaking the law in one point is breaking it in all points. The husband who beats his wife is committing adultery, because adultery is betrayal of love!

Last paragraph, "To be a follower of Christ is more than just the profession of faith; it involves a radical transformation into the likeness of Christ."

Thoughts?

What does that look like today?

January 10, 2011 13 y/o Jordan Rice, and little brother Blake were riding in the car with their mother Donna, when Donna drove the car into a flooded street in Toowoomba, Australia. The car stalled, and water began flooding into the car. The three of them climbed out onto the roof of the car and Donna called for help. Jordan was terrified of the water and couldn't swim, but when a rescuer came to rescue him he said, "save my brother first." The rescuer took Blake to safety but before he could return the car was swept away and Jordan and his mother drowned.

What does a follower of Christ look like, "Greater love has no man than he give his life for a friend." "This is how we know what love is Christ gave his life for us and we ought to give our lives for our brother."

Is this what a follower of Christ looks like? I actually don't know whether Jordan was a Christian or not – but was he revealing Christ? Can you reveal Christ without being a Christian? How? If a person loves others more than self, are they revealing Christ even if not a Christian?

Those whom Christ commends in the judgment may have known little of theology, but they have cherished His principles. Through the influence of the divine Spirit they have been a blessing to those about them. Even among the heathen are those who have cherished the spirit of kindness; before the words of life had fallen upon their ears, they have befriended the missionaries, even ministering to them at the peril of their own lives. Among the heathen are those who worship God ignorantly, those to whom the light is never brought by human instrumentality, yet they will not perish. Though ignorant of the written law of God, they have heard His voice speaking to them in nature, and have done the things that the law required. Their works are evidence that the Holy Spirit has touched their hearts, and they are recognized as the children of God. {DA 638.2}

How can this be? Because God's law is not a written law, it was only written on stone at Sinai, before that it was not written. It is the natural law of love! It is to be written on the heart. Any Biblical support for this idea?

All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³ For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous. ¹⁴ (Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law, they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law, ¹⁵ since they show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts now accusing, now even defending them.) ¹⁶ This will take place on the day when God will judge men's secrets through Jesus Christ, as my gospel declares. Romans 2:12-16

Thoughts?

MONDAY

First paragraph states, "Paul offers himself as an example of how the believers in Thessalonica should work to earn their own living and not be a burden to others." Thoughts?

Why do church leaders take so literally Paul's views on leadership of women in the church, but reject his view on leaders being self-supporting?

Should the leaders in the church have to provide their own income? What advantage would it be? What would be the disadvantage?

- Advantage –
 - it would undermine the division between laity and clergy, bringing the membership closer to leadership, and opening the door for more member led ministry
 - it would provide huge amounts of monies for ministry and spreading the gospel
 - it would change the landscape of who becomes clergy, increasing the number of people who have a heart for ministry and removing the career theologians and church politicians
 - could it result in less organizational infighting and more gospel promotion?
- Disadvantage
 - Potentially a less educated clergy
 - More work for the laity (is this really a disadvantage?)

Read last paragraph, “Although Paul...” thoughts?

- What makes a religion a law centered religion?
- Does Christianity today struggle with a law centered religion?

TUESDAY

The lesson speaks of putting the gospel into the context of the audience so they can connect with and understand it, read fourth paragraph, “Paul’s own...” thoughts?

What does this mean to you?

How might you contextualize the gospel today?

What would it mean to live lawless lives?

- Would it mean going to church on the “wrong” day?
- Would it mean eating cheese?
- Would it mean not loving others – like maybe firing a school teacher who divorced her husband for beating her?

In the story of the good Samaritan, Christ illustrates the nature of true religion. He shows that it consists not in systems, creeds, or rites, but in the performance of loving deeds, in bringing the greatest good to others, in genuine goodness. {DA 497.1}

How do we contextualize the gospel? We must first know the gospel – and what is the gospel? Love, what is love? The principle of beneficence or giving – and how do we put this into a language anyone can understand?

If a person doesn't believe in God how can you contextualize the gospel for that person?

WEDNESDAY

In the middle of the lesson it asks, "What might have been God's reasons for allowing Paul to suffer?" thoughts?

Why does God allow suffering of any kind?

What are the sources of suffering?

- Sin – self inflicted deviations from God's design for life
 - Poking a pencil in your eye brings suffering
 - Smoking – suffering
 - Jumping off a building - suffering
 - Not loving others brings suffering
 - Valuing rules over people brings suffering
 - Adultery brings suffering
 - Abusing yourself with alcohol and drugs brings suffering – and not just the suffering of an imposed penalty by local law enforcement - but how do parents who use drugs treat their children?
 - When we deviate from God's design suffering is unavoidable

- Selfish/evil intentional infliction of harm on another, to injure or exploit another. Joseph's brothers sold him into slavery. The innocent suffer at the hands of the selfish.
- Treatment of the problem
 - Once brokenness cannot heal without pain
 - Setting a bone
 - Overcoming an addiction
 - Resolving traumatic memories
 - Overcoming selfishness in the character
- Discipline – to protect and teach
- Warfare – we are in a war zone since Adam fell Satan and his agencies work to inflict pain and suffering
 - Job and his family and estate
 - Jesus in the wilderness and crucifixion
- Accidents – randomness, flaws, since this planet no longer operates in harmony with God's design
 - A ladder breaks and someone falls
 - A tire goes flat and a car wrecks
 - A genetic defect happens and a child is stillborn (who sinned that this man was born blind him or his parents? Neither!)

Why does God allow any of this?

- What are His options?
- Does God have the power to stop all pain and suffering and evil and sin?
- Yes, what would He have to do to achieve this?
- One method is to remove freedom and make everyone a robot, which would bring an end to all suffering, evil and sin, but would also destroy what? Love!
- Will God do this?
- The fact there is suffering in the world is evidence that God is truly love – that He will not, despite the cost of suffering, including the suffering of Himself and His own Son, use His power to restrict the liberty and freedom of His intelligent creatures! What does this say about God?
- Another method to remove all pain and suffering and evil and sin, is to demonstrate the truth in order to destroy lies and win us to trust, take our terminal condition upon Himself and achieve remedy, send His Spirit to administer His remedy into our hearts and minds, thus winning people freely to trust Him and then letting each person freely experience what they have chosen. "Let him who is righteous be righteous still. Let him who is wicked be wicked still."

So why does God allow suffering? Why doesn't He use His power to stop it right now?

THURSDAY

The lesson states, "Who hasn't experienced personally just how painful it can be to have to chastise someone, or in plain terms speak truths to them that – for whatever reason – they don't want to hear?"

When is it appropriate to chastise someone?

I saw that many have taken advantage of what God has shown in regard to the sins and wrongs of others. They have taken the extreme meaning of what has been shown in vision, and then have pressed it until it has had a tendency to weaken the faith of many in what God has shown, and also to discourage and dishearten the church. With tender compassion should brother deal with brother. Delicately should he deal with feelings. It is the nicest and most important work that ever yet was done to touch the wrongs of another. With the deepest humility should a brother do this, considering his own weakness, lest he also should be tempted. {1T 166.1}

I have seen the great sacrifice which Jesus made to sacrifice. Said Jesus: "Love one another, as I have loved you." Do you feel, when a brother errs, that you could give your life to save him? If you feel thus, you can approach him and affect his heart; you are just the one to visit that brother. But it is a lamentable fact that many who profess to be brethren, are not willing to sacrifice any of their opinions or their judgment to save a brother. There is but little love for one another. A selfish spirit is manifested. {1T 166.2}

FRIDAY

Discuss questions 1 and 2

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 10 4Q 2011

The Two Covenants

SABBATH

What do you understand the two covenants to be?

- Old and New? Which are what?
- Dispensation of law and grace?

What is a covenant? A contract? An agreement?

What did God covenant to do after man sinned?

- Save the species
- Provide a remedy to sin freely available to anyone
- Reveal the truth
- Save all who will let Him
- Bring an end to sin
- To make the earth new again

How much of this required the cooperation of mankind? A willing woman to be the vessel for Christ, and then individual cooperation for individual salvation – but what about the rest?

If no human being ultimately accepts God's offer of salvation, didn't God still save the human race/species? Yes, via Jesus who is fully human. And didn't He provide a free remedy to sin? And didn't He reveal the truth? And won't He bring an end to sin? And won't He remake the earth?

The lesson rightly states, "The two covenants are not matters of time; instead they are reflective of human attitudes."

What are those attitudes?

- I can cure myself
- I trust myself into God's hands and accept His remedy

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “The Hebrew word...”

What do you hear being described?

A covenant is an agreement, contract, or treaty – now with this in mind read the last paragraph, “While marriage...”

Thoughts?

Several good things in this paragraph, like Adam and Eve’s natural desires were to live in harmony with God and do right, and sin was unnatural and God had to restore the relationship that was lost.

What is the major error in this paragraph, which infects Christian thought and contributes to misunderstand of God and the plan of salvation?

What is a covenant? A contract, agreement or treaty, which necessarily require what? The mutual consent of both parties. Are such agreements based on natural law or based on the desires, goals, wishes, wants of the two parties involved?

Regarding, God’s warning in Eden, “in the day you eat of the tree you will surely die.” Was this a contract, agreement, treaty i.e. “covenant of creation,” or was it a warning of how the universe is built and if you exercise your freedom to step out of harmony with this design life cannot continue?

If God had taken them to the top of the Empire State building and said, “In the day you jump you will surely die.” Is this a contract, treaty or agreement? Or is it merely the statement of reality – no agreement or contract necessary.

What happens if we believe what happened in Eden was a covenant, a contract, or treaty?

- Then we immediately put God back into the role of enforcer of breeches of the contract, or treaty.
- He now must sue, or prosecute or punish, or destroy because the contract was broken.
- Why would those who broke contracts in the ancient Near East be killed like the animal? Because it would automatically happen, or because it would be imposed upon them?
- What concept of God does the idea of “the covenant of creation” create?
- It creates the distorted idea that there is no natural consequence of sin, just as there is no natural consequence to breaking a contract, the problem with breaking a contract is the enforced penalties that come from such a breach. So, God must enforce punishment upon sinners.

But when we understand God’s law is the law of life that He constructed the universe to operate upon then we realize God’s warning in Eden was not a covenant, but a mere education on the reality of how the universe was built and what was necessary to live in harmony with life.

So specifically, the covenant of creation –

- Marriage, as God designed it in Eden, not how it functions in sinful beings – a natural law, part of God’s design, or contract law? Can love exist without someone to love? Marriage, as God designed, is not contract law, it is part of humanity’s design, just as reproduction, is built into our biology and design, and we don’t have to get a contract, or treaty to have children, neither was marriage, originally, a contract issue. This is why Adam said, “bone of my bone, flesh of my flesh.” He understood Eve was built, constructed, to be his life partner in love. The two of them were built to love each other and did so automatically, freely, without the need of a prenuptial agreement or a marriage license.

- Physical labor – a contract issue, God contracted with Adam to keep and tend the garden? Or God built His universe to exist on the principle of giving, and work, physical labor, is the giving of one's energy to tend, manage, help, etc. and in so doing the one who works gets stronger. This again is part of God's natural design for life.
- Sabbath – contract law, rule put in force to obey, or expression of natural law? The Sabbath is a gift of love from God to mankind and the onlooking universe who learn of God from what happens on planet earth (1Cor 4:9). As a gift of love it is not a contract, rule, or treaty, but an expression of love, which reveals the character of the One who gave it.

It is Satan who wants to turn every aspect of God's character of love, into some legal, contractual, rules oriented idea so that we will conceive of God as an severe imposer of law and punishing judge.

MONDAY

What did God covenant with Abraham to do? To make a great nation from Abraham's descendants and through one of his descendants bless the entire world.

Was this a new covenant with mankind, or merely a further revelation of the covenant with humanity in Eden, but now God identifies the specific gene pool through which the covenant would be fulfilled? Didn't God already make this covenant in Genesis 3 when He promised a Savior to crush the serpent's head?

So now we have God specifically announcing through which family the Savior would come, but the covenant, agreement, is not new.

And what is the agreement, treaty, or promise? It is all a promise of what God will do to save and heal mankind and destroy sin and sinners.

What did God do in order to provide Abram with confidence that God would follow through? He went through a human ritual of cutting animals in half and walking between them, symbolically saying if I break my promise let this happen to me.

What does it say about God that He would be willing to do this?

Do you like a God who is willing to stoop to meet us where we are in order to heal and save? Can you trust a God like this?

Why did Abram need this extra assurance? Abram was 75 years old and apparently doubted his and his wife's fertility, and this subsequently meant He doubted God could do what He said.

Read bottom pink section, "What are..." thoughts? Why does it seem impossible, whatever the issue is? Might it be because we are thinking through the lens of human ability, strength, perspective and limiting God with our understanding? If we understood more of God, His universe, His methods, principles, His abilities, character, nature etc. would we doubt as much? And would the things He does or ask seem as impossible?

So would our growth in understanding and knowing God undermine or strengthen our faith in God?

So the problem of doubt arises in our ignorance, or misunderstanding about God! And the solution is to know God, just as Jesus taught!

TUESDAY

Read first two paragraphs, “Hagar’s...” thoughts?

The lesson asserts that Abram failed to believe God’s promise – what promise would that be?

In Genesis 12 God promises to make a great nation from Abram’s descendants, did this promise indicate those descendants would be through Sarai?

10 years later, when Abram is 85, he has the following conversation with God. This was after rescuing Lot.

But Abram said, “O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?” ³ And Abram said, “You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir.”

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came to him: “This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir.” ⁵ He took him outside and said, “Look up at the heavens and count the stars—if indeed you can count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”
Gen 15:2-5

God promises descendants from Abraham’s body, does this promise indicate it will be with Sarai?

When do we find the first word from God that the promised child would be from Sarai? After Ishmael was born. If it was accepted custom, as the lesson states, that a slave woman could legally bear a child for her mistress, how did Abram’s action fail to believe God’s promise that his descendants would be more numerous than the stars?

The lesson states Abram had a lapse in faith, given the nature of the promises, and the understanding of marriage and concubines at the time, what do you think?

Did Abram fail to believe God? If Abram didn't believe he would have descendants, didn't believe God had promised to make a great nation and bless all nations through his descendants, would he have likely taken Hagar? Wasn't it precisely because he and Sarai did believe God's promise that from Abram's body a great nation would arise, but they doubted Sarai's ability to be the mother of his child, that they acted the way they did?

So it appears Abram did believe God's promise of a great nation etc, but didn't trust God to bring it about without Abram instituting his own plan to help God achieve it.

This is another place where belief in God gets derailed in practice by human tradition! Notice, Abram believed God, but when it came time to put that belief into practice, his actions were derailed by human tradition, with devastating consequences!

This is what happened to the Jews in Christ's day. They still believed in God, but their actions had been derailed by human tradition. And what happened, devastating consequences of crucifying Christ.

And today, Christianity, believes in God but in practice has been infected with human tradition, and with what consequences? Paul says:

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. ² People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³ without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, ⁴ treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God— ⁵ having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.
2Tim 3:1-5.

And Jesus said,

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²² Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?’ ²³ Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’ Mt 7:21-23

What is the problem? Accepting traditional views of God’s character, God’s law, and God’s methods, accepting traditional views of atonement.

When we substitute God’s design, for human tradition in attempting to fulfill God’s purposes tragic results always happen – Abram did it, the Jews did it, and now Christianity is suffering with the same problem.

So, why did Paul take such a disparaging view of Hagar and her son? He is criticizing the idea that we can do anything to free ourselves from sin, it is only through the grace, miracle, intervention of God through the promised Son that we can be free of sin. It is only in harmony with God’s design, His methods, that we can be healed. Paul is making the case that one who is a slave cannot inherit the estate? And no amount of work can change that.

Thus as Isaac was the promised son of the freewoman, and therefore, able to inherit the estate, Jesus is the promised Son of God, and through His accomplishments inherits all that humanity was to receive from God when God created humanity. And it is through Christ, the promised seed of Abraham, that all nations are blessed and we, through this promised Son become partakers of the divine nature and share in that inheritance.

WEDNESDAY

Read top dark section, “What type...” thoughts?

First sentence of first paragraph states, “God desired to share the same covenant relationship with the children of Israel at Sinai that He shared with Abraham.”

If that is so, why did God say to Israel at Sinai,

“Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” Exodus 19:5,6.

With Abraham God promised to do everything, to make a great nation, to bless all the peoples of the earth through Him, but here God tells Moses to tell the people, “If you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then...” Is this same covenant He made with Abraham?

Why did God say this to them? How did they respond to this proposition by God?

The people all responded together, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” Exodus 19:8

What does this answer reveal? The lack of insight, awareness, understanding the people had about their own condition of sinfulness. They actually thought they could do it. It would be like someone coming to you and saying, if you jump out a window and fly around the building flapping your arms, then I will make a great nation out of you. And you respond by saying, “I will do that” and then jump out the window.

Why did God do this? Did God know their hearts? Did He know how they would respond? Then why did He do this? Because they needed to be brought to understand their own inability to heal themselves, change themselves, fix themselves and thus rely wholeheartedly on God. This was designed to very quickly bring them to realize they were helpless over sin in their lives and their lives were out of control.

Read first two paragraphs from Friday's lesson and I will include the missing paragraph from between the two quoted there:

But if the Abrahamic covenant contained the promise of redemption, why was another covenant formed at Sinai? In their bondage the people had to a great extent lost the knowledge of God and of the principles of the Abrahamic covenant. In delivering them from Egypt, God sought to reveal to them His power and His mercy, that they might be led to love and trust Him. He brought them down to the Red Sea--where, pursued by the Egyptians, escape seemed impossible--that they might realize their utter helplessness, their need of divine aid; and then He wrought deliverance for them. Thus they were filled with love and gratitude to God and with confidence in His power to help them. He had bound them to Himself as their deliverer from temporal bondage. {PP 371.2}

But there was a still greater truth to be impressed upon their minds. Living in the midst of idolatry and corruption, they had no true conception of the holiness of God, of the exceeding sinfulness of their own hearts, their utter inability, in themselves, to render obedience to God's law, and their need of a Saviour. All this they must be taught. {PP 371.3}

God brought them to Sinai; He manifested His glory; He gave them His law, with the promise of great blessings on condition of obedience: "If ye will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then . . . ye shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation." Exodus 19:5, 6. The people did not realize the sinfulness of their own hearts, and that without Christ it was impossible for them to keep God's law; and they readily entered into covenant with God. Feeling that they were able to establish their own righteousness, they declared, "All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient." Exodus 24:7... Yet only a few weeks passed before they broke their covenant with God, and bowed down to worship a graven image. They could not hope for the favor of God through a covenant which they had broken; and now, seeing their sinfulness and their need of pardon, they were brought to feel their need of the Saviour revealed in the Abrahamic covenant and shadowed forth in the sacrificial offerings. Now by faith and love they were bound to God as their deliverer from the bondage of sin. Now they were prepared to appreciate the blessings of the new covenant. {PP 371.4}

Do you see how God stoops to meet us where we are, to lead us through experiences designed to open our minds to our own condition, so that we will cooperate with Him for healing and transformation?

How long was the Old Covenant at Sinai in force? Just a few weeks and it was broken and void and from that point onward all the Old Testament was to be an experience of the New Covenant!

What happened? Why didn't they experience the New Covenant?

What about today? How many look back on Sinai and fail to see its purpose and instead see a harsh, severe, punishing God who puts rules on His people and punishes disobedience?

The last paragraph in Wednesday states, "The covenant at Sinai was intended to point out the sinfulness of humanity and the remedy of God's abundant grace, which were typified in the sanctuary service."

Love the use of "remedy" by the lesson, absolutely right! But, did the people understand the meaning of the sanctuary service as a remedy for sin, or did they see it instead as a system of legal payment and appeasement?

Do we struggle with the same problem?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul’s brief sketch...” thoughts? Do Christians today struggle with similar misunderstanding about what makes one a true son of Abraham?

To whom do you think the great nation, multitude of descendants God promised Abram is referring? Is it the genetic descendants or those with character like Abraham?

Is it taught in some circles, that genetic biological descent from Abraham gives one some special right with God? What does the Bible say about this?

John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ⁹ The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.” Lk 3:7-9.

Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. ³⁵ Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever. ³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷ I know you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are ready to kill me, because you have no room for my word. ³⁸ I am telling you what I have seen in the Father’s presence, and you do what you have heard from your father.”

³⁹ “Abraham is our father,” they answered.

“If you were Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then you would do the things Abraham did.” ⁴⁰ As it is, you are determined to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things. ⁴¹

You are doing the things your own father does.”

“We are not illegitimate children,” they protested. “The only Father we have is God himself.”

Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. ⁴³ Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. ⁴⁴ You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. ⁴⁵ Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! ⁴⁶ Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe me? ⁴⁷ He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God.” Jn 8:34-48

It is not as though God’s word had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. ⁷ Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham’s children. On the contrary, “It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.” ⁸ In other words, it is not the natural children who are God’s children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham’s offspring. Rom 9:6-8

If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise. GAL 3:29

This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus. Eph 3:6

We again have two messages, two views, two possibilities,

- the biological, genetic descendants of Abraham are somehow special and have a different and unique path to God from the rest of us, or
- they were blessed by God to be the family through which the Messiah would arrive on earth, yet God is the Father of all humanity, not just the Jews and all humanity is blessed through Christ and it is only through Christ that any are saved, Jew or Gentile

What do each of these views say about God? If the first is true what kind of God would God be?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-3

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 11 4Q 2011

Freedom in Christ

SABBATH

Read first paragraph, “In Galatians...” thoughts?

What do you understand freedom in Christ to be?

What are we free to do?

- Are we free to smoke?
- Are we free to drink?
- Are we free to do drugs?
- Are we free to eat gluttonously?
- Are we free to commit adultery?
- Are we free to hate people who are different from us?
- Are we free to be bigots, racists, sexists, elitists?
- Are we free to believe in a God who is punitive and wrathful?
- Are we free to reject the idea of God altogether?

Do we have the freedom to do all of these things?

What is the problem with exercising one’s freedom in these ways?

Why, if we exercise our freedoms in this we are we no longer free in Christ?

Because We LOSE our Freedom!

- We become enslaved to drugs, alcohol, tobacco,
- We lose our health so we are less free to exercise, walk, ski, climb, help around the house, minister to others, witness Christ
- We become obese and are less free to bend, lift, walk, ride...

- We become enslaved in our minds to distorted concepts are unable to relate freely to others, we are imprisoned by distorted God concept and cannot represent God correctly...

But, in Christ, are we free to:

- Stop our addictions?
- Live healthier lives?
- Give of ourselves to bless others?
- Give our time, money, ingenuity, energy to promote the truth about God?
- Are we free to love others?

And what happens if we exercise our freedom of choice in this way? We gain more freedom, ability, autonomy, health, wisdom, capacity for love!

Read second paragraph, "Paul addresses..." thoughts?

The lesson points out two dangers, legalism, defined as trying to earn God's favor through works, and abusing our freedom in Christ and becoming licentious.

Thoughts?

Is one who lives licentiously actually free in Christ? How could one think one could be free in Christ while living a life of sin? If one assumes a legal model of salvation, then one can live a licentious life, violent life, arrogant, bigoted, sexist life claiming their legal penalty has been paid while they are free to continue in sinful living.

Haven't you heard things like:

- Jesus freed me from the penalty of the law
- I was saved at 14, it doesn't matter what I do now. Jesus paid for all my sins past present and future.

- When we accept Christ we don't stop sinning

How can one believe they are in Christ while continue to live sinfully?

By believing a legal model of salvation, which is what the church of the Dark Ages taught. We sin, but we can have a legal payment made, either by ourselves by paying money to the church, or doing penance, or by Christ paying His blood to the Father. Either way, we live in sin and get our legal penalty paid.

When one understands the true nature of God's universe, His law of love, then one realizes true freedom only exists in a life united with Christ in heart, mind, method and motive. True freedom exists only in those who have experienced radical transformation of heart such that they are free to love, rather than live in fear and selfishness. Freedom exists when we are united with Christ in loving God and others more than self!

When one surrenders to God, can they live a life free from sin?

We are studying Galatians 5:1-15 this week, let's read verses 13-16:

You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love. ¹⁴ The entire law is summed up in a single command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵ If you keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

¹⁶ So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

What is this saying? Is this saying, when you accept Christ's legal payment you will continue to gratify the sinful nature, but don't worry, Christ has paid your legal debt and you are free from punishment by the Father?

Or is it saying you are free from the dominating control of your own fear and selfishness which leads us into actions which violate God's design for life – the law of love?

Is it not true that when one opens the heart to Christ, the Holy Spirit comes in and there is a heart change, a change in the desires, motives, longings of the being, so that, when a mistake happens, when an old habit presents, when we impulsively, or reflexively lose our self-control and act selfishly out of habit, preconditioned response, impulse – our HEARTS ARE NOT IN IT! We are grieved in our own hearts and fall down repentant before God asking for further healing and transformation so we won't stumble like this again?

Notice, our hearts don't go on gratify the sinful nature when we live by the Spirit – even if we do stumble, our hearts are grieved, sickened and unhappy over this and we long to be delivered from this body so weak and corrupt.

And thus we choose, as God gives us wisdom, to make intelligent choices to overcome – we remove from our environment avenues which tempt, porn materials, alcohol, tobacco – we get into support groups, 12 step groups, we engage in ministries to help others, we spend time filling our minds and hearts with God's healing word.

Just as we would following our doctors instructions and intelligently apply his treatment plan, likewise when we no longer want such sickness of heart, we follow God's plan for our healing and transformation.

