Justification	Setting man's heart right with God	Declaring man legally right with God
Judgment by God	Diagnosis, therapeutic interventions, pronouncement of natural result	Legal finding and determination of arbitrarily imposed punishment
Forgiveness	The experience of God freely forgiving AND the sinner repenting, resulting in actual reconciliation	Legal pardon, because of a legal payment
Salvation	The experience of trusting God and accepting Jesus Christ into the heart, which results in healing and restoration to God's original ideal	Legally accepting Jesus' blood payment and having "pardon" entered into heaven's record books
Atonement	Being at-one with God	Appeasement, paying legal penalty
Satisfaction	God being satisfied with Christ perfectly completing his mission to reveal the truth and provide the Remedy which restores humans back into God's perfect ideal	God receiving legal payment of His Son's blood to "satisfy" His demand for retribution
Justice	Delivering the oppressed	Punishing the oppressor
Vengeance	Healing the damage caused by sin, i.e. destroying sin and its results	Punishing sinners for their crimes
Wrath	Letting go to reap the natural results of one's choice	Infliction of external pain, suffering, and punishment
Anger	God's rage at sin and outrage at the damage caused to the object of His love (like a doctor angry at disease but never the sick patient) and the letting go to receive what a non-compliant patient chooses	God's outrage at how He has been treated, His incensed and hostile response to violations of His law and disrespect toward Him and the infliction of punishment for such disobedient behavior
Heavenly Records	The exact transcript of each individual character (like medical records) documenting the true heart condition of each person, and the history of the Remedy offered and either applied or rejected with its results	A legal tally of every sin committed and accurate notation of each crime confessed and notated pardon by each act as the blood of Jesus is applied to the heavenly transcript
