

The Harvest Show: Could It Be This Simple?

written by admin | May 22, 2008

This is one of the first, non-SDA affiliated TV shows Dr. Jennings was invited to be on to discuss his new book, Could It Be This Simple? The show was broadcast live from the studios of LeSea Broadcasting Networks' WHME, TV 46, South Bend, IN, in 2008.

As such, the quality is poor due to the analog technology and limited internet bandwidth of the day.