SUNDAY

Read memory verse at top,

“Stand fast therefore in liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”
Gal 5:1

What do you hear? “Hold your ground! Don’t waiver! Don’t move! Don’t fall back! You are free –

- free to love,
- free from working to cure yourself,
- free from fear and insecurity,
- free from fear of God punishing you,
- free from the distortions of Satan’s lies about God.
- Don’t fall back into believing your remedy in Christ is insufficient, or God requires some work on your part to cure you, or that if you don’t accept Christ God will punish and torture you. Don’t let your minds be enslaved with falsehood, doubts, lies and distortions about God!”

Read last two paragraphs, “Paul’s words...” thoughts?

Why do you think Paul uses this phraseology? Was it to communicate that our freedom is a legal price paid to an Imperial authority to purchase our freedom from a slave master?

This idea is what Christianity communicates and this idea is what keeps millions in bondage!

We are enslaved, not primarily by our sinful condition, but by God who has imprisoned us on Cosmic Death Row, and is threatening to execute us for eternity, if someone doesn’t pay our death penalty to the Universal Executioner.

What enslaves us? God’s government? Satan? We are enslaved by our carnal natures and the lies we believe about God that prevent us from knowing and trusting Him.

Then what is the price to set us free? The truth about God which destroys the lies in our minds and wins us back to trust, AND a new, humanity, cleansed and perfected back to God’s original design, which was achieved by and in Christ!

Paul wants his audience to understand that they are really free, just as free as a slave is free. Free from what enslaves them. The bondage of a literal slave is imposed by the rules of slavery of that government. Such slavery is arbitrary and has an arbitrary law which enforces it. We are enslaved by our own condition of sinfulness and it is our inability to heal ourselves and put ourselves back in harmony with God's design for life which enslaves us.

The people of Paul's day were familiar with slavery and what it would mean to the slave to be free, thus he uses this as an example, but we must not be overly literal. God's government is not like human governments and thus to concretize this example distorts the divine government, which is exactly what happened when Imperialism infected Christianity, and we are still trying to free ourselves from it.

MONDAY

Read second paragraph, "This pattern..." thoughts? What does, "We know that our old self was crucified with him," mean?

What was crucified with Christ?

Our old self, which is what?

What does this language mean in practical terms?

Does it mean that all recorded sins, past, present and future were laid upon Christ at the Cross and judicial punishment was inflicted upon Him to punish Him in the place of all humans to exact retribution and assuage God's wrath?

Does it mean that Christ took upon Himself our sinful condition and at the Cross Christ destroyed that terminal condition? Our old self was crucified in Christ when Christ overcame as a human being by loving perfectly?

This week one of our online class members, Eric Hillis, emailed me a Hebrew literal translation of Isaiah 53, listen to verses 3-6:

3. One being despised and shunned of men. A man of pains, and one being known of illness. And as [we] conceal[ed] [our] faces from him, one being despised and we did not account him.

4. Surely, our illnesses, he carried/bore and he was burdened with our pains, and we accounted him one being touched one being smitten of God and one being humbled.

5. And he from being wounded from our transgressions, and from being crushed from our depravities. The discipline/admonition of our well-being/peace [was] upon him. And in the welts/stripes of him, he is healed to us (i.e. we consider that the welts/stripes are "healing" him, or for his good).

6. All of us, as the flock we strayed. Man, to his/our way he/we faced/turned. And the LORD, in him, intercedes [with] all of us/our depraved/depravity.

<http://www.scripture4all.org/OnlineInterlinear/OTpdf/isa53.pdf>

In the fourth paragraph it states,

“The context suggests that Paul is referring to freedom from the bondage and condemnation of a law-driven Christianity.”
Do we struggle with such problems today?

How does a law-driven Christianity manifest itself today?

- Believing one cannot go to heaven if goes to church on the wrong day?
- Believing one can be saved by eating the right foods? Or one can be lost by eating the wrong foods?
- Giving tithe in order to get blessings and make more money?
- Believing your legal penalty for sin has been paid by Christ’s blood? How does such a belief affect the believer?
- Believing the records of your sins, when you accept the legal payment, are erased from heaven’s record. What does such a belief do to the believer?

Other ways we have a law-driven Christianity?

What is supposed to drive our Christianity? The law of love, which is giving, beneficence, loving others more than self!

TUESDAY

Read first sentence second paragraph, “The first consequence of trying to earn God’s favor by submitting to circumcision is that it obligates the person to keep the entire law.”

Thoughts? What do you think? What ideas are connoted in this sentence? Are there any problems with this entire thread?

Questions that came to me as I read this sentence were:

- Did we earn God’s favor by putting His Son on the Cross and offering God His Son’s blood?
- Can we earn God’s favor?
- Did Christ die in order to earn God’s favor?
- Was it ever necessary for any being to earn God’s favor?
- What does the idea imply about God to even suggest it was necessary to earn God’s favor?
- On the other side, is the lesson suggesting we are not obligated to keep the entire law?
- Is the lesson suggesting that when we accept Christ we are not expected to live in harmony with the law?
- What law?

Jesus replied: “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ ³⁸ This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ⁴⁰ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” Matt 22:37-40

Thoughts? Are we not expected to live in harmony with all God’s law?

Are we obligated to breathe if we want to live? Are we not obligated then to keep God’s law?

So what is Paul talking about when he says that if we allow ourselves to be circumcised then we are required to keep the entire law?

Here is my paraphrase of Galatians 5:2-4:

Gal 5:2 Now listen carefully, I, Paul want to make this extremely clear: if you included circumcision as a necessary element in the remedy to sin and selfishness, then you dispel Christ and nullify the true remedy he brought. 3 I say it again, any man who is circumcised as a means of healing from selfishness and sin, is choosing a course without Christ's free remedy and thus is required to heal and cure himself. 4 Those of you who are trying to be healed and set right with God by observing a set of rules or rituals have rejected Christ and his methods which heal; you have rejected God's graciousness and accepted a false remedy.

Fourth paragraph states, "Paul's third objection to circumcision is that it hinders spiritual growth."

How? Why?

Circumcision as a means of salvation, closes the mind to God's Spirit, truth, and darkens the understanding.

What things are done in Christianity today that hinder spiritual growth?

- God said it, I believe it, that settles it
- We don't ask questions we believe on faith without understanding or evidence
- Accepting an Imperial Roman concept of God's government with an imposed law, imposed legal penalties, and a legal system of salvation in which God is required to legally pay our penalty
- Others?

Wednesday

First paragraph asks, “How should a person who is not saved by works of the law live?” thoughts?

Why?

- How should a person, with pneumonia, who is not cured by working, but by taking antibiotics, live?
 - Should they smoke?
 - Should they aspirate food?
 - Should they breathe asbestos infested air?
 - If they are healed by antibiotics, and they are taking their antibiotics, why shouldn't they smoke, aspirate food or breathe asbestos infected air?

Isn't this the same reason why those who are healed by trusting their lives and hearts into God's hand not live licentious lives?

Or is it that if one lives a “sinful” life they don't actually damage their character, warp their reason, sear their conscious and destroy the faculties sensitive to the Spirit of God, but instead they form a list of legal offenses that require punishment by the governor of the universe?

Here is a major problem for our young people with penal model substitutionary theology, and why many leave the church or end up in wild living – listen to a couple of questions submitted to me by Collegedale Academy students regarding sex.

- If God will forgive you then why can't you have sex before marriage?
- If you plan on marrying someone after being with them for a very long time is it sinful to have sex? And is God angry with us even though you love that person beyond description? And if you pray together and love God then how is it wrong?

- What is revealed by these questions?
- What concept do these high school students have of God and sin?
- Why do they think sin is wrong?
- Because it either breaks God's law or gets God angry at us – and thus, if that is the problem, then we don't need to modify our lives, we need to fix God, and how do we do that?
- We appease Him with His Son's blood, while we go on living in sin, this is what penal substitution theology does in the minds of our young people.

So how do we answer their questions?

- Is the sin problem God's attitude or our condition?
- If your parents will forgive you for not brushing your teeth why brush them?
- I have a patient who prays for healthy lungs but smokes a pack of cigarettes per day – how could smoking be wrong if she prays?
 - I am not angry at my patient for smoking, but is my anger the problem?
 - Prayer doesn't void your choice or change God's laws
 - God's forgiveness doesn't prevent the damage from ongoing violations of His design for life (sin)

THURSDAY

Read top dark section and first paragraph, - thoughts?

What do you think of the answer to the difference between doing the law and fulfilling the law? What do you understand the difference to be?

What about the last sentence regarding trying to earn God's approval for doing what the law requires? Does God approve of doing what the law forbids?

Read the last paragraph, "Although it is..." thoughts, what would prompt such a conclusion as the last sentence? Do you hear a gross misunderstanding of God's law?

Their statement of "the law and love are not incompatible" is just like saying, "breathing and life are not incompatible." It is foolish. The reality the law is love, and until Christianity realizes that God's law is love, the design principle life is built upon, we will struggle with a confused theology and distorted picture of God. Consider the pink section at the bottom:

"What's easier, and why: to love others or simply obey the Ten Commandments?"

Again, what is the problem with this question? Love is fulfillment of the law! You cannot obey the 10 Commandment without loving others it is impossible.

FRIDAY

Read first two paragraphs, thoughts? What is our role in working out our salvation?

Read question #3 – thoughts? This is like a patient who wants medications to help cure his lungs so he can smoke more, or a liver transplant so he can drink more.

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 12, 4Q 2011

Living By The Spirit

Memory Verse, “But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.” Galatians 5:16

Do you believe it?

What does it mean to “walk by the Spirit”?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “Walking...” thoughts?

Do you like the idea that Christianity is not merely a set of beliefs, doctrines, or concepts but a way of life?

How would you describe that way of life?

Read second paragraph, “Conduct in the Old...” thoughts?

Do you agree? Was the Old Testament “walking” in the law?

Does it sound like this paragraph is supporting the idea of a split dispensation, a dispensation of law in the Old Testament, and a dispensation of grace in the New Testament? Is walking in the law different than walking in the Spirit? What if we define the law as the law of love? Walking in the Spirit, is always walking in the law of love, is it not?

But when we assume an “Imposed” law, a set of arbitrary rules, then walking in the law takes on an entire different meaning. This is how the lesson seems to understand walking in the law. And thus they see the Old Testament different than the New, but was it really?

- Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away. Genesis 5:24

- Was Enoch walking in a system of rules?
- Was he walking in the Spirit?
- Was he walking in the law of love?
- Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God. Genesis 6:9
 - Was Noah walking in a legal system of rules?
 - Was he walking in the Spirit?
 - Was he walking in the law of love?
- Then he blessed Joseph and said, “May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day... Genesis 48:15
 - Did Abraham and Isaac walk in a legal set of rules?
 - Did they walk with the Lord? In the law of love?
- God said to Israel,
 - Walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess. Dt 5:33-6:1

What do you think this means? Is God saying, “Walk in the legal system of rules, and if you do, then I will use my power to miraculously make good things happen for you”?

Or is, God saying, “Live in harmony with the laws I built the universe to run upon, which the ordinances are designed to teach you, and you will prosper as you thrive in harmony with my design”?

- And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul... DT 10:12

What does this mean? Does this sound like walking in the law? Where does this idea of walking in a legal system of rules come from?

Satan – Satan is a legalist. Satan has worked from the beginning to distort God’s law away from the natural law He built the universe to run upon, to a system of rules imposed by God so that he could misconstrue God’s character as one of an arbitrary judge and rule enforcer.

Now, God did give much law at Sinai – if He is not an imposer of law, if He does not want rule observance and is not a rule enforcer, than how are we to understand His use of such law in the Old Testament?

It was added to diagnose and protect, very much like a parent who sets rules for children, brush your teeth, no sweets before bedtime, no theatrical television... why?

Because children don’t understand the natural law their health is built to operate upon and will ignorantly live out of harmony with God’s design bringing pain and suffering.

Parents set rules for children, waiting for the children to grow up and understand the reasons, understand the natural law the rules were based upon and freely live in harmony with God’s design and then the rules are no longer needed.

What a wonderful God we have who would stoop to help us in such a way. Yet, Satan has twisted God’s actions and people see God through the lens of a law imposer and enforcer and live in fear and dread of Him.

MONDAY

The lesson focuses us on the conflict between the carnal nature and the spiritual nature, read first paragraph, “The struggle...”

What do you think? What is this battle about?

From my paraphrase:

Gal 5:16 So I tell you plainly: Live by the methods and power of the Spirit and you will not practice the selfish, survival-of-the-fittest methods. 17 For the selfish nature desires to promote self at the expense of everyone and everything else and this is exactly the opposite of the Spirit of love, and the Spirit of love desires to promote the good of everyone else at any expense to himself. The selfish nature and the Spirit of love are diametrically opposed to each other, so that if you follow the Spirit of love you will no longer do what your selfish nature wants. 18 Therefore, if you practice the methods of the Spirit, you no longer need to be quarantined and supervised by the written law.

How do we experience this?

Because of Adam's sin, we are born wired with fear and insecurity. Our brains are out of balance. We are wired to watch out for self, survival of the fittest. The New Testament speaks of dying to self, of having our brains rewired. In the Old Testament David wrote a Psalm that describes this process.

Ps 23:

- The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want
 - God is watching out for me and I don't need to worry about where my support will come from. He will provide all my soul needs.
- He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside the still waters
 - He will first provide soul nurturance, support, sustenance to strengthen me and prepare me
- He restores my soul
 - He will heal my inner man, cleanse my conscience, and restore my individuality
- He leads me in the path of righteousness for his name sake
 - He will lead me in the path which restores me to righteousness, the path that makes me right inside, like He originally intended, so that He and His ways will be glorified in my life

- When I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for you are with me.
 - He, then, after providing for me, strengthening me, cleansing my conscience, removing my guilt, restoring my individuality, leads me in the path to ultimate righteousness, the path which is through the valley that feels like I am going to die. The valley in which self surrenders and is crucified, the valley which frees me from the domination of fear and selfishness.
- Your rod and staff comfort me
 - He comforts me with his shepherd's rod and staff, which is used by the shepherd to beat back my attackers, and lift me out of the ditch when I fall
- You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies
 - With my critics and accusers and enemies all around He provides me a rich bounty of spiritual food to strengthen and develop my soul
- You anoint my head with oil
 - He provides His Spirit to enlighten, cleanse, renew, and give wisdom
- My cup runs over
 - My heart, renewed, cleansed, and freed from fear and selfishness runs over with love for God and my fellow man
- Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life
 - Living a life of love results in goodness and mercy following in my wake wherever I go
- I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever
 - And, having been recreated by God I will forever be a living stone in the Lord's heavenly temple!

This is God's plan, to heal and restore us, in reality!
 What counterfeits exist in the world to God's plan to overcome through the Spirit?

Eastern mysticism, what does Eastern mysticism offer and why is it becoming so popular in the west?

We are wired with fear and insecurity because of sin. Fear results in activation of the stress pathways, which result in multiple health problems like ulcers, high blood pressure, heart disease, stroke, irritability, depression, dementia etc.

Eastern religions have as a primary part of their worship experience focused meditation in which the mind focuses on emptiness and nothingness. Such meditation results in calming the fear circuitry and thus results in improved physical health.

Because eastern meditation is documented to provide measurable positive effect on health it is making inroads into the west and Christianity.

Strengths of Eastern Meditation:

1. Multiple studies document it has beneficial health effects, reduces heart rate, blood pressure, anxiety, improves depression, better recovery from illness, less pain after surgery.
2. Improves attention, concentration and performance in school

These results are better than what is experienced by traditional Christianity – why?

Because traditional Christianity teaches a false system of beliefs infected by Imperial Rome, with an imposed law, imposed penalties, punishing and wrathful God, all of which incites fear and activates the fear circuits of the brain resulting in worsening physical and mental health.

Fear inducing religions, activating fear circuits, inflame the system – as soon as Adam and Eve sinned they ran and hid because they were afraid. Perfect love casts out fear. The Christianity taught by Jesus was a love based Christianity, which removed fear. But Christianity, after being infected by Imperial Rome's imposed law and government concepts, became a beastly religion of power, might, threats, and projected this concept onto God who is a cruel judge, who must use His power to torture and destroy.

Such concepts are damaging to mind and body.

If eastern meditation is inconsistent with God's principles then why do we see positive health benefits and what are its weaknesses?

The way the brain is wired is that the prefrontal cortex is designed to calm the fear circuits. Eastern meditations result in activation of the prefrontal cortex, with subsequent calming of the fear circuitry, and thus the positive benefits seen above because of the decreased activation of the stress cascade.

But, the problem is that this mediation

- doesn't enhance understanding of God's universe, provide insight into the human dilemma, or bring truth into the mind.
- It doesn't bring us to a knowledge of God, His methods, principles.
- It doesn't result in the death to "self" and the experiencing of a new heart and Christlike character.
- It doesn't resolve the distorted beliefs with the truth.
- It does not create a trust relationship with the Creator
- It promotes a greater self-centered focus on one's own ability to heal and fix oneself
- It doesn't recreate the Spirit Temple into God's dwelling place, useful for God to enlighten and shine through with saving truth in a dying world.
- Thus, its function is to stunt the growth of the individual, impair true enlightenment and avoid the experience of unity with Christ.

- It undermines individuality for the transcendent experience of unity with cosmos.
- Eastern mysticism also fails to understand the real problem, what is wrong with us, and thus its interventions come up short.

From our perspective, we understand God's law of love as the design template of life, and sin is lawlessness, or being selfish and out of harmony with God's design. We understand that in us there are two antagonistic principles at war, other centered love and survival of the fittest.

We understand that conversion is not the process of meditation to calm the fear circuitry, but following our Shepherd into the "valley of the shadow of death" in which we die to self.

This is a time of great anguish and anxiety - (Jacob's night of wrestling, Gethsemane, Peter after his denial, David after Nathan confronted him etc.). It is in this anguish, as we confront the truth, intelligently, wrestling with our own selfishness and ultimately surrender to Christ that we experience His love, supernatural regeneration, a new set of motives in the heart and freedom from fear based living.

Few Christians experience this because they have accepted the false system of legal payment instead of God's plan of recreation and regeneration of heart. Thus, the Eastern philosophies, which have the ability to actual cause calming of the fear circuitry is experienced as more "real" and beneficial in our life today than traditional Christianity, because traditional Christianity has been infected with a false "remedy."

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

In light of what we just discussed, read last paragraph, "In this context...” thoughts?

What corrupt views of God do we struggle with that interfere with experiencing God’s healing in our lives?

Why do false views of God lead to loss of eternal life?

Lies believed break the circle of love and trust, resulting in fear and selfishness. If we don’t know God we won’t trust Him!

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, “The Ten Commandments...” thoughts?

Does something in this paragraph seem slightly off? Is there something about how this is stated that seems not quite right?

For instance, might it be more accurate to say, the law is love, rather than “love is not in conflict with the law”?

Do the 10 Commandments ever get voided?

Do the 10 Commandments ever become obsolete? When?

When the law is written on the heart and mind and the entire universe is cleansed from sin, the Commandments are not voided, but they are obsolete, why? Because once they are written in the Spirit Temple, they are no longer needed on stone. When everyone is healthy we no longer need the MRI.

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph – “Although an inward...” thoughts?

Is this exactly true, or a qualified truth?

For instance, are there times in the life of the believer where an internal battle rages, but are there other times in the life of the believer where there is genuine peace and no internal battle?

Can we live victorious over the fears and insecurities and habits of our life of sin?

Do we have a role to play or is something done in us, with our consent but, without our effort?

Here is how one of the founders of our church put it:

- While God was working in Daniel and his companions "to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13), they were working out their own salvation. Herein is revealed the outworking of the divine principle of cooperation, without which no true success can be attained. Human effort avails nothing without divine power; and without human endeavor, divine effort is with many of no avail. To make God's grace our own, we must act our part. His grace is given to work in us to will and to do, but never as a substitute for our effort. {LHU 193.4}
- We are laborers together with God. This is the Lord's own wise arrangement. The cooperation of the human will and endeavor with divine energy is the link that binds men up with one another and with God. The apostle says, "We are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building" (1 Corinthians 3:9). Man is to work with the facilities God has given him. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," He says. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12, 13).--MS 113, 1898. {2MCP 694.3}
- There are two grand forces at work in the salvation of the human soul. It requires the cooperation of man with the divine agencies-- divine influences, and a strong, living, working faith. It is in this way only that the human agent can become a laborer together with God. The Lord does not sanction in any one of us a blind, stupid credulity. He does not dishonor the human understanding, but, far from this, He calls for the human will to be brought into connection with the divine will. He calls for the ingenuity of the human mind, the tact, the skill, to be strenuously exercised in searching out the truth as it is in Jesus. . . . Ye are labourers together with God. {OHC 310.5}

How do you see the relationship between Christ's work and our work?

- The Remedy to sin was fully achieved by Christ and no one else.
- We can do nothing to add to what Christ has done to save mankind, but, each person now must choose to open their heart in trust to receive from the Holy Spirit the benefit of Christ's victory in their life.
- Each person must wrestle out the truth in their own minds and confront the lies and misunderstandings they hold in their own minds.
- When we do this a supernatural transformation of character, desire, motive, and attitude takes place.
- In this process there is a daily, ongoing, and constant cooperative work of the individual with the Divine in which the person chooses to continue to follow the direction of the Heavenly Physician until they are one day fully healed and set free to be self-controlled beings operating on the law of love, which has been fully restored into the heart. (Heb 8:10).

FRIDAY

Read top paragraph, "The life of..." Why might the attacks become fiercer as we grow closer to the end? How are Satan's attacks different today than they were in the past?

The unfolding of knowledge, and scientific advancement, and increase in population all contribute to increasing temptation and damage to the human brain.

Consider:

- Designer drugs today, damage brain like never before in human history
- Alcohol, distilled spirits, more available, more forms, more potent
- Fast food, depleted of nutrients, multiple chemical additives, altering human health and physiology
- Pollution, undermining health.
- Internet and information access – increased availability of vices, gambling, perverse activities, lust for things, shopping, etc.
- Entertainment, movies, TV, altering developing brain with less developed prefrontal cortex and more impulsivity and aggression, as well as more mysticism, spiritualism, and normalizing of sinful/lawless living
- Dense cities with increased dens of crime, drugs, gangs, extortion, less time in nature, faster paced life, less time to reflect and meditate
- Normalization of non-marriage living arrangements, devaluing of marriage.
- Evolutionary theories and degradation of God
- Social isolation, families no longer living in multigenerational homesteads or towns

Others?

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 13 4Q 2011

The Gospel and the Church

SABBATH

Read the entire day starting with first paragraph, “Some potato farmers...” thoughts?

The state the farmers learned an important of the law of life, what legislation voted to enact this law?

What happens when you break such a law? Does the government have to have a court investigation, prosecution, sentencing and infliction of punishment?

Are there any lessons here regarding God’s law and sin?

Would any harm be done if we taught that a farmer who planted small potatoes would incur the wrath of God and be punished by having a poor harvest?

Does that ever happen in Christianity?

Turn to Thursday’s lesson, read Galatians 6:7-10

Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸ The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹ Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. Galatians 6:7-10

What do you hear? Is the message from Paul of sowing and reaping, a law of life? Enacted or natural?

And then the first two paragraphs, “In Galatians...”

Does it sound just like what happens to the farmer who plants small potatoes, that destruction comes from the natural result of being out of harmony with God’s law of life?

What message is suggested by, “Paul’s point is that people may ignore God or even flout His commandments, but they cannot outwit God. He is the ultimate judge, and in the end they will have to pay the price for their actions.”

Does this sound like the natural results of planting small potatoes, or more like, God will punish you by giving you a small harvest?

Do we do harm when we present such concepts?

What harm comes from such ideas? What do young people do if they are presented with such ideas?

Does it ever cause people to reject God altogether?

Do we have a responsibility as Christians to present a better message?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “While Paul...” thoughts?

I personally don’t like the use of “mistakes” in this setting; “mistakes” to me connotes things like planting a tree too close to the house, making an error in your checkbook, dialing the wrong phone number.

Is there a difference between making a math mistake in your checkbook, which results in an overdrawn account and purposely writing a check knowing there are insufficient funds because you are trying to defraud someone? Would you call both of these a mistake?

In heaven, in a sinless world, can there be mistakes without sin?

- Can a sinless being hit a wrong note on a musical instrument?
- Can a sinless being, when stretching their mind to contemplate some aspect of quantum physics generate a false hypothesis and make a calculation error?
- Can a sinless being plant a shrub in a place they later determine isn't ideal?
- Was it a mistake for Eve to wander alone in the Garden? Did she already commit sin when she did?

Are mistakes and violations of God's law always the same?

Read second paragraph, "To benefit from..." thoughts?

What is the point Paul is trying to make? Christians don't look at fellow Christians through the lens of suspicion, accusation, or criticism, but see them in the best possible light, always believing the best intents of those who have accepted Christ, and with that mindset are "shocked" or "surprised" if they find a Christian in sin. This is not a support for church witch-hunts or investigations to uncover sin in person's lives.

But also, the converted person, may have weaknesses that they are not aware of, which may present in certain situations without expectation. And this is shocking to the person. "I never thought I would do such a thing..."

When this happens what is the proper response?

Read third paragraph, "The likelihood..." thoughts?

Can anyone give examples of unintentional sin and deliberate defiant sin? Is one type of sin less damaging than another?

If a person slips off a ten-story roof or purposely jumps, does it make a difference? What difference?

