HEALING THE MIND

CHATTANOOGA

Timothy R. Jennings, M.D., Katie McPherson, Ben Bost, and Come and Reason Ministries presented an informative and inspiring one-day seminar designed to improve your life and help you positively impact the lives of others! As you watch this seminar, you'll gain proven strategies for developing a healthier mind, better decision-making skills, and happier relationships, while learning to overcome toxic environments, sexual abuse, codependency, media and technology saturation, and more. This life-changing event also highlighted the principles needed to bring God's healing to your heart and mind, to vanquish fear from your life, and empower you to harness your mental powers to become thinkers, capable of discerning the healthy from the unhealthy, the right from the wrong, and to direct your life into ever healthier levels of functioning.
