

God And Your Church 1: Growing Up in Christ - The Seven Levels of Moral Decision Making

written by Tim Jennings, M.D. | November 14, 2013

Audio Only Your browser doesn't support audio.
Please download the file:

MP3 \(38 MB\) PowerPoint PPTX \(1.7 MB\)

How do you determine what is right and wrong (moral decision making)? Do you look to a higher authority, like as parent, teacher, political leader, pastor, priest, or deity? Do you look for consensus among peers, or perhaps a code of rules or system of established laws? Or do you have another standard? In this lecture we will examine seven levels of moral decision making, identifying a progression from more childlike perspectives to maturity.