What is defiant sin? Would it not simply be cherished sin, the selfishness, ego, lust, addiction for which the person clings and has no desire to be free of? Is it not the sin the person justifies, even argues isn't sin at all?

I have never met a person yet, who had an affair, that didn't know it was wrong at the time they were engaging in it. Does that mean it was defiant sin? Was it merely a mistake, "Oh my, I thought you were my spouse!"

Or, is it, a weakness, a vulnerability in them, that in a certain situation became manifest? Is it the sinful act that is the problem, or the defect of character that was already in the person, but didn't manifest until the act that was the real problem?

Example, - Peter and his denial of Christ.

- Prior to the denial, what was Peter's assessment of himself?
- When Christ told him that he would betray Christ, what was Peter's response?
- Did Peter have some defect in character that he was unaware of?
- What happened when that defect manifested in behavior – when Peter denied his Lord? It opened Peter's eyes to his true condition and he wept bitterly and was, at that point, converted.

Was Peter's sin a mistake, or a defiant sin?

- How many times did Peter deny his Lord?
- Did the Lord warn Peter ahead of time?
- Did he have time to think about it after his first denial and did he yet deny again?
- Or was Peter's denial evidence of a defect in heart that Peter was unaware of, that the act revealed to Peter?

What does this mean regarding how we see ourselves and others?

Should we not see everyone through the lens of our true condition? In what condition were we borne?

“Born in sin, conceived in iniquity.” Ps 51:5

Who chose this? Did anyone, since Adam, choose to be born a sinner?

Can a person make a choice to avoid this condition?

- All people are borne, wired with fear, and the drive to survive primary.
- This drive to survive, if unchecked leads us to act how?
- Selfishly, and selfishness is the opposite of what?
- Love, and love is the law of life.

We are borne, not by our choice, in a terminal condition of selfishness, this is why Jesus said we must be reborn. Which means what? We must have a change in the motives of the heart. Love must be planted into the heart.

This rebirth only happens to those who are brought to a realization that there is something wrong with themselves they cannot fix. Peter’s denial brought Peter to that point.

So what is defiant sin? It is an act, that one has awareness is wrong, or a heart that doesn’t want to be healed, regardless of the behavior? The behavior is secondary, the heart is primary.

And what should be our attitude toward each other when we discover an area in which a person is struggling with the infection of sin?

Read last paragraph, “The proper response...” thoughts?

Has it been your experience that the church is a place where the restoring response is predominant, where the likelihood of gossip, punishment, disfellowship, condemnation is remote?

The lesson asks at the bottom of Tuesday's lesson, "What keeps you from seeking help- pride, shame, lack of trust, a sense of self-sufficiency?"

Could it be fear of how the church will treat you?

Why is the church, so often a place where we crucify each other, rather than build each other up in love?

Could it be the "natural" result, the automatic outgrowth, of worshipping a judgmental, punishing, wrathful God? If we plant seeds in the mind of a wrathful God, a judge who inspects, finds fault, and punishes, might this not result in us experiencing the fruit of such practices in our own lives?

What would be the remedy for such problems in the church?

Would it not be the truth about God – who is, Himself, being judged, and who gave Himself for us?

How many of you would feel comfortable seeking out a member of the class to be an accountability partner for you regarding your porn addiction? Why not?

If someone came to you from the class and told you they were struggling with a drug addiction, porn addiction, or some other problem, how would you respond?

MONDAY

Read bottom paragraph, "One of the greatest..." thoughts?

Do you find it helpful to think of sin in "types"? Is there any danger to think of sin as types?

When we think of “certain types of sin,”

- Does it suggest sin is behavioral?
- Does this concept contribute to certain spiritual pride?
“I’ve never used alcohol, drugs, tobacco.” “Well, I’ve never eaten meat.” “Well, I’ve never eaten cheese.”
- Does it suggest some “sins” are worse than other sins?
- Does it obscure, in any way, the reality that sin is a condition of the heart that manifests in many ways?

What about the danger of believing we are immune to theological error?

I love this quote by one of the founders of our church. Do you think this is a healthy and reasonable attitude to have?

There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation. {CW 35.2}

Is this reasonable? I strive to remember I am finite, no matter what I currently know and understand, there is always more to know and understand. I never want to “arrive” at truth, but to daily advance and grow in truth.

TUESDAY

Burden Bearing

What comes to mind when you consider the idea of bearing one another’s burdens?

What is the purpose of bearing one another’s burdens?

- Is it to remove the burden?
- Is it to relieve them of responsibility?
- Is it to help the person?
- What does it mean to help?
 - Help them feel better?
 - Make them happy?
 - Give them what they are asking for?
 - Or, is genuine helping, when we help in their development into Christlikeness?
 - And what would that mean in regard to burden bearing?

Are there any dangers to bearing one another's burdens?

Can we, by bearing one another's burdens, do harm?

If a parent carries a child and never sets them down, because they don't want to see the child injured when the child stumbles and falls as he/she learns to walk. Will carrying the child and never putting the child down help or injure the child?

Does this analogy have any application beyond childhood?

Do we ever carry burdens for people who are capable of carrying their own burdens? If we do this, do we help or injure?

I had a patient in renal failure....

This week I had a patient whose brother has a drug problem, the brother lives in the deceased parents home, he won't get a job, he doesn't pay any bills, the sister takes all his "burdens" pays his bills, tries to get him a job, won't hold him accountable.

If the sister loves him, what does she need to do?

Do we help people, who are capable of carrying their own weight, by giving handouts? By fulfilling their duties for them?

What happens inside a person who doesn't fulfill their own responsibilities, carry their own burdens, when they are capable of doing so?

I saw a another patient on Thursday, distraught and overwhelmed, because a sister with chronic illness calls her all the time to get the patient to do for her, cook, clean, pay bills, run errands, do laundry. And my patient was overwhelmed.

- We spoke of healthy boundaries, of not doing for a person that is capable of doing for themselves.
- We explored the principle of “if you don't use it you lose it.” And if we do for others, that which they can reasonably do for themselves, we may cripple them or contribute to further disability.
- She cried and asked, “But she is my sister, and my sister in Christ aren't I supposed to serve her?”
- How would you answer her?

So, while there is danger in carrying another's burdens. Are there clearly times and places where, in love, it is our duty and privilege to carry another's burden?

- How can we tell when it is time to step in and carry a burden for another, and when it is time to call the person to carry their own burden?

Let's Look at WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Paul's use of the phrase...” thoughts?

What is your understanding of what the lesson means by the term, “moral law”? Is it the 10 commandments?

What do you think of the logic and explanation of the “law of Christ” and the “moral law”?

So, what is the law of Christ? Is it the law of love?

And the 10 Commandments are an expression of the law of love, specifically adapted for humans in sin – for loving purposes. Can the law of love be annulled? Why or why not?

How would you describe the law of love?

How would you apply the law of love in relationship to others and their burdens?

Why is it okay for a mother to brush the teeth of their 18 month old, but not okay for the same mother to brush the teeth of her 18 year old?

Love seeks to build up and bless others, to help others develop their full potential, which means we don't habitually do for others that which they are capable of doing for themselves.

In the physical world strength increases as we exercise or stress our muscles against burdens or weights. No other person can exercise our muscles for us, if someone else lifts the weight they get the strength. Likewise, when it comes to character no one else can lift life's individual responsibilities for you and you get the strengthening of character. No, if someone else lifts your burdens, that you are responsible for and capable of fulfilling, they get stronger and you get weaker.

FRIDAY

Read first paragraph, "The Spirit of God..." thoughts?

What is being described? Is there a law in evidence? What law? Is this an imposed law, or part of God's design?

What does this indicate in regard to the final end of sin and sinners?

Read second paragraph, "All should..." thoughts?

What is the agency by which the soul is destroyed? Is God the destroyer?

Why do so many put God in the role of destroying the soul?

What is the consequence to understanding that sin destroys the soul and God heals? How does such an understanding impact our decision making and relationship with God?

What happens if we wrongly conclude God is the destroyer? What impact does that have?

The Gospel in Galatians Lesson 14 4Q 2011

Boasting in the Cross

FRIDAY

Read top section, “The cross of Calvary...” thoughts?

Let’s take it sentence by sentence,

“The cross of Calvary challenges, and will finally vanquish every earthly and hellish power.”

Do you typically think of the cross vanquishing earthly and hellish powers? Isn’t it generally presented that God’s might, and power, and fire from heaven will one day put down rebellion and vanquish the enemy?

But, this Christian writer claims it will be the cross which puts down “every” earthly and hellish power. How many is “every?”

What are earthly and hellish powers?

- Lies
- Selfishness

Can these be put down by might and power?

Can we defeat a lie by threatening people with punishment if they don’t change their belief? What would happen if we threatened to kill people who believe differently than us? What happened in the Dark Ages? Did such tactics bring light or more lies, confusion, and selfishness?

Can you get someone to love you by the use of force, coercion and threats?

Do you see why Satan rejoices when Christians teach God, in order to be just, must use His power to punish and kill? Satan knows that such methods cannot eliminate his power, but in fact, when Christians present such concepts the enhance Satan's power.

Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD Almighty. Zech 4:6

The Spirit is the Spirit of truth and love, it is only by presenting truth in love that lies can be destroyed and selfishness vanquished!

What Biblical support do we have that the cross will vanquish these powers?

Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. Heb 2:14,15

Satan's has the power of death? What is that power? And how did Christ's death destroy him and his power?

Life eternal is knowing God, John 17:3, therefore, eternal death is not knowing God, so Satan's power is the lies he tells about God that we believe that prevent us from knowing Him.

Here is an interesting comment, what do you think it means in light of Christ's death destroying Satan and his power?

Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. {DA 761.2}

What does this mean? Why was Satan's activities restricted? Did God, after the death of Christ, put a force field in place and by use of divine might and power restrict Satan?

Or, having revealed the truth to unfallen angels, having exposed Satan for what he is, all intelligent beings in heaven, saw Satan clearly as a liar and a fraud, and they freely chose never to listen to anything he has to say again? Thus his power to deceive and spread lies was restricted by the truth closing minds to his deceit?

The Bible also tells us Christ's death vanquished death:

This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2Tim 1:9,10

How did Christ destroy death? What is the cause of death? Being out of harmony with the law of love, the law upon which life was built – "sin when full grown brings forth death." James 1:15.

Christ destroyed the infection of selfishness in humanity by overcoming, in His human brain, every temptation to act in self interest and perfectly loving even to the laying down of His own life.

Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. Luke 17:33 NIV.

The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. Ps 19:7

Jesus restored into mankind the law of love, and in so doing rose again in a perfected humanity.

Notice the quote above states, “This sacrifice was offered for the purpose of restoring man to his original perfection.”

Here is a fascinating quote from one of the founders of our church:

Sin had become a science, and vice was consecrated as a part of religion. Rebellion had struck its roots deep into the heart, and the hostility of man was most violent against heaven. It was demonstrated before the universe that, apart from God, humanity could not be uplifted. A new element of life and power must be imparted by Him who made the world. {DA 37.1}

With intense interest the unfallen worlds had watched to see Jehovah arise, and sweep away the inhabitants of the earth. And if God should do this, Satan was ready to carry out his plan for securing to himself the allegiance of heavenly beings. He had declared that the principles of God's government make forgiveness impossible. Had the world been destroyed, he would have claimed that his accusations were proved true. He was ready to cast blame upon God, and to spread his rebellion to the worlds above. But instead of destroying the world, God sent His Son to save it. DA 37.2

Christ did not die to pay some legal penalty to appease the wrath and anger of an offended god. He died to destroy the devil, destroy death, and restore man by destroying the devil's work:

The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work. 1John 3:8

One of the founders of our church describes it this way:

Man was the crowning act of the creation of God, made in the image of God, and designed to be a counterpart of God; but Satan has labored to obliterate the image of God in man, and to imprint upon him his own image. {LHU 48.2}

Satan was exulting that he had succeeded in debasing the image of God in humanity. Then Jesus came to restore in man the image of his Maker. None but Christ can fashion anew the character that has been ruined by sin. He came to expel the demons that had controlled the will. He came to lift us up from the dust, to reshape the marred character after the pattern of His divine character, and to make it beautiful with His own glory. {DA 37.3}

How did Christ destroy Satan's work? By restoring God's image in mankind in His own victorious life on earth!

Next sentence from the lesson, "Yea, more, it was offered to give him an entire transformation of character, making him more than a conqueror."

What does this mean?

What does God's law require? Does it require a death penalty? No! It requires perfect harmony with its principles? Why? Because that is how life is constructed to exist.

So Christ,

once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him. Heb 5:9

Could it mean exactly what we read, that Christ came to perfect humanity and after so doing, he became the source of a new humanity to which we can, by trusting Him, experience reproduced in us by the Holy Spirit?

What do you think about the next sentence, “Those who in the strength of Christ overcome the great enemy of God and man, will occupy a position in the heavenly courts above angels who have never fallen.”?

Why? Could these mean we will have greater appreciation, from experience of God’s love, greater appreciation of the devastation caused by violations of God’s law of love, and eagerly join Christ in His ministry to the universe? Could we find ourselves eternal ministers, priests of God, sharing our experience, and the truth of God’s character with intelligent beings throughout the universe? Could our story, which glorifies God, elevate us to a position in God’s kingdom, because the truth about God transforms, develops and enhances the individual and we will have the privilege of sharing such truth with others?

What do you think of, “Christ on the cross was the medium whereby mercy and truth met together, and righteousness and peace kissed each other. This is the means that is to move the world.”?

Ps 85:10 states:

Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other.

What does it mean – mercy and truth met together? What is mercy? What is the truth?

The truth is that our condition is terminal, sinfulness - being out of harmony with God’s design is incompatible with life. But, in Christ our sinful state was mercifully healed. God is righteous and always does what is right, and the right thing the thing the law of God requires, is perfect harmony with it, as life was built to operate only upon this design protocol. Therefore, God’s rightness, God’s perfect law of love, was in Christ and brought peace, harmony, reconciliation of sinful man with God, by healing mankind back to God’s design!

Now that we have been put right with God through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Romans 5:1

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “Having emphasized...” thoughts

What is justification? What does it mean to be justified?

Does the lesson give a clue in the next paragraph when it states, “True religion is not rooted in external behavior but in the condition of the human heart.”?

Would justification require a change in the heart?

What does justification mean? To set right, to put right, to make right – when you justify the margins on your word document, what are you doing?

Since Adam sinned, what is wrong that needs to be set right?

- Is it God?
- Is it God’s law?
- Is it man’s legal record book in heaven than needs adjusting?
- Or is it the actual condition of mankind?

Then, would justification not simply be, doing whatever is necessary to put mankind back in a right standing, condition, with God and His universe?

So, what did sin do to mankind? It changed the heart from love, to fear and selfishness, survival of the fittest and what would need to happen to set man right?

The nature of mankind would need to be restored back to God’s original design, just like the passage above says, or the Bible say:

He condemned sin in human nature by sending his own Son, who came with a nature like sinful human nature, to do away with sin. Romans 8:3 GNT.

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2Cor 5:21 NIV.

Read third paragraph, “Ktisis is the Greek...” thoughts?

This is well said, and exactly what justification is, and the next paragraph states correctly, “Paul explains that becoming a new creation means far more than just a change in our status in the books of heaven; it brings about a change in our lives today.”

Read the last paragraph, “Becoming a new creature...” thoughts?

What do you think they mean? Was this confusing for you?

But because many people still struggle with distortions of God’s law and inappropriately infer or insert human legal constructs into their theology, they describe things in ways that can often sound confusing.

It all goes back to how one understands God’s law.

If we understand God’s law as an expression of his character, the natural law of love life is built upon, then we understand justification is the actual change in man’s nature, first achieved by Christ thus “justifying the species” or putting humanity right with God again and procuring the remedy to sin. And secondarily, on an individual level, justification is when the heart changes from enmity with God to trust in God, as Paul describes of Abraham.

So, rightly understood, what the last sentence means is this-being healthy is not what makes us healthy, this radical change from a terminal condition to health, is the unmistakable result of taking the remedy procured by Christ.

But, when you accept Imperial Rome's version of God's law, as an imposed law put upon God's creatures to control their behavior, then justification takes on a legal aspect of paying penalties, obtaining legal pardon and appeasing God, all of which stem from paganism.

MONDAY

First paragraph describes Paul's description of those who opposed him as being superficial, wearing a mask, acting righteous in order to get approval and win adherents to their side.

Read second paragraph, "Paul makes an important..." thoughts?

Paul is saying that people can be harassed, excluded, expelled, shunned, labeled, isolated, blackballed by the church and in order to avoid this his opponents would put on an act in order to get approval from the religious authorities.

Consider this dynamic for a minute, do we ever struggle today, with organizations that use such methods as condemnation, exclusion, and harassment?

What does it reveal when such methods are used? Why would the Jews in Paul's day need to resort to such methods in dealing with Paul and others who disagreed with them?

Because they didn't possess the truth and when a position or construct is built on falsehood, misunderstanding, or error, then truth will destroy it. So if you want to hold to the false construct, and someone else presents the truth, then in order to keep the false construct, one must devalue and expel the ones bringing truth.

What would it say if we find these methods happening today? If you belong to an organization which is using such methods, then let it be a red flag that whoever is practicing such methods is afraid and insecure and doesn't know how to counter a message being brought by another.

One of the founders of our church stated,

There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation. {CW 35.2}

I love this quote, consider the implications. This is not a position in which one is afraid to change an opinion or idea. EGW did not believe our church had a corner on truth and allowed for the possibility that things taught during her life were not yet fully developed, understood or even correct. How many in the church today can take such a position? How many are afraid to acknowledge a certain doctrine was incorrect? Why?

The last paragraph describes how certain religious practices provided political advantage. How much of religion is used for political means?

Has the Christian church been derailed from its mission of taking the gospel to the world and instead is wasting its energy on human politics, getting the right politicians, judges and laws passed?

Did Christ or the apostles spend any time trying to influence the politics of their world? Was their earthly government a better government that respected human rights more than ours? Why didn't they focus on this?

Are we as Christians misguided to focus the churches' energy on politics?

What would Paul say?

See memory verse top of TUESDAY

“But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.” (Gal 6:14)

What do you understand this to mean?

Would it mean:

- We our in the world but not of it?
- Our citizenship is in heaven?
- Our priorities and loyalties are not earthly, but heavenly?

In practical terms what does this mean?

Are these just platitudes or do we live like its true?

One of my office staff, Francesca, has taken a job in Japan to teach English. While she is in Japan she will, no doubt, observe all the laws of Japan, be courteous and polite regarding their customs and culture, yet do you think she we feel, act, and think like she is Japanese? Or will her heart still be American?

While we are in the world, where is our heart? Are we loyal to America or to God? Are the goals of America and God always aligned?

We are entering another presidential campaign, do you think politicians will attempt to use religion? What should our attitude be?

Read last paragraph, “The cross of Christ...” thoughts?

Do you think Paul’s day was more evil than ours? Does our world stand in opposition to God? Can you give examples of common practices in the world which are in opposition to God and/or His design for His universe?

- War
- Capitalism
- Communism
- Evolutionism
- Terrorism
- Crime of all kinds
- Governmental attempts to control beliefs/conscience
- Non-marriage based family lifestyles
- Normalization and even promotion of tobacco, alcohol, drugs

Can you think of common practices in the church which are in opposition to God and/or His design for His universe?

- Authoritarian hierarchy
- Actions which punish free thinking
- Teaching God imposes law and punishes disobedience
- Teaching God kills, (i.e. God took your father to be with Him)

How can we free ourselves from the influence of everything that is opposed to God and His design for life?

When the Bible talks about dying to the world, or dying with Christ, what does this mean in practical terms?

Might it mean that our hearts disconnect from worldly attachments, we let go of our longing, and hold to practices, organizations, items (money, cars, houses, collections), and people, that are undermining our fitness for God's cause?

Glimpses of God Lesson 1 1Q 2012

Merry Christmas and what a great topic to start this Christmas weekend –

The Triune God

Thoughts or questions about this topic?

Have you heard questions about this? Have you heard the resurgence of those in the church or argue against the Trinity?

What arguments have you heard?

- There is no Trinity
- Jesus is not fully God
- Jesus is a created being
- Jesus came after the Father
- The Holy Spirit is only God's Spirit and extension of the Father
- The word Trinity doesn't exist in scripture
- The Trinity is a Roman Catholic belief
- The Bible doesn't teach the Trinity
- The Trinity was infused into Christianity from paganism specifically Babylon

What evidence have you heard to support the position that the Trinity does not exist?

The truth can afford to be fair and loses nothing by close investigation, so we should be willing to look at any evidence. There are three general arguments against the trinity, none of which provide evidence:

- Quotations from other theologians who wrote statements that the Bible doesn't teach the Trinity
- Documentation from history that certain pagan religions had a trinity

- Statements from history that at times in history the Trinity was not taught or understood

I actually have seen any evidence which would document the non-divinity of Christ or the Holy Spirit. So, let's look at the evidence we do have and see where it leads us.

The first question is about Christ, is He fully God, equal with the Father or some lesser being?

This is Christmas weekend, what famous text comes to mind?

Isaiah 9:6:

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Who was born? Was it not Jesus? Would this text teach Jesus is less than God or fully God?

What about other Biblical Evidence?

- In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made... He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him... No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known. John 1:1-3, 10, 18

What do you hear this text saying? The Word was God, who created, and became flesh – we have two entities – the Word and God. One who remained in heaven, the other who came to earth.

Who was the Word that became flesh? Jesus, and Jesus was with God from the beginning and it was through Jesus that all things were made:

- For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. Col 1:16,17

Wouldn't this mean Jesus Himself is Creator God? Jesus did claim to be God:

- "I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "before Abraham was born, I am!" John 8:58
- I and the Father are one." John 10:30

The Apostles recognized Jesus as God:

- Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" John 20:28
- We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. 1John 5:20

So here we find in the New Testament, from the Apostles and Jesus' own testimony, that Jesus and the Father are both God.

One of the founders of the SDA church also understood Jesus was fully God:

- Christ, the Word, the only begotten of God, was one with the eternal Father,--one in nature, in character, in purpose,--the only being that could enter into all the counsels and purposes of God. "His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of peace" (Isa. 9:6). His

- "goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting" (Micah 5:2).--Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 34. {7ABC 437.2}
- The Jews had never before heard such words from human lips, and a convicting influence attended them; for it seemed that divinity flashed through humanity as Jesus said, "I and my Father are one." The words of Christ were full of deep meaning as he put forth the claim that he and the Father were of one substance, possessing the same attributes.--The Signs of the Times, Nov. 27, 1893, p. 54. {7ABC 437.3}
 - Yet the Son of God was the acknowledged Sovereign of heaven, one in power and authority with the Father.--The Great Controversy, p. 495. {7ABC 437.4}
 - "In him was life; and the life was the light of men" (John 1:4). It is not physical life that is here specified, but immortality, the life which is exclusively the property of God. The Word, who was with God, and who was God, had this life. Physical life is something which each individual receives. It is not eternal or immortal; for God, the Life-giver, takes it again. Man has no control over his life. But the life of Christ was unborrowed. No one can take this life from Him. "I lay it down of myself" (John 10:18), He said. In Him was life, original, unborrowed, underived. This life is not inherent in man. He can possess it only through Christ. He cannot earn it; it is given him as a free gift if he will believe in Christ as His personal Saviour. "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent" (John 17:3). This is the open fountain of life for the world. {1SM 296.2}

In the setting of the Great Controversy over God's law and character of love, why is it important to know Jesus is God, and what problems do we have if we suggest Jesus is not fully God?

- What were the allegations Satan made against God in heaven? Our church has historically understood the conflict as follows:
 - Little by little Lucifer came to indulge the desire for self-exaltation. The Scripture says, "Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness." Ezekiel 28:17. "Thou hast said in thine heart, . . . I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. . . . I will be like the Most High." Isaiah 14:13, 14. Though all his glory was from God, this mighty angel came to regard it as pertaining to himself. Not content with his position, though honored above the heavenly host, he ventured to covet homage due alone to the Creator. Instead of seeking to make God supreme in the affections and allegiance of all created beings, it was his endeavor to secure their service and loyalty to himself. And coveting the glory with which the infinite Father had invested His Son, this prince of angels aspired to power that was the prerogative of Christ alone. {PP 35.2}
 - To dispute the supremacy of the Son of God, thus impeaching the wisdom and love of the Creator, had become the purpose of this prince of angels. To this object he was about to bend the energies of that master mind, which, next to Christ's, was first among the hosts of God. But He who would have the will of all His creatures free, left none unguarded to the bewildering sophistry by which rebellion would seek to justify itself. Before the great contest should open, all were to have a clear presentation of His will, whose wisdom and goodness were the spring of all their joy. {PP 36.1}
 - The King of the universe summoned the heavenly hosts before Him, that in their presence He might set forth the true position of His Son and show the relation He sustained to all created beings. The Son of God shared the Father's throne, and the glory of the eternal, self-existent One encircled both. About the throne gathered the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng--"ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands" (Revelation 5:11.), the most exalted angels, as ministers and subjects, rejoicing in the light that fell upon them from the presence of the Deity. Before the assembled inhabitants of heaven the King declared that none but Christ, the Only Begotten of God, could fully enter into His purposes, and to Him it was committed to execute the mighty counsels of His will. The Son of God had wrought the Father's will in the creation of all the hosts of heaven; and to Him, as well as to God, their homage and allegiance were due. Christ was still to exercise divine power, in the creation of the earth and its inhabitants. But in all this He would not seek power or exaltation for Himself contrary to God's plan, but would exalt the Father's glory and execute His purposes of beneficence and love. {PP 36.2}

- The high honors conferred upon Lucifer were not appreciated as the gift of God and called forth no gratitude to the Creator. He gloried in his brightness and exaltation, and aspired to be equal with God. He was beloved and revered by the heavenly host. Angels delighted to execute his commands, and he was clothed with wisdom and glory above them all. Yet the Son of God was the acknowledged Sovereign of heaven, one in power and authority with the Father. In all the councils of God, Christ was a participant, while Lucifer was not permitted thus to enter into the divine purposes. "Why," questioned this mighty angel, "should Christ have the supremacy? Why is He thus honored above Lucifer?" The Great Controversy, p. 495.

What are the allegations of Lucifer in heaven?

That God is unfair, arbitrary, plays favorites, doesn't love His creatures equally, biased, bigoted, prejudiced, because Christ was chosen over Lucifer to enter counsels of the Father.

Now, consider these allegations and then the question of whether Christ is fully God or not?

- If Christ is fully God, then what do you conclude of all of Lucifer's allegations?
- But, if Christ, is, as some suggest, less than fully God, what of Lucifer's allegations?

So if you believe there is a controversy over God's character and trustworthiness, then it appears, that those who argue that Christ is less than fully God, ignorantly support one of Satan's allegations against God.

What other problems exist if Christ is not fully God?

- God is selfish
- What do we learn of God, if God sends a created being to earth to die to save mankind?
 - That God is willing to sacrifice others, but He is not willing to sacrifice Himself.
 - We learn an angel is loving but God, we still don't know??
 - Our church has always understood this was another of Satan's arguments against God:
 - “Satan had accused God of requiring self-denial of the angels, when he knew nothing of what it meant himself, and when he would not himself make any self-sacrifice for others. This was the accusation that Satan made against God in heaven; and after the evil one was expelled from heaven, he continually charged the Lord with exacting service which he would not render himself. Christ came to the world to meet these false accusations, and to reveal the Father.”

Review and Herald, February 18, 1890

- In the work of creation, Christ was with God. He was one with God, equal with him, the brightness of his glory, the express image of his person, the representative of the Father. He alone, the Creator of man, could be his Saviour. No angel of heaven could reveal the Father to the sinner, and win him back to allegiance to God. But Christ could manifest the Father's love; for God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself. {ST, February 13, 1893 par. 7}
- Had God the Father come to our world and dwelt among us, veiling His glory and humbling Himself, that humanity might look upon Him, the history that we have of the life of Christ would not have been changed in unfolding its record of His own condescending grace. In every act of Jesus, in every lesson of His instruction, we are to see and hear and recognize God. In sight, in hearing, in effect, it is the voice and movements of the Father. Letter 83, 1895.
- So, why might Satan want people to argue that Christ is not fully God?
 - Because it supports his two great allegations
 - That God is arbitrary in choosing Christ into counsels that Lucifer was not permitted to enter, AND
 - That God is selfish, willing to sacrifice others but will not sacrifice Himself for His creatures.

Realizing Christ is fully God destroys these allegations of the devil.

Questions about Jesus' divinity?

If you accept Jesus as God, then the Trinity becomes easy, because now we have Jesus (God in human form) who taught there was a third member of the Godhead called the Comforter, Counselor or Holy Spirit:

- “If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever—the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. John 14:15-17
- But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. John 14:26
- “When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me. John 15:26

One of the founders of our church also taught the divinity of the Holy Spirit:

- In describing to His disciples the office work of the Holy Spirit, Jesus sought to inspire them with the joy and hope that inspired His own heart... The Spirit was to be given as a regenerating agent, and without this the sacrifice of Christ would have been of no avail... Sin could be resisted and overcome only through the mighty agency of the Third Person of the Godhead, who would come with no modified energy, but in the fullness of divine power. It is the Spirit that makes effectual what has been wrought out by the world's Redeemer. It is by the Spirit that the heart is made pure. Through the Spirit the believer becomes a partaker of the divine nature. Christ has given His Spirit as a divine power to overcome all hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil, and to impress His own character upon His church. {DA 671.2}

- There are three living persons of the heavenly trio; in the name of these three great powers--the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit--those who receive Christ by living faith are baptized, and these powers will co-operate with the obedient subjects of heaven in their efforts to live the new life in Christ.-- Evangelism, p. 615. {7ABC 441.9}

Now what of the Old Testament? Does it teach the Trinity?

We already read Isaiah 9:6, the child born is “mighty God”.

The Old Testament teaches God is a plurality, not a singularity:

- Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, in our likeness... Genesis 1:26

•
Even the text quoted by Jews and Muslims that “God is one” teaches a plurality, not a singularity:

- Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: DT 6:4
 - Notice the passage in English uses “Lord” and “God”. The reading of this passage with the Hebrew names for “Lord” and “God” would go like this: “Hear, O Isreal: Yahweh our Elohim, Yahweh is One.”
 - What is interesting is that the word Elohim in Hebrew is plural and is the same word used for God in Genesis 1:26. Thus an accurate English reading might go like this: “The One is more than One yet is One”
 - Further support is that in the Hebrew there are two words for one, Yacheed and Echad. The first indicates singular unity as in one and only, the second indicates compound unity, as the oneness of two or more. In this text Echad is used along with the plural name of God Elohim indicating the oneness of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Old Testament also provides texts in which all members of the Godhead are referenced:

- And now the Sovereign Lord [Father] has sent me [Son], with his Spirit [Holy Spirit]. This is what the Lord says— your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: Isaiah 48:16,17
- “Here is my [Father] servant [Son], whom I [Father] uphold, my [Father] chosen one [Son] in whom I [Father] delight; I [Father] will put my Spirit [Holy Spirit] on him [Son] and he [Son] will bring justice to the nations. Isaiah 42:1

The Old Testament teaches the close love relationship between them:

- Awake, O sword, against my [Father] shepherd [Son], and against the man that is my [Father] fellow [Son], saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. Zech 13:7 KJV
 - The Man who is my friend NCV
 - The Man who is close to me NIV
- Then I [Christ] was the craftsman at his [Father] side. I [Son] was filled with delight day after day, rejoicing always in his [Father] presence, rejoicing in his [Father] whole world and delighting in mankind. Proverbs 8:30 NIV
 - I was beside him like an architect, I was his daily source of joy, always happy in his presence-Proverbs 8:30 GN
 - Then I was beside Him, as a master workman; And I was daily His delight, Rejoicing always before Him, NASB95

So, it seems the Bible gives strong evidence for the plurality of our One God, supporting the idea that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are a perfect unity of three separate individualities.

But, for me all the above evidence is not what is most compelling. The most compelling evidence for me that God exists in plurality rather than singularity is the nature and character of God Himself.

The Bible says, “God is love.” 1John 4:8. Further the Bible teaches that this love is “not self seeking.” 1Corinthians 13:5. Love is outward moving, other-centered. Therefore, God, being love, could not be love in isolation because love requires an object to pour itself upon.

Love is other-centered! God’s nature and character of love, rightly understood, is the most powerful argument for the plurality of God and we see this in the Old Testament texts above as the Father is delighting in the Son and the Son rejoicing in the Father and the Spirit loving them both.

Therefore, when God created us in His image He created “them male and female” and the “two shall become one” united in a triune relationship – husband, wife and God indwelling their hearts via His Spirit!

Satan from the beginning of his rebellion, has sought to misrepresent the character of God, and make God out to be selfish rather than love. The arguments that seek to destroy the truth about the plurality of the Godhead seek to destroy the truth about God’s character of love and, in so doing, place an obstacle to the only healing remedy for sin: God’s “perfect love [that] casts out all fear.”

As we see the truth about God, as revealed in Jesus, the lies about Him are removed and we are won to trust and in that trust He pours His love (Himself) into our hearts (Romans 5:5) and we are transformed to be like Him!

Questions?

Some suggest, based on Jesus' prayers to His Father and other statements, that Jesus is subordinate to the Father and thus not His equal. What would you say to this argument?

First, many of the statements when Jesus prayed to His Father, were being made from His human self, during His journey on earth, while He wrought out our remedy to sin. As such, He assumed a position, lower than the angels, and from that position He fought the fight over sinfulness.

Elsewhere, in regard to His divine nature and that of the Godhead, the way I understand it, (recognizing of course that our finite minds are trying to probe the Infinite One so we will inevitably come up short of complete understanding), is that the Godhead voluntarily assumes different roles or functions for the accomplishments of Their purposes (a loving way all share together in giving for Their creation). Any of the three could have assumed any of the functions. We would err in concluding that when one of the three assumes a function that He was not capable of functioning in the role of one of the others.

As I understand their chosen roles, the Father acts as the source of all that is good. The Son is the medium, mediator, advocate, conduit, agent through which the Father reveals Himself or acts and the Holy Spirit is the actualizer or applier of what the Father and Son have achieved. Thus God was in the Son reconciling the world to Himself (2Cor 5:19). Jesus' work on earth was the acting out of the Father's heart. His completed mission and victory over sin are applied to the lives of believers by the work of the Holy Spirit. In creation we have the Father as the source, the Son as the architect, designer, and builder and the Spirit as the actualizer or implementer of Their design.

So, with this understanding we realize what Christ meant when He said, "I do nothing of myself." Christ takes from the Father to fulfill all the Father's purposes for His universe. In this sense we can see any references to Christ turning to the Father and supplicating the Father, not as evidence of the need of the Father to be persuaded, but as evidence of the unity of the Godhead and Christ's role to receive the fullness of the Father's purpose of love for His creation and carry that purpose out in meaningful action!

THURSDAY

Read third and fourth paragraph, "Of special..." thoughts?

They are right to argue for the full divinity of Christ – no question, but their argument regarding the plan of salvation is within the framework of Imperial Rome's Imposed Law construct, which distorts the character of God.

If Christ were not fully God then, His mission doesn't inform us God is love, but of the love of a created being, and instead suggests, if not confirms Satan's allegations that God is selfish sacrificing a creature instead of Himself. Further, only the Designer, could perfectly correct all the defects to His design and restore His template of love into mankind.

But the need to restore His creation is not understood if one accepts Imperial Rome's Imposed law. Instead, one believes a penalty needs to be paid.

The lesson states, "If Christ were not fully God, then all we have is the Lord shifting the punishment for our sins from one party to another, as opposed to taking them upon Himself."

Problems with this thinking:

- Sin requires punishment be inflicted
- God becomes the punisher of sin
- Punishment is still shifted from one being to another, just not one sinful being to another sinful being
- The focus is not our condition, but our behaviors or crimes and God's attitude toward those behaviors, which is one of punishment and wrath

The next paragraph states, “Think about it: if Jesus were merely a created being, and not fully God, how could He – as a creature bear God’s full wrath against sin?”

- Yes think about it- what is the problem in their estimation?
 - God’s wrath, which must be borne by Christ
 - What did one of the founders of our church say?
 - In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. DA 761
 - While God has desired to teach men that from His own love comes the Gift which reconciles them to Himself, the archenemy of mankind has endeavored to represent God as one who delights in their destruction. Thus the sacrifices and the ordinances designed of Heaven to reveal divine love have been perverted to serve as means whereby sinners have vainly hoped to propitiate, with gifts and good works, the wrath of an offended God. PK 685.

Read next paragraph, “Were Jesus not divine...” thoughts?

How are they using the word “atone”? Does it sound like they mean at-one, unity, unify, or instead does it sound like appease, punish, propitiate, pay some penalty?

What are your thoughts about this construct? Any truth in the idea that the law needed to be “atoned” for?

If a parent tells a child never to use illegal drugs, and as an adolescent the child is at a party, in which all the kids bring pills, put them in a bowl, and everyone randomly ingests pills from the bowl. And this child takes a combination of pills which cause loss of consciousness, arrhythmia, seizure and pulmonary edema – and the child is rushed to the ER and is in the ICU on a ventilator.

- Did the child break any laws?
- What laws did the child break?
- Which laws were God's and which were man's?
- What does man's law require?
- What happens when God's law is broken?
- Does God's broken law need to be appeased?
- Does a penalty need to be paid to the broken law of health?

What if the parent went to the ICU and shot themselves to atone for their child's breaking of the laws of health? Would that solve the child's problem?

What is the child's problem? They violated the laws of health and that violation is incompatible with life and the child is dying. What would solve the problem?

What is our problem since Adam's sin? We are actually out of harmony with the law God built life to operate upon. Does God's law need to be paid, or atoned for? What does need to happen?

Would the parent in the story be wrathful at the disobedient child? As the disobedient child is seizing, frothing at the mouth, would the parent need to shoot the child to ensure justice is served?

Would the parent hate, not the child, but the breaking in the laws of health that the child engaged in and which are now destroying the child?

What does God hate? Sin, which is violations of His design for life. Why does God hate sin? Because sin destroys His creation, that which He loves!

Think about the implications of appeasing or propitiating God's wrath – it means somehow God's wrath is placated – but is it? No! God will always be wrathful – to sin, like a doctor is wrathful to disease! God wants to destroy sin, like a doctor wants to destroy disease.

Therefore the Lord, the LORD Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: “Ah, I will get relief from my foes and avenge myself on my enemies. ²⁵ I will turn my hand against you; I will thoroughly purge away your dross and remove all your impurities. Isaiah 1:24,25

The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, ² to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, ³ and provide for those who grieve in Zion— to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. Isa 61:1-3

What is the vengeance of God? Turning enemies into friends – His vengeance is not on sinners but on sinfulness. He attacks and destroys sin! This is His vengeance which purges and cleanses the sinner! The greatest vengeance God can have on Satan is healing and restoring all those who trust Him!

The last paragraph states, “our assurance of salvation through what Christ has done for us – and not through our own works – comes from the fact that God Himself paid the penalty for our sins.”

Thoughts?

As I was preparing for this week's lesson, I came across a quotation from one of the founders of our church that pertained to last week's lesson in regard to the Trinity and found it quite helpful and wanted to share it:

I am instructed to say, The sentiments of those who are searching for advanced scientific ideas are not to be trusted. Such representations as the following are made: "The Father is as the light invisible; the Son is as the light embodied; the Spirit is the light shed abroad." "The Father is like the dew, invisible vapor; the Son is like the dew gathered in beauteous form; the Spirit is like the dew fallen to the seat of life." Another representation: "The Father is like the invisible vapor; the Son is like the leaden cloud; the Spirit is rain fallen and working in refreshing power." {SpTB07 62.2}

All these spiritualistic representations are simply nothingness. They are imperfect, untrue. They weaken and diminish the Majesty which no earthly likeness can be compared to. God can not be compared with the things His hands have made. These are mere earthly things, suffering under the curse of God because of the sins of man. The Father can not be described by the things of earth. The Father is all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and is invisible to mortal sight. {SpTB07 62.3}

The Son is all the fulness of the Godhead manifested. The Word of God declares Him to be "the express image of His person." "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Here is shown the personality of the Father. {SpTB07 63.1}

The Comforter that Christ promised to send after He ascended to heaven, is the Spirit in all the fulness of the Godhead, making manifest the power of divine grace to all who receive and believe in Christ as a personal Saviour. There are three living persons of the heavenly trio; in the name of these three great powers--the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit-- those who receive Christ by living faith are baptized, and these powers will co-operate with the obedient subjects of heaven in their efforts to live the new life in Christ. . . .

 {SpTB07 63.2}

Glimpses of God Lesson 2 1Q 2012

This week we will explore creation – a topic hotly debated around the world, in schools, colleges and universities, churches, courtrooms. There are four ideas put forth regarding life on planet earth:

1. Big bang, random chaos, over billions of years with forces of nature spontaneously generating life that evolved from nothing to what we have today
2. God created everything from nothing divino and perfect – and what we have today on earth is not the way God created earth to be, but what God created infected by an attack on His creation
3. God uses the process of evolution and billions of years to create – theistic evolution
4. Aliens seeded life on earth and let it evolve over billions of years

As we go through the lesson today, let's see if we can't find harmony between the Biblical account and the scientific record, and then determine which of the theories is most consistent with the available evidence.

In the Beginning

When you hear the title what comes to mind?

In the beginning God created the heavens and earth Genesis 1:1

OR

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God. John 1:1

Which text is the ultimate beginning?

If the beginning is in John 1:1 and it is actually a time before anything existed but God, then to what is Genesis 1:1 referring?

Is Genesis referring to the creation of the entire universe or of earth and this solar system?

- Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation? Tell me, if you understand. Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it? On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone— while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy? Job 38:4-7

One of the founders of our church agreed with Job that other beings were in existence before earth was created and that mankind was created after the rebellion began in heaven.

- Angels on probation had been deceived by Satan, and had been led on by him in the great rebellion in heaven against Christ. They failed to endure the test brought to bear upon them, and they fell. Adam was then created in the image of God and placed upon probation. He had a perfectly developed organism. All his faculties were harmonious. In all his emotions, words, and actions, there was a perfect conformity to the will of his Maker. After God had made every provision for the happiness of man, and had supplied his every want, He tested his loyalty. If the holy pair should be obedient, the race would, after a time, be made equal to the angels. As Adam and Eve failed to bear this test, Christ proposed to become a voluntary offering for man. {Con 18.2}

What are the implications from understanding this one point when it comes to understanding the Bible account of creation in light of scientific evidence?

If we conclude that Genesis describes the creation of the entire universe, what will happen to our belief when we look at science?

We will be confused by:

- Light reaching earth which took billions of years to travel the universe to reach earth
- Radio dating of non-organic rock on earth to billions of years
- How light was created on day one of creation week but the sun, moon and stars were not created until day four

But, given the evidence of John 1:1 and Job 38:7, we realize the Genesis account is not the account of the creation of the entire universe, but is the record of God's creation of life on planet earth. The universe itself, with its many worlds, was already in existence when God came to this corner of the Milky Way to terra-form planet Earth. With this in mind let us explore Genesis 1:2:

“Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep.”

The words translated formless, empty, darkness are describing a deep void, abyss, hole, emptiness in space which is so impenetrable that light cannot even escape, what we might call a black hole. On day one of the Genesis account of Creation Week, when God said, “Let there be light,” God dissipated a black hole, already in existence in the Milky Way from God's previous creation of the universe. The light from the stars of the universe could now pass through this section of the Milky Way. Thus, “let there be light”.

On day four God created the Sun, Moon and stars of our solar system (Venus, Mercury, Mars, etc.). The “evening and morning” designation or “day/night” description on day one is the Hebrew way of describing a 24 hour period, it is describing the rotation of the earth on its axis every 24 hours. It is ensuring the reader that God’s terra-forming of planet earth occurred in seven 24 hours periods, not over billions of years.

This understanding also reconciles much of the geological arguments against a young earth. The matter at the core of the black hole was created by God billions of years ago when He created the universe. But it wasn’t until approximately 6,000 – 10,000 years ago that God came to this section of the Milky Way, dissipated the black hole and used this ancient matter to create this solar system and life on earth. Thus, the inanimate material on earth dating billions of years old in no way undermines our confidence in God’s Word and His creation of life on earth approximately 6,000 – 10,000 years ago.

This is also consistent with the rock on the moon dating to billions of years, yet the of space dust on the moon consistent with 6000-10000 years of accumulation.

What about Carbon 14 dating of organic material to 50,000 years of age?

- Carbon is one of the building blocks of organic life. In our environment most of the carbon is in a stable form called carbon 12 (C12), but because of the sun’s radiation a small portion of carbon is changed into an isotope called carbon 14 (C14). When an organism is alive the carbon in the molecules of that organism is constantly being replaced and the ratio of C12 to C14 remains constant, matching the ratio in the environment. But once the organism dies no new carbon is introduced and the C14 slowly decays.
- It takes approximately 5,730 years for 50% of C14 to decay. Therefore, by measuring the amount of C14 in dead organic material scientists calculate a suggested age of the dead organism.

- But there is one major flaw with this entire procedure, the assumption that C14 levels are the same today as they were thousands of years ago. If the atmospheric C14 levels were significantly less 5000 years ago than today, fossils from 5000 years ago would date as if they were tens of thousands of years older than they really are. And the Bible gives us every reason to believe that is exactly the case.
- In Genesis the Bible says “And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament” (1:7).
- When God created the earth He put a water layer above the atmosphere. Similar to our ozone layer this water layer would provide protection from solar radiation thus markedly reducing the amount of C14 in the atmosphere prior to the flood. Additionally, this water layer would act like a solar energy absorbing, dispersing element warming the entire earth uniformly.
- The earth, as God designed it, did not have frigid polar extremes nor equatorial hot spots. Because of this water canopy the entire earth was uniformly pleasant, lush and habitable.
- At the flood the waters above the earth came down contributing to the creation of our oceans and resulting in more C14 in the atmosphere as well as the polar extremes in weather.

What does science say? NASA's Kepler telescope has found planets in which there are water canopies over the planet, and average temperate climate of 72 Fahrenheit, exactly consistent with the Biblical account of creation of this world.

<http://news.yahoo.com/nasa-kepler-probe-finds-two-earth-sized-planets-151308770.html>

Thoughts?

Okay, let's examine the various theories.

What is the problem with Big Bang as a theory of origins and subsequently evolutionary speciation?

- From nothing – no energy, matter, space, time – nothing suddenly an explosion occurred from which everything came
- It is not scientific
- It cannot be tested or reproduced and therefore inconsistent with its own tenets of being scientific as it requires belief without evidence
- Therefore, it is pure speculation and manmade theory
- No direct evidence to support the theory
- No transitional fossils
- It requires us to believe there is no purpose for our existence
- It requires us to believe there is no right or wrong, no morality, other than what we decide as a society
- It requires us to believe that killing is good, as killing is necessary for adaptation and evolutionary advancement
- Death then is not an enemy but a friend to development

What is the problem with Theistic Evolution?

- God uses death to create
- Selfishness is part of God's creation
- Selfishness and sin are not a choice but the engine that drives us to survive, and thus adapt and develop and advance.
- God is not a being of love, but the originator of pain and suffering
- Sin is not a breach of an eternal design protocol or principle of love, instead it is a break of arbitrary rules put in place by a powerful deity.
- Conflicts with the Biblical record, undermining confidence in Scripture, and thus in Jesus and God's character of love

Bible Creation

- Cannot demonstrate this by observation, so no direct scientific evidence of creation
- Biblical Creation is consistent with itself
- Indirect evidence of science consistent with Biblical account
 - Geological dating is consistent with the Bible
 - Moon dust fits life within last 10,000 years
 - Carbon dating fits life within last 10,000 years, with the Biblical water canopy prior to the flood
 - Law of love, circle of beneficence
 - Law of liberty
 - 7 day weekly cycle
 - Genetics of Bible correct, Darwin incorrect (commandment describes epigenetic changes which is what science confirms, Darwin's theory of random mutation wrong).
 - A woman genetically could be created from a man, removing the Y chromosome and doubling the X, but a man could not be created from a woman as no Y chromosome. Interestingly, the Bible account was not a woman first, which would be all that humans had ever seen.
 - Genetic information is not introduced by mutation, but is deleted thus species don't advance by mutation, but decline.
 - Nature as we see it is not how God designed it, but infected with survival of the fittest principle, and mutations.
 - Adaptation, commonly called evolution, is consistent with Biblical record, thus no transitional fossils, things adapt, they don't change from one species to another.
 - Fear is medium of death
 - Love casts out fear and medium of life (this is true in brain circuits)

- Complex ecosystems all interdependent could not have arisen slowly over billions of years
- Geological record consistent with flood
- NASA findings of other planets with water canopy consistent with Biblical account and flood
- Biblical diet found to be healthier than non-Biblical societies – and proven by science to be so

What advantage is there to believing in Bible creation?

- Purpose for our existence
- Moral principles to guide our life
- Healthier lives if follow Biblical principles
- Knowledge of loving God
- Hope in life eternal and world without pain and suffering

What disadvantage is there in believing in Bible creation?

- May get connected to religious institutions that squash thinking and undermine freedom
- May seek to use the government to force others to honor creator or creation (i.e. forced worship, or restrict freedom to choose how one governs their body – such as contraception).

What advantage is there in believing in life originating from evolution?

- May remain a free thinker, who values evidence and avoid having the mind closed by institutional dogma
- May be more tolerant allowing others to think for themselves and hold different beliefs

What disadvantage is there in believing in life originating from evolution?

- No real purpose for our existence

- No higher morals or values other than what society creates
- No life after death, thus no hope for a future
- No principles of love overcoming fear
- No God of love
- No intelligence greater than humanity (thus far discovered)
- Inability to trust future to higher power increasing anxiety, fear and depression (which can also happen if one believes in an angry wrathful god)

MONDAY

Read first paragraph, “The drama...” thoughts?

Do we think we currently see anything the way God created it?
Why is this important to remember?

When critics look at some aspect of creation and criticize God, we must remember that creation is all twisted and infected and does not currently function as God intended.

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “In numerous places the Bible...” thoughts?

Why does the Bible link the Lord as Creator with the Lord as Redeemer?

Redemption is actually recreation, and can any other being than the Creator, fix, or recreate, His creation? In other words if a product is broken the manufacturer is the one who can fix it. In this case, when mankind deviated from God’s design, only God, the Designer could put man back into His design.

Do you see Christ’s mission as doing just that?

What did you think of this sentence, “But how can death be the ‘enemy’ if it was one of God’s chosen means for creating humans, at least according to the evolutionary model?”

Good question isn’t it? But could we add to this question, “How can death be the enemy, if God is the source of death, the one who must kill in order to be just?”

I had a discussion after class last week with a lovely young lady, who loves God and has a kind heart, but she insists that God is the source of death and is the one who kills and according to her He murdered the people before the flood, because sin had to be punished by God. So, if death is the enemy, which will be destroyed and swallowed up in the end, and God is the source of death – then won’t God need to be destroyed in order to destroy death?

Or another way to look at it, is Satan’s argument, that if God could just get a grip on His anger and wrath and leave sinners alone in their corner of the universe, then sinners could live eternally, because there isn’t anything wrong with sin, sin doesn’t kill, there is something wrong with God who uses His power to kill!

What is the solution to this dilemma? To recognize the truth, sin is the source of death. Death does not come out from God. As the Bible says:

The wages of sin is death Rom 6:23

Sin when full grown brings forth death James 1:15

Or as our church founders said:

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

Read last paragraph, “How is the idea...” thoughts?

Again, they make a good point. But could we not ask, “Does God use the process of violence, dominance of the strong against the weak in order to punish the wicked, torturing and destroying them in order to make a flawless and selfless society?”

Thoughts?

THURSDAY

Creation and Re-Creation

How do you understand God brings about ending sin and recreating the earth anew?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-3

Exciting News – Last Quarter we had over 14,000 hits to our Bible Study Section of our website. Thanks everyone – who is sharing this incredible message about God with others!

Also, thanks Dean for paying better attention to the details of the NASA Kepler article than I did. I should have said, that the Kepler telescope has found evidence consistent with a vapor layer of earth like planets, and I apologize for reading hastily and overstating the certainty of what was discovered.

Glimpses of our God Lesson 3 1Q 2012

God as Redeemer

As we look again at Christ and His mission to earth – let us recognize that Christ came for the purpose of saving mankind, overcoming evil and securing the unfallen universe.

Let us recognize that He accomplished all that is necessary for the salvation of mankind. So, what we will talk about today is not whether He died to save mankind, eradicate sin and secure the universe – HE DID! No, we will explore WHY His death was necessary, what His death accomplished and work to discern the truth from Satan's counterattack of confused notions about Christ's mission and the purpose of the Cross.

SABBATH

The first paragraph quotes Ephesians 2:13, "But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ."

What does this mean? Near to what? Is it not near to God?

The question then is, how does the blood bring us near to God?

- Is the blood of Christ like some magic potion that we use to teleport ourselves into God's presence?

- Is the blood of Christ some powerful inducer that, as we approach God, we pull out show God and calm His objections to our sinfulness and thus secure a spot in God's kingdom?
- Is the blood a metaphor of Christ's life that we partake and are transformed to become close to God in character, heart, purpose, motive and love?

How do you understand the passage?

I was reading a Bible commentary on Jesus death and came across a couple of paragraphs that shared some interesting insights and thought it might be beneficial to discuss them.

Christ suffered keenly under abuse and insult. At the hands of the beings whom He had created, and for whom He was making an infinite sacrifice, He received every indignity. And He suffered in proportion to the perfection of His holiness and His hatred of sin. His trial by men who acted as fiends was to Him a perpetual sacrifice. To be surrounded by human beings under the control of Satan was revolting to Him. And He knew that in a moment, by the flashing forth of His divine power, He could lay His cruel tormentors in the dust. This made the trial the harder to bear. {DA 700.3}

Have you thought that Jesus' was not only tempted by the human emotions to save-self, as we see in Gethsemane – but He was also, tempted by His purity to eradicate sinfulness, as it was so revolting to Him.

- What was revolting to Him? Human beings controlled by Satan.
- Are human beings revolting to Him? No! Would a parent be revolted to see their child – under some form of mind control, like in a cult, which caused the child to do wicked things? Would the parent want to kill the child?

What would the parent want to do for the child? Rescue the child! Do you think God is different with us and sin?

- Why would divinity flashing forth lay His tormentors in the dust?
 - Had He appeared with the glory that was His with the Father before the world was, we could not have endured the light of His presence. That we might behold it and not be destroyed, the manifestation of His glory was shrouded. His divinity was veiled with humanity,--the invisible glory in the visible human form. {DA 23.1}

What things do you find revolting? A child cursing their parent? A person abusing a child? Cancer, war, terrorism, racism, gossip? Whatever it is, multiply it by 1000 fold, and then possess the power to instantly eradicate it – what would you do if you had that power?

The Jews were looking for a Messiah to be revealed in outward show. They expected Him, by one flash of overmastering will, to change the current of men's thoughts, and force from them an acknowledgment of His supremacy. Thus, they believed, He was to secure His own exaltation, and gratify their ambitious hopes. Thus when Christ was treated with contempt, there came to Him a strong temptation to manifest His divine character. By a word, by a look, He could compel His persecutors to confess that He was Lord above kings and rulers, priests and temple. But it was His difficult task to keep to the position He had chosen as one with humanity. {DA 700.4}

What would you have done?

They believed He was to secure His own exaltation – how many believe this about Christ today? How many believe He is coming back to do exactly what the Jews wanted done, use power and might to force people in line and punish opposition?

Why didn't Jesus use His power to force His enemies to acknowledge Him?

A man convinced against His will is of the same opinion still.

Why would they have bowed to Him if He would have done as the Jews wanted?

- Because they loved and trusted Him or because they feared Him?
- And what would happen in their heart?
- Would they operate from God's principles of love, or continue to operate on Satan's principles of fear and selfishness?
- So if they acknowledged God out of fear and threat, even though they would have been confessing loyalty to God, they would actually be vessels in which Satan's principles are in operation!
- So what happens in the hearts of intelligent beings if God were to use His power in the end to torture and kill?
 - It would demonstrate Satan was correct, God is a punishing, destroying God and instantly infect the hearts of loyal beings with Satan's principles of fear and selfishness.
 - God cannot eradicate sin by the use of might and power "Not by might, nor by power, but by the way the Spirit works says the Lord." Zach 4:6

What does Jesus' conduct, in this trying time, tell us about His character?

The angels of heaven witnessed every movement made against their loved Commander. They longed to deliver Christ. Under God the angels are all-powerful. On one occasion, in obedience to the command of Christ, they slew of the Assyrian army in one night one hundred and eighty-five thousand men. How easily could the angels, beholding the shameful scene of the trial of Christ, have testified their indignation by consuming the adversaries of God! But they were not commanded to do this. He who could have doomed His enemies to death bore with their cruelty. His love for His Father, and His pledge, made from the foundation of the world, to become the Sin Bearer, led Him to endure uncomplainingly the coarse treatment of those He came to save. It was a part of His mission to bear, in His humanity, all the taunts and abuse that men could heap upon Him. The only hope of humanity was in this submission of Christ to all that He could endure from the hands and hearts of men. {DA 700.5}

What does it mean Christ bore our sins at the cross?

- Does it mean all acts of sin committed by all people past present and future were placed upon Him and He was punished by His Father for those deeds?
- Or, that He took our sinfulness upon Himself, experienced temptation in all points just like we do (and more) overcoming where we could not, AND also bore the sins of men HEAPED upon Him by humanity's cruel and unjust treatment of Him?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "At the cross..." thoughts?

Which is more costly – to forgive or not to forgive? There is no question that it cost God infinitely to redeem mankind – what would it have cost God not to forgive, not to redeem, but to instead hold a grudge, be hostile and turn His back on His creation?

What do you think of the idea that God forgives sinners by "paying in Himself the price of sin"?

When Jesus prayed, "Father forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" what did He mean?

Did Jesus mean, “Father as we collect payment on our debts, as we get recompense for the wrongs done to us, and after we receive just and fair compensation for the injustices done to us, and then we forgive those who have done us wrong, so also Father you collect payment on man’s sin debt from my blood and then forgiven them”?

When I put it in those terms how does it sound? What else could it mean to say God forgives sinners by paying the debt of sin?

In fact, if you collect payment on a debt, have you forgiven the debt?

One of Satan’s strategies is to cause confusion, introduce misunderstanding, twist, distort, misrepresent and lie. This is one of those places where misunderstanding has entered.

It is correct to say, “It cost God and Christ an infinite price to save mankind.” Or, “God and Christ paid an infinite price to save mankind.” Just as a father who donates a kidney to save the life his child in renal failure, could be described as “paying a high price” so too God paid a high price for our salvation. But this is not a legal price, it is the price the situation required.

If a child is in renal failure, why is the price a new kidney? If we are sinful, why is the “price” the death of Christ?

Further, the price was not necessary to get legal pardon or God’s personal forgiveness. The donated kidney was given because the father already had love and forgiveness in his heart toward his child, likewise Christ was sent because God already loved and forgave the world. But without Christ’s mission, despite God’s forgiving heart, man could not be restored to perfection.

Read second paragraph, “Christ didn’t die...” this is very beautifully said and reminded me of an EGW quote:

The atonement of Christ was not made in order to induce God to love those whom he otherwise hated; it was not made to produce a love that was not in existence; but it was made as a manifestation of the love that was already in God's heart, an exponent of the divine favor in the sight of heavenly intelligences, in the sight of worlds unfallen, and in the sight of a fallen race. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." We are not to entertain the idea that God loves us because Christ has died for us, but that he so loved us that he gave his only-begotten Son to die for us. The death of Christ was expedient in order that mercy might reach us with its full pardoning power... ST May 30, 1895.

What does this mean to you? How do you understand it?

Isn't just as we described – because of God's nature, character and love, He sent Christ to do what was necessary to heal and save mankind?

Read third paragraph, "The real tragedy..."

Yes, the real tragedy is that we have forgotten God, we have exchanged the knowledge of God for a lie, just as Paul said was happening in his day.

What did Paul, in Romans chapter one, say happens to the mind of those who forget the truth about God? Their minds become darkened, depraved and foolish.

What is being implied with, "we're not always sure about just how much we have offended God with our sins."?

Do you hear an implication that the problem with sin is that God gets offended?

- Is sin offensive to God? Absolutely – why?
- Is God personally offended by sin?
 - How did Jesus respond when He was being abused by men and crucified?
 - Did He take personal offense? “How dare you treat me like this. I am God! I am your Creator! You have no right to treat me this way you impudent rascals!” Is this how Jesus responded? Or “Father forgive them they don’t know what they are doing!”?
- And didn’t Jesus say “if you’ve seen me you have seen the Father”?
- So, do we have evidence that God does not take personal offense, but that sin is offensive and disgusting because of what it does to His creation?
- Why does Satan want us to think God takes personal offense?
 - Because in what kind of light would such an idea paint God? And it is taught that God’s offended character is angry and wrathful and must be satisfied by the blood of His Son. Satan’s view of God.

The lesson states, “Paul is not afraid to discuss the wrath of God. How does he express it in Romans 1:18?”

Well Romans 1:18 doesn’t describe God’s wrath it is verses 24, 26, 28, which are not referenced in the lesson. So let’s examine those verses.

What is God’s wrath? Letting go, stopping His gracious interventions which protect us from the consequences of unremedied sin and letting us reap the pain, suffering and destruction that sin brings!

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to read Genesis 3:15 which states,

“And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.”

How is the serpent crushed by the seed?

Hebrews 2:14: “Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil”

So, how does Christ’s death destroy Satan?

What is Satan’s power “the power of death”? Life eternal is knowing God (John 17:3) then eternal death is not knowing God, then Satan’s power is the lies he tells about God that we believe which separate us from God, our source of life.

So, how does Jesus’ death destroy this power and ultimately Satan?

But it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2Tim 1:9,10

Is death an enemy to be destroyed? Then does death come from God, as many teach, God in order to be just must kill? If death comes from God, and Christ’s death destroys death, then we have Christ destroying God, who is our last enemy.

Is it helpful to teach that God is the source of death? Does it incite or reduce fear? Does it promote or destroy love?

So, how does Christ’s death destroy death? Where does death originate?

- The wages of sin is death Rom 6:23
- Sin when full grown brings forth death James 1:15

- In being out of harmony with God’s law, or design protocols for life.
- Thus, selfishness breaks the template upon which God constructed life to operate and results in death.
- Therefore, Christ destroyed death, by, at the Cross, destroying selfishness within His assumed humanity – that drive to survive with which we are all born, and perfectly restoring God’s law of love into humanity. Thus He rose again in a new and perfected humanity! “thus when he was made perfect he became the source of salvation for all who obey him.” Heb 5:8,9.

Thoughts?

Now the lesson refers us to Romans 16:20, which states that soon we will crush the serpent under our feet. What does this mean?

Through Christ’s victory, all who trust God are imbued with the Holy Spirit who takes all Christ achieved and reproduces it in us. We get new hearts and right spirits and come to love God and others more than self, so that like Christ, we can crush lies with truth and selfishness with love!

TUESDAY

The lesson asks us to read Isaiah 53. Let’s do that, but first read the second paragraph, “Although so much...”

The lesson suggests Isaiah 53 teaches He is paying the price for the sins of others. I didn’t see that in the passage, let’s examine it and decide.

The lesson also states “we can do nothing to make ourselves right with God.” Question – what is wrong that needs to be made right?

- Our legal standing?

- Our unpaid penalty?
- Our actual condition of character/heart/mind?

Let's read Isaiah 53 and examine the evidence:

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

- ² He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground.

He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

From ST Jan 20, 1890:

The Saviour of the world proposed that no attraction of an earthly character should call men to his side. The light and beauty of celestial truth alone should be the drawing power. The outward glory, the worldly honor, which attracts the attention of men, he would not assume. He made himself accessible to all, teaching the pure, exalted principle of truth as that which was only worthy of their notice.

Why? Because only truth, understood, embraced, cherished dispels lies and wins to trust. Further, Satan can counterfeit beauty, miracles, pomp, grand displays of majesty – but Satan has no truth. It is the truth, not the grand displays of light shows in the sky, which separates God from Satan.

- ³ He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering.
Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Why was He despised? Was He a despot? Was He a Hitler, a Lenin, a Stalin, a Nero? Why was He despised? He only did good, mercy, kindness, healed. Why was He despised?

By whom was He despised? The religious leaders? Why?

- Because His ministry exposed the fallacy of their religious requirements and therefore undercut their life's work.
 - He would not use His power to punish and destroy, thus He was despised.
 - Do you think those who are waiting for God to come back and punish and torture the unrepentant will also despise Christ when they see Him?
- 4 Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.

Now this text talks about substitution – but substitution for what? Does this say anything about paying penalties, or prices, or taking our legally imposed death sentence, or taking our legal standing? What did He take upon Himself? Would it be appropriate to allow the Bible writers, those who knew Jesus personally to explain this passage to us?

Matt 8:16-17

16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill

17 in order that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, "He Himself took our infirmities, and carried away our diseases."

(NAS)

Bearing our griefs and carrying our sorrows does not mean that Christ "paid the penalty" for our sins, but instead means that he took away from us our griefs and sorrows (ie took away our sicknesses). I'd like to think that the sickness he took away was not just physical, but also spiritual.

So He comes, takes our condition upon Himself in order to cure and heal us – yet, we considered Him stricken and smitten of God. Have we done this? Does the Christian world teach God, in order to be just, killed His Son at the Cross?

Thus far do we find anything about paying a legal price?

- ⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was upon him,
and by his wounds we are healed.

What do you hear in this verse?

Because we were infected by sin, our condition of sinfulness crushed Him. In order to cure mankind, He must destroy the infection of selfishness, which was accomplished by perfect loving self surrender. Thus, by His wounds He heals us.

- ⁶ We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

Christ took upon Himself the same sinful condition which all humanity inherits from Adam, our iniquity, our sinfulness was laid upon Him.

- ⁷ He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

Who was it who slaughtered Jesus? Was it His Father or was it evil men and angels confederated together?

- 8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away.
 And who can speak of his descendants?
 For he was cut off from the land of the living;
 for the transgression of my people he was stricken.
- 9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death,
 though he had done no violence,
 nor was any deceit in his mouth.

He was judged by human people and falsely condemned to death for there was no wickedness in Him.

- 10 Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the LORD makes his life a guilt offering, he will see his offspring and prolong his days, and the will of the LORD will prosper in his hand.

For God so loved the world he send his only son... It was Gods will to crush Jesus by doing what? Sending Him to be sin who knew no sin so that we might become the righteousness of God. The cause of His suffering was not inflicted by God, but was caused by God allowing or causing Christ to become human and overcome in our place sinfulness.

But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin. {DA 693.2}

- 11 After the suffering of his soul,
 he will see the light of life and be satisfied;

by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many,
 and he will bear their iniquities.

¹² Therefore I will give him a portion among the great, and he will divide the spoils with the strong,
 because he poured out his life unto death,
 and was numbered with the transgressors.
 For he bore the sin of many,
 and made intercession for the transgressors.

Thus, through His suffering He sets right many with God, healing and restoring their characters to unity with God.

Do we find anything in this passage about penalties paid? No!

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, “The astounding...” thoughts? Would Christ’s death, as a sinless human, have been of any benefit to mankind without first living His victorious life?

Didn’t Herod try to have baby Jesus killed? Wasn’t baby Jesus now a human being and still sinless? If Herod would have had baby Jesus killed, then wouldn’t we have the shed blood of God’s sinless Son in our behalf? So if that is what is needed, the shed blood of God’s Son to pay our legal penalty, it could have happened when Jesus was still a baby.

But that wasn’t what was needed, ever! What was needed was a remedy for our condition and this required Jesus live a perfect life, and by His death destroy the infection of selfishness with which all humans are born.

“The law requires righteousness.... DA 761”

Read third paragraph, “The evening before...” thoughts?

Is the communion service a memorial of His death? It is often presented as such – but is it truly that? Or have we looked back through the wrongs lens and misunderstood?

Is it not really a reminder of our remedy to sin, a reminder of the cure we are to daily partake? A reminder of Jesus' words in John 6, “unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no part with me.” Not merely, a reminder of His death, but a reminder to us to partake of what He achieved by His death, which is perfection of humanity, that by partaking of Jesus we may possess?

- While the law is holy, the Jews could not attain righteousness by their own efforts to keep the law. The disciples of Christ must obtain righteousness of a different character from that of the Pharisees, if they would enter the kingdom of heaven. God offered them, in His Son, the perfect righteousness of the law. If they would open their hearts fully to receive Christ, then the very life of God, His love, *would dwell in them, transforming them into His own likeness; and thus through God's free gift they would possess the righteousness which the law requires. {MB 54.2}

Having accepted a change in God's law from the natural law of love, to the imposed Imperial Roman law, the communion service is misunderstood to focus on a “death penalty” to pay our legally imposed punishment, rather than Christ's remedy to sin that we must partake.

Read bottom green section, “Look at your life...” thoughts? What do you hear in the question? How are they using the word atone? Are they using it as unity, at-one, reconciliation or appeasement?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Nothing is more destructive...” thoughts do you agree with the first sentence?

Or is accepting a pagan god construct of a being who must be appeased more destructive?

By beholding we are changed, when we accepted a pagan view of God we experience greater fear and insecurity, become more intolerant of others, and practice methods of coercion and force and will kill in the name of our god.

There are two errors, the MIT which the lesson argues against, Christ merely revealed truth and accomplished no more, and penal substitution, which stems from accepting Imperial Rome's Imposed law view. Both are in error:

- While God has desired to teach men that from His own love comes the Gift which reconciles them to Himself, the archenemy of mankind has endeavored to represent God as one who delights in their destruction. Thus the sacrifices and the ordinances designed of Heaven to reveal divine love have been perverted to serve as means whereby sinners have vainly hoped to propitiate, with gifts and good works, the wrath of an offended God. PK 685.

However, the MIT error is more benign, and will not cause the same obstruction to salvation as penal substitution why?

- A patient doesn't have to know how a doctor procured a remedy to benefit from taking it
- A patient doesn't have to know how the remedy works in order to benefit from taking it
- But a patient has to trust the doctor and take the remedy
- MIT instills trust in the doctor and undermines fear
- Penal substitution in its various forms, presents a punitive, angry, wrathful god who must be appeased, thus inciting fear and undermining trust. Undermining trust in our heavenly doctor, is an obstacle to salvation.

FRIDAY - Read and discuss questions 1

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 4 1Q 2012

The God of Grace and Judgment

This week we talk about Judgment – God’s judgment –

With what lens shall we seek to understand this Biblical concept?

If we look through the lens of Imperial Rome, with a powerful ruler imposing law upon his subjects – how do we understand judgment?

If we look through the lens of God’s eternal law of love, the design template upon which He created life to operate, how do we understand judgment?

This is the critical question – is judgment a judicial process like human governments, for the purpose of determining guilt or innocence and then determining and executing just punishments, or is God’s judgment something else entirely?

- The last great conflict between truth and error is but the final struggle of the long-standing controversy concerning the law of God. Upon this battle we are now entering,—a battle between the laws of men and the precepts of Jehovah, between the religion of the Bible and the religion of fable and tradition. {GC88 582.2}

And what impact does it have upon how we see God if we view the judgment through the lens of Imperial Rome or view the judgment through the lens of Jesus Christ?

Does it make a difference?

As we go through this week’s lesson I will bring us back again and again to the two lenses and ask what you see through both and which is more consistent with the totality of the inspired record and God’s law in nature.

Further, the word judgment can have different connotations. It can mean:

- a judicial finding
- an accurate diagnosis
- a mental ability of discernment
- a decision between various alternatives
- an event in time

Additionally, when we consider “judgment” we must consider who is being judged, and for what purpose?

What are the possibilities?

- God is judging sinners, both angels and humans
- Created beings are judging other created beings
- Created beings are judging God
- All three

For what purpose is the judgment? What are the possibilities?

- To determine guilt or innocence? For what purpose?
 - If God is judging us so that He can reward or punish. Then what lens is being used?
 - If we are judging God so that trust can be restored and we can be healed.
- To diagnose the actual condition? For what purpose? To provide the proper treatment, which means what lens is being used? God’s law of love.

SABBATH

Read the entire lesson – “A Soldier...” thoughts?

What lens do they see God’s judgment through? Is it not an imposed law, with an overseeing ruler, who will impose penalties?

Consider – what happens to the mind, heart, character of the person who perpetrates evil on another? Can one inflict wrong on another without being damaged in the process?

Here is how one of the founders of our church described the process:

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner, works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death. {1SM 235.2}

Do you agree with this description? What kind of law is being described here? If this is in fact the way sin works, reacts upon the sinner damaging the sinner, then does there need to be an investigation to determine what wrongs were done for the purpose of imposing punishment?

When one accepts the truth that God is love, but accepts the false imperial Rome imposed law concept, then one finds constant contradictions in the positions put forth. For instance:

SUNDAY

Second paragraph, “Judgment and salvation...” then read THURSDAY, two paragraphs beginning, “Thus, if God...”

Do you hear grace and justice being pitted against each other here?

This is what always happens, when one believes God is the source of pain, suffering and death, that He must inflict torture upon His creatures in order to be just. Thus there are these long convoluted explanations trying to justify that which is unjust.

We will see more of this as we go through, contrasting the two ways to view God's law.

What if we look at love and justice through the lens of God's natural law of love, the law upon which life is built. Then is there is never a contradiction, only constant harmony!

What is the real problem with breaking God's law, that God will get mad or that our souls, characters, minds will decay?

But, if we accept the imposed law concept, we believe that the problem is God's wrath, anger and He must investigate and determine who has broken His law and then inflict punishment.

Thus, if one accepts the imposed law idea, then one misconstrues God's actions as punishment for crime.

Let's look at MONDAY and we will see this.

Read first paragraph, "Think about this..." thoughts?

What does this sentence reveal, "Before sin, there was nothing to judge, nothing to condemn, nothing to be punished."?

This sentence is evidence of having accepted Imperial Rome's change of God's law as an imposed law. Notice, sin has to be punished. Where did this idea originate?

Historic Adventism saw this idea as originating with Satan:

In the opening of the great controversy, Satan had declared that the law of God could not be obeyed, that justice was inconsistent with mercy, and that, should the law be broken, it would be impossible for the sinner to be pardoned. Every sin must meet its punishment, urged Satan; and if God should remit the punishment of sin, He would not be a God of truth and justice. When men broke the law of God, and defied His will, Satan exulted. It was proved, he declared, that the law could not be obeyed; man could not be forgiven. Because he, after his rebellion, had been banished from heaven, Satan claimed that the human race must be forever shut out from God's favor. God could not be just, he urged, and yet show mercy to the sinner. {DA 761.4}

Satan alleged God is the imposer of law and God must impose punishment.

If we look at this through the lens of God's natural law of love, the template He designed life to operate upon, and sin as being outside that design template, then we would say, "Before sin, there was nothing to diagnose, no terminal condition that condemns, and nothing to heal."

Huge difference – imposed law requires punishment, natural law requires healing.

Because the imposed law has been accepted, and thus the idea that justice requires punishment, then the Old Testament gets misunderstood, read fourth paragraph, "Verse 15 is..."

Thoughts? How do you hear this idea of judgment against the serpent and judgment against the woman and the man? Do you hear it as judicial finding of guilt and need to be punished?

This is how one sees it when one comes to the text already accepting God's law as an imposed law.

But what if we read the text through the lens of God's natural law of love, which is now broken, and mankind is now in a terminal condition. Then how to we read and understand God's actions?

Does God make a “diagnosis” and after making the proper diagnosis, does God make a “judgment” as to what is the best treatment course to result in healing and salvation? So, do we see His actions as “punishment” for “sin” or do we see His actions as therapeutic interventions for redemption and salvation?

- Was the serpent capable of moral decision making?
- Was the serpent made in God’s image and given dominion over the land?
- Was the serpent instructed by God not to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil?
- Was the serpent warned by God that it would die if it did eat, or crawl on the ground?
- Then, how can one suggest that the curse upon the serpent to crawl on its belly and be despised is a punishment for sin? Such an idea puts God in a terrible light, one of arbitrary imposer of punishment, without warning.
- Rather, it seems to me this is a therapeutic intervention for the need of fallen humanity to warn and protect.
- The serpent doesn’t have a soul, it doesn’t have moral decision-making capacities, and thus God’s actions are not designed to punish the serpent, but to teach humanity something. What?
 - The message is clear – cooperate with Satan and you will find yourself degraded, crawling in the dirt and despised of others – any evidence for this?
 - The demoniacs in Christ day
 - Were the demoniacs, whose minds were controlled by Satan degraded? Crawling in the dirt? Despised by the rest of humanity? Outcast? And was their condition a punishment by God? NO! Neither was the serpent’s a punishment, it was a loving intervention to help us avoid becoming demoniacs!

What about increased pain in childbearing? What does scripture say is the reason for increased pain in childbearing?

- But women will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love and holiness with propriety. 1Tim 2:15
- What does this mean? Was the increased pain punishment, or somehow part of a therapeutic intervention to lead to salvation?
- Childbirth metaphor for salvation (Nicodemus), and is this a painful process to die to self and be reborn, but followed by joy?
 - Childbirth a reminder of the coming incarnate Savior? Would this be a painful process, but followed by delivery from sin and joy?
 - Would painful labor and childbirth be a reminder of the pain of sin, yet the grace of God in overcoming that pain with a new life?
 - Would such a reminder be designed to punish, or instill humility, conviction of one's need and hope of eternal deliverance?
 - So, was God's "judgment" a judicial judgment with infliction of punishment, or a loving judgment of our need with therapeutic intervention?

What about subordination of Eve to Adam, punishment or therapeutic intervention?

Eve was told of the sorrow and pain that must henceforth be her portion. . . . In the creation God had made her the equal of Adam. Had they remained obedient to God--in harmony with His great law of love--they would ever have been in harmony with each other; but sin had brought discord, and now their union could be maintained and harmony preserved only by submission on the part of the one or the other. Eve had been the first in transgression; and she had fallen into temptation by separating from her companion, contrary to the divine direction. It was by her solicitation that Adam sinned, and she was now placed in subjection to her husband. . . . {CC 18.2}

What do you understand this to mean? After sin the heart and mind of humanity no longer naturally operated upon other centered love, but instead upon fear and selfishness. In such a state marriages could not exist. God, intervened, therapeutically, in love, to cause women to have a greater desire for relationships than men, thus causing women to be more likely to give in to maintain the relationship, so that marriages could sustain long enough for God's plan of salvation to be experienced. But when husband and wife experience God's love, true equality in partnership is re-experienced here and now.

What was the reason for increased work in getting food from the earth?

When God made man, He made him ruler over the earth and all living creatures. So long as Adam remained loyal to Heaven, all nature was in subjection to him. But when he rebelled against the divine law, the inferior creatures were in rebellion against his rule. Thus the Lord, in His great mercy, would show men the sacredness of His law, and lead them, by their own experience, to see the danger of setting it aside, even in the slightest degree. {CC 18.4}

And the life of toil and care which was henceforth to be man's lot was appointed in love. It was a discipline rendered needful by his sin, to place a check upon the indulgence of appetite and passion, to develop habits of self-control. It was a part of God's great plan for man's recovery from the ruin and degradation of sin. {CC 18.5}

Was it punishment for sin or therapeutic intervention to heal? When we accept the Imperial Rome Imposed law concept, we misinterpret Scripture and misrepresent God as judging and punishing sin, rather than lovingly intervening to heal and restore mankind from sin.

Read last paragraph, "At the beginning..."

Must God judge sin? Why? What makes sin, sin? Is it because God said don't do it? Or does God say don't do it because it is sin?

Is sin inherently wrong and destructive, and thus God in love says don't do it? Or is sin inherently not destructive and only becomes wrong because God says don't do it, and the destruction comes out from God as punishment?

If someone ties a plastic bag over their head and breaks the law of respiration, do we have to have a judgment to determine if they broke the law of respiration? Or, if a person breaks that law, does the break of that law inherently destroy and is self-evident?

What about God's law of love? Is such a break, ultimately self-evident?

How will such a break reveal itself?

What happens to a sinner, unhealed, in the presence of God's unveiled glory?

THURSDAY

Rev. 14:7 "Fear God and give glory to him for the hour of his judgment has come."

What does this mean?

Does the Revelation passage refer to God sitting in judgment of us, or is it the time when God submits Himself to our judgment?

Over what did the war in heaven, initiated by Lucifer, start? Lucifer alleged God could not be trusted. How did Satan spread his rebellion to earth? He deceived our first parents in regard to God's trustworthiness.

We are fighting a thought war and are to demolish everything that sets itself up against "the knowledge of God!" (2Cor 10:5). Jesus said that life eternal is "knowing God" (John 17:3).

And in Romans 3:4 Paul tells us that God is the One on trial, the One accused and the One who will be proved innocent:

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. KJV

May it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man be found a liar, as it is written, "That You may be justified in Your words, And prevail when You are judged." NASB

Certainly not! God must be true, even though every human being is a liar. As the scripture says, "You must be shown to be right when you speak; you must win your case when you are being tried." GNT

No! God will continue to be true even when every person is false. As the Scriptures say: "So you will be shown to be right when you speak, and you will win your case." NCV

Satan lied about God and humanity believed those lies severing our connection with God. Christ came to restore that connection and reverse the damage sin caused humanity. At the end of time God is calling for a people who know Him, who have rejected the lies Satan has told about Him, who have judged God to be trustworthy and thus opened their hearts to Him and experience His healing power. Such people will be transformed to live lives of love revealing God's character in their lives thus bringing glory to God! As such they are powerful witnesses to the world and universe of God's character of love, His methods and principles.

Thus we are in awe of God and give Him glory by revealing His character!

- The Saviour came to glorify the Father by the demonstration of His love; so the Spirit was to glorify Christ by revealing His grace to the world. The very image of God is to be reproduced in humanity. The honor of God, the honor of Christ, is involved in the perfection of the character of His people. {DA 671.3}
- We are examined to demonstrate the healing power of God and the effectiveness of Christ's accomplishments –
- Jesus continued: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." By nature the heart is evil, and "who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one." Job 14:4. No human invention can find a remedy for the sinning soul. "The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." "Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies." Romans 8:7; Matthew 15:19. The fountain of the heart must be purified before the streams can become pure. He who is trying to reach heaven by his own works in keeping the law is attempting an impossibility. There is no safety for one who has merely a legal religion, a form of godliness. The Christian's life is not a modification or improvement of the old, but a transformation of nature. There is a death to self and sin, and a new life altogether. This change can be brought about only by the effectual working of the Holy Spirit. {DA 172.1}
- The Saviour was deeply anxious for His disciples to understand for what purpose His divinity was united to humanity. He came to the world to display the glory of God, that man might be uplifted by its restoring power. God was manifested in Him that He might be manifested in them. Jesus revealed no qualities, and exercised no powers, that men may not have through faith in Him. His perfect humanity is that which all His followers may possess, if they will be in subjection to God as He was. {DA 664.4}

God and His methods are being judged – and we stand as witnesses for God as we cooperate and allow His Spirit to transform us from selfishness to loving others more than self. In that state we are in awe of God and give Him glory!

WEDNESDAY

Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. ¹² And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. ¹³ The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done. ¹⁴ Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. ¹⁵ If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. Rev 20:11-15.

Thoughts?

What is recorded in the records? This is how one of the founders of our church understood it, do you agree?

In the case of each individual there is a process going forward which is far more wonderful than that which transfers the features to the polished plate of the artist. The art of the photographer merely imprints the likeness on perishable substance; but in the life-record the character is faithfully delineated, and this record, however dark, can never be effaced except by the blood of the atoning Sacrifice. {Mar 340.2} [and where is the blood of the atoning sacrifice applied? To record books or to people? Therefore how is the record changed? By actual transformation of character of the individual in partaking of Christ!]

Angels of God are taking a daguerreotype [photograph] of the character just as accurately as the artist takes the likeness of the human features; and . . . it is from this that we are to be judged! {Mar 340.3}

When the Judgment shall sit, and the books shall be opened, there will be many astonishing disclosures. Men will not then appear as they appear to the human eyes and finite judgments. Secret sins will then be laid open to the view of all. Motives and intentions which have been hidden in the dark chambers of the heart will be revealed. {Mar 340.4}

All will appear as a real life-picture. {Mar 340.5}

In that solemn and awful hour the unfaithfulness of the husband will be opened to the wife, and the unfaithfulness of the wife, to the husband. Parents will then learn, for the first time, what was the real character of their children, and children will see the errors and mistakes that marked the lives of their parents. The man who robbed his neighbor through false representations, is not to escape with his ill-gotten gains. God has an exact record in His books, of every unjust account and every unfair dealing. {Mar 340.6}

Memory will be true and vivid in condemnation of the guilty one, who in that day is found wanting. The mind will recall all the thoughts and acts of the past; the whole life will come in review like the scenes in a panorama. {Mar 340.7}

What do you understand is being described? Any Bible texts to support this idea that it is by our characters we are judged?

Those who sew to the carnal nature from that nature will reap destruction. Galatians 6:8.

Or as Jesus Said,

“Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” Mathew 12:33-37.

Why is this recorded in the record? What purpose do the records serve? If the records are an accurate recording of the character for what purpose? I can think of two:

1) To resurrect the individual! Here again is what one of the founders of our church thought:

Our personal identity is preserved in the resurrection, though not the same particles of matter or material substance as went into the grave. The wondrous works of God are a mystery to man. The spirit, the character of man, is returned to God, there to be preserved. In the resurrection every man will have his own character. God in His own time will call forth the dead, giving again the breath of life, and bidding the dry bones live. The same form will come forth, but it will be free from disease and every defect. It lives again bearing the same individuality of features, so that friend will recognize friend. There is no law of God in nature which shows that God gives back the same identical particles of matter which composed the body before death. God shall give the righteous dead a body that will please Him.
{6BC 1093.2}

We might say our software is the same but we get new hardware!

We have our characters preserved and returned to us and where are our characters recorded? In the heavenly record books!

What about the wicked, those lost in the end:

In that vast throng are multitudes of the long-lived race that existed before the Flood; men of lofty stature and giant intellect, who, yielding to the control of fallen angels, devoted all their skill and knowledge to the exaltation of themselves; men whose wonderful works of art led the world to idolize their genius, but whose cruelty and evil inventions, defiling the earth and defacing the image of God, caused Him to blot them from the face of His creation. There are kings and generals who conquered nations, valiant men who never lost a battle, proud, ambitious warriors whose approach made kingdoms tremble. In death these experienced no change. As they come up from the grave, they resume the current of their thoughts just where it ceased. They are actuated by the same desire to conquer that ruled them when they fell. {GC 664.1}

Why do they come with the same current of thoughts?
Because their characters are perfectly recorded in the heavenly record books!

2) second reason for the record books - To vindicate and bring honor to God!

- When I was in medical school there was a helicopter crash....

So how do we understand such texts as:

You, then, why do you judge your brother? Or why do you look down on your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. Romans 14:10

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad. 2 Cor 5:10

Since you call on a Father who judges each man's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear. 1Peter 1:17

And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. Revelation 20:12

Which lens do you read these texts through?

- Those who view them through an imposed law read them to mean that God's judgment determines our destiny, either saved or lost in the form of an arbitrary decision on His part.
- Those who read them through the lens of God's natural law of love understand God's judgment is merely the accurate diagnosis of our condition either healed and restored to Christlikeness or incurable. An example of God's judgment is found in Hosea 4:17:
 - Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone! Hosea 4:17

What is God's judgment in this case? Ephraim cannot be separated from his idols leave him the way he is. What determines our eternal destiny is not God's judgment upon us, but our judgment of God, which in turn makes us either fit or unfit for living in God's system of other-centered love. If we judge God trustworthy then we open the heart and His Spirit heals us from sin. If, instead, we accept Satan's lies and judge God as untrustworthy we keep the heart closed and are eventually beyond healing. One day all will stand in God's presence and their true condition will be revealed – this is God's judgment.

What an incredible privilege is ours to become beacons of God's character in a world dark with lies about Him! Be in awe of God for the hour of His judgment has come!

TUESDAY

Read first two paragraphs, "Critics of the Bible..." thoughts?

How about if God said, "Thou shall not make noise at night." If God had said that, then would He be required to bring the flood?

Or, what about God is cranky because the people were violent and selfish and didn't do things the way He wanted them so He became angry and wrathful and destroyed the world with a flood? Is that any better than the pagan view?

Read next paragraph, "The idea..."

What do you think about the idea that humans are so evil that they deserve death and destruction? Do they mean people deserve God to kill them, or do they mean that a person deserves to reap what they sew, and "The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction;" Gal 6:8?

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 5 1Q 2012

The Holiness of God

What do you understand God's holiness to be? How would you define holy or holiness? What does it mean?

SABBATH

Read paragraphs 3-5 "This week's lesson..." thoughts? What do you hear?

Does it sound like the lesson is suggesting God's holiness is something other than His character of love? What would that be?

- Purity? What is the standard which determines whether something is spiritual pure or not? Would it not be God's character of love?
- Righteousness? What determines whether something is righteous or not, would it not be harmony with God's character of love?
- Set apart – set apart from what? Sin, worldliness – toward what? Wouldn't it be toward God's character of love?

What is holiness if not God's character of love?

What has been your reaction to the following:

- "Speak to the entire assembly of Israel and say to them: 'Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy. Le 19:2
- Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect. Mt 5:48
- Our fathers disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his holiness. Heb 12:10

- But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”
1Pet 1:15,16

What do we understand it to mean to be perfect, or to be holy? What is holiness? Is it not God’s character of love? Then what does it mean to be perfect as God is perfect or to be holy? Does this help?

- For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. Rom 8:29

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, “Even a superficial...” thoughts?

I thought this was well said, and so true – how can we guard against this happening to us? Are there objective actions we can take that will protect us?

- Isaiah 1:18: Come let us reason together though your sins are like scarlet they will be white as snow.
 - We must be willing to reason and think
 - God never asks us to believe, without giving sufficient evidence upon which to base our faith. His existence, His character, the truthfulness of His Word, are all established by testimony that appeals to our reason; and this testimony is abundant. Yet God has never removed the possibility of doubt. Our faith must rest upon evidence, not demonstration. Those who wish to doubt will have opportunity; while those who really desire to know the truth, will find plenty of evidence on which to rest their faith." Steps to Christ 105 (1892); 9MR 202; compare Education 169
- Romans 10:17: So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ. (NRSV)

- The Bible is its own expositor. Scripture is to be compared with scripture. The student should learn to view the word as a whole, and to see the relation of its parts. He should gain a knowledge of its grand central theme, of God's original purpose for the world, of the rise of the great controversy, and of the work of redemption. He should understand the nature of the two principles that are contending for supremacy, and should learn to trace their working through the records of history and prophecy, to the great consummation. He should see how this controversy enters into every phase of human experience; how in every act of life he himself reveals the one or the other of the two antagonistic motives; and how, whether he will or not, he is even now deciding upon which side of the controversy he will be found. Ed. 190
- We must reason, but we must also harmonize all scripture together, we cannot take a little here and there.
- For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse. Romans 1:20
 - In the study of the sciences also, we are to obtain a knowledge of the Creator. All true science is but an interpretation of the handwriting of God in the material world. Science brings from her research only fresh evidences of the wisdom and power of God. Rightly understood, both the book of nature and the written word make us acquainted with God by teaching us something of the wise and beneficent laws through which he works. {CE 66.2}
 - Rightly understood, both the revelations of science and the experiences of life are in harmony with the testimony of Scripture to the constant working of God in nature. {Ed 130.3}

- All science and scripture and experience must harmonize.
- Therefore, as we identify testable laws that God built His universe to operate upon, these become standards against which we can test our theoretical interpretations of scripture – such as the law of love, the law of liberty, the law of worship.

From these points I draw the following conclusions in regard to methods to determine truth:

- We must exercise our reasoning ability, enlightened by the Holy Spirit, to form our beliefs based on an evaluation of the evidence God has provided in His Word, nature and our experience. ALL THREE!
- All the evidence, rightly understood, harmonizes perfectly.
- We are to, as far as our finite minds can, form our beliefs from a harmonious integration of all the evidence.

As we practice these principles we can be guarded from being deceived.

- Those who use science separated from scripture invariable fall into many distortions and false assumptions.
- Likewise, those who use scripture severed from nature and science will also find themselves teaching theories inconsistent with God and His nature and character.

Read fourth paragraph, “At the same time...” thoughts?

What do you think of this sentence, “How does one, for instance, make sense of the sacrifice of Jesus apart from the entire sacrificial system revealed in the Old Testament?”

- What bias does this sentence reveal?
- What lens do they use to understand Jesus and His ministry?

- It sounds as if they believe that they should use the OT system to understand the mission and work of Christ.
- Just think about that for a minute – don't we say that the OT system is a shadow, pointing forward to the reality of Christ?
- Now how sensible would it be to study your shadow and use that information as the template we force our conclusions about you to conform?
- Wouldn't it make much more sense to study you and from you wouldn't we then have greater understanding of what we are seeing in your shadow?

So listen to what one of the founders of the SDA church wrote, regarding our understanding of the sacrificial system and what method we should use to understand it:

The significance of the Jewish economy is not yet fully comprehended. Truths vast and profound are shadowed forth in its rites and symbols. The gospel is the key that unlocks its mysteries. Through a knowledge of the plan of redemption, its truths are opened to the understanding. Far more than we do, it is our privilege to understand these wonderful themes.
{COL 133.1}

What is the key? The gospel and where is the gospel most fully and clearly revealed? Is it not in Jesus? So, I assert that the OT system can only be rightly understood when it is studied through the lens of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. And that when we study the OT system first, and then use that and force Jesus to conform to our understanding of that system, then we distort the meaning and purpose of Christ and the entire system.

MONDAY

The lesson asks us to read Genesis 2:3:

And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Then read first paragraph, “This text...” thoughts?

Is the seventh day holy because God declared it holy, or did God declare it holy because it was, by its creation, made holy? In other words, God constructed, built, or made the 7th day in such a way, that it inherently is holy, set apart, and different from all the other days, and thus God pronounced it such.

At the end of each day of creation when God said “it is good” did His declaration that it is good, make it good, or did He say it was good, because, in fact, it was good?

What about the seventh day holiness?

If it is true, that the seventh day is no different than the other six days, and God, used His sovereign power to “declare” it holy, what would this mean? It would mean God is arbitrary. He chose one day above other days, without reason, and set it apart.

This is one of the allegations that Satan made against God in heaven, that God is arbitrary and when we suggest such a thing, we undermine the holiness of God and present Him as unholy, common and earthly.

From the beginning it has been Satan's studied plan to cause men to forget God, that he might secure them to himself. Therefore he has sought to misrepresent the character of God, to lead men to cherish a false conception of Him. The Creator has been presented to their minds as clothed with the attributes of the prince of evil himself--as arbitrary, severe, and unforgiving--that He might be feared, shunned, and even hated by men. . . . {HP 8.2}

- When was the Sabbath created?
- What was happening in the universe?
- When God was creating earth who was watching? (Job 38)
- What did God do on days 1-6?
- What did days 1-6 reveal about God?
- What did God do on day seven?
- What is revealed about God on day seven?
- So God “blessed” the Sabbath with the investment of God’s character, the TRUTH presented in LOVE while leaving intelligent being FREE to decide for themselves.
- Therefore, the Sabbath was “made” or “built” or “constructed” inherently holy and its existence is evidence of God’s character of love!

Were Adam and Eve made or created holy?

Adam was surrounded with everything his heart could wish. Every want was supplied. There were no sin and no signs of decay in glorious Eden. Angels of God conversed freely and lovingly with the holy pair. {AH 26.3}

Did they stay holy?

We are to keep the Sabbath holy – what does that mean? How do we keep the Sabbath holy?

- What makes the Sabbath holy?
 - God’s character of love, truth, and freedom!
- Then how do we keep it holy?
 - By possessing the character of Christ!

Read next two paragraphs, “The Hebrew word...” thoughts?

What do you think of the idea that “God is set apart from anything else in creation.” And this setting apart of God is what constitutes holiness?

It is true that God lives in “unapproachable light” 1Tim 6:16. But why? Why does God live in unapproachable light? What does this mean? Does it mean photons? Does it mean knowledge and truth and wisdom and understanding?

And why is God unapproachable? Is it because He is aloof and exclusionary, and prefers isolation and wants to selfishly hoard power and knowledge?

Or is it that finite beings cannot ever assimilate or approach infinity? And by nature God cannot be approached by finiteness as it would be too overwhelming for the finite mind?

Therefore, God has gone out from His infinity and fellowshiped with His creation in the person of His Son!

When Jesus came and dwelt with His creation, when He was not far off and disconnected from His creation, but instead intimately connected to it, even to the point of being connected by an umbilical cord in the womb of Mary – was He less holy?

What does holiness have to do with distance, isolation, and separateness?

In heaven before Lucifer rebelled was holiness something far off and foreign?

Holiness is not rapture: it is an entire surrender of the will to God; it is living by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; it is doing the will of our heavenly Father; it is trusting God in trial, in darkness as well as in the light; it is walking by faith and not by sight; it is relying on God with unquestioning confidence, and resting in His love. {FLB 140.3}

No one can be omnipotent, but all can cleanse themselves from filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of the Lord. God requires every soul to be pure and holy. We have hereditary tendencies to wrong. This is a part of self that no one need carry about. It is a weakness of humanity to pet selfishness, because it is a natural trait of character. But unless all selfishness is put away, unless self is crucified, we can never be holy as God is holy. There is in humanity a tendency to suspicious imagining, which circumstances quicken into lively growth. If this trait is indulged, it spoils the character and ruins the soul. {FLB 140.4}

God requires moral perfection in all. Those who have been given light and opportunities should, as God's stewards, aim for perfection, and never, never lower the standard of righteousness to accommodate inherited and cultivated tendencies to wrong. Christ took upon Him our human nature, and lived our life, to show us that we may be like Him. . . . We ought to be holy even as God is holy; and when we comprehend the full significance of this statement, and set our heart to do the work of God, to be holy as He is holy, we shall approach the standard set for each individual in Christ Jesus. {FLB 140.5}

Did angels in heaven prior to Lucifer's rebellion trust God completely? And do those in heaven now trust God completely? Then are they holy?

And when we trust God completely here on earth, what happens to us? Do we open our hearts? Does the Holy Spirit come in? Is there a transformation that occurs? Does the heart become like Christ's? Is that holiness?

No man receives holiness as a birthright, or as a gift from any other human being. Holiness is the gift of God through Christ. Those who receive the Saviour become sons of God. They are His spiritual children, born again, renewed in righteousness and true holiness. Their minds are changed. With clearer vision they behold eternal realities. They are adopted into God's family, and they become conformed to His likeness, changed by His Spirit from glory to glory. From cherishing supreme love for self, they come to cherish supreme love for God and for Christ. . . . Accepting Christ as a personal Saviour, and following His example of self-denial-this is the secret of holiness. {AG 120.4}

Wow – what is the secret of holiness? It is to be like God, like Christ in character, to love God and others more than self!

So, with this in mind, then how do we understand the idea in Scripture that holiness has something to do with cutting or separating?

Think about “circumcision of the heart by the spirit.” What is this metaphor teaching? Cutting away something – what?

We are to have cut away, within our hearts, our love for self, worldly indulgence and destructive practices, and be freed from fear, insecurity, lust, passion, habit, and every cultivated and inherited tendency toward evil.

Thus, the holiness of cutting, is actually the holiness of healing and transforming our character back into God’s ideal!

FRIDAY

Let’s read the top two paragraphs together and ask, what message do you hear being conveyed?

The confusion is hushed. The sound of traffic and bargaining has ceased. The silence becomes painful. A sense of awe overpowers the assembly. It is as if they were arraigned before the tribunal of God to answer for their deeds. Looking upon Christ, they behold divinity flash through the garb of humanity. The Majesty of heaven stands as the Judge will stand at the last day,--not now encircled with the glory that will then attend Him, but with the same power to read the soul. His eye sweeps over the multitude, taking in every individual. His form seems to rise above them in commanding dignity, and a divine light illuminates His countenance. He speaks, and His clear, ringing voice--the same that upon Mount Sinai proclaimed the law that priests and rulers are transgressing--is heard echoing through the arches of the temple: "Take these things hence; make not My Father's house an house of merchandise." {DA 158.1}

Slowly descending the steps, and raising the scourge of cords gathered up on entering the enclosure, He bids the bargaining company depart from the precincts of the temple. With a zeal and severity He has never before manifested, He overthrows the tables of the money-changers. The coin falls, ringing sharply upon the marble pavement. None presume to question His authority. None dare stop to gather up their ill-gotten gain. Jesus does not smite them with the whip of cords, but in His hand that simple scourge seems terrible as a flaming sword. Officers of the temple, speculating priests, brokers and cattle traders, with their sheep and oxen, rush from the place, with the one thought of escaping from the condemnation of His presence. {DA 158.2}

What do you hear? What is being conveyed? What lens are you looking at this scene through? Are you looking through the lens of an imposed law, which requires a judge to impose penalties, or natural law which requires therapy and healing?

The cord "seems" terrible as a flaming sword, to whom?

Amazingly, Jesus conducted Himself with such consummate skill and grace that even when brandishing a whip only those with a guilty conscience were afraid and ran away. The blind and lame stayed by and were healed. And the children were not afraid and sang praises to God. Such was his demeanor that, even while driving out the thieves, the children were not frightened.

(Matthew 21:14-16)

Let's keep reading, we will skip one paragraph and pick up on the same thread of thought as we just read, remembering He is standing as the Judge will stand at the end of time, let's read:

In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit. The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,--from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. "The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver." Malachi 3:1-3. {DA 161.1}

...No man can of himself cast out the evil throng that have taken possession of the heart. Only Christ can cleanse the soul temple. But He will not force an entrance. He comes not into the heart as to the temple of old; but He says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him." Revelation 3:20. He will come, not for one day merely; for He says, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; . . . and they shall be My people." "He will subdue our iniquities; and Thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea." 2 Corinthians 6:16; Micah 7:19. His presence will cleanse and sanctify the soul, so that it may be a holy temple unto the Lord, and "an habitation of God through the Spirit." Ephesians 2:21, 22. {DA 161.2}

What did you hear now? Is this what you heard when you read the first two paragraphs? I challenge you – it should be! This is who God is, God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his son...

What does Christ want to drive out? Sinfulness, selfishness, from our hearts!

The lens of imposed law has biased us to see God as being against us – just like last week the Genesis account was rendered as God pronouncing judgment against the serpent, woman and man, when we discovered it was God intervening to save – God is for us. Likewise, when we read Christ as standing as Judge – to do what? To diagnose properly and then cleanse, heal and restore!

This is the message of all eternity, the good news, that God is not like Satan alleges, God is not our enemy, God is not the source of suffering and death. Sin is the source of suffering and death and God is working through all His agencies, FOR US, to heal and restore! Holy Holy Holy Is the Lord God Almighty!

TUESDAY

Read last paragraph, “Even though...” thoughts?

What do you think of their reaction? What was the cause of the reaction?

How do the holy ones in heaven react to God’s presence? Don’t they fall down in front of Him, cast crowns and worship saying “Holy, Holy, Holy”?

Is this response necessarily borne of sin, or of something else? Could it be borne of awe, admiration, overwhelming majesty, awareness of such goodness it is breathtaking and humbling? Does one have to be sinful to respond this way?

In fact, when a sinful heart comes into the presence of God does it fall down in humble adoration and acknowledgement of unworthiness? Or does the sinful heart run away calling for deliverance?

What about the idea of a substitute to bridge the gap between God and sinful beings? Much is implied with this statement.

First, are sinful beings the only ones who need someone as a bridge builder with God, someone to go between them and God, someone to act as mediator? Do sinless beings need the same?

“While we rejoice that there are worlds which have never fallen, these worlds render praise, and honor, and glory to Jesus Christ for the plan of redemption to save the fallen sons of Adam, as well as to confirm themselves in their position and character of purity. The arm that raised the human family from the ruin which Satan had brought upon the race through his temptations, is the arm which has preserved the inhabitants of other worlds from sin. Every world throughout immensity engages the care and support of the Father and the Son; and this care is constantly exercised for fallen humanity. Christ is mediating in behalf of man, and the order of unseen worlds also is preserved by his mediatorial work. Are not these themes of sufficient magnitude and importance to engage our thoughts, and call forth our gratitude and adoration to God?" {RH, January 11, 1881 par. 4}

The scripture states that "For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross." (Col 1:19,20)

Heavenly things were reconciled by the blood of Christ – why? What does it mean?

God lives in unapproachable light – Jesus through all eternity has been the one who left the infinity of the Godhead and went out to interact closely with creation, thus drawing as close as possible to creation.

WEDNESDAY

Read first paragraph, "In the Old Testament..." thoughts?

Do they mean that God was not harsh in the OT or that He is still harsh today?

What do you think?

The lesson asks why Peter, after the miracle of the fishes in the net, fell down convicted of Christ's divinity asking Christ to depart from him stating “I am a sinful man.” And then answer in the last paragraph, “Why this reaction?...”

And then read bottom paragraph THURSDAY “In all of the human encounters...”

What excellent points are made in these paragraphs?

- God is not changed by our sin
- We are changed by sin
- Sin causes us torment and torture of mind/heart in the presence of God’s unveiled truth
- Thus, sin is the source of suffering and ultimately death, not God

THURSDAY

Read fourth paragraph, “Although God is love...” thoughts?

Do you hear a suggestion that Holiness is something other than God’s character of love?

What would you say about this?

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 6 1Q 2012

God the Lawgiver

When you hear the title what images come to your mind?

Great peace have they who love your law, and nothing can make them stumble. PS 119:165

The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul.
The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.
The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart.
The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes. PS 19:7,8

Our God is beautiful – His character is beautiful – His law is beautiful!

Satan hates the beauty of God and His law of love and Satan works to pervert our understanding of God's law and thus God's character. We will explore this today!

SABBATH

Read entire day starting with first paragraph, "As Seventh-day Adventist..." thoughts?

Any questions?

Do you agree that the law, which is an expression of God's character? What about the phrase (If so, then because God doesn't change, the law – which reveals His character – shouldn't change either.)

Would you make the language a little stronger and say, the law cannot change? Why can the law not change? What are the possibilities?

- God enacted a law and only God can change it
- God's character is love and He constructed His universe to operate upon certain principles or laws and change would result in destruction of His universe and God would no longer be a God of love

What do you understand God's character to be?

Does a different concept of God's law alter the way we see His character?

When it comes to law – what are the types of law of which we know?

Natural and Enacted or Imposed –

I am going to throw out examples of various laws, you tell me into which category does it fit, natural or imposed:

- Natural law
 - Health – respiration, hydration, nutrition
 - Nature – thermodynamics, motion, friction, gravity
 - Love – circuit of giving life is built upon
 - Liberty – love only exists with freedom
 - Worship – by beholding we become changed
 - Genetics – life changes gene expression and we pass these changes to our offspring
- Enacted law
 - Ceremonial – washing of priest before service in OT
 - Health – must be 21 to drink
 - Safety - speed limits
 - Criminal – robbery, rape, murder and what punishment is allowed, proscribed
 - Tax – legal and illegal deductions
 - Marital law – who can marry whom

- Civil – cannot misrepresent someone in the media

What is the purpose of the natural laws?

What is the purpose of the enacted laws?

What is the problem when one breaks one of the natural laws?

What is the problem when one breaks one of the imposed laws?

Are there any natural laws that require imposition of penalties?

If we teach God's law requires He impose penalties what have we just done? We have changed God's unchangeable law from the natural law upon which He built the universe to an imposed law.

Another layer of rules:

- School dress code
- No chewing gum in class
- No TV on school nights
- No video games if grades are not B's or better
- Must brush your teeth each night before bed

What are the purpose of these type of rules?

Is there some other law that we haven't yet included?

What about the 10 Commandments? Where do they fit?

Were they always in existence? Or were they added later, after sin entered?

- The law was added so that the trespass might increase. Romans 5:20
- It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. Gal 3:19

Now let's reason together – were the laws God constructed His universe to operate upon added so that sin might increase? Or so that we might see sin more clearly? No!

So what law was added? All imposed law – sacrifices, circumcision, ceremonial law – AND the 10 Commandments!

One of the founders of our church saw it as I do:

- I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments... "The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). In this scripture, the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. {1SM 233, 234}

Notice the language “moral code of the 10 commandments”. God’s law of love, the principles upon which the universe was built was always in existence, but in the 10 Commandments God “codified” the principles of love uniquely for humanity’s need.

This codification of the law was not always in existence, while the law of love was always in existence.

Angels didn’t have sins pass down the generations, nor honor mother and father, nor need to avoid adultery, nor have problems with coveting another man’s wife. Yet, the angels did have the law of love, the principle upon which life was based.

- If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, they would never have been seduced into idolatry, nor would it have been necessary for them to suffer a life of bondage in Egypt; they would have kept God's law in mind, and there would have been no necessity for it to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon the tables of stone. And had the people practiced the principles of the Ten Commandments, there would have been no need of the additional directions given to Moses. {PP 364.2}

So, the 10 commandments are not “enacted” or “imposed” law, neither are they the natural law as they were added later. The 10 Commandments are a unique “codification” of the natural law designed for our need, but for what purpose?

First – as we read above to increase the ability to see sin, to diagnose accurately, to reveal our condition to us.

Secondly, as a hedge of protection to keep us safe from self destruction while God is working to rewrite our operating systems, minds/hearts, back into harmony with His character of love. In other words, God is working to put His law of love back into our hearts and minds. Jer 31:30 and Heb 8:10.

Third, they are also a promise of what our characters will look like when God finishes His way in us. We will not have other gods before Him. We will not make images and worship them. We will not take His name in vain....

So, as we review the different types of law – what do you understand the law to be in heaven before Lucifer rebelled?

Here is the historical Adventist perspective:

In the beginning, God was revealed in all the works of creation. It was Christ that spread the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth. It was His hand that hung the worlds in space, and fashioned the flowers of the field. "His strength setteth fast the mountains." "The sea is His, and He made it." Psalm 65:6; 95:5. It was He that filled the earth with beauty, and the air with song.

And upon all things in earth, and air, and sky, He wrote the message of the Father's love. {DA 20.1}

Now sin has marred God's perfect work, yet that handwriting remains. Even now all created things declare the glory of His excellence. There is nothing, save the selfish heart of man, that lives unto itself. No bird that cleaves the air, no animal that moves upon the ground, but ministers to some other life. There is no leaf of the forest, or lowly blade of grass, but has its ministry. Every tree and shrub and leaf pours forth that element of life without which neither man nor animal could live; and man and animal, in turn, minister to the life of tree and shrub and leaf. The flowers breathe fragrance and unfold their beauty in blessing to the world. The sun sheds its light to gladden a thousand worlds. The ocean, itself the source of all our springs and fountains, receives the streams from every land, but takes to give. The mists ascending from its bosom fall in showers to water the earth, that it may bring forth and bud. {DA 20.2}

The angels of glory find their joy in giving,--giving love and tireless watchcare to souls that are fallen and unholy. Heavenly beings woo the hearts of men; they bring to this dark world light from the courts above; by gentle and patient ministry they move upon the human spirit, to bring the lost into a fellowship with Christ which is even closer than they themselves can know. {DA 21.1}

But turning from all lesser representations, we behold God in Jesus. Looking unto Jesus we see that it is the glory of our God to give. "I do nothing of Myself," said Christ; "the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father." "I seek not Mine own glory," but the glory of Him that sent Me. John 8:28; 6:57; 8:50; 7:18. In these words is set forth the great principle which is the law of life for the universe. All things Christ received from God, but He took to give. So in the heavenly courts, in His ministry for all created beings: through the beloved Son, the Father's life flows out to all; through the Son it returns, in praise and joyous service, a tide of love, to the great Source of all. And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life. {DA 21.2}

In heaven itself this law was broken. Sin originated in self-seeking. Lucifer, the covering cherub, desired to be first in heaven. He sought to gain control of heavenly beings, to draw them away from their Creator, and to win their homage to himself. Therefore he misrepresented God, attributing to Him the desire for self-exaltation. With his own evil characteristics he sought to invest the loving Creator. Thus he deceived angels. Thus he deceived men. He led them to doubt the word of God, and to distrust His goodness. Because God is a God of justice and terrible majesty, Satan caused them to look upon Him as severe and unforgiving. Thus he drew men to join him in rebellion against God, and the night of woe settled down upon the world. {DA 21.3}

The earth was dark through misapprehension of God. That the gloomy shadows might be lightened, that the world might be brought back to God, Satan's deceptive power was to be broken. This could not be done by force. The exercise of force is contrary to the principles of God's government; He desires only the service of love; and love cannot be commanded; it cannot be won by force or authority. Only by love is love awakened. To know God is to love Him; His character must be manifested in contrast to the character of Satan. This work only one Being in all the universe could do. Only He who knew the height and depth of the love of God could make it known. Upon the world's dark night the Sun of Righteousness must rise, "with healing in His wings." Malachi 4:2. {DA 22.1}

What law was broken in heaven? It was not the 10 Commandments that Lucifer broke. They did not yet exist. Where did this law originate?

What caused it to be broken?

What is the law of life for the universe?

What does this mean? Does it mean life is constructed to exist only in harmony with this principle of giving?

What do we learn of God's character when we see the law in this way?

What happens to how we see God's character if we change the law to an imposed law? Do we see God differently?

- If we see God's law as the law of love we see God working to heal His creation from the destruction that breaking the law brings
- If we see God's law as imposed we see God working to create a means whereby He doesn't have to execute the sinner, so we set up a system in which God is working against Himself. On the one hand He is working to justly punish law breaking, on the other hand He is working to divert the punishment away from law breakers to His innocent Son. What some call the most unjust act in the universe.

SUNDAY

Read third paragraph, "So, right from..." very well said, the written law was never a means of salvation, it was a diagnostic instrument to diagnose and expose our terminal state and lead us to Christ for healing!

The lesson asks us to read Romans 7:8-13, let's start with verse 7 and go through 13. I am going to read from my paraphrase:

^{7:7} What shall we say then? Is the law evil and selfish because it increases the amount of evil and selfishness we see? Absolutely not! For I would not have known what evil and selfishness looks like if it wasn't for the diagnostic efficacy of the law. I would not have realized that coveting was evil and selfish if the law didn't say, "Don't covet." ⁸ But selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the law is only a diagnostic instrument and not a remedy, magnified every covetous desire within me. For apart from the diagnostic ability of the law, sin is unrecognizable. ⁹ Once I thought I was healthy and free from the infection of distrust, fear and selfishness, but then the commandment examined me, exposed how utterly infected I was and diagnosed me as terminal. ¹⁰ I discovered that the very commandment given only to diagnose my condition, I had unwittingly attempted to use as a cure and thus my condition only worsened. ¹¹ For selfishness, taking advantage of the fact that the commandment could only diagnose and not cure, deceived me into thinking I could be cured by working to keep the commandments, but instead my terminal state only worsened. ¹² So understand this, the law diagnoses perfectly, and the commandment is the standard of what is right and good, set apart by God, to reveal what is evil and destructive.

7:13 Did the law, which did good by diagnosing what was wrong with me, become the source of my terminal condition? Of course not! It only exposed what was already in me so that I could recognize how totally decayed, putrid and near death I was, so that through the lens of the commandment I might become utterly disgusted with evil and selfishness and long for a cure.

Thoughts?

Read last paragraph, "In a sense..." thoughts?

What is the problem with sinners? Is it that they have violated God's law, or is it that they are out of harmony with God's law?

- An analogy, the law of gravity – if you purposely jump off a building, or get thrown off by another, or get tricked

- into stepping of, or slip off accidentally – does it change the way you are treated by gravity?
- Does God’s law treat us differently if we violate it knowingly or ignorantly?
 - When Eve was deceived, tricked into breaking God’s law, was she treated differently by the law, than Adam who broke the law knowingly?
 - If a person is tricked into taking LSD and another person takes it knowingly will the LSD work differently in each of them or do the same thing?
 - If God’s law is the natural law upon which He built the universe it is a constant and functions constantly, thus breeches result in the same consequence regardless of how it is broken. But if God’s law is imposed, then we can take into consideration whether someone was tricked or not and modify the consequences.
 - What about every human born since Adam? A newborn baby? Has a new born baby chosen to violate God’s law? Is that newborn baby in harmony with God’s law?
 - Imagine HIV infected man and woman have a child born HIV infected, what did the child do wrong? Nothing, but doesn’t the child still have a terminal condition, which if unremedied will kill it?
 - This is our condition, we are born in sin conceived in iniquity, Ps 51:5, we are born terminal.
 - If you had a loved one on top of a building suicidal, and they are going to jump, and you had time, would you put one of those air mattress things to catch them? What if they slipped or were pushed?
 - If you had a grandchild born HIV infected, would you condemn the child and sentence it to death, or would you, as you were able, seek a remedy and a cure?
 - When man fell into sin, what did God do? He immediately began interceding to hold the ravages of sin at bay while implementing His plan to heal and restore mankind back to His original design!
 - God is always for us – it is Satan, evil men, and sin itself that is against us.

So is the problem with sinners who have violated the law, or the problem with our condition of being out of harmony with the law which results in its violation and that only worsens the problem?

MONDAY

Read first two paragraphs, “As soon as we talk...” thoughts?

Is it true God’s law has always been in existence?

Is it true God’s law has always been codified as the 10 Commandments?

We have already read the 10 Commandments were added later, because of a need. Consider it this way –

Is it true that since God created earth the law of gravity has been at work on planet earth? When Isaac Newton finally wrote it down – did that then create the law of gravity? No! It was always in existence, but not in the form of equations written on paper.

The 10 Commandments are like that, they put in writing what was always in existence as part of the law of love, but do it in a way particularly designed for the need of sinful humanity.

Read next paragraph, “Genesis 1 and 2...” thoughts?

Really? Do you really need to write down somewhere that if you love your brother you won’t murder him, in order to know that murder is not loving?

What about this – if you have a 10 year old little brother and you love him, will you give him cigarettes, alcohol and cocaine? Would it be sin to do this?

How could we possibly know this would be sin? It isn't written in the 10 Commandments anywhere is it?

How do we know such an act is sinful if it isn't written in the 10 Commandment?

Did Cain really need the 10 Commandments to know murder is a violation of the law of love?

If you murdered someone, would you really need to have a law tell you it was wrong?

What about in times when the law says it is right to kill another human being? What happens to a person when they take the life of another human? Can they do this without consequence to themselves?

- A police officer shoots and kills an armed suspect – is there a consequence to the police officer?
- A homeowner shoots and kills a home invader – is there a consequence?
- A soldier shoots and kills an enemy combatant, is there a consequence to the soldier?

Is there something inherent in our design that convicts us it is wrong to kill another human? Or did it only become wrong once it was written on stone?

Is killing another wrong because God says it, or does God say don't do it because it is wrong – and by wrong we mean it violates God's design for life, and thus the killer gets damaged by the act.

What about if they are killing for God? What about in the OT times, David killed many people in defense of God, yet was not allowed to build the Temple because he was a man of blood. What does this mean? Just his history? Or do such actions affect the heart and mind?

It is abnormal to kill another person. We are wired to be aversive to this. We are created to love others. And we are not at peace when we kill. We have to be conditioned to do it.

Read sixth paragraph, “When Abraham lied....” Thoughts?

What do you think about their conclusion?

If the reason God rebuked Abimelech was because He held the same standard as the Decalogue, then why did Abraham have 3 concubines, Jacob 2 wives and 2 concubines, David 5 wives, Solomon 700 wives etc. yet we don’t find God rebuking them like he did Abimelech? If the reason is that God is holding them to the same standard of the 10 Commandments before it was given, then shouldn’t He be consistent?

I think God rebuked Abimelech because Sarah was the one through whom the promised child was to come, from Sarah and Abraham, not Sarah and Abimelech. Thus, Sarah had to go back to Abraham to fulfill this purpose, not because of some statement regarding the 10 Commandments existing before it was given.

Read last paragraph, “Clearly, the idea that there was no law until Sinai makes no sense in light of so much of what the Bible teaches about life before Sinai.”

Yes there was law before Sinai – but in what form?

Was there the written codification of God’s law before Sinai? No! Was the law of life, the law upon which God constructed life to operate in existence before Sinai? Yes.

So with all this in mind what do you understand Paul to be saying in Romans 5:12-14:

Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned—for before the law was given, sin was in the world. But sin is not taken into account when there is no law. Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Paul is saying that when Adam sinned by breaking the command of God, his nature was changed from one operating upon God's design of love, and now was infected with fear and selfishness, a terminal state. And all humans born of Adam are infected with that same terminal condition, thus deviations from God's design reign, i.e. sin before the written law was given at Sinai. And since life is built to operate on God's design principles death was reigning as all were out of harmony with how God designed things to run, even in those who were dying did not choose to be that way by breaking a specific command of God as Adam did.

WEDNESDAY

Read second paragraph, "Contrary..." thoughts?

Can you give some examples to demonstrate how the Hebrew religion has always been a religion of grace?

- Eye for an eye – stopped people from killing for minor offenses
- Cities of refuge
- Judicial system required two witnesses to agree on every point and the Sanhedrin was 72 of the best lawyers for the defense of the accused while the offended had to prosecute on their own
- Gleaning in the fields
- Jubilees – land and slaves freed and returned to family owners
- Accommodations for the poor in temple service

- Sacrificial system designed to teach God's love – His self sacrifice to take our condition upon Himself to cure us and bring us back into unity with Himself.

Anything in the OT that makes it hard to see grace?

- The hard heartedness of the people, and their need for God to meet them where they were.

Read last paragraph, "Why, though, such..." well said and what about today? Do we teach the principles of the law, or do we get side tracked on the rules?

What can we do to protect against getting side tracked?

Take focus off self and onto God and others! How can we bless another, uplift another, help another.

If your neighbor is in need and you are thinking of helping him, but it is Sabbath, what do you do? If you are thinking about your neighbor you help, if you are thinking about yourself you don't because you must obey the law.

Jesus pointed this out as the Jews would help an ox out of the ditch on Sabbath but didn't want a man healed on Sabbath because Christ could easily heal him any other day of the week. In other words the healings Christ did on Sabbath were not emergency, life or death healings. They were treating chronic medical conditions, which could have easily waited until sundown!

Why didn't Christ wait until after Sabbath to heal them? What is the lesson here? Are we today only to help our neighbors if it is an emergency? Or should we rake the lawn of the elderly couple on Sabbath?

Should we purposely dedicate a certain number of hours each Sabbath to go out and do public service WORK, to minister and help others, but for which we will not receive pay? Would this be keeping or breaking the Sabbath?

What would happen to the name of Christ in Chattanooga, if a group of Sabbath keepers starting committing 4 hours each Sabbath to works of community service and ministry? Work for our neighbors and community? Would this uplift or tear down the name of Christ? Would it be in harmony with the Sabbath law or break it?

Here is what one of the founders of the SDA church thought about Sabbath keeping:

The demands upon God are even greater upon the Sabbath than upon other days. His people then leave their usual employment, and spend the time in meditation and worship. They ask more favors of Him on the Sabbath than upon other days. They demand His special attention. They crave His choicest blessings. God does not wait for the Sabbath to pass before He grants these requests. Heaven's work never ceases, and men should never rest from doing good. The Sabbath is not intended to be a period of useless inactivity. The law forbids secular labor on the rest day of the Lord; the toil that gains a livelihood must cease; no labor for worldly pleasure or profit is lawful upon that day; but as God ceased His labor of creating, and rested upon the Sabbath and blessed it, so man is to leave the occupations of his daily life, and devote those sacred hours to healthful rest, to worship, and to holy deeds. The work of Christ in healing the sick was in perfect accord with the law. It honored the Sabbath. {DA 207.2}

Thoughts? Should we do good deeds, work, on the Sabbath intended to bless and help our community and neighbors?

THURSDAY

Read top paragraph, "From the start..." thoughts?

Much truth in this paragraph, harmony with God's design, His law does protect against ravages of sin.

Is it possible to be a "law keeper" while breaking the law and thus being damaged by sin?

Can one keep the Sabbath, observe it in such a way as they don't do any work, only do religious activities, but harden their hearts and kill their Savior?

So the law can be perverted in practice to, rather than protect, injure and hurt.

Any examples of this?

Read bottom green section? Do you see the questions through the two lenses of natural law or imposed law?

If one uses the lens of Roman Imperial Imposed law then these questions make some sort of sense – but if one sees through the lens of God's natural law – these questions are nonsense.

It would be like saying respiration without exchanging oxygen and carbon dioxide would lead to what? Or Exchanging oxygen and carbon dioxide without breathing would lead to what?

You cannot exchange these gases without respiration, without breathing. Likewise love is the law and keeping the law is love. Unless you view love as one thing and God's law as something He imposed later.

FRIDAY

Read top three paragraphs – well said, what are the points to note?

There is no negative in God's law – why? Because it is the design for life, the law of life, it restores or heals. It is a promise of life eternal.

And this law operates only in an atmosphere of freedom, coercion and threat are only part of Satan's government because they destroy love and giving. Thus, what can we know about various theologies? Any theology which suggest God, in order to be just, must inflict pain, suffering and death presents God as using coercive tactics, which violate His own character and thus such ideas are false.

The actual transformation of our hearts and minds is done by the work of the Holy Spirit within us when we trust God!

And it is in this experience we are freed from fear, insecurity, anxiety, which lead us to all the “save self” behaviors that damage and destroy.

Read and discuss Questions 3.

TUESDAY

Any questions about Sabbath before Sinai?

Created in Eden, practiced in desert before Sinai, see Exodus 16.

Was the Sabbath needed in heaven before sin? Why or why not?

What is the purpose of the Sabbath?

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 7 1Q 2012

The Lord of the Sabbath

Read memory text -thoughts?

What do you understand it to mean that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath?

Have you ever felt like it was the other way around?

If the Sabbath was made for man was it in existence before man?

Does this add further clarification to our discussion last week of the 10 Commandments being codification of the law of love that was added for human need?

Why was the Sabbath needed when man was created but not before?

Why will the Sabbath be celebrated in the new earth?

SUNDAY

Read first paragraph, "One of the most..."

In what condition was man when the Sabbath was made?

What do you think the purpose of the Sabbath was in Eden?

Did the purpose of the Sabbath change after sin? If so how?

What do you understand it to mean, the Sabbath was "made" holy? Do you understand it to mean the Sabbath was made holy in its construction, the built into it is holiness? As in man was "made" perfect? Or simply God declared it holy so it is holy?

The lesson states, “With the Sabbath, then, we’re dealing with one of the most fundamental and foundational of all biblical truths.”

What is that fundamental and foundational truth?

- That the Sabbath is Saturday the seventh day?
- That the Sabbath is holy?
- Or, is it what makes the Sabbath holy that is foundational and fundamental, and what the Sabbath reveals about God’s character that is foundational and fundamental?

And what is that foundational and fundamental truth about God’s character, which the Sabbath reveals?

Read next paragraph, “God created a day...” thoughts?

What does it mean the Sabbath was set apart for holy uses?

- Are all the other days set apart for unholy uses?
- In Eden, before sin, were any unholy activities being done by Adam and Eve?
- In its original creation what does this mean?
- Does it mean a special time set aside to spend with God? Didn’t He come and spend time with them in the cool of every day?
- Are we introjecting some idea into our understanding of the Sabbath because of the perspective of our sinful minds?

What do you think about this portion of paragraph two, “How fascinating that God Himself rested on the seventh day.

Whatever that means, it shows how seriously the day is meant to be taken, because God Himself rested on it!”?

What does it mean God rested? Did He stop working? One Bible Commentary states the following:

Jesus stated to them that the work of relieving the afflicted was in harmony with the Sabbath law. It was in harmony with the work of God's angels, who are ever descending and ascending between heaven and earth to minister to suffering humanity. Jesus declared, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." All days are God's, in which to carry out His plans for the human race. If the Jews' interpretation of the law was correct, then Jehovah was at fault, whose work has quickened and upheld every living thing since first He laid the foundations of the earth; then He who pronounced His work good, and instituted the Sabbath to commemorate its completion, must put a period to His labor, and stop the never-ending routine of the universe. {DA 206.3}

Should God forbid the sun to perform its office upon the Sabbath, cut off its genial rays from warming the earth and nourishing vegetation? Must the system of worlds stand still through that holy day? Should He command the brooks to stay from watering the fields and forests, and bid the waves of the sea still their ceaseless ebbing and flowing? Must the wheat and corn stop growing, and the ripening cluster defer its purple bloom? Must the trees and flowers put forth no bud nor blossom on the Sabbath? {DA 206.4}

In such a case, men would miss the fruits of the earth, and the blessings that make life desirable. Nature must continue her unvarying course. God could not for a moment stay His hand, or man would faint and die. And man also has a work to perform on this day. The necessities of life must be attended to, the sick must be cared for, the wants of the needy must be supplied. He will not be held guiltless who neglects to relieve suffering on the Sabbath. God's holy rest day was made for man, and acts of mercy are in perfect harmony with its intent. God does not desire His creatures to suffer an hour's pain that may be relieved upon the Sabbath or any other day. {DA 207.1}

So what does it mean God rested? Did God stop working?

If God did not stop working, then what kind of rest did God do on the Sabbath? He stopped creating on planet earth. And why, after this creation week, did He announce a day of rest? What purpose would such a day serve?

What was happening in the universe? Who was watching as God created planet earth and all life on it?

God rested His presentation of evidence of His character of love and His law upon which life is built.

Consider this world, teeming with life, and everything operating perfectly upon God's law of love, ministering to another, life unto life. What a beautiful lesson book to reveal God's methods, principles and character. And the Sabbath, God rested, and we learn more of His character – He gives real freedom to His creatures to think for themselves. He doesn't coerce or pressure.

Satan hates this day. He doesn't want people to remember how God built planet earth to operate. He has infected earth with his principle of survival of the fittest. He doesn't want people stopping their drive to survive, to rest in trust with God and reflect on His original creation, His methods, His principles of love and what it means that God leaves us free, even His enemies free.

Satan doesn't mind if we keep the seventh day Sabbath, as long as we do it as an arbitrary test of obedience. Then the Sabbath, rather than revealing God's design, methods, and character, instead supports Satan's allegations against God. And with that idea of Sabbath we can kill the Creator and want Him off the Cross so we can keep what the law "requires."

MONDAY

The lesson breaks down the Sabbath commandment of Exodus into various parts – read starting “This commandment is also...”

Thoughts?

Would you say that it is sin, a violation of the commandment, to do secular work on Sabbath?

We have the command, thou shall do no work –

But what about the other express command – Six days thou shall labor and work and do all thy work?

If it is a sin to labor and work on the Sabbath, because the commandment gives us an express command, then is it a sin not to labor and work the other six days of the week because we also have an express command?

Did God give Adam and Eve work to do in the Garden before sin?

Are we designed to be active, to work productively? What happens when we stop working? We lose physical health, we age faster, our brains deteriorate, we lose self-respect, confidence, and our development ceases; we slowly die.

It is part of God’s design that we are active, engaged, working with our energy to give of ourselves in usefulness.

- So, is it “sin” to retire and quit working? (I don’t mean quite earning a paycheck, but to quit useful expenditure of your energy in some productive action?)
- Is it sin to take state welfare or charity when one is capable of working and has opportunity to work?

- Is it sin to live off your parents, or inheritance when one is capable of working?
- Is it sin to stand on the street corner with a sign, will work for food, and then refuse to work when someone gives an opportunity?

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers, to keep away from every brother who is idle and does not live according to the teaching you received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example. We were not idle when we were with you, ⁸ nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked night and day, laboring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹ We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help, but in order to make ourselves a model for you to follow. ¹⁰ For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work, he shall not eat."

¹¹ We hear that some among you are idle. They are not busy; they are busybodies. ¹² Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and earn the bread they eat. ¹³ And as for you, brothers, never tire of doing what is right. 2 Thes 3:6-13

Is it sin, not to be usefully engaged in work of some kind, irrespective of whether it gains a paycheck if one is capable?

- What is your reaction to, on the Sabbath, going to work, working for self to make money on the Sabbath?
- What is your reaction to not working the other days?

Do we dishonor God with both? How?

We were made in God's image – to reveal His character, to be an example to angels and the world. Resting on Sabbath demonstrates our confidence and trust in God, celebrates His nature, character and principles of truth, presented in love, leaving others free. Working the other six days demonstrates the constant care, regard, and interest in usefulness, using one's energies to bless, assist, be productive, and be a giver, rather than be a burden and require others to care for you.

Earthly kings expect to be waited on and served by others, God serves and gives of Himself for others. And Christ came to serve and not be served, and we are to live as Christ lived!

Thoughts?

TUESDAY

Read, starting in the second paragraph, "The Sabbath, on a purely practical level, offered servants some protection from the master who would work them nonstop – a protection built right into a commandment that had its origins in Creation itself." and then read the third paragraph "Of course..."

Thoughts?

Did God change His law after sin? What does it mean this element was added?

Was an element added? No! The Sabbath did not change. It is holy because it is evidence of God's character of truth, love and freedom. The explanation is just another way to state the same truth about the Sabbath – the God of truth, love and freedom made man in His image, not for slavery, delivering people from slavery is an expression of God's character of love, and the principles of freedom already inherent in the Sabbath.

Because of their personal experience with being slaves, using this meaning was designed to help them have a better appreciation for the true nature of the Sabbath. Unfortunately, rather than becoming a day filled with truth, love and freedom, the Jews burdened the Sabbath to become the day which most enslaved them.

See WEDNESDAY

Middle of the lesson it asks, "What is the context of the healing, why would Jesus have done it specifically on that day, and what is the major point that He is clearly making?"

From the Desire of Ages page 206:

Jesus had come to "magnify the law, and make it honorable." He was not to lessen its dignity, but to exalt it. The scripture says, "He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment in the earth." Isaiah 42:21, 4. He had come to free the Sabbath from those burdensome requirements that had made it a curse instead of a blessing. {DA 206.1}

For this reason He had chosen the Sabbath upon which to perform the act of healing at Bethesda. He could have healed the sick man as well on any other day of the week; or He might simply have cured him, without bidding him bear away his bed. But this would not have given Him the opportunity He desired. A wise purpose underlay every act of Christ's life on earth. Everything He did was important in itself and in its teaching. Among the afflicted ones at the pool He selected the worst case upon whom to exercise His healing power, and bade the man carry his bed through the city in order to publish the great work that had been wrought upon him. This would raise the question of what it was lawful to do on the Sabbath, and would open the way for Him to denounce the restrictions of the Jews in regard to the Lord's day, and to declare their traditions void. {DA 206.2}

Why did Christ heal on Sabbath? To remove restrictions to the freedoms we are to experience on Sabbath.

Do we suffer with any human restrictions that make the Sabbath a burden and need to be removed?

A listener online sent in the following:

Currently my church is having an issue with getting musicians to play for our services on Sabbath. We have musicians in the congregation that play but they want someone of a certain caliber to work with the various choirs that we have and sometimes those of that caliber are not Adventists even though they are Christians, well some are. Some of these persons wear jewelry and members have an issue with that plus they are paid to play on a Sabbath.

A friend of mine recently returned from Atlanta where he was paid handsomely to play on Sabbath in various churches there, so well was he paid that he didn't have to work during the week.

So, should musicians be paid to perform in church on Sabbath?

Should the church “hire” people to play for the services? Or is it okay, permissible, acceptable, honorable to pay musicians to play in church on Sabbath?

Should the church “hire” people to speak for the services or should pastors all be non-paid persons so as not to do any paid work on the Sabbath?

What about musicians? If we call the worship leaders is it okay?

What about members of the choir?

All the Levites who were musicians—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives—stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets. ¹³ The trumpeters and singers joined in unison, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, they raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang:

“He is good;
his love endures forever.” 2Chron 5:12,13

How did the Levites get income? They were paid 1/10 of the tithe as their income. And what was their job?

Should persons be paid to participate in the worship service?

THURSDAY

Read first paragraph, “Jesus, through His Sabbath...” well said!

What do you hear in this paragraph? What is the lesson for us today?

The next sentence says, “For Jesus, the Sabbath was more about people than about rules...” thoughts?

In your life is Sabbath more about people or rules?

As parents how do we make the Sabbath about people and not about rules?

Growing up has the Sabbath ever had rules that made it a burden rather than a celebration of God’s love?

FRIDAY

Read top two paragraphs – thoughts? Does this mean just relieving physical suffering, or mental and emotional suffering too?

Does this make it harder to determine what is appropriate to do on the Sabbath, or is all behavior that helps another, all altruistic, benevolent, ministering “work” that doesn’t profit self okay on Sabbath?

If we avoid such ministry in order to “rest” on the Sabbath are we being selfish?

Read and discuss question 1

What does it mean “And they certainly will be judged for their actions”?

- Does it mean that we will look at the history of their lives and draw lessons, make judgments, that will help us live better lives?
- Does it mean they will be legally judged and punitively punished for their actions?
- Or something else?

What does the scripture say?

“Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” MT 12:33-37

What does this mean? Is it not saying your condition itself will be the determining factor in the judgment? In other words the judgment only accurately diagnosis the condition of one’s character.

What do you think about the latter part of someone coming along claiming light which contradicts tradition? How should we handle it?

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 8 1Q 2012

Creation Care

Before we get into this week's lesson I received the following email from an online listener regarding Sabbath ministry:

Dear Dr. Jennings,

In a recent Sabbath School class you asked the class to think of ways they might serve God in the community on Sabbath. My church, Wasatch Hills SDA in Salt Lake City, has a program started by a couple of its members called Inner-City Outreach (ICOR). Church members routinely clean out their closets and bring clothing items in good condition to a collection bin in our church coat closet. During the winter months - we have about 7 of them! - these items are taken to the city park nearest to the homeless shelter and given to the homeless. Some people choose to contribute monetarily, and these funds are used to buy new items (backpacks, thermal underwear, coats, warm head coverings and Bibles), which are also given away. Some have even conducted their own coat drives or clothing drives at their places of business or among their circle of friends to help collect needed items.

Volunteers (typically 15-25) from the church distribute items along with a smile, prayers, cookies and hot chocolate over the course of a couple of hours on Sabbath, following our morning worship services. Volunteers meet to sort the items into bins the day before distribution, which is in itself a time for sharing and getting to know each other better. The sorting makes for much easier organization and distribution, and helps better serve those looking for items. There are typically one or two planned distributions each month, allowing time for additional items to be collected and volunteers to be coordinated.

This mission has not only helped serve our community, but has been an invaluable lesson in humility for participants. The first time someone who hasn't bathed in a few days wants to give you a hug as an expression of heartfelt gratitude can be uncomfortable, but it's not long before you're the one offering the hug!

This Sabbath "work" comes with a huge paycheck: the opportunity to experience love, mercy, compassion, charity and understanding in action! God has blessed ICOR, and through ICOR we are blessed.

I thank God for you and your ministry. You have liberated my love for our wonderful God!

Sincerely,

Earl Harris

Thoughts?

SABBATH

Read first two paragraphs, "What should we..."

First question, should SDAs and Christians of other faiths, have different perspective on the environment?

If so why? What makes a difference in how we understand our responsibility to the environment?

What do you understand our responsibility, as stewards to the earth, to be?

Is the earth there for our use? For what purpose?

- Air, water, and food for our health and life

- But what food? Fruits, nuts, grains and vegetables are a given
- What about dairy? Goat's and Cow's Milk, cheese, eggs?
- What about fish?
- What about raising animals for the purpose of killing them and eating them? Are there reasons not to do this? In Eden did they? Are there reasons to do it?
 - What about raising flocks in the Bible for food and for sacrifice?
 - Weren't the priests to eat the sacrificial animals?
 - Why? Was it God's original design? Then why did God have them do this?
 - Symbolically to teach internalizing Christ – but could there be other reasons?
 - Did you ever hear about the plane crash in the Andes in 1972? The survivors were stranded at over 11000 feet for over two months, with no food, so they survived by eating the dead humans. What do you think of this? While it was a necessity, would you expect them to, on some level, be sickened by it?
 - What about eating animals, should we have a similar reaction? It might, in certain situations, be a necessity, but should we relish it, or perhaps be sickened by it?
- What about harvesting trees to build houses? To use for firewood, paper, furniture? In Eden did they do this?
 - Why do we find ourselves destroying trees to make furniture, houses, paper and the like?
 - Is it because of sin? Has sin changed the environment?
- How has the environment changed because of sin?

Here is one Bible commentators view on the change after sin and why God provided clothing:

- After his transgression Adam at first imagined himself entering upon a higher state of existence. But soon the thought of his sin filled him with terror. The air, which had hitherto been of a mild and uniform temperature, seemed to chill the guilty pair. The love and peace which had been theirs was gone, and in its place they felt a sense of sin, a dread of the future, a nakedness of soul. The robe of light which had enshrouded them, now disappeared, and to supply its place they endeavored to fashion for themselves a covering; for they could not, while unclothed, meet the eye of God and holy angels. {PP 57.1}

- In humility and unutterable sadness they bade farewell to their beautiful home and went forth to dwell upon the earth, where rested the curse of sin. The atmosphere, once so mild and uniform in temperature, was now subject to marked changes, and the Lord mercifully provided them with a garment of skins as a protection from the extremes of heat and cold. {PP 61.5}

Did it become necessary, because of sin, to use animals for clothing? To use trees for shelter, heat, furniture? And what about food? Did the food supply change after the fall?

Are these changes healthy and good, or while they allow adaptation, do they also bring destruction?

How do these changes bring destruction?

Trees, and other plants provide oxygen we need to survive, filter the air from pollutants and provide food for animals and humans. What happens if we remove large amounts of trees from the earth? Could it affect our atmosphere and if we go far enough could it kill the planet?

What about eating animals – while, it might allow survival in some situations, what are the downsides?

- Increased cancers

- Increased cardiovascular disease
- Increased autoimmune diseases

How many remember hearing about H1N1 flu?

The N – stands for a marker on the surface of cells, in this case a sugar marker Sialic acid, Neu5Gc.

Markers like this are identifiers that help our bodies immune system identify self from non-self, and can also act as hooks or latches upon which molecules can attach to enter cells.

What is interesting is that humans have the gene for this marker, but the gene is turned off so human cells do not make this marker or express it on our cells, even though we have the gene for it. All animals express the gene and make this marker, while humans do not.

But because we have the gene for this marker when we eat meat this marker gets incorporated into human tissue and expressed on human cells, which can contribute to immune problems, plus make us more susceptible to certain pathogens.

Thoughts?

Does nature today represent accurately the way God created things? Here is what one Bible commentator suggests, do you agree?

- Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Matt. 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. {2SM 288.2}

Do you believe this to be true? What problems may arise from failing to recognize nature today doesn't represent God's original design, but instead is infected with an antagonistic principle?

- Misunderstand God and His principles
- Fail to believe God exists – evolutionism
- Create false theologies of eternal dualism, the eternal existence of good and evil
- Who wants good and evil to exist eternally?
- What religions teach the eternal existence of good and evil?

Thoughts?

Still talking about how the earth is changed, not only the existence of poisonous plants, but also storms, and what is the source of coal and oil?

At this time [flood] immense forests were buried. These have since been changed to coal, forming the extensive coal beds that now exist, and also yielding large quantities of oil. The coal and oil frequently ignite and burn beneath the surface of the earth. Thus rocks are heated, limestone is burned, and iron ore melted. The action of the water upon the lime adds fury to the intense heat, and causes earthquakes, volcanoes, and fiery issues. As the fire and water come in contact with ledges of rock and ore, there are heavy explosions underground, which sound like muffled thunder. The air is hot and suffocating. Volcanic eruptions follow; and these often failing to give sufficient vent to the heated elements, the earth itself is convulsed, the ground heaves and swells like the waves of the sea, great fissures appear, and sometimes cities, villages, and burning mountains are swallowed up. These wonderful manifestations will be more and more frequent and terrible just before the second coming of Christ and the end of the world, as signs of its speedy destruction. {PP 108.2}

Thoughts? If the vast organic deposits didn't originally exist buried in the earth, then did God create earth with oil and coal deposits? Were there volcanoes on earth when God built it? What about earthquakes and fractured tectonic plates that shift? Oceans? Tidal waves? Polar extremes? Uninhabitable mountains like Mt. Everest?

What do you think about the use of fossil fuels? Should we use them for our comfort and convenience? Is it sinful to use these products because they emit carbons?

The vast forests buried in the earth at the time of the Flood, and since changed to coal, form the extensive coal fields, and yield the supplies of oil that minister to our comfort and convenience today. These things, as they are brought to light, are so many witnesses mutely testifying to the truth of the word of God. {Ed 129.2}

What lessons are we learning from the earth? Do we see harmony between the Biblical record and the large coal and oil deposits? And what do we learn from the way humans exploit the earth?

What about God's methods? What about breaking God's design? What happens when God's design is violated?

Given we live in a world of sin, which by definition means God's law is being violated, can we do anything to stop the decay and slow death of the earth?

Then what should be the number one focus of our ministry?
Revealing the truth about God in every manner possible, including the way we live!

SUNDAY

The lesson describes people who go into restaurants and steal lobsters and loose them in the sea.

Read sixth paragraph, “All of which...” thoughts?

Should we spend time focusing on saving the planet?
What about promoting a healthy environment? What is the difference between promoting a healthy environment and working to “save the planet?”

Why is it appropriate to promote a healthy environment, but not appropriate to focus on saving the planet?

A healthy environment is essential to maximize brain health and a healthy brain is necessary to know God.

The planet in its current form cannot be saved, it is dying as it is infected with Satan’s principles. Only God can heal us and planet earth, thus our primary focus is to be on all activities which promote the truth about God and bring people a knowledge of Him.

And unhealthy environment damages the brain and obstructs the ability to know God and work usefully for Him.

Examples:

- Lead in paint has caused numerous children to have mental retardation – eliminating this allows children to have healthier brains, thus healthier lives and also the ability to more effectively come to know God and work for Him

- Air pollution increases disease, a diseased body undermines brain health, but also impairs our usefulness in God's cause
- Water pollution causes health problems, and health problems undermine usefulness and ability to help others
- Other examples?

MONDAY

Caring for creation – does our view of God impact how we relate to creation? How?

If we view ourselves as created in God's image, to reveal God's character, and view God as Jesus who did not think equality with God was to be grasped but humbled Himself to save us, and the earth as a microcosm in which mankind stands in for God and all other life is symbolic of God's creatures, would we slaughter animals for food, if there was any other option?

If we view God like a Roman emperor, who is to be served by others and others are to sacrifice to benefit the emperor, might we view all of earth's resources for our privileged pleasures?

Read fourth paragraph, "These problems are largely due..."

If we live this way what do we say about God?

As we become like Jesus do we become less selfish and more protective of others? What about animals, how do we treat animals if we become more like Jesus? How big is the gap between Jesus pre-incarnate and humanity? How far down did Jesus step to become human? Would it be a bigger gap than if we became a rat?

What do you think of this commentator's thoughts?

It is because of man's sin that "the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together" (Romans 8:22).

Suffering and death were thus entailed, not only upon the human race, but upon the animals. Surely, then, it becomes man to seek to lighten, instead of increasing, the weight of suffering which his transgression has brought upon God's creatures. He who will abuse animals because he has them in his power is both a coward and a tyrant. {2MCP 514.2}

A disposition to cause pain, whether to our fellowmen or to the brute creation, is satanic. Many do not realize that their cruelty will ever be known, because the poor dumb animals cannot reveal it. But could the eyes of these men be opened, as were those of Balaam, they would see an angel of God standing as a witness to testify against them in the courts above. A record goes up to heaven, and a day is coming when judgment will be pronounced against those who abuse God's creatures.--PP 443 (1890). {2MCP 514.3}

Thoughts?

So, what is the principle you are hearing? What are we to be doing? Conserving and protecting God's creatures?

- Then what about culling deer populations so they don't over populate and thus starve to death? Satanic cruelty, or Godly mercy?
- What about using mice and rats in lab experiments to develop treatments for disease? Satanic cruelty, or Godly mercy?
- What about industrial farms raising animals in cages to slaughter for furs or food? Satanic cruelty or Godly mercy?

TUESDAY

Read first paragraph, "The issue of the..."

What are the Bible principles?

- Love others more than self
- Sacrifice self to help others
- Seek to protect not exploit
- Build up not tear down
- Truthfulness
- Loyalty
- Freedom

How do these principles relate to the environment?

- Do we dump toxic waste unsafely or illegally to make more money?

WEDNESDAY

Read Proverbs 27:20 at the top – what do you understand this to mean?

Read second paragraph, “In other words...” thoughts?

In the movie matrix – Mr. Smith said to Morpheus that humans were a virus, taking and not giving anything, and that humans were destroying the planet, a disease that needed to be cured. What do you think?

Now sin has marred God's perfect work, yet that handwriting remains. Even now all created things declare the glory of His excellence. There is nothing, save the selfish heart of man, that lives unto itself. No bird that cleaves the air, no animal that moves upon the ground, but ministers to some other life. There is no leaf of the forest, or lowly blade of grass, but has its ministry. Every tree and shrub and leaf pours forth that element of life without which neither man nor animal could live; and man and animal, in turn, minister to the life of tree and shrub and leaf. The flowers breathe fragrance and unfold their beauty in blessing to the world. The sun sheds its light to gladden a thousand worlds. The ocean, itself the source of all our springs and fountains, receives the streams from every land, but takes to give. The mists ascending from its bosom fall in showers to water the earth, that it may bring forth and bud. {DA 20.2}

Thoughts? Are humans diseased? Yes, and what is the cure? Jesus Christ – how?

Read bottom green section – thoughts?

Did Sabbath keeping prevent the Jews from being greedy and wanting more and more?

THURSDAY

Read top section, “And God said...”

Question in the lesson, “How complete was humanity’s control over the earth to be?”

Thoughts?

- What might it have been like before sin?
- Did Adam have control over inanimate nature?
- Could he by thought affect weather?
- In the book of Job, do we have any evidence that Satan can affect weather?
- Might Adam had that control before turning it over to Satan?

FRIDAY

Read and discuss questions 1-3

Glimpses of Our God Lesson 9 1Q 2012

The Bible and History

Thoughts about the Title?

SABBATH

Read first three paragraphs, “Is human history...”

Great point that just because God works through history doesn't mean He causes all that happens.

Is there a difference to you whether God causes something, or whether He allows something?

- If a person has kidney failure and refuses dialysis, and you know they will die, but you respect their choice and allow them to die, even though you have a dialysis machine that you could use to keep them alive, is the same thing as you taking a gun and shooting them?
- If God allows the wicked to die as a result of sin, is that the same as God executing them?
- Does it make a difference to differentiate what God allows versus what God actually does?

Do Bible writers always make this distinction clear?

Here are examples of God allowing things to happen, but the Bible sometimes makes it sound like God is causing it:

- Hardening Pharaoh's heart
- Saul's death

And God's wrath is when He allows us to reap the results of our choice to reject Him, but too many theologians have also made it sound like God's wrath is something He inflicts.

Have you ever struggled with what has happened in history, including the history of your life?

SUNDAY

Read second paragraph, “The circular...” thoughts?

What do you think the lesson is alluding to in this paragraph?

Ancient cultures such as Incan, Mayan, Hopi, and other Native American Tribes, as well as the Babylonians, Ancient Greeks, Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism believe in a wheel of time, that regards time as cyclic and over great periods of time life is relived with repeating ages that happen to every being in the Universe.

The Bible teaches a linear time line.

What is the significance to realize life is linear?

- Choices today change the course of our lives
 - Different choices result in different lives/outcomes
 - Marry a different person, have different children
 - Go to different school have different friends, maybe different career, maybe different spouse
 - Be late to work on September 11, 2001...
- No redo’s